TO THE RICHT EXCELLENT RICHT

HEICH AND MIGHTIE PRINCE IAMES THE SEXT

KING OF SCOTTIS, ZOVR HVMBLE SVBIECTIS THE COMMISsionares of the Kyrkes of your Realme, with grace and peace with a prosperous raigne, from GOD the Father, through our Saviour

IESVS CHRIST.

VRe deutie craues at al occasiōes to halde zour Hienes in remembrance of things pertaine to the aduancement of Gods glorie and wel of his Kyrk, querwith is ioyned the preservation of zour estate and haile body of this common welth. For aboute the common sort of Princes, (qha for the moit part are ather ennemies to true religion, or elles think that the melling therwith troublis thair estate, and are greatlie mouit with the wickit Herode, Math. 2. quhen thay heare the wisemen seeking for Christ to adore him as a King) ze are of Gods louing mereie callit to this honour and dignity to be mainteinar of Gods eternall trueth, and mutually to be mainteinit by the same: in sik sort, that in all troubles and commotionis that ony tyme thir xij yeres past haue disquietit zour common weill, twa thingis haue euer bene annexit together and made as it were ane querel & ane cause: to wit, the maintenance of Christis Euangel, and defence of your royal estate. So that for the maist part thay that haue bene ennemies to the richt religion haue bene ennemies likewise to zour autoritie and crowne: as be the contrary the maist feruent fauoraris of Gods trueth, haue euer bene founde maist faithful subiectis vnto zour Maiestie, and mainteinaris of zour weillfare and estate. And in this respect (no doubt) hes the Eternal at many tymes quhen materis appearit almaist desperate in mennis eyes, grantit maruelous successe & notable victories to thame quha sustenit zour querel againis þ greater forces, craftie & balde interprises of the aduersares of the same quha althocht many of thame outwardly professit the same religion, zet gif thair attemptatis had come to effect, it sulde haue bene the moyen to suppress the same, and to erect superstition and idolatrie againe in place thereof, quhilke our God walde not suffer, bot rather faucht be his awne power aganis thame, as wel for preseruatiō of his trueth reueilit of his great mercie amangis vs, as of zour Hienes persone and estate to be aduancer thereof in time to come. Quhilkin dede, Sir, is na smal honour vnto zou, to haue Gods cause and zouris salinkit together, and is ane euident taken and iestimonie, that salang is zour princelie estate able to stand in al stabilitie quhow lang the puritie of religion & libertie of Christis Kirk sal be carefully kepit & mainteinit be zou. Then gif oft times princes haue done many thingis for thair freindis and confederatis, & namelie sik as haue bene with thame in like danger & hazarde of tynning or winning, quhow mekle mair sal it become zour Hienes to refuse na trauailes for þ cause of Christis kirk and true religion presontlie sa mixit with zour awne estate, that baith haue the self same friendis and vnfriendis, and are baith appearand to abide together the like danger to fall or to stand. Herefore we were mekle to be blamit and worthie to be accusit of neglecting our dewtie gif we sulde not from time to time (as oportunitie beis offrit) stirre vp, and labour to promoue zour gude minde in sa wuorthie and necessarie a cause, whilkis, forther & forther to aduance the libertie of the Gospel and spiritual bigging of the Kirk of God, be quhome ze are promotit & mainreinit in this zour princelie estate, to be mutually to zour power promotare and mainteinar of his glorie. And specially now quhe as being couenit in our generall assemble, this holy boke of God callit the Bible, newly imprentit, was brocht before vs be the prenter thereof Alexander Arbuthnot (a man quha hes taken great paines and trauailes worthie to be remembered in this behalfe) and desyrit to be dedicate to zour Hienes with a conuenient preface in our common Scottis language we colde not omit nor neglect the occasion offrit to do the same: Exhorting zou maist earnestlie, Sir, to consider to quhat place zour God hes callit zou, and to remember diligentlie quhow the setting forth and autorising of this buke chiefly pertainis to zour charge. Trueth it is that the godly (men of the nation of England for the maist part) banishit frō thair countrie for the Gospelis cause and conuenit at Geneva, quha did faithfullie and lernedlie translate this buke out of the pure fontainis of þ Hebrew & Chaldaic & Greke tongues aucht to haue thair awne praise for thair labouris bestowit to the common weill of thame that speake our language. Zet for al mekle as thingis anis weill begunne craue & require great diligence to preserue thame from decay after that with great laboris thay haue bene brocht to perfection, ane great part of the honor of aduancing this worke pertainis vnto zou: be quha is autoritie it was of a certaine time bypast ordainit that this holy buke of God sulde be set forthe and imprentit of newe within zour awne realme, to the end, that in euerie paroch kirk there sulde be atleast ane thereof kepit to be callit the commoun buke of the kirke, as a maist mete ornament for sika place and a perpetuall register of the worde of GOD the fontaine of all true doctrine, to be made patent to all the people of euerie congregation as the only richt rule to direct & gouerne thame in materis of religiō as all swato cōferme thame in the truth receauit and to reſorme and redreſſe corrupcion es quhen ſoeuer they may crepe in. Certaine lie we haue great occaſion baith to glorifie the gudenes of God toward this cuntrie, and alſo heich ly to extol and commend zour Hienes moſt godlie purpoſe and enterpriſe. O quhat difference may be ſene betwene thir daies of light quhen almaiſt in euerie priuate houſe the buike of Gods lawe is red and vnderſtand in oure vulgaire language and that age of darkenes quhen ſkarlie in ane haill citie (without the cloſtres of monkes and freires) culde the buike of God anes be founde, and that in ane ſtrange tongue of latine not gud but mixed with barbaritie, vſed and red be ſewe, and almaiſt vnderſtand orexponit be nane. And quhen the falſe namit clergie of this realme abuſing the gentle nature of zour Hienes maiſt noble Gudſhir of worthie memorie made it ane cappital crime to be puniſhit with the fyre to haue or rede the new teſtament in the vulgare language, zea, and to make them to almen mare odius as gif it had bene the deteſtable name of a pernicious ſecte, they were named new teſtamentares., Verely gif we wolde wey thir matters aright, men ſulde nether ſo aduance the time paſſed nether zit accuſe this preſent age, quhen this only ſpiritual comfort of Gods worde aucht iuſtly to be preferrit to al the vaine worldlie welth of the zeires paſt before: but rather with moſte thankſul heartes praife and extol the infinite gudnes of our God quha hes counted vs worthie to quhome he ſulde open ſie ane heauenly treaſure, and raiſid vs vp the Heroical ſpirits of princes, and namely of zour grace; for the outſetting of the ſame. Quharefore ſeing it hes pleaſit the gudnes of our God to ſchawe ſie fauore and beneuolence toward zour Hienes and this zour coutrie that now the truth of the Euangel is frelietruilie and ſincerlie preachit throughout al places vnder zour ſubiection, of verie dutie the nixt care and ſtudie aucht to be howe this deuine warke may mare and mare be fortherit and performit and alſo mainteinit and continuit that the puritie of religion may lang time remaine amongs vs, to the comfort of this preſent age, and of al poſteritis to come. And ſamekle the rather that the neglecting of this point in other places hes bene ne occaſion that moſte notable and happie beginnings hes oft times not taken ſie end and ſucceſſe as appearantlie miſht haue followit gif the like prouiſion had bene made for continuance as panes & trauels were taken for planting of true religion. Bot as the errors of others may make vs circumspect fauld the rare and ſingular benifites of God laity ſhawn to this realme incurage zour Hienes & zour hail ſubiects in hope that this notable & excellent worke of the ſpiritual edifying of þ houſe of God ſhal take gud ſucceſſe and happie end in zour hands, for ſence the time it pleaſit God to deuolue the gouernement of this realme and care of eſtabliſhing his kirk in zour perſone being then bot ane infant of tender age, continually ſie ſucceſſe hes followit that not without iuſt cauſe the mindes of mony are erected in that expectation that God ſall ſome day yſe zou as ane inſtrumēt to performe greater thinges for the welſaire of his Kirk, then ether we wil preſently vter, or be naturall reaſon can be made probable. We omit now to ſpeake how miraculoſlie the truth of Gods worde wes firſt ſawin in this cuntrie be feble & weak instruments, or larglieto dilate how mercifullie thinges were brought to paſſe without great inconuenient or cruel bludſhed, and how the libertie of the Euangel hes bene ſo gratioſlie granted to vs without ony extreme harme and damage, quhilk other great & potent nationes thir mony zeires with extreme troubles and fearful battels to the great loſe of their lifes and gudes, hes lang ſocht for, and zit neuer fully obtened nether minde we at this preſent to declare how wonderfullie zour grace hes bene preſeruit euin from zour conception and birth to this day, how happelie factiones & controuerſies concerning zour royal eſtate haue bene ſetled and extinguished, and ſhortly how mony and notable workes aboue all worldlie expectation interpriſit in zour moſt happie name haue bene brought to lukkit end and gud effect, the fauore & bleſſing of God continualie following them with better ſucceſſe then men durſt other hope for or deſyre. Thir things and mony others mare particulare (the ample diſcours wherof we remitte vnto the histories) as they teſtifie vnto vs the bontiful gudnes of God, baith toward your maiestie and this realme, ſo aucht they to ſtirre vp all hartes to thankfulnes, and cherfullie in curage zou to paſſe fordward in this great worke of reformation of religion and beilding the ſpiritual temple of the Lord. The fundation wherof being already laide by publiſt vniuerſal preaching of true doctrine throuhout the haile realme, it reſteth that the worke may be proſecute and the building brocht to ane gud perfection by eſtabliſhing of diſcipline and mete policie in the kirk of God, not taken out of the Ciſternes of traditiones of men, bot of the pure fontanis of Gods haly worde. Quhilk thing wiſlie begunne in zour Hienes name be zour firſt Regent of godlie memorie, and ordeined be act of parliament to be followit forthe, hes bene deligitly preaſſed for, fro time to time, bot eſpecialy now ſence þ acceptatiō of þ gouernemēt in zour owne perſone: quhē as not onely maſt louingly & willingly ye did reſaue þ boke of þ policie of the kirk offred by the quha were direct to zour maiestie in name of þ general kirk, bot alſo wes very cairful to finde out mē mete for conſerence vpō the heads of þ ſame, lamēt ing for the raritie of ſic kynde of perſones as were deſyred to cōſere thereupō, & hes appoited diuers times & places where ſik cōferēcis in zour name & at your cōmandement haue bene had, not without fruct & agrement in mony heades ny heads to be passed in lawes, but wth expectation of greater things after to followe vpon forthet conference, providing sic meh be appointed thereto as zour Hienes wissit, and we maist earnestly craue quharinto we dour not of zour awingud wil as of before, for it suld be but trauel losit quhat soeuer hes bene hitherto bestowed tharein, gif the worke sal not be followed furth, and brocht to god shew and end. Quhareunto we exhort zour grace maist effecteously, for nathing can be found mare proper & ganand quharein ane Christiane prince of sic expectation as ze are, suld giue a true prufe of the gude & sound affection quhilke beares to the auancement of Gods glorie, and of the Kingdome of Iesus Christ. Truth it is that Satan ceases not nether wil cease hteafter to obiekt mony and great impedimentes to the hinderance of this Godlie intorprise of bringing the spiritual beilding of the house of God to perfection, quwilke we alwaies are in gud hope (adioyning thereto our continual praieris) zour gud and heroik zeale fall ouercome, albeit not without sum hard difficulties and werisome lattis, euen of them quha aucht of dewtie to put thair handis to this warke. We rede in this buik quhow mony & diffcil impedimentis were offrit to Zorobabel and the Iewes to stoppe the biging and repating of the temple of Ierusalem. Sumetyme they were expresly contramandit be the edictis of the great monarche, Sometimes be the threatning of thair aduersaires round about them. Sumetime be domestical enemies, hypocritis craftie warldlings and oppressoris of thair brethren, Zit againis all thir the Prophet opponis the commandement of God and promise of his assistance to perfurme the warke. The lyke or rather greater impedimentis be obiekt this day, againis the spritual beilding of Gods house. The Kingis and great monarchies of the earth threaten wrake and destruction to all them that fall melle with this warke. The false namit Kirkmen that pretend to be biggares vp, demolish it, and gif they had power, wold cast downe to the ground, as thair wickit consperacie concludit at Trent dois specifie. In quhat couldnes the former zeale of mony is now changit, zea, quhat carelesnes of maters of Religion in all estates it may mare then euidently appeare. The insatiable couetyse of euericane to apply & appropriat to them selues, the common rentes of the kirk, dois ouerrulie declare quhat conscience mē haue, (and specially the greitest, quhose antecessores liuit more honorablie vpon thair awin) to be manifest transgressores in dede, of that Religion quhilke in word to thair shame baldly they profess. And last of all, the manifest corruption of our liues in all estates the licentious and Godles liuing of the multitude, the impunitie of sinne and wickednes, the cruel and vnatural murderers heynous and detestable incestes, adulteries, sorceries, and mony siclike enormities, with the oppression and contempt of the pure allnaist vniuersal, corruption of iustice and iudgement, and mony other euils that ouerflowe this commonwelth, beare euident witnes how sklender & smal successe hitherto followit the reformation of religion within this realme. And do prouoke the iudgements of God, alace, ouerfore aganis vs. And zit nane of these impediments, na not they all conioynit together suld discouragē zour Hienes to go fordwart in this Godly warke anis begunne. bot the hope of Gods assistance, (quho is able to moue heauen and earth quhen pleases him) the promise of his presence and grace, and the happie end to followe aucht rather to inflame and raise vp zour royal heart mare constantlie to secht and ouercome all the lettes that Satan and his crafty supposts can deuise. It appeares weil that GOD hes chosen zou as a singulare instrument to be as a paterne and ensample to al other princes of zour time; in offring zou so faire occasiōes to put the Kirk of God to ful libertie, to purge it from corruption, to establish sic decent and comelie policie within the same as his word craues, and to provide for the lang during and perpetuitie thereof, seing it hes pleasit him to make zour grace from zour tender zouthhead to be brocht vp in the true knowlege and feire of his name: to make the pure doctrine of the Gospel in perfite vnitie without ony schisme or contrauersie to be planely & peccably publishit throuch all the boundes of zour dominion. And finallie to make this policie of the Kirk to be humblie and earnestly crauit to be establishit be zour Hienes be the maist parte of the true subiectes of zour realme. Sic preclare occasiōes aucht not to be omitted; remembring how all Kings are commandit to kisse and embrace the sonne of God and to be nurishers of his Kirk. Therefore aganis all impediments, propone & oppone the earnest zeale of Dauid quha could take no rest nor slepe vnto his eyes vntil he had found he place quhair the Lord suld haue his resting place amongis his people. Call for the wisdome of Salomon to indew zour grace with a principall Spirit as wel as in the outwarde policie, in aduaneing the spiritual policie of his Kirk. Imitate the seruēt faith of Iehoshaphat, putting his hail trust in the Lord, and beleuing his Prophetes. The diligence of Iehoaiah in reparing the house of the Lord. followe the Godly Ezechias in ruting out all monuments of Idolatrie, & depending fermlye upon the Lord. The faithful zong Iosiah, in making the buke of the Law of God lang time downe morit, and kept in silence: ze vtterly tynt and forgettin, to be publikly red, acceptit be the people, and recommendit to the posteritie. To sic diligence as this did the Prophetes Haggai, Zechari- & Malachi, exhort the princes of the Iewes. And schortly sic Godly interprises as they haue made the great Constantine, the gentle Gracian, the Codly Theodose, and sic others to be worthie of Eternal memorie & cōmendatiō. Nether is it ancuch to beginne weil, as did some Kings of Iuda & afterwart faintit in thair proceedingis: bothere chiefly is requirit constancie & perseuerance, w outshrinking til thīg is be brocht to an gud order, & stable estate. And a thing maist mete to make knowē quhat aucht to be ȝ principal studie of a Christiane prince, declarig quhow nether we zour natural subiectis, nether ȝ godly & faith ful of foralne natiōs haue in vaine sa lang lokit for some notable & excellent warke to procede frō zour Maiesties autorite for promoting of Gods glorie, & establisshing of his true religiō. The quhilk (na doubt) sal be an exceding honor and perpetual renome, that sal followe zour Hienes. All other glorie at last sal decay, and all cōmendation that resultes of other princely actes ather is not of lang indurance, or hes cōmonly mixit therewith, sik thing is as be alswa worthie of blame, bot the honor of this acte sal indure for euer, and sal be fully appreuit behim quhose iudgement can na wayis be bote equal and richt, quha is the Eternal Lord of lordis, & King of kingis, quhome with maist humble harte and instant prayer we beseik to blesse zour Maiestie with continual and daylie increse of his abundant blessingis, as weil spirituall as temporall, and to mainteine in welthie prosperitie

NOTE, that the Circle of the Sunne conteneth the space of 28. yeres complete, after the course of the Sunne. And it is called so, because in these 28. yeres all the varieties of the Sundayes lettre, and lepe yere takend: & thereafter returne to the same ordre.

The golden nombre conteneth the space of 19. yeres. So called by reason of the vtilitie therof in finding out the changeis and course of the moone. And the Epact (which serueth also for the course of the moone) procedeth by adding the numbre of 11. euery yere to the former Epact: And when you come to 30. complete you must beginne againe, as appeareth in the table.

Now if you wolde knowe the Sundayes lettre, Golden numbre, or Epact any yere before the 1579. yere, turne bace by the order of ether of these tables. As for exemple giue 19. of the circle of the Sunne, & the Sundayes lettre, e, and likewise 2. of the Golden numbre, and 22. of the Epact to the yere of our Lord 1578 And to the yere 1577 giue 18 of the Sunnes circle, the Sund. lettre f. The gold. numbre, i. The Epact, 11: & so consequently turning bace, till ye come to your yere which ye seeke.

Note also when it is lepe yere the lettre f, which is the 24. of Februarie, is twife counted, and then Febr. hath 29. dayes.

The Romanes begynne the yere at Ianuarie, but the Hebrewes beginne it at the moneth Nisan in Marche. And this instant yere 1579. they beginne the 27. day of Marche, as appeareth in the Calendare. As to the mouable feastes (as they are called) they are fund in the Hebr. Calendare, in their owne places: and therefore note no Almanak.

RULES FOR VNDERSTANDING of this double Calendre.

1. Besides the thinges conteined in the commune Romane Calendre, you haue in this, the rising and setting of the Sunne euerie day of the yere according to the altitude or elevation of the pole to 57 grees (which serueth for the principal partes of Scotland) whereof may be easilie gathered the iust length of dayes and nightes in this partes.

2. You haue also not only the episcie of the Sunne into ech of the xii Signes, but also the grees of the same euerie day, according to the equals or middle motions, which grees although they answere not in all exacte to the astronomical calculation, yet they may serue for a commune Calendre without any sensible erre. Marking alwayes that the Sunne kepeth a slower course in the Sommer signes then in the wynter.

3. And on the right hand, after the rowe of the Sunne setting you haue also one rowe of letters, according to the ordoure of the A. B. C. the which with the table beir above sheweth in what signe the moone is euerie day of the yere: according to her xii mansiones, which are also noted on the margin, at the left hand of this table: together with the qualities of ten mansiones, vnto which the inclination of the aire doth commonly agree. And on the right hand of the table are other certayne letters without the drawin lines, whereof the letters l. signified dayes: m. for letting of blood: p. for purging or evacuation: t. for letting of teares: g. for grafting: s. for saving of seedes: (and thus according to the season of the yere): To learn this better, you shall take this example: if ye wold knowe what signe the moone is in the first day of October 1579. yere: turne to the Calendre and you shall finde this letter, a. in the rowe of the signe of the moone right in the head of the table against the first day: keip a. in yournde, and come to the table and looke the golden nombre of your yere, which is 5. In the head of the table & you finde it in the third rowe, descend downe directly to the third rowe of the table till you get your letter, a. & ye will finde it in the end of the lower part of the table: And on the left hand as you sit, sove the margin you shall finde 5 signe of pisces, whereby ye knowe 5 mansiones to be in that signe, the day which ye looke to write, the first of October is the 5. And on the same left had also you shall finde write the number 26. for the mansiones of the moone situate in the 5. mansiones of pisces: & thus you shall declare the qualities of the 26. mansiones to be in pisces, or in any other. And on the right hand directly against the letter, a. ye shall finde the letter, l. without the lines, which signifieth that the moone is in the letting of blood. And this may ye practise in all others.

Of the golden nombre.

The first rowe of the Romane Calendre is placed the golden nombre, bre, which sheweth the day whereupon the Moone changeth euerie month and yere: And further it serueth.

To aggree the Hebrew Calendre with the Romane Calendre.

1. For the which it is to be vnderstand, that the Romane or Iuliane yere reckoned (after Iulius Caesar) to the course of the Sunne, containeth 365 dayes: and when it is lepe yere an more, but the commune yere of the Hebrewes reckoned after the course of the moone, containeth only 354 dayes, and so is lesse xi. dayes then the commune Romane yere. The which xi. dayes are commonly called the Epact. And in this Calendre are called Intercale dayes: because they are insert to aggree the dayes of the one Calendre with the other. Now by reason of this diuersitie, the beginning of the monethes, and also of the yere, are different. For the Hebrew Calendre beginneth not at Ianuarie, but at the Moneth Nisan, which commonly containeth an part of Marche and an part of Apryle, & yet flitteth alwayes yrlishte afore saide xi. olde dayes backwards or forwarde as the course of the moone goth.

2. In the yere of our Lord 1579 yeres (which is the first yere of this double Calendre) the Hebrew Calendre: & Nisan (the first moneth thereof) beginneth the 27. day of Marche, and so proceedeth by situation of the one Calendre directly against the other to the next Marche, and endeth the 15. day thereof in the yere 1580: as you may perceave by inspectione of the Calendre: Now to make the one Calendre aggree & answere to the other any other yere, ye must seeke the golden nombre of that other yere, where it is placed in the Romane Calendre, then marke the names of the Hebrew monethes, noted vpon the margine: Seke downe from the name of your moneth in the rowe, and whanloever you find the golden nombre, there beginneth the Hebrew moneth, the same day whereon the golden nombre is placed, if it haue the letter b. ioyned & following after it: but if it haue a. following it, the moneth beginneth the next day thereafter. But it is to be offered, that for Ianuarie & Februarie you must take the golden nombre of the yere following, & not of the instant yere which ye seke. To practise in the one or two examples it is easie. As if you wold seke in the yere of the Lord 1581. the beginning of the first moneth Nisan, & of the Hebrewes yere: see the golden nombre of that yere, and you find it to be 5. seke 5. in the rowe of the golden nombre in the Romane Calendre in Marche (wherein the moneth Nisan beginneth) after the name of Nisan noted vpon the margine directly downwards: And if you find it vpon the 5. day of Marche, with the letter b. which declareth the first day of Nisan, to be the same day in the 1581. yere proposed, & so consequentlie you may find out the rest of the Hebrew monethes, hauing respect to the golden nombre, and the name of each Hebrew moneth noted vpon the margine of the Romane Calendre. Another example: if ye wold seke the first day of the moneth Adar, (which is the 12. moneth) in the yere 1581: wherinto the golden nombre is 9. You shall finde the same golden nombre placed vpon the 9 day of Februarie with the letter b. And on the margin note, last, Adar, which declareth the beginning of the moneth Adar in the 1584, after the Romane calculation to be the selfe same day: And that to be the last day whereupon the beginning of the moneth Adar can fall. But it is to be noted, that after the reckoning of the Hebrewes (as also we observe in Scotland) Ianuarie and Februarie are ay referred to the yere preceding. And therefore this Adar is to be computed the last moneth of the 1584 yere & not of the 1585 yere after the Hebrewes. There is an other manner also:

To knowe by the Epact, not only the moneth, but also the day of the Hebrew moneth at any tyme.

The dayes of the age of the moone and the dayes of the Hebrew monethes are all one. And there is a commune and vulgare rule caule to learne to knowe them by the Epact, which although it kepe not exactlie at all tymes (for it supposeth euerie moone and moneth to haue 30 dayes) yet it may be reformed to serue after this sort: Beginne at Marthe, and loke what nombre the Epact of the yere is. Ioyne the nombre of the moneth of the Rom. Calendre to the Epact. And adde vnto both the nombre of the dayes of the Romane moneth, & of all make an summe, if it excede 30, take away 30. & the remanent sheweth the day of the Heb. moneth. But into Maye and Iulie ye must tak of an of this nombre: and in Februarie adde an more vnto. And if the Heb. moneth containe only 29 dayes, compute further then 29. And to knowe what moneth it is, you shall finde it noted on the margin in the Romane Calendre, (as was declared of before,) and the nombre of dayes of each moneth about, in the page of the Hebr. Calendre, for example of this compute, take the 6 day of Maye 1581. In which yere the Epact is 25, Adde vnto 25, for three moneths, 3, and, 6, for 6 dayes the summe is 34. Take away one of this nombre (because of Maye) so remaine 33. And againe take away 29, because Iar (the Hebrew moneth preceding) contained so many dayes. So remaine only 4 dayes, which is the day of the age of the moone, & of the moneth, to witte, the 4 day of Swan that yere. An other example. Seke the first day of Februarie, following the same yere, (which is after the Romane calculation 1582) The Epact is 23, the moneth is 12, the day one. These ioyned together, make 38. Adde another day (because of Februarie) it maketh 39. Take away 30, for the dayes of Shebat (the moneth preceding) there remaine 9, for the 9 day of the moneth Adar. Now if ye walde knowe by the contrarie, what day of the Rom. Calendre, answereeth to any day of the Hebrew Calendre: it is easie also, by the Epact. taking away onlie the Epact of the yere, and the nombre of the monethes of the Rom. Calendre, from the dayes of the Hebr. moneth. Except that you must remembre in Maye and Iulie to take away one also, and in Februarie one more.

The historial thinges of the Bible are placed into this Calendre, for such cause as you finde specified in the beginning therof: together with the festiues vsed by the people of Israel, according to the Law, vpon their owne proper dayes. Easter day also, & Vintifunday may be here fund in their owne place, what Sunday they fall euerie yere. So that you neede feke no other Almanake, but this Hebr. Calendre.

The change & full moone also, with the prime and quartanes, waxing & waning are fund into their owne proper places euerie moneth.

Of the shyning, going downe and rising of the moone.

And on the left hand in the first rowe of this Calendre you haue how many houres & min. the moone shyneth euerie night or day. Now knowing the tyme of the moone shyning, at any night, you may knowe also what tyme she setteth, or goeth downe, by adding the houres & minutes of her shyning, to the houres and minutes of the setting of the Sunne that night or euening, which ye will finde noted in the Rom. Calendre, it will declare to what houre she shyneth. As for example: the 16 day of November 1579 (which is the 8 day of the month Chislev) you finde the moone to shine 7 houres 12 minutes. Adde herunto (for the setting of the Sunne the same night) 3 houres 21 minutes, the whole summe is 10 houres 33 minutes, which is the tyme that the moone goeth downe that night. And this serueth to the full moone, but from the full moone, to knowe what houre of the night the moone riseth, compute many houres and min. backe from the Sunne rising (noted in the Calendre) as the moone shineth that night. As for example: the 6 day of Ianuarie 1580 yeres (which is the 10 of the moneth Tebeth) the Sunne riseth at 8 houres 25 minut. take from it 8 houres (which is the tyme the moone shineth) there remaine only 25 minut. which is the tyme the moone riseth after midnigh.

Of the filling of the Sea.

In the last rowe of the Hebr. Calendre, you haue the tyme of the full Sea, at Leith (the principal port of Scotland) reckoned euerie day likewise by the course of the moone, computing from 12 houres to 12, whether it be day or night. This manner of reckoning may also be easily applied to any other heauen or port: knowing ouce exactlie the tyme of the full Sea, at the change or hight of the moone.

Of the intercalare Moneth.

That no thing be omitted seruing for the vnderstanding of the Hebrew Calendre, it is to be noted, that the yere after the Hebrewes beydes the xii ordinarie monethes, sometyme hath an other odde moneth, (which the Latines call intercalare) and so hath in the whole xiii monethes. And this cometh to passe sometyme by the addition, sometyme by the subtraction of the variatie of the course of the moone from the Sunne. And this odde moneth sometyme hath 30, sometyme 29 dayes. Now to knowe what yeres haue this intercalare moneth, it is easie: if ye shall marke the beginning of the first moneth Nisan; For whensoever Nisan beginneth before the 14 day of Marche (which ye wil knowe by the Golden nombre) that yere hath an intercalare moneth: Which moneth (if you please) may be called seconde Adar: for it followeth euer the xii moneth Adar. And to knowe how many dayes it hath, any yere wherein it occurth: compute from the last day of Adar to the first of Nisan in the yere following, and you shall finde whether it hath 30 or 29 dayes. This much (to any one prolisite) for the vnderstanding of both these Calendares. All praise be to the Lord. Amen.

Of the incomparable treasure of the holy Scriptures, with a prayer for the true vse of the same.

Here is the spring where waters flowe, to quench our heate of sinne:
Here is the tree where truth doth grow,
to leade our liues therein:
Here is the Iudge that sinites the strife,
when mens deuises faile:
Here is the breade that feedes the life,
that death cannot assaile:
The tidings of saluation deare, comes to our eares from hence:
The fortresse of our faith is here,
and shield of our defence.
Then be not like the swyne that hath a pearle at his desire,

And takes more pleasure of the trough and wallowing in the myre.
Reade not this booke in any case,
but with a single eye:
Reade not but first desire Gods grace, to vnderstand thereby.
Prayful in faith with this respect,
to fructifie therein,
That knowledge may bring this effect,
to mortifie thy sinne.
Then happie thou in all thy life,
what so to the befallies:
Yea, double happie shalt thou be,
when God by death thee calles.

ding to his kinde, which I haue giuen his sede in it self vpon the earth. & it was so.

12. And the earth brought forth the budde

6 God then made two ^a great lightes; the greater light ^o to rule the day, and the lesse light to rule the night: [he made] also the starres.

7 And God set them in the firmament of the heauen, to shine vpon the earth.

8. And to rule in the day, & in the night:
and to separate the light from the dark-

21 Then God created the great whales, & euerie thing liuing & mouing, which the waters broght forth in abundance, according to their kinde, & euerie feathered foule according to his kinde: and God sawe that it was good.

22 Then God blessed them, saying, Bring forth the frute and multiplie, and fil the waters in the seas, and let the foule multiplie in the earth.

23 So the euening and the morning were the fift day.

24 Moreover God said, Let the earth bring forth the living thing according to his kinde, cattel, & that which crepeth, & the beast of the earth, according to his kinde, and it was so.

25 And God made the beast of the earth according to his kinde, and the cattel according to his kinde, and euerie creeping thing of the earth according to his kinde: & God sawe that it was good.

26 Furthermore God said, Let vs make man in our image according to our likenes, and let them rule ouer the fish of the sea, and ouer the foule of the heauen, and ouer the beastes, & ouer all the earth, and ouer euerie thing that crepeth & moueth on the earth.

27 Thus God created the man in his image: in the image of God created he him: he created them male and female.

28 And God blessed them, and God said to them, Bring forth the frute, and multiplie, and fil the earth, and subdue it, and rule ouer the fish of the sea and ouer the foule of the heauen, & ouer euerie beast that moueth vpon the earth.

29 And God said, Beholde, I haue giuen vnto you euerie herbe bearing sede, which is vpon all the earth, & euerie tree, wherein is the frute of a tree bearing sede: [that] shall be to you for meat.

30 Likewise to euerie beast of the earth, & to euerie foule of the heauen, & to euerie thing that moueth vpon the earth, which hath life in it selfe, euerie greene herbe [shall be] for meat: and it was so.

31 And God sawe all that he had made, & lo, it was verie good. So the euening and the morning were the sixth day.

CHAP. II.

1 God rethra the seventh day, for the creation of man in the garden. 24 He rethra the woman. 29 Marriage is ordained.

1 Thus the heuens and the earth were finished, & all the hoste of them.

2 For in the seventh day God ended his worke which he had made, & the seventh day he rested from all his worke, which he had made.

3 So God blessed the seventh day, & sanctified it, because that in it he had rested from all his worke, which God had created and made.

4 These are the generations of the heuens and of the earth, when they were created, in the day the Lord God made the earth and the heuens.

5 And euerie plant of the field, before it was in the earth, and euerie herbe of the field, before it grew: for the Lord God had not caused it to raine vpon the earth, neither [was there] a man to til the ground,

6 But a myst went vp from the earth, and watered all the earth.

7 The Lord God also made the man of the dust of the ground, and breathed in his face breath of life, and the man was a liuing foule.

8 And the Lord God planted a garden Eastward in Eden, & there he put man whom he had made.

9 (For out of the ground made the Lord God to growe euerie tree pleasant to the sight, and good for meat: the tree of life also in the middes of the garden, and the tree of knowledge of good and euil.

10 And out of Eden went a riuier to water the garden, and from thence it was diuided, and became into foure heades.

11 The name of one [is] Pishon: the same compasseth the whole land of Hauilah, where [is] golde.

12 And the golde of that land is good: the re [is] also bdelium, and the onix stone.

13 And the name of the seconde riuier [is] Gihon: the same compasseth the whole land of Cush.

14 The name also of the third riuier [is] Hiddekel: this goeth towarde the Eastside of Alshur: and the fourth riuier [is] Perath.

15 Then the Lord God toke the man, & put him into the garden of Eden, that he might dresse it, and kepe it.

16 And the Lord God commanded the man, saying, Thou shalt eat frely of euerie tree of the garden, 17 But as touching the tree of knowledge of good and euil, thou shalt not eat of it: for whensoever thou eatest thereof, thou shalt dye the death.

18 Also the Lord God said, It is not good that the man shoulde be him self alone: I will make him a helpe meete for him.

19 So the Lord God formed of the earth

Because mention is made in the tenth verse of this seconde chapter of the river that watered the garden, we muste note that Euphrates and Tygris called in Ebrews, Perath and Hiddekel, were called but one river where they ioyned together, els they had foure heades: that is, two at their springs, & two where they fel into the Persian sea. In this countrey and moste plentiful land Adam dwelt: And this was called Paradise, that is a garden of pleasure, because of the frutefulness and abundance thereof. And where as it is said that Fishon compasseth the land of Hauilah, it is meant of Tygris, which in some countreis, as it passed by diuers places, was called by sondry names, as some time Diglito, in other places Paltigris, and of some Phasin of Pashon. Likewise Euphrates towards the countrey of Cash or Ethiopis, or Arabia was called Gihon. So that Tygris and Euphrates (which were but two rivers, and sometime when they ioyned together, were called after one name) were according to diuers places called by these foure names, so that they might seme to haue bene foure diuers riuers.

¶ CHAP. III.

The woman seduced by the serpent, 8 Enticeth her husband to sinne. 14 They shal be punished. 15 Christ is promised. 19 Man is dust. 22 Man is cast out of paradise.

1 NOW * the serpent was more * subtil then anie beast of the field, which the Lord God had made: and he said to the woman, Yea, hath God in dede said, Ye shal not eat of euerie tree of the garden?

2 And the woman said vnto the serpent, We eat of the frute of the trees of the garden.

3 But of the frute of the tree which is in the mides of the garden, God hath said, Ye shal not eat of it, neither shal ye touch it, le ye dye.

4 Then * the serpent said to the woman, Ye shal not dye at all.

5 But God doeth knowe, that whē ye shal eat thereof, your eyes shalbe opened, & ye shalbe as Gods, * knowing good and euil.

6 So the woman (seeing that the tree was good for meat, and that it was pleasant to the eyes, & a tree to be desired to get knowledge) toke of the frute thereof, and did eat, and gave also to her husband which was with her, and he did eat.

7 Then the eyes of them bothe were opened, & they knewe that they were naked.

his hand, and take also of the tre of life, and eat, and liue for euer,

23 Therefore the Lord God sent him forth from the garden of Eden, to til the earth, whence he was taken.

24 Thus he cast out man, and at the East ende of the garden of Eden he set the Che-rubims, and the blade of a sword shakē, to kepe the way of the tree of life.

¶ CHAP. IIII.

1 The generation of mankind. 2 Kain killeth Habel.

3 Lamech a tyrant encourageth his fearful wiues. 4 True religion is restored.

1 Afterwarde the man knewe Heuāh his wife, which conceiued & bare Kain & said, I haue obtained a man by the Lord.

2 And againe she brought forth his brother Habel, & Habel was a keeper of shepe, and Kain was a tiller of the grounde.

3 ¶ And in proceffe of time it came to passe that Kain brought an oblation vnto the Lord of the frute of the grounde.

4 And Habel also him selfe brought of the first frutes of his shepe, and of the fat of them, & the Lord had respect vnto Habel, and to his offering.

5 But vnto Kain and to his offering, he had no regarde: wherefore Kain was exceeding wroth, & his countenance fel downe.

6 Then the Lord said vnto Kain, Why art thou wroth? and why is thy countenance cast downe?

7 If thou do wel, shalt thou not be accepted? and if thou doest not wel, sinne lieth at the dore: also vnto thee his desire [shal be subiect], and thou shalt rule ouer him.

8 ¶ Then Kain spake to Habel his brother.
And when they were in the field, Kain rose vp against Habel his brother, and slew him.

9 Then the Lord said vnto Kain, Where is Habel thy brother? Who answered, can not tel. Am I my brothers keeper?

10 Againe he said, What hast thou done?
the voyce of thy brothers blood cryeth vnto me from the grounde.

11 Now therefore thou art cursed from the earth, which hath opened her mouth to receiue thy brothers blood from thine hand.

12 When thou shalt till the ground, it shal not henceforth yelde vnto thee her strength.

THIS is the [†] booke of the generations of Adam. In the day that God created Adam, in the ^a likenes of God made he him:

2 Male and female created he them, and blessed them, and called their name ^b Adam in the day that they were created.

3 ¶ Now Adam liued an hundreth & thirtie yeres, and begate a childe in his owne ^c likenes after his image, and called his name Sheth.

4 * And the dayes of Adam, after he had begotten Sheth, were eight hundreth yeres, and he begate sonnes and daughters.

5 So all the dayes that Adam liued, were nine hundreth and thirtie yeres: and he died.

6 And ^d Sheth liued an hundreth and fi-

7 And Sheth liued, after he begate Enosh, eight hundreth and seuen yeres, and begate sonnes and daughters.

8 So all the dayes of Sheth were ^e nine hundreth and twelue yeres: & he dyed.

9 ¶ Also Enosh liued ninety yeres, & begate Kenan.

10 And Enosh liued, after he begate Ke-begate sonnes and daughters.

11 So all the dayes of Enosh were nine hundreth and fiue yeres: and he dyed.

12 ¶ Likewise Kenan liued seuentie yeres, and begate Mahalaleel.

13 And Kenan liued, after he begate Ma-halaleel, eight hundreth and forty yeres, & begate sonnes and daughters.

14 So all the dayes of Kenan were nine hundreth and ten yeres: and he dyed.

15 ¶ Mahalaleel also liued sixty & fiue ye-

16 Also Mahalaleel liued, after he begate Iered, eight hundreth and thirty yeres, &
begate sonnes and daughters.

17 So all the dayes of Mahalaleel were eight hundreth ninety and fiue yeres: & he dyed.

18 ¶ And Iered liued an hundreth sixty &

19 Then Iered liued, after he begate Hesonnes and daughters.

20 So all the dayes of Iered were nine hu-

21 ¶ Also Henoch liued sixty and fiue ye-

22 And Henoch ^f walked with God, after

¶ CHAP. VI.

3 God threateneth to bring the flood. 5 Man is altogether corrupt. 18 Noah is preferred in the Arke, which he was commanded to make.

1 SO when men began to be multiplied vpon the earth, & there were daughters borne vnto them,

2 Then the^a sonnes of God sawe the daughters^b of men that they were^c faire, & they toke them wiues of all that they liked.

3 Therefore the Lord said, My Spirit shal not alway^d striue with man, because he is but flesh, & his dayes shal be an^e hundreth and twentie yeres.

4 There were^f gyantes in the earth in those dayes: yea, and after that the sonnes of God came vnto the daughters of men, & they had borne them children, these were mightie men, which in olde time were men off renoume.

5 ¶ When the Lord sawe that the wickednes of man was great in the earth, and all the imaginations of the thoughts of his^g heart [were] onely euil continually.

6 Then it^h repented the Lord, that he had made man in the earth, and he was sorie in his heart.

7 Therefore the Lord said, I wil destroye from the earth the man, whome I haue created, from man^h to beast, to the creeping thing, & to the foule of the heauen: for I repent that I haue made them.

8 But Nôahⁱ founde grace in the eyes of the Lord.

9 ¶ These are the^j generations of Nôah. Nôah was a iuste and vpriht man in his time, [and] walked with God.

10 And Nôah begate thre sonnes, Shem, Ham and Iapheth.

11 The earth also was corrupt before God: for the earth was filled with^k crueltie.

12 Then God looked vpon the earth, and beholde, it was corrupt: for all flesh had corrupt his way vpon the earth.

13 And God said vnto Nôah, ¶ An end of all flesh is come before me: for the earth is filled with^l crueltie through them: & beholde, I wil destroye them with the earth.

14 ¶ Make thee an Arke of^m pine trees: thou shalt makeⁿ cabins in the Arke, & shalt pytch it within and without with pytch.

15 And thus shalt thou make it: The length of the Arke shalbe thre hundreth cubites, the breadth of it fiftie cubites, and the height of it thirtie cubites.

16 A window shalt thou make in the Arke, and in a cubite shalt thou finish it aboue, and the dore of the Arke shalt thou set in the side thereof: thou shalt make it with the^o lowe, second and third [roume].

17 And I, beholde, I wil bring a flood of waters vpon the earth to destroye al flesh, wherein is the breath of life vnder the heauen: all that is in the earth shal perish.

18 But with the wil I^p establish my covenant, & thou shalt go into the Arke, thou, and thy sonnes, and thy wife, and thy sonnes wiues with thee.

19 And of euerie liuing thing, of all flesh two of euerie sorte shalt thou cause to come into^q the Arke, to kepe [them] aliue with thee: they shalbe male and female.

20 Of the foules after their kinde, and of the cattel after their kinde, of euerie creeping thing of the earth after his kinde, two of euerie sorte shal come vnto thee, that thou maiest kepe [them] aliue.

21 And take thou with thee of all meat that is eaten: and thou shalt gather it to thee, that it may be meat for thee and for them.

22 *Nôah therefore did according vnto all, that God commanded him: [euen] so did he.

1 Noah and his entre into the Arke. 20 The flood destroyeth all the rest vpon the earth.

1 AND the Lord said vnto Noāh, Entre thou & all thine house into the Arke: for the haue I sene * a righteous before me in this age.

2 Of euerie ^b cleane beast thou shalt take to thee by seuens, the male and his female: but of vncleane beastes by couples, ^f male and his female.

3 Of the foules also of ^f heauen by seuēs, male and female, to kepe fede aliue vpon
the whole earth.

4 For seuen dayes hence I wil cause it raine vpon the earth fourtie dayes & forty nights, and all the substance that I haue made, wil I destroy from of the earth.

5 *Noāh therefore did according vnto al that the Lord had commanded him.

6 And Noāh [was] six hundred yeres olde, when the flood of waters was vpon the earth.

7 ¶ So Noāh entred and his sonnes, & his wife, and his sonnes wiues with him into the Arke, because of the waters of the flood.

8 Of the cleane beastes, & of the vncleane beastes, and of the foules, & of all that cre-peth vpon the earth,

9 There came two & two vnto Noāh into the Arke, male & female, as God had commanded Noāh.

10 And so after seuen dayes the waters of the flood were vpon the earth.

11 ¶ In the six hundred yere of Noāhs life in the ^d seconde moneth, the seuententh day of the moneth, in the same day were all the ^e fountaines of the great depe broken vp, & the windowes of heauen were opened.

12 And the raine was vpon the earth four-ty dayes and forty nights.

13 In the selfe same day entred Noāh with Shem, & Ham and Iapheth, the sonnes of Noāh, and Noāhs wife, and the thre wiues of his sonnes with the into the Arke.

14 They, and euerie beast after his kinde, and all cartel after their kinde, and euerie thing that crepeth and moueth vpon the earth after his kinde, [&] euerie foule after his kinde, [euen] euerie birde of eue-rie fether.

15 For they came to Noāh into the Arke, two and two, ^f of all flesh wherein is the breath of life.

16 And they entring in, came male and female of all flesh, as God had commanded him: and the Lord shut him in.

17 Then the flood was fourty dayes vpon the earth, and the waters were increased, and bare vp the Arke, which was lifte vp

18 The waters also waxed strong, and were increased exceedingly vpon the earth, and the Arke went vpon the waters.

19 The waters [†] preuailed so exceedingly vpon the earth, that all the high mountai-nes, that are vnder the whole heauen, were couered.

20 Fiftene cubites vpwarde did the waters preuaile, when the mountaines were co-uered.

21 *Then all flesh perished that moued vpon the earth, bothe foule and cartel and beast, & euerie thing that crepeth & moueth vpon the earth, and euerie man.

22 Euerie thing in whose nostrils the spirit of life did breathe, whatsoeuer they were in the drye land, they dyed.

23 So ^h he destroyed euerie thing that was vpon the earth, from man to beast, to the creping thing, & to the foule of the heauen: they were euen destroyed from the earth, and Noāh onely remained, & they that were with him in the Arke.

24 And the waters preuailed vpon ^f earth an hundred and fiftie dayes.

NOW God ^aremembred Noah and ^beuerie beast, and all the cattel that was with him in the Arke: therefore God made a winde to passe vpon the earth, & the waters ceased.

2 The fountaines also of the depe & the windowes of heauen were stopped, & the raine from heauen was restrained.

3 And the waters returned from about the earth, going and returning: and after the end of the hundreth and fiftieth day the waters abated.

4 And in the ^cseuenth moneth, in the ^dseuententh day of the moneth, the Arke rested vpon the mountaines of Ararat.

5 And the waters were going & decreasing vntil the ^etenth moneth: in the tenth moneth, & in the first day of the moneth were the toppes of the mountaines scene.

6 ¶ So ^fafter fourty dayes, Noah opened the windowe of the Arke, which he had made,

7 And sent forthe a ^grauen, which wet out going forthe and returning, vntil the waters were dried vp vpon the earth.

8 Again he sent a ^hdoue fro him, that he might see if the waters were diminished from of the earth.

9 But the doue founde no rest for the sole of her foote: therefore she returned vnto him into the Arke (for the waters [were] vpon the whole earth) & he ⁱput forthe his hand, & toke her, and pulled her to him into the Arke.

10 And he abode yet other seuen dayes, & againe he set forthe the ^jdoue out of the Arke.

11 And the doue came to him in the evening, & lo, in her ^kmouth [was] an ^lolive leafe that she had plucked: whereby Noah knewe that the waters were abated fro of the earth.

12 Notwithstanding he waited yet other seuen dayes, & sent forthe the ^mdoue, which returned not againe vnto him any more.

13 ¶ And in the sixe hundreth and one yere in the first [daie] of the ⁿfirst moneth the waters were dried vp from of the earth: & Noah removed the couering of the Arke & looked, & beholde, the vpper parte of the ground was drye.

14 And in the seconde moneth, in the seuen & twentieth day of the moneth was the earth drye.

15 ¶ Then God spake to Noah, saying,

16 ^oGo forthe of the Arke, thou and thy wife, & thy sonnes and thy sonnes wiues with thee.

17 Bring forthe with thee euerie beast that is with thee, of all flesh, both the foule and cattel, & euerie thing that creepeth & moueth vpon the earth, that they may breede abundantly in the earth, ^p& bring forthe frute and increase vpon the earth.

18 So Noah came forthe, and his sonnes, & his wife, & his sonnes wiues with him.

19 Euerie beast, euerie creeping thing, & euerie foule, all that moueth vpon the earth after their kindes went out of the Arke.

20 ¶ Then Noah ^qbuyt an altar to the Lord and toke of euerie cleane beast, & of euerie cleane foule, & offered burnt offerings vpon the altar.

21 And the Lord smelled a ^rsaour of rest, & the Lord said in his heart, I will henceforth curse the ground no more for mans cause: for the imagination of mans ^sheart [is] euil, [euil] from his youth: neither wil I smite any more all things liuing, as I haue done.

3 Euerie ^wthing that moueth & liueth, shal be meat for you: as ^xgrene herbe, haue I giuen you all things.

4 ^yBut flesh with the life thereof, [I meane,] wth the blood thereof, shal ye not eat.

5 ^zFor surely I wil require your blood, wherein your liues [are]: at the hand of euerie beast wil I require it: & at the hand of man, [euil] at the hand of a mans brother wil I require the life of man.

6 Whoso ^{aa}shedeth mans blood, ^{ab}by man shal his blood be shed: for in the ^{ac}image of God hath he made man.

7 But bring ye forthe frute and multiplie: growe plentifully in the earth, and increase therein.

8 ¶ God spake also to Noah & to his sonnes with him, saying,

9 Beholde, I euen I establish my ^{ad}couenant with you, and with your ^{ae}sede after you,

g Therefore to kill man is to defile Gods image, and so iniquitie is not onely done to man, but to God. h To assure you that the world shal be no more destroyed by a flood. i The children which are not yet borne, are comprehended in Gods couenant made with their fathers.

10 And with euerie liuing creature that is with you, with the foule, with the cattel & with euerie beast of the earth with you, from all that go out of the Arke, vnto euerie beast of the earth.

11 *And my couenant wil I establish with you, that from henceforth the all flesh shal not be rooted out by the waters of the flood, neither shal there be a flood to destroye the earth any more.

12 Then God said, This is the token of the couenant which I make betwene me and you, & betwene euerie liuing thing that is with you vnto perpetual generations, 13 I haue set my *powe in the cloude, & it shal be for a signe of ^{the} couenant betwene me and the earth.

14 And when *I shal couer ^{the} earth with a cloude, and the bowe shal be sene in the cloude, 15 Then wil I remeber my¹ couenāt, which is betwene me and you, & betwene euerie liuing thing in all flesh, and there shal be no more waters of a flood to destroy all flesh.

16 Therefore ^{the} bowe shal be in ^{the} cloude, ^{the} I may se it, & remeber the euermore couenant betwene God, and euerie liuing thing in all flesh that is vpon the earth.

17 God said yet to Nōah, ² This is the signe of the couenant, which I haue established betwene me and all flesh that is vpon the earth.

18 ¶ Now the sonnes of Nōah going forth of the arke, were Shem & Ham & Iapheth. And Ham is the father of Canaan.

19 These are the thre sonnes of Nōah, and of them was theⁿ whole earth ouerspred.

20 †Nōah also begā to be an housbād man and planted a vine yarde.

21 And he drōke of the wine & was^o drōken, & was vncovered in ^{the} middes of his tent.

22 And when Ham the father of Canaan sawe the nakednes of his father, ^{he} tolde his two brethren without.

23 Then toke Shem and Iapheth a garmēt and put it vpon bothe their sholders, and went backward, and covered ^{the} nakednes of their father with their faces backward: so they sawe not their fathers nakednes.

24 Then Nōah awoke from his wine, and knewe what his yonger sonne had done vnto him, 25 And said, *Curfed be Canaan: a¹ seruāt of seruantes shal he be vnto his brethren.

26 He said moreouer, Blissed be the Lord God of Shem, and let Canaan be his seruant.

27 God ¹ perswade Iapheth, that he may dwell in the tentes of Shem, and let Canaan be his seruant.

28 ¶ And Nōah liued after ^{the} flood thre hundredth and fifty yeres.

29 So all the dayes of Nōah were nine hundredth and fifty yeres: and he dyed.

CHAP. X.

¹ The increafe of mankind by Noah & his sonnes, to the beginning of cities, countreys and nations.

1 NOW these are the^a generations of the sonnes of Nōah, Shem, Ham & Iapheth: vnto whome sonnes were borne after the flood.

2 The sonnes of Iapheth [were] Gōmer & Magōg, and^b Madai, and Iauān, & Tubā and Meshech, and Tirās.

3 And the sonnes of Gōmer, Ashkenāz, & Riphath and Togarmāh.

4 Also ^{the} sonnes of Iauān, Elifshāh and Tarshish, Kittim, and Dodanim.

5 Of these were ^{the} yles of the gentiles deuēded in their landes, euerie man after his tongue, [and] after their families in their nations.

6 ¶ Moreouer ^{the} sonnes of Ham [were] Cush, & Mizraim, and Put, and Canaan.

7 And the sonnes of Cush, Sebā & Hauilāh, and Sabrah, and Raamah, & Sabrechā: also the sonnes of Raamah [were] Shebā & Dedān.

8 And Cush begate Nīmrod, who began to be^e mighty in the earth.

9 He was a mighty hunter before the Lord: wherfore it is said, †As Nīmrod ^{the} mighty hunter before the Lord.

10 And the beginning of his kingdom was Babel, & Eresh, and Accād, & Calneh in the land^s of Shinār.

11 Out of that lād came Ashur, & buylde^d Niniueh, and the citie Rehobōth, and Calah:

12 Rēsen also betwene Niniueh & Calah: this is a great citie.

13 And Mizraim begate^b Ludim, and Anamim, and Lehabim, & Naphthim.

14 Pathrusim also, and Casluhim (out of whome came the Philistims) & † Caphtorims.

15 ¶ Also Canaan begat Zidon his first borne, and Het,

16 And Iebusi & Emori, and Girgashi,

17 And Hiui, & Arki, and Sini,

18 And Aruadi, and Zemari, & Hamathi: & afterwarde were ^{the} families of the Canaanites spred abroad.

19 Then the border of ^{the} Canaanites was from Zidon as thou comest to Gerār vntil Azzāh, & as thou goest vnto Sodōm, ² He declared that the Gentiles, which came of Iapheth & were separated fro the Church, should be ioynd to the same by the persuasion of Gods Spirit and preaching of the Gospell.

³ These generations are here recited partly to shew the marvellous increafe made since the flood, & also to set forth their great forgetfulness of Gods graces toward their fathers.

⁴ Of Madai, & Iauan came the Medes and Greeks.

⁵ The Iewes so call all countreys we are separated from them by sea, as Grecia, Italie, &c. we were giuen to the children of Iapheth, of whome came the Gentiles.

⁶ Of Cush & Mizraim came the Ethiopians & Egyptians.

⁸ His tyrannie came into a proverb as hard bothe of God and man: for he passed not to commit cruelties euen in Gods presence.

and Gomorah, and Admah, & Zeboim, euen vnto Lasha.

20 These are the sonnes of Ham according to their families, according to their tongues in their countries [and] in their nations.

21 ¶ Vnto Shem also the father of all the sonnes of Eber, and elder brother of Lapheth were children borne.

22 *The sonnes of Shem [were] Elam and Asshur, and Arpachshad, and Lud, and Aram.

23 And the sonnes of Aram, Vz and Hul, and Gether and Mash.

24 Also Arpachshad begate Shelah, and Shelah begate Eber.

25 Vnto Eber also were borne two sonnes: the name of the one [was] Peleg: for in his dayes was the earth diuided: & his brothers name [was] Joktan.

26 Then Joktan begate Almodad & Shaleph, & Haxarimaueth, and Ierah, 27 And Hadoram, & Vzai, and Dicklah,

28 And Obal, and Abimael, and Sheba,

29 And Ophir, & Hauilah, and Iobab, all these [were] the sonnes of Joktan.

30 And their dwelling was from Mesha, as thou goest vnto Sephar a mount of the East.

31 These are the sonnes of Shem according to their families, according to their tongues, in their countreys and nations.

32 These are the families of the sonnes of Noah, after their generations among their people, & out of these were the nations diuided in the earth after the flood.

¶ CHAP. XI.

6 The buylding of Babel was the cause of the confusion of tongues. 10 The age and generation of Shem vnto Abram. 31 Abrams departure from Ur with his father Terah, Sarai & Lot. 32 The age and death of Terah.

1 Then the whole earth was of one language and one speache.

2 And as they went from the East, they founde a plaine in the land of Shinar, & there they abode.

3 And they said one to another, Come let vs make brycke, and burne it in the fyre. So they had brycke for stone, and slyme had they in steade of morter.

4 Also they said, Go to, let vs buylde vs a citie & a tower, whose toppe [may reach] vnto the heauen, that we may get vs a name, lest we be scatred vpon the whole earth.

5 But the Lord came downe, to se the citie & tower, which the sonnes of men buylded.

6 And the Lord said, Beholde, the people [is] one, and they all haue one language, & this they beginne to do, nether can they now be stopped from whatsoever they haue imagined to do.

7 Come on, let vs go downe, and there confounde their language, that euery one perceiue not an others speache.

8 So the Lord scatred them from thence vpon al the earth, and they left of to buylde the citie.

9 Therefore the name of it was called Babel, because the Lord did there confounde the language of al the earth: from thence then did the Lord scatred them vpon al the earth.

10 ¶ These are the generations of Shem: Shem [was] an hundred yere olde, and begate Arpachshad two yere after the flood.

11 And Shem liued, after he begate Arpachshad, fye hundred yeres, and begate sonnes and daughters.

12 Also Arpachshad liued fye and thirty yeres, and begate Shelah.

13 And Arpachshad liued, after he begate Shelah, foure hundred and thre yeres, & begate sonnes and daughters.

14 And Shelah liued thirty yeres, and begate Eber.

15 So Shelah liued, after he begate Eber, foure hundred and thre yeres, and begate sonnes and daughters.

16 Likewise Eber liued foure and thirty yeres, and begate Peleg.

17 Se Eber liued, after he begate Peleg, foure hundred and thirty yeres, and begate sonnes and daughters.

18 And Peleg liued thirty yeres, and begate Reu.

19 ¶ And Peleg liued, after he begate Reu, two hundred and nine yeres, and begate sonnes and daughters.

20 Also Reu liued two and thirty yeres, & begate Serug.

21 So Reu liued, after he begate Serug, two hundred and seuen yeres, and begate sonnes and daughters.

22 Moreouer Serug liued thirty yeres, & begate Nahor.

23 And Serug liued, after he begate Nahor, two hundred yeres, and begate sonnes & daughters.

24 And Nahor liued nine & twentie yeres, and begate Terah.

25 So Nahor liued, after he begate Terah, an hundred and ninetene yeres, and begate sonnes and daughters.

26 ¶ So Terah liued seuentie yeres, & begate Abram, Nahor and Haran.

27 ¶ Now these are the generations of Terah: Terah begate Abram, Nahor, and Haran: and Haran begate Lot.

28 Then Haran dyed before Terah his father

h He speaks as though he were counsellor to his owne wisdom: to wit, with the Sonne and holie Ghost: signifying the graces & certainties of the punishment.

from Vr of the Caldees, to^a go into the land of Canaan, and they came to^a Ha-

CHAP. XII.

1 Abram by Gods commandement goeth to Canaan. 2 Christ is promised. 7 Abram buyldeth altars for exercise and declaration of his faith among the infideles. 10 Because of the derthe he goeth into Egypt. 15 Pharaoh taketh his wife, and is punished.

1^a Or the Lord had said vnto Abram, Get thee out of thy countrey, and from thy kinred, and from thy fathers house vnto^b the land that I wil shewe thee.

2 And I wil make of thee a great nation, and wil blesse thee, and make thy name great, and thou shalt be^a a blessing.

3 I wil also blesse them that blesse thee, & curse them that curse thee, & in thee shal all families of the earth be blessed.

4 So Abram departed, euen as the Lord spake vnto him, and Lot went with him.
(And Abram was seuentie and five yere olde, when he departed out of Harán)

5 Then Abram toke Sarai his wife, & Lot his brothers sonne, & all their substance that thei possessed, & the^d soules that thei had gotten in Harán, and they departed, to go to the land of Canaan: and to the land of Canaan they came.

6^a So Abram^a passed through the land vnto the place of Shechem, and vnto the † plaine of Moreh (and the^f Canaanite [was] then in the land).

7 And the Lord appeared vnto Abram, and said, Vnto thy sede wil I giue this land. And there buylded he an^a altar vnto the Lord, which appeared vnto him.

8 Afterward remouing^a thence vnto a mountaine Eastward from Beth-el, he pic-hed his tent hauing Beth-el on the West side, & Hai on^f East: and there he buylt an altar vnto the Lord, and called on the name of the Lord.

9^a Again Abram went forth going and iourneing towards the South.

10^a Then there came a famine in^f land:
therefore Abram wet downe into Egypt to sojourne there: for there was a great famine in the land.

11 And when he drew nere to entre into Egypt, he said to Sarai his wife, Beholde now, I knowe that thou art a faire woman to loke vpon:

12 Therefore it wil come to passe, that whe the Egyptians se thee, they wil say, She is his wife: so wil they kil me, but they wil kepe thee alieue.

13 Say, I pray thee, y^a thou art my^m sister, that I may fare wel for thy sake, and that my^f life may be preserved by thee.

14^a Now, when Abram was come into Egypt, the Egyptians beheld the woman:
for she was very faire.

15 And the princes of Pharaoh sawe her, and commended her vnto Pharaoh: so the woman was^a taken into Pharaohs house:

16 Who intreated Abram wel for her sake, and he had shepe, and beues, and he asses,
and men seruantes and maide seruantes, and she asses, and camelles.

17 But the Lord^a plagued Pharaoh and his house with great plagues, because of Sarai Abrams wife.

18 Then Pharaoh called Abram and said, Why hast^a y^a done this vnto me? Wherefore didest thou not tel me, that she was thy wife?

19 Why saidest thou, She is my sister, that I shulde take her to be my wife? Now therefore beholde thy wife, take her] and go thy way.

20 And Pharaoh gaue men^f a commandement concerning him: and they conueied him forth, & his wife, and all y^a he had:

1^a Then^a Abram went vp from Egypt, he, and his wife, and all that he had & Lot with him towards the South.

2 And Abram [was] very riche in cattel, in siluer and in golde.

3 And he went on his iourney from the South toward^b Beth-el, to the place where his tent had bene at the beginning, be-twene Beth-el and Hai.

9 Is not the whole land before thee? departe I pray thee from me: if thou wilt take the left hand, then I will go to the right: or if thou go to the right hand, then I will take the left.

10 So when Lot lifted up his eyes, he sawe that all the plaine of Iordan was watered euery where: ([for] before the Lord destroyed Sodom and Gomorah, [it was] as the garden of the Lord, like the land of Egypt, as thou goest vnto Zor)

11 Then Lot chose vnto him all the plaine of Iordan, and toke his iourney from the East: & they departed the ^h one from the other.

12 Abram dwelled in the land of Canaan, and Lot abode in the cities of the plaine, and pitched his tent euen to Sodom.

13 Now the men of Sodom [were] wicked & exceeding sinners against the Lord.

14 ¶ Then the Lord said vnto Abram, (after that Lot was departed from him) Lift up thine eyes now, & loke from the place, where thou art, Northward, and Southward, and Eastward, & Westward:

15 For all the land, which thou seest, wil I giue vnto thee and to thy seed for euer:

16 And I wil make thy seed, as the dust of the earth: so that if a man can number the dust of the earth, then shall thy seed be nombred.

17 Arise, walke through the land, in the length thereof, and breadth thereof: for I wil giue it vnto thee.

18 Then Abram remoued his tent, and came and dwelled in the plaine of Mamré, which is in Hebron, & buylded there an altar vnto the Lord.

CHAP. XIII.

1 In the overthrow of Sodom Lot is taken prisoner. 16 Abram delivereth him. 18 Melchizedek cometh to meete him. 23 Abram wolde not be enriched by the King of Sodom.

And in the daies of Amraphel King of Shinar, Arioch King of Ellasar, Chedor-laomer King of Elam, and Tidal King of the nations: These men made warre with Bela King of Sodom, & with Birha King of Gomo-

3 All these ioyned together in the vale of Siddim, which is the ^d salte Sea.

4 Twelve yeres were they subiect to Chedor-laomer; but in the thirteenth yere they rebelled.

6 And the Horites in their mount Seir, vnto the plaine of Paran, which is by the wilderness.

7 And they returned & came to En-mishpat, which is Kadish, and smote all the countrie of the Amalekites, and also the Amorites: & dwelled in Hazezon-tamar.

8 Then went out the King of Sodom, and the King of Gomorah, & the King of Admah, and the King of Zeboim, and the King of Bela, which is Zor: and they ioyned battel with them in the vale of Siddim.

10 Now the vale of Siddim was full of slime pittes, & the Kings of Sodom & Gomorah fled, and fel there: and the residue fled to the mountaine.

11 Then they toke all the substance of Sodom and Gomorah, and all their vitayles, and went their waie.

12 They toke Lot also Abrams brothers sonne and his substance (for he dwelt at Sodom) and departed.

13 ¶ Then came one that had escaped, and tolde Abram the Ebrewe, which dwelt in the plaine of Mamré the Amorite, brother of Eshcol, & brother of Aner, which were confederat with Abram.

14 When Abram heard that his brother was taken, he brought forth of them that were borne and brought up in his house, three hundred and eighteine, and pursued them vnto Dan.

15 Then he, & his seruantes diuided them selues against them by night, and smote them; and pursued them vnto Hobah, which is on the left side of Damascus.

16 And he recouered all the substance, & also brought againe his brother Lot, & his goods, & the women also: & the people.

21 Then the King of Sodom said to Abram, Giue me the personnes, and take the goods to thy selfe.

CHAP. XV.

The Lord is Abrams defence and rewarde. 6 He is justified by faith. 13 The fruitfull and deliuerance out of Egypt is declared. 18 The land of Canaan is promised the fourth time.

After these things, the tworde of the Lord came vnto Abram in a vision, sayig, Feare not, Abram; I am thy buckler, [and] thine excedding great rewarde.

And Abram said, O Lord God, what wilt thou giue me, seing I go childeles, and the stewarde of mine house [is] this Eliezer of Damascus?

3 Againe Abram said, Beholde, to me thou hast giuen no sēde: wherfore, lo, a seruāt of mine house shalbe mine heire.

4 Then beholde, the word of the Lord came vnto him, saying, He shal not be thine heire, but one that shal come out of thine owne bowelles, he shalbe thine heire.

5 Morcouer he brought him forthe & said, Loke vp now vnto heauen, & tel the starres, if thou be able to nombre the: and he said vnto him, So shal thy sēde be.

6 And Abram beleued the Lord, and he counted that to him for righteousnes.

7 Againe he said vnto him, I am the Lord, that brought thee out of V of the Caldees, to giue the this land to inherite it.

8 And he said, O Lord God, whereby shal I know that I shal inherite it?

9 Then he said vnto him, Take me an heifer of thre yeres olde, and a she goate of thre yeres olde, and a ramme of thre yeres olde, a turtel doue also and a pigeon.

10 So he toke all these vnto him, & diuided them in the middes, and laied euery pecc one against an other: but the birdes diuided he not.

11 Then foules fel on the tarkases, and Abram droue them away.

12 And whē the sunne went downe, there fel an heaue slepe vpon Abram: & lo, a verie feareful darcknes fel vpon him.

13 Then he said to Abram, Knowe this of a suretie, that thy sēde shalbe a stranger in a land, that is not theirs, foure hundred yeres, and shal serue them: and they shal entreate them euil.

14 Notwithstanding, the nation, whome they shal serue, wil I iudge: and afterward shal they come out with great substance.

15 But thou shalt go vnto thy fathers in peace, & shalt be buried in a good age.

16 And in the fourthe generation they shal come hether againe: for the wickednes of the Amorites is not yet full.

17 Also when the sunne went downe, there was a darcknes: & beholde, a smoking furnace, and a fire brande, which went betwene those peaces.

18 In that same day the Lord made a couenant with Abram, saying, Vnto thy sēde haue I giuen this land, from the riuer of Egypt vnto the great riuer, the riuer Euphrates.

19 The Kenites, & the Kenizites, and the Kadmonites,

20 And the Hittites, and the Perizzites, & the Rephaims, 21 The Amorites also, & the Canaanites and the Girgashites, and the Iebusites.

Now Sarai Abrams wife bare him no children, and she had a maide an Egyptian, Hagar by name.

2 And Sarai said vnto Abram, Beholde now, I Lord haue restrained me from childe bearing. I pray thee go in vnto my maide: it may be that I shal receiue a childe by her. And Abram obeyed the voyce of Sarai.

3 Then Sarai Abrams wife toke Hagar her maide the Egyptian, after Abram had dwelled ten yere in the land of Canaan, and gaue her to her housband Abram for his wife.

4 And he went in vnto Hagar, and she conceived. and when she sawe that she had conceived, her damē was despised in her eyes.

7 ¶ But ¶ Angel of the Lord founde her beside a fountaine of water in the wilderness by the fountaine in the way to Shur, 8 And he said, Hagár Sarais maide, whence comest thou? and whether wilt thou go? And she said, I flee from my dame Sarái.

9 Then the Angel of the Lord said to her, Returne to thy dame, and humble thy selfe vnder her handes.

10 Againe the Angel of the Lord said vnto her, I wil so greatly encrease thy fede, that it shal not be nombred for multitude.

11 Also the Angel of the Lord said vnto her, Se, thou art with childe, and shalt beare a sonne, and shalt call his name Ishmael: for the Lord hath heard thy tribulation.

¶ CHAP. XVII.

1 Abrams name is changed to confirme him in the promise. 8 The land of Canaan is the first time promised. 12 Circumcision is instituted. 15 Sarai is named Sarah. 18 Abraham prayeth for Ishmael. 19 Izhak is promised.

17 ¶ When Abrám was ninety yere olde and nine, the Lord appeared to Abrám, and said vnto him, I am God tall sufficient. * walke before me, and be thou vp-right.

2 And I wil make my couenant betwene me and thee, and I wil multiplie thee exceedingly.

3 Then Abrám fel on his face, and God talked with him, saying,

4 Beholde, I [make] my couenant w thee, & thou shalt be a father of many nations,

5 Nether shal thy name any more be called Abrám, but thy name shalbe Abraham: for a father of manie nations haue

I made thee. ¶ Also I wil make thee exceeding fruteful, and wil make nations of thee: yea, Kings shal procede of thee.

7 Moreover I wil establish my couenant betwene me and thee, and thy fede after thee in their generations, for an euerlasting couenant, to be God vnto thee and to thy fede after thee.

8 And I wil giue thee and thy fede after thee the land, wherein thou art a stranger, euen all the land of Canaan, for an euerlasting possession, and I wil be their God.

9 ¶ Againe God said vnto Abraham, Thou also shalt keepe my couenant, thou, and thy fede after thee in their generations.

10 * This is my couenant, which ye shal keepe betwene me and you, & thy fede after thee, * Let euerie man childe among you be circumcised:

12 And euerie man childe of eight daies olde among you, shalbe circumcised in your generations, as wel he that is borne in [thine] house, as he that is boght with money of any stranger, which is not of thy fede.

13 He that is borne in thine house, and he that is boght with thy money, must nedes be circumcised: so my couenant shal be in your flesh for an euerlasting couenant.

14 But the vncircumcised man childe, in whose flesh the foreskinne is not circumcised, euen that personne shal be cut off from his people, [because] he hath broken my couenant.

CHAP. XIX.

23 Lot receiued two Angels into his house: 24 The filthy lusts of the Sodomites. 25 Lot is deliuered. 26 Sodóm is destroyed. 27 Lots wife is made a pillar of salt. 33 Lots daughters lye with their father, of whome come Moab and Ammon.

1 And in the euening their came two Angels to Sodóm: and Lot sate at the gate of Sodóm, & Lot sawe [them], & rose vp to mete them, and he bowed him selfe with his face to the ground:

2 And he said, Se my Lords, I pray you turne in now into your seruants house, & tarie all night, and * wash your fete, and ye shal rise vp early and go your waies. Who said, Naie, but we wil abide in the strete all night.

3 Then^b he preased vpon them earnestly, and thei turned in to him, & came to his house, and he made them a feast, and did bake vnleauened bread, & thei^c did eat.

4 But before thei went to bed, the men of the citie, [euen] the men of Sodóm compassed the house round about from the yong to the olde, all the people from all quarters,

5 Who crying vnto Lot said to him, Where are the men, which came to thee this night? Bring them out vnto vs, that we may knowe them.

6 Then Lot went out at the dore vnto them, and shut the dore after him,

7 And said, I pray you, my brethren, do not [so] wickedly.

8 Beholde now, I haue two^e daughters, w haue not knowen man: them wil I bring out now vnto you, and do to them as seemeth you good: onely vnto these men do nothing. f for therefore are they come vnder the shadowe of my rose.

9 Then thei said, Awaie hence. and they said, He is come alone as a stranger, & shal be iudge & ruler: we wil now deale worfe with thee then with them. So thei preased fore vpon Lot^{*} him selfe, & came to breake the dore.

10 But the men put forth the their hand and pulled Lot into the house to them, and shut to the dore.

11 * Then they smote the men that were at the dore of y house with blindenes, bothe female and great, so that they were wearie in y seeking the dore.

12 ¶ Then the men said vnto Lot, Whome hast thou yet here: ether sonne in lawe, or thy sonnes, or thy daughters, or whatsoeuer thou hast in the citie, bring it out of this place.

13 For we wil destroe this place, because the^{*} crie of them is great before the Lord, and the Lord hath sent vs to destroe it.

14 Then Lot went out and spake vnto his sonnes in lawe, which I married his daughters, & said, Arise, get you out of this place: for the Lord wil destroye the citie, but he semed to his sonnes in lawe as though he had mocked.

15 ¶ And when y morning arose, y Angels halted Lot, saying, Arise, take thy wife & thy two daughters [which are here], lest y be destroyed in the punishment of y citie.

16 And [as] he^h prolonged the time, * the men caught bothe him & and his wife, & his two daughters by the handes (y Lord being merciful vnto him) & they brought him forth, & set him without the citie.

18 And Lot said vnto them, Not so, I pray thee, my Lord:

19 Beholde now, thy seruant hath founde grace in thy sight, and thou hast magnified thy mercie, which thou hast shewed vnto me in sauing my life: and I can not escape in the mountaine, lest [some] euil take me, and I die.

22 Hastee thee, saue thee there: for I can

Therefore the name of the citie was called m Zōar.

23 ¶ The sunne did rise vpon the earth, when Lot entred in Zōar.

24 Then the Lord * rained vpon Sodóm and vpon Gomoráh brimstone; and fire from the Lord out of heauen,

25 And ouerthrowe those cities, & all the plaine, & all the inhabitātes of the cities, and that that grewe vpon the earth.

26 ¶ Now his wife behinde him looked bac-

27 ¶ And Abrahām rising vp early in the had stand before the Lord, and looking toward Sodóm and Gomoráh and toward all the land of the plaine:

28 Beholde, he sawe the smoke of the land mounting vp as the smoke of a fornace.

29 ¶ But yet when God destroyed the cities of the plaine, God thought vpon Abra-hām, and sent Lot out from the middes of the destruction, when he ouerthrowe
the cities, wherein Lot dwelled.

30 ¶ Then Lot wēt vp from Zōar, & dwelt in the mountaine w^h his two daughters:
for he ^o feared to tarie in Zōar, but dwelt in a caue, he, and his two daughters.

31 And the elder said vnto the yonger, Our the ^p earth to come in vnto vs after ^q ma-

32 Come, we wil make our father ^r drinke

33 So they made their father drinke wine

she laie downe, nether when she rose vp.

34 And on the morow the elder said to the this night also, and go thou [and] lie with 35 So thei made their father drinke wine

38 And the yonger bare a sonne also, and she called his name ^w Ben-ammi: the same

CHAP. XX.

1 Abraham dwelleth as a stranger in the land of Gerar.
2 Abimelech takeh away his wife. 3 God reprocueth the King. 9 And the King, Abraham. 11 Sarah is restored

1 Afterward Abrahām departed thence toward the South countrie, and dwelled betwene Cadēsh and ^a Shur, and soiourned in Gerar.

2 And Abrahām said of Sarāh his wife,
^b She is my sister. Then Abimēlech King of Gerar sent and toke Sarāh.

3 But God came to Abimēlech in a dreame by night and said to him, Beholde: ^c thou art but dead, because of the womā, which thou hast taken: for she is a mans wife.

4 (Notwithstanding Abimēlech had not yet come nere her) And he said, Lord, wilt thou slay euen ^d the righteous nation?

5 Said not he vnto me, She is my sister?
yea, and she her selfe said, He is my brother: with an vpright ^e minde, and ^f innocent hands haue I done this.

6 And God said vnto him by a dreame, I knowe that thou didest this euen with an vpright minde, and I s kept thee also that thou shuldest not sinne against me: therefore suffred I thee not to touche her.

7 Now then deliuer the man his wife agai-ne: for he is a ^g Prophet, & he ^h shal praye for thee that thou mayest liue: but if thou deliuer her not againe, be sure that thou shalt die the death, thou, and all that thou hast.

8 Then Abimēlech rising vp early in the morning called all his seruants, and tolde all these things ⁱ vnto them, & the men were sore afraide.

9 Afterward Abimēlech called Abrahām, and said vnto him, What hast thou done
vnto vs? and what haue I offended thee, that thou hast brought on me and on my ^k kingdome [this] great sinne? ^l Hast done things vnto me that ought not to be done.

10 So Abimēlech said vnto Abrahām,

14 Then toke Abimelech shepe, & beues, & men seruantes, and women seruantes, and gaue them vnto Abraham, and restored him Sarah his wife.

15 And Abimelech said, Beholde, my land [is] † before thee: dwell where it pleaseth thee.

16 Likewise to Sarah he said, Beholde, I haue giuen thy brother a thousand peces of siluer: beholde, he is the vaile of thine eies to all that are with thee, and to all [others:] and she was thus reprov'd.

17 ¶ Then Abraham praied vnto God, & God healed Abimelech, and his wife, & his maid seruants: & they bare children.

18 For the Lord had shut vp euerie wombe of the house of Abimelech, because of Sarah Abrahams wife.

¶ CHAP. XXI.

1 Izhak is borne. 9 Ishmael mocketh Izhak. 14 Hagar is cast out with her sonne. 17 The Angel comforteth Hagar. 22 The covenant betwene Abimelech & Abraham.

1 Now the Lord visited Sarah, as he had said, & did vnto her * according as he had promised.

2 For * Sarah conceiued, & bare Abraham a sonne in his olde age, at the same season that God tolde him.

3 And Abraham called his sonnes name that was borne vnto him, which Sarah bare him, Izhak.

4 Then Abraham circumcised Izhak his sonne, when he was eight daies olde, * as God had commanded him.

5 So Abraham was an hundreth yere olde, when his sonne Izhak was borne vnto him.

6 ¶ Then Sarah said, God hath made me to reioyce: all that heare wil reioyce with me.

7 Again she said, b Who wolde haue said to Abraham, that Sarah shulde haue giue children sucke? for I haue borne him a sonne in his olde age.

8 Then the childe grewe & was weaned: and Abraham made a great feast the same day that Izhak was weaned.

9 ¶ And Sarah sawe the sonne of Hagar the Egyptian (which she had borne vnto Abraham) * mocking.

10 Wherefore she said vnto Abraham, Cast out this bond woman and her sonne: for the sonne of this bond woman shal not be heire with my sonne Izhak.

11 And this thing was very grievous in Abrahams sight, because of his sonne.

12 ¶ But God said vnto Abraham, Let it not be grievous in thy sight for the childe, and for thy bond woman: in all that Sarah shal saie vnto thee, heare her voice: for in Izhak shal thy fede be d called.

13 As for the sonne of the bond woman, I wil make him * a nation also, because he is thy fede.

14 So Abraham arose vp early in the morning, and toke bread, and a bottel of water, and gaue it vnto Hagar, putting it on her shulder and the childe [also,] & † sent her away: who departing wandred in the wilderness of Beer-sheba.

15 And when the water of the bottel was spent, she cast the childe vnder a certeine tree.

16 Then she went and sate her ouer against [him] a farr of about a bowe shote: for she said, I wil not se the death of the childe, and she sate downe ouer against [him,] and lift vp her voyce and wept.

17 Then God s heard the voyce of the childe, and the Angel of God called to Hagar from heauen, and said vnto her, What aileth thee, Hagar? feare not, for God hath heard the voyce of the childe where he is.

18 Arise, take vp the childe, and holde him in thine hand: for I wil make of him a great people.

19 And God h opened her eies, & she sawe a well of water, so she went and filled the bottel with water, & gaue f boye drinke.

20 So God was i with the childe, & he grewe, and dwelt in the wilderness, & was an † archer.

21 And he dwelt in the wilderness of Paran, and his mother toke him a wife out of the land of Egypt.

22 ¶ And at that same time Abimelech & Phichol his chief captaine spake vnto Abraham, saying, God [is] with thee in all that thou doest.

23 Now therefore sweare vnto me here by God, that thou wilt not hurt me, nor my children, nor my childrens children: thou shalt deale with me, and with the countrie, where thou hast bene a stranger, according vnto the kindnes that I haue shewed thee.

24 Then Abraham said, I wil k swear.

25 And Abraham rekuked Abimelech for a well of water, which Abimelechs seruants had violently taken away.

26 And Abimelech said, I knowe not who hath done this thing: also thou toldest me not, nether heard I [of it] but this day

27 Then Abraham toke shepe, and beues, and gaue them vnto Abimelech: and the two made a couenant.

31 Wherefore the place is called Beer-sheba, because there thei bothe sware.

32 Thus made they a^m couenant at Beer-sheba: afterward Abimelech & Phichol his chief captaine rose vp, and turned againe vnto the land of the Philistims.

33 And Abraham planted a groue in Beer-sheba, & called there on the Name of the Lord, the euerlasting God.

34 And Abraham was a stranger in the Philistims land a long season.

CHAP. XXII.

1. 3. The faith of Abraham is proued in offering his sonne Izhak. 8 Izhak is a figure of Christ. 20 The generation of Nahor Abrahams brother, of whome cometh Rebekah.

And after these things God did^a proue Abraham, & said vnto him, Abraham. Who answered, Here am I.

2 And he said, Take now thine onely sonne Izhak whome^b thou louest, & get thee vnto the lande of^c Moriáh, and^d offer him there for a burnt offering vpon one of the mountaines, which I wil shewe thee.

3 Then Abraham rose vp early in the morning, and saddled his asse, and toke two of his seruants with him, and Izhak his sonne, and cloued wood for the burnt offering, and rose vp, and went to the place which God had tolde him.

4 Then the third day Abraham lift vp his eyes, and sawe the place a farre off,

5 And said vnto his seruants, Abide you here with the asse: for I & the childe wil go yonder & worship, and come againe vnto you.

6 Then Abraham toke the wood of the burnt offering, and laied it vpon Izhak his sonne, & he toke the fire in his hand, and the knife: and they went bothe together.

7 Then spake Izhak vnto Abraham his father, & said, My father. And he answered, Here am I, my sonne. And he said, Beholde the fire & the wood, but where is the lambe for the burnt offering?

8 Then Abraham answered, My sonne, God wil^e prouide him a lambe for a burnt offering: so they went bothe together.

9 When they came to the place which God had shewed him, Abraham buylded an altar there, & couched the wood, and bound Izhak his sonne^f & laied him on the altar vpon the wood.

10 And Abraham stretching forth his hand, toke the knife to kil his sonne.

11 But the Angel of the Lord called vnto him from heauen, saying, Abraham, Abraham. And he answered, Here am I.

12 Then he said, Lay not thine hand vpon^g thine childe, nether do any thing vnto him: for now I knowe that thou fearest God, seeing for my sake^h thou hast not spared thine onely sonne.

13 And Abraham lifting vp his eyes, looked: and beholde, there was a ram behindeⁱ [him] caught by the hornes in a bushe. then Abraham went & toke the ram and offered him vp for a burnt offering in the steede of his sonne.

14 And Abraham called the name of that place, Jehouah-iireh, as it is said this day, In the mount wil the Lord be sene.

15 And the Angel of^j the Lord cryed vnto Abraham from heauen the seconde time, 16 And said, By^k my selfe haue I sworne (saith the Lord) because thou hast done this thing, & hast not spared thine onely sonne, 17 Therefore wil I surely blesse thee, and wil greatly multiplie thy sede, as the starres of the heauen, and the sande which is vpon the seashore, and thy sede shal possesse the^l gate of his enemies.

18 And in thy sede shal all the nations of the earth be blessed, because thou hast obeyed my voyce.

19 Then turned Abraham againe vnto his seruants, and they rose vp and went together to Beer-sheba: and Abraham dwelt at Beer-sheba.

20 And after these things one tolde Abraham, saying, Beholde Milcáh, she hath also borne children vnto thy brother Nahor:

21 [To wit,] Vz his eldest sonne, & Buz his brother, & Kemuel the father of^m Arám, 22 And Chesed and Hazó, & Pildásh, and Iidláph, and Bethuél.

23 And Bethuél begate Rebekáh: these eight did Milcáh beare to Nahor Abrahams brother.

Then Sarah dyed in Kiriath-arba: the same is Hebrón in the land of Canaan: & Abraham came to mourne for Sarah and to wepe for her.

¶ Then Abraham rose vp from the sight of his corps, and talked with the Hittites, saying,

I am a stranger, & a foriner among you, giue me a possession of buryal with you, that I may bury my dead out of my sight.

¶ Then the Hittites answered Abraham, saying vnto him,

¶ Hearc vs, my Lord: thou art a prince of God among vs: in the chiefeft of our sepulchres bury thy dead: none of vs shal forbid thee his sepulchre, but thou maiest bury thy dead [therein.]

¶ Then Abraham stode vp, & bowed him selfe before the people of the land of the Hittites.

¶ And he communed with them, saying, If it be your minde, that I shal bury my dead out of my sight, heare me, & intreat for me to Ephrón the sonne of Zóhar,

¶ That he wolde giue me a caue of Machpeláh, which he hathe in the end of his field: that he wolde giue it me for as muche money as it is worthe, for a possession to bury in among you.

¶ (For Ephrón dwelt among the Hittites) Then Ephrón the Hittite answered Abraham in the audience of all the Hittites that went in at the gates of his citie, saying,

¶ No, my lord, heare me: the field giue I thee, and the caue, that therein is, I giue it thee: [euē] in the presence of the sonnes of my people giue I it thee, to bury thy dead.

¶ Then Abraham bowed him self before the people of the land.

¶ And spake vnto Ephrón in audience of the people of the countrey, saying, Seing thou wilt giue it, I praye thee, heare me, I wil giue the price of the field: receiue it of me, and I wil bury my dead there.

¶ Ephrón then answered Abraham, saying vnto him,

¶ My Lord, hearken vnto me: the land [is worthe] four hundreth shekels of siluer: what [is] that betwene me & thee: bury therefore thy dead.

¶ So Abraham hearkened vnto Ephrón, & Abraham weyed to Ephrón the siluer, which he had named, in the audience of the Hittites, [euē] foure hundreth siluer shekels of currant money amōg marchantes.

¶ So the field of Ephrón [which was] in Machpeláh, and ouer against Mamré, [euē] the field & the caue that was therein, and all the trees that were in the field, which were in all borders round about, was made sure.

¶ And after this, Abraham buryed Sarah his wife in the caue of the field of Machpeláh ouer against Mamré: the same is Hebrón in the land of Canaan.

¶ Thus bothe the field and the caue, & is therein, was made sure vnto Abraham for a possession of buryall by the Hittites.

¶ Now Abraham was olde, & stricken in yeres, and the Lord had blessed Abraham in all things.

¶ Therefore Abraham said vnto his eldest seruant of his house, which had rule ouer all that he had, Put now thine hand vnder my thigh,

¶ And I wil make thee sweare by the Lord God of the heauen, & God of the earth, that thou shalt not take a wife vnto my sonne of thy daughters of the Canaanites among whome I dwel.

¶ But thou shalt go vnto my countrie, & to my kinred, & take a wife vnto my sonne Izhák.

¶ And the seruant said to him, What if the woman wil not come w me to this land: shal I bring thy sonne againe vnto the land from whence thou camest?

¶ To whome Abraham answered, Beware that thou bring not my sonne thither againe.

¶ The Lord God of heauen, who toke me from my fathers house, & from the land where I was borne, & that spake vnto me, & that sware vnto me, saying, Vnto thy sede wil I giue this land, he shal send his Angel before thee, and thou shalt take a wife vnto my sonne from thence.

¶ Then the seruant put his hand vnder the thigh of Abraham his master, & sware to him for this matter.

¶ So the seruant toke ten camels of the camels of his master, and departed: for he [had] all his masters goods in his hand: & so he arose, and went to Arám Naharáim, vnto the citie of Nahór.

17 Then the seruant ran to mete her, and said, Let me drinke, I pray thee, a litle water of thy pitcher.

18 And she said, Drinke I syr: and she hastened and let downe her pitcher vpon her hand, & gaue him drinke.

19 And whē she had giuen him drinke, she said, I wil drawe water for thy camels also vntil they haue dronken ynough.

20 And she poured out her pitcher into the trogh speedely, and ranne againe vnto the well to drawe water, and she drew for all his camels.

21 So the man wondred at her, and helde his peace, to wit, whether the Lord had made his iourney prosperous or not.

22 And when the camels had left drinking, the man toke a golden shekel of halfe a [shekel] weight, & two bracelettes for her hands, of ten shekels weight of golde:

23 And he said, Whose daughter art thou? tel me, I pray thee, Is there rouse in thy fathers house for vs to lodge in?

24 Then she said to him, I am the daughter of Bethuel the sonne of Milcah whome she bare vnto Nahor.

25 Moreouer she said vnto him, We haue lytter also and prouander ynough, and rouse to lodge in.

26 And the man bowed him selfe and worshipped the Lord,

27 And said, Blessed [be] the Lord God of my master Abraham, which hath not withdrawen his mercie: and his truth from my master: [for] when I was in the way, the Lord brought me to my masters brethrens house.

28 And the maide ran & tolde them of her mothers house according to these wordes.

29 ¶ Now Rebekah had a brother called Laban, & Laban ran vnto the man to the well.

30 For when he had seene the earrings & the bracelettes in his sisters hands, & whē he heard the wordes of Rebekah his sister, saying, Thus said the man vnto me: then he went to the man, and lo, he stode by the camels at the well, 31 And he said, Come in thou blessed of the Lord: wherefore standest thou without, seeing I haue prepared the house, and rouse for the camels?

32 ¶ Then the man came into the house, and he vnshod the camels, & brought lytter & prouander for the camels, & water to wash his fete, and the mens fete that were with him.

33 Afterward I meat was set before him: but he said, I wil not eat, vntil I haue said my message: And he said, Speake on.

34 Then he said, I am Abrahams seruant.

35 And the Lord hath blessed my master wonderfully, that he is become great: for he hath giuen him shepe, and beues, and siluer, and golde, and men seruantes, and maide seruantes, and camels, and asses:

36 And Sarah my masters wife hath borne a sonne to my master, when she was olde, & vnto him hath he giuen all I haue.

37 Now my master made me sweare, saying, Thou shalt not take a wife to my sonne of the daughters of the Canaanites, in whose land I dwell:

38 But thou shalt go vnto my fathers house and to my kinred, and take a wife vnto my sonne.

39 Then I said vnto my master, What if I woman wil not followe me?

40 Who answered me, The Lord, before whome I walke, wil send his Angel with thee, and prosper thy iourney, and thou shalt take a wife for my sonne of my kinred and my fathers house.

41 Then shalt thou be discharged of mine othe, when thou comest to my kinred: and if they giue thee not one, thou shalt be free from mine othe.

42 So I came this day to the well, and said, O Lord, the God of my master Abraham, if I now prosper my iourney which I go, 47 Then I asked her, & said, Whose daughter art y? And she answered, The daughter of Bethuel Nahors sone, whome Milcah bare vnto him. Then I put the abillement vpon her face, and the braceletes vpon her handes:

52 And when Abrahams seruant heard their wordes, he bowed him selfe toward the earth vnto the Lord.

53 Then the seruant toke forthe iewels of siluer, & iewels of golde, & raiment, and gaue to Rebekah: also vnto her brother and to her mother he gaue giftes.

54 Afterwarde they did eat & drinke [both] he, and the men that were with him, and taried all night, & when they rose vp in the morning, he said, x Let me departe vnto my master.

55 Then her brother and her mother answered, Let the maide abide with vs, at the least ten dayes: then shal she go.

56 But he said vnto them, Hinder you me not, seing the Lord hathe prospered my journey: send me away, that I may go to my master.

57 Then they said, We wil call the maide, and aske c her consent.

58 And thei called Rebekah, and said vnto her, Wilt thou go with this man? And she answered, I wil go.

59 So they let Rebekah their sister go, and her nourse, with Abrahams seruant and his men.

60 And thei blessed Rebekah, and said vnto her, Thou art our sister, growe into thousand thousandes, & thy seede possesseth the d gate of his enemies.

61 ¶ Then Rebekah arose, & her maides, & rode vpon the camels, and followed y man, and the seruant toke Rebekah, and departed.

8 The Abraham yelded the spirit, & dyed in a good age, an olde man, and of great yeres, and was gathered to his people.

9 And his sonnes, Izhák and Ishmaél buried him in the caue of Machpeláh in the field of Ephrón sonne of Zóhar the Hittite, before Mamré.

10 Which field Abraham bought of the Hittites, where Abraham was buried wth Sarah his wife.

11 And after the death of Abraham God blessed Izhák his sonne, & Izhák dwelt by Beer-lahai-roi.

12 Now these are the generations of Ishmaél Abrahams sonne, whome Hagar the Egyptian Sarahs handmaide bare vnto Abraham.

13 And these are the names of the sonnes of Ishmaél, name by name, according to their kindreds: the eldest sonne of Ishmaél [was] Nebaióth, then Kedár, and Adbeél, & Mibsam,

14 And Mishmá, & Dumáh, and Massá,

15 Hadár, & Temá, Ietur, Naphish, & Kédemah.

16 These are the sonnes of Ishmaél, and these are their names, by their townes & by their castles: [to wit,] twelue princes of their nations.

17 (And these are the yeres of the life of Ishmaél, an hundred thirty and seuen yere, and he yelded the spirit, and dyed, & was gathered vnto his people)

18 And they dwelt from Hauilah vnto Shur, & is towards Egypt, as thou goest to Asihúr, [Ishmaél] dwelt in the presence of all his brethren.

19 Likewise these are the generations of Izhák Abrahams sonne. Abraham begate Izhák, 20 And Izhák was forty yere olde, when he toke Rebekáh to wife, the daughter of Bethuél the Aramite of Padán Arám, [and] sister to Labán the Aramite.

21 And Izhák prayed vnto the Lord for his wife, because she was barren: and the Lord was intreated of him, and Rebekáh his wife conceived, 22 But her children strove together within her: therefore she said, Seing [it is] so, why am I thus? wherefore she went to aske the Lord.

23 And the Lord said to her, two nations [are] in thy wombe, and two manner of people shalbe deuided out of thy bowels, and the one people shalbe mightier then the other, and the elder shal serue the younger.

24 Therefore when her time of deliue-rance was fulfilled, behold, twinned were [in her wombe]

25 So he that came out first was red, and he was all oner as a rough garment, and they called his name Esau.

26 And afterwarde came his brother out, and his hand held Esau by the heele: therefore his name was called Iakób. Now Izhák was thre score yere olde, when Rebekáh bare them.

27 And the boyes grew, and Esau [was] a cunning hunter, & he dwelt in the fields: but Iakób was a plaine man, and dwelt in tentes.

28 And Izhák loued Esau, for he venison [was] his meat, but Rebekáh loued Iakób.

29 Now Iakób sodde pottage, & Esau came from the field and was wearie.

30 Then Esau said to Iakób, Let me eat, I pray thee, of that pottage, for I am weary. Therefore was his name called Edóm.

31 And Iakób said, Sel me euen now thy birthright.

32 And Esau said, Lo, I am almost dead, what is [it] then this birthright to me?

33 Iakób then said, Swear to me euen now. And he sware to him, & sold his birthright vnto Iakób.

34 Then Iakób gaue Esau bread and pottage of lentiles: & he did eat and drinke and rose vp, and went his way: So Esau contemned [his] birthright.

CHAP. XXVI.

1 God prouideth for Izhák in the famine. 3 He renoueth his promises. 9 The king blameth him for denying his wife. 14 The Philistims hate him for his riches. 15 Stoppe his welles. 16 And driue him away. 24 God comforteth him. 31 He maketh alliance with Abimelech.

1 And there was a famine in the land besides the first famine that was in the dayes of Abraham, wherefore Izhák went to Abimelech King of the Philistims vnto Gerár.

2 For the Lord appeared vnto him, & said, Go not downe into Egypt, [but] abide in the land which I shal shewe vnto thee.

3 Dwel in this land, & I wil be with thee, and wil blesse thee: for to thee, and to thy seds I wil giue all these countreys: and I wil performe the othe which I sware vnto Abraham thy father.

4 Also I wil cause thy seds to multiplie as the starres of heauen, and wil giue vnto thy seds all these countreys: & in thy seds shal all the nations of the earth be blessed.

he feared to say, She is my wife, lest said he, I the men of the place shulde kil me,

8 So after he had bene there long time, A-out at a window, and lo, he sawe Izhak sporting with Rebekah his wife.

9 Then Abimelech called Izhak, and said,
Lo, she is of a suretie thy wife, & why sai-

12 Afterwarde Izhak sowed in, that lad, &

14 For he had flockes of shepe, and herdes

the Philistims had enuie at him,

15 In so muche that f Philistims stopped & filled vp wth earth all the welles which his fathers seruants digged in his father Abrahams time.

16 Then Abimelech said vnto Izhak, Get thee from vs, for thou art mightier the we a great deale.

17 Therefore Izhak departed thence & pitched his tent in the valley of Gerar, & dwelt there.

18 And Izhak returning, digged the welles of water, which thei had digged in the dayes of Abraham his father: for the Philistims had stopped them after the death of Abraham, & he gaue them the same names, which his father gaue them.

19 Izhaks seruants then digged in the vallei, & found there a well of f liuing water.

20 But the herd men of Gerar did strue with Izhaks herd men, saying, The water is ours: therefore called he the name of the well f Efek, because they were a strife with him.

21 Afterward thei digged another well, & stroue for that also, and he called the name of it f Simah.

22 Then he remoued thence, & digged another well, for the which they stroue not:
therefore called he the name of it f Re-hoboth, and said, Because the Lord hath now made vs rounge, we shal encrease vpon the earth.

23 So he went vp thence to Beer-sheba.

24 And the Lord appeared vnto him the same night, and said, I am the God of Abraham thy father: feare not, for I am wth thee, & wil blesse thee and multiplie thy seede for my seruant Abrahams sake.

25 Then he buylt an altar there, and called vpon the name of the Lord, and there spread his tent: where also Izhaks seruants digged a well.

26 Then came Abimelech to him from Gerar, and Ahuzzath one of his friends, and Phichol the captaine of his armie.

27 To whome Izhak said, Wherefore come ye to me, seeing ye hate me, and haue put me awaie from you?

28 Who answered, We sawe certainly that the Lord was with thee, and we thought [thus,] Let there be now an othe betwene vs, [euery] betwene vs and thee, and let vs make a couenant with thee.

29 Thou shalt do vs no hurt, as we haue not touched thee, and as we haue done vnto thee nothing but good, & sent thee away in peace: thou now, the blessed of the Lord, [do this.]

30 Then he made them a feast, & they did eat and drinke.

31 And they rose vp betimes in the morning, and sware one to an other: then Izhak let them go, and they departed from him in peace.

32 And that same daye Izhaks seruants came & tolde him of a well, which thei had digged, & said vnto him, We haue found water.

33 So he called it f Shibah: therefore the name of the citie is called f Beer-sheba vnto this daye.

34 Now when Esau was fourty yere ol-to Esáu his sonne) and Esáu went into the field to hunt for venison, and to bring it.

6 ¶ Then Rebekáh spake vnto Iakób her sonne, saying, Beholde, I haue heard thy father talking with Esáu thy brother, saying,

7 Bring me venison, and make me sauoubefore the Lord, afore my death.

8 Now therefore, my sonne, heare my

I may make pleasant meat of them for thy

10 Then thou shalt bring it to thy father, and he shall eat, to the intent that he may blesse thee before his death.

11 But Iakób said to Rebekáh his mother, Beholde, Esáu my brother [is] rough, and I am smooth.

shal seme to him to be a tmocker: so shal
I bring a curse vpon me, and not a bles-

me [be] thy curse, my sonne: onely heare my voyce, and go and bring me [them.]

14 So he went and fet [them,] & broght [them] to his mother: & his mother made pleasant meat, such as his father loued.

15 And Rebekáh toke faire clothes of her elder sonne Esáu, which were in her house, and clothed Iakób her yonger sonne:

16 And she couered his hands & the smothe of his necke with the skinned of the kyds of the goates.

17 Afterward she put the pleasant meat and bread, which she had prepared, in the hand of her sonne Iakób.

18 ¶ And when he came to his father, he said, My father. Who answered, I am here: who art thou, my sonne?

19 And Iakób said to his father, I am E-sáu thy first borne, I haue done as thou badest me, arise, I praie thee: sit vp and eat of my venison, that thy soule may blesse me.

20 Then Izhák said vnto his sonne, How hast thou founde it so quickly my sonne?
Who said, Because the Lord thy God
broght it to mine hand.

21 Againe said Izhák vnto Iakób, Come nere now, that I maie fele thee, my sonne, whether thou be that my sonne Esáu or not.

22 Then Iakób came nere to Izhák his father, and he felt him and said, The voyce [is] Iakóbs voyce, but the hands [are] the handes of Esáu.

23 (For he knew him not, because his han-des were rough as his brother Esaus han-des: wherefore he blessed him)

24 Againe he said, Art thou that my sonne Esáu? Who answered, Yea.

25 Then said he, Bring it me hether, and I wil eat of my sonnes venison, & my soule may blesse thee. And he broght it to him and he ate: also he broght him wine, and he dranke.

26 Afterwarde his father Izhák said vnto him, Come nere now, and kisse me, my sonne.

27 And he came nere and kissed him. Then he smelled the sauour of his garments, & blessed him, and said, Beholde, the smel of my sonne [is] as the smel of a field, w
the Lord hath blessed.

28 * God giue thee therefore of the dewe of heauen, and the fatnes of the earth, and bowe vnto thee: be lord ouer thy brethré, and let thy mothers childré honour thee, curst [be he] that curseth thee, and blessed [be he] that blesseth thee.

30 ¶ And when Izhák had made an end of blessing Iakób, and Iakób was scarce gone out from the presence of Izhák his father, then came Esáu his brother from his hunting,

31 And he also prepared sauourie meat & broght it to his father, and said vnto his father, Let my father arise, and eat of his sonnes venison, that thy soule may blesse me.

32 But his father Izhák said vnto him, Who art thou? And he answered, I am thy sonne, [euen] thy first borne Esáu.

33 Then Izhák was ^a stricken with a maruelous great feare, & said, Who [and] where [is] he [that] hunted venison, and broght it me, and I haue eat of all before thou camest: and I haue blessed him, therefore he shal be blessed.

34 When Esáu heard the wordes of his father, he cryed out with a great crye and bitter out of measure, and said vnto his father, Blesse me, [euen] me also, my father.

35 Who answered, Thy brother came with subtiltie, and hath taken away thy bles-

p Hereby he persuaded Izhak to agree to Iakobs departing.

2 This seconde blessing was to confirme Iakobs faith, lest he shoulde thinke that his father had giue it without Gods motion.

6 Iakób: for he hath deceived me these two times: he toke my birthright, and lo, now hath he taken my blessing. Also he said, Hast thou not reserved a blessing for me?

7 Then Izhák answered, and said vnto Esáu, Beholde, I haue made him thy lord, and all his brethren haue I made his seruantes: also with wheat and wine haue I furnished him, and vnto thee now what shal I do, my sonne?

8 Then Esáu said vnto his father, Hast thou but one blessing, my father? blesse me, [teuch] me also, my father: and Esáu lifted vp his voyce, and * wept.

9 Then Izhák his father answered, & said vnto him, Beholde, the fatnes of the earth shalbe thy dwelling place, and [thou shalt haue] of the dewe of heauen from aboue.

10 And by thy sworde shalt thou liue, & shalt be thy brothers * seruant. But it shal come to passe, when thou shalt get the mastery, that thou shalt breake his yoke from thy necke.

11 ¶ Therefore Esáu hated Iakób, because of the blessing wherewith his father blessed him. And Esáu thought in his minde, * The daies of mourning for my father wil come shortly, then I wil slay my brother Iakób.

12 And it was tolde to Rebekáh of the wordes of Esáu her elder sonne, and she sent and called Iakób her yonger sonne, and said vnto him, Beholde, thy brother Esáu ^m is comforted against thee, [meaning] to kil thee.

13 Now therefore, my sonne, heare my voyce: arise, & flee thou to Harán, to my brother Labán,

14 And tary with him a while vntil thy brothers fearenes be swaged,

15 And til thy brothers wrath turne away from thee, & he forget the things which thou hast done to him: then wil I send & take thee from thence: why shoulde I be ⁿ deprived of you bothe in one day?

16 Also Rebekáh said to Izhák, * I am weary of my life, for the ^o daughters of Heth. If Iakób take a wife of the daughters of Heth, like these of the daughters of the land, ^p what auaileth it me to liue?

CHAP. XXVIII.

Izhak forbidden Iakób to take a wife of the Canaanites. 6 Esáu taketh a wife of the daughters of Ishmael against his fathers wil. 22 Iakób in the way to Harán seeth a ladder reaching to heauen. 14 Christ is promised. 20 Iakób asketh of God onely meat and clothing.

¶ Then Izhák called Iakób and * blessed him, and charged him, and said vnto him, Take not a wife of the daughters of Canaan.

2 Arise, * get thee to * Padán Arám to the house of Bethuél thy mothers father, and thence take thee a wife of the daughters of Labán thy mothers brother.

3 And God shall sufficiēt blesse thee, & make thee to encrease, & multiplie thee, that thou maiest be a multitude of people,

4 And giue thee the blessing of Abraham, [teuch] to thee and to thy seede with thee, that thou maiest inherit the lād (wherein thou art a ^b stranger) which God gaue vnto Abraham.

5 Thus Izhák sent for the Iakób, and he went to Padán Arám vnto Labán sonne of Bethuél the Aramite, brother to Rebekáh, Iakobs and Esaus mother.

6 ¶ When Esáu sawe that Izhák had blessed Iakób, and sent him to Padán Arám, to fet him a wife thence, and giuen him a charge when he blessed him, saying, Thou shalt not take a wife of the daughters of Canaan,

7 And [†] Iakób had obeyed his father & his mother, & was gone to Padán Arám:

8 Also Esáu seing that the daughters of Canaan displeased Izhák his father.

9 Then went Esáu to Ishmaél, & toke [†] to the wiues, [which he had,] Mahaláth the daughter of * Ishmaél Abrahams sonne, the sister of Nabaióth, to be his wife.

10 ¶ Now Iakób departed from Beer-sheba, and went to Harán.

11 And he came vnto a [certeine] place, & taried there all night, because the sunne was downe, and toke of the stones of the place and laied vnder his head, and slept in the same place.

12 Then he dreamed, and beholde, there stode a ^d ladder vpon the earth, and the top of it reached vp to heauen: & lo, the Angels of God went vp and downe by it.

13 * And beholde, the Lord stode aboute it, and said, I am the Lord God of Abraham thy father, & the God of Izhák: the land, vpon the which thou sleepest, * wil I giue thee and thy seede.

14 And thy seede shalbe as the dust of the earth, and thou shalt spreade abroad * to [†] West, and to the East, and to the North, and to the South, and in thee and in thy seede shal all the * families of the earth be blessed.

15 And lo I am with thee, & wil kepe thee whithersoever thou goest, and wil bring thee againe into this land: for I wil not forsake thee vntil I haue performed that, that I haue promised thee.

16 ¶ Then Iakób awoke out of his slepe, and said, Surely the Lord is in this place, and

and I was not aware.
17 And he was afraid & said, How fearful is this place! this is none other but the house of God, and this is the gate of heauen.
18 Then Jaakób rose vp early in the morning, and toke the stone that he had laied vnder his head, and set it vp [as] a pillar, and powred oyle vpon the top of it.
19 And he called the name of that place Beth-él: notwithstanding the name of the citie was at the first called Luz.
20 Then Jaakób vowed a vowe, saying, If God wil be with me, and wil kepe me in this iourney which I go, and wil giue me bread to eat, and clothes to put on:
21 So that I come againe vnto my fathers house in safety, then shal the Lord be my God.
22 And this stone, which I haue set vp [as] a pillar, shalbe Gods house: and of all that thou shalt giue me, wil I giue the tenth vnto thee.

CHAP. XXIX.

1 Jaakob commeth to Laban and serueth seuen yeres for Rahel. 23 Leah brought to his bed in steed of Rahel. 27 He serueth seuen yere more for Rahel. 32 Leah conceiueh and beareth foure sonnes.

Then Jaakób lift vp his fete and came into the East countrey.
And as he looked about, beholde there was a well in the field, & lo, thre flocks of shepe lay thereby (for at that well were the flocks watered) & there was a great stone vpon the welles mouth.
And thither were all the flocks gathered, and they rolled the stone from the welles mouth, and watered the shepe, & put the stone againe vpon the welles mouth in his place.
4 And Jaakób said vnto them, My brethren, whence be ye? And they answered, We are of Harán.
5 Then he said vnto them, Knowe ye Labán the sonne of Nahór? Who said, We knowe him.
6 Again he said vnto them, Is he in good health? And they answered, [He is] in good health, & beholde, his daughter Rahel commeth with the shepe.
7 Then he said, Lo, [it is] yet hie day, neither [is it] time that the cattell shulde be gathered together: watter ye the shepe & go fede [them].
8 But they said, We may not, vntill all the flocks be brought together, and til [that men] rolle the stone from the welles mouth, that we may watter the shepe.
9 ¶ While he talked with them, Rahel also came with her fathers shepe, for she kept them.

10 And asone as Jaakób saue Rahel daughter of Labán his mothers brother, and the shepe of Labán his mothers brother, the came Jaakób nere, and rolled the stone from the welles mouth, & watered the flocke of Labán his mothers brother.
11 And Jaakób kissed Rahel, and lift vp his voyce and wept.
12 (For Jaakób tolde Rahel, he was her fathers brother, & that he was Rebeccas sonne) then she ran and tolde her father.
13 And when Labán heard tel of Jaakób his sisters sonne, he ran to mete him, and embrased him and kissed him, & broghe him to his house: and he tolde Labán all these things.
14 To whome Labán said, Wel, thou art my bone and my flesh. & he abode with him the space of a moneth.
15 ¶ For Labán said vnto Jaakób, Thogh thou be my brother, shuldest thou therefore serue me for noght? tel me, what [shal be] thy wages?
16 Now Labán had two daughters, the elder called Leáh, & yonger called Rahel.
17 And Leáh was tender eyed, But Rahel was beautiful and faire.
18 And Jaakób loued Rahel, & said, I wil serue the seuen yeres for Rahel thy yonger daughter.
19 Then Labán answered, It is better that I giue her thee, then that I shulde giue her to another man: abide with me.
20 And Jaakób serued seuen yeres for Rahel, and they semed vnto him but a fewe daies, because he loued her.
21 ¶ The Jaakób said to Labán, Giue [me] my wife, that I maie go in to her: for my terme is ended.
22 Wherefore Labán gathered together all the men of the place, and made a feast.
23 But when the euening was come, he toke Leáh his daughter and brought her to him, and he went in vnto her.
24 And Labán gaue his maide Zilpáh to his daughter Leáh, [to be] her seruant.
25 But when the morning was come, beholde, it was Leah. Then said he to Labán, Wherefore hast thou done thus to me? did not I serue thee for Rahel? wherefore then hast thou beguiled me?
26 And Labán answered, It is not the manner of this place, to giue the yonger before the elder.
27 Fulfil seuen yeres for her, and we wil also giue thee this for the seruice, which thou shalt serue me yet seuen yeres more.
28 Then Jaakób did so, & fulfilled her seuen yeres, so he gaue him Rahel his daughter to [be] his wife.

Beniamin and Judah were born to him in that night.

That is, that cause why he departed from his fathers house, and what he saue in the way.
That is, of my blood and kindred.

Or, blessed.

Meaning, after that the yeres were accomplished.

Ebr. my daies are full.

The cause why Jaakób was deceived was, in olde time the wife was couered with a vaille, when she was brought to her houshold in signe of chastitie & shamefastnes.

He esteemed more the promise that he had of Jaakób seruice then either his promise or the manner of the countrey, though he alleged excuse for his excuse.

29 Labán also gaue to Rahél his daughter Bilhá his maide [to be] her seruant.

30 So entred he in to Rahél also, & loued also Rahél more them Leáh, and serued him yet seuen yeres mo.

31 ¶ When the Lord sawe that Leáh was despised, he made her fruteful: but Rahél [was] barren.

32 And Leáh conceiued and bare a sonne, and she called his name Reubén: for she said, Because the Lord hath looked vpon my tribulation, now therefore mine housband wil loue me.

33 And she conceiued againe and bare a sonne, and said, Because the Lord heard that I was hated, he hath therefore giue me this [sonne] also, and she called his name Simeón.

34 And she conceiued againe and bare a sonne, and said, Now at this time wil my housband kepe me companie, because I haue borne him thre sonnes: therefore was his name called Leuí.

35 Moreouer she conceiued againe & bare a sonne, saying, Now wil I praise the Lord: therefore she called his name Iudáh, and left bearing.

¶ CHAP. XXX.

4. 9 Rahel and Leah being bothe barren giue their maidens vnto their housband, & they beare him children. 15 Leah giueth mandrakes to Rahel that Iakob might lie with her. 27 Laban is enriched for Iakobs sake. 43 Iakob is made very riche.

1 And when Rahél sawe that she bare Iakób no children, Rahél enuied her sister, and said vnto Iakób, Giue me children, or els I dye.

2 The Iakobs angre was kindeled against Rahél, and he said, Am I in Gods stede, which hath withholden from thee the frute of the wombe?

3 And she said, Beholde my maide Bilhá, go in to her, and she shal beare vpon my knees, & I shal haue children also by her.

4 Then she gaue him Bilhá her maide to wife, and Iakób went in to her.

5 So Bilhá conceiued and bare Iakób a sonne.

6 Then said Rahél, God hath giuen sentence on my side, & hath also heard my voyce, and hath giuen me a sonne: therefore called she his name, Dan.

7 And Bilhá Rahels maide conceiued againe, & bare Iakób the seconde sonne.

8 Then Rahél said, Witht excellēt wrestlings haue I wrestled with my sister, and haue gotten the vpper hand: and she called his name, Naphtalí.

9 And when Leáh sawe that she had left bearing, she toke Zilpáh her maide, and gaue her Iakób to wife.

10 And Zilpáh Leahs maide bare Iakób a sonne.

11 Then said Leáh, A companie cometh: and she called his name, Gad.

12 Againe Zilpáh Leahs maide bare Iakób another sonne.

13 Then said Leáh, Ah, blessed am I, for daughters wil blesse me. and she called his name, Ashér.

14 ¶ Now Reubén went in the dayes of wheat haruest & founde mandrakes in the field, & broght them vnto his mother Leáh. Then said Rahél to Leáh, Giue me, I pray thee, of thy sonnes mandrakes.

15 But she answered her, Is it a smale matter for thee to take mine housband, except thou take my sonnes mandrakes also? Then said Rahel, Therefore he shal slepe with thee this night for thy sonnes mandrakes.

16 And Iakób came from the field in the euening, and Leáh went out to mete him, & said, Come in to me, for I haue bought and payed for thee with my sonnes mandrakes: and he slept with her that night.

17 And God heard Leáh, & she conceiued and bare vnto Iakób the fift sonne.

18 Then said Leáh, God hath giuen [me] my rewarde, because I gaue my maide to my housband, and she called his name Issachár.

19 After, Leáh conceiued againe and bare Iakób the sixt sonne.

20 Then Leáh said, God hath endued me with a good dowrie: now wil mine housband dwel with me, because I haue borne him six sonnes: and she called his name Zebulún.

21 After that, she bare a daughter, and she called her name Dináh.

22 ¶ And God remembred Rahél, & God heard her, and opened her wombe.

23 So she conceiued and bare a sonne, and said, God hath taken away my rebuke.

24 And she called his name Ioséph, saying, The Lord wil giue me yet another sonne.

25 ¶ And as sone as Rahél had borne Ioséph, Iakób said to Labán, Send me away that I may go vnto my place and to my countrey.

26 Giue [me] my wiues and my children, for whome I haue serued thee, and let me go: for thou knowest what seruice I haue done thee.

27 To whome Labán answered, If I haue now founde fauour in thy sight, [saie:] I haue perceiued that the Lord hath blessed me for thy sake.

28 Also he said, Appoint vnto me thy wages, and I wil giue it [thee.]

29 But he said vnto him, Thou knowest what seruice I haue done thee, & in what taking thy cattel hath bene vnder me.

30 For the litle, that thou haddest before I came, is increased into a multitude: and the Lord hath blessed thee by my coming: but now when shal I trauel for mine owne house also?

31 The he said, What shal I giue thee? And Jaakób answered, Thou shalt giue me nothing at all: if thou wilt do this thing for me, I wil returne, fede, [and] kepe thy shepe.

32 I wil passe through all thy flockes this day, [&] I separat from them all the shepe with litle spotted and great spotted, & all blacke lambes among the shepe, and the great spotted, and litle spotted among the goates: and it shal be my wages.

33 So shal my righteousnes answer for me hereafter, when it shal come for my rewarde before thy face, [&] euerie one that hath not litle or great spotted among the goates, and blacke among the shepe, the same shal be theft with me.

34 Then Labán said, Go to, wolde God it might be according to thy saying.

35 Therefore he toke out the same day his goates that were partycoloured and with great spotted, and all the she goates with litle & great spotted, [and] all that had white in the, & all the blacke among the shepe, and put them in the keping of his sonnes.

36 And he set three daies journey betwene him selfe and Jaakób. & Jaakób kept the rest of Labans shepe.

37 ¶ Then Jaakób toke rodde of grene popular, and of hasel, and of the chesnut tree, and piled white strakes in them, and made the white appeare in the rodde.

38 Then he put the rodde, which he had piled, in the gutters [and] watering troghes, when the shepe came to drinke, before the shepe: (for they were in heate, when they came to drinke)

39 And the shepe were in heate before the rodde, & [afterward] brought forth the yong of partycolour, and with smale and great spotted.

40 And Jaakób parted these lambes, and turned the faces of the flocke towards [these lambes] partycoloured and all manner of blacke, among the shepe of Labán: so he put his owne flockes by them selues, & put them not with Labans flocke.

41 And in euerie ramming tyme of the stronger shepe, Jaakób laied the rodde before the eies of the shepe in the gutters, that they might conceiue before the rodde.

42 But when the shepe were feble, he put them not in: and so febler were Labans, and the stronger Jaakobs.

43 So the man encreased exceedingly, and had manie flockes, & maide seruants, and men seruants, and camels, and asses.

¶ CHAP. XXXI.

1 Labans children murmure against Jaakób. 3 God commandeth him to returne to his countrey. 14 The care of God for Jaakób. 19 Rahel stealeth her fathers idoles. 23. Laban followeth Jaakób. 44 The couenant betwene Laban and Jaakób.

1 Now he heard the wordes of Labans sonnes, saying, Jaakób hath taken away all that was our fathers, and of our fathers goods hath he gotten all this honour.

2 Also Jaakób behelde the countenance of Labán, that it was not towards him as in times past:

3 And the Lord had said vnto Jaakób, Turne againe into the land of thy fathers, and to thy kined, and I wil be with thee.

4 Therefore Jaakób sent and called Rahel and Leah to the field vnto his flocke.

5 The said he vnto them, Ife your fathers countenance, that it is not towards me as it was wonte, and the God of my father hath bene with me.

6 And ye knowe that I haue serued your father with all my might.

7 But your father hath deceiued me, and changed my wages ten times: but God suffred him not to hurt me.

8 If he thus said, The spotted shal be thy wages, then all the shepe bare spotted: & if he said thus, The partycoloured shal be thy reward, then bare all the shepe partycoloured.

9 Thus hath God taken away your fathers substance, and giuen it me.

10 ¶ For in ramming time I lifted vp mine eies and lawe in a dreame, and beholde, the hie goates leaped vpon the she goates, that were partycoloured, with litle and great spotted spotted.

11 And the Angel of God said to me in a dreame, Jaakób. And I answered, Lo, I am here.

12 And he said, lift vp now thine eies, and se all the he goates leaping vpon the she goates that are partycoloured, spotted with litle & great spotted: for I haue sene all that Laban doeth vnto thee.

14 Then answered Rahél and Leáh, and said vnto him, Haue we any more portion and enheritance in our fathers house?

15 Doeth not he count vs as strangers? for he hath sold vs, and hath eaten vp & consumed our monie.

16 Therefore all þe riches, which God hath taken from our father, is ours and our childrens: now then whatsoever God hath said vnto thee, do it.

17 ¶ Then Iaakób rose vp, and set his sonnes and his wiues vpon camels.

18 And he caried awaie all his flockes, and all his substance which he had gotten, [to wit,] his riches, which he had gotten in Padán Arám, for to go to Izhak his father, vnto the land of Canaan.

19 When Labán was gone to shere his shepe, then Rahél stole her fathers idoles.

20 Thus Iaakób † stole away the heart of Labán the Aramite: for he tolde him not that he fled.

21 So fled he with all that he had, & he rose vp, and passed the riuer, and set his face toward mount Gileád.

22 The third day after was it tolde Labán that Iaakób fled.

23 Then he toke his brethren with him, & followed after him seuen dayes iourney, and touerke him at mount Gileád.

24 And God came to Labán the Aramite in a dreame by night, and said vnto him, Take hede that thou speake not to Iaakób † ought saue good.

25 ¶ Then Labán ouerke Iaakób, & Iaakób had pitched his tent in the mount: & Labán also with his brethren pitched vpon mount Gileád.

26 Then Labán said to Iaakób, What hast thou done? † thou hast euen stolen away mine heart, & caried away my daughters as though they had bene taken captiues wth the sword.

27 Wherefore diddest thou flee so secretly & stele away from me, & diddest not tel me, that I might haue sent the forth with mirth and with songs, with timbrel & with harpe.

28 But thou hast not suffred me to kisse my sonnes & my daughters: now thou hast done foolishly in doing so.

29 I am fable to do you euil: but the God of your father spake vnto me yesternight, saying, Take hede that thou speake not to Iaakób ought saue good.

30 Now thogh thou wentest thy way, because thou greatly longedst after thy fathers house: [yet] wherefore hast thou stolen my gods?

31 The Iaakób answered, & said to Labán, Because I was afraid, & thought that thou woldest haue taken thy daughters from me.

32 [But] wth whome thou findest thy gods, let him not liue. Serche thou before our brethren what I haue [of thine,] & take it to thee (but Iaakób wist not that Rahél had stolen them)

33 Then came Labán into Iaakóbs tent, & into Leahs tent, and into the two maides tentes, but founde [them] not. so he went out of Leahs tent, & entred into Rahels tent.

34 (Now Rahel had taken the idoles and put them in the camels † litter and sate downe vpon them) and Labán serched all the tent, but founde [them] not.

35 Then said she to her father, † My lord, be not angry that I can not rise vp before thee: for the custome of women [is] vpon me: so he serched, but founde not the idoles.

36 ¶ Then Iaakób was wroth, & chode wth Labán: Iaakób also answered and said to Labán, What haue I trespassed? what haue I offended, that thou hast pursued after me?

37 Seing thou hast serched all my stuffe, what hast † founde of all thine householde stuffe? put it here before my brethren and thy brethren, that they may iudge betwene vs bothe.

43 Then Labán answered, & said vnto Iaakób, These daughters are my daughters, and these sonnes are my sonnes, and these shepe are my shepe, & all that thou seest is mine.

For thei were giuen to Iaakób in recompence of his seruice which was a kinde of sel.

is mine, and what can I do this day vnto these my daughters, or to their sonnes which they haue borne?

44 Now therefore come and let vs make a couenant, I and thou, which may be a witness betwene me and thee.

45 Then toke laakob a stone, and set it vp [as] a pillar:

46 And laakob said vnto his brethren, Gather stones: who brought stones, and made an heape, and they did eat there vpon the heape.

47 And Laban called it ^tIegár-sahaduthá, and laakob called it ^kGaleéd.

48 For Laban said, This heape is witness betwene me & thee this day: therefore he called the name of it Galeéd. Also [he called it]

51 Moreover Laban said to laakob, Beholde this heape, & beholde ^f pillar, which I haue set betwene me and thee, 52 This heape [shalbe] witness, and the pillar [shalbe] witness that I wil not come ouer this heape to thee, & that thou shalt not passe ouer this heape & this pillar vnto me for euil.

54 Then laakob did offre a sacrifice vpon the mount, and called his brethren to eat ^tbread, and they did eat bread, and taried all night in the mount.

55 And early in ^f morning Laban rose vp and kissed his sonnes & his daughters, & ^p blessed them, & Laban departing, went vnto his place againe.

¶ CHAP. XXXII.

1 God comforteth laakob by his Angels. 9. 10 He praieeth vnto God confessing his vnworthines. 13 He sendeth presentes vnto Esau. 14. 18 He wrestleth with the Angel who nameth him Israel.

NOW laakob went forthe on his iourney & the Angels of God met him.

2 And when laakob sawe them, he said, ^a This is Gods host, & called the name of the same place ^t Mahanáim.

3 Then laakob sent messengers before him to Esau his brother, vnto the land of Seir into the country of Edóm.

4 To whome he gaue commandmēt, saying, Thus shal ye speake to my ^b lord Esau: Thy seruant laakob saith thus, I haue bene a stranger with Laban & taried vnto this time.

5 I haue beues also and asses, shepe, & men seruantes, and women seruantes, & haue sent to shewe my lord, that I may finde grace in thy sight.

6 ¶ So the messengers came againe to laakob, saying, We came vnto thy brother Esau, & he also commeth against thee, & foure hundred men with him.

7 Then laakob was ^c greatly afraid, and was sore troubled, & deuised the people that was with him, and the shepe, and the beues, and the camels into two companies.

8 For he said, If Esau come to the one companie and smite it, the other companie shal escape.

9 ¶ Moreover laakob said, O God of my father Abraham, and God of my father Izhak, Lord, which faidest vnto me, Returne vnto thy country & to thy kindred, and I wil do thee good,

10 I am not ^t worthie of the least of all the mercies & all the trueth which thou hast shewed vnto thy seruants: For ^w my ^d staffe came I ouer this Iordén, and now haue I gotten two bandes, 11 I pray thee, Deliuer me from the hand of my brother, from the hand of Esau: for I feare him, lest he wil come & smite me, [&] the ^e mother vpon the children.

12 For ^f faidest, I wil surely do thee good, and make thy sede as the sand of the sea, which can not be nombred for multitude.

13 ¶ And he taried there the same night, & toke of that which came to hand, a ^p present for Esau his brother.

14 Two hundred she goates, and twentie he goates, two hundred ewes and twentie rammes:

15 Thirty milche camels with their coltes, fourtie kine, & ten bullockes, twentie she asses and ten foles.

16 So he deliuered them into the hand of his seruantes, euerie droue by them selues, & said vnto his seruants, Passe before me, and put a space betwene droue & droue.

17 And he commanded the foremost, saying, If Esau my brother mete thee, & aske thee, saying, Whose [seruant] art thou? & whither goest thou? and whose are these before thee?

18 Then thou shalt say, [They be] thy seruant laakob: it is a present sent vnto my lord Esau: and beholde, he him selfe also is behinde vs.

19 So likewise commanded he the secōde & the third, & all that followed the droue.

Albeit he was comforted by Angels, yet the infirmite of the fleshe doeth appeare.

Ebr. I am lesse then all thy mercies. That is poore and without all prouision.

Meaning he wil put all to death: this prometh of them whiche kille the birde together with her yong ones.

ues, saying, after this maner ye shal speake vnto Esau, when ye finde him.

20 And ye shal say morcouer, beholde, thy seruant Iaakób commeth after vs (for he thought, I wil appease his wrath with the present that goeth before me, and afterward I wil se his face: it may be that he wil accept me)

21 So went the present before him: but he carried that night with the companie.

22 And he rose vp the same night, and toke his two wiues, and his two maides, and his eleuen children, & went ouer the forde Iabbók.

23 And he toke them, & sent them ouer the riuer, & sent ouer that he had.

24 ¶ Whē Iaakób was left him selfe alone, there wrestled a man with him vnto the breaking of the day.

25 And he sawe that he colde not preuaile against him: therefore he touched the holow of his thigh, & the holow of Iaakobs thigh was losed as he wrestled with him.

26 And he said, Let me go, for morning appeareth. Who answered, * I wil not let thee go except thou blesse me.

27 Then said he vnto him, What is thy name? And he said, Iaakób.

28 Then said he, * Thy name shalbe called Iaakób no more, but Israël: because thou hast had * power with God, thou shalt also preuaile with men.

29 Then Iaakób demāded, saying, Tel me, I pray thee, thy name. And he said, Wherefore now doeſt thou aske my name? And he blessed him there.

30 And Iaakób called the name of the place, Peniél: for, [said he,] I haue sene God face to face, and my life is preserved.

31 And the sunne rose to him as he passed Peniél, and he halted vpon his thigh.

32 Therefore the children of Israël eat not of the sinew that shranke in the holow of the thigh, vnto this day: because he touched the sinew that shranke in the holow of Iaakobs thigh.

¶ CHAP. XXXIII.

4 Esau and Iaakob mete and are agreed. 11 Esau receiueth his gifts. 19 Iaakob byeth a possession. 20 And buyeth an altar.

1 And as Iaakób lift vp his eies, and looked, beholde, Esau came, and with him foure hundred men: and he deuīded the children to Leáh, & to Rahél, & and to the two maides.

2 And he put the maides & their children foremost, and Leáh and her children after, and Rahél and Ioséph hindermost.

3 So he went before them, & bowed him selfe to the grounde seuen times, vntill he came nere to his brother.

4 Then Esau ran to mete him, and embraced him, and fel on his necke, and kissed him: and thei wept.

5 And he lift vp his eies, and sawe the women, and the children, and said, Who are these with thee? And he answered, [Thei are] the children whome God of his grace hath giuen thy seruant.

6 Then came the maides nere, thei, and their children, and bowed them selues.

7 Leáh also with her children came nere, and made obeisance: and after Ioséph & Rahél drewe nere and did reuerence.

8 Then he said, What meanest thou by all this droue, which I met? Who answered, [I haue sent it,] that I may finde fauour in the sight of my lord.

9 And Esau said, I haue ynough, my brother, kepe that thou hast to thy selfe.

10 But Iaakób answered, Nay, I pray thee: if I haue founde grace now in thy sight, then receiue my present at mine hand: for I haue sene thy face, as thogh I had sene the face of God, because thou hast accepted me.

11 I pray thee take my blessing, that is brought thee: for God hath had mercie on me, & therefore I haue all things: so he compelled him, and he toke it.

12 And he said, Let vs take our iourney & go, and I wil go before thee.

13 Then he answered him, My lord knoweth that the children [are] tendre, and the ewes & kine with yong vnder mine hād: & if thei shulde ouerdrue them one day, all the flocke wolde dye.

14 Let now my lord go before his seruant, and I wil driue softly, according to the passe of the cattel, which is before me, & as the children be able to endure, vntill I come vnto my lord vnto Seir.

15 Then Esau said, I wil leaue then some of my folke with thee. And he answered, What needeth this? let me finde grace in the sight of my lord.

16 ¶ So Esau returned, [and went] his way that same day vnto Seir.

17 And Iaakób went forwarde towarde Succoth, & buyt him an house, and made bootches for his cattel: therefore he called the name of the place Succoth.

18 ¶ Afterwarde, Iaakób came safe to Shechem, a citie which is in the land of Canaan, when he came from Padan Aram, and pitched before the citie.

19 And there he bought a parcel of grounde, where he pitched his tent, at the hand of the sonnes of Hamór Shechems father, for an hundredth pieces of money.

He thought it no losse to departe w these goods, to the intent he might follow the vocation wherunto God called him.

CHAP. XXXIII.

2 Dinah is rauished. 8 Hamor asketh her in marriage for his sonne. 11 The Shechemites are circumcised at the request of Iaakobs sonnes, and the persuation of Hamor. 15
The whoredome is reuenged. 28 Iaakob reproveth his sonnes.

1 Then Dinah the daughter of Leah, w she bare vnto Iaakób, went out to se the daughters of that countrey.

2 Whome when Shechem the sonne of Hamor the Heuite, lord of that countrey sawe, he toke her, and lay with her, and defiled her.

3 So his heart claued vnto Dinah, & daughter of Iaakób: and he loued the maide, & spake kindly vnto the maide.

4 The said Shechem to his father Hamor, saying, Get me this maide to wife.

5 (Now Iaakób heard that he had defiled Dinah his daughter, and his sonnes were with his cattel in the field: therefore Iaakób helde his peace, vntill they were come)

6 Then Hamor the father of Shechem went out vnto Iaakób to commune with him.

7 And when the sonnes of Iaakób were come out of the field and heard it, it grieved the men, & they were very angrie, because he had wrought villennie in Israël, in that he had lien with Iaakobs daughter:
which thing ought not to be done.

8 And Hamor communed with them, saying, The soule of my sonne Shechem longeth for your daughter: giue her him to wife, I pray you.

9 So make affinitie w vs: giue your daughters vnto vs, and take our daughters vnto
you,

10 And ye shal dwel with vs, and the land shal be before you: dwel, and do your bu-sines in it, and haue your possessions therein.

11 Shechem also said vnto her father and vnto her brethren, Let me finde fauour in your eyes, and I wil giue whatsoever ye shal appoint me.

12 Aske of me abundantly bothe dowrie and giftes, & I wil giue as ye appoint me, so that ye giue me the maide to wife.

13 The sonnes of Iaakób answered Shechem and Hamor his father, talking among them selues deceitfully, because he had defiled Dinah their sister,

14 And they said vnto them, We can not do this thing, to giue our sister to an vn-circumcised man: for that were a reprofe vnto vs.

15 But in this wil we consent vnto you, if ye wil be as we [are,] that euerie man childe among you be circumcised, 16 The wil we giue our daughters to you, and we wil take your daughters to vs, and wil dwel with you and be one people.

17 But if ye wil not hearken vnto vs, to be circumcised, then wil we take our daughter and departe.

18 Now their wordes pleased Hamor, and Shechem Hamors sonne.

19 And the yong man deferde not to do the thing, because he loued Iaakobs daughter: he was also the moste fer by of all his fathers house.

20 Then Hamor & Shechem his sonne went vnto the gate of their citie, & communed with the men of their citie, saying,

21 These men are peaceable with vs: and they may dwel in the land, and do their affaires therein (for beholde, the land hath the rounge ynough for them) let vs take their daughters to wiues, and giue them our daughters.

22 Onely hercin wil the men consent vnto vs for to dwel with vs, and to be one people, if all the men children among vs be circucised as they are circumcised.

23 Shal not their flockes and their substāce and all their cattel be ours: onely let vs consent [herein] vnto them, and they wil dwel with vs.

24 And vnto Hamor, & Shechem his sonne hearkened all that went out of the gate of his citie: and all the men children were circumcised, [euē] all that went out of the gate of his citie.

25 And on the third day (when thei were fore) two of the sonnes of Iaakób, Simeon and Leui, Dinahs brethren, toke ether of them his sworde, & went into the citie boldely, and slewe euerie male.

26 They slewe also Hamor and Shechem his sonne with the edge of the sworde, & toke Dinah out of Shechems house, and went their way.

27 [Againe] the [other] sonnes of Iaakób came vpon the dead, and spoiled the citie, because they had defiled their sister.

28 Thei toke their shepe, and their beues, and their asses, & whatsoever was in the citie, and in the fields.

29 Also thei caried away captiue and spoiled all their goods, and all their children and their wiues, and all that was in the houses.

30 Then Iaakób said to Simeon and Leui, Ye haue troubled me, & made me stinke among the inhabitants of the lād, [saue] the Canaanites, as the Perizzites: and I being fewe in nombre, they shal gather

CHAP. XXXV.

1 Isakob at Gods commandment goeth vp to Beth-el. 2 He reformeth his householde. 3 Deborah dyeth. 12 The land of Canaan is promised him. 18 Rahel dyeth in labour. 22 Reuben lieth with his fathers concubine. 29 The death of Izhak.

1 THEN * God said to Isakob, Arise, go vp to Beth-el & dwel there, and make there an altar vnto God, that appeared vnto thee, * when thou fleddest from Esau thy brother.

2 Then said Isakob vnto his householde & to all that were with him, Put away the strange gods that are among you, & beleue your selues, & change your garments: For we wil rise and go vp to Beth-el, and I wil make an altar there vnto God, which heard me in the day of my tribulation, & was with me in the way which I went.

4 And they gaue vnto Isakob all the strange gods, which [were] in their hands, and all their eearings which were in their eares, and Isakob hid them vnder an oke, which was by Shechem.

5 Then they went on their iourney, and the feare of God was vpon the cities y^e were round about them: so that thei did not followe after the sonnes of Isakob.

6 ¶ So came Isakob to Luz, which is in the land of Canaan (the same is Beth-el,) he and all the people that was with him:

7 And he buylt there an altar, & * had called the place, The God of Beth-el, because that God appeared vnto him there, when he fled from his brother.

8 Then Deborah Rebekahs nourse dyed, and was buried beneth Beth-el vnder an oke: and he called the name of it † Allon bachuth.

9 ¶ Againe God appeared vnto Isakob, after he came out of Padan Aram, and blessed him.

10 Moreouer God said vnto him, Thy name is Isakob: thy name shal be no more called Isakob, but * Israél shal be thy name: and he called his name Israél.

11 Againe God said vnto him, I am God tall sufficient, growe, & multiplie: a nation and a multitude of nations shal spring of thee, and Kings shal come out of thy loynes.

12 Also I wil giue the land, which I gaue to Abraham & Izhak: vnto thee, & vnto thy sedefter thee wil I giue that land.

13 So God ascended from him in the place where he had talked with him.

14 And Isakob set vp a pillar in the place where he talked with him, a pillar of stone, and powred drinke offering thereon: also he powred oyle thereon.

15 And Isakob called the name of the place, where God spake with him, Beth-el.

16 ¶ Then thei departed from Beth-el, & when there was about halfe a daies iourney of ground to come to Ephrath, Rahel traualled, and in traouling she was in perill.

17 And when she was in peines of her labour, the midwife said vnto her, Feare not: for thou [shalt haue] this sonne also.

18 Then as she was about to yelde vp the goste (for she dyed) she called his name Ben-oni, but his father called him Beniamin.

19 Thus dyed Rahel, & was buried in the way to Ephrath, which is Beth-lehem.

20 And Isakob set a pillar vpon her graue: This is the pillar of Rahels graue vnto this day.

21 ¶ Then Israél went forward, and pitched his tent beyonde Migdal-éder.

22 Now, when Israél dwelt in that land, Reuben went, and laye * with Bilhah his fathers concubine, and it came to Israels eare. And Isakob had twelue sonnes.

23 The sonnes of Leah, Reuben Isakobs eldest sonne, and Simeon, & Leui, and Iudáh, & Issachar, & Zebulun.

24 The sonnes of Rahel, Ioseph and Beniamin.

25 And y^e sonnes of Bilhah Rahels maide, Dan and Naphtali.

26 And the sonnes of Zilpah Leahs maide, Gad and Asher. these are the sonnes of Isakob, which were borne him in Padan Aram.

27 ¶ Then Isakob came vnto Izhak his father to Mamré a citie of Arbáh: this is Hebrón, where Abraham and Izhak were strangers.

28 And the dayes of Izhak were an hundredth and foure score yeres.

29 And Izhak gaue vp the goste and dyed, and was * gathered vnto his people, being olde and ful of daies: & his sonnes Esau and Isakob buried him.

CHAP. XXXVII.

Joseph accuseth his brethren. He dreameth and is hated of his brethren. 28 They sel him to the Ishmaelites. 34 Iakob bewaileth Joseph.

1 Iakob now dwelt in the land wherein his father was a stranger, in the land of Canaan.

2 These are the generations of Iakob, [when] Joseph was seventeenth yere olde: he kept shepe with his brethren, and the childe was with the sonnes of Bilhah, and with the sonnes of Zilpah, his fathers wives. And Joseph brought vnto their father their euil [†] saying.

3 Now Israel loued Joseph more then all his sonnes, because he begate him in his olde age, and he made him a coate of many [†] colours.

4 So when his brethren sawe that their father loued him more then all his brethren, then they hated him, and colde not speake peaceably vnto him.

5 ¶ And Joseph dreamed a dreame, and tolde his brethren, who hated him so muche the more:

6 For he said vnto thē, Heare, I pray you, this dreame which I haue dreamed.

7 Beholde now, we were binding sheues in the middes of the field: & lo, my shefe arose and also stode vp right, & beholde, your sheues compassed rounde about, & did reuerence to my shefe.

8 Then his brethren said to him, What shalt thou reigne ouer vs, and rule vs? or shalt thou haue altogether dominiō ouer vs? And they ^d hated him so muche the more, for his dreames, and for his wordes.

9 ¶ Again he dreamed an other dreame, & tolde it his brethren, & said, Beholde, I haue had one dreame more, & beholde, the sunne and the moone and eleuen starres did reuerence to me.

10 Then he tolde it vnto his father and to his brethren, & his father ^e rebuked him, & said vnto him, What is this dreame, & thou hast dreamed? shal I, and thy mother, and thy brethren come in dede and fall on the grounde before thee?

11 And his brethren enuied him, but his father [†] noted the saying.

12 ¶ Then his brethren went to kepe their fathers shepe in Shechem.

13 And Israel said vnto Joseph, Do not thy brethren kepe in Shechem? come & I will send thee to them.

14 And he answered him, I am here. Then he said vnto him, Go now, se whether it be wel with thy brethren, and how the flockes prosper, and bring me worde againe. so he sent him from the vale of Hebron, and he came to Shechem.

15 ¶ Thē a man founde him: for lo, he was wandering in the field, and the man asked him, saying, What sekest thou?

16 And he answered, I seke my brethren: tel me, I pray thee, where they kepe [shepe.]

17 And the man said, They are departed hence: for I heard them say, Let vs go vnto Dothan. Then went Joseph after his brethren, and found them in Dothan.

18 And when they sawe him a far of, euen before he came at them, they ^s conspired against him for to slay him.

19 For they said one to an other, Beholde, this [†] dreamer commeth.

20 Come now therefore, & let vs slay him, and cast him into some pit, & we wil say, A wicked beast hath deuoured him: the we shal se, what wil come of his dreames.

21 ¶ But when Reuben heard [that,] he deliuered him out of their hands, and said, Let vs not kil him.

22 Also Reuben said vnto them, Shed not blood, [but] cast him into this pit that is in the wildernes, and lay no hand vpon him. [Thus he said,] that he might deliuer him out of their hand, & restore him to his father againe.

23 ¶ Now when Joseph was come vnto his brethren, they stript Joseph out of his coate, his particoloured coate that was vpon him.

24 And they toke him, & cast ^h him into a pit, & the pit [was] empty, without water in it.

25 Then they sat them downe to eat bread, and they lift vp their eies and looked, and beholde, there came a company of Ishmaelites from Gilead, and their camels laden with spicerie, and rosen, and myrrhe, and were going to carie it downe into Egypt.

26 Then Iudah said vnto his brethren, What auaileth it, if we slaie our brother, though we kepe his blood secret?

27 Come & let vs sel him to the Ishmaelites, and let not our hands be vpon him: for he is our brother, & our flesh: and his brethren

¶ CHAP. XXXVIII.

1 The marriage of Iudah. 9 The trespass of Er and Onan, and the vengeance of God that came thereupon.
18 Iudah lyeth with his daughter in lawe Tamar.
30 The birth of Pharez and Zarah.

1 And at that time * Iudah wet downe from his brethren, and turned in to a man called Hirah an Adullamite.

2 And Iudah saue there the daughter of a man called * Shuah a Canaanite: & he toke her [to wife,] and went in vnto her.

3 So she conceived and bare a sonne, & he called his name Er.

4 * And she conceived againe, and bare a sonne, and called his name Onan.

5 Moreover she bare yet a sonne, whome she called Shelah: & [Iudah] was at Chezib when she bare him.

6 Then Iudah toke a wife to Er his firstbor-ne [sonne] whose name [was] Tamar.

7 * Now Er the firstborne of Iudah was wicked in the sight of the Lord: therefore the Lord slewe him.

8 Then Iudah said to Onan, Go in vnto thy brothers wife, and do the office of a kinsman vnto her, & raise * vp seide vnto thy brother.

9 And Onan knewe that † seide shulde not be his: therefore when he wet in vnto his brothers wife, he spilled it on the grounde, lest he shulde giue seide vnto his brother.

10 And it was wicked in the eyes of † Lord, wh he did: wherefore he slewe him also.

11 Then said Iudah to Tamar his daughter in lawe, † Remaine a widowe in thy fathers house, til Shelah my sonne growe vp (for he thought thus, †) Lest he die as wel as his brethren) So Tamar went & dwelt in her fathers house.

12 ¶ And in processe of time also † daughter of Shuah Iudahs wife dyed. Then Iudah, when he had left mourning, went vp to his shepherders to Timnath, he, and his neighbour Hirah the Adullamite.

13 And it was tolde Tamar, saying, Beholde, thy father in lawe goeth vp to Tim-nath, to shere his shepe.

14 Then she put her widowes garments of from her, & couered [her] with a vail, & wrapped her selfe, & fate downe in † Pethah-enaim, wh is by the way to Timnath, because she sawe that Shelah was grown,
and she was not giuen vnto him to wife.

15 When Iudah sawe her, he iudged her an whore: for she had couered her face.

16 And he turned to the way towards her,
& said, Come, I pray thee, let me lye with thee. (for he knewe not that she was his daughter in lawe) And she answered,
What wilt thou giue me for to lye wth thee?

17 Then said he, I wil send thee a kid of the goates from † stocke. & she said, [Wel,] if thou wilt giue me a pledge, til † send it.

18 Then he said, What is the pledge that I shal giue thee? And she answered, Thy signet, & thy tloke, and thy staffe that is in thine hand. So he gaue it her, and lay by her, and she was with childe by him.

19 Then she rose, and went & put her vail from her, & put on her widowes rayment.

20 Afterward Iudah sent a kid of † goates by the hand of his † neighbour the Adul-lamite, for to receiue his pledge from the womans hand: but he founde her not.

21 Then asked he the me of that place, saying, Where is † whore, that fate in Enaim by the way side? And they answered, There was no whore here.

22 He came therefore to Iudah agane, and said, I can not finde her: & also the men of the place said, There was no whore there.

23 Then Iudah said, Let her take it to her, lest we be † shamed: beholde I sent this kid, and thou hast not founde her.

CHAP. XXXIX.

1 Ioseph is sold to Potiphar. 2 God prospereth him. 7 Po- tipharis wife tempteth him. 13. 20 He is accused & cast in prison. 21 God sheweth him fauour.

¶ Now Ioseph was brought downe into Egypt: & Potiphar^a an Eunuche of Pharaohs ([and his] cheif stuard an Egy- ptian) bought him at the hand of the Ishma- elites which had brought him thether.

2 And the Lord^b was with Ioseph, and he was a man that prospered, and was in the house of his master the Egyptian.

3 And his master sawe that the Lord [was] with him, and that the Lord made all that he did to prosper in his hand.

4 So Ioseph founde fauour in his sight, & serued him: and he made him^c ruler of his house, and put all that he had in his hand.

5 And fro^r that time that he had made him ruler ouer his house, & ouer al that he had, the Lord^d blessed the Egyptians house for Iosephs sake: and the blessing of the Lord was vpon al that he had in the house, and in the field.

6 Therefore he left all that he had in Iosephs hand, & toke accompte of nothing [y^e was] with him, saue onely of the bread, which he did eat. And Ioseph was a faire personne, and wel fauoured.

7 ¶ Now therefore, after these things, his masters wife cast her eyes vpon Ioseph, & said, Lye with me.

8 But he refused, & said to his masters wi- fe. Beholde, my master knoweth not what [he hath] in the house with me, but hath committed al that he hath to mine hand.

9 There is no ma^e greater in this house then

I, nether hath he kept any thing from me, but onely thee, because thou art his wife: how then can I do this great wickednes, and [so] sinne against^g God?

10 And albeit she spake to Ioseph day by day, yet he hearkened not vnto her to lye with her, [or] to be in her companie.

11 Then on a certeine day [Ioseph] entred into the house, to do his busines: & there was no ma^e of the houtholde in the house.

12 Therefore she caught hi by his garment saying, Slepe with me: but he left his gar- ment in her hand, and fled, & gat him out.

13 Now when she sawe that he had left his garment in her hand, and was fled out,

14 She called vnto the men of her house, and tolde them, saying, Beholde, he hath brought in an Ebrewe vnto vs[†] to mocke vs who came in to me for to haue slept with me: but I^h cryed with a loude voyce.

15 And whē he heard that I lift vp my voy- ce & cryed, he left his garment with me, and fled away, and got him out.

16 So she layed vp his garment by her, vn- til her Lorde came home.

17 Then she tolde him[†] according to these wordes, saying, The Ebrewe seruant v[†] thou hast brought vnto vs, came in to me to mocke me.

18 But asone as I lift vp my voyce and cry- ed, he left his garmēt with me, & fled out.

19 Then when his master heard the words of his wife, which she tolde him, saying, After this maner did thy seruānt to me, his angre was kindled.

20 And Iosephs master toke him and put him in[†] prison, in the place where the Kings prisoners lay bounde: and there he was in prison.

21 ¶ But y^e Lord was with Ioseph, & shew- ed him mercie, and got him fauour in the sight of the[†] master of the prison.

22 And the keeper of the prison committed to Iosephs had all the prisoners that were in the prison, and^k whatsoeuer they did there, that did he.

23 And the keeper of the prison looked vnto nothing that was vnder his hand, seing that the Lord [was] with him: for whatso- euer he did, the Lord made it to prosper.

dreame, [bothe] f butler & the baker of f
King of Egypt, w were bounde in f prisō.

6 And when Ioseph came in vnto the in 7 And he asked Pharaohs officers, that were with him in his masters warde, saying, Wherefore loke yeso sadly to day?

8 Who answered him, We haue dreamed [eche one] a dreame, & there is none to in-the, c Are not interpretations of God? tel

9 So the chief butler tolde his dreame to Ioseph, and said vnto him, In my dreame, beholde, a vine [was] before me,

10 And in the vine [were] thre branches, & as it budded, her floure came forth: and the clusters of grapes waxed ripe.

11 And [I had] Pharaohs cup in mine had,
and I toke the grapes, and wrong them in to Pharaohs cup, and I gaue the cup into Pharaohs hand.

12 Then Ioseph said vnto him, This^d is the interpretation of it: The thre branches are thre dayes.

13 Within thre dayes shal Pharaoh lift vp thine head, & restore thee vnto thine f office, and thou shalt giue Pharaohs cup into his hand after the olde maner when f wast his butler.

14 But haue me in remembrance with the when thou art in good case, & shewe mercie, I pray thee, vnto me, and e make me tion of me to Pharaoh, that thou maiest bring me out of this house.

15 For I was stollen away by theft out of f land of the Ebrewes, & here also haue I done nothing, wherefore they shulde put me* in the dungeon.

16 And when the chief baker sawe that the interpretatiō was good, he said vnto Io-seph, Also me thought in my dreame that I had thre^f white baskets on mine head:

17 And in f vppermost basket there [was] of all maner bakē meates for Pharaoh: and the birdes did eat them out of the basket vpon mine head.

18 Then Ioseph answered, & said, g This is the interpretation thereof: The thre baskets are thre dayes:

19 Within thre daies shal Pharaoh take thine head from thee, & shall hang thee on a tre, and the birdes shall eat thy flesh from of thee.

20 ¶ And so f third day, [which was] Pharaohs^b birthday, he made a feast vnto all his seruantes: and he lifted vp the head of the chief butler, and the head of the chief baker among his seruantes,

21 And he restored the chief butler vnto his butlerhip, who gaue the cup into Pharaohs hand,

22 But he hanged f chief baker, as Ioseph had interpreted vnto them.

Ioseph, but forgat him.

14 * Then sent Pharaoh, and called Ioseph, and they brought him hastily out of prison, and he shaued him, and changed his raiment, and came to Pharaoh.

15 The Pharaoh said to Ioseph, I haue dreamed a dreame, and no man can interpret it, and I haue heard say of thee, [that when] † hearest a dreame, thou canst interpret it.

16 And Ioseph answered Pharaoh, saying,
8 Without me God shal† answer for the 17 And Pharaoh said vnto Ioseph, In my dreame, beholde, I stode by the banke of the riuier:

18 And lo, there came vp out of † riuier seuē fatfleshed and wel fauoured kine, and they fed in the meadow.

19 Also lo, seven other kine came vp after them, poore and very† euil fauoured, and leanefleshed: I neuer sawe the like in all †

20 And the leane and euil fauoured kine did eat vp the first seven fat kine.

21 And when they† had eaten them vp, it coldenot be knownen that they had eaten them, but they were stil as euil fauoured as they were at the beginning: so did I awake.

22 Moreouer I sawe in my dreame, and be-holde, seven eares sprang out of one stalke, ful and faire.

23 And lo seuē eares, withered, thinne, [&] blasted with the East winde, sprang vp after them.

24 And the thinne eares deuoured the seuē good eares. Now I haue tolde the sothesaies, and none can declare it vnto me.

25 ¶ The Ioseph answered Pharaoh, [Bothe]
Pharaohs dreames are one. h God hathe shewed Pharaoh, what he is about to do.

26 The seven good kine are seven yeres, & † seven good eares are seven yeres: this is one dreame.

27 Likewise the seven thinne and euil faou-red kine, that came out after them, are seven yeres: and the seven emptie eares blasted with † East winde are seuē yeres of famine.

28 This is the thing, which I haue said vnto Pharaoh, that God hathe shewed vnto Pharaoh, what he is about to do.

29 Beholde, there come seven yeres of great† plentie in all the land of Egypt.

30 Againe, there shal arise after them seven yeres of famine, so that all the plentie shal be forgotten in the land of Egypt, and the famine shal consume the land:

31 Nether shal the plentie † be knownen in the land, by reason of this famine that [shal come] after: for it shal be exceeding great.

32 And therefore the dreame was doubled vnto Pharaoh the second time, because the thing is established by God, and God hasteth to performe it.

33 Now therefore let Pharaoh† prouide for a man of vnderstanding and wisdom, & set him ouer the land of Egypt.

34 Let Pharaoh make and appoint officers ouer the land, & take vp the fiftie parte of the land of Egypt in the seven plenteous yeres.

35 Also let them gather all the fode of these good yeres that come, and lay vp cor-ne vnder the hand of Pharaoh for fode, in the cities, and let them kepe it.

36 So the fode shal be for the prouision of the land against the seven yeres of famine which shal be in the land of Egypt, that the land perishe not by famine.

37 ¶ And the saying pleased Pharaoh & all his seruantes.

38 Then said Pharaoh vnto his seruantes, Can we finde [suche] a man as this, in whome [is] the* Spirit of God?

39 Then Pharaoh said to Ioseph, For as muche as God hathe shewed thee al this, there is no man of vnderstanding or of wisdom like vnto thee.

40 * Thou shalt be ouer mine house, and at thy† worde shall all my people be armed, onely in the Kings throne will I be aboue thee.

41 Moreouer Pharaoh said to Ioseph, Be-holde, I haue set the ouer all the land of Egypt.

42 And Pharaoh toke of his† ring from his hand, and put it vpon Iosephs hand, & araied him in garments of fine linen, and put a golden cheine about his necke.

43 So he set him vpon the† best charet that he had, saue one: & they cryed before him

44 Againe Pharaoh said vnto Ioseph, I am in the land of Egypt.

5 And the sonnes of Israël came to bye fode among them that came: for there was famine in the land of Canaan.

6 Now Ioseph was gouerner of the land, who solde to all the people of the land: then Iosephs brethren came, and bowed their face to the ground before him.

and turned to them againe, and communed with them, and toke Simeon from among them, and bounde him before their eyes.

25 ¶ So Ioseph commanded that they shoulde fille their sackes with wheat, and put euerie mans money againe in his sacke, & giue them vitale for the iourney: and thus did he vnto them.

26 And they layed their vitale vpon their asses, and departed thence.

27 And as one of the opened his sacke for to giue his asse prouander in the ynn, he espied his money: for lo, it was in his sackes mouth.

28 Then he said vnto his brethren, My money is restord: for lo, it is euē in my sacke. And their heart failed them, and they were astonished, and said one to another, What is this, [that] God hath done vnto vs?

29 ¶ And they came vnto Iakob their father vnto the land of Canaan, & tolde him all that had befallen them, saying,

30 The man, [who is] lord of the lād, spake roughly to vs, and put vs in prison as spies of the country.

31 And we said vnto him, We are true men, [and] are no spies.

32 We be twelue brethren, sonnes of our father, one is † not, and the yongest [is] this day with our father in the lād of Canaan.

33 Then the lord of the countrey said vnto vs, Hereby shal I knowe if ye be true men: Leauē one of your brethren with me, and take [fode] for the famine of your houses & departe.

34 And bring your yongest brother vnto me, that I may knowe that ye are no spies, but true men: [so] will I deliuer you your brother, and ye shall occupie in the land.

35 ¶ And as they emptied their sackes, beholde, euerie mans bundel of money was in his sacke: and when they and their father sawe the bundels of their money, they were afraied.

36 Then Iakob their father said to them, Ye haue robbed me of my childre: Ioseph is not, and Simeon is not, and ye wil take Benjamin: al these things are against me.

37 Then Reuben answered his father, saying, Slay my two sonnes, if I bring him not to thee againe: deliuer him to mine hand, and I wil bring him to thee againe.

38 But he said, My sonne shal not go downe wth you: for his brother is dead, & he is left alone: if death come vnto him by the way, which ye go, then ye shall bring my graie head with sorowe vnto the graue.

13 Iakob suffreth Benjamin to departe with his children. 23 Simeon is deliuered out of prison. 30 Ioseph geth aside and wepeth. 32 They feast together.

1 Now great a famine was in the land. 2 And when they had eaten vp the vitaille, which they had broght from Egypt, their father said vnto them, Turne againe, [and] bye vs a litle fode.

3 And Iudā answered him, saying, The mā charged vs by an othe, saying, * Neuer se my face, except your brother [be] with you.

4 If thou wilt send our brother with vs, we wil go downe, and by thee fode:

5 But if thou wilt not send [him,] we will not go downe: for the man said vnto vs, * Loke me not in the face, except your brother [be] with you.

6 And Israël said, Wherefore delt ye so euil with me, as to tel the man, whether ye had yet a brother or no?

7 And they answered, The mā asked straitly of our selues, and of our kinred, saying, Is your father yet aliue? haue ye [any] brother? And we tolde him † according to these wordes. colde we knowe certainly that he wolde say, Bring your brother downe?

8 Then said Iudā to Israël his father, Sēd the boye with me, that we may rise & go, and that we may liue and not dye, bothe we, and thou, and our children.

9 I wil be suretie for him: of mine hād shalt thou require him. * If I bring him not to thee, and set him before thee, † then let me beare the blame for euer.

10 For except we had made this tarying, doubtles by this we had returned the secōd time.

11 Then their father Israël said vnto them, If [it must nedes be] so now, do thus: take of the best frutes of the lād in your vessels, and bring the man a present, a litle rosen, and a litle honie, † spices and myrre, nuttes and almondes:

15 Then Ioseph said vnto them, What acte is this which ye haue done? Knowe ye not that suche a man as I, can deuine & prophetic?

16 Then said Iudáh, What shal we say vnto my lord? what shal we speake? & how can we iustifie our selues? ^d God hath founde out the wickednes of thy seruantes: beholde we [are] seruants to my lord, bothe we, and he, with whome the cup is founde.

17 But he answered, God forbid that I shulde do so, [but] the man, with whome the cup is founde, he shal be my seruant, & go ye in peace vnto your father.

18 ¶ Then Iudáh drewe nere vnto him, & said, Oh my lord, let thy seruant now speake a worde in my lords eares, and let not thy wrath be kindled against thy seruant: for thou art euen^e as Pharaoh.

19 My lord asked his seruants, saying, ^e Haue ye a father or a brother?

20 And we answered my lord, We haue a father that is olde, & a yong^r t^r childe, [w^h he begate] in his age: and his brother is dead, & he alone is left of his mother, and his father loueth him.

21 Now thou saidest vnto thy seruants, Bring him vnto me, that I may t^r set mine eie vpon him.

22 And we answered my lord, The childe can not departe from his father: for if he leaue his father, [his father] wolde dye.

23 Then saidest thou vnto thy seruants, ^e Except your yonger brother come downe with you, loke in my face no more.

24 So when we came vnto thy seruant our father, and shewed him what my lord had said,

25 And our father said vnto vs, Go againe, bye vs a litle fode,

26 Then we answered, We can not go downe: [but] if our yongest brother go with vs, then wil we go downe: for we may not se the mans face, except our yongest brother be with vs.

27 Then thy seruant my father said vnto vs, Yeknowe that my t^r wife bare me two [sonnes,]

28 And the one went out from me, and I said, Of a surety he is torne in pieces, and I sawe him not since.

29 Now ye take this also away from me: If death take him, then ye shal bring my gray head in sorowe to the graue.

30 Now therefore, when I come to thy seruant my father, and the childe be not with vs (seing that his t^r life dependeth on the childes life)

31 Then when he shal se that the childe [is] not come, he wil dye: so shal thy seruants bring the gray head of thy seruant our father with sorowe to the graue.

32 Doubtes thy seruant became suretie for the childe to my father, and said, ^e If I bring him not vnto thee againe, then I wil beare the blame vnto my father for euer.

33 Now therefore, I pray thee, let me thy seruant bide for the childe, as a seruant to my Lord, and let the childe go vp with his brethren.

34 For^h how can I go vp to my father if t^r childe be not with me, onles I wolde se the cuil that shal come on my father?

26 Then said Ioseph, Bring your cattel, & I wil giue you for your cattel, if [your] money be spent.

27 So they brought their cattel vnto Ioseph, & Ioseph gaue them bread for the horses, and for the flocks of shepe, and for the herdes of cattel, and for the asses: so he fed them with bread for all their cattel that yere.

28 But when the yere was ended, they came vnto him the next yere, & said vnto him, We wil not hide from my lord, that since our money is spent, & my lord hathe the herdes of the cattel, there is nothing left in the sight of my lord but our bodies & our grounde.

31 There they buryed Abraham & Sarah his wife: there they buryed Izhak & Rebekah his wife: and there I buryed Leah.

32 The purchase of the field and the caue that is therein, [was bought] of the childre of Heth.

33 Thus Iaakob made an end of giuing charge to his sonnes, and plucked vp his feet into the bed, and gaue vp the gost, & was gathered to his people.

¶ CHAP. L.

13 Iaakob is buried. 19 Ioseph forgiveth his brethren. 23 He seeth his childrens children. 25 He dyeth.

1 ¶ Then Ioseph fel vpon his fathers face and wept vpon him, and kissed him.

2 And Ioseph commanded his seruantes the physicians, to enbaume his father, & the physicians enbaumed Israel.

3 So forty daies were accomplished (for so long did the daies of them that were enbaumed last) and the Egyptians bewailed him seventy daies.

4 And when the daies of his mourning were past, Ioseph spake to the house of Pharaoh, saying, If I haue now founde fauour in your eyes, speake, I pray you, in the eares of Pharaoh, and say,

5 My father made me sweare, saying, Lo, I dye, bury me in my graue, which I haue made me in the land of Canaan: now therefore let me go, I praie thee, & bury my father, and I wil come againe.

6 Then Pharaoh said, Go vp and bury thy father, as he made thee to sweare.

7 ¶ So Ioseph went vp to bury his father, & with him went all the seruantes of Pharaoh, [bothe] the elders of his house, and all the elders of the land of Egypt.

8 Likewise all the house of Ioseph, and his brethren, and his fathers house: onely their children, and their shepe, and their cattel left they in the land of Goshen.

9 And there went vp with him bothe charrets and horsemen: and they were an exceeding great companie.

10 And they came to Goren Atad, which is beyonde Iordan, and there they made a great and exceeding sore lamentation: & he mourned for his father seven daies.

11 And when the Canaanites the inhabitants of the land sawe the mourning in Goren Arad, thei said, This is a great mourning vnto the Egyptians: wherefore the name thereof was called Abél Mizraim, which is beyonde Iordan.

12 So his sonnes did vnto him according as he had commanded them:

13 ¶ For his sonnes caried him into the land of Canaan, & buryed him in the caue of the field of Machpelah, which [caue] Abraham bought with the field, to be a place to bury in, of Ephron the Hittite besides Mamré.

14 ¶ Then Ioseph returned into Egypt, he and his brethren, & all that went vp with him to bury his father, after that he had buryed his father.

15 And when Iosephs brethren sawe that their father was dead, thei said, It may be that Ioseph wil hate vs, and wil paie vs againe all the euil, which we did vnto him.

16 Therefore they sent vnto Ioseph, saying, Thy father commanded before his death, saying,

17 Thus shal ye say vnto Ioseph, Forgiue now, I pray thee, the trespass of thy brethren, and their sinne: for they rewarded thee euil. And now, we pray thee, forgieue e. j.

THE SECONDE BOKE OF MOSES, CALLED

EXODVS.

THE ARGUMENT.

AFTER that Iaakob by Gods commandement Gen. 46, 3. had brought his familie into Egypt, where they remained for the space of foure hundredreth yeres, and of seuentie persones grew to an infinite nombre, so that the King and the countrey grudged and endeouored bothe by tyrannie and cruel slavery to suppress them: the Lord according to his promes Gen. 15, 14. had compassion of his Church & deliuered them, but plagued their enemies in moste strange and sondry sortes. And the more that the tyrannie of the wicked enraged against his Church, the more did his heauy iudgements increase against them, till Pharaoh & his armie were drowned in the same Sea, which gaue an entrie and passage to the children of God. But as the ingratitude of man is great, so did they immediately forget Gods wonderful benefites, and albeit he had giuen them the Pascheouer to be a signe & memorial of the same, yet they fel to distrust, and tempted God with sondry murmurings and grudgings against him and his ministers, sometime moued with ambition, sometime for lacke of drinke or meate to content their lusts, sometime by idolatrie, or such like. VVherfore God visited them with sharpe rodde and plagues that by his corrections they might seeke to him for remedy against his scourges & earnestly repent them for their rebellions and wickednes. And because God loucheth them to the end whome he hathe once begonne to loue, he punished them not according to their desert, but dealt with them in great mercies, and euer with new benefites labored to ouercome their malice: for he stil gouerned them and gaue them his worde & Law, bothe concerning the manner of seruing him, & also the forme of iudgements and ciuil policie: to the intent that they shulde not leaue God after their owne inuentions, but according to that ordre, which his heauenlie wisdom had appointed.

¶ CHAP. I.

1 The children of Iaakob came into Egypt. 8 The newe Pharaoh oppresseth them. 12 The prouidence of God towards them. 15 The Kings commandement to * midwives. 22 The sonnes of the Ebrewes are commanded to be cast into the riuer.

a Moses describeth the wonderful ordre of God obserued in performing his promise to Abraham, Gen. 35, 14.

OW * these are the names of the children of Israél, which came into Egypt (euerie man and his household came [thither] with Iaakob)

1 Reuben, Simeon, Leti, and Iudah,

3 Issachar, Zebulun, and Benjamin,

4 Dan, and Nephtali, Gad, and Asher.

5 So all the soules that came out of the loynes of Iaakob, were * seuentie soules: Ioseph was in Egypt already.

6 Now Ioseph dyed and all his brethren, and that whole generation.

7 ¶ And the * children of Israél brought forth the frute, and increased in abundance, and were multiplied, and were exceeding mightie, so that the land was ful of them.

8 Then there rose vp a newe King in Egypt, who * knewe not Ioseph.

9 And he said vnto his people, Beholde, * people of the children of Israél [are] greater and mightier then we.

10 Come, let vs worke wiselie with them, lest they multiplie, & it come to passe, that if there be warre, they ioine them selues also vnto our enemies, & fight against vs, and * get them out of the land.

11 Therefore did they set taskemasters ouer them, to kepe them vnder with burdens, and they buyt the ciues Pithom & Ramases for the * treasures of Pharaoh.

12 But the more they vexed them, the more they

13 Wherefore the Egyptians by crueltye

15 ¶ Moreouer the King of Egypt com-

16 And ſaid, When ye do the office of a 17 Notwithſtanding the midwiues feared men children.

18 Then the King of Egypt called for the midwiues, and ſaid vnto them, Why haue ye done thus, and haue preſerued aliuie
the men children?

19 And the midwiues answered Pharaoh, Because the Ebrewe women [are] not as the women of Egypt: for they are liuely, & are deliuered yer the midwife come at them.

20 God therefore prospered the midwiues, and the people multiplied and were very mightie.

21 And becauſe ¶ midwiues feared God, therefore he ^b made them houſes.

22 Then Pharaoh charged all his people, ſaying, Euerie manchild that is borne i caſt ye into the riuer, but reſerue euerie

1 When Moses kept the shepe of Iethro his father in lawe, Priest of Midian, & droue the flocke to the [†] backe side of the desert, & came to the ^a Mountaine of God, ^b Horéb,

2 Then the Angel of the Lord appeared vnto him in a flame of fyre, out of the middes of ^a bushe: & he looked, & beholde, the bushe burned with fyre, and the bushe was not consumed.

3 Therefore Moses said, I wil turne aside now, & se this great sight, why the bushe burneth not.

4 And when the ^d Lord saw that he turned aside to se, God called vnto him out of the middes of the bushe, & said, Moses, Moses. And he answered, I am here.

5 Then he said, Come not hither, *put thy shoes of thy fete: for the place whereon thou standest is ^f holy grounde.

6 Moreouer he said, *I am the God of thy father, the God of Abraham, the God of Izhak, & the God of Iaakob. Then Moses hid his face: for he was ^g afraied to looke vpon God.

7 ¶ Then the Lord said, I haue surely sene the trouble of my people, which are in Egypt, & haue heard their crye, because of their ^h taskmasters: for I knowe their sorowes.

8 Therefore I am come downe to deliuer them out of the hand of the Egyptians, and to bring them out of that land into a good land and a large, into a land that floweth with milke & hony, [even] into the place of the Canaanites, & the Hittites, & the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hiuites, and the Iebusites.

9 * And now lo, the crye of the children of Israel is come vnto me, and I haue also sene the oppression, wherewith the Egyptians oppresse them.

10 Come now therefore, and I wil send thee vnto Pharaoh, that thou maiest bring my people the children of Israel out of Egypt.

11 ¶ But Moses said vnto God, Who am ⁱ I, that I shulde go vnto Pharaoh, and that I shulde bring the children of Israel out of Egypt?

12 And he answered, ^m Certainly I wil be with thee: & this shalbe a tokē vnto thee, that I haue sent thee, After that thou hast brought the people out of Egypt, ye shal serue God vpon this Mountaine.

13 Then Moses said vnto God, Beholde, [when] I shal come vnto the children of Israel, and shal say vnto them, The God of your fathers hath sent me vnto you: if they say vnto me, What is his Name? what answer shal I giue them?

14 And God answered Moses, I ⁿ AM THAT I AM. Also he said, Thus shalt thou say vnto the children of Israel, I AM hath sent me vnto you.

15 And God spake further vnto Moses, Thus shalt thou say vnto the children of Israel, The Lord God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Izhak, and the God of Iaakob hath sent me vnto you: this is my name for euer, & this is my memorial vnto all ages.

16 Go and gather the Elders of Israel together, & thou shalt say vnto them, The Lord God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, Izhak, & Iaakob appeared vnto me, and said, [†] I haue surely remembered you, and that which is done to you in Egypt.

17 Therefore I did say, I wil bring you out of the affliction of Egypt vnto the land of the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, & the Hiuites, and the Iebusites, vnto a land that floweth with milke and hony.

18 Then shal they obeye thy voyce, & thou and the Elders of Israel shal go vnto the King of Egypt, and say vnto him, The Lord God of the Ebrewes hath [†] met vs: we pray thee now therefore, let vs go thre dayes journey in the wilderness, that we may ^o sacrifice vnto [†] Lord our God.

2 And the Lord said vnto him, What is that in thine hand? And he answered, A rod.

3 Then said he, Cast it on the grounde. So he cast it on the grounde, & it was [turned] into a serpent: & Moses fled from it.

4 Againe the Lord said vnto Moses, Put forth the thine hand, & take it by the taile. Then he put forth his hand and caught it, & it was [turned] into a rod in his hand.

5 [Do this]^b that thei may beleue, that the Lord God of their fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Izhak, & the God of Iaakob hathe appeared vnto thee.

¶ CHAP. V.

1 Moses and Aaron do their message to Pharaoh, who letteth not the people of Israel departe, but oppresseth them more and more. 20 They crye out vpon Moses & Aaron therefore, and Moses complaineth to God.

1 THEN afterward Moses & Aaron went & said to Pharaoh, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, Let my people go, that they maie celebrate a feast vnto me in the wildernes.

2 And Pharaoh said, Who is the Lord, that I shulde heare his voyce, & let Israel go?
I knowe not the Lord, nether wil I let Israel go.

3 And they said, † We worship the God of the Ebrewes: we pray thee, suffre vs to go thre daies iourney in the desert, and to sacrifice vnto the Lord our God, lest † he bring vpon vs the pestilence or sworde.

4 The said the King of Egypt vnto them, Moses and Aaron, why cause ye the people to cease from their workes? get you to your burdens.

5 Pharaoh said furthermore, Beholde, mu-che people [is] now in the land, & ye make them leaue their burdens.

6 Therefore Pharaoh gaue commādemēt the same day vnto the taskemasters of the people, and to their officers, saying,

7 Ye shal giue the people no more strawe to make bricke (as in time past) [but] let them go and gather them straw them sel-ues.

8 Notwithstanding lay vpon them the nombre of bricke which they made in time past, diminish nothing thereof: for they be idle, therefore they crye, saying, Let vs go to offere sacrifice vnto our God.

9 Lay more worke vpon the men, & cause them to do it, and let them not regarde vaine wordes.

10 ¶ Then went the taskemasters of the people & their officers out, and tolde the people, saying, Thus saith Pharaoh, I wil giue you no more straw.

11 Go your selues, get you straw where ye can finde it, yet shal nothing of your labour be diminished.

12 Then were the people scattered abroad throughout all the land of Egypt, for to gather stubble in stede of straw.

13 And the taskemasters hastened them, saying, Finish your daies worke: feuerie daies take, as [ye did] when ye had straw.

14 And the officers of the children of Israel, which Pharaohs taskemasters had set ouer them, were beaten, & demāded, Wherefore haue ye not fulfilled your tas-ke in making bricke yesterday and to day, as in times past?

15 ¶ Then the officers of the children of Israel came, and cryed vnto Pharaoh, saying, Wherefore dealest thou thus with thy seruants?

16 There is no straw giuen to thy seruants, and they say vnto vs, Make bricke: and lo, thy seruants are beaten, and † thy people is blamed.

17 But he said, † Ye are to muche idle: therefore ye say, Let vs go to offere sacrifice to the Lord.

18 Go therefore now [and] worke: for there shal no straw be giuen you, yet shal ye de-liuer the whole tale of bricke.

19 Then the officers of the children of Israel sawe the selues in an euil case, because it was said, Ye shal diminish nothing of your bricke, [nor] of euerie daies taske.

20 ¶ And they met Moses & Aaron, which stode in their way as they came out from Pharaoh,

21 To whome they said, The Lord loke vpon you and iudge: for ye haue made our sauour to † sincke before Pharaoh & before his seruants, in that ye haue put a sworde in their hand to slay vs.

22 Wherefore Moses returned to the Lord, and said, Lord, why hast thou afflicted this people: wherefore hast thou thus sent me?

23 For since I came to Pharaoh to speake in thy Name, he hathe vexed this people, and yet thou hast not deliuered thy people.

2 Moreouer God spake vnto Moses, and said vnto him, I am the Lord:

3 And I appeared vnto Abraham, to Izhak and to Iaakob by [the Name] of Almighty God: but by my Name *Iehouah was I not known vnto them.

4 Furthermore as I made my couenant with them to giue them the land of Canaan, the land of their pilgrimage, wherein they were strangers,

5 So I haue also heard the groning of the children of Israel, whome the Egyptians kepe in bondage, & haue remembred my couenant.

6 Wherefore say thou vnto the children of Israel, I am the Lord, & I wil bring you out from the burdens of the Egyptians, & wil deliuer you out of their bondage, and wil redeme you in a stretched out arme, and in great iudgements.

7 Also I wil take you for my people, and wil be your God: then ye shal knowe that I the Lord your God bring you out fro the burdens of the Egyptians.

8 And I wil bring you into the land which I sware that I wolde giue to Abraham, to Izhak, and to Iaakob, and I wil giue it vnto you for a possession: I am the Lord.

9 ¶ So Moses tolde the children of Israel thus: but they hearkened not vnto Moses for anguish of spirit & for cruel bondage.

10 Then the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

11 Go speake to Pharaoh King of Egypt, that he let the children of Israel go out of his land.

12 But Moses spake before the Lord, saying, Beholde, the children of Israel hearken not vnto me, how the shal Pharaoh heare me, which am of vncircumcised lippes:

13 Then the Lord spake vnto Moses and vnto Aaron, & charged them [to go] to the children of Israel & to Pharaoh King of Egypt, to bring the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt.

19 Also the sonnes of Merari were Mahali and Musi: these are the families of Leui by their kindreds.

20 And Amram toke Iochebed his fathers sister to his wife, and she bare him Aaron and Moses (And Amram liued an hundred thirty and seuen yere)

25 And Eleazar Aarons sonne toke him [one] of the daughters of Putiel to his wife, which bare him Phinehas: these are the principal fathers of the Leuites through out their families.

26 These are Aaron & Moses to whome the Lord said, Bring the childre of Israel out of the land of Egypt, according to their armies.

27 These are that Moses & Aaron which spake to Pharaoh King of Egypt, that they might bring the children of Israel out of Egypt.

28 ¶ And at that time when the Lord spake vnto Moses in the land of Egypt, the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt, by great iudgements.

5 Then the Egyptians shal knowe y I am

6 So Moses and Aaron did as the Lord commanded them, [euen] so did they.

7 (Now Moses was foure score yere olthey spake vnto Pharaoh)

8 ¶ And the Lord had spoken vnto Moses and Aaron, saying,

9 If Pharaoh spake vnto you, saying, Shewe a miracle for you, then thou shalt say vnto Aaron, Take thy rod & cast it before Pharaoh, [and] it shalbe [turned] into a serpent.

10 ¶ Then went Moses and Aaron vnto Pharaoh, and did euen as the Lord had commanded: and Aaron caste forth his rod before Pharaoh and before his ser-uants, and it was turned into a serpent.

11 Then Pharaoh called also for the wise men and forcerers: and those charmers also of Egypt did in like maner with their enchantments.

12 For they cast downe euerie mā his rod, and thei were [turned] into serpents: but Aarons rod deuoured their rods.

13 So Pharaohs heart was hardened, & he hearkened not to the, as y Lord had said.

14 ¶ The Lord then said vnto Moses, Pharaohs heart is obstinat: he refuseth to let the people go.

15 Go vnto Pharaoh in the morning, (lo, he wil come vnto the water) & thou shalt stand & mete him by * the riuers brinke, and the rod, which was turned into a ser-

16 And thou shalt say vnto him, The Lord God of y Ebrews hath sent me vnto thee, saying, Let my people go, that they may serue me in the wildernes: & beholde, hitherto thou woldest not heare.

17 Thus saith the Lord, In this thou shalt knowe that I am the Lord: beholde, I wil smite with the rod that is in mine hand vpon the water that is in the riuer, and it shalbe turned to blood.

18 And the fish that is in the riuer shal dye, and the riuer shal stinke, & it shal greue the Egyptians to drinke of the water of the riuer.

19 ¶ The Lord then spake to Moses, Say vnto Aaron, Take thy rod, & stretch out thine hand ouer the waters of Egypt, ouer their streames, ouer their riuers, and ouer their pondes, and ouer all pooles of their waters, and they shalbe blood, and there shalbe blood throughout all the land of Egypt, bothe in [vessels] of wood, and of stone.

20 So Moses & Aaron did euen as the Lord commanded: * and he lift vp the rod, and smote the water that was in the riuer in y sight of Pharaoh, and in the sight of his seruants: and all the water that was in the riuer was turned into blood.

21 And the fish that was in the riuer dyed, and the riuer stanke: so that the Egypti-as colde not drinke of the water of y riuer:
and there was blood throughout all the land of Egypt.

22 And the enchanterers of Egypt did like wise w their sorceries: & the heart of Pharaoh was hardened: so y he did not hearken vnto them, as the Lord had said.

23 Then Pharaoh returned, & wet againe into his house, † nether did this yet entre into his heart.

24 All the Egyptians then digged round about the riuer [for] waters to drinke: for they colde not drinke of the water of the riuer.

25 And [this] continued fully seven dayes
after the Lord had smiten the riuer.

9 And Moses said vnto Pharaoh, 'As concerning me, euen commande when I shal pray for thee, and for thy seruants, and for thy people, to destroye the frogges from thee & from thine houses, that they may remaine in the riuer onely.

10 Then he said, To morowe. And he answered, Be it as thou hast said, that thou maiest knowe, that there is none like vnto the Lord our God.

11 So the frogges shal departe from thee, & from thine houses, and from thy seruants, and from thy people: onely they shal remaine in the riuer.

12 Then Moses and Aaron went out from Pharaoh: & Moses cryed vnto the Lord concerning the frogges, which he had sent vnto Pharaoh.

13 And the Lord did according to the saying of Moses: so the frogges dyed in the houses, in the townes, & in the fields.

14 And they gathered them together by heapes, and the land stanke [of them.]

15 But when Pharaoh sawe that he had rest [giuen him,] he hardened his heart, and hearkened not vnto them, as the Lord had said.

16 ¶ Againe the Lord said vnto Moses, Say vnto Aaron, Stretche out thy rod, & smite the dust of the earth, that it may be [turned] to lye throughout all the land of Egypt.

17 And they did so: for Aaron stretched out his hand with his rod, and smote the dust of the earth: and lye came vpon man & vpon beast: all the dust of the earth was lye throughout all the land of Egypt.

18 Now the enchanters assaied likewise with their enchantments to bring forth the lye, but they coulde not. so the lye were vpon man and vpon beast.

19 Then said the enchanters vnto Pharaoh, This is the finger of God. But Pharaohs heart remained obstinat, and he hearkened not vnto them, as the Lord had said.

20 ¶ Moreover the Lord said to Moses, Rise vp early in the morning, and stand before Pharaoh (lo, he wil come forth vnto the water) and say vnto him, Thus saith the Lord, Let my people go, that they may serue me.

21 Els, if thou wilt not let my people go, beholde, I wil send swarmes of flies both vpon thee, and vpon thy seruants, and vpon thy people, & into thine houses: & the houses of the Egyptians shalbe full of swarmes of flies, & the ground also whereon they are.

22 But the land of Goshen, where my people are, will I cause to be without flies in that day, so that no swarmes of flies shal be there, & thou maiest knowe that I am the Lord in the middes of the earth.

23 And I wil make a deliuerance of my people from thy people: to morowe shal this miracle be.

24 And the Lord did so: for there came great swarmes of flies into the house of Pharaoh, and [into] his seruants houses, so that through all the land of Egypt the earth was corrupt by the swarmes of flies.

25 Then Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron, & said, Go, do sacrifice vnto your God in this land.

26 But Moses answered, It is not mete to do so: for [then] we shulde offere vnto the Lord our God [that, which is] an abomination vnto the Egyptians. Lo, can we sacrifice the abomination of the Egyptians before their eyes, and they not stone vs?

27 Let vs go thre daies iourney in the desert, & sacrifice vnto the Lord our God, as he hath commanded vs.

28 And Pharaoh said, I wil let you go, that ye may sacrifice vnto the Lord your God in the wilderness: but go not farre away, pray for me.

29 And Moses said, Beholde, I wil go out from thee, & pray vnto the Lord, that the swarmes of flies may departe from Pharaoh, from his seruants, and from his people to morowe: but let Pharaoh see henceforth that he deceiue no more, in not suffering his people to sacrifice vnto the Lord.

30 So Moses went out from Pharaoh and prayed vnto the Lord.

31 And the Lord did according to the saying of Moses, & the swarmes of flies departed from Pharaoh, from his seruants, & from his people, & there remained not one.

32 Yet Pharaoh hardened his heart euen then also, & did not let the people go.

5 And the Lord appointed a time, saying, To morowe ¶ Lord shal finish this thing in this land.

6 So the Lord did it on the morowe, & all the cattel of Egypt dyed: but of the cattel of the children of Israél dyed not one.

7 Then Pharaóh^b sent, and beholde, there was not one of the cattel of the Israelites dead: and the heart of Pharaóh was obstinat, and he did not let the people go.

8 ¶ And the Lord said to Mosés & to Aaron, Take your hand ful of ashes of the fornace, and Mosés shal sprinkle them toward the heauen in the sight of Pharaóh,

9 And thei shal be [turned] to dust in all the land of Egypt: & it shal be as a scab breaking out into blisters vpon man & vpon beast throughout all the land of Egypt.

10 Then thei toke ashes of the fornace, & stode before Pharaóh: and Mosés sprinkled them toward the heauen, and there came ¶ a scab breaking out into blisters vpon man and vpon beast.

11 And the forcerers colde not stand before Mosés, because of the scab: for the scab was vpon the enchanter, & vpon all the Egyptians.

12 And the Lord hardened the heart of Pharaóh, & he hearkened not vnto them, *as the Lord had said vnto Mosés.

13 ¶ Also the Lord said vnto Mosés, Rise vp early in the morning, and stand before Pharaóh, and tel him, Thus saith the Lord God of the Ebrewes, Let my people go, that they may serue me.

14 For I wil at this time send all my plagues vpon^c thine heart, and vpon thy seruants, & vpon thy people, that thou maiest know that there is none like me in all the earth.

15 For now I wil stretche out mine hand, that I may smite thee & thy people with the pestilence: & thou shalt perish from the earth.

16 And in dede, *for this cause haue I appointed thee, to shewe my power in thee, & to declare my^d Name throughout all the worlde.

17 Yet thou exaltest thy selfe against my people, and lettest them not go.

18 Beholde, to morowe this time, I wil cause to raine a mightie great haile, suche as was not in Egypt since the fundatiō thereof was laid, vnto this time.

19 Send therefore now, [and] ¶ gather thy cattel, and all that thou hast in the field: [for] vpon all the men, & ¶ beastes, which are founde in the field, and not brought home, the haile shal fall vpon them and they shal dye.

20 Suche [then] as feared the worde of the Lord among the seruants of Pharaóh, made his seruants and his cattel flee into the houses:

21 But suche as ¶ regarded not the^f worde of the Lord, left his seruants, and his cattel in the field.

22 ¶ And the Lord said to Mosés, Stretche forth the thine hand toward heauē, that there may be haile in all the land of Egypt, vpon man & vpon beast, and vpon all the herbes of the field in the land of Egypt.

23 Then Mosés stretched out his rod toward heauen, and the Lord sent thunder, & ¶ haile, and ¶ lightening vpon the ground: and the lord caused haile to raine vpon the land of Egypt.

24 So there was haile, & fire mingled with the haile, so grieuous, as there was none throughout all the land of Egypt, since it was a nation.

25 And the haile smote throughout all the land of Egypt all that was in the field, both the man and beast: also the haile smote all the herbes of the field, and brake to pieces all the trees of the field.

26 Onely in the land of Goshen (where the children of Israél were) was no haile.

27 Then Pharaóh sent and called for Mosés and Aaron, and said vnto them, I haue now sinned: the Lord is righteous, but I and my people are wicked.

28 Pray ye vnto ¶ Lord (for it is ynough) that there be no more ¶ mightie thunders & haile, and I wil let you go, and ye shal tary no longer.

29 Then Mosés said vnto him, As sone as I am out of the cite, I wil spreade mine handes vnto the Lord, [¶] the thunder shal cease, nether shal there be any more haile, that thou maiest knowe that the earth is the Lords.

30 Now I knowe that thou & thy seruantes feare the Lord God,^h before I pray.

31 (And the flaxe, & the barly were smitten: for the barly was eared, and the flaxe was bolled.

32 But the wheat & the rye were not smitten, for they were [hid] in the grounde)

34 And when Pharaoh saw that the raine and the haile and the thunder were ceased, he sinned againe, and hardened his heart [bothe] he, and his seruants.

1 A Gaine † Lord said vnto Moses, Go to Pharaoh: for * I haue hardened his heart, & the heart of his seruants, that I might worke these my miracles † in the midde of his [realme.]

2 And that thou maiest declare in the * eares of thy sonne, and of thy sonnes sonne what things I haue done in Egypt, & my miracles, which I haue done among them: that ye may know that I am the Lord.

3 Then Moses and Aaron came vnto Pharaoh, and said vnto him, Thus saith the Lord God of the Ebrewes, How long wilt thou refuse † to humble thy selfe before me? Let my people go, that they may serue me.

4 But if thou refuse to let my people go, beholde, to morowe wil I bring † greshoppers into thy coastes.

5 And they shal couer † face of the earth, that a man can not se the earth: and they shal eat the residue which remaineth vnto you, and haue escaped from the haile: & they shal eat all your trees that bud in the field.

6 And they shal fil thine houses, & all thy seruants houses, and the houses of all the Egyptians, as neither thy fathers, nor thy fathers fathers haue sene, since the time they were vpon the earth vnto this day. So he returned, and went out from Pharaoh.

7 Then Pharaohs seruants said vnto him, How long shal he be † an * offence vnto vs? let the men go, that they may serue the Lord their God: wilt thou first know that Egypt is destroyed?

8 So Moses and Aaron were brought againe vnto Pharaoh, & he said to them, Go, serue the Lord your God: but who are they that shal go?

9 And Moses answered, We wil go with our yong and with our olde, with our sonnes and with our daughters, with our shepe and with our cattel wil we go: for we [must celebrate] a feast vnto the Lord.

10 And he said vnto them, Let † the Lord so be with you as I wil let you go & your children: beholde, for * euil is before your face.

11 [It shal] not [be] so: now go ye [that are] men, and serue the Lord: for that was your desire. Then they were thrust out from Pharaohs presence.

12 ¶ After, † Lord said vnto Moses, Stretch out thine hand vpon the land of Egypt for the greshoppers, that they may come vpon the land of Egypt, and eat all the herbes of the land, [euē] al that the haile hath left.

13 Then Moses stretched forth his rod vpon the land of Egypt: and the Lord brought an East winde vpon the land all that day, and all that night: and in the morning, † East winde brought the † greshoppers.

14 So the greshoppers went vp vpon all the land of Egypt, and † remained in all quarters of Egypt: so grievous greshoppers like to these were neuer before, neither after them shal be such.

15 For they couered all the face of † earth, so that the land was darcke: and they did eat all the herbes of the land, and all the frutes of the trees, which † haile had left, so that there was no grene thing left vpon the trees, nor among † herbes of the field throughout all the land of Egypt.

16 Therefore Pharaoh called for † Moses and Aaron in halte, and said, I haue sinned against the Lord your God, and against you.

17 And now forgine me my sinne onely this once, and pray vnto the Lord your God, that he may take away from me this death onely.

18 [Moses] then went out from Pharaoh, and praied vnto the Lord.

19 And the Lord turned a mightie strong West winde, and toke away the greshoppers, & violently cast them into the † red Sea, [so that] there remained not one greshopper in all the coast of Egypt.

20 But the Lord hardened Pharaohs heart, and he did not let the children of Israël go.

13 And the blood shalbe a token for you vpon the houses where ye are: so when I se the blood, I wil passe ouer you, and the plague shal not be vpon you to destruction, when I smite the land of Egypt.

14 And this day shalbe vnto you a remembrance: and ye shal kepe it an holy feast vnto the Lord, throughout your generations: ye shal kepe it holy by an ordinance for euer.

15 Seuen daies shal ye eat vnleavened bread, & in any case ye shal put away leauen the first day out of your houses: for whosoever eateth leavened bread from the first day vntil the seuenth day, that persone shalbe cut off from Israel.

16 And in the first day [shalbe] an holy assemblie: also in the seuenth day shalbe an holy assemblie vnto you: no worke shalbe done in them, save about that which euerie man must eat: that only may ye do.

17 Ye shal kepe also the feast of vnleavened bread: for that same day I wil bring your armies out of the land of Egypt: therefore ye shal obserue this day, throughout your posteritie, by an ordinance for euer.

18 ¶ In the first moneth and the fourth day of the moneth at euen, ye shal eat vnleavened bread vnto the one and twentieth day of the moneth at euen.

20 Ye shal eat no leavened bread: [but] in all your habitations shal ye eat vnleavened bread.

21 ¶ Then Moses called all the elders of Israel, and said vnto them, Chose out and take you for [euerie] of your householdes a lambe, and kil the Passeouer.

22 And take a bunche of hyssope, and dip it in the blood that is in the bassen, and strike the lintel and the dore chekes with the blood that is in the bassen, & let none of you go out at the dore of his house, vntil the morning.

23 For the Lord wil passe by to smite the Egyptians: and when he seeth the blood vpon the lintel & on the two dore chekes, the Lord wil passe ouer the dore, and wil not suffre the destroyer to come into your houses to plague [you].

24 Therefore shal ye obserue this thing as an ordinance [bothe] for thee and thy son-

25 And when ye shal come into the land, which the Lord wil giue you as he hath promised, then ye shal kepe this seruice.

26 * And when your childre aske you, What seruice is this ye [kepe]?

27 Then ye shal say, it is the sacrifice of the Lords Passeouer, which passed ouer the houses of the children of Israel in Egypt, when he smote the Egyptians, and preserved our houses. Then the people bowed them selues, and worshipped.

28 So the children of Israel went, and did as the Lord had commanded Moses & Aaron: so did they.

29 ¶ Now at midnight, the Lord smote all the first borne of the land of Egypt, from the first borne of Pharaoh that sat on his throne, vnto the first borne of the captiue that was in prison, and all the first borne of beastes.

30 And Pharaoh rose vp in the night, he, & all his seruantes, and all the Egyptians: & there was a great crye in Egypt: for there [was] no house where there [was] not one dead.

31 And he called to Moses and to Aaron by night, & said, Rise vp, get you out from among my people, bothe ye, and the children of Israel, and go serue the Lord as ye haue said.

32 Take also your shepe and your cattel as ye haue said, and departe, and be blest me also.

33 And the Egyptians did force the people, because they wolde send them out of the land in haste: for they said, We dye all.

34 Therefore the people toke their dowe before it was leavened, [euen] their dowe bounde in clothes vpon their sholders.

35 And the children of Israel did according to the saying of Moses, and they asked of the Egyptians * iewels of siluer and iewels of golde, and raiment.

36 And the Lord gaue the people fauour in the sight of the Egyptians: and they granted their request: so they spoiled the Egyptians.

37 Then the children of Israel toke their journey from Rameses to Succoth about six hundred thousand men of fote, beside children.

38 And a great multitude of sundry sortes of people went out with them, and shepe, and beues, [and] cattel in great abundance.

4, 8 Pharaohs heart is hardened, and pursueth the Israelites 11 The Israelites striken with feare, murmure against Moses. 21 He deuiceth the Sea. 23, 27 The Egyptians followe and are drowned.

¶ Then the Lord spake vnto Moses saying,

2 Speake vnto the children of Israel, & they shall returne and campe before Pi-hahiroth, betwene Migdol and the Sea, ouer against Baal-zephon: about it shall ye campe by the Sea.

3 For Pharaoh wil say of the children of Israel, They are tangled in the land: the wilderness hath shut them in.

4 And I wil harden Pharaohs heart that he shall follow after you: so I wil get me honour vpon Pharaoh, and vpon all his hoste: the Egyptians also shall knowe that I am the Lord: and they did so.

5 ¶ Then it was tolde the King of Egypt that the people fled: & the heart of Pharaoh and of his seruants was turned against the people, and they said, Why haue we this done, & haue let Israel go out of our seruice?

6 And he made ready his charrets, and toke his people with him,

7 And toke sixe hundred chosen charrets, & all the charrets of Egypt, and captaines ouer euerie one of them.

8 For the Lord had hardened the heart of Pharaoh King of Egypt, and he followed after the children of Israel: but the children of Israel went out with an a hie hand)

9 * And the Egyptians pursued after them, & all the horses (and) charrets of Pharaoh, and his horsemen & his hoste ouertooke them camping by the Sea, beside Pi-hahiroth, before Baal-zephon,

10 And when Pharaoh drewe nigh, the children of Israel lift vp their eyes, and beholde, the Egyptians marched after them, and they were fore affraid: wherefore the children of Israel cryed vnto the Lord.

In this figure foure chief points are to be considered. first that the Church of God is ever subiect in this worlde to the Crosse & to be afflicted after one sorte or other. The seconde, that the ministers of God following their vocation shal be euil spoken of, and murmured against, even of them that pretend the same cause and religion that they do. The third that God deliuereth not his Church incontinently out of dangers, but to exercise their faith and patience continueth their troubles, yea and often tymes augmenteth them, as the Israelites were now in lesse hope of their liues then whē they were in Egypt. The fourth point is, that when the dangers are most great, then Gods helpe is most ready to succour: for the Israelites had on either side of them huge rocks & mountains, before them the Sea, behinde them most cruel enemies, so that there was no way left to escape to mans iudgement.

13 Then Moses said to the people, Feare ye not, stand still, and beholde the saluation of the Lord which he wil shewe to you this day. For the Egyptians, whome ye haue sene this day, ye shall neuer see them againe.

14 The Lord shall fight for you: therefore holde you your peace.

15 ¶ And the Lord said vnto Moſes, Wherefore cryeſt thou vnto me? ſpeake vnto the children of Iſrael that thei go forward:

16 And liſt thou vp thy rod, and ſtretch out thine hand vpon the Sea, & deuide it, and let the children of Iſrael go on drye ground through the middes of the Sea.

17 And I, beholde I wil harden the heart of the Egyptians that thei may followe them, and I wil get me honour vpon Pharaoh, & vpon al his hoſte, vpon his charets, and vpon his horſemen.

18 Then the Egyptians ſhal knowe that I am the Lord, when I haue gotten me honour vpon Pharaoh, vpon his charets, & vpon his horſemen.

19 (And the Angel of God, which went before the hoſte of Iſrael, remoued and wēt behind them: alſo the pillar of the cloude went from before them, & ſtoode behinde them, 20 And came betwene the campe of the Egyptians and the campe of Iſrael: it was bothe a cloude and darcknes, yet gaue it light by night, ſo that all the night long ¶ one came not at the other)

21 And Moſes ſtretched forth his hand vpon the Sea, & the Lord cauſed the Sea to runne backe by a ſtrong Eaſt winde all the night, and made the Sea drye land: for the waters were * deuided.

22 Then the * childre of Iſrael wēt through the middes of the Sea vpon the drye ground, and the waters [were] a wall vnto the on the right hand, and on their left hand.

23 And the Egyptians purſued and went after them to the middes of the Sea, [euē] all Pharaohs horſes, his charets, and his horſemen.

24 Now in the morning ¶ watche, whē the Lord looked vnto the hoſte of the Egyptians, out of the ſky and cloudy pillar, he ſtroke the hoſte of the Egyptians with feare.

25 For he toke of their charet wheles, and thei draue them ¶ with muche a do: ſo that the Egyptians [euē] one ſaid, I wil flee fro the face of Iſrael: for the Lord fighteth for them againſt the Egyptians.

26 ¶ Then the Lord ſaid to Moſes, Stretch thine hand vpon the Sea, that the waters may returne vpon the Egyptians, vpon their charets and vpon their horſemen.

27 Then Moſes ſtretched forth his hand vpon the Sea, and the Sea returned to his force early in the morning, & the Egyptians fled againſt it: but the Lord ouerthrew the Egyptians in the middes of the Sea.

28 So the water returned & couered ¶ charets and the horſemen, [euē] all the hoſte of Pharaoh that came into ¶ Sea after the: there remained not one of them.

29 But the children of Iſrael walked vpon drye land through the middes of the Sea, and the waters [were] a wall vnto them on their right hand, and on their left.

30 Thus ¶ Lord ſaued Iſrael the ſame day out of the hand of the Egyptians and Iſrael ſawe ¶ Egyptians dead vpon ¶ Sea bancke.

31 And Iſrael ſawe ¶ mighty power, which the Lord ſhewed vpon the Egyptians: ſo the people feared the Lord, and beleued ¶ Lord, and his ſeruant Moſes.

CHAP. XIX.

1 The Israelites come to Sinai. 3 Israel is chosen from among all other nations. 8 The people promises to obey God. 12 He that toucheth the hill dyeth. 16 God appeareth vnto Moses vpon the mount in thunder and lightning.

IN the^a third moneth, after the children of Israel were gone out of the land of Egypt, the same^b day came they into the wildernes of Sinai:

2 For they departed from Rephidim, and came to the desert of Sinai, & cāped in the wildernes: euen there Israel camped before the mount.

3 *But Moses wēt vp vnto God, for^c Lord had called out of the mount vnto him, saying, Thus shalt thou say to the house of^d Iakob, and tel the children of Israel,

4 *Ye haue sene what I did vnto the Egyptians, and [how] I caryed you vpon^e egles wings, and haue broght you vnto me.

5 Now therefore^f if ye wil heare my voyce in dede, & kepe my couenāt, the ye shalbe my chief treasure aboue all people, *thogh all the earth be mine.

6 Ye shalbe vnto me also a kingdome of *Priestes, and an holy nation. These [are] the wordes which thou shalt speake vnto the children of Israel.

7 ¶ Moses then came & called for the Elders of the people, and proposed vnto the all these things, which the Lord commanded him.

8 And the people answered altogether, & said, * All that the Lord hath commāded, we wil dō. And Moses reported the wordes of the people vnto the Lord.

9 And^g Lord said vnto Moses, Lo, I come vnto thee in a thicke cloude, that the people may heare, whiles I talke with thee, & that they may also beleue thee for euer. (for Moses had tolde the wordes of the people vnto the Lord)

10 Moreouer the Lord said vnto Moses, Go to the people, and^h sanctifie them to daie and to morrowe, and let them wash their clothes.

11 And let the be ready on the third daie: for the third daieⁱ Lord wil come downe in the sight of all the people vpon mount Sinai:

12 And thou shalt set markes vnto the people round about, saying, Take hede to your selves that ye go not vp to the mount, nor touche the border of it: whosoeuer toucheth the^j mount, shal surely dye.

13 No hand shal touche it, but he shalbe stoned to death, or stricken through with dartes: whether it be beast or man, he shal not liue: when the^k horne bloweth long, thei shal come vp^l into the mountaine.

14 ¶ Then Moses went downe from the mount vnto the people, and sanctified the people, and they washed their clothes.

15 And he said vnto the people, be ready on the third daie, [and] come not at [your]^m wiues.

16 And the third daie, whē it was morning, there was thunders & lightnings, & a thicke cloude vpon the mount, and the sound ofⁿ trumpet exceding loude, so that all the people, that was in the campe, was afraid.

17 Then Moses broght the people out of the tents to mete with God, & they stode in the nether parte of the mount.

18 *And mount Sinai [was] all on smoke, because the Lord came downe vpon it in fire, and the smoke thereof ascended, as the smoke of a fornace, and all the mount trembled exceedingly.

19 And when the sounde of the trumpet blew long, and waxed louder & louder, Moses spake, and God answered him by^o voyce.

21 Then the Lord said vnto Moses, Go downe, charge the people, that they breake not [their boundes] to go vp to the Lord to gaze, lest manie of them perish.

22 And let the Priests also which come to the Lord be sanctified, lest the Lord destroye them.

23 And Moses said vnto the Lord, The people can not come vp into the mount Sinai: for thou hast charged vs, saying, Set markes on the mountaine, & sanctifie it.

24 And the Lord said vnto him, Go, Get the downe, and come vp, thou, and Aaron with thee: but let not the Priests & the people breake [their boundes] to come vp vnto the Lord, lest he destroye them.

25 So Moses went downe vnto the people, and tolde them.

4 * Thou shalt make thee no graven image, nether anie similitude [of things] ^c that are in heauen above, nether that are in the earth beneth, nor that are in the waters vnder the earth.

5 Thou shalt not bowe downe to them, nether serue them: for I am the Lord thy God, a ^d ielouse God, visiting the iniquitie of the fathers vpon the children, vpon the third [generation] and vpon the fourth of them that hate me.

11 * For in six daies the Lord made the heauen and the earth, the sea, and all that in them is, & rested the seventh daie: therefore the Lord blessed the Sabbath daie, & hallowed it.

12 ¶ Honour thy ⁱ father and thy mother, that thy daies may be prolonged vpon the land, which the Lord thy God giueth thee.

13 * Thou shalt not ^k kill.

14 Thou shalt not ^l commit adulterie.

15 Thou shalt not ^m steale.

16 Thou shalt not beare false ⁿ witnes against thy neighbour.

17 * Thou shalt not ^o couet thy neighbours house, nether shalt thou couet thy neighbours wife, nor his man seruant, nor his maid, nor his ox, nor his asse, nether any thing that is thy neighbours.

18 ¶ And all the people ^p sawe ^q thunders, and the ^r lightnings, and the sounde of the trumpet, and the mountaine smoking, and when the people sawe it, they fled and stode as farre of,

19 And said vnto Moses, * Talke thou with vs, and we wil heare: but let not God talke with vs, lest we dye.

20 Then Moses said vnto the people, Feare not: for God is come to ^s proue you, and that his feare may be before you, that ye sinne not.

21 So the people stode as farre of, but Moses drew nere vnto the darcknes where God [was].

22 ¶ And the Lord said vnto Moses, Thus thou shalt say vnto the children of Israel, Ye haue sene that I haue talked with you from heauen.

23 Ye shal not make [therefore] with me gods of siluer, nor gods of golde: you shal make you none.

24 * An altar of earth ^t shalt thou make vnto me, & thereon shalt offer thy brunt offerings, & thy ^u peace offerings, thy shepe, and thine oxen: in all places, where I shal put the remembrance of my Name, I will come vnto thee, and blesse thee.

11 But the seuenth yere thou shalt let it rest

3 The people promise to obey God. 4 Moses writeth the childe lawes. 9. 13 Moses returneth into the mountaine. 14 Aaron & Hur haue the charge of the people. 18 Moses was 40 daies & 40 nights in the mountaine.

1 Now he had said vnto Moses, Come vp to the Lord, thou, & Aaron, Nadab, & Abihu, and seuentie of the Elders of Israel, & ye shall worship a farre of.

2 And Moses himselfe alone shall come nere to the Lord, but they shall not come nere, neither shall the people go vp with him.

3 ¶ Afterwarde Moses came & tolde the people all the wordes of the Lord and all the lawes: and all the people answered with one voyce, and said, * All the things which the Lord hath said, will we do.

4 And Moses wrote all the wordes of the Lord, and rose vp early, & set vp an altar vnder the mountaine, & twelue pillars according to the twelue tribes of Israel.

5 And he sent yongemen of the children of Israel, which offered burnt offerings of beues, & sacrificed peace offering vnto the Lord.

6 Then Moyses toke halfe of the blood, & put it in basens, and halfe of the blood he sprinkled on the altar.

7 After he toke the booke of the couenant and read it in the audience of the people who said, All that the Lord hath said we wil do, and be obedient.

8 Then Moyses toke the blood, and sprinkled it on the people, and said, Beholde, the blood of the couenant, which the Lord hath made with you concerning all these things.

9 ¶ Then went vp Moyses and Aaron, Nadab, & Abihu, and seuentie of the Elders of Israel.

10 And they sawe the God of Israel, and vnder his feet [was] as it were a worke of a Saphir stone, & as the verie heauen white it is cleare.

11 And vpon the nobles of the children of Israel he laid not his hand: also they sawe God, and did eat and drinke.

12 ¶ And the Lord said vnto Moyses, Come vp to me into the mountaine, and be there, and I wil giue thee tables of stone, and the Law & the commandement which I haue written, for to teache them.

13 Then Moyses rose vp & his minister Iosaphat, and Moyses went vp into the mountaine of God.

14 And said vnto the Elders, Tarry vs here, vntill we come againe vnto you: & beholde, Aaron & Hur [are] with you: whosoever hath any matters, let him come to them.

15 Then Moyses went vp to the mount, & the cloude couered the mountaine.

16 And the glorie of the Lord abode vpon mount Sinai, and the cloude couered it six daies: & the seuenth day he called vnto Moyses out of the middes of the cloude.

17 And the sight of the glorie of the Lord [was] like consuming fire on the top of the mountaine, in the eyes of the children of Israel.

18 And Moyses entred into the middes of the cloude, & went vp to the mountaine: & Moyses was in the mount fourtie daies and fourtie nightes.

1 Then the Lord spake vnto Moyses, saying,

2 * Speake vnto the children of Israel, that they receiue an offering for me: of euery man, whose heart giueth it freely, ye shall take the offering for me.

3 And this is the offering which ye shall bring of them, golde, and siluer, and brasse,

9 According to all that I shewe thee, euen so shall ye make the forme of the Tabernacle, and the facion of all the instruments thereof.

10 ¶ They shall make also an Arke of Shittim wood, two cubites and an halfe long, and a cubite and an halfe broad, and a cubite and an halfe hie.

11 And thou shalt ouerlaie it with pure golde: within & without shalt thou ouerlaie it, and shalt make vpon it a crowne of golde rounde about.

THE CANDELSTICKE.

Because the facion of the candlestick is so plaine and euident, I need not to describe the particular partes thereof according to y order of letters. Onely where as it is said in the 34 verse, that there shulde be foure bowles or cups in the candlestick, it must be vnderstand of the shaft or shank: for there are but three for enerie one of the other branches. Also the knoppes of the candlestick are those which are vnder the branches as they issue out of the shaft on y that side.

31 ¶ Also thou shalt make a Candelstick of pure golde: of worke beaten out with the hāmer shal the Candelstick be made, his shaft, and his branches, his bolles, his knops: & his floures shalbe of the same.

32 Six brāches also shal come out of y sides of it: three branches of y Candelstick out of the one side of it, and three branches of the Candelstick out of y other side of it.

CHAP. XXVIII.

1 The Lord calleth Aaron and his sonnes to the Priesthood. 2 Their garments 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, 33, 34, 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, 40, 41, 42, 43, 44, 45, 46, 47, 48, 49, 50, 51, 52, 53, 54, 55, 56, 57, 58, 59, 60, 61, 62, 63, 64, 65, 66, 67, 68, 69, 70, 71, 72, 73, 74, 75, 76, 77, 78, 79, 80, 81, 82, 83, 84, 85, 86, 87, 88, 89, 90, 91, 92, 93, 94, 95, 96, 97, 98, 99, 100.

1 And cause thou thy brother Aaron to come vnto thee, & his sonnes wth him from among the children of Israël, & he may serue me in the Priests office: [I meane] Aaron, Nadab, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar Aarons sonnes.

2 Also thou shalt make holy garments for Aaron thy brother, glorious and beautiful.

3 Therefore thou shalt speake vnto all Iconning men, whome I haue filled with the spirite of wisdom, that they make Aarons garments to consecrate him, that he may serue me in the Priests office.

THE GARMENTS OF THE HIGH PRIEST.

A The Ephod, or vpon coat, which was like cloth of golde and was girded vnto him, wherein was a breast plate with the twelue stones, which was tied about with two cheines to two onix stones and beate wth two laces.

B The robe which was next vnder the Ephod, wherein were loyned the pomegranates and belles of golde.

C The tunicle or broidred tunicle, which was vnder the robe and longer then it, and was also without sleeves.

4 Now these shalbe the garments, w^{ch} they shal make, a breast plate, and an Ephod & a robe, and a broidred coat, a mitre, & a girdle, [so these] holy garments shal they make for Aaron thy brother, & for his sonnes, that he may serue me in the Priests office.

5 Therefore they shal take golde, & blew silk, and purple, and skarlet, & fine linen,

6 And they shal make the Ephod of golde, blew silk, and purple, skarlet and fine twined linen of broidred worke.

7 The two sholders thereof shalbe loyned together by their two edges: so shal it be closed.

8 And the embroidred garde of the same Ephod, which shalbe vpon him, shalbe of the self same worke and stuffe, [euen] of golde, blew silk, and purple, and skarlet, and fine twined linen.

9 And thou shalt take two onix stones, & graue vpon them the names of the children of Israël.

10 Six names of them vpon the one stone, & the six names y^e remaine, vpon the seconde stone, according to their generations.

11 Thou shalt cause to graue the two stones according to the names of the children of Israël by a grauer of signets, that worketh and graueth in stone, & shalt make them to be set and embossed in golde.

12 And thou shalt put the two stones vpon the sholders of the Ephod, [as] stones of remembrance of the children of Israël: for Aaron shal beare their names before y^e Lord vpon his two sholders for a remembrance.

13 So thou shalt make bosses of golde,

14 And two cheines of fine golde: at y^e ende, of wrethed worke shalt thou make them, and shalt fasten the wrethed cheines vpon the bosses.

15 Also thou shalt make the breast plate of iudgement with broidred worke: like the worke of the Ephod shalt thou make it: of golde, blew silk, and purple, & skarlet, and fine twined linen shalt thou make it.

16 Four square it shalbe [8] double, an hand bred long & an hand bred broad.

17 Then thou shalt set it ful of places for stones [euen] foure rowes of stones: the ordre [shalbe this:] a ruby, a topaze, and a carbuncle in the first rowe.

18 And in the second rowe [thou shalt set] an emeraude, a saphir, & a diamond.

19 And in the third rowe a turkis, an achat, and an hematite.

20 And in the fourte rowe a chrysolite, an onix, and a iasper: & they shalbe set in golde in their embossments.

21 And the stones shalbe according to the names of the children of Israël, twelue, according to their names graued as signets, euerie one after his name, [8] they shalbe for the twelue tribes.

22 Then thou shalt make vpon y^e breast plate two cheines at the endes of the wrethed worke of pure golde.

23 Thou shalt make also vpon the breast plate two rings of golde, & put the two rings

27 And two [other] rings of golde [†] shalt make and put them on the two sides of [†]

to the holy place, for a remembrance con-

30 ¶ Also thou shalt put in the brest plate shalbe as the collar of an habergeon that thou shalt make pomegranates of blewe

8 And thou shalt bring his sonnes, & put coates vpon them,

9 And shalt gird them with girdels, [both] Aaron & his sonnes: & shalt put the bonets on them, & the Priests office shall be theirs for a perpetual lawe: thou shalt also fill the hands of Aaron, & the hands of his sonnes.

10 After, thou shalt present the calfe before the Tabernacle of the Congregation, * and Aaron and his sonnes shall put their hands vpon the head of the calfe.

11 So thou shalt kil the calfe before the Lord, at the dore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

12 Then thou shalt take of the blood of the calfe, and put it vpon the hornes of the altar with thy finger, & shalt powre all [the rest] of the blood at the fote of the altar,

13 * Also thou shalt take all the fat that couereth the inwardes, & the kall, [that is] on the liuer, and the two kidneis, and the fat that is vpon them, and shalt burne the vpon the altar.

14 But the flesh of the calfe, and his skin, & his dounge shalt thou burne with fire without the hoste: it is a sinne offering.

15 ¶ Thou shalt also take one ram, & Aaron and his sonnes shall put their hands vpon the head of the ram.

16 Then thou shalt kil the ram, & take his blood and sprinkle it round about vpon the altar.

17 And thou shalt cut the ram in pieces, & wash the inwardes of him and his legges, and shalt put them vpon the pieces thereof, and vpon his head.

18 So thou shalt burne the whole ram vpon the altar: [for] it is a burnt offering vnto the Lord for a swete sauour: it is an offering made by fire vnto the Lord.

19 ¶ And thou shalt take the other ram, and Aaron and his sonnes shall put their hands vpon the head of the ram.

20 Then shalt thou kil the ram, and take of his blood and put it vpon the lap of Aarons eare, and vpon the lap of the right eare of his sonnes, and vpon the thumbe of their right hand, & vpon the great toe of their right fote, and shalt sprinkle the blood vpon the altar round about.

21 And thou shalt take of the blood that is vpon the altar, and of the anoynting oyle, and shalt sprinkle it vpon Aaron, & vpon his garments, and vpon his sonnes and vpon the garments of his sonnes with him: so he shall be halowed, & his clothes, and his sonnes, and the garments of his sonnes with him.

22 Also thou shalt take of the rams the fat and the rompe, euē the fat that couereth the inwardes, and the kall of the liuer, and the two kidneis, and the fat that is vpon them, and the right shulder, (for it is the ram of consecration)

23 And one loaf of bread, and one cake of bread [tempered] with oyle, & one wafer, out of the balker of the vnleauened [bread] that is before the Lord.

24 And thou shalt put all this in the hands of Aaron, and in the hands of his sonnes, and shalt shake them to & fro before the Lord.

25 Again, thou shalt receiue them of their hands, and burne them vpon the altar besides the burnt offering for a swete sauour before the Lord: [for] this is an offering made by fire vnto the Lord.

26 Likewise thou shalt take the brest of the ram of the consecration, which is for Aaron, and shalt shake it to and fro before the Lord, and it shall be thy parte.

27 And thou shalt sanctifie the brest of the shaken offering, and the shulder of the heaue offering, which was shaken to & fro, and was heaued vp of the ram of the consecration, which [was] for Aaron, & which [was] for his sonnes.

28 And Aaron and his sonnes shall haue it by a statute for euer, of the children of Israel: for it is an heaue offering, and it shall be an heaue offering of the children of Israel, of their peace offerings, [euē] their heaue offering to the Lord.

29 ¶ And the holy garments, which [appertain] to Aaron, shall be his sonnes after him, to be anointed therein, & to be consecrate therein.

30 That sonne that shall be Priest in his steede, shall put them on seven dayes, when he cometh into the Tabernacle of the Congregation, to minister in the holie place.

31 ¶ So thou shalt take the ram of the consecration, and seeth his flesh in the holie place.

32 * And Aaron and his sonnes shall eat the flesh of the ram, & the bread that is in the balker, at the dore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

33 So they shall eat these things, whereby their atonement was made to consecrate them, [and] to sanctifie them: but a stranger shall not eat [thereof], because they are holy things.

34 Now if ought of the flesh of the consecration, or of the bread remaine vnto the morning, then thou shalt burne the rest with fyre: it shall not be eaten, because it is an holy thing.

The altar of incense. 14 The summe that the Israelites shulde pay to the Tabernacle. 16 The brazen Laver. 21 The anoynting Oyle. 34 The making of the perfume.

THE ALTAR OF SVETE PERFUME.

This altar was one cubite long and one cubite broad, and in height it was two cubites: the rest may be vnderstande by the figures.

4 Besides this thou shalt make vnder this crowne two golden rings on either side: [euen] on euerie side shalt thou make [them,] that they may be as places for the barres to beare it withall:

5 The which barres thou shalt make of Shittim wood, and shalt couer them with golde.

6 After thou shalt set it before the vaile, that is nere the Arke of Testimonie, before the Mercieseat that is vpon the Testimonie, where I will appoint with thee.

7 And Aaron shal burne thereon swete incense euerie morning: when he d^resseth the lampes thereof, shal he burne it.

8 Likewise at euen, when Aaron setteth vpon the lampes thereof, he shal burne incense: [this] perfume [shalbe] perpetually before the Lord, throughout your generatiōs.

9 Ye shal offre no strange incense thereon nor burnt sacrifice, nor offering, nether powre anie drinke offering thereon.

10 And Aaron shal make reconciliation vpon the hornes of it once in a yere with the blood of the sin offering [in the day] of reconciliation, once in the yere shal he make reconciliation vpon it throughout your generatiōs: this is most holie vnto the Lord.

11 ¶ Afterwarde the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

12 ¶ When thou takest the summe of the children of Israel after their nomber, the they shal giue euerie man a redemption of his life vnto the Lord, when thou tellest them, that there be no plague among them when thou countest them.

17 ¶ Also the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

18 Thou shalt also make a laver of brasse & his fote of brasse to wash, and shalt put it betwene the Tabernacle of the Congregation and the altar, and shalt put water therein.

19 For Aaron and his sonnes shal wash their hands and their fete thereat.

20 When they go into the Tabernacle of the Congregation, or when they go vnto the altar to minister [&] to make perfume of the burnt offering to the Lord, they shal wash the selues with water, lest they dye.

21 So they shal wash their hands & their fete, they dye not: & [this] shalbe to them an ordinance for euer, [bothe] vnto him & to his sede throughout their generations.

22 ¶ Also the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

23 Take thou also vnto thee principal spices of the moste pure myrre five hundred [shekels], of swete cinamom halfe so muche, [that is,] two hundred and fiftie, and of swete calamus, two hundred and fiftie:

CHAP. XXXI.

1 God maketh Bezalel & Aholiab mete for his worke.

2 The Sabbath day is the signe of our sanctification.

3 The tables written by the finger of God.

And ^{the} Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, Beholde, I haue called by name, Bezalel, the sonne of Uri, the sonne of Hur of the tribe of Iudah.

3 Whome I haue filled with the Spirit of God, in wisdom, & in vnderstanding & in knowledge & in all workmanship:

4 To finde out curious workes to worke in golde, & in siluer, and in brasse,

5 Also in the art to set stones, and to carue in timber, [and] to worke in all maner of workmanship.

6 And beholde, I haue ioyned with him Aholiab the sonne of Ahisamah of the tribe of Dan, & in the heartes of all that are wise hearted, haue I put wisdom to make all that I haue commanded thee:

7 [That is,] the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and the Arke of the Testimonie, and the Mercieseat that shalbe thereupon, with all instruments of the Tabernacle.

8 Also the Table & the instruments thereof, and the pure Candellsticke with all his instruments & the Altar of perfume:

9 Likewise the Altar of burnt offering with all his instruments, & the Lawer, with his fote:

10 Also the garments of the ministration, and the holy garments for Aaron the Priest, and the garments of his sonnes, to minister in the Priests office, 11 And the anointing oyle, & sweet perfume for the Sanctuary: according to all that I haue commanded thee, shal they do.

12 Afterward the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

13 Speake thou also vnto the children of Israel, & say, Notwithstanding kepe ye my Sabbaths: for it is a signe betwene me & you in your generations, that ye may knowe that I the Lord do sanctifie you.

14 Ye shal therefore kepe the Sabbath: for it is holy vnto you: he that defileth it, shal dye the death: therefore whosoever worketh therein, the same person shalbe cutten out of from among his people.

15 Six dayes shal men worke, but in the seventh day [is] the Sabbath of the holy rest to ^{the} Lord: whosoever doeth any worke in the Sabbath day, shal dye the death.

16 Wherefore the childre of Israel shal kepe the Sabbath, that they may obserue the rest through out their generations for an euerlasting couenant.

17 It is a signe betwene me & the children of Israel for euer: *for in six dayes ^{the} Lord made the heauen and the earth, & in the seventh day he ceased, and rested.

18 Thus (when ^{the} Lord had made an end of communing with Moses vpon mount Sinai) *he gaue him two Tables of the Testimonie [even] tables of stone, written with the finger of God.

CHAP. XXXII.

1 The Israelites impute their delinquencies to the calf.

2 God is appalled by Moses prayer. 3 Moses breaketh the Tables. 4 He slayeth the idolaters. 5 Moses zeale for the people.

But when ^{the} people sawe, that Moses taried long or he came downe from the mountaine, the people gathered them selues together against Aaron, & said vnto him, Vp, *make vs gods to go before vs: for of this Moses (the man that brought vs out of the land of Egypt) we knowe not what is become of him.

2 And Aaron said vnto them, Plucke of the golden earrings, which are in the eares of your wives, of your sonnes, & of your daughters, and bring them vnto me.

3 Then all the people pluckt from them selues the golden earrings, which were in their eares, and they brought [them] vnto Aaron,

4 *Who receiued them at their hands, & fashioned it with the graving tole, & made of it a molten calf: then they said, These be thy gods, O Israel, which brought thee out of the land of Egypt.

5 When Aaron sawe [that,] he made an altar before it: and Aaron proclaimed, saying, To morowe [shalbe] the holy day of the Lord.

6 So they rose vp the next day in the morning, and offered burnt offerings, & brought peace offerings: also *the people sate them downe to eat and drinke, and rose vp to playe.

7 Then the Lord said vnto Moses, *Go, get thee downe: for thy people which thou hast brought out of the land of Egypt, haue corrupted [their waies.]

8 They *are sone turned out of the way, which I commanded them: [for] they haue made them a molten calf, & haue worshipped it, & haue offered thereto, laying, *These be thy gods, O Israel, which haue brought thee out of the land of Egypt.

9 Again the Lord said vnto Moses, *I haue sene this people, and beholde, it is a stiffneck-stifnecked people.

10 Nowe^e therefore let me alone, that my wrath may waxe hote against them, for I wil consume them: but I wil make of thee a mightie people.

11 * But Moses praied vnto the Lord his God, and said, O Lord, why doeth thy wrath waxe hote against thy people, w^h thou hast brought out of ^e land of Egypt with great power & with a mightie hand?

12 * Wherefore shal the Egyptians^s speake, and say, He hath brought them out maliciously for to slay them in the mountaines, and to consume them from the earth: turne from thy fearece wrath, and change thy minde from this euil toward thy people.

13 Remembre^s Abraham, Izhak, & Israel thy seruants, to whome thou swarest by thine owne selfe, and saidest vnto them, * I wil multiplie your sede as the starres of the heauen, and all this land that I haue spoken of, wil I giue vnto your sede, and thei shal inherite it for euer.

14 Then ^e Lord changed his minde from the euil, which he threatened to do vnto his people.

15 So Moses returned and went downe from the mountaine with the two Tables of the Testimonie in his hand: the Tables [were] writte on bothe their sides, eu^e on the one side and on the other were they written.

16 And these Tables were the worke of God, and this^e writing was the writing of God grauen in the Tables.

17 And when Ioshua heard the noise of the people, as thei shewted, he said vnto Moses, [There is] a noise of warre in the hoste.

18 Who answered, It is not the noise of them that haue the victorie, nor the noise of them that are ouercome: [but] I do heare the noise of singing.

19 Now, as sone as he came nere vnto the hoste, he sawe the calf and the dancing: so Moses wrath waxed hote, and he cast the Tables out of his hands, and brake them in pieces beneth the mountaine.

20 * After, he toke the calf, which they had made, & burned it in the fire, and ground it vnto powder, and strowed it vpon the water, and made the children of Israel drinke of it.

21 Also Moses said vnto Aaron, What didst thou do vnto thee, ^e thou hast brought so great a sinne vpon them?

22 Then Aaron answered, Let not the wrath of my lord waxe fearece: ^e knowest this people, that thei are [euen set] on mischief,

23 And they said vnto me, Make vs gods to go before vs: for we knowe not what is become of this Moses (the man ^e brought vs out of the land of Egypt)

24 The I said to them, Ye that haue golde, plucke it of: and thei brought it me, and I did cast it into the fire, & [thereof] came this calf.

25 Moses therefore sawe that the people were^k naked (for Aaron had made them naked vnto [their] shame among their enemies)

26 And Moses stode in the gate of the cap, and said, Who [pertineth] to the Lord? [let him come] to me. And all the sonnes of Leui gathered them selues vnto him.

27 Then he said vnto them, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, Put euerie man his sworde by his side: go to and fro, from gate to gate, through the hoste, & slay euerie man his brother, and euerie man his companion, & euerie man his neighbour.

28 So the children of Leui did as Moses had commanded: & there sel of the people ^e same day about thre thousand men.

29 (For Moses had said, Consecrat your hands vnto the Lord this day, euen euerie man vpon his^m sonne, and vpon his brother, that there may be giuen you a blessing this day)

30 And when the morning came, Moses said vnto the people, Ye haue committed a grieuous crime: but now I wil go vp to the Lord, if I may pacifie [him] for your sinne.

31 Moses therefore went againe vnto the Lord, and said, Oh, this people haue sinned a great sinne, & haue made them gods of golde.

32 Therefore now if thou pardone their sinne, [thy mercie shal appeare]: but if ^e wilt not, I pray thee, rale meⁿ out of thy booke, which thou hast writt.

33 Then the Lord said to Moses, Whosoever hath sinned against me, I wil put him out of my^o booke.

34 Go now therefore, bring the people vnto the place which I commanded thee: beholde, mine Angel shal go before thee, but yet in the day of my visitation I wil^p visite their sinne vpon them.

35 So the Lord plagued the people, because they caused Aaron [to make] the calf which he made.

CHAP. XXXIII

² And ^{*}I wil send an Angel before thee, & wil cast out the Canaanites, [†]Amorites, and the Hittites, and the Perizzites, the Hiuites, and the Iebusites:

⁴ And when the people heard this euil tidings, thei sorowed, & no man put on his best rayment.

⁷ Then Moses toke [his] tabernacle, & pitched it without the hoste far of from the hoste, and called it ^cOhel-moed. And when any did seke to the Lord, he went out vnto the Tabernacle of the Congregation, which was without the hoste.

¹⁰ Now when all [†]the people sawe the cloudy pillar stand at the Tabernacle dore, all the people rose vp, & worshipped euerie man in his tent dore.

¹² ¶ Then Moses said vnto the Lord, Se, [†]I laiest vnto me, Lead this people forth, & thou hast not shewed me whome thou wilt send with me: thou hast said moreover, I knowe thee by ^ename, & thou hast also founde grace in my sight.

¹³ Now therefore, I pray thee, if I haue founde fauour in thy sight, shewe me now thy way, that I may know thee, [and] that I may finde grace in thy sight: consider also that this nation [is] thy people.

¹⁴ And he answered, My ^{††}presence shal go [with thee,] and I wil giue thee rest.

¹⁵ Then he said vnto him, If thy presence go not [with vs,] cary vs not hence.

¹⁷ And the Lord said vnto Moses, I wil do this also that thou hast said: for thou hast founde grace in my sight, and I knowe thee by name.

¹⁸ Againe he said, I beseeche thee, shew me thy ^gglorie.

¹⁹ And he answered, I wil make all my ^hgood go before thee, and I wil ⁱproclaime the Name of the Lord before thee: ^{*}for I wil shewe ^kmercie to whome I wil shewe mercie, & wil haue compassion on whome I wil haue compassion.

²⁰ Furthermore he said, Thou canst not see my face, for there shal no man see me, & ^lliue.

²¹ Also the Lord said, Beholde, [there is] a place by ^mme, & thou shalt stande vpon the rocke:

²² And while my glorie passeth by, I wil put thee in a cleft of the rocke, & wil couer thee wth mine hand whiles I passe by.

spirit of wisdom, of vnderstanding, and of knowledge, and in all manner worke, 32 To finde out curious workes, to worke in golde, and in siluer, and in brasse, 33 And in grauing stones to set them, & in karuing of wood, [euē] to make any manner of fine worke.

34 And he hath put in his heart that he may teache [other:] bothe he, and Aholiab the sonne of Ahisamach of the tribe of Dan:

35 Them hath he filled with wisdom of heart to worke all manner^h of conning,* & broyded, & needle worke: in blewe silke, and in purple, in skarlet, and in fine linen & weauing, [euē] to do all manner of worke and subtile inuentions.

¶ CHAP. XXXVI.

The great readines of the people, in so much that he commanded them to cease. 8 The curtaines made. 19 The couerings. 20 The boardes. 31 The barres, 35 And the vail.

Then wrought Bezaleel, and Aholiab, and all conning men, to whome the Lord gaue wisdom and vnderstanding to knowe how to worke all manner worke for the seruice of the^a Sanctuarie, according to all that the Lord had commanded. For Moses had called Bezaleel, & Aholiab, and all the wise hearted men, in whose hearts the Lord had giuen wisdom, [euē] as manie as their heartes encouraged to come vnto that worke to worke it.

And they receiued of Moses all^f offering which the children of Israel had brought for the worke of the seruice of the Sanctuarie, to make it: also^b they brought stil vnto him fre gifts euery morning.

4 So all the wise men, that wrought all the holy worke, came euery man from his worke which they wrought,

5 And spake to Moses, saying, The people bring^c to muche, [&] more then ynough for the vse of the worke, which the Lord hath commanded to be made.

6 Then Moses gaue a commandement, & they caused it to be proclaimed throughout the hoste, saying, Let nether man nor woman prepare any more worke for the oblation of the Sanctuarie. So the people were stayed from offering.

7 For the stuffe they had was sufficient for all the worke to make it, and to muche.

8 * All the conning men therefore among the workemen, made [for] the Tabernacle ten curtaines of fine twined linen, and of blewe silke, and purple, and skarlet: d Cherubims of broyded worke made they [vpon] them.

9 The length of one curtaine [was] twenty and eight cubites, & the breadth of one curtaine foure cubites: [&] the curtaines were all of one cise.

10 And he coupled fve curtaines together, and other fve coupled he together.

11 And he made strings of blewe silke by the edge of one curtaine, in the seluedge of the coupling: likewise he made on the side of the [other] curtaine in the seluedge in the seconde coupling.

12 * Fiftie strings made he in the one curtaine, and fiftie strings made he in the edge of the [other] curtaine, which was in the seconde coupling: the strings were set one against an other.

13 After, he made fiftie taches of golde, & coupled the curtaines one to an other w^t the taches: [so] was it one Tabernacle.

14 ¶ Also he made curtaines of goates [heere] for the couering vpon the Tabernacle: he made them [to the number] of eleuen curtaines.

15 The length of one curtaine [had] thirty cubites, and the breadth of one curtaine foure cubites: the eleuen curtaines [were] of one cise.

16 And he coupled fve curtaines by them selues, and six curtaines by them selues:

17 Also he made fiftie strings vpon the edge of [one] curtaine in the seluedge in the coupling, and fiftie strings made he vpon the edge of the [other] curtaine in the seconde coupling.

18 He made also fiftie taches of brasse to couple the couering that it might be one.

19 And he made a^e couering vpon the pauillion of rams skins died red, & a couering of badgers skins aboute.

20 ¶ Likewise he made the boardes for the Tabernacle of Shittim wood^f to stand vp.

21 The length of a boarde [was] ten cubites, & the breadth of one boarde [was] a cubite and an halfe.

22 One boarde had two tenons, set in ordre as the fete of a ladder, one against an other: thus made he for all the boardes of the Tabernacle.

23 So he made twentie boardes for the Southside of the Tabernacle, euē ful South.

24 And fourtie sockets of siluer made he vnder^f twentie boardes, two sockets vnder one boarde, for his two tenons: and two sockets vnder another boarde for his two tenons.

25 Also for the other side of the Tabernacle toward the North, he made twentie boardes, 26 And their fortie sockets of siluer, two sockets vnder one boarde, & two sockets vnder another boarde.

30 So there were eight boardes and their sixtene sockets of siluer, vnder euerie board two sockets.

31 ¶ After, he made *barres of Shittim wood, five for the boardes in the one side of the Tabernacle, 32 And five barres for the boardes in the other side of the Tabernacle, & five barres for the boardes of the Tabernacle on the side toward the West.

33 And he made ¶ middest barre to shote through the boardes, from the one end to the other.

34 He ouerlaid also the boardes with golde, & made their rings of golde for places for the barres, and couered the barres with golde.

35 ¶ Moreouer he made a^h vaile of blew filke, and purple, and of skarlet, and of fine twined linē: with Cherubims of broyded worke made he it:

36 And made thereunto foure pillers of Shittim, and ouerlaid them with golde: whose ¶ hokes [were also] of golde, and he cast for them foure sockets of siluer.

37 And he made an^h hanging for the Tabernacle dore of blew filke, and purple, and skarlet, and fine twined linen, [and] nedle worke, 38 And the five pillers of it with their hokes, and ouerlaid their chapiters & their ¶ filets with golde, but their five sockets [were] of brasse.

¶ CHAP. XXXVII.

1 The Arke. 6 The Mercieat. 10 The Table. 17 The Candellsticke. 25 The Altar of incense.

1 ¶ After this, Bezaleel made the * Arke of Shittim wood two cubites & an halfe long, and a cubite and an halfe broad, and a cubite and an halfe hie:

2 And ouerlaid it with fine golde within and without, and made a^a crowne of golde to it round about:

3 And cast for it foure rings of golde for ¶ foure corners of it: that is, two rings for the one side of it, and two rings for the other side thereof.

4 Also he made barres of Shittim wood, & couered them with golde,

5 And put the barres in the rings by the sides of the Arke, to beare the Arke.

6 ¶ And he made the * Mercieat of pure golde: two cubites and an halfe [was] the length thereof, & one cubite and an halfe the breadth thereof.

7 And he made two Cherubims of golde vpon the two ends of ¶ Mercieat: [euen] of worke beaten with the hammer made he them.

8 One Cherub on ¶ one end, & an other Cherub on the other end: ^b of the Mercieat made he the Cherubims, at the two ends thereof.

9 And ¶ Cherubims spread out their wings on hie, and couered the Mercieat with their wings, and their faces [were] one towards an other: toward the Mercieat were the faces of the Cherubims.

10 ¶ Also he made the Table of Shittim wood: two cubites [was] the length thereof, and a cubite the breadth thereof, and a cubite and an halfe the height of it.

11 And he ouerlaid it with fine golde, and made thereto a crowne of golde round about.

12 Also he made thereto a border of an ¶ hand breadth round about, and made vpon the border a crowne of golde round about.

13 And he cast for it foure rings of golde, & put the rings in the foure corners that [were] in the foure fete thereof.

14 Against the border were the rings, as places for the barres to beare the Table.

15 And he made the barres of Shittim wood, and couered them with golde to beare the Table.

16 * Also he made the instruments for the Table of pure golde, dishes for it, & [incē] cups for it, and goblets for it, & coverings for it, wherewith it shulde be couered.

17 ¶ Likewise he made the Candellsticke of pure golde, of worke beaten out with the hammer made he the Candellsticke: [&] his shaft, & his branche, his bolles, his knops, and his floures were of one piece.

18 And six branches came out of the sides thereof: thre branches of the Candellsticke out of the one side of it, and thre branches of the Candellsticke out of the other side of it.

19 In one branche thre bolles made like almondes, a knop and a floure: and in an other branche thre bolles made like almondes, a knop & a floure: [and] so throughout the six branches that proceeded out of the Candellsticke.

20 And vpon the Candellsticke [were] foure bolles after the facion of almondes, the knops thereof and the floures thereof:

21 That is, vnder euerie two branches a knop [made] thereof, & a knop vnder the seconde branche thereof, & a knop vnder the

the third branche thereof, according to the six branches comming out of it.

22 Their knops and their branches were of the same: it was all one * beaten worke of pure golde.

23 And he made for it seuen lampes with $\frac{1}{2}$ snuffers, & snuffdishes thereof of pure gold.

24 Of a $\frac{1}{2}$ talent of pure golde made he it with all the instruments thereof.

25 Furthermore he made the * perfume alter of Shittim wood: $\frac{1}{2}$ length of it [was] a cubite, and the breadth of it a cubite (it was square) and two cubites hie, [and] the hornes thereof was of the same.

26 And he couered it with pure golde, bothe the tope and the sides thereof round about, and the hornes of it, and made vnto it a crowne of golde round about.

27 And he made two rings of golde for it, vnder the crowne thereof in the two corners of the two sides thereof, to put barres in for to beare it therewith.

28 Also he made the barres of Shittim wood, and ouerlaied them with golde.

29 And he made the holy * anointing oyle, & the swete pure incense after the apotecaries arte.

¶ CHAP. XXXVIII.

1 The Altar of burnt offerings. 8 The brasen Lauer. 9 The Courte. 24 The summe of that the people offered.

Also he made the altar of the burnt offering * of Shittim wood: five cubites [was] the length thereof, and five cubites the breadth thereof: [it was] square, and three cubites hie.

2 And he made vnto it hornes in the foure corners thereof: the hornes thereof were of the same, & he ouerlaied it with brasē.

3 Also he made all the instruments of the Altar: the * ash pans, & the besomes, and the basins, the flesh hokes, & the censers: all the instruments thereof made he of brasē.

4 Moreouer he made a brasē grate wrought like a net to the Altar, vnder the compass of it beneth in the * middes of it,

5 And cast foure rings of brasē for $\frac{1}{2}$ foure ends of the grate to put barres in.

6 And he made the barres of Shittim wood, and couered them with brasē.

7 The which barres he put into the rings on the sides of the altar to beare it withall, and made it holowe [within] the boardes.

8 ¶ Also he made the Lauer of brasē, and the fote of it of brasē of the $\frac{1}{2}$ glasses of the women that did assemble and came together at the dore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

9 ¶ Finally he made $\frac{1}{2}$ courte on the South side ful South: $\frac{1}{2}$ hangings of the courte [were] of fine twined linen, hauing an hundreth cubites.

10 Their pillers [were] twentie, and their brasen sockets twentie: the hokes of the pillers, and their filets [were] of siluer.

11 And on the Northside [the hangings were] an hundreth cubites: their pillers twentie, & their sockets of brasē twentie, the hokes of the pillers & their filets of siluer.

12 On the Westside also [were] hangings of fiftie cubites, their ten pillers with their ten sockets: the hokes of the pillers and their filets of siluer.

13 And toward the Eastside, ful East, [were] hangings] of fiftie cubites.

14 The hangings of the one side [were] fiftene cubites, their thre pillers, and their thre sockets.

15 * And of the other side of the courte gate on bothe sides [were] hangings of fiftene cubites, [with] their thre pillers and their thre sockets.

16 All the hangings of the courte round about [were] of fine twined linen:

17 But the sockets of the pillers [were] of brasē: the hokes of the pillers and their filets of siluer, and the couering of their chapiters of siluer: and all the pillers of $\frac{1}{2}$ courte were hooped about with siluer.

18 [He made] also the hanging of the gate of the courte of nedle worke, blewē filke, and purple, and skarlet, and fine twined linen [euē] twentie cubites long, & five cubites in height & breadth, like the hangings of the courte.

19 And their pillers [were] foure, with their foure sockets of brasē, their hokes of siluer, and the couering of their chapiters, and their filets of siluer.

20 But all the * pins of the Tabernacle and of $\frac{1}{2}$ courte round about [were] of brasē.

21 ¶ These are the partes of the Tabernacle, [I meane,] of the Tabernacle of the Testimonie, which was appointed by the commandement of Moyses for the office of the * Leuites by the hand of Ithamar sonne to Aaron the Priest.

22 So Bezaleel the sonne of Uri the sonne of Hur of the tribe of Iudah made all $\frac{1}{2}$ the Lord commanded Moyses:

23 And with him Aholiab sonne of Ahimach of the tribe of Dan, a cunning workman and an embroyderer and a worker of nedle worke in blewē filke, and in purple, and in skarlet, and in fine linen.

24 All the golde that was occupied in all $\frac{1}{2}$ worke wrought for the holy place (which was the golde of the offering) was nine hundred.

28 But he made the hokes for the pillars of a thousand seuen hundredth & seuentie & five [shekels,] and ouerlaid their chapiters, and made filets about them.

CHAP. XXXIX.

1 The apparel of Aaron and his sonnes. 32 All that the Lord commanded, was made, and finished. 43 Moses blessed the people.

As covering for the Arke, Candellsticke, Altars & such like.

Chap. 31, 10. & 35, 19.

Moreouer they made garments of ministration to minstre in the Sanctuarie of blewe silke, and purple, & skarlet: thei made also the holy garments for Aaron, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

2 So he made the Ephod of golde, blewe silke, and purple, and skarlet, and fine twined linen.

3 And thy did beate the golde into thin plates, and cut it into wiers, to worke it in the blewe silke, & in the purple, and in the skarlet, & in the fine linen, with broyded worke.

4 For which thei made sholders to couple together: for it was closed by the two edges thereof.

5 And the broyded garde of his Ephod that was vpon him, was of the same stuffe, & of like worke: [even] of golde, of blewe silke, and purple, and skarlet, and fine twined linen, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

6 ¶ And they wrought [two] onix stones closed in ouches of golde, and graued, as signers are grauen, with the names of the children of Israel.

* Chap. 21, 3.

7 And put them on the sholders of the Ephod, [as] stones for a remembrance of the children of Israel, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

That is, of very fine & curious workmanship.

* Chap. 21, 11.

8 ¶ Also he made the brest plate of broyded worke, like the worke of the Ephod: [to wit,] of golde, blewe silke, and purple, & skarlet, and fine twined linen.

9 They made the brest plate double, and it was square, an hand breadth long, & an hand breadth broad: [it was also] double.

10 And they filled it with foure rowes of stones. The ordre [was thus,] a ruby, a topaze, and a carbuncle in the first rowe:

11 And in the seconde rowe, an emeraude, a saphir, and a diamond:

12 Also in the third rowe, a turkeis, an achate, and an hematite:

Or a ligur, stone autom. write & cometh of & mine of the beast called linx.

13 Likewise in the foure rowe, a chrysolite, an onix, and a iasper: closed and set in ouches of golde.

14 So the stones [were] according to the names of the children of Israel, [even] twelue after their names, graue like signers euerie one after his name according to the twelue tribes.

That is, euerie tribe had his name written in a stone.

15 After, they made vpon the brest plate cheines at the endes, of wrethen worke [&] pure golde.

16 They made also two bosses of golde, & two golde rings, and put the two rings in the two corners of the brest plate.

17 And they put the two wrethen cheines of golde in the two rings, in the corners of the brest plate.

18 Also the two [other] endes of the two wrethen cheines they fastened in the two bosses, and put them on the sholders of the Ephod vpon the fore fronte of it.

19 Likewise thei made two rings of golde, and put them in the two [other] corners of the brest plate vpon the edge of it, w^{ch} was on the inside of the Ephod.

20 Thei made also two [other] golde rings, and put them on the two sides of the Ephod, beneath on the fore side of it and ouer against his coupling aboue the broyded garde of the Ephod.

21 Then they fastened the brest plate by his rings vnto the rings of the Ephod, with a lace of blewe silke, that it might be fast vpon the broyded garde of the Ephod, and that the brest plate shulde not be loosed from the Ephod, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

man-

22 ¶ Moreover he made the robe of the Ephod of wouen worke, altogether of blew filke.

23 And^f the hole of the robe [was] in the middes of it, as the collar of an habergeon, with an edge about the collar, that it shulde not rent.

24 And they made vpon the skirtes of the robe pomegranates of blew filke, & purple, and skarlet, and [fine linen] twined.

25 They made also *belles of pure golde, & put the belles betwene the pomegranates vpon the skirtes of the robe rounde about betwene the pomegranates.

26 A bel & a pomegranate, a bel & a pomegranate round about the skirtes of the robe to minister in, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

27 ¶ After, thei made coates of fine linen, of wouen worke for Aaron and for his sonnes.

28 And the mitre of fine linen, & goodlie bonnets of fine linen, and linen *breches of fine twined linen, 29 ¶ And the girdel of fine twined linen, & of blew filke, & purple, & skarlet, [euen] of needle worke, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

30 ¶ Finally, they made the plate for the holy crowne of fine golde, and wrote vpon it a superscription [like] to the graving of a signet, *HOLINES TO THE LORD.

31 And thei tied vnto it a lace of blew filke to fasten it on hye vpon the mitre, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

32 ¶ Thus was all the worke of the Tabernacle, [euen] of the *Tabernacle of the Congregation finished: & the children of Israel did according to all that the Lord had commanded Moses: so did they.

33 ¶ Afterwarde they brought the Tabernacle vnto Moses, the Tabernacle & all his instruments, his taches, his boardes, his barres, and his pillars, & his sockets,

34 And the couering of rammes skinned red, & the couerings of badgers skinned, and the couering vaile,

35 The Arke of the Testimonie, and the barres thereof, and the Mercieseat, 36 The Table, with all the instruments thereof, and the shewe bread,

37 The pure Candellstick, the lampes thereof, [euen] the lampes^h set in ordre, and all the instruments thereof, and the oyle for light:

38 Also the golden Altar, & the anointing oyle, & the sweet incense, & the hanging of the Tabernacle dore,

39 The brasen Altar with his grate of brasen, his barres and all his instruments, the Lauer & his fote, 40 The curtaines of the court with his pillars, and his sockets, & the hanging to the courte gate, [&] his cordes, and his pinnes, and all the instruments of the seruice of the Tabernacle, [called] the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

41 [Finally,] ¶ ministring garments to serue in the Sanctuarie, [&] the holie garments for Aaron the Priest, and his sonnes garments to minister in the Priests office.

42 According to euerie point that ¶ Lord hadⁱ commanded Moses, so the children of Israel made all the worke.

43 And Moses behelde all the worke, and beholde, thei had done it as the Lord had commanded: so had thei done: & Moses^k blessed them.

17 ¶ Thus was the Tabernacle reared vp the first day of the first moneth in the seconde yere.

18 Then Moses reared vp the Tabernacle and fastened his sockets, & set vp the boardes thereof, and put in the barres of it, and reared vp his pillers.

19 And he spread the couering ouer the Tabernacle, and put the couering of that couering on hie aboue it, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

20 ¶ And he toke & put the Testimonie in the Arke, and put the barres in [the rings] of the Arke, and set the Mercieseat on hie vpon the Arke.

21 He brought also the Arke into the Tabernacle, and hanged vp the couering vaile, and couered the Arke of the Testimonie, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

22 ¶ Furthermore he put the Table in the Tabernacle of the Congregation, in the Northside of the Tabernacle, without the vaile, 23 And set the bread in ordre before the Lord, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

24 ¶ Also he put the Candellsticke in the Tabernacle of the Congregation ouer against the Table towarde the Southside of the Tabernacle.

25 And he lighted the lampes before the Lord, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

26 ¶ Moreover he set the golden Altar in the Tabernacle of the Congregation before the vaile, 27 And burnt swete incense thereon, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

28 ¶ Also he hanged vp the vaile at the dore of the Tabernacle.

29 After, he set the burnt offering Altar [without] the dore of the Tabernacle [called] the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and offered the burnt offering and the sacrifice thereon, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

30 ¶ Likewise he set the Lauer betwene the Tabernacle of the Congregation & the Altar, and powred water therein to wash with.

31 So Moses, and Aarón, and his sonnes washed their hands & their fete thereat.

32 When they went into the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and when they approached to the Altar, they washed, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

33 Finally, he reared vp the courte round about the Tabernacle and the Altar, and hanged vp the vaile at the courte gate: so Moses finished the worke.

34 ¶ Then the cloude couered the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and the glorie of the Lord filled the Tabernacle.

35 So Moses coulde not entre into the Tabernacle of the Congregation, because the cloude abode thereon, and the glorie of the Lord filled the Tabernacle.

36 Now when the cloude ascended vp from the Tabernacle, the children of Israel went forward in all their iourneis.

37 But if the cloude ascended not, then they iourneied not til the day that it ascended.

38 For the cloude of the Lord [was] vpon the Tabernacle by day, and fire was in it by night, in the sight of all the house of Israel, throughout all their iourneis.

THE THIRD BOKE OF MOSES, CALLED

LEVITICVS.

THE ARGUMENT.

AS God daily by moste singulare benefites declared him selfe to be mindeful of his Church, so he wolde not that they shulde haue any occasion to trust ether in them selues, or to depend vpon others for lacke of temporal things, or ought that belonged to his diuine seruice and religion. Therefore he ordeined diuers kindes of oblations and sacrifices, to assure them of forgiveness of their offenses (if thei offered them in true faith and obedience) Also he appointed their Priests and Leuites, their apparel, offices, conuersation and portion: he shewed what feastes they shulde obserue, and in what times. Moreouer he declared by these sacrifices and ceremonies that the reward of sinne is death, and that without the blood of Christ the innocent Lambe there can be no forgiveness of finnes. And because thei shulde giue no place to their owne inuentions (which thing God moste detesteth, as appeareth by the terrible example of Nadab and Abihu) he prescribed euen to the least things what thei shulde do, as what beastes they shulde offre and eat: what diseases were contagious and to be auoyded: what ordre they shulde take for all maner of filthines and pollution: whose companie they shulde flee: what mariages were lawful: and what politike lawes were profitable. VVhich things declared, he promised fauour and blessing, to them that kept his lawes, and threatened his curse to them that transgressed them.

¶ CHAP. I.

2 Of burnt offerings for particular persons. 3. 10. & 14. The maner to offre burnt offerings a swel of bullocks, is of shepe and birdes.

NOW ^a Lord called Moses, & spake vnto him out of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, saying, Speake vnto ^b children of Israel, and thou shalt say vnto them, If any of you offer a sacrifice vnto the Lord, ye shall offre your sacrifice of ^c cattel, [as] of beues and of the shepe.

3 *If his sacrifice [be] a burnt offering of ^d herde, he shall offer a male without blemish, presenting him of his owne voluntary wil at the dore of the ^e Tabernacle of the Congregation before the Lord.

4 And he shall put his hand vpon the head of the burnt offering, and it shall be accepted ^f to [the Lord,] to be his atonement.

5 And ^g he shall kil the bullocke before the Lord, & the Priestes Aarons sonnes shall offer the blood, and shall sprinkle it round about vpon the ^h altar that is by the dore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

6 Then shall he slay the burnt offering and cut it in pieces.

7 So the sonnes of Aaron the Priest shall put fire vpon the altar, and lay the wood in ordre vpon the fire.

8 Then ⁱ Priestes Aarons sonnes shall lay the partes in ordre, the head and the ^j skull vpon the wood that is in the fire which is vpon the altar.

9 But the inwardes thereof and the legs thereof he shall wash in water, and the Priest shall burne all on the altar: [for] it is a burnt offering, an oblation made by fire for a swete sauour ^k vnto the Lord.

10 ¶ And if his sacrifice for the burnt offering [be] of the flockes ([as] of the shepe, or of the goates) he shall offer a male without blemish.

11 & And he shall kil it on the Northside of the altar ^l before the Lord, & the Priestes Aarons sonnes shall sprinkle the blood the reof round about vpon the Altar.

12 And he shall cut it in ^m pieces, [separating] his head and his ⁿ kall, and the Priest shall lay them in ordre vpon the wood that [lieth] in the fire which is on the altar:

13 But he shall wash the inwardes, and the legs with water, and the Priest shall offre the whole, & burne it vpon the altar. [for] it is a burnt offering, an oblation made by fire for a swete sauour vnto the Lord.

14 ¶ And if his sacrifice [be] a burnt offering to the Lord of the foules, then he shall offer his sacrifice of the turtle doves, or of the yong pigeons.

15 And the Priest shall bring it vnto the altar, and ^o wring the necke of it a sunder, and burne it on the altar: and the blood thereof shall be ^p shed vpon the side of the altar.

16 And he shall plucke out his mawe ^q with his fethers, and cast them beside the altar on the ^r Eastparte in the place of the ashes.

17 And he shall cleaue it with his wings, [but] not deuide it a sunder: & the Priest shall burne it vpon the altar vpon the wood that is in the fire: [for] it is a burnt offering, an oblation made by fire for a swete sauour vnto the Lord.

4 ¶ If thou bring also a meat offering baken in the oven, [it shal be] an vnleauened cake of fine floure mingled with oyle, or an vnleauened wafer anointed with oyle.

5 ¶ But if thy ^e meat offering [be] an oblatiō of the frying pan, it shalbe of fine floure vnleauened, mingled with oyle.

8 After, thou shalt bring the meat offering (that is made of these things) vnto the Lord, and shalt present it vnto the Priest, and he shal bring it to the altar.

9 And the Priest shal take from the meat offering a ^a memorial of it, and shal burne it vpon the altar: [for] it is an oblation ^e made by fire for a swete sauour vnto the Lord.

10 But that which is left of ^f meat offering, [shal be] Aarons and his sonnes: [for it is] moste holy of the offerings of the Lord made by fire.

11 All the meat offerings which ye shal offer vnto the Lord, shalbe made without leauen: for ye shal nether burne leauen nor hony in any offering of the Lord made by fire.

12 ¶ [In] the oblation of the first frutes ye shal offer ^f them vnto the Lord, but they shal not be burnt vpon the altar for a swete sauour.

13 (All the meat offerings also shalt thou season with ^a salt, nether shalt thou suffre the salt of the ^b covenant of thy God to be lacking from thy meat offering, [but] vpon all thine oblations thou shalt offer ^g salt)

14 If then thou offer a meat offering of thy first frutes vnto the Lord, thou shalt offer for thy meat offering of thy first frutes ^a eares of corne dried by the fire, and wheat beaten out of ⁱ the grene eares.

15 After, thou shalt put oyle vpon it, and lale incense thereon: [for] it is a meat offering.

16 And the Priest shal burne the memorial of it, [euē] of that that is beaten & of the oyle of it with all the incense thereof: [for] it is an offering vnto the Lord made by fire.

CHAP. III.

1 The maner of peace offerings, and beasts for the lame. 17 The Israelites may nether eat fat, nor blood.

1 A Lso if his oblation [be] a ^a peace offering, if he wil offer of the droue (whether it be male or female) he shal offer suche as is without blemish, before the Lord.

2 And shal put his hand vpon the head of his offering, and kil it at the dore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation: & Aarons sonnes the Priests shal sprinkle the blood vpon the altar round about.

3 So he shal offer ^b [parte] of the peace offerings [as] a sacrifice made by fire vnto the Lord, [euē] the ^a fat that couereth the inwardes, and all the fat that is vpon the inwardes.

4 He shal also take away the two kidnies, and the fat that is on them, and vpon the flanks, and the kall on the liuer with the kidneis.

5 And Aarons sonnes shal burne it on the altar with the burnt offering, which is vpon the wood, that is on the fire: [this is] a sacrifice made by fire for a swete sauour vnto the Lord.

6 ¶ Also if his oblation [be] a peace offering vnto the Lord out of the flocke, whether it be ^a male or female, he shal offer it without blemish.

7 If he offer a lambe for his oblation, then he shal bring it before the Lord,

8 And lay his hand vpon the head of his offering, and shal kil it before the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and Aarons sonnes shal sprinkle the blood thereof round about vpon the altar.

9 After, of the peace offerings he shal offer ^d an offering made by fire vnto ^f Lord: he shal take away the fat thereof, & the rumpe altogether, hard by the backe bone, & the fat that couereth the inwardes, and all the fat that is vpon the inwardes.

10 Also he shal take away the two kidnies, with the fat that is vpon them, and vpon the ^a flanks, & the kall vpon the liuer with the kidneis.

11 Then the Priest shal burne it vpon the altar, [as] the meat of an offering made by fire vnto the Lord.

12 ¶ Also if his offering [be] a goat, then shal he offe it before the Lord.

4 And he shall bring the bullocke vnto the dore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation before the Lord, and shall put his hand vpon the bullocks head, and *kil the bullocke before the Lord.

5 And the Priest that is anointed shall take of the bullocks blood, & bring it into the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

6 Then the Priest shall dip his finger in the blood, and sprinkle of the blood seuen times before the Lord, before the vaile of the Sanctuarie.

7 The Priest also shall put [some] of the blood before the Lord, vpon the homes of the altar of swete incense, which is in the * Tabernacle of the Congregation, then shall he powre * all [the rest] of the blood of the bullocke at the fore of the altar of burnt offering, which is at the dore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

9 He shall take away also the two kidneis, & the fat that is vpon them, and vpon the flanks, and the kall vpon the liuer with the kidneis,

10 As it was taken away from the bullocke of the peace offerings, and the Priest shall burne them vpon the altar of burnt offering.

11 *But the skin of the bullocke, and all his flesh, with his head, and his legs, & his inwards, and his dounge [shall he beare out]

12 So he shall cary the whole bullocke out of the * hoste vnto a cleane place, where the ashes are powred, & shall burne him on the wood in the fire: where the ashes are cast out, shall he be burnt.

15 And the Elders of the Congregation shall put their hands vpon the head of the bullocke before the Lord, and t he shall kil the bullocke before the Lord.

18 Also he shall put [some] of the blood vpon the homes of the altar, which is before the Lord, that is in the tabernacle of the Congregation: then shall he powre all the [rest] of the blood at the fore of the altar of burnt offering, which is at the dore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

19 And he shall take all his fat from him, and t burne it vpon the altar.

20 And f Priest shall do with this bullocke as he did with the bullocke for [his] sinne: so shall he do with this: so the Priest shall make an atonement for them, and it shall be forgiven them.

21 For he shall cary the bullocke without the hoste, and burne him as he burned the first bullocke: [for] it is an offering for the sinne of the Congregation.

22 ¶ When a ruler shall sinne, & do through ignorance [against] anie of the commandements of the Lord his God, which shulde not be done, and shall offende,

6 The offering for sinnes which are done willingly. 9 The lawe of the burnt offerings. 13 The fire must abide euermore vpon the altar. 14 The lawe of the meat offering. 20 The offerings of Aaron, and his sonnes.

1 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

2 If anie sinne and commit a trespass against the Lord, and denie vnto his neighbour that, which was giuen him to kepe, or that which was put to him^a of trust, or doeth by^b robberie or by violence oppress his neighbour,

4 When, I say, he thus sinneth & trespasseth, he shal then restore the robbery that he robbed, or the thing taken by violence w^h he toke by force, or the thing which was deliuered him to kepe, or the lost thing which he founde,

5 Or for whatsoever he hath sworne falsely, he shal bothe^d restore it in the whole summe, and shal adde the fift parte more

6 Also he shal bring for his trespass vnto the Lord, a ram without blemish out of the * flocke in thy estimation [worth] two shekels for a trespass offering vnto the Priest.

7 And the Priest shal make an atonement for him before the Lord, and it shalbe forgiven him whatsoever thing he hath done and trespassed therein.

8 ¶ The Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, 9 Command Aaron and his sonnes, saying, This is the^d lawe of the burnt offering, (it is the burnt offering because it burneth vpon the altar all the night vnto the morning, and the fire burneth on the altar)

10 And the Priest shal put on his linnen garment, and shal put on his linnen breeches vpon^e his flesh, and take away the ashes when the fire hath consumed the burnt offering vpon the altar, and he shal put them beside the^f altar.

11 After he shal put on his garments, & put on other raiment, and cary the ashes forth without the host vnto a cleane place.

12 But the fire vpon the altar shal burne thereon [&] neuer be put out: wherefore^g the Priest shal burne wood on it euery morning, & lay the burnt offering in ordre vpon it, & he shal burne thereon^h fat ofⁱ peace offerings.

13 The fire shal euery burne vpon the altar, [&] neuer go out.

14 ¶ Also this is the Lawe of the meat offering, which Aarons sonnes shal offer in the presence of the Lord, before the altar.

15 He shal euen take thence his handful of fine flour of the meat offering and of the oyle, and al the incens which [is] vpon the meat offering, and shal burne it vpon the altar for a sweate sauour, [as] a * memorial therefore vnto the Lord:

16 But the rest thereof shal Aaron and his sonnes eat: it shalbe eaten without leauen in the holy place: in the court of the Tabernacle of the Congregation they shal eat it.

17 It shal not be baken with leauen: I have giuen it for there portion of mine offerings made by fire: [for] it is as the sinne offering and as the trespass offering.

18 All the males among the children of Aaron shal eat of it: [It shalbe] a statute for euer in your generations concerning the offerings of the Lord, made by fire: whatsoever toucheth them shalbe holy.

23 For euerie meat offering of the Priest shall be [burnt] altogether, it shall not be eaten.

24 ¶ Further more the Lord spake vnto Moyses, saying,

25 Speake vnto Aaron, and vnto his sonnes and say, This is the lawe of the sin offering, In the place where the burnt offering is killed, shall the sin offering be killed before the Lord, [for] it is moste holy.

26 The Priest that offereth this sin offering, shall eat it: in the holy place shall it be eaten in the court of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

27 Whatsoeuer shall touche [†] flesh thereof shall be holy: and when there droppeth of the blood thereof vpon a^k garment, thou shalt wash that whereon it droppeth in the holy place.

28 Also the earthe pot that it is sodden in, shall be broken, but if it be sodden in a brasen pot, it shall bothe be scoured and washed with^l water.

1 Likewise this is the lawe of the^a trespass offering, it is moste holy.

2 In the place^b where they kil the burnt offering, shall they kil the trespass offering, & the blood thereof shall he sprinkle round about vpon the altar.

3 All the fat thereof also shall^c he offer, the rumpe & the fat that couereth the inwards.

4 After he shall take away the two kidneis, with the fat that is on them and vpon the flanks, and the kall on the liuer with the kidneis.

5 Then the Priest shall burne them vpon the altar, for an offering made by fire vnto the Lord: this is a trespass offering.

6 All the males among the Priests shall eat thereof, it shall be eaten in the holy place, [for] it is moste holy.

7 As the sin offering [is], so [is] the trespass offering, one^d lawe serueth for bothe, * that wherewith the Priest shall make an atonement, shall be his.

8 Also the Priest that offereth anie mans burnt offering, shall haue the skin of the burnt offering, which he hath offered.

9 And all the meat offering that is baken in the oven, and that is dressed in the pan, & in the frying pan, shall be the Priests that offereth it.

10 And euerie meat offering mingled with oyle, and that is^f drie, shall pertaine vnto all the sonnes of Aaron, to all alike.

11 Furthermore this is the lawe of [†] peace offerings, which he shall offer vnto the Lord.

12 If he offer it to giue thanks, then he shall offer for his thanks offering, vnleavened cakes mingled with oyle, and vnleavened wafers anointed with oyle, and fine flour fried [with] the cakes mingled with oyle.

13 He shall offer [also] his offering with cakes of leavened bread, for his peace offerings, to giue thanks.

14 And of all the sacrifice he shall offer one [cake] for an heauie offering vnto the Lord, [&] it shall be the Priests that sprinkle the blood of the peace offerings.

15 Also the flesh of his peace offerings for thanks giuing, shall be eaten the same day that it is offered: he shall leaue nothing thereof vntil the morning.

16 But if the sacrifice of his offering [be] a^h vowe, or a fre offering, it shall be eaten the same day that he offereth his sacrifice: & so in the morning the residue thereof shall be eaten.

CHAP. VIII.

22 ¶ Again the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

23 Speake vnto the children of Israel, and say, *Ye shall eat no fat of beues, nor of sheepe, nor of goates:

24 Yet the fat of the dead beast, and the fat of that, which is torne [with beastes], shall be occupied to anie vse, but ye shall not eat of it.

25 For whosoever eateth the fat of ^h beast, of the which he shall offer an offering made by fire to the Lord, euen the persone that eateth, shall be cut of from his people.

26 Nether shall ye eat anie blood ether of foule, or of beast in all your dwellings.

27 Euerie persone that eateth anie blood, euen the same persone shall be cut of from his people.

28 ¶ And ^h Lord talked wth Moses, saying,

29 Speake vnto the children of Israel, and say, He that offereth his peace offerings vnto the Lord, shall bring his gift vnto the Lord of his peace offerings.

30 His ^m hands shall bring the offerings of the Lord made by fire: [euen] the fat with the breast shall he bring, that the breast may be ^{*} shaken to and fro before the Lord.

31 Then the Priest shall burne the fat vpon the altar, and the breast shall be Aarons and his sonnes.

32 And the right shulder shall ye giue vnto the Priest for an heaue offering, of your peace offerings.

33 The same that offereth the blood of the peace offerings, and the fat, among the sonnes of Aaron, shall haue the right shulder for his parte.

34 For the breast shaken to and fro, and the shulder lifted vp, haue I take of the childre of Israel, [euen] of their peace offerings, and haue giuen them vnto Aaron the Priest & vnto his sonnes by a statute for euer from among the children of Israel.

35 ¶ This is the ⁿ anointing of Aaron, and the anointing of his sonnes, concerning the offerings of the Lord made by fire, in the day when he presented them to serue in the Priests office vnto the Lord.

36 The which [portions] the Lord commanded to giue the in the day that he anointed them from among the children of Israel, by a statute for euer in their generations.

37 This is [also] the lawe of the burnt offering, of the meat offering, & of the sinne offering, & of the trespass offering, and of the ^o consecrations, and of the peace offerings, 38 Which the Lord commanded Moses in the mount Sinai, when he commanded the children of Israel to offer their gifts vnto the Lord in the wilderness of Sinai.

12 The anointing of Aaron, and his sonnes, with the sacrifice concerning the same.

1 Afterwarde the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

2 Take Aaron and his sonnes with him, & the garments and the ^{}anointing oyle, and a bullocke for the sin offering, and two rams, and a basket of vneleavened bread,

3 And assemble all the companie at the dore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

4 So Moses did as the Lord had commanded him, and the companie was assembled at the dore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

5 Then Moses said vnto the companie, *This is the thing which the Lord hath commanded to do.

6 And Moses brought Aaron & his sonnes, and washed them with water, 7 And put vpon him the coat, & girded him with a girdel, and clothed him with the robe, and put the Ephod on him, which he girded with the broidred girdle of the Ephod, and bonde it vnto him therewith.

8 After he put the breast plate thereon, and put in the breast plate ^{*} the Vrim and the Thummim.

9 Also he put the mitre vpon his head, and put vpon the mitre on the fore fronte the golden plate, [and] the ^{*}holy crowne, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

10 (Now Moses had taken the anointing oyle, and anointed the ^b Tabernacle, & all that was therein, and sanctified them, 11 And sprinkled thereof vpon the altar seuen times, & anointed the altar and all his instruments, and the laver, and his fote, to sanctifie them)

12 *And he powred of the anointing oyle vpon Aarons head, and anointed him, to sanctifie him.

13 After, Moses brought Aarons sonnes, and put coates vpon them, and girded them with girdels, and put bonets vpon their heades, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

14 *Then he brought the bullocke for the sin offering, & Aaron & his sonnes put their hands vpon the head of the bullocke for the sinne offering.

15 And Moses slewe him, & toke the blood, which he put vpon the hornes of the ^{*}Altar round about with his finger, and purified the Altar, and powred [the rest] of the blood at the fote of the Altar: so he sanctified ^d it, to make reconciliation vpon it.

16 Then he toke all the fat that was vpon the inwards, and the kalle of the liver & the two kidneis, with their fat, which Moses burned vpon the Altar.

19 So Moses killed it, and sprinkled the blood vpon the altar round about,

20 And Moses cut the ram in pieces, and burnt the head with the pieces, & the fat,

21 And washed the inwardes and the legs in water: so Moses burnt the ram euerie whit vpon the Altar. [for] it was a burnt offering for a swete sauour, which was made by fire vnto the Lord, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

22 ¶ After, he broght the other ram, the ram of consecrations, and Aaron and his sonnes laied their hands vpon the head of the ram, 23 Which Moses^c slewe, and toke of the blood of it, and put it vpon the lap of Aarons right eare, and vpon the thombe of his right hand, and vpon the great toe of his right fote.

25 And he toke the fat, and the rumpe, and all the fat that was vpon the inwardes, and the kalle of the liuer, and the two kidneis with their fat, and the right shulder.

26 Also he toke of the basket of the vnleauened bread that was before the Lord, one vnleauened cake, & a cake of oyled bread, and one wafer, and put them on the fat, & vpon the right shulder.

27 So he put^d all in Aarons hands, and in his sonnes hands, and shoke it to and fro before the Lord.

28 After, Moses toke the^e out of their hands, and burnt them vpon the Altar for a burnt offering: [for] these were consecrations for a swete sauour, which were made by fire vn to the Lord.

29 Likewise Moses toke the breast of the ram of consecrations, and shoke it to and fro before^f the Lord: [for] it was Moses^g portion, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

30 Also Moses toke of the anointing oyle, and of the blood which was vpon the Altar, and sprinkled it vpon Aaron, vpon his garments, and vpon his sonnes, and on his sonnes garments with him: so he sanctified Aaron, his garments, and his sonnes, and his sonnes garments with him.

31 ¶ Afterward Moses said vnto Aaron & his sonnes, Sethe the flesh at the dore of the^h Tabernacle of the Congregation, & thereⁱ eat it with the bread that is in the basket of consecrations, as I commanded, saying, Aaron and his sonnes shal eat it, 32 But that which remaineth of the flesh & of the bread shal ye burne with fire.

33 And ye shal not departe from the dore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation seuen daies, vntil the daies of your consecrations be at an end: ^jfor seuen daies, [said the Lord,] shal he^k consecrate you,

34 As the hath done this day: [so] the Lord hathe commanded to do, to make an atonement for you.

35 Therefore shal ye abide at the dore of the Tabernacle of the congregation day and night, seuen daies, and shal kepe the watch of the Lord, that ye dye not: for so I am commanded.

36 So Aaron and his sonnes did all things which the Lord had commanded by the^l hand of Moses.

¹⁰ But the fat and the kidneis & the kall of the liuer of the sin offering, he ^e burnt vpon the Altar, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

¹² After, he slew the burnt offering, and Aarons sonnes broght vnto him the blood, which he sprinkled round about vpon the Altar.

¹⁵ ¶ Then he offred the peoples offering, and toke a goat, which was the sin offering for the people, and slew it, and offred it for sinne, as the first:

¹⁶ So he offred the burnt offering, & prepared it, according to the maner.

¹⁸ He slewe also the bullocke, and the ram for the peace offerings, that was for the people, and Aarons sonnes broght vnto him the blood, which he sprinkled vpon the Altar round about, and thy sonnes, and thy daughters with thee: for thei are giuen as thy due and thy sonnes due, of the peace offerings of the children of Israel.

15 The heave shulder, and the shaken breast shal they bring with the offerings made by fire of the fat, to shake [it] to and fro before the Lord, and it shalbe thine and thy sonnes with thee by a lawe for euer, as the Lord hath commanded.

16 ¶ And Moses fought the goat that was offred for sinne, and lo it was burnt: therefore he was angry with Eleazar and Ithamar the sonnes of Aaron, which were left [aliue] saying,

17 Wherefore haue ye not eaten the sinne offering in the holy place, seing it is moste holy? and [God] hath giuen it you to beare the iniquitie of the Congregation, to make an atonement for the before the Lord.

18 Beholde, the blood of it was not brought within the holy place: ye shulde haue eaten [it] in the holy place, as I commanded.

19 And Aaron said vnto Moses, Beholde, this day we haue they offred their sin offering and their burnt offering before the Lord, & suche things [as thou knowest] are come vnto me: if I had eaten the sin offering to day, shulde it haue bene accepted in the sight of the Lord?

20 So when Moses heard [it], he was comforted.

CHAP. XI.

1 Of beastes, fishes and birdes, which be cleane, & which be vncleane.

1 After, the Lord spake vnto Moses & to Aaron, saying vnto them,

2 Speake vnto the children of Israel, & say, These are the beastes, which ye shal eat, among all the beastes that are on the earth.

3 Whatsoeuer parteth the hoofe, and is clouen foted, and chaweth the cud among the beastes, that shal ye eat:

4 But of them that chewe the cud, or deuide the hoofe onely, of them ye shal not eat: as the camel, because he cheweth the cud, & deuideth not the hoofe, he shalbe vncleane vnto you.

5 Likewise the conie, because he cheweth the cud & deuideth not the hoofe, he shalbe vncleane to you.

6 Also the hare, because he cheweth the cud, and deuideth not the hoofe, he shalbe vncleane vnto you.

7 ¶ And the swine, because he parteth the hoofe and is clouen foted, but cheweth not the cud, he shalbe vncleane to you.

8 Of their flesh shal ye not eat, and their carkeis shal ye not touche: [for] thei shalbe vncleane to you.

9 ¶ These shal ye eat, of all that are in the waters: whatsoeuer hath the finnes & skales in the waters, in the seas, or in the riuers, them shal ye eat.

10 But all that haue not fins nor skales in the seas, or in the riuers, of all that moueth in the waters & of all liuing things that are in the waters, thei shalbe an abomination vnto you.

11 Thei, I say, shalbe an abomination to you: ye shal not eat of their flesh, but shal abhorre their carkeis.

12 Whatsoeuer hath not fins nor skales in the waters, that shalbe abomination vnto you.

13 ¶ These shal ye haue also in abomination among the foules, thei shal not be eat: [for] thei are an abomination, the eagle, and the goshauke, and the osprey:

14 Also the vultur, & the kite after his kinde,

15 And all rauens after their kinde:

16 The ostriche also, and the night crowe, and the seamawe, and the hauke after his kinde:

17 The idle owle also, and the cormorant, and the great owle.

18 Also the redshake, and the pelicane, and the swanne:

19 The storke also, the heron after his kinde, and the lapwing, and the backe:

20 Also euerie foule that crepeth [&] goeth vpon all foure, suche shalbe an abomination vnto you.

21 Yet these shal ye eat: of euerie foule that crepeth: [and] goeth vpon all foure, which haue their fete and leggs all of one to leape with all vpon the earth, 22 Of them ye shal eat these, the grasshoper after his kinde, and the solean after his kinde, the hargol after his kinde, and the hagab after his kinde.

23 But all [other] foules that crepe [&] haue foure fete, thei [shalbe] abomination vnto you.

24 For by suche ye shalbe polluted: who soeuer toucheth their carkeis, shalbe vncleane vnto the euening.

25 Whosoever also beareth of their carkeis, shal wash his clothes, and be vncleane vntil euen.

26 Euerie beast y^e hath clawes deuided, & is not clouen foted, nor cheweth the cud, suche shalbe vncleane vnto you: euerie one that toucheth them shalbe vncleane.

27 And whatsoeuer goeth vpon his pawes among all maner beastes that goeth on all foure, suche shalbe vncleane vnto you: who so doeth touche their carkeis shalbe vncleane vntil the euen.

28 And he that beareth their carkeis, shal wash wash his clothes, and be vncleane vntil the euen: [for] such shall be vncleane vnto you.

29 ¶ Also these shall be vncleane to you among the things that crepe and moue vpon the earth, the weasel, and the mouse, and the ^h frog, after his kinde:

30 Also the rat, and the lizard, and the chameleon, and the stellio, and the molle.

31 These shall be vncleane to you among all y^e crepe: whosoever doeth touche them when they be dead, shall be vncleane vntil the euen.

32 Also whatsoever anie of the dead carkeises of the doeth fall vpon, shall be vncleane, whether it be vessel of wood, or raiment, or iⁿ skin, or sacke: whatsoever vessel it be that is occupied, it shall be put in the water as vncleane vntil the euen, and [so] be purified.

33 But euery earthen vessel, whereinto anie of them falleth, whatsoever is within it shall be vncleane, and * ye shall breake it.

34 All meat also that shall be eaten, if anie [such] water come vpon it, shall be vncleane: and all drinke that shall be dronke in all [such] vessels shall be vncleane.

35 And euery thing that their carkeis fall vpon, shall be vncleane: the fornais or the pot shall be broken: [for] they are vncleane, and shall be vncleane vnto you.

36 Yet the fountaines & welles where there is plentie of water shall be cleane: but that which toucheth their carkeises shall be vncleane.

37 And if there fall of their dead carkeis vpon anie sede, which vseth to be sown, it shall be cleane.

38 But if anie¹ water be powred vpon the sede, and there fall of their dead carkeis thereon, it shall be vncleane vnto you.

39 If also any beast, wherof ye may eat, dye, he that toucheth the carkeis thereof shall be vncleane vntil the euen.

40 And he that eateth of the carkeis of it, shall wash his clothes, and be vncleane vntil the euen: he also that beareth the carkeis of it, shall wash his clothes, and be vncleane vntil the euen.

41 Euery creeping thing therefore that creepeth vpon the earth shall be an abomination, [and] not be eaten.

42 Whatsoever goeth vpon the breast, and whatsoever goeth vpon all foure, or that hath manie fete among all creeping things that crepe vpon the earth, ye shall not eat of them, for they shall be abomination.

43 Ye shall not pollute your selues with anie thing that creepeth, nether make your selues vncleane with them, nether defile your selues thereby: ye shall not, I say, be defiled by them.

44 For I am the Lord your God: be sanctified therefore, and be^m holy, for I am holy, and defile not your selues with anie creeping thing, that creepeth vpon the earth.

45 For I am the Lord that brought you out of the land of Egypt, to be your God, and that you should be holy, for I am holy.

46 This is the lawe of beastes, & of fowles, and of euery living thing that moueth in the waters, & of euery thing, that creepeth vpon the earth:

47 That there may be a difference betwene the vncleane and cleane, and betwene the beast that may be eaten, and the beast that ought not to be eaten.

CHAP. XII.

1 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

2 Speake vnto the children of Israel, & say, When a woman hath brought forth the sede, and borne a manchild, she shall be vncleane * seuen daies, like as she is vncleane, when she is put aparte for her^t * disease.

3 (* And in the eight day, the foreskin of the [childes] fleshe shall be circumcised)

4 And she shall continue in the blood of her purifying thre^b and thirry daies: she shall touche no^c hallowed thing, nor come into the^d Sanctuary, vntil the time of her purifying be out.

5 But if she beare a maide child, then she shall be vncleane two^e weekes, as when she hath her disease: and she shall continue in the blood of her purifying thre score & six daies.

6 Now when the daies of her purifying are out, (whether it be for a sonne or for a daughter) she shall bring to the Priest a lambe of one yere old for a burnt offering, and a yong pigeon or a turtle dove for a sin offering, vnto the dore of the^f Tabernacle of the Congregation,

7 Who shall offer it before the Lord, and make an atonement for her: so she shall be purged of the issue of her blood. this is the lawe for her that hath borne a male or female.

8 But if she be not able to bring a lambe, she shall bring two^g turtles, or two yong pigeons: the one for a burnt offering, and the other for a sin offering: and the Priest shall make an atonement for her: so she shall be cleane.

3 And the Priest shal loke on the sore in the skin of [his] flesh: if the heere in the sore be turned into white, and the foreseme to be lower then the skin of his flesh, it is a plague of leprosie: therefore the Priest shal loke on him, and † pronounce him vncleane:

4 But if the white spore be in the skin of his flesh, and seime not to be lower then the skin, nor the heere thereof be turned vnto white, then the Priest shal shut vp [him that hath] the plague, seuen daies.

5 After, the Priest shal loke vpon him the seuenth day: and if the plague seme † to him to abide stil, and the plague growe not in the skin, the Priest shal shut him vp yet seuen daies more.

6 Then the Priest shal loke on him againe the seuenth day, and if the plague be darcke, and the sore growe not in the skin, then the Priest shal † pronounce him cleane, [for] it is a skab: therefore he shal wash his clothes, and be cleane.

7 But if the skab growe more in the skin, after that he is sene of the Priest, for to be purged, he shal be sene of the Priest yet againe.

8 Then the Priest shal consider: and if the skab † growe in the skin, then the Priest shal pronounce him vncleane: [for] it is leprosie.

9 ¶ Whē the plague of leprosie is in a man, he shal be brought vnto the Priest,

10 And † the Priest shal se [him]: & if the swelling [be] white in the skin, & haue made the heere white, and there be rawe flesh in the swelling,

11 It is an olde leprosie in the skin of his flesh: and the Priest shal pronounce him vncleane, and shal not shut him vp, for he is vncleane.

12 Also if the leprosie † breake out in the skin, & the leprosie couer all the skin of the plague, from his head euen to his fete, where soeuer the Priest loketh, 13 Then the Priest shal consider: and if the leprosie couer all his flesh, he shal pronounce the plague to be cleane, because it is all turned into whitenes: [so] he shal be cleane.

14 But if [there be] rawe flesh on him when he is sene, he shal be vncleane.

15 For the Priest shal se the rawe flesh, and declare him to be vncleane: [for] the rawe flesh is vncleane, [therefore] it is the leprosie.

16 Or if the rawe flesh change and be turned into white, then he shal come to the Priest, 17 And the Priest shal beholde him: and if the fore be changed into white, then the Priest shal pronounce the plague cleane, [for] it is cleane.

18 ¶ The flesh also in whose skin there is † a bile and is healed,

19 And in the place of the bile there be a white swelling, or a white spot somewhat reddish, it shal be sene of the Priest.

20 And when the Priest seeth it, if it appeare lower then the skin, and the heere thereof be changed into white, the Priest then shal pronounce him vncleane: [for] it is a plague of leprosie, broken out in the bile.

21 But if the Priest loke on it, and there be no white heeres therein, & if it be not lower then the skin, but be darcker, then the Priest shal shut him vp seuen daies.

22 And if it spread abroad in the flesh, the Priest shal pronounce him vncleane, [for] it is a sore.

23 But if the spot continue in his place, and growe not, it is a burning bile: therefore the Priest shal declare him to be cleane.

24 ¶ If there be anie flesh, in whose skin there is an hote burning, and the quicke flesh of the burning haue a † white spot, somewhat reddish or pale,

25 Then the Priest shal loke vpon it: and if the heere in that spot be changed into white, and it appeare lower then the skin, it is a leprosie broken out in the burning: therefore the Priest shal pronounce him vncleane: [for] it is the plague of leprosie.

26 But if the Priest loke on it, and there be no white heere in the spot, and be no lower then the [other] skin, but be darcker, the Priest shal shut him vp seuen daies, 27 After, the Priest shal loke on him the seuenth day: if it be growen abroad in the skinne, then the Priest shal pronounce him vncleane: [for] it is the plague of Leprosie.

28 And if the spot abide in his place, not growing in the skin, but it is darcke, it is a rising of the burning: the Priest shal therefore declare him cleane, for it is the drying vp of the burning.

29 ¶ If also a man or woman hath a sore on the head or in the beard,

30 Then the Priest shal se the sore: and if it appeare lower then the skin, and there be in it a smale yelow^e heere, then the Priest shal pronounce him vncleane: [for] it is a blacke spot, and leprosie of the head or of the beard.

the skin, nor haue anie black heere in it, the Priest shal shut [vp him, that hathe] the fore of the blacke spot, seuen daies.

32 After in the seuenth day the Priest shal loke on the fore: & if the black spot growe nor, and there be in it no yelowe heere, & the blacke spot seme not lower then the skin,

33 Then he shalbe shauen, but [the place] of the black spot shal he not shaue: but the Priest shal shut vp [him that hathe] the blacke spot, seuen daies more.

34 And the seuenth day the Priest shal loke on the blacke spot: and if the black spot growe not in the skin, nor seme lower then the [other] skin, the Priest shal clense him, and he shal wash his clothes, and be cleane.

35 But if the blacke spot growe abroad in the flesh after his clensing,

36 Then the Priest shal loke on it: and if the black spot growe in the skin, the Priest shal not seke for the yelowe heere: [for] he is vnclane.

37 But if the blacke spot seme to him to abide, and that blacke heere growe therein, the blacke spot is healed, he [is] cleane, & the Priest shal declare him to be cleane.

38 Furthermore if there be manie white spots in the skin of the flesh of man or woman,

39 Then the Priest shal consider: and if the spots in the skin of their flesh be somewhat darcke and white withall, it is but a white spot broken out in the skin: [therefore] he is cleane.

40 And the man whose heere is fallen of his head [and] is belde, is cleane.

41 And if his head lose the heere on the fore parte, [and] be beld before, he is cleane.

42 But if there be in the beld head, or in the belde forehead a white reddish sore, it is a leprosie springing in his beld head, or in his beld forehead.

43 Therefore the Priest shal loke vpon it, & if the rising of the sore be white reddish in his belde heade, or in his balde fore head, appearing like leprosie in the skin of the flesh,

44 He is a leper and vnclane: [therefore] the Priest shal pronounce him altogether vnclane: [for] the fore [is] in his head.

45 The leper also in whome the plague is, shal haue his clothes rent, and his head bare, and shal put a covering vpon his lip- pes, and shal crye, [I am] vnclane, [I am] vnclane.

46 As long as the disease shal be vpon him, he shalbe polluted; [for] he is vnclane: he shal dwell alone, without campe [shal]

his habitation [be.]

47 Also the garment that the plague of leprosie is in, whether it be a wollen garment or a linen garment,

48 Whether it be in the warpe or in the woofe of linen or of wollen, ether in a skin or in any thing made of skin,

49 And if the sore be grene or somewhat reddish in the garment or in the skin, or in the warpe, or in the woofe, or in anie thing that is made of skin, it is a plague of leprosie, & shal be shewed vnto the Priest.

50 Then the Priest shal se the plague, & shut vp [it that hathe the] plague, seuen daies,

51 And shal loke on the plague the seuenth day: if the plague growe in the garment or in the warpe, or in the woofe, or in the skin or in anie thing that is made of skin, that plague [is] a fretting leprosie and vnclane.

52 And he shal burne the garment, or the warpe, or the woofe, whether it be wollen or linen, or any thing that is made of skin, wherein the plague is: for it is a fretting leprosie: [therefore] it shalbe burnt in the fire.

53 If the Priest yet se that the plague growe not in the garment, or in the woofe, or in whatsoeuer thing of skin it be,

54 Then the Priest shal command them to wash the thing wherein the plague is, and he shal shut it vp seuen dayes more.

55 Againe the Priest shal loke on the plague, after it is washed: and if the plague haue not changed his colour, though the plague spred no further, it is vnclane: thou shalt burne it in the fire, [for] it is a fire at inwarde, whether [the spot] be in bare place of the whole, or in parte thereof.

56 And if the Priest se that the plague be darcker, after that it is washed, he shal cut it out of the garment, or out of the skin, or out of the warpe, or out of the woofe.

57 And if it appeare stil in the garment or in the warpe, or in the woofe, or in anie thing made of skin, it is a spreading [leprosie] thou shalt burne the thing wherein the plague is, in the fire.

58 If thou hast washed the garment or the warpe, or the woofe, or whatsoeuer thing of skin it be, if the plague be departed there from, then shal it be washed the seconde time, and be cleane.

59 This is the lawe of the plague of leprosie in a garment of wollen or linen, or in the warpe, or in the woofe, or in anie thing of skin, to make it cleane or vnclane.

the skin, nor haue anie black heere in it, the Priest shal shut vp him, that hathe the fore of the blacke spot, seuen daies.

32 After in the seuenth day the Priest shal loke on the fore: & if the black spot growe nor, and there be in it no yelow heere, & the blacke spot seme not lower then the skin,

33 Then he shalbe shauen, but [the place] of the black spot shal he nor shau: but the Priest shal shut vp him that hathe the blacke spot, seuen daies more.

34 And the seuenth day the Priest shal loke on the blacke spot: and if the black spot growe not in the skin, nor seme lower then the [other] skin, the Priest shal clense him, and he shal walsh his clothes, and be cleane.

35 But if the blacke spot growe abroad in the flesh after his clensing,

36 Then the Priest shal loke on it: and if the black spot growe in the skin, the Priest shal not seke for the yelow heere: [for] he is vnclane.

37 But if the blacke spot seme to him to abide, and that blacke heere growe therein, the blacke spot is healed, he [is] cleane, & the Priest shal declare him to be cleane.

38 ¶ Furthermore if there be manie white spots in the skin of the flesh of man or woman,

39 Then the Priest shal consider: and if the spots in the skin of their flesh be somewhat darcke and white withall, it is but a white spot broken out in the skin: [therefore] he is cleane.

40 And the man whose heere is fallen of his head [and] is belde, is cleane.

41 And if his head lose the heere on the fore parte, [and] be belde before, he is cleane.

42 But if there be in the belde head, or in the belde forehead a white reddish fore, it is a leprosie springing in his belde head, or in his belde forehead.

43 Therefore the Priest shal loke vpon it, & if the rising of the fore be white reddish in his belde heade, or in his balde forehead, appearing like leprosie in the skin of the flesh,

44 He is a leper and vnclane: [therefore] the Priest shal pronounce him altogether vnclane: [for] the fore [is] in his head.

45 The leper also in whome the plague is, shal haue his clothes rent, and his head bare, and shal put a covering vpon his lippes, and shal crye, [I am] vnclane, [I am] vnclane.

46 As long as the disease shal be vpon him, he shalbe polluted: [for] he is vnclane: he shal dwell alone, without campe [shal]

his habitation [be.]

47 ¶ Also the garment that the plague of leprosie is in, whether it be a wollen garment or a linen garment,

48 Whether it be in the warpe or in the woofe of linen or of wollen, ether in a skin or in any thing made of skin,

49 And if the fore be grene or somewhat reddish in the garment or in the skin, or in the warpe, or in the woofe, or in anie thing that is made of skin, it is a plague of leprosie, & shal be shewed vnto the Priest.

50 Then the Priest shal se the plague, & shut vp [it] that hathe the plague, seuen daies,

51 And shal loke on the plague the seuenth day: if the plague growe in the garment or in the warpe, or in the woofe, or in the skin or in anie thing that is made of skin, that plague [is] a fretting leprosie and vnclane.

52 And he shal burne the garment, or the warpe, or the woofe, whether it be wollen or linen, or any thing that is made of skin, wherein the plague is: for it is a fretting leprosie: [therefore] it shalbe burnt in the fire.

53 If the Priest yet se that the plague growe not in the garment, or in the woofe, or in whatsoever thing of skin it be,

54 Then the Priest shal command them to walsh the thing wherein the plague is, and he shal shut it vp seuen dayes more.

55 Againe the Priest shal loke on the plague, after it is washed: and if the plague haue not changed his colour, though the plague spred no further, it is vnclane: thou shalt burne it in the fire, [for] it is a fretting leprosie, whether [the spot] be in bare place of the whole, or in parte thereof.

56 And if the Priest se that the plague be darcker, after that it is washed, he shal cut it out of the garment, or out of the skin, or out of the warpe, or out of the woofe.

57 And if it appeare stil in the garment or in the warpe, or in the woofe, or in anie thing made of skin, it is a spreading leprosie: thou shalt burne the thing wherein the plague is, in the fire.

58 If thou hast washed the garment or the warpe, or the woofe, or whatsoever thing of skin it be, if the plague be departed there from, then shal it be washed the seconde time, and be cleane.

59 This is the lawe of the plague of leprosie in a garment of wollen or linen, or in the warpe, or in the woofe, or in anie thing of skin, to make it cleane or vnclane.

Chap. 7.

1 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,
2 * This is the^a lawe of the leper in the day of his clensing: that is, he shalbe brought vnto the Priest,
3 And the Priest shal go out of the campe, and the Priest shal consider [him]: & if the plague of leprosie be healed in the leper, 4 Then shal the Priest commande to take for [him] that is clensed, two sparowes aliue and^b cleane, and cedar wood, & a skar-let [lace,] and hyssope.
5 And the Priest shal commande to kil one of the birdes ouer^c pure water in an earthen vessel.
6 After, he shal take the liue sparowe with the cedar wood, and the skarlet [lace,] and the hyssope, and shal dip them and the liuing sparowe in the blood of the spar-owe slaine, ouer the pure water, 7 And he shal sprinkle vpon him, that must be clensed of his leprosie, seuen times, and clense him, and shal^d let go the liue spar-owe into the broade field.
8 Then he that shalbe clensed, shal wash his clothes, and shaue of all his heere, and wash him selfe in water, so he shalbe clea-ne: after that, shal he come into the hoste, but shal tarie without his tent seuen dayes.
9 So in the sequenth day he shal shaue of all his heere, [bothe] his head, and his beard, & his eye browes: euē all his heere shal he shaue, & shal wash his clothes & shal wash his flesh in water: so he shalbe cleane.
10 Then in the eight day he shal take two he lambes without^e blemish, and an ewe lambe of an yere oldē without blemish, & thre tenth deales of fine floure for a meat offring, mingled with oyle, ^f and a pinte of oyle.
11 And the Priest that maketh him cleane shal bring the man which is to be made cleane, and those things, before the Lord, at the dore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.
12 Then the Priest shal take one lambe, and offer him for a trespassse offering, and the pinte of oyle, and^{*} shake them to and fro
before the Lord.
13 And he shal kil the lambe in the place where the sinne offering and the burnt of-firing are slaine, [euē] in[†] holy place: for as the^{*} sin offering is the Priests, [so] is the trespassse offering: [for] it is moste holy.
14 So the Priest shal take of the blood of the trespassse offering, and put it vpon the lap of the right eare of him that shalbe clensed, and vpon the thumbe of his right hand, and vpon the great toe of his right fote.

15 The Priest shal also take of the pinte of oyle, and powre it into the palme of his left hand,
16 And the Priest shal dip his[†] right finger in the oyle that is in his left hand, & sprinkle of the oyle with his finger seuen times
before the Lord.
17 And of the rest of the oyle that is in his hand, shal the Priest put vpon the lap of the right eare of him that is to be clen-sed, and vpon the thumbe of his right hād, and vpon the great toe of his right fote, † where the blood of the trespass offering [was put.]
18 But the remnant of the oyle that is in the Priests hand, he shal powre vpon the head of him that is to be clensed: so the Priest shal make an atonement for him before the Lord.
19 And the Priest shal offer the sin offering and make an atonement for him that is to be clensed of his vncleannes: then after shal he kil the burnt offering.
20 So the Priest shal offer the burnt offering & the meat offering vpon the altar: and the Priest shal make an atonement for him: so he shalbe cleane.
21 But if he be poore, &[†] not able, then he shal bring one lambe for a trespassse offering to be shaken, for his reconciliation, and a tenth deale of fine floure mingled with oyle, for a meat offering, w^a pinte of oyle.
22 Also two turtle doues, or two yong pigeons, as he is able, whereof the one shal-be a sinne offering, and the other a burnt offring:
23 And he shal bring them the eight day for his clensing vnto the Priest at the dore of the Tabernacle of the Congregatio
before the Lord.
24 Then the Priest shal take the lambe of the trespassse offering, and the pinte of oyle, and the Priest shal^b shake them to and fro
before the Lord.
25 And he shal kil the lambe of the trespas offring, & the Priest shal take of the blood of the trespass offering, and put it vpon the lap of his right eare that is to be clensed, and vpon the thumbe of his right hand, & vpon the great toe of his right fote.
26 Also the Priest shal powre of the oyle into the palme of his owne[†] left hand.
27 So the Priest shal with his right finger sprinkle of the oyle that is in his left hand, seuen times before the Lord.
28 Then the Priest shal put of the oyle that is in his hand, vpon the lap of the right eare of him that is to be clensed, and vpon the thumbe of his right hand, and vpon the great toe of his right fote: vpon

29 But the rest of the oyle that is in the Priests hand, he shal put vpon the head of him that is to be clenfed, to make an atonement for him before the Lord.

30 Also he shal present one of the turtle doves, or of the yong pigeons, as he is able:

31 Suche, I say, as he is able, the one for a sinne offering, & the other for a burnt offering with the meat offering: so the Priest shal make an atonement for him that is to be clenfed before the Lord.

32 This is the lawe of him which hathe the plague of leprosie, who is not able in his clenfing [to offere the whole.]

33 ¶ The Lord also spake vnto Moses and to Aaron, saying,

34 When ye be come vnto the land of Canaan which I giue you in possession, if I send the plague of leprosie in an house of the land of your possession, 35 Then he that oweth the house, shal come and tel the Priest, saying, Me thinke there is like a plague [of leprosie] in the house.

36 Then the Priest shal commande them to empty the house before the Priest go into it to se the plague, that all that is in the house be not made vncleane, & then shal the Priest go in to se the house.

37 And he shal marke the plague: and if the plague [be] in the walles of the house, and that there be [†]depe spots, grenish or reddish, which seme to be lower then the wall,

38 Then the Priest shal go out of the house to the dore of the house, and shal cause to shut vp the house seuen daies.

39 So the Priest shal come againe the seuenth day: and if he se that the plague be increased in the walles of the house, 40 Then the Priest shal commande them to take away the stones wherein the plague [is,] and thei shal cast them into a [†]foule place without the citie.

41 Also he shal cause to scrape the house within round about, and powre the dust, that they haue pared of, without the citie in ^man vncleane place.

42 And they shal take other stones, & put them in the places of those stones, & shal take other mortar, to plaister the house with.

43 But if the plague come againe and breake out in the house, after that he hathe taken away the stones, and after that he hathe scraped and plaistred the house,

44 Then the Priest shal come and see; and if the plague growe in the house, it is a freating leprosie in the house: it is [therefore] vncleane.

45 And he shal ⁿbreake downe the house, with the stones of it, and the timber thereof, and all the mortar of the house, and he shal carie them out of the citie vnto an vncleane place.

46 Moreover he that goeth into the house all the while that it is shut vp, he shal be vncleane vntil the euen.

47 He also that slepeth in the house shal wash his clothes: he likewise that eateth in the house, shal wash his clothes.

48 But if the Priest shal come and se that the plague hathe spred no further in the house, after the house be plaistred, the Priest shal pronounce that house cleane, for the plague is healed.

49 Then shal he take to purifie the house two sparowes, & cedar wood, ^o& a skarlet [lace,] and hyssope.

50 And he shal kil one sparowe ouer pure water in an earthen vessel,

51 And shal take the cedar wood, and the hyssope, & the skarlet [lace] with the liue sparowe, and dip them in the blood of the slaine sparowe, and in the pure water, & sprinkle the house seuen times:

52 So shal he clense the house wth the blood of the sparowe and with the pure water, and with the liue sparowe, & with the cedar wood, and with the hyssope, and with the skarlet [lace,]

53 Afterwarde he shal let go [†]liue sparowe out of the [†]towne into the [†]broad fieldes: so shal he make atonement for the house and it shal be cleane.

54 This is the lawe for euerie plague of leprosie and ^{*}blacke spot,

55 And of the leprosie of the garment, and of the house,

56 And of the [†]swelling, and of the skab, & of the white spot.

57 This is the lawe of the leprosie to teache [when] [a thing] is vncleane, and when it is cleane.

13 But if he that hathe an issue be ^{is} clenfed of his issue, then shal he count him seuen daies for his clensing, and wash his clothes, and wash his flesh in pure water: so shal he be cleane.

14 Then the eight day he shal take vnto him two turtle doves or two yong pigeons, and come before the Lord at the dore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, & shal giue them vnto the Priest.

15 And the Priest shal make of the one of them a sinne offering, and of the other a burnt offering: so the Priest shal make an atonement for him before the Lord, for his issue.

16 Also if any mans issue of fede departe from him, he shal wash all his ^{is} flesh in water, and be vncleane vntil the euen.

17 And euerie garment, and euerie skin whereupon shalbe issue of fede, shalbe euen washed with water, and be vncleane vnto the euen.

18 If he that hathe an issue of fede do lie with a woman, thei shal bothe wash them selues with water, and be vncleane vntil the euen.

19 ¶ Also whē a woman shal haue an issue, [&] her issue in her flesh shalbe blood, she shalbe put aparte seuen daies: & whosoever toucheth her, shalbe vncleane vnto the euen.

20 And whatsoeuer she lieth vpon in ^{is} her separation, shalbe vncleane, & euerie thing that she sitteth vpon, shalbe vncleane.

21 Whosoever also toucheth her bed, shal wash his clothes, and wash him selfe with water, & shalbe vncleane vnto the euen.

22 And whosoever toucheth any thing ^{that} she sate vpon, shal wash his clothes, and wash him selfe in water, and shalbe vncleane vnto the euen:

23 So that whether he touche her bed, or any thing whereon she hathe sit, he shal be vncleane vnto the euen.

24 And if a man lie with her, & [the floures] of her separation ^{is} touche him, he shalbe vncleane seue daies, & all the whole bed whereon he lieth, shalbe vncleane.

25 Also when a womans issue of blood runneth long time besides the time of her floures, or whē she hath an issue longer then her floures, all the daies of the issue of her vncleannes she shalbe vncleane, as in the time of her floures.

26 Euerie bed whereon she lieth (as long as her issue lasteth) shalbe to her as her ^{is} bed of her separation: and whatsoeuer she sitteth vpon, shalbe vncleane, as her vncleannes when she is put aparte.

27 And whosoever toucheth these [things], shalbe vncleane, & shal wash his clothes, and wash him selfe in water, & walbe vncleane vnto the euen.

28 But if she be clenfed of her issue, then she shal ^{is} counte her seuen daies, & after, she shalbe cleane.

29 And in the eight day she shal take vnto her two turtles or two yong pigeons, and bring them vnto the Priest at the dore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

30 And the Priest shal make of the one a sinne offering, and of the other a burnt offering, & the Priest shal make an atonement for her before the Lord, for the issue of her vncleannes.

31 Thus shal ye ^{is} separate the children of Israel from their vncleannes, that thei dye not in their vncleannes, if they defile my Tabernacle that is among them.

1 Furthermore the Lord spake vnto Moyses, after the death of the two sonnes of Aaron, when they came [to offer] before the Lord, and dyed,

2 And the Lord said vnto Moyses, Speake vnto Aaron thy brother, * that he come not at all times in to the Holy place, within the vaile, before the Merciseat, which is vpon the Arke, that he dye not: for I wil appeare in the cloude vpo the Merciseat.

3 After this [sort] shal Aaron come into the Holy place: [euery] with a yong bullocke for a sinne offering, and a ram for a burnt offering.

4 He shal put on the holy-linen coat, and shal haue linen breches vpon his flesh and shalbe girded with a linen girdel, and shal couer his head with a linen mitre: these are the holy garments: therefore shal he wash his flesh in water, when he doeth put them on.

5 And he shal take of the Congregation of the children of Israel two he goates for a sinne offering, and a ram for a burnt offering.

6 Then Aaron shal offer the bullocke for his sinne offering, * & make an atonement for him selfe, and for his house.

7 And he shal take the two he goates, and present them before the Lord at the dore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

8 Then Aaron shal cast lots ouer the two he goates: one lot for the Lord, and the other for the Scape goat.

9 And Aaron shal offre the goat, vpon which the Lords lot shal fall, & make him a sinne offering.

10 But the goat, on which the lot shal fall to be the Scape goat, shalbe presented aliue before the Lord, to make reconciliation by him, [&] to let him go (as a Scape goat) into the wilderness.

11 Thus Aaron shal offer the bullocke for his sinne offering, & make a reconciliation for him selfe, and for his house, & shal kil the bullocke for his sinne offering.

12 And he shal take a censer full of burning coles from of the Altar before the Lord, and his handfull of swete incense beaten small, and bring [it] within the vaile.

13 And shal put the incens vpon the fire before the Lord, that the cloude of the incens may couer the Merciseat: that is vpo the Testimonie: so he shal not dye.

14 And he shal take of the blood of the bullocke, * and sprinkle it with his finger vpon the Merciseat Eastward: and before the Merciseat shal he sprinkle of the blood with his finger seuen times.

15 ¶ Then shal he kil the goat that is the peoples sinne offering, & bring his blood within the vaile, and do with that blood as he did with the blood of the bullocke, & sprinkle it vpon the Merciseat, and before the Merciseat.

16 So he shal purge the Holy place from the vncleannes of the children of Israel, & from their trespasses of all their finnes: so shal he do also for the Tabernacle of the Congregation * placed with them, in the middes of their vncleannes.

17 * And there shal be no man in the Tabernacle of the Congregation, when he goeth in to make an atonement in the Holy place, vntill he come out, & haue made an atonement for him selfe, and for his householde, and for all the Congregation of Israel.

18 After, he shal go out vnto the Altar that is before the Lord, & make a reconciliation vpon it, & shal take of the blood of the bullocke, and of the blood of the goat, and put it vpon the hornes of the Altar round about:

19 So shal he sprinkle of the blood vpon it with his finger seuen times, and clense it, and halowe it from the vncleannes of the children of Israel.

20 ¶ When he hathe made an end of purging the Holy place, & the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and the altar, then he shal bring the liue goat:

21 And Aaron shal put bothe his hands vpon the head of the liue goat, & confesse ouer him all the iniquities of the childre of Israel, & all their trespasses, in all their finnes, putting them vpon the head of the goat, and shal send [him] away (by the hand of a man appointed) into the wilderness.

22 So the goat shal beare vpon him al their iniquities into the land that is not inhabited, and he shal let the goat go into the wilderness.

23 After, Aaron shal come into the Tabernacle of the Congregation, & put of the linen clothes, which he put on when he went into the Holie place, & leaue them there.

24 He shal wash also his flesh with water in the Holy place, and put on his owne raiment, and come out, and make his burnt offering, and the burnt offering of the people, and make an atonement for him self,

25 Also the fat of the sinne offering shal he burne vpon the Altar.

26 And he that caryed forthe the goat, [called] the scape goat, shal wash his clothes, and wash his flesh in water, and after that shal come into the hoste.

27 Also the bullocke for the sinne offering, and the goat for the sinne offering (whose blood was brought to make a reconciliation in the Holy place) shal one * cary out without the hoste to be burnt in the fire, with their skins, and with their flesh, and with their dounge.

28 And he that burneth them shal wash his clothes, and wash his flesh in water, & afterwarde come into the hoste.

29 ¶ So this shalbe an ordinance for euer vnto you: the tenth [day] of the seuenth moneth, ye shal * humble your soules, and do no worke at all, whether it be one of the same countrey or a stranger that soiourneth among you.

30 For y * day shal the Priest make an at-onemēt for you to cōse you: ye shalbe clea-ne from all your sinnes before the Lord.

31 This shalbe a Sabbath of rest vnto you, and ye shal humble your soules, by an ordinance for euer.

32 And the Priest ^m whome he shal anoint, and whome he shal cōsecrate (to minister in his fathers stede) shal make the atonement, and shal put on the linen clothes & holy vestements,

33 And shal purge the holy Sanctuarie and the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and shal clense the Altar, & make an atonemēt for the Priests, & for all the people of the Congregation.

34 And this shalbe an euerlasting ordināce vnto you, to make an atonement for the childrē of Israël for all their sinnes * once a yere: and as the Lord commanded Moses, he did.

¶ CHAP. XVII.

¶ All sacrifices muste be brought to the dore of the Tabernacle. 7 To deuils may they not offer. 10 They may not eat blood.

¶ And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

2 Speake vnto Aaron, and to his sonnes, & to all the children of Israël, and say vnto them, This is the thing which the Lord hath * commanded, saying,

3 Whosoever [he be] of the house of Israël that killeth a bullocke, or lambe, or goat in the hoste, or that killeth it out of the hoste,

4 And bringeth it not vnto the dore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation to offer an offering vnto the Lord before the Tabernacle of the Lord, * blood shalbe imputed vnto that mā. he hath shed blood, wherefore that man shalbe cut of from among his people.

5 Therefore the children of Israël shal bring their offerings, which they wolde offer abroad in the field, and present them vnto the Lord at the dore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation by the Priest, and offer them for peace offerings vnto
the Lord.

6 Then the Priest shal sprinkle the blood vpon the altar of the Lord before the dore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and burne the fat for a * swete saour vnto
the Lord.

7 And thei shal no more offer their offri-ngs vnto deuils, after whome they haue gone a whoring: this shalbe an ordinance for euer vnto them in their generations.

8 ¶ Also thou shalt say vnto them, Whosoeuer [he be] of the house of Israël, or of the strangers which soiourne among them, that offreth a burnt offering or sacrifice,

9 And bringeth it not vnto the dore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation to offer it vnto the Lord, euen that man shal be cut of from his people.

10 ¶ Likewise whosoever [he be] of the house of Israël, or of the strangers that so-iourne among the, that eateth any blood,
I wil euen set my face against that perso-ne that eateth blood, and wil cut him of from among his people:

11 For the life of the flesh is in the blood,
& I haue giuen it vnto you [to offer] vpon the altar, to make an atonement for your soules: for this blood shal make an atonement for the soule.

12 Therefore I said vnto the children of Israël, None of you shal eat blood: nether the stranger that soiourneth among you, shal eat blood.

13 Moreouer whosoever [he be] of the children of Israël, or of the strangers that so-iourne among them, which by hunting taketh any beast or foule that may be hea-ten, he shal powre out the blood thereof, and couer it with dust:

14 For the life of all flesh is his blood, it is [ioyned] with his life: therefore I said vnto the children of Israël, * Ye shal eat the blood of no flesh: for the life of all flesh is the blood thereof: whosoever eateth it shal be cut of.

15 And euerie persone that eateth it which dyeth [alone], or that which is torne [with beasts], whether it be one of the same coutrei or a stranger, he shal bothe wash his clothes, and washe him selfe in water, and be

3 The Israelites ought not to follow the maners of the Egyptians and Canaanites. 6 The marriages that are vnlawful.

1 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

2 Speake vnto the children of Israel, and say vnto them, I am the Lord your God.

3 After the doings of the land of Egypt, wherein ye dwelt, shal ye not do : & after the maner of the land of Canaan, whither I wil bring you, shal ye not do, nether walke in their ordinances,

4 [But] do after my iudgements, and kepe mine ordinances, to walke therein : I am the Lord your God.

5 Ye shal kepe therefore my statutes, and my iudgements, * which if a man do, he shal then liue in them : I am the Lord.

6 ¶ None shal come nere to any of his kindred of his flesh to vncouer [her] shame : I am the Lord.

7 Thou shalt not vncouer the shame of thy father, nor the shame of thy mother : [for] she is thy mother, thou shalt not discover her shame.

8 * The shame of thy fathers wife shal thou not discover : [for] it is thy fathers shame.

9 Thou shalt not discover the shame of thy sister the daughter of thy father, or the daughter of thy mother, whether she be borne at home, or borne without : thou shalt not discover their shame.

10 The shame of thy sonnes daughter, or of thy daughters daughter, thou shalt not, I say, vncouer their shame : for it is thy shame.

11 The shame of thy fathers wiues daughter, begotten of thy father ([for] she is thy sister) thou shalt not, [I say,] discover her shame.

12 * Thou shalt not vncouer the shame of thy fathers sister : [for] she is thy fathers kinswoman.

13 Thou shalt not discover the shame of thy mothers sister : for she is thy mothers kinswoman.

14 * Thou shalt not vncouer the shame of thy fathers brother : [that is,] thou shalt not go into his wife, [for] she is thine tante.

15 * Thou shalt not discover the shame of thy daughter in law : [for] she is thy sonnes wife : [therefore] shalt thou not vncouer her shame.

16 * Thou shalt not discover the shame of thy brothers wife : [for] it is thy brothers shame.

17 Thou shalt not discover the shame of the wife & of her daughter, nether shalt thou take her sonnes daughter, nor her daughters daughter, to vncouer her shame : [for] they are [thy] kinsfolkes, [8] it were wickednes.

18 Also thou shalt not take a wife with her sister, during her life, to vex [her], in vncouering her shame vpon her.

19 * Thou shalt not also go vnto a woman to vncouer her shame, as long as she is put aparte for her disease.

20 Moreouer, thou shalt not giue [thy] selfe to thy neighbours wife by carnal copulation, to be defiled with her.

21 * Also thou shalt not giue thy children to offer [the] vnto Molech, nether shalt thou defile the Name of thy God : [for] I am the Lord.

22 Thou shalt not lie with the male as one lieth with a womā : [for] it is abominatiō.

23 * Thou shalt not also lie with any beast to be defiled therewith, nether shalt any woman stand before a beast, to lie downe thereto : [for] it is abominatiō.

24 Ye shal not defile your selues in any of these things : for in all these the nations are defiled, which I wil cast out before you :

25 And the land is defiled : therefore I wil visit the wickednes thereof vpon it, and the land shal vomit out her inhabitants.

26 Ye shal kepe therefore mine ordinances, and my iudgements, and commit none of these abominations, [as wel] he that is of the same countrey, as the stranger that sojourneth among you :

27 (For all these abominations haue the men of the land done, which were before you, and the land is defiled :

28 And shal not the land spue you out, as it spued out the people that were before you ?)

29 For whosoever shal commit any of these abominations, & persones that do [so], shal be cut off from among their people.

30 Therefore shal ye kepe mine ordinances that ye do not any of the abominable customes, which haue bene done before you, & that ye defile not your selues therein : [for] I am the Lord your God.

7 For if it be eaten the third day, it shall be vncleane, it shall not be accepted.

8 Therefore he that eateth it, shall beare his iniquitie, because he hath defiled the halowed thing of the Lord, and that persone shall be cut off from his people.

9 ¶ When ye reape the haruest of your land, ye shall not reape euerie corner of your field, neither shalt thou gather the gleanings of thy haruest.

17 ¶ Thou shalt not hate thy brother in thine heart, [but] thou shalt plainly rebuke thy neighbour, & suffice him not to sinne.

18 ¶ Thou shalt not avenge, nor be minded full of wrong against the children of thy people, but shall loue thy neighbour as thy selfe: I am the Lord.

19 ¶ Ye shall kepe mine ordinances. Thou shalt not let thy cattel gender with others of diuers kinds. Thou shalt not sow thy field with mingled seed, neither shalt a garment of diuers things, [as]

22 Then the Priest shall make an atonement for him with the ram of the trespass offering before the Lord, concerning his sinne which he hath done, & pardon shall be giuen him for his sinne which he hath committed.

23 ¶ Also when ye shall come into the land, and haue planted euerie tree for meat, ye shall counte the frute thereof as vncircumcised: thre yere shall it be vncircumcised vnto you, it shall not be eaten:

of Israel, or of the strangers that dwel in Israel, that giueth his children vnto a Molech, he shal dye the death: the people of the land shal stone him to death.

3 And I wil set my face against that man and cut him off from among his people, because he hathe giuen his children vnto Molech, for to defile my Sanctuarie, and to pollute mine holy Name.

4 And if the people of the land hide their eyes, [and] winke at that man when he giueth his children vnto Molech, and kil him not,

5 Then wil I set my face against that man, and against his familie, & wil cut him off, their people.

6 ¶ If any turne after such as worke with 9 ¶ If [there be] any that curseth his father or his mother, he shal dye the death: [se-ing] he hathe cursed his father & his mo-

10 ¶ And the man that committeth adul-terie with an other mans wife, because he hathe committed adulterie with his neighbours wife, the adulterer and the adulteresse shal dye the death.

11 And the man that lieth with his fathers fathers shame, thei shal bothe dye: their 12 Also the man that lieth with his daughthey haue wrought an abomination, their blood [shal be] vpon them.

13 *The man also that lieth with the male, as one lieth with a woman, they haue bothe committed abomination: thei shal dye the death, their blood [shal be] vpon them.

14 Likewise he that taketh a wife and her mother, committeth wickednes: they shal burne him and them with fire, that there be no wickednes among you.

15 *Also the man that lieth wth a beast, shal dye the death, and ye shal slay the beast.

16 And if a woman come to any beast, & lie therewith, then thou shalt kil the woman & the beast: they shal dye the death, their blood [shal be] vpon them.

17 Also the man that taketh his sister, his fathers daughter, or his mothers daughter, & seeth her shame, & she seeth his shame, it is villenie: therefore they shal be cut off in the sight of their people, [becauhe shal beare his iniquitie.

21 So the man that taketh his brothers wi-shal be childles.

22 ¶ Ye shal kepe therefore all mine *ordi-

9 ¶ If a Priests daughter fall to playe the

1 The oyle for the lampes. 5 The shewbread. 14 The blasphemers shalbe stoned. 17 He that killeth shalbe killed.

1 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

2 Commande the children of Israel that thei bring vnto thee pure oyle oliue beaten, for the light, to cause the lampes to burne continually.

3 Without the vaile of the Testimonie, in the Tabernacle of the Congregation, shal Aaron dresse them, bothe euen and morning before the Lord alwaies: [this shalbe] a lawe for euer through your generations.

4 He shal dresse the lampes vpon the pure Candellsticke before the Lord perpetually.

5 Also thou shalt take fine floure, & bake twelue cakes thereof: two tenth deales shal be in one cake.

6 And thou shalt set them in two rowes, six in a rowe vpon the pure table before the Lord.

7 Thou shalt also put pure incense vpon the rowes, that in stede of the bread it may be for a remembrance, [and] an offering made by fire to the Lord.

8 Euerie Sabbath he shal put them in rowes before the Lord euermore, [receauing them] of the children of Israel for an euerlasting couenant.

9 And the [bread] shalbe Aarons & his sonnes, & thei shal eat it in the holy place: for it is moste holy vnto him of the offerings of the Lord made by fire by a perpetual ordinance.

10 And there went out among the children of Israel the sonne of an Israelitish woman, whose father was an Egyptian: and this sonne of the Israelitish woman, & a man of Israel stroue together in the hoste.

11 So the Israelitish womans sonne blasphemed the Name [of the Lord,] & cursed, and thei broght him vnto Moses (his mothers name also was Shelomith, the daughter of Dibri, of the tribe of Dan)

12 And thei put him in ward, til he tolde them the minde of the Lord.

13 Then the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

14 Bring the blasphemers without the hoste, and let all that heard him, put their hands vpon his head, and let all the Congregation stone him.

15 And thou shalt speake vnto the childre of Israel, saying, Whosoeuer curseth his God, shal beare his sinne.

16 And he that blasphemeth the Name of the Lord, shal be put to death: all the Congregation shal stone him to death: as wel the stranger, as he that is borne in the land: when he blasphemeth the Name [of the Lord,] let him be slaine.

17 He also that killeth any man, he shalbe put to death.

18 And he that killeth a beast, he shal restore it, beast for beast.

And the Lord spake vnto Moses in mount Sinai, saying,

2 Speake vnto the children of Israel, and say vnto them, When ye shal come into the land which I giue you, the ^{*}land shal kepe Sabbath vnto the Lord.

3 Six yeres thou shalt sowe thy field, and six yeres thou shalt cut thy vineyard, and gather the frute thereof:

4 But the seventh yere shalbe a Sabbath of rest vnto the land: [it shalbe] the Lords Sabbath: thou shalt nether sowe thy field, nor cut thy vineyarde.

8 ¶ Also thou shalt number seuen Sabbath of yeres vnto thee, [euen] seuen times seuen yere: and the space of the seuen Sabbaths of yeres wilbe vnto thee nine and fourty yere.

9 Then thou shalt cause to blowe the trumpet of the Iubile in the tenth [day] of the seventh moneth: euen in the day of the reconciliation shal ye make the trumpet blowe throughout all your land.

11 This fiftieth yere shalbe a yere of Iubile vnto you: ye shal not sowe, nether reape that which groweth of it selfe, nether gather [the grapes] thereof, that are left vnlaboured.

12 For it is the Iubile, it shal be holy vnto you: ye shal eat of the increase thereof out of the field.

17 Oppresse not ye therefore any man his neighbour, but thou shalt feare thy God: for I am the Lord your God.

18 ¶ Wherefore ye shal obey mine ordinance, and kepe my lawes, and do them, and ye shal dwel in the land ^lin safetie.

19 And the land shal giue her frute, and ye shal eat your fil, and dwel therein in safetie.

20 And if ye shal say, What shal we eat the seventh yere, for we shal not sowe, nor gather in our increase?

21 I will send my blessing vpon you in the sixt yere, and it shal bring forth the frute for thre yeres.

34 But the field of the suburbs of their cities, shal not be solde: for it is their perpetual possession.

46 So ye shal take them as inheritance for your children after you, to possesse them by inheritance, ye shal vse their labours for euer: but ouer your brethren the children of Israel ye shal not rule one ouer another with crueltie.

47 ¶ If a sojourner or a stranger [dwelling] by thee, get [riches,] & thy brother by him be impouerished, and sel him selfe vnto a stranger or sojourner [dwelling] by thee, or to the stocke of the strangers familie,

50 Then he shal reken with his byer from the yere that he was solde to him, vnto the yere of Iubile: and the money of his sale shalbe according to the number of yeres: according to the time of an hyred seruant shal he be with him.

51 If there be many yeres behinde, according to them he shal giue againe for his deliuerance, of the money that he was bought for.

¶ CHAP. XXVII.

1 Of diuers vowes, and the redemption of the same. 2 A thing separate from the vse of man can not be sold, nor redeemed, but remaneth to the Lord.

1 Moreover the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

2 Speake vnto the children of Israel, & say vnto them, If any man shal make a ^a vowe of a persone vnto the Lord, by ^b thy estimation,

3 Then thy estimation shalbe thus: a male fro^t twentie yere olde vnto sixty yere olde shalbe by thy estimation euē fifty ^c shekels of siluer, after the shekel of the Sanctuarie.

4 But if it be a female, then thy valuation shalbe thirty shekels.

5 And from five yere olde to twenty yere olde thy valuation shalbe for the male twentie shekels, and for the female ten shekels.

6 But from a ^d moneth olde vnto five yere olde, thy price of the male shalbe five shekels of siluer, and thy price of the female, three shekels of siluer.

7 And from sixty yere olde and above, if [he be] a male, the thy price shalbe fiftene shekels, and for the female ten shekels.

8 But if he be poorer, then thou hast esteemed [him], then shal he present him selfe before the Priest, and the Priest shal value him, according to the abillie of him that vowed, [so] shal the Priest value him.

9 And if [it be] a ^e beast, whereof men bring an offering vnto the Lord, all that one giueth of such vnto the Lord, shalbe holy,

10 He shal not alter it nor change it, a good for a bad, nor a bad for a good: and if he change beast for beast, then [both] this, & that which was changed for it, shalbe ^g holy.

11 And if [it be] anie vncleane beast, of w^{ch} men do not offre a sacrifice vnto the Lord, he shal then present the beast before the Priest, 12 And the Priest shal value it, whether it be good or bad: [and] as thou valuest it, [which art] the Priest, so shal it be.

13 But if he wil bie it againe, then he shal giue the fift parte of it more, aboute thy valuation.

14 ¶ Also when a man shal dedicat his house to be holy vnto the Lord, then the Priest shal value it, whether it be good or bad, and as the Priest shal prise it, ^h so shal the value be.

15 But if he that sanctified it, wil redeme his house, then he shal giue thereto the fift parte of money more then thy estimation, and it shalbe his.

16 If also a man dedicate to the Lord anie ground of his inheritance, the shalt thou esteeme it according to the ⁱ sede thereof: an ^j Homer of barlie sede [shalbe] at fiftie shekels of siluer.

17 If he dedicate his field [immediatly] from the yere of Iubile, it shalbe worthe as thou doest esteeme it.

18 But if he dedicate his field after the Iubile, then the Priest shal reken him the money according to the yeres that remaine vnto the yere of Iubile, and it shalbe abated by thy estimation.

19 And if he that dedicateth it, wil redeme the field, then he shal put the fift parte of the price, that thou esteemedst it at, thereunto, and it shal remaine his.

20 And if he wil not redeme the field, but [the Priest] ^k sel the field to another man, it shalbe redeemed no more.

49 According to the commandement of the Lord by the hand of Moisés did Aarón number them, euerie one according to his seruice, & according to his charge. Thus [were] thei of that tribe nombred, as the Lord commanded Moisés.

CHAP. V.

¶ The Leprous and the polluted shall be cast forth. 6 The purging of sinne. 15 The trial of the suspect wife.

1 And the Lord spake vnto Moisés, saying,

2 Commande the children of Israël that they put out of the hoste euerie leper, & euerie one that hathe an issue, & whoe euerie one is defiled by the dead.

3 Bothe male and female shall ye put out: tout of the hoste shall ye put them, that they defile not their rétes amög whome I dwel.

4 And the children of Israël did so, & put them out of the hoste, euen as the Lord had commanded Moisés, so did the children of Israël.

5 ¶ And the Lord spake vnto Moisés, saying,

6 Speake vnto the childre of Israël, ¶ When a man or woman shall commit anie sinne that men commit, & transgresse against the Lord, when that persone shall trespass,

7 Then thei shall confesse their sinne which thei haue done, and shall restore the damage thereof with his principal, & put the fift parte of it more thereto, and shall give it vnto him against whome he hathe trespassed.

8 But if the man haue no kinsman, to whome he shulde restore the damage, the damage shall be restored to the Lord for the Priests vse, besides the ram of the atonement, whereby he shall make atonement for him.

9 And euerie offering of all the holy things of the childre of Israël, which they bring vnto the Priest, shall be his.

10 And euerie mans halowed things shall be his: [that is,] whatsoever anie man giueth the Priest, it shall be his.

11 ¶ And the Lord spake vnto Moisés, saying,

12 Speake vnto the children of Israël, and say vnto them, If any mans wife turne to euil, and commit a trespass against him,

13 So that another man lie with her fleshly, and it be hid from the eies of her husband, & kept close, and yet she be defiled,

15 Then shal the man bring his wife to the Priest, and bring her offering with her, the tenth parte of an Ephah of barley meale, (but) he shal not powre oyle vpon it, nor put incense thereon: for it is an offering of ielousie, an offering for a remembrance, calling the sinne to y^e minde.

16 And the Priest shal bring her, & set her before the Lord.

17 Then the Priest shal take y^e holy water in an earthen vessel, & of the dust that is in the floore of the Tabernacle, (euen) the Priest shal take it and put it into the water.

19 And the Priest shal charge her by an othe, and say vnto the woman, If no man haue lien with thee, nether thou hast turned to vncleannes from thine housband, be free from this bitter [and] cursed water:

23 After, the Priest shal write these curses in a booke, and shal blot them out with the bitter water,

24 And shal cause the woman to drinke the bitter and cursed water, and the cursed water, (turned) into bitternes, shal entre into her.

25 Then the Priest shal take the ielousie offering out of the womans hand, and shal shake the offering before the Lord, and offer it vpon the altar.

26 And the Priest shal take [an handful] of the offering for a memorial thereof, and burne it vpon the altar, & afterward make the woman drinke the water.

27 When he hath made her drinke the water, (if she be defiled and haue trespassed against her housband) then shal the cursed water, (turned) into bitternes, entre into her, & her belly shal swell, & her thigh shal rotte, & the woman shal be accursed among her people.

28 But if the woman be not defiled, but be cleane, she shal be free, and shal conceive and beare.

29 This is the lawe of ielousie, when a wife turneth from her housband & is defiled, 30 Or when a man is moued with a ielous minde being ielous ouer his wife, then shal he bring the woman before y^e Lord, and the Priest shal do to her according to all this lawe.

31 And the man shal be free from sinne, but this woman shal beare her iniquitie.

The laws of the consecration of the Nazarites. 24 The manner to blesse the people.

1 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

5 While he is separate by his vowe, the razor shal not come vpon his head, vntil dayes be out, in the which he separateth [him selfe] vnto the Lord, he shal be holy, and shal let the lockes of the heere of his head growe.

6 During the time that he separateth him selfe vnto the Lord, he shal come at no dead body.

7 He shal not make him selfe vncleane at y^e death of his father or mother, brother, or sister: for the consecration of his God is vpon his head.

8 All the dayes of his separation he shal be holy to the Lord.

9 And if any dye suddenly by him, or he be ware, then the head of his consecration shal be defiled, and he shal shau his head in the day of his cleansing: in the seuenth day he shal shau it.

16 The which the Priest shal bring before the Lord, and make his sin offering and his burnt offering.

17 He shal prepare also the ram for a peace offering vnto the Lord, with the basket of vneleuened bread, and the Priest shal make his meat offering, and his drinke offering,

18 And ¶ Nazarite shal shau the head of his consecration at the dore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and shal take the heere of the head of his consecration, and put it in the fire, which is vnder the peace offering.

19 Then the Priest shal take the soden shulder of the ram, and an vneleuened cake out of the basket, and a wafer vneleuened, & put them vpon the hands of the Nazarite, after he hath shauen his consecration.

20 And the Priest shal shake them to and fro before the Lord: this is an holy thing for the Priest besides the shaken breast, & besides the heauy shulder: so afterward the Nazarite may drinke wine.

21 This is the lawe of the Nazarite, which he hath vowed, [and] of his offering vnto the Lord for his consecration, besides that that he is able to bring: according to ¶ vowe which he vowed, so shal he do after the lawe of his consecration.

22 ¶ And ¶ Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

23 Speake vnto Aaron and to his sonnes, saying, Thus shal ye blese the children of Israel, and say vnto them,

24 The Lord blese thee, and kepe thee,

25 The Lord make his face shine vpon thee, and be merciful vnto thee, 26 The Lord lift vp his countenance vpon thee, and giue thee peace.

27 So they shal put my Name vpon the children of Israel, and I wil blese them.

5 ¶ And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

6 Take the Leuites from among the children of Israel, and purifie them.

7 And thus shalt thou do vnto them, whē thou purifiest them, Sprinkle water of purification vpon them, and let them shauē all their flesh, and wash their clothes: so they shalbe cleane.

8 Thē they shal take a yong bullocke with his meat offering of fine floure, mingled with oyle, and another yong bullocke shalt thou take for a sinne offering.

9 Thē thou shalt bring the Leuites before the Tabernacle of the Congregation, & assemble all the Congregation of the children of Israel.

10 Thou shalt bring the Leuites also before the Lord, and the children of Israel shal put their hands vpon the Leuites.

11 And Aaron shall offer the Leuites before the Lord, as a shake offering of the children of Israel, that they may execute the seruice of the Lord.

12 And the Leuites shal put their hands vpon the heades of the bullockes, & make thou the one a sinne offering, & the other a burnt offering vnto the Lord, that thou maiest make an atonement for the Leuites.

13 And thou shalt set the Leuites before Aaron and before his sonnes, and offer them as a shake offering to the Lord.

14 Thus thou shalt separate the Leuites from among the children of Israel, & the Leuites shalbe mine.

15 And afterward shal the Leuites go in, to serue in the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and thou shalt purifie them, and offer them, as a shake offering.

16 For they are frely giuen vnto me from among the children of Israel, for such as open anie wombe: for all the firstborne of the children of Israel haue I taken thē vnto me.

17 * For all the firstborne of the children of Israel are mine, bothe of man & of beast: since the day that I smote euerie firstborne in the land of Egypt, I sanctified them for my self.

18 And I haue taken the Leuites for all the firstborne of the children of Israel, 19 And haue giuen the Leuites as a gift vnto Aaron and to his sonnes from among the children of Israel, to do the seruice of the children of Israel in the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and to make an atonement for the childre of Israel, that there be no plague among the children of Israel, when the children of Israel come nere vnto the Sanctuarie.

20 ¶ Then Moses & Aaron and all the Congregation of the children of Israel did with the Leuites, according vnto all that the Lord had commanded Moses concerning the Leuites: so did the children of Israel vnto them.

21 So the Leuites were purified, and washed their clothes, & Aaron offred them as a shake offering before the Lord, and Aaron made an atonement for thē, to purifie thē.

22 And after that, wēt the Leuites in, to do their seruice in the Tabernacle of the Congregation before Aaron and before his sonnes: as the Lord had commanded Moses concerning the Leuites, so they did vnto them.

23 ¶ And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, 24 This also [belongeth] to the Leuites: fro five and twentie yere olde and vpwarde, they shal go in, to execute [their] office in the seruice of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

25 And after the age of fiftie yere, they shal cease from executing the office, and shal serue no more:

26 But they shal minister with their brethren in the Tabernacle of the Congregation, to kepe things committed to their charge, but they shal do no seruice: thus shalt thou do vnto the Leuites touching their charges.

7 And those men said vnto him, We are defiled by a dead man: wherefore are we kept backe that we may not offer an offering vnto the Lord in the tyme thereunto appointed among the children of Israel?

8 Then Moses said vnto them, Stand still, and I will heare what the Lord will commande concerning you.

9 ¶ And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

10 Speake vnto the children of Israel, and say, If any among you, or of your posteritie shalbe vnclene by the reat^d of a corps, or be in a long iourney,^d he shal kepe the Passeouer vnto the Lord.

13 But the man that is cleane and is not in a iourney, & is negligent to kepe the Passeouer, the same person shalbe cut of fro his people: because he brought not the offering of the Lord in his due season, that man shal beare his sinne.

14 And gif a stranger dwell among you, & will kepe the Passeouer vnto the Lord, as the ordinance of the Passeouer, and as the manner thereof is, so shall he do: ye shall haue a lawe bothe for the stranger, and for him that was borne in the same land.

15 ¶ And when the Tabernacle was reared vp, a cloude couered the Tabernacle, [namely] the Tabernacle of the Testimonie: and at euen there was vpon the Tabernacle, as the appearance of fyre vntil morning.

16 So it was alway: the cloude couered it by day, and the appearance of fyre by night.

17 And when the cloude was taken vp from the Tabernacle, then afterwarde the children of Israel iourneyed: and in the place where the cloude abode, there the childre of Israel pitched their tentes.

18 At the commandement of the Lord the children of Israel iourneyed, & at the commandement of the Lord they pitched: as long as the cloude abode vpon the Tabernacle, they laye still.

19 And when the cloude layed still vpon the Tabernacle a long time, the children of Israel kept the watch of the Lord, & iourneyed not.

20 So when the cloude abode a fewe dayes vpon the Tabernacle, they abode in their tents according to the commandement of the Lord: for they iourneyed at the commandement of the Lord.

21 And though the cloude abode vpon the Tabernacle from euen vnto the morning, yet if the cloude was taken vp in the morning, then they iourneyed: whether by day or by night the cloude was taken vp, then they iourneyed.

22 Or if the cloude layed two dayes, or a moneth, or a yere vpon the Tabernacle, abiding thereon, the childre of Israel abode still, and iourneyed not: but when it was taken vp, they iourneyed.

23 At the commandement of the Lord they pitched, and at the commandement of the Lord they iourneyed, keeping the watch of the Lord at the commandement of the Lord by the hand of Moses.

¶ And in the second yere, in the seconde moneth, [and] in the twentie [day] of the moneth, the cloude was taken vp from the Tabernacle of the Testimonie.

And the children of Israël departed on their iournies out of the desert of Sinai, & the cloude rested in the wildernes of Paran.

So they first toke their journey at the commandement of the Lord, by the hand of Moses.

¶ In the first place went the stander of the hoste of the children of Iudáh, according to their armies, and Nahshón the sonne of Aminadab [was] ouer his bade.

And ouer the bande of the tribe of the children of Naphtali [was] Ahirá the sone of Enán.

These were the remouings of the children of Israël according to their armies, when they marched.

¶ After, Moses said vnto Hobab the sonne of Reuel the Midianite, the father in lawe of Moses, We go into the place, of w^{ch} the Lord said, I wil giue it you: Come thou with vs, and we will do thee good: for the Lord hath promised good vnto Israël.

And he answered him, I will not go: but I wil departe to mine owne countrie, and to my kinred.

¶ The he said, I pray thee, leaue vs not: for thou knowest our cāping places in the wildernes: therefore I maist be† our guide.

And if thou go with vs, what goodnes the Lord shal shewe vnto vs, the same wil we shewe vnto thee.

¶ So they departed from the moūt of the Lord, thre dayes iourney: & the Arke of the couenant of the Lord went before them in the thre dayes iourney, to searche out a resting place for them.

And the cloude of the Lord [was] vpon them by day, when they went out of the campe.

And when the Arke wēt forward, Moses said, * Rise vp, Lord, and let thine enemies be scattered, and let them that hate thee, flee before thee.

And when it rested, he said, Returne, O Lord, to the manie thousands of Israël.

10 ¶ Then Moses heard the people wepe throughout their families, euerie man in the dore of his tente, and the wrath of the Lord was grievously kindled: also Moses was grieved.

11 And Moses said vnto^e Lord, Wherefore hast thou vexed thy seruant? and why haue I not founde^e fauour in thy sight, scing thou hast put the charge of all this people vpon me?

12 Haue I^e conceiued all this people, or haue I begotten them, that thou shouldest say vnto me, Cary them in thy bosome (as a nurse beareth^e sucking childe) vnto the^e land, for the which thou swarest vnto their fathers?

13 Where shulde I haue flesh to giue vnto all this people? for they wepe vnto me, saying, Giue vs flesh that we may eat.

15 Therefore if thou deale thus with me, I pray thee, if I haue founde fauour in thy sight, kil me, that I beholde not my miserie.

16 ¶ Then the Lord said vnto Moses, Gather vnto me seuentie men of the Elders of Israel, whome thou knowest, that they are the Elders of the people, and gouerners ouer them, and bring them vnto the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and let the stand there with thee,

17 And I wil come downe, and talke with thee there, and take of the Spirit, which is vpon thee, and put vpon them, and they shal beare the burthen of the people with thee: so thou shalt not beare it alone.

18 Furthermore thou shalt say vnto the people, Be sanctified against tomorowe, and ye shal eat flesh: for you haue wept in the cares of the Lord, saying, Who shal giue vs flesh to eat: for we were better in Egypt: therefore the Lord wil giue you flesh, and ye shal eat.

19 Ye shal not eat one day, nor two dayes, nor fīue dayes, nether ten dayes, nor twētie dayes, 21 And Moses said, Six hundred thousand foemen [are there] of the people,^e among whome I am: & thou saiest, I wil giue the flesh, that they may eat a moneth long.

22 Shal the shepe and the beues be slaine for them, to finde them? ether shal all the fish of the sea be gathered together for them to suffice them?

23 And the Lord said vnto Moses, Is^e the Lords hand shortened: thou shalt se now whether my worde shal come to passe vn-to thee, or no.

24 ¶ So Moses went out, and tolde the people the wordes of the Lord, and gathered seuentie men of the Elders of the people, and set them round about the Tabernacle.

25 The Lord came downe in a cloude, and spake vnto him, and toke of the Spirit, that was vpon him, and put it vpon the seuentie Anciet men: and when the Spirit rested vpon them, then they prophesied, and did not cease.

26 But there remained two of the men in the hoste: the name of the one was Eldad, and the name of the other Medad, and the Spirit rested vpon them, (for they were of them that were write, and went not out vnto the Tabernacle) & they prophesied in the hoste.

27 Then there ran a yong man, and tolde Moses, and said, Eldad and Medad do prophesie in the hoste.

28 And Ioshua the sonne of Nun the seruant of Moses one of his yong men, answered and said, My Lord Moses, forbid them.

29 But Moses said vnto him, Ennyest thou for my sake: yea, wolde God that all the Lords people [were] Prophetes, and the Lord wolde put his Spirit vpon them.

30 And Moses returned into the hoste, he and the Elders of Israel.

1 Aaron and Miriam grudge against Moses. 10 Miriam is striken with leprosie, and healed at the prayer of Moses.

1 Afterwarde Miriam and Aaron spake against Moses, because of the woman of Ethiopia whome he had married (for he had married a woman of Ethiopia)

2 And they said, What hath the Lord spoken but onely by Moses: hath he not spoken also by vs: and the Lord heard [this.]

3 (But Moses [was] a very meke man, aboute all the men that were vpon the earth)

4 And by and by the Lord said vnto Moses, & vnto Aaron, and vnto Miriam, Come out ye thre vnto the Tabernacle of the Congregation: and they thre came forth.

5 Then the Lord came downe in the pillar of the cloude, and stode in the dore of the Tabernacle, & called Aaron and Miriam, and they bothe came forth.

6 And he said, Heare now my wordes, If there be a Prophet of the Lord among you, I will be knowne to him by a vision, [and] wil speake vnto him by a dreame.

7 My seruant Moses [is] not so, who is faithful in all mine house.

8 Vnto him wil I speake mouth to mouth, and by vision, & not in darke wordes, but he shall see similitude of the Lord. Wherefore then were ye not afraied to speake against my seruant: leuen against Moses?

9 Thus the Lord was very angrie with the, and departed.

10 Also the cloude departed from the Tabernacle: and beholde, Miriam [was] leprous like snowe: and Aaron looked vpon Miriam, and beholde, [she was] leprous.

11 Then Aaron said vnto Moses, Alas, my Lord, I beseeche thee, lay not the sinne vpon vs, which we haue foolishly committed & wherein we haue sinned.

12 Let her not, I pray thee, be as one dead, of whome the flesh is halfe consumed, while he commeth out of his mothers wombe.

13 The Moses cried vnto the Lord, saying,

O God, I beseeche thee, heale her now.

14 And the Lord said vnto Moses, If her father had spit in her face, shulde she not haue bene ashamed seuen dayes: let her be shut out of the hoste seuen dayes, & after she shalbe receiued.

15 So Miriam was shut out of the hoste seuen dayes, and the people remoued not, til Miriam was brought in againe.

4 Certaine men are sent to searche the land of Canaan. 31 They bring of the fruites of the land. 31 Caleb comforteth the people against the discouraging of the other spies.

1 Then afterwarde the people remoued from Hazerōth, & pitched in the wildernesses of Parān.

4 The Moses sent them out of the wildernesses of Parān at the commandement of the Lord: all those men were heades of the children of Israel.

5 Also their names are these: of the tribe of Reuben, Shamua the sonne of Zaccur:

6 Of the tribe of Simeon, Shaphat the sonne of Hori:

7 Of the tribe of Iudah, Caleb the sonne of Iephunnah:

8 Of the tribe of Issachar, Igal the sonne of Ioseph:

9 Of the tribe of Ephraim, Oshai the sonne of Nun:

10 Of the tribe of Benjamin, Palati the sonne of Raphui:

11 Of the tribe of Zebulun, Gadiel the sonne of Sodi:

12 Of the tribe of Ioseph, [to wit] of the tribe of Manasse, Gadi the sonne of Sufi:

21 And what the land [is]: whether it be fat or leane, whether there be trees therein, or not. And be of good courage, and bring of the frute of the land (for then [was] the tyme of the first ripe grapes)

22 ¶ So they went vp, and searched out the land, from the wilderness of Zin vnto Rehob, to go to Hamath.

23 And they ascended toward the South, & came vnto Hebron, where were Ahiman, Sheshai, and Talmai, the sonnes of Anak. And Hebron was buylt seuen yere before Zoan in Egypt.

24 ¶ Then they came to the riuer of Eshcol, and cut downe thence a branche with one clustre of grapes, and they bare it vpon a barre betwene two, & [brought] of the pomegranates and of the figges.

25 That place was called the riuer Eshcol because of the clustre of grapes, which the children of Israel cut downe thence.

26 Then after fourtie dayes they turned againe from searching of the land.

27 And they went and came to Moses and to Aaron & vnto all the Congregation of the children of Israel, in the wilderness of Parán, to Kadesh, and brought to them & to all the Congregation tidings, and shewed them the frute of the land.

28 And they tolde him, & said, We came vnto the land whether thou hast sent vs, & surely it floweth with milke & honie: & here is of the frute of it.

29 Neuertheles the people be strong that dwel in the land, and the cities [are] walled and exceeding great: and moreover, we sawe the sonnes of Anak there.

30 The Amalekites dwel in the Southcountrey, and the Hittites, and the Iebusites, & the Amorites dwel in the mountaines, and the Canaanites dwel by the Sea & by the coste of Iordan.

31 Then Caleb stilled the people before Moses, and said, Let vs go vp at once, and possesse it: for vndoubtedly we shall overcome it.

32 But the men, that went vp with him, said, We be not able to go vp against the people: for they are stronger then we.

33 So they brought vpan euill reporte of the land which they had searched for the children of Israel, saying, The land which we haue gone through to searche it out, is a land that eateth vp the inhabitants thereof: for all the people that we sawe in it, are men of great stature.

34 For there we sawe gyantes, the sonnes of Anak, [which come] of gyantes, so that we seemed in our sight like greshoppers: and so we were in their sight.

CHAP. XIII.

1 The people murmured against Moses. 2 They would haue stoned Caleb and Ioshua. 3 Moses pacified God by his prayer. 4 The people that wolde entre into the land, contrarie to Gods wil, are slaine.

1 ¶ Then all the Congregation lifted vp their voice, and cryed: & the people wept that night.

2 And all the children of Israel murmured against Moses and Aaron, and the whole assemblie said vnto them, Wolde God we had dyed in the land of Egypt, or in this wilderness: wolde God we were dead.

3 Wherefore nowe hathe the Lord brought vs into this land to fall vpon the sworde? our wiues, and our children shal be a praye: were it not better for vs to returne into Egypt?

4 And they said one to another, Let vs make a captaine, and returne into Egypt.

5 Then Moses and Aaron fell on their faces before all the assemblie of the Congregation of the children of Israel.

6 ¶ And Ioshua the sonne of Nun, and Caleb the sonne of Iephunnéh [two] of the that searched the land, rent their clothes,

7 And spake vnto all the assemblie of the children of Israel, saying, The land which we walked through to searche it, is a very good land.

8 If the Lord loue vs, he wil bring vs into this land, and giue it vs, which is a land that floweth with milke and honie.

9 But rebel not ye against the Lord, nether feare ye the people of the land: for they are [but] bread for vs: their shilde is departed from them, and the Lord is with vs: feare them not.

10 And all the multitude said, Stone them with stones: but the glorie of the Lord appeared in the Tabernacle of the Congregation, before all the children of Israel.

11 And the Lord said vnto Moses, How long wil this people prouoke me, and how long wil it be, yer they beleue me, for all the signes which I haue shewed among them?

32 ¶ And while the children of Israel were in the wilderness, they founde a man that gathered stickes vpon the Sabbath day.

33 And they that founde him gathering stickes, broght him vnto Moses & to Aaron, & vnto all the Congregation.

34 And they put him in ward: for it was not declared what shulde be done vnto him.

The rebellion of Korah, Dathan and Abiram. 41 The people the next day murmure. 49. 14799 are slaine for murmuring.

Now Korah the sonne of Izhar, the sonne of Kohath, the sonne of Levi went a parte with Dathan, and Abiram the sonnes of Eliab, and On the sonne of Pelath, the sonnes of Reuben:

And they rose vp against Moses, with certeine of the children of Israel, two hundred and fiftie captaines of the assemblie, famous in the Congregation, and men of renoune.

Who gathered them selues together against Moses, and against Aaron and said vnto them, Ye take too much vpon you, seeing all the Congregation is holy, euerie one of them, and the Lord is among them: wherefore then liſt ye your selues aboue the Congregation of the Lord?

4 But when Moses heard it, he fel vpon his face,

5 And spake to Korah and vnto all his companie, saying, Tomorowe the Lord wil shewe who is his, and who is holy, & who ought to approche nere vnto him: & whome he hath chosen, he wil cause to come nere to him.

6 This do [therefore,] Take you censers, [bothe] Korah, and all his companie,

7 And put fire therein, and put incens in them before the Lord to morowe: and the man whome the Lord doeth chose, the same shalbe holy: [ye take] too much vpon you, ye sonnes of Levi.

8 Againe Moses said vnto Korah, Heare, I pray you, ye sonnes of Levi:

9 Scmeth it a small thing vnto you, that the God of Israel hath separated you from the multitude of Israel, to take you nere to him self, to do the seruice of the Tabernacle of the Lord, and to stand before the Congregation, and to minister vnto them?

10 He hath also taken thee to him, and all thy brethren the sonnes of Levi with thee, and sekeye the office of the Priest also:

11 For which cause, thou, and all thy companie are gathered together against the Lord: and what is Aaron, that ye murmur against him?

12 ¶ And Moses sent to call Dathan, and Abiram the sonnes of Eliab: who answered, We wil not come vp.

13 Is it a smal thing that thou hast broght vs out of a land that floweth with milke and hony, to kil vs in the wilderness, except thou make thy self Lord and ruler ouer vs also?

14 Also thou hast not broght vs vnto a land that floweth with milke and hony, nether giuen vs inheritance of fieldes and vineyardes: wilt thou put out the eies of these men? we wil not come vp.

15 Then Moses waxed verie angrie, & said vnto the Lord, Loke not vnto their offering, I haue not taken so muche as an asse fro them, nether haue I merced of thee.

16 And Moses said vnto Korah, Be thou & all thy companie before the Lord: [bothe] thou, thei, and Aaron tomorowe:

18 So they toke euerie man his censor, and put fire in them, and laied incens thereon, and stode in the dore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation vnto Moses & Aaron.

19 And Korah gathered all the multitude against them vnto the dore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, then the glorie of the Lord appeared vnto all the Congregation.

20 And the Lord spake vnto Moses and to Aaron, saying, 21 Separate your selues fro among this Congregation, y I may consume them at once.

22 And they fel vpon their faces, and said, O God, the God of the spirits of all flesh, hath not one man [onely] sinned, & wilt thou be wrath with all the Congregation?

23 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

24 Speake vnto the Congregation and say, Get you away from about the Tabernacle of Korah, Dathan and Abiram.

25 Then Moses rose vp, and went vnto Dathan and Abiram, and the Elders of Israel followed him.

26 And he spake vnto the Congregation, saying, Departe, I pray you, fro the tentes of these wicked men, and touche nothing of theirs, lest ye perish in all their sinnes.

27 So they gat them away from the Tabernacle of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram on euery side: and Dathan and Abiram came out and stode in the dore of their tentes with their wiues, and their sonnes, and their litle children.

28 And Moses said, Hereby ye shal knowe that the Lord hath sent me to do all these workes: for [I haue] not [done them] of mine owne minde.

29 If these men dye the comune death of all men, or if they be visited after visitation of all men, the Lord hath not sent me,

30 But if the Lord make a newe thing, and the earth open her mouth, & swalowe the vp w all that they haue, & they go downe quicke into the pit, the ye shal vnderstand that these men haue prouoked the Lord.

31 And as lone as he had made an end of speaking all these wordes, euen the groude claued a sunder that was vnder them,

32 And the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed them vp, with their families, & all the men that were with Korah, and all their goods.

33 So they & all that they had wet downe alieue into the pit, & the earth covered the: so they perished from among the Congregation.

34 And all Israel that were about them, fled at the cry of the: for they said, [Let vs see,] lest the earth swalowe vs vp.

35 But there came out a fire from the Lord, and consumed the two hundred and fiftie men that offered the incens.

36 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

37 Speake vnto Eleazar, the sonne of Aaron the Priest, that he take vp the censers out of the burning, and flater the fire beyonde [the altar:] for they are halowed,

38 The censers [I say] of these sinners, [that destroyed] them selues: & let them make of them broad plates for a covering of the Altar: for they offered the before the Lord, therefore they shal be holy, and they shal be a signe vnto the children of Israel.

39 Then Eleazar the Priest toke the brasen censers, which they, that were burnt, had of fied, and made broad plates of them for a covering of the Altar.

40 It is a remembrance vnto the children of Israel, that no stranger which is not of the seede of Aaron, come nere to offer incens before the Lord, that he be not like Korah and his companie, as the Lord said to him by the hand of Moses.

41 But on the morowe all the multitude of the children of Israel murmured against Moses and against Aaron, saying, Ye haue killed the people of the Lord.

42 And when the Congregation was gathered against Moses & against Aaron, then they turned their faces toward the Tabernacle of the Congregation: & beholde, the cloude covered it, & the glorie of the Lord appeared.

43 Then Moses and Aaron were come before the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

44 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

45 Get you vp from among this Congregation: for I will consume them quickly. Then they fel vpon their faces.

46 And Moses said vnto Aaron, Take the censer and put fire therein of the Altar, and put [therein] incens, and go quickly vnto the Congregation, & make an atonement for the: for the wrath is gone out from the Lord: the plague is begonne.

47 Then Aaron toke as Moses commanded him, and ran vnto the mids of the Congregation, and beholde, the plague was begonne among the people, & he put in incens, & made an atonement for the people.

48 And when he stode betwene the dead, & the that were alieue, the plague was stayed.

And they shalbe ioyned with thee, and kepe the charge of the Tabernacle of the Congregation for all the seruice of the Tabernacle: and no stranger shal come nere vnto you.

Therefore shal ye kepe the charge of the Sanctuary, and the charge of the Altar: for there shal fall no more wrath vpon the children of Israel.

For lo, I haue^{*} taken your brethren the Leuites from among the children of Israel, [which] as a gift of yours, are giuen vnto the Lord, to do the seruice of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

But thou, & thy sonnes with thee shal kepe your Priests office for all things of the Altar, and within the vaile: therefore shal ye serue [for] I haue made your Priests office an office of seruice: therefore the stranger that commeth nere, shal be slaine.

Againe the Lord spake vnto Aaron, Beholde, I haue giuen thee the keping of mine^d offerings, of all the halowed things of the children of Israel: vnto thee I haue giuen them for the apointings sake, and to thy sonnes, for a perpetual ordinance.

29 Ye shal offer of all your \bar{p} gifts all the Lords heaue offerings: of all the \bar{q} fat of the same [shal ye offer] the holy things thereof.

9 Then Moses toke the rod fro before the Lord, as he had commanded him.

10 And Moses and Aaron gathered the Congregation together before the rocke; & [Moses] said vnto them, Heare now, ye rebels: *shal we bring you water out of this rocke?

12 ¶ Again the Lord spake vnto Moses & to Aaron, Because ye beleued me not, to sanctifie me in the presence of the children of Israel, therefore ye shal not bring this Congregation into the land which I haue giuen them.

13 This is the water of Meribah, because the children of Israel stroue with ¶ Lord, and he^h was sanctified in them.

14 ¶ Then Moses sent messengers fro Kadesh vnto the King of Edom, [saying.] Thus saith thy brother Israel, Thou knowest all the trauaile that we haue had,

15 How our fathers went downe into Egypt, and we dwelt in Egypt a long time, where the Egyptians handled vs euil and our fathers:

16 But when we cryed vnto the Lord, he heard our voyce, and sent an Angel, & hath brought vs out of Egypt, & beholde, we are in ¶ citie Kadesh, in thine vtmoste border.

17 I pray thee that we may passe through thy countrey: we wil not go through the fieldes nor the vineyardes, nether wil we drinke of the water of the welles: we wil go by the kings way, and nether turne vnto the right hand nor to the left, vntill we be past thy borders.

18 And Edom answered him, ¶ Thou shalt not passe by me, lest I come out against thee with the sworde.

19 Then the children of Israel said vnto him, We wil go vp by the hie way: and if I and my cattel drinke of thy water, I wil the paye for it: I wil onely (without any harme) go through on my fete.

20 He answered againe, Thou shalt not go through. Then ¶ Edom came out against him with muche people, and with a mighty power.

21 Thus Edom denied to giue Israel passage through his countrey: wherefore Israel turned away from him.

22 ¶ And when the children of Israel with all the Congregation departed from ¶ Kadesh, they came vnto the mount Hor.

23 And the Lord spake vnto Moses and to Aaron in the mount Hor, nere the coste of the land of Edom, saying, 24 Aaron shal be gathered vnto his people: for he shal not enter into the land, which I haue giuen vnto the children of Israel, because ye ¶ disobeyed my commadement at the water of ¶ Meribah.

25 Take ¶ Aaron and Eleazar his sonne, & bring them vp into the mount Hor,

26 And cause Aaron to put of his garmets and put them vpon Eleazar his sonne: for Aaron shal be gathered ¶ to his fathers, ¶ & shal dye there.

27 And Moses did as the Lord had commanded: & they went vp into the mount Hor, in the sight of all the Congregation.

28 And Moses put of Aarons clothes, and put them vpon Eleazar his sonne: ¶ so Aaron dyed there in the top of the mount: & Moses and Eleazar came downe from of the mount.

29 When all the Congregation sawe that Aaron was dead, all the house of Israel wept for Aaron thirty dayes.

3 Israel vanquisheth King Arad. 6 The fiery serpentes are sent for the rebellion of the people. 24. 33 Sihon and Og are overcome in battel.

¶ VHē King ¶ Arad the Canaanite, which dwelt toward the South heard tell that Israel came by the ¶ way of the spies, then fought he against Israel, and took of them prisoners.

2 So Israel vowed a vowe vnto the Lord, and said, If thou wilt deliuer [and] giue this people into mine hand, then I wil vtterly destroye their cities.

3 And the Lord heard the voyce of Israel, & deliuered [thē] the Canaanites: & they vtterly destroyed them and their cities, & called the name of the place ¶ Hormah.

4 ¶ After, they departed from the mount Hor by the way of the red Sea, to ¶ passe the land of Edom: and the people were sore grieved because of the way.

5 And the people spake against God and against Moses, [sayig.] Wherefore haue ye brought vs out of Egypt, to dye in the wilderness: for here is nether bread nor water, & our soule ¶ lotheth this light bread.

5 ¶ Wherefore the Lord sent ¶ fiery serpentes among the people which stong the people: so that many of the people of Israel dyed.

7 Therefore the people came to Moses & said, We haue sinned: for we haue spoken against the Lord, and against thee: praye to the Lord that he take away the serpentes from vs. & Moses prayed for the people.

8 And the Lord said vnto Moses, Make thee a fiery serpent, and set it vp for a signe, that as many as are bitten, may loke vpon it, and liue.

9 ¶ So Moses made a serpent of brasse, and set it vp for a signe: and when a serpent had bitten a man, then he looked to the serpent of brasse, and ¶ liued.

23 *But Sihon gaue Israel no licence to passe through his country, but Sihon assembled all his people, and went out against Israel into the wilderness: and he came to Jahor, and fought against Israel.

24 *But Israel smote him with the edge of the sworde, and conquered his land, from Arnón vnto [†]Iabok, [euen] vnto the children of Ammon: for the border of [†]children of Ammon [was] [†]strong.

25 And Israel toke all these cities, & dwelt in all the cities of [†]Amorites in Heshbón and in all the [†]villages thereof.

26 For [†]Heshbón was the cite of Sihon [†]King of the Amorites, which had fought before time against the King of the Moabites, and had taken all his land out of his hand, [euen] vnto Arnón.

27 Wherefore they that spake in proverbes, say, Come to Heshbón, let the cite of Sihon be buylt and repared:

28 For a fire is gone out of Heshbón, and a flame from the cite of Sihon, and hath consumed Ar of the Moabites, [and] the lords of Bamoth in Arnón.

30 Their temple is lost from Heshbón vnto Dibón, and we haue destroyed them vnto Nophah, [which reacheth] vnto Medeba.

31 ¶ Thus Israel dwelt in the land of the Amorites.

32 And Moyses sent to searche out Jaazer, and they toke the townes belöging thereto, and rote out the Amorites that were there.

33 ¶ And they turned and went vp towarde Bashán: and Og the King of Bashán came out against them, he, and all his people, to fight at Edrei.

34 Then the Lord said vnto Moyses, Feare him not: for I haue deliuered him into thine hand and all his people, and his lād: *and thou shalt do to him as thou didest vnto Sihon the King of the Amorites, w dwelt at Heshbón.

35 They smote him therefore, and his sonnes, & all his people, vntil there was none left him: so they conquered his land.

curse me this people (for they are stronger then I) so it may be that I shalbe able to smite them and to driue them out of the land: for I knowe that he, whome thou blestest, is blessed, and he whome thou cursest, shalbe cursed.

And the Elders of Moab, and the Elders of Midian departed, hauing [the reward] of the soothsaying in their hand, and they came vnto Balaam, and tolde him the wordes of Balak:

Who answered them, Tary here this night, and I will giue you an answer, as the Lord shall say vnto me. So the princes of Moab abode with Balaam.

Then God came vnto Balaam, and said, What men are these with thee?

And Balaam said vnto God, Balak the sonne of Zippor, King of Moab hath sent vnto me, [saying,] Beholde, [there is] a people come out of Egypt & couereth the face of the earth: come nowe, curse them for my sake: so it may be that I shal be able to ouercome them in battel, and to driue them out.

And God said vnto Balaam, Go not thou with them, nether curse the people, for they are blessed.

And Balaam rose vp in the morning, and said vnto the princes of Balak, Returne vnto your land: for the Lord hath refused to giue me leaue to go with you.

So the princes of Moab rose vp, & wet vnto Balak, and said, Balaam hath refused to come with vs.

¶ Balak yet sent againe mo princes, and more honorable then they:

Who came to Balaam, and said to him, Thus saith Balak the sonne of Zippor, Be not thou stayed, I pray thee, from coming vnto me.

For I will promote thee vnto great honour, and will do whatsoeuer thou sayest vnto me: come therefore, I pray thee, curse me this people.

And Balaam answered, and said vnto the seruantes of Balak, * If Balak wolde giue me his house ful of siluer and golde, I can not go beyonde the worde of the Lord my God, to do lesse or more.

But nowe, I pray you tary here this night that I may wit, what the Lord wil say vnto me: more.

And God came vnto Balaam by night, and said vnto him, If the men come to call thee, rise vp, [and] go with them: but onely what thing I say vnto thee, that shalt thou do.

So Balaam rose vp early, and saddled his asse, and went with the princes of Moab.

22 And the wrath of God was kindled, because he went: & the Angel of the Lord stode in the way to be against him, as he rode vpon his asse, and his two seruants [were] with him.

23 And when the asse sawe the Angel of the Lord stand in the way, and his sword drawn in his hand, the asse turned out of the waie and went into the field, but Balaam smote the asse, to turne her into the way.

24 Againe the Angel of the Lord stode in a path of the vineyardes, [hauing] a wall on the one syde, and a wall on the other.

25 And when the asse sawe the Angel of the Lord, she thrust her selfe vnto the wall, and dashed Balaams fote against the wall: wherefore he smote her againe.

26 Then the Angel of the Lord went further, and stode in a narrowe place, where was no way to turne [either] to the right hand, or to the left.

27 And when the asse sawe the Angel of the Lord, she lay downe vnder Balaam: therefore Balaam was very wrath, and smote the asse with a staffe.

28 Then the Lord opened the mouth of the asse, and she said vnto Balaam, What haue I done vnto thee, that thou hast smitten me nowe thre times?

29 And Balaam said vnto the asse, Because thou hast mocked me: I wolde there were a sword in mine hand, for now wolde I kil thee.

30 And the asse said vnto Balaam, Am not I thine asse, which thou hast ridden vpon since thy first tyme vnto this day? haue I vsed at any tyme to do thus vnto thee? Who said, Nay.

31 And the Lord opened the eyes of Balaam, and he sawe the Angel of the Lord standing in the way with his sword drawn in his hand: then he bowed him self, and fel flat on his face.

32 And the Angel of the Lord said vnto him, Wherefore hast thou now smitten thine asse thre times? Beholde, I came out to withstand thee, because [thy] way is not straight before me.

33 But the asse sawe me, and turned fro me nowe thre tymes: for els, if she had not turned fro me, surely I had euen now slaine thee, and saved her aliae.

34 Then Balaam said vnto the Angel of the Lord, I haue sinned: for I wist not that thou stodest in the way † against me: now therefore if it displease thee, I wil turne † home againe.

35 But the Angel said vnto Balaam, Go with the men: but what I say vnto thee, that shalt thou speake. So Balaam went 37 Then Balák ſaid vnto Balaám, Did I not ſend for thee to call thee? wherefore comeſt thou not vnto me? am I not able in dede to promote thee vnto honour?

q The Grecians & Romans. r Meaning Eber, or the Iewes, for rebelling against God.

NOW whiles Israel abode in Shittim, the people began to commit whoredome with the daughters of Moab:

2 Which called the people vnto the sacrifice of their gods, and the people ate, and bowed downe to their gods.

3 And Israel coupled him self vnto Bál Peór: wherefore the wrath of the Lord was kindled against Israel:

4 And the Lord said vnto Moses, * Take all the heades of the people, & hang them vp before the Lord against the sūne, that the indignation of the Lords wrath may be turned from Israel.

5 Then Moses said vnto the Iudges of Israel, Euerie one slay his men that were ioyned vnto Bál Peór.

6 ¶ And beholde, one of the children of Israel came and broght vnto his brethren a Midianitish woman in the sight of Moses, and in the sight of all the Congregation of the children of Israel, * who wept before the dore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

7 * And when Phinehas the sonne of Eleazar the sonne of Aaron the Priest sawe it, he rose vp from the middes of the Cōgregation, and toke a spear in his hand,

8 And followed the man of Israel into the tent, and thrust them bothe through: [to wit,] the man of Israel, and the woman, through her belly: so the plague ceased from the children of Israel.

9 * And there dyed in that plague, foure & twenty thousand.

10 The Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, 11 * Phinehas the sonne of Eleazar, the sonne of Aaron the Priest, hath turned mine anger away from the children of Israel, while he was zelous for my sake among them: therefore I haue not consumed the children of Israel in my ielousie.

12 Wherefore say [to him,] Beholde, * I giue vnto him my couenant of peace:

13 And he shal haue it, and his sēde after him, [euen] the couenant of the Priests office for euer, because he was zelous for his God, and hath made an atonement for the children of Israel.

14 And the name of the Israelite [thus] slaine, which was killed with the Midianitish woman, [was] Zimri the sonne of Salú, prince of the familie of the Simeonites.

15 And the name of the Midianitish woman, that was slaine, [was] Corbi daughter of Zur, who was head ouer the people of his fathers house in Midian.

16 ¶ Again the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

17 * Vexe the Midianites, and smite them:

18 For they trouble you with their wiles, wherewith they haue beguiled you as concerning Peór, & as concerning their sister Corbi the daughter of a prince of Midian, which was slaine in the day of the plague because of Peór.

4 Wherefore shulde the name of our father be taken away from among his familie, because he hath no sonne: giue vs a possession among the brethren of our father.

7 The daughters of Zelophehad speake right: thou shalt giue them a possession to inherit among their fathers brethren, and shalt turne the inheritance of their father vnto them.

8 Also thou shalt speake vnto the children of Israel, saying, If a man dye and haue no sonne, then ye shall turne his inheritance vnto his daughter.

13 And when thou hast sene it, thou shalt begathered vnto thy people also, as Aaron thy brother was gathered.

14 For ye were disobedient vnto my worde in the desert of Zin, in the strife of the assemblie, to sanctifie me in waters before their eyes. That is the water of Meribah in Kadesh in the wilderness of Zin.

15 ¶ Then Moses spake vnto the Lord, saying,

3 Concerning vowes. 4 The vowe of the maid. 7 Of the wife. 10 Of the widow, or deuorced.

1 Then Moses spake vnto the childre of Israël according to all that the Lord had commanded him.

2 Moses also spake vnto the heades of the tribes * concerning the children of Israël, saying, This is the thing which the Lord hath commanded,

3 Whosocuer voweth a vow vnto the Lord, or sweareth an othe to binde him selfe by a bonde, he shal not break his promes, [but] shal do according to all that proceedeth out of his mouth.

4 If a woman also vowe a vowe vnto the Lord, and binde her selfe by a bonde, [being] in her fathers house, in the time of her youth,

5 And her father heare her vowe & bonde, wherewith she hath the bonde her selfe, & her father holde his peace concerning her, then all her vowes shal stand, & euerie bonde, wherewith she hath the bonde her selfe, shal stand.

6 But if her father disallowe her the same day that he heareth all her vowes & bondes, wherewith she hath the bonde her selfe, they shal not be of value, and the Lord wil forgie her, because her father disallowed her.

7 And if she haue an housband when she voweth or pronounceth [oght] with her lippes, wherewith she bindeth her selfe,

8 If her housband heard it and holdeth his peace concerning her, the same day he heareth it, then her vowe shal stand, and her bondes wherewith she bindeth her selfe shal stand in effect.

9 But if her housband disallowe her the same day that he heareth it, then shal he make her vowe which she hath made, and that she hath pronounced with her lippes, wherewith she bonde her selfe, of none effect: and the Lord wil forgie her.

10 But euerie vowe of a widowe, & of her that is deuorced (wherewith she hath bonde her selfe) shal stand in effect with her.

11 And if she voided in her housbandes house, or bonde her selfe strictly with an othe,

12 And her housband hath heard it, and helde his peace concerning her, not disallowing her, then all her vowes shal stand, & euerie bonde, wherewith she bound her selfe, shal stand in effect.

13 But if her housband disanulled them, the same day that he heard them, nothing that proceeded out of her lippes concerning her vowes or concerning her bondes, shal stand in effect: [for] her housband hath disanulled them: and the Lord wil forgie her.

14 [So] euerie vowe, and euerie othe [or] bonde, [made] to humble the soule, her housband may stablish it, or her housband may breake it.

15 But if her housband holde his peace concerning her from day to day, then he stablisheth all her vowes and all her bondes which she hath made: he hath confirmed them because he held his peace concerning her the same day that he heard [them.]

16 But if he breake them after that he hath heard them, then shal he beare her iniquitie.

CHAP. XXXI.

Five kings of Midian and Balaam are slaine. 18 Only the maidens are referred aliue. 27 The praye is equally deuided. 49 A present giuen of Israel.

1 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

2 *Reuenge the children of Israel of the Midianites, [&] afterward shalt thou be gathered vnto thy people.

3 And Moses spake to the people, saying, Harness some of you vnto warre, and let them go against Midian, to execute the vengeance of the Lord *against Midian.

4 A thousand of euerie tribe throughout all the tribes of Israel, shal ye send to the warre.

5 So their were taken out of the thousands of Israel, twelue thousand prepared vnto warre, of euerie tribe a thousand.

6 And Moses sent them to ^fwarre, [euery] a thousand of euerie tribe, and [sent] ^bthe with Phinehas, the sonne of Eleazar the Priest to ^fwarre: & the holy instrumēt, that is, ^ftrumpets to blowe [were] in his hand.

7 And they warred against Midian, as the Lord had commanded Moses, and slawe all the males.

8 They slewe also the Kings of Midian among them that were slaine: *Eui & Rekem, & Zur, & Hur, & Reba five kings of Midian, and they slewe *Balaam the sonne of Beor with the sworde:

9 But the children of Israel toke the womē of Midian prisoners, & their children, & spoyled all their cattel, & all their flockes, and all their goods.

10 And they burnt all their cities, wherein they dwelt, and all their [†]villages with fire.

11 And they toke all the spoyle & all the praye [bothe] of men and beastes.

12 And they brought the ^dcaptiues, & that which they had taken, & the spoyle vnto Moses and to Eleazar the Priest, and vnto the Congregation of the children of Israel, into the campe in the plaine of Moab, which was by Iordan, [toward] Iericho.

13 ¶ Then Moses and Eleazar the Priest, & all the princes of the Congregation went out of the campe to mete them.

14 And Moses was angry with the captaines of the hoste, with the captaines ouer thousands, & captaines ouer hundreths, which came from the warre and battel.

15 And Moses said vnto them, What? haue ye sauēd all the *women?

16 Beholde *these caused the children of Israel, through the *counsel of Balaam to commit a trespass against the Lord, as concerning Peor, and there came a plague among the Congregation of the Lord.

17 Now therefore, *slay all the males among the ⁸children, & kil all the women that haue knowen man by carnal copulation.

18 But all the women children that haue not knowen carnal copulation, kepe aliue for your selues.

19 And ye shal remaine without the hoste seuen dayes, all that haue killed any person, * & all that haue touched any dead, [&] purifie bothe your selues & your prisoners the third day and the seucnth.

20 Also ye shal purifie euerie garment, and all that is made of skins, and all worke of goates heere, & all things made of wood.

21 ¶ And Eleazar the Priest said vnto the men of warre, which went to the battel, This is the ordinance for the lawe which the Lord *commanded Moses,

22 As for golde, and siluer, brasse, yron, tynne, and lead,

23 [Euen] all that may abide ^ffire, ye shal make it go through the fire, and it shalbe cleane: yet, it shalbe ^hpurified with *the water of purification: and all that suffreth not the fire, ye shal cause to passe by the ⁱwater.

24 Ye shal wash also your clothes the seuen day, & ye shalbe cleane: and afterward ye shal come into the hoste.

25 ¶ And the Lord spake vnto Moses saying,

26 Take the summe of the praie that was taken, [bothe] of persones and of cattel, thou and Eleazar the Priest, & the chief fathers of the Congregation, 27 And deuide the praye *betwene the soldiers that went to the warre, and all the Congregation.

28 And thou shalt take a tribute vnto the Lord of the ^kmen of warre, which went out to battel: one persone of five hundreth, [bothe] of the persones, and of the beues, & of the asses, and of the shepe.

29 Ye shal take it of their halfe, and giue it vnto Eleazar the Priest, [as] an heaue offering of the Lord.

30 But of the halfe of the children of Israel thou shalt take ^lone, taken out of fiftie, [bothe] of the persones, of the beues, of the asses, & of the shepe, [euery] of all the cattel: and thou shalt giue them vnto the Levites, which haue the charge of the Tabernacle of the Lord.

32 And the bootye, [to wit,] the rest of the prae which the men of warre had spoiled, was six hundredth seuentie and five thousand shepe,

33 And seuentie and two thousand beues,

34 And thre score and one thousand asses,

35 And two & thirtie thousand persones in all of women that hadt lyen by no mā.

36 And the halfe, [to wit,] the parte of the that went out to warre touching the nomber of shepe, was thre hundredth seuen & thirtie thousand, and five hundredth.

37 And the Lords tribute of the shepe was six hundredth and seuentie and five.

38 And the beues [were] six & thirtie thousand, whereof the Lords tribute [was] seuentie and two.

39 And the asses [were] thirtie thousand & five hundredth, whereof the Lords tribute [was] thre score and one.

40 And of persones sixtene thousand, whereof the Lords tribute [was] two and thirtie persones.

41 And Moses gaue the tribute of the Lords offering vnto Eleazar the Priest, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

42 And of the halfe of the children of Israel, which Moses deuided from the men of warre, 43 (For the halfe that pertained vnto the Congregation) was thre hundredth thirtie and seuen thousand shepe & five hundredth,

44 And six and thirtie thousand beues,

45 And thirtie thousand asses, and five hundredth,

46 And sixtene thousand persones.

47 Moses, I say, toke of the halfe that pertained vnto the children of Israel, one taken out of fiftie, [bothe] of the persones & of the cattel, and gaue them vnto the Leuites, which haue the charge of the Tabernacle of the Lord, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

48 ¶ Then the captaines which were ouer thousands of the hoste, & captaines ouer the thousands, and the captaines ouer the hundredths came vnto Moses:

49 And said to Moses, Thy seruants haue taken the summe of the men of warre & are vnder tour autoritie, & there lacketh not one man of vs.

50 ¶ We haue therefore brought a present vnto the Lord, what euerie man founde of iewels of golde, bracelets, and cheines, rings, eare rings, and ornaments of the legs, to make an atonement for our soules before the Lord.

51 And Moses and Eleazar the Priest toke the golde of them, & all wrought iewels.

52 And all the golde of the offering that they offered vp to the Lord, (of the captaines ouer thousands and hundredths) was sixtente thousand seuen hundredth and fiftie shekels,

53 ([For] the men of warre had spoiled euerie man for him self)

54 And Moses and Eleazar the Priest toke the golde of the captaines ouer the thousands, & ouer the hundredths, and brought it into the Tabernacle of the Congregation for a memorial of the children of Israel before the Lord.

CHAP. XXXII.

1 The request of the Reubenites and Gadites, 20 And their promises vnto Moses. 30 Moses granteth their request. 33 The Gadites, Reubenites, and halfe the tribe of Manasse, conquer and builde cities on this side of Jordan.

1 NOW the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad had an exceeding great multitude of cattel: and they sawe the land of Iazer, and the land of Gilead, that it was an apt place for cattel.

2 Then the children of Gad, and the children of Reuben came, & spake vnto Moses and to Eleazar the Priest, & vnto the princes of the Congregation, saying,

3 [The land of] Ataroth, & Dibon, & Iazer, and Nimrah, and Heshbon, and Elealeh, and Shebam, and Nebó, and Beón,

4 Which countrey the Lord smote before the Congregation of Israel, is a lād [mete] for cattel, and thy seruants haue cattel:

5 Wherefore, said they, If we haue founde grace in thy sight, let this land be given vnto thy seruants for a possession, [and] bring vs not ouer Iorden.

6 And Moses said vnto the children of Gad, and to the children of Reuben, Shal your brethré go to warre & ye tary here?

7 Wherefore now t discourage ye the heart of the children of Israel, to go ouer into the land, which the Lord hath given the?

8 Thus did your fathers when I sent them from Kadesh-barnéa to see the land.

9 For when they went vp euen vnto the riuer of Eshcol, and sawe the land: they discouraged the heart of the children of Israel, that they wolde not go into the lād, which the Lord had giuen them.

10 And the Lords wrath was kindled the same day, and he did sweare, saying,

11 ¶ None of the men that came out of Egypt from twentie yere olde and aboue, shal see the land for the which I sware vnto Abraham, to Izhak, and to Iakob, because they haue not wholie followed me:

rael, & made them wander in the wildernes fortie yeres, vntil all the generation that had done euil in the sight of the Lord were consumed.

14 And beholde, ye are risen vp in your fathers steade [as] an increase of sinneful men, stil to augment the fierce wrath of the Lord, toward Israel.

15 For if ye turne away from following him, he wil yet againe leaue [the people] in the wildernes, and ye shal destroye all this folke.

16 And thei went nere to him & said, We wil buyde shepfoldes here for our she-pe, [and] for our cattel, and cities for our children.

17 But we our selues wil be ready armed [to go] before the children of Israel, vntil we haue broght them vnto their place:
but our children shal dwel in the defenced cities, because of the inhabitants of the land.

18 We wil not returne vnto our houses, vntil the children of Israel haue inherited euerie man his inheritance.

19 Nether wil we inherit with them beyonde Iordén & on that side, because our inheritance is fallen to vs on this side Iordén Eastward.

20 ¶ And Moses said vnto them, If ye wil do this thing, and go armed before the Lord to warre:

21 And wil go euerie one of you in harnes ouer Iordén before the Lord, vntil he ha-thecast out his enemies from his sight:

22 And vntil the land be subdued before the Lord, then ye shal returne and be innocent toward the Lord, and toward Isra-él: and this land shalbe your possession
before the Lord.

23 But if ye wil not do so, beholde, ye haue sinned against the Lord, and be sure, that your sinne wil finde you out.

24 Builde you [then] cities for your children and foldes for your shepe, & do that ye haue spoken.

25 Then the children of Gad and the children of Reuben spake vnto Moses, saying, Thy seruants wil do as my lord commandeth:

26 Our children, our wiues, our shepe, and all our cattel shal remaine there in the cities of Gilead;

27 But thy seruants wil go euerie one armed to warre before the Lord for to fight, as my lord saith.

28 So concerning them, Moses commanded Eleazar the Priest, & Joshua the sonne of Nun, and the chief fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel.

29 And Moses said vnto them, If the children of Gad and the children of Reuben wil go with you ouer Iordén, allarmed to fight before the Lord, then when the land is subdued before you, ye shal giue them
the land of Gilead for a possession.

30 But if thei wil not go ouer with you armed, then thei shal haue their possessions among you in the land of Canaan.

31 And the children of Gad, and the children of Reuben answered, saying, As the Lord hath said vnto thy seruants, so wil we do.

32 We wil go armed before the Lord into the land of Canaan: that the possession of our inheritance [may be] to vs on this side Iordén.

33 ¶ So Moses gaue vnto them, [euen] to the children of Gad, & to the children of Reuben, & to halfe the tribe of Manasséh the sonne of Ioséph, the kingdome of Sihón, King of the Amorites, & the kingdome of Og, King of Bashán, the land with the cities thereof and coastes, euen the cities of the countrey round about.

34 ¶ Then the children of Gad buylt Dibón, and Ataróth, and Aroér,

35 And Aitróth, Shophán, and Iazér, and Iogbeháh,

36 And Beth-nimráh, and Beth-harán, de-fenced cities: also shepfoldes.

37 And the children of Reuben built Heshbón, and Eleáléh, & Kiriatháim,

38 And Nebó, and Baal meón, and turned their names, and Shibmáh: & gaue other names vnto the cities which thei built.

39 And the children of Machír the sonne of Manasséh went to Gilead, & toke it & put out the Amorites that dwelt therein.

40 Then Moses gaue Gilead vnto Machír the sonne of Manasséh, and he dwelt therein.

41 ¶ And Iair the sonne of Manasséh went & toke the smal townes thereof, and called them Hauróth Iair.

42 Also Nobáh went & toke Kenáth, with the villages thereof, and called it Nobáh, after his owne name.

CHAP. XXXV.

Vnto the Leuites are giuen cities and suburbs. 19 The lawe of murder. 30 For one mans witnes shal no man be condemned.

And the Lord spake vnto Mosés, in the plaine of Moab, by Iordén, [to-ward] Iericho, saying,

*Commande the children of Israël, that they giue vnto the Leuites of the inheritance of their possession, cities to dwell in: ye shal giue also vnto the Leuites the suburbs of the cities round about them.

So they shal haue the cities to dwell in, & their suburbs shalbe for their cattel, and for their substance, & for all their beasts. And the suburbs of the cities, which ye shal giue vnto the Leuites, from the wall of the citie outwarde, [shalbe] a thousand cubites round about.

And ye shal measure without the citie of the Eastside, two thousand cubites: and of the Southside, two thousand cubites: & of the Westside, two thousand cubites: & of the Northside, two thousand cubites: & the citie [shalbe] in the middes, this shalbe [the measure] of the suburbs of their cities.

And of the cities which ye shal giue vnto the Leuites, there shalbe six cities for refuge, which ye shal appoint, that he which killeth, may flee thither: & to them ye shal adde two and fourty cities mo.

All the cities which ye shal giue to the Leuites, [shalbe] eight and fourtie cities: them [shal ye giue] with their suburbs.

8 And concerning the cities which ye shal giue, of the possession of the children of Israël: of many ye shal take mo, and of fewe ye shal take lesse: euerie one shal giue of his cities vnto the Leuites according to his inheritance, which he inheriteth.

¶ And the Lord spake vnto Mosés, saying, Speake vnto the children of Israël, and say vnto them, *When ye be come ouer Iordén, into the land of Canaan, Ye shal appoint you cities, to be cities of refuge for you, that the slayer, which slayeth anie persone vnwares, may flee thither.

12 And these cities shalbe for you a refuge from the auenger, that he which killeth, dye not, untill he stand before the Congregation in iudgement.

13 And [of] the cities which ye shal giue, six cities shal ye haue for refuge.

14 Ye shal appoint thre on this side Iordén, and ye shal appoint thre cities in the land of Canaan which shalbe cities of refuge.

15 These six cities shalbe a refuge for the children of Israël, and for the stranger, & for him that dwelleth among you, that euerie one which killeth any persone vnwares, may flee thither.

16 And if one smite an other with an instrument of yron that he dye, he [is] a murderer, [and] the murderer shal dye the death.

17 Also if he smite him by casting a stone, wherewith he may be shaine, and he dye, he is a murderer, [and] the murderer shal dye the death.

18 Or if he smite him with an hand weapō of wood, wherewith he may be slaine, if he dye, he is a murderer, [and] the murderer shal dye the death.

19 The reuenger of the blood him selfe shal slay the murderer: when he meeteth him, he shal slay him.

20 But if he thrust him of hate, or hurle at him by laying of wait, that he dye, 21 Or smite him through enemie with his hand, that he dye, he that smote him shal dye the death: [for] he is a murderer: the reuenger of the blood shal slay the murderer when he meeteth him.

22 But if he pushed him vnadvisedly, and not of hatred, or cast vpō him anie thing, without laying of wait,

23 Or any stone (whereby he might be slaine) and sawe him not, or caused it to fall vpon him, and he dye, & was not his enemie, nether sought him any harme,

24 Then the Congregation shal iudge betwene the slayer & the auenger of blood according to these lawes.

25 And the Congregation shal deliuer the slayer out of the hand of the auenger of blood, and the Congregation shal restore him vnto the citie of his refuge, whither he was fled: and he shal abide there vnto the death of the Priest, which is anointed with the holy oyle.

26 But if the slayer come without the borders of the citie of his refuge, whither he was fled,

CHAP. XXXVI.

An ordre for the mariage of the daughters of Zelophe-had. 7 The inheritance colde not be given from one tribe to another.

1 Then the chief fathers of the familie of the sonnes of Gileád, the sonne of Machir, the sonne of Manasséh, of the families of the sonnes of Ioseph, came, and spake before Moyses, and before the princes, the chief fathers of the children of Is-raél,

2 And said, *The Lord commanded^b my lord to giue the land to inherite by lot to the children of Israél: and my lord was commanded by the Lord, to giue the inheritance of Zelophehad our brother vnto his daughters.

3 If they be married to any of the sonnes of the [other] tribes of the children of Is-raél, then shal their inheritance be taken away from the inheritance of our fathers, & shal be put vnto the inheritance of the tribe whereof thei shalbe: so shal it be taken away from the lot of our inheritance.

4 Also when the Iubile of the children of Israél commeth, then shal their inheritance be put vnto the inheritance of the tribe whereof they shalbe: so shal their inheritance be taken away from the inheritance of the tribe of our fathers.

5 Then Moyses commanded the children of Israél, according to the worde of the Lord, saying, The tribe of the sonnes of Ioseph haue said wel.

6 This is the thing that the Lord hath commanded, concerning the daughters of Zelophehad, saying, They shal be wiues to whome they thinke best, onely to the familie of the tribe of their father shal thei mary:

7 So shal not the inheritance of the children of Israél remoue from tribe to tribe, for euerie one of the children of Israél shal ioine him selfe to the inheritance of the tribe of his fathers.

8 And euerie daughter þ possesseth any inheritance of the tribes of the children of Israél, shalbe wife vnto one of the familie of the tribe of her father: that the children of Israél may enioye euerie man the inheritance of their fathers.

9 Nether shal the inheritance go about from tribe to tribe: but euerie one of the tribes of the children of Israél shal sticke to his owne inheritance.

10 As the Lord commanded Moyses, so did the daughters of Zelophehad.

11 For *Mahláh, Tirzáh, and Higláh, and Milcáh, and Noáh the daughters of Zelophehad were married vnto their fathers brothers sonnes:

12 They were wiues [to certeine] of the fa-

THE FIFTH BOKE OF MOSES, CALLED

DEUTERONOMIE

THE ARGUMENT.

THE wonderful love of God toward his Church is lively set forth in this boke. For albeithrough their ingratitude and spandy rebellions against God, for the space of forty yeres; Deuter. 9, 7. they had deserved to have bene cut off from the number of his people, and for ever to have bene deprived of the use of his holy worde, and sacraments: yet he did ever preserve his Church even for his owne mercies sake, and wolde stil haue his Name called vpon among them. Wherefore he bringeth them into the land of Canaan, destroyeth their enemies, giueth them their countrey, townes, and goodes, and exhorteth them by the example of their fathers (whose infidelitie, idolatrie, adulteries, murmuring, and rebellion, he had moste sharply punished) to feare and obey the Lord, to embrace and kepe his lawe without adding therunto or diminishing thereof. For by his worde he wolde be knowne to be their God, and they his people: by his worde he wolde gouerne his Church, and by the same they shoulde learne to obey him: by his worde he wolde discern the false Prophet from the true, light from darkenes, error from knowlage, and his owne people from all other nations and infidels: teaching them thereby to refuse & detest, destroy & abolish whatsoever is not agreeable to his holy wil, seme it otherwise heuer so good or precious in the eyes of man. And for this cause God promised to raise vp Kings and gouernours for the setting forth of this worde and preservation of his Church: giuing vnto them an especial charge for the executing thereof: whome therefore he willerth to exercise them selues diligently in the continual studie and meditation of the same: that they might learne to feare the Lord, loue their subiects, abhorre couetousnes and vice, and whatsoever offendeth the maiestie of God. And as he had to fore instructed their fathers in all things appertaining bothe to his spiritual seruite, and also for the maintenance of that societie which is betwixt men: so he prescribeth here a newe, all such lawes and ordinances, which ether concerne his Diuine seruite, or els are necessarie for a common weale: appointing vnto euerie estate and degre their charge and duetie: as wel, how to rule and liue in the feare of God, as to norissh friendship toward their neighbours, and to preserve that ordre which God hath established among men: threatening with all, moste horrible plagues to them that transgresse his commandement, & promising all blessings and felicitie to such as obserue and obey them.

CHAP. I.

A breue rehearsal of things done before from Horeb vnto Kadesh-barnea. 31 Moses reproveth the people for their incredulitie. 44 The Israelites are overcome by the Amorites because they fought against the commandement of the Lord.

THES E be the wordes which Moses spake vnto all Israel, on this side Iordén in the wildernes, in the plaine, ouer against the red Sea, betwene Parán and Tophél, and Labán, and Hazeróth, and Di-zaháb.

[There are] eleuen daies iourney from Horeb vnto Kadesh-barnea, by the way of mount Seir.

And it came to passe in the first day of the eleuenth moneth, in fortieth yere, that Moses spake vnto the children of Israel according vnto all that the Lord had giuen him in commandemēt vnto them.

After that he had slaine Sihón the King of the Amorites which dwelt in Heshbón, and Og the King of Bashán, which dwelt at Ashtaróth in Edrei.

On this side Iordén in the land of Moáb began Moses to declare this lawe, saying,

The Lord our God spake vnto vs in Horeb, saying, Ye haue dwelt long ynough in this mount,

Turne you and departe, and go vnto the mountaine of the Amorites, and vnto all places nere thereunto: in the plaine, in mountaine, or in the valley: bothe Southward, & to the sea side; to the land of the Canaanites, and vnto Libanón: [euen] vnto the great riuer, the riuer Peráth, Beholde, I haue set the land before you: go in and possesse that land which the Lord sware vnto your fathers, Abraham, Izhák, and Iakób, to giue vnto them, & to their sēde after them.

¶ And I spake vnto you the same time, saying, I am not able to beare you my selfe alone:

The Lord your God hath multiplied you: & beholde, ye are this day as the starres of heauen in number.

(The Lord God of your fathers make you a thousand times so many mo as ye are, and blesse you, as he hath promised you)

How can I alone beare your cumbrance, and your charge, and your strife?

Bring you men of wisdom and of vnderstanding, and known among your tribes, and I wil make them rulers ouer you:

Then ye answered me and said, The thing is good that thou hast commanded [vs] to do.

So I toke the chief of your tribes wise and known men, and made them rulers ouer you, captaines ouer thousands, and captaines ouer hundreths, and captaines

16 And I charged your iudges, that same time, saying, Heare the [controuersies] betwene your brethren, and iudge righteously betwene euerie man and his brother, and the stranger that is with him.

17 Ye shal haue no respect of persone in iudgement, * but shal heare the small as well as the great: ye shal not feare the face of man: for the iudgement is Gods: & the cause that is to hard for you, bring vn to me, and I wil heare it.

18 Also I commanded you the same time all the things which ye shulde do.

19 Then we departed from Horb, and went through all that great and terrible wilderness, (as ye haue sene) by the way of the mountaine of the Amorites, as the Lord our God commanded vs: and we came to Kadesh-barnea.

20 And I said vnto you, ye are come vnto the mountaine of the Amorites, which the Lord our God doeth giue vnto vs.

21 Beholde, the Lord thy God hath layed the land before thee: go vp [&] possesse it, as the Lord the God of thy fathers hath said vnto thee: feare not, nether be discouraged.

22 Then ye came vnto me euerie one, & said, We wil send men before vs, to sear che vs out the land, & to bring vs worde againe, what way we must go vp by, and vnto what cities we shal come.

23 So the saying pleased me wel, & I toke twelue men of you, of euerie tribe one.

24 Who departed, and went vp into the mountaine, & came vnto the riuer Eshcol, and searched out the [land,]

25 And toke of the frute of the land in their hands, and broght it vnto vs, and broght vs worde againe, and said, It is a good lād, which the Lord our God doth giue vs.

26 Notwithstanding, ye wolde not go vp, but were disobedient vnto the commandement of the Lord your God, 27 And murmured in your tents, & said, Because the Lord hated vs, therefore hath he broght vs out of the land of Egypt, to deliuer vs into the hand of the Amorites, and to destroy vs.

28 Whether shal we go vp? our brethren haue discouraged our hearts, saying, The people [is] greater and taller then we: the cities [are] great and walled vp to heauen: and moreouer we haue sene the sonnes of the * Anakims there.

29 But I said vnto you, Dread not, nor be afraied of them.

30 The Lord your God, * who goeth before you, he shal fight for you, according to all that he did vnto you in Egypt before your eyes.

31 And in the wilderness, where thou hast sene how the Lord thy God bare thee, as a man doeth beare his sonne, in all the way which ye haue gone, vntil ye came vnto this place.

32 Yet for all this ye did not beleue the Lord your God, 33 Who went in the way before you, to sear che you out a place to pitch your tentes in, in fire by night, that ye might see what way to go, and in a cloude by day.

34 Then the Lord heard y^e voyce of your wordes, and was wroth, & sware, saying,

35 Surely there shal not one of these men of this froward generation see that good land, which I sware to giue vnto your fathers, 36 Save Caleb the sonne of Iephunné: he shal see it, * and to him wil I giue the land that he hath troden vpon, and to his children, because he hath constantly followed the Lord.

37 Also the Lord was angry with me for your sakes, saying, * Thou also shalt not go in thither, 38 But Ioshua the sonne of Nun which standeth before thee, he shal go in thither: I will encourage him: for he shal cause Israel to inherit it.

39 Moreouer, your children, which ye said shulde be a pray, and your sonnes, which in that day had no knowledge betwene good and euil, they shal go in thither, and vnto them wil I giue it, and they shal possesse it.

40 But as for you, turne backe, & take your journey into the wilderness by the way of the red Sea.

41 Then ye answered & said vnto me, We haue sinned against the Lord, * we wil go vp, & fight, according to all that the Lord our God hath commanded vs: & ye armed you euerie man to the warre, & were ready to go vp into the mountaine.

42 But the Lord said vnto me, Say vnto them, Go not vp, nether fight, (for I am not among you) lest ye fall before your enemies.

43 And when I tolde you, ye wolde not heare, but rebelled against the commandement of the Lord, and were presumptuous, and went vp into the mountaine.

44 Then the Amorites which dwelt in that mountaine came out against you, & chased you (as bees vse to do) and destroyed you in Seir, [euén] vnto Hormah.

5 Israel is forbidden to fight with the Edomites, 9 Moabites, 19 And Ammonites, 33 Sihon King of Heshbon is discomfited.

Then we turned, and toke our iourney into the wilderness, by the way of the red Sea, as the Lord spake vnto me: & we compassed mount Seir a long time.

2 And the Lord spake vnto me, saying, 3 Ye haue compassed this mountaine long ynough: turne you Northwarde.

4 And warne thou the people, saying, Ye shal go through the coast of your brethre the children of Esau, which dwell in Seir, and they shalbe afraid of you: take ye good hede therefore.

5 Ye shal not prouoke them: for I wil not giue you of their land so muche as a fote breadth, because I haue giuen mount Seir vnto Esau for a possession.

6 Ye shal bye meat of them for money to eat, and ye shal also procure water of them for money to drinke.

7 For the Lord thy God hathe blessed thee in all the workes of thine hand: he knoweth thy walking through this great wilderness, and the Lord thy God hathe bene wth thee this fourtie yere, [and] thou hast lacked nothing.

8 And when we were departed fro our brethren the children of Esau which dwell in Seir, through the way of the plaine, from Elath, and from Ezion-gaber, we turned and went by the way of the wilderness of Moab.

9 Then the Lord said vnto me, Thou shalt not vex Moab, nether prouoke them to battel: for I wil not giue thee of their land for a possession, because I haue giuen Ar vnto the children of Lot for a possession.

10 The Emims dwell therein in times past, a people great, and many, and tall, as the Anakims.

11 They also were taken for gyantes as the Anakims: whome the Moabites call Emims.

12 The Horims also dwell in Seir before time, whome the children of Esau chased out, and destroyed them before them, and dwell in their stede: as Israel shal do vnto the land of his possession, which the Lord hathe giuen them.

13 Now rise vp, said I, and get you ouer the riuér *Zeréd: and we went ouer the riuér Zeréd.

14 The space also wherein we came from Kadésh-barnéa vntil we were come ouer the riuér Zeréd, [was] eight and thirtie yeres, vntil all the generation of the men of warre were wasted out from among the hoste, as the Lord swaie vnto them.

15 For in dede the hand of the Lord was against them, to destroye them from among the hoste, til they were consumed.

16 ¶ So when all the men of warre were consumed and dead from among the people,

17 Then the Lord spake vnto me, saying, 18 Thou shalt go through Ar the coast of Moab this day:

19 And thou shalt come nere ouer against the children of Ammon: [but] shalt not lay siege vnto them, nor moue warre against them: for I wil not giue thee of the land of the children of Ammon [any] possession: for I haue giuen it vnto the childre of Lot for a possession.

20 That also was taken for a land of gyants: for gyants dwelt therein afore time, whome the Ammonites called Zamzumims.

21 A people [that was] great, and many, & tall, as the Anakims: but the Lord destroyed them before them, and they succeded the in their inheritance, and dwell in their stede.

22 As he did to the children of Esau which dwell in Seir, when he destroyed the Horims before them, and they possessed the, and dwelt in their stede vnto this day.

23 And the Auims which dwell in Hazérim [euen] vnto Azzah, the Caphorims which came out of Caphtor destroyed them, and dwell in their stede.

24 ¶ Rise vp [therefore], said the Lord: take your iourney, and passe ouer the riuér Arnon: beholde, I haue giuen into thy hand Sihon, the Amorite, King of Heshbon, and his land: begin to possesse it, and prouoke him to battel.

25 This day wil I begin to send thy feare, and thy dread vpon all people vnder the heauens, which shal heare thy fame and shal tremble and quake before thee.

26 Then I sent messengers out of the wilderness of Kedemóth vnto Sihon King of Heshbon, with wordes of peace, saying, 27 ¶ Let me passe through thy land: I wil go by the hie way: I wil nether turne vnto the right hand nor to the left.

1 Then we turned, and went vp by the way of Bashán: * and Og King of Bashán^a came out against vs, he, and all his people to fight at Edréi.

3 So the Lord our God deliuered also vnto our hand, * Og the King of Bashán, and all his people: and we smote him, vntil none was left him [aliue.]

4 And we toke all his cities the same tyme, nether was there a citie which we toke not from thē, [euen] thre score cities, [&]

7 But all the cattel and y^e spoile of the cities we toke for our selues.

8 Thus we toke at that time out of the hand of two Kings of the Amorites the land y^e was on this side Iorden from the riuer of Arnón vnto mount Hermón:

rion, but the Amorites call it Shenír)

10 All the cities of the plaine and all Gileád, and all Bashán vnto Saleháh, and Edréi, cities of the kingdome of Og in Bashán.

11 For onely Og King of Bashán remained of the remnant of the gyants, ^d whose bed [was] a bed of yron: is it not at Rabbáth among the children of Ammón: the length thereof [is] nine cubites, and foure cubites the bredth of it, after the cubite of a man.

12 And this land [which] we possessed at y^e time, from Aroér, which is by the riuer of Arnón, and halfe mount Gileád, * and the cities thereof, gaue I vnto the Reubenites and Gadites.

13 And the rest of Gileád, and all Bashán, the kingdome of Og, gaue I vnto the half tribe of Manasséh: [euen] all the countrey of Argób with all Bashán, which is called, The land of gyantes.

15 And I gaue [parte] of Gileád vnto Machir

¶ C H A P. IIII.

1 An exhortation to obserue the Lawe without adding thereto or diminishing. 6 Therein standeth our wisdom. 9 VVe must teach it to our children. 15 No image ought to be made to worship. 26 Threatnings against the that forsake the Lawe of God. 37 God chose the sede because he loued their fathers. 43 The three times of refuge.

1 NOW therefore hearken, O Israel, vnto the ordinances and to the lawes which I teach you to do, that ye may liue, and go in and possesse the land which the Lord God of your fathers giueth you.

2 Ye shall put nothing vnto the worde which I commande you, nether shall ye take ought therefrom, that ye may kepe the commandments of the Lord your God which I commande you.

3 Your eyes haue sene what the Lord did because of Baal-Peór, for all the men that followed Baal-Peór, the Lord thy God hath destroyed euerie one from among you.

4 Burye that did cleane vnto the Lord your God, are aliue euerie one of you this day.

5 Beholde, I haue taught you ordinances, and lawes, as the Lord my God commanded me, that ye shulde do euen so within the land whither ye go to possesse it.

6 Kepe them therefore and do them: for that is your wisdom, and your vnderstanding in the sight of the people, which shall heare all these ordinances, and shall saye, Truly this people [is] wise, and of vnderstanding, [and] a great nation.

7 For what nation [is so] great, vnto whome the gods come so nere vnto them, as the Lord our God [is] nere vnto vs, in all that we call vnto him for?

8 And what nation [is so] great, that hath the ordinances & lawes so righteous, as all this lawe, which I set before you this day:

9 But take hede to thy selfe, and kepe thy soule diligently, that thou forget not the things which thine eyes haue sene, & that they departe not out of thine heart, all the daies of thy life: but teach them thy sonnes, and thy sonnes sonnes.

10 [Forget not] day that thou stodest before the Lord thy God in Horé, when the Lord said vnto me, Gather me the people together, and I will cause them heare my wordes, that they may learne to feare me all the dayes that they shall liue vpon the earth, and that they may teach their children:

11 Then came you nere & stode vnder mountaines & the mountaine burnt with fire vnto the middes of heauen, [and there was] darkness, cloudes and mist.

12 And the Lord spake vnto you out of the middes of the fire, [and] ye heard the voyce of the wordes, but sawe no similitude, save a voyce.

13 Then he declared vnto you his couenant which he commanded you to do, [euen] the ten commandments, and wrote them vpon two tables of stone.

14 ¶ And the Lord commanded me the same time, that I shulde teach you ordinances and lawes, which ye shulde obserue in the land, whither ye go to possesse it.

15 Take therefore good hede vnto your selues: for ye sawe no image in the day that the Lord spake vnto you in Horé out of the middes of the fire:

16 That ye corrupt not your selues, and make you a graven image [or] representation of any figure: [whither it be] the likenes of male or female,

20 But the Lord hath take you and brought you out of the yron furnace, out of Egypt, to be vnto him a people [and] inheritance, as [appeareth] this day.

21 And the Lord was angry with me for your wordes, and sware that I shulde not go ouer Iordén, and that I shulde not go in vnto that good land, which the Lord thy God giueth thee for an inheritance.

22 For I must dye in this land, and shal not go ouer Iordén: but ye shal go ouer, and possesse that good land.

23 Take hede vnto your selues, lest ye forget the couenant of the Lord your God which he made with you, and lest ye make you anie grauen image, [or] likenes of anie thing as the Lord thy God hath charged thee.

25 ¶ When thou shalt beget children and childrens children, and shalt haue remained long in the land, if ye corrupt your selues, and make anie grauen image, [or] likenes of anie thing, and worke euil in the sight of the Lord thy God, to prouoke him to angre,

26 I will call heauen and earth to recorde against you this day, that ye shal shortly perish from the land, wherunto ye go ouer Iordén to possesse it: ye shal not prolong your daies therein, but shal vterly be destroyed.

27 And the Lord shal scatter you among the people, & ye shal be left fewe in number among the nations, whether the Lord shal bring you.

28 And there ye shal serue gods, [even] the worke of mans hand, wood & stone, which neither see, nor heare, nor cat, nor smell.

29 But if from thence thou shalt seke the Lord thy God, thou shalt finde him, if thou seke him with all thine heart, & with all thy soule.

30 When thou art in tribulation, and all these things are come vpon thee, at the length, if thou returne to the Lord thy God, and be obedient vnto his voyce,

31 [For the Lord thy God is a merciful

God] he wil not forsake thee, neither destroy thee, nor forget the couenant of thy fathers, which he sware vnto them.

32 For inquire now of the dayes which are past, which were before thee, since the day that God created man vpon the earth, & aske from the one end of heauen vnto the other, if there came to passe suche a great thing as this, or whether any suche lyke thing hath bene heard.

33 Did euer people heare the voyce of God speaking out of the middes of a fire, as thou hast heard, and liued?

34 Or hath God assayed to go & take him a nation from among nations, by tentations, by signes, and by wonders, and by warre, and by a mightie hand, and by a stretched out arme, and by great feare, according vnto all that the Lord your God did vnto you in Egypt before your eyes?

35 Vnto thee it was shewed, that thou mightest knowe, that the Lord he is God, [and] that there is none but he alone.

36 Out of heauen he made thee to heare his voice to instruct thee, & vpon earth he shewed thee his great fire, & thou heardest his voice out of the middes of the fire.

37 And because he loued thy fathers, therefore he chose their sede after them, and hath brought thee out of Egypt in his sight, by his mightie power, 38 To thrust out nations greater and mightier than thou, before thee, to bring thee in, [and] to giue thee their land for inheritance: as [appeareth] this day.

39 Vnderstand therefore this day, and consider in thine heart, that the Lord, he is God in heauen aboue, and vpon the earth beneth: there [is] none other.

40 Thou shalt kepe therefore his ordinances, and his commandments which I command thee this day, that it may go wel with thee, and with thy childre after thee, and that thou maiest prolong thy dayes vpon the earth, which thy Lord thy God giueth thee for euer.

41 ¶ Then Moses separated thre cities on this side of Iordén towards the sunne rising:

CHAP. VII.

1 The Israelites may make no covenant with the Gentiles. 5 They must destroy the idoles. 8 The election depending on the free loue of God. 19 The experience of the power of God ought to confirme vs. 25 To auoide all occasion of idolatrie.

VHE Lord thy God shal bring thee into the land whither thou goest to possesse it, & shal roote out many nations before thee: the Hittites, and the Girgashites, and the Amorites, and the Canaanites, and the Perizzites, and the Hiuities, and the Iebusites, seuen nations greater and mightier then thou.

2 And the Lord thy God shal giue them before thee, then thou shalt smite them: thou shalt utterly destroy them: thou shalt make no covenant with them, nor haue compassion on them,

3 Nether shalt thou make mariages with them, nether giue thy daughter vnto his sonne, nor take his daughter vnto thy sonne.

4 For if they wil cause thy sonne to turne away from me, & to serue other gods: the wil the wrath of the Lord waxe hote against you, and destroy thee suddenly.

5 But thus ye shal deale with them, Ye shal ouerthrowe their altars, and breake downe their pillers, and ye shal cut downe their groues, and burne their grauen images with fire.

6 For thou art an holy people vnto the Lord thy God, the Lord thy God hath chosen thee to be a precious people vnto him self, aboute all people that are vpon the earth.

7 The Lord did not set his loue vpon you, nor chose you, because ye were more in number then any people: for ye were the fewest of all people:

8 But because the Lord loued you, and because he wolde kepe the othe which he had sworne vnto your fathers, the Lord hath brought you out by a mightie hand and deliuered you out of the house of bondage, from the hand of Pharaoh King of Egypt,

9 That thou maiest knowe, that the Lord thy God, he is God, the faithful God which kepeth covenant and mercy vnto them that loue him and kepe his commandements, [eu]en to a thousand generations:

10 And rewardeth them to their face that hate him, to bring them to destruction: he wil not deferre to reward him that hateth him, to his face.

11 Kepe thou therefore the commandements, and the ordinances, and the lawes, which I commande thee this day to do them.

12 For if ye hearken vnto these lawes, and obserue and do them, then the Lord thy God shal kepe with thee the covenant, & the mercie which he sware vnto thy fathers.

13 And he wil loue thee, and blesse thee, & multiplie thee: he wil also blesse the fruite of thy wombe, and the fruite of thy land: thy corne and thy wine, and thine oyle [and] the increase of thy kine, and the flockes of thy shepe in the land, which he sware vnto thy fathers to giue thee.

14 Thou shalt be blessed aboute all people: there shal be nether male nor female barren among you, nor among your cattell:

15 Moreover, the Lord wil take away fro thee all infirmities, and wil put none of the euil diseases of Egypt (which thou knowest) vpon thee, but wil send them vpon all that hate thee.

16 Thou shalt therefore consume all people which the Lord thy God shal giue thee: thine eye shal not spare them, nether shalt thou serue their gods, for that shal be thy destruction.

17 If thou say in thine heart, These nations are more then I, how can I cast them out?

18 Thou shalt not feare them, [but] remember what the Lord thy God did vnto Pharaoh, and vnto all Egypt:

19 The great tentations which thine eyes sawe, and the signes and wonders, and the mightie hand & stretched out arme, whereby the Lord thy God brought thee out: so shal the Lord thy God do vnto all the people, whose face thou fearest.

20 Moreover, the Lord thy God wil send hornettes among them, vntil they that are left, and hide them selues from thee, be destroyed.

22 And the Lord thy God wil roote out these nations before thee by litle and litle: thou maist not consume them at once, lest the beastes of the field increase vpon thee.

23 But the Lord thy God shal giue them before thee, and shal destroy them with a mighty destruction, vntil they be brought to nought.

24 And he shal deliuer their Kings into thine hand, and thou shalt destroy their name from vnder heaven: there shal no man be able to stand before thee, vntil thou hast destroyed them.

25 The grauen images of their gods shal ye burne with fire, [and] ye couet not the siluer and golde, [that is] on them, nor take it vnto thee, lest thou be snared therewith: for it is an abomination [before] the Lord thy God.

26 Bring not therefore abomination into thine house, lest thou be accused like it, [but] vtterly abhorre it, and counte it moste abominable: for it is accused.

CHAP. VIII.

God humbleth the Israelites to trie what they haue in their heart: God chastiseth them as his children. 14 The heart ought not to be proude for Gods benefites. 19 The forgetfulness of Gods benefites causeth destruction.

YE shal kepe all the commandements which I comande thee this day for to do them: that ye may liue, and be multiplied, and go in, and possesse the land which the Lord sware vnto your fathers.

2 And thou shalt remember all the way which the Lord thy God led thee this fourty yere in the wilderness, for to humble thee, and to proue thee, to knowe what was in thine heart, whether thou woldest kepe his commandements or no.

3 Therefore he humbled thee, and made thee hungry, and fed thee with MAN, which thou knewest not, neither did thy fathers knowe it, that he might teache thee that man liueth not by bread onely, but by the word of the Lord, that proceedeth out of the mouth of the Lord, doeth a man liue.

4 Thy raiment waxed not olde vpon thee, neither did thy shoe: as five hundred yeres.

5 Knowe therefore in thine heart, that as a man hungereth his soule, so the Lord thy God sourcereth thee.

6 Therefore shalt thou kepe the commandements of the Lord thy God, that thou maiest walke in his wayes, and feare him.

7 For the Lord thy God bringeth thee in to a good land, a land in the which are riuers of water and fountaines, & depths that spring out of valles and mountaines:

8 A land of wheat and barley, and of vineyardes, and fig trees, and pomgranates: a land of oyle olive and honey:

9 A land wherein thou shalt eat bread without scarcetie, neither shalt thou lacke any thing therein: a land whose stones [are] iron, and out of whose mountaines thou shalt digge brasie.

10 And when thou hast eaten and filled thy self, thou shalt blesse the Lord thy God, for the good land which he hath giuen thee.

11 Beware that thou forget not the Lord thy God, not keping his commandements, & his lawes, and his ordinances, which I comande thee this day:

12 Lest [when] thou hast eaten and filled thy selfe, and hast buylt goodly houses & dwelt [therein],

13 And thy beastes, and thy shepe are increased, and thy siluer and golde is multiplied, and all that thou hast is encreased,

14 Then thine heart be lifted vp, and thou forget the Lord thy God, which brought thee out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage,

15 Who was thy guide in the great and terrible wilderness [wherein were] frye serpents, and scorpions, and drought, where [was] no water, who brought forth the water for thee out of the rocke of flint:

16 Who fed thee in the wilderness with MAN, which thy fathers knewe not, to humble thee, and to proue thee, that he might do thee good at thy latter end.

17 [Beware] lest thou say in thine heart, My power, and the strength of mine owne hand hath prepared me this abundance.

18 But remember the Lord thy God: for it is he which giueth thee power to get substance, to establish his covenant which he sware vnto thy fathers, as [appeareth] this day.

19 And if thou forget the Lord thy God, and walke after other gods, & serue them, and worship them, I testifie vnto you this day that ye shal surely perish.

20 As the nations which the Lord destroyed before you, so ye shal perish, because ye wolde not be obedient vnto the voyce of the Lord your God.

2 A people great and tall, [euen] the children of the Anakims, whome thou knowest, and [of whome] thou hast^b heard [say] Who can stand before the children of Anak?

3 Vnderstand therefore that this day the Lord thy God is he which^c goeth ouer before thee [as] a consuming fire: he shal destroy them, and he shal bring the downe before thy face: so thou shalt cast the out & destroy them sodenly, as the Lord hath said vnto thee.

4 Speake not thou in thine heart (after that the Lord thy God hath cast them out before thee) saying, For my^d righteousness the Lord hath brought me in, to possesse this land: but for the wickednes of these nations the Lord hath cast them out before thee.

5 [For] thou enterest not to inherit their land for thy righteousness, or for thy vp-right heart, but for the wickednes of those nations; the Lord thy God doeth cast the out before thee, and that he might performe the worde which the Lord thy God sware vnto thy fathers, Abraham, Izhak, and Iakob.

6 Vnderstand therefore, that the Lord thy God giueth thee not this good lād to possesse it for thy righteousness: for thou art a^e stiffe-necked people.

7 Remember, [and] forget not, how thou prouokedst the Lord thy God to anger in the wilderness: fince the day that thou didest departe out of the land of Egypt, vntil ye came vnto this place, ye haue rebelled against the Lord.

8 Also in Horeb ye prouoked the Lord to anger, so that the Lord was wrothe with you, [euen] to destroy you.

9 When I was gone vp into the mount, to receiue the tables of stone, the tables, [I say,] of the couenāt, which the Lord made w^f you: & I abode in the mount fourtie dayes and fourtie nightes, [and] I nether ate bread nor yet dranke water:

10 Then the Lord deliuered me two tables of stone, written with the^g finger of God, and in them [was contained] according to all the wordes which the Lord had said vnto you in the mount out of the middes of the fire, in the day of the assemble.

11 And when the fourtie dayes and fourtie nightes were ended, the Lord gaue me

12 And the Lord said vnto me, * Arise, get thee downe quickly from hence: for thy people which thou hast brought out of Egypt, haue^h corrupt [their wayes:] they are sone turned out of the way, which I commanded them: they haue made them a molten image.

13 Furthermore, the Lord spake vnto me, saying, I haue sene this people, and beholde, it is a stiffe-necked people.

14 Let me alone, that I may destroy them, and put out their name from vnder heauē, and I will make of thee a mightie nation, & greater then they be.

15 So I returned, and came downe frō the Mount (and the Mount burnt with fire, & the two Tables of the couenāt [were] in my two hands)

16 Then I looked, and beholde, ye had sinned against the Lord your God: [for] ye had made you a molten calfe, [and] had turned quickly out of the^k way which^l the Lord had commanded you.

17 Therefore I toke the two Tables, and cast them out of my two hands, and brake them before your eyes.

18 And I fel downe before the Lord, fourtie dayes, and fourtie nightes, as before. I nether ate bread nor dranke water, because of all your sinnes, w^m ye had committed, in doing wickedly in the sight of the Lord, inⁿ ye prouoked him vnto wrath.

19 (For I was afraied of the wrath and indignation, wherewith the Lord was moued against you, [euen] to destroye you) yet the Lord heard me at that time also.

20 Likewise the Lord was verie angrie with Aaron, [euen] to^o destroy him: but at that time I prayed also for Aaron.

21 And I toke your sinne, [I meane] p^p calfe which ye had made, and burnt him with fire, and stamped him and grounde him smale, euen vnto verie dust: and I cast the dust thereof into the riuer, that descended out of the^q Mount.

IN the same time the Lord said vnto me, * Hewe thee two Tables of stone lyke vnto the first, and come vp vnto me into the Mount, and make thee an Arke of wood.
 2 And I will write vpon ² Tables the wordes that were vpon the first Tables, which thou brakest, and thou shalt put them in the Arke.
 3 And I made an Arke of * shittim wood, and hewed two Tables of stone like vnto the first, and went vp into the Mountaine, and the two Tables in mine hand.
 4 Then he wrote vpon the Tables according to the first writing (the ten commandements, which the Lord spake vnto you in the Mount out of the middes of the fire, in the daye of the ^b assemblie) and the Lord gaue them vnto me.
 5 And I departed, and came downe fro the Mount, and put the Tables in the Arke w^h I had made: and there they be, as the Lord commanded me.
 6 And the children of Israel toke their journey from Beeroth of the children of Iaakan to * Mosera, where Aaron dyed, & was buried, & Eleazar his sonne became Priest in his steade.

the Lord, to ^d minister vnto him, and to blisse in his Name vnto this day.
 9 Wherefore Leui hath no parte nor inheritance with his brethren: [for] the Lord is his ^e inheritance, as the Lord thy God hath promised him.
 10 And I taried in the Mount, as at the first time, fourtie daies and fourtie nights, and the Lord heard me at that time also, [and] the Lord wolde not destroye thee.
 11 But the Lord said vnto me, Arise, go forth in the iourney before the people, ^f they may go in and possesse the lād, which I sware vnto their fathers to giue vnto them.
 12 And now, Israel, what doeth the Lord thy God ^f require of thee, but to feare the Lord thy God, to walke in all his wayes, and to loue him, and to serue the Lord thy God with all thine heart, and w^h all thy soule?
 13 That thou kepe the commandements of the Lord, and his ordinances, which I comande thee this day, for thy welth.

 15 Notwithstanding, the Lord set his delight in thy fathers to loue them, and did chose their sede after them, [euen] you aboue all people, as [appeareth] this day.
 16 Circumcise therefore the foreskin of your heart, and harden your necks no more.
 17 For the Lord your God is God of gods, and Lord of lords, a great God, mightie, and terrible, which accepteth no ^g persones nor taketh rewarde:
 18 Who doeth right vnto the fatherles & widow, and loueth the stranger, giuing him sode and rayment.
 19 Loue ye therefore the stranger: for ye were strangers in the land of Egypt.
 20 Thou shalt feare the Lord thy God: thou shalt serue him, and thou shalt cleaue vnto him, and ⁱ shalt sweare by his Name.
 21 He is thy praise, and he is thy God; that hath done for thee these great and terrible things, which thine eyes haue sene.

Therefore thou shalt loue the Lord thy God, & shalt kepe that, which he commandeth to be kept: that is, his ordinances, and his Lawes, and his commandements alwaye.

2 And consider this day (for I speake not) to your children, which haue nether known nor sene) the chastisement of ^{the} Lord your God, his greatnes, his mightie hand, and his stretched out arme,

3 And his signes and his actes, which he did in the middes of Egypt vnto Pharaoh the King of Egypt and vnto all his land:

4 And what he did vnto the hoste of the Egyptians, vnto their horses and to their charets, when he caused the waters of the red Sea to ouerfloe them, as they pursued after you, and the Lord destroyed them vnto this day:

5 And what he did vnto you in the wilderness, vntil ye came vnto this place:

6 And what he did vnto Dathan and Abiram the sonnes of Eliab the sonne of Reuben, when the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed them with their householdes and their tents, and all their substance that they had in the middes of all Israel.

7 For your eyes haue sene all the great actes of the Lord which he did.

8 Therefore shal ye kepe all the commandements, whiche I commande you this day, that ye may be strong, and go in and possesse the land whether ye go to possesse it:

9 Also that ye may prolong [your] dayes in the land, which the Lord sware vnto your fathers, to giue vnto the and to their seds, [euen] a land that floweth with milke and honie.

10 For the land whether thou goest to possesse it, is not as the land of Egypt, from whence ye came, where thou sowedst thy seds, and wateredst it with thy fete as a garden of herbes:

11 But the land whether ye go to possesse it, [is] a land of mountaines and vallis, [and] drinketh water of the raine of heauen.

12 This land doeth the Lord thy God care for: the eyes of the Lord thy God [are] alwayes vpon it, from the beginning of the yere, euen vnto the end of the yere.

13 If ye shal hearken therefore vnto my commandements, which I commande you this day, that ye loue the Lord your God and serue him with all your heart, and wth all your soule,

14 I also wil giue raine vnto your land in due time, the first raine and the latter, that thou maiest gather in thy wheat, and thy wine, and thine oyle.

15 Also I wil send grasse in thy fields for thy cattel, that thou maiest eat, and haue yⁿough.

16 [But] beware lest your heart be deceate you, & lest ye turne aside, and serue other gods, and worship them,

17 And [so] the angre of the Lord be kindled against you, and he shut vp the heauens, that there be no raine, and that your land yelde not her frute, and ye perish quickly from the good lād, which the Lord giueth you.

18 Therefore shal ye lay vp these my wordes in your heart & in your soule, & binde them for a signe vpon your hand, that they may be as a frontelet betwene your eyes.

19 And ye shal teache them your children, speaking of them, whē thou sittest in thine house, and when thou walkest by the way, and whē thou liest downe, and when thou risest vp.

20 And thou shalt write them vpon postes of thine house, and vpon thy gates.

21 That your dayes may be multiplied, and the dayes of your children, in the land & the Lord sware vnto your fathers to giue them, as long as the heauens are aboute the earth.

22 For if ye kepe diligently all these commandements, which I commande you to do: [that is] to loue the Lord your God, to walke in all his waies, & to cleaue vnto him, 23 Then wil the Lord cast out all these nations before you, and ye shal possesse great cities, and mightier then you.

24 All the places whereon the soles of your feete shal treade, shalbe yours: your coast shalbe from the wilderness and from Libanon, and from the Riuer, [euen] the riuer Perath, vnto the vttermost Sea.

25 No man shal stand against you: [for] the Lord your God shal cast the feare & dread of you vpon all the land that ye shal tread vpon, as he hath said vnto you.

26 Beholde, I set before you this day a blessing and a curse:

27 The blessing, if ye obey the commandements of the Lord your God which I commande you this day:

28 And the curse, if ye wil not obey the commandements of the Lord your God, but turne out of the way, which I commande you this day, to go after other gods, which ye haue not known.

29 When the Lord thy God therefore hath brought thee into the land, whether thou goest to possesse it, then thou shalt put the blessing vpon mount Gerizim,

To destroye the idolatrous places. 5. To serue God in the countrey, and not as men fantasie. 19 The Levites must be nourished. 31 Idolaters burne their idoles to their gods. 32 To adde nothing to Gods worde.

These are the ordinances & the lawes, which ye shal obserue and do in the land, which the Lord God of thy fathers giueth thee to possesse it, as long as ye liue vpon the earth.

Ye shal utterly destroye all the places wherein the nations, which ye shal possesse, serued their gods, vpon the hie mountains, and vpon the hilles, and vnder euery grene tre.

Also ye shal overthrowe their altars, & breake downe their pillars, and burne their groues with fire; and ye shal hewe downe the grauen images of their gods, and abolish their names out of that place.

Ye shal not so do vnto the Lord your God,

But ye shal seke the place which the Lord your God shal chose out of all your tribes, to put his Name there, [and] there to dwel, [and] thither thou shalt come,

12 And ye shal reioyce before the Lord your God, ye, and your sonnes, & your daughters, and your seruants, and your maidens, and the Leuite that is within your gates: for he hath no parte nor inheritance w you.

Take hede that thou offer not thy burnt offrings in euery place that thou seest:

But in the place which the Lord shal chose in one of thy tribes, there thou shalt offer thy burnt offrings, and there thou shalt do all that I commande thee.

Notwithstanding thou maist kil and eat flesh in all thy gates, whatsoeuer thine heart desireth, according to the blessing of the Lord thy God which he hath giuen thee: [bothe] the vncleane and the cleane may eat thereof, as of the roe bucke, and of the hart.

a The franchised townes. 14 Not to remoue thy neighbours bondes. * 6 The punishment of him that beareth false witness.

1 VVhen the Lord thy God * shal roote out the nations, whose land the Lord thy God giueth thee, and thou shalt possess them, & dwel in their cities, and in their houses,

2 * Thou shalt separate thre cities for thee in the middes of thy land which the Lord thy God giueth thee to possess it.

3 Thou shalt ^a prepare thee the waye, & deuide the coastes of the land, which the Lord thy God giueth thee to inherit, into thre partes, that euerie ^b manslayer may flee thither.

4 * This also is the cause wherefore the manslayer shal flee thither, and liue: whoso killeth his neighbour ignorantly, & hated him not in time passed;

5 As he that goeth vnto the wood with his neighbour to hewe wood, & his hand striketh with the axe to cut downe the tree, if the head slip from the helue, and hitte his neighbour that he dyeth, the same ^c shal flee vnto one of the cities, & liue:

6 Lest the * auenger of the blood followe after the manslayer, while his heart is chafed, and ouertake him, because the way is long, & slay him, although he be not tworthy of death, because he hated him not in time passed,

7 Wherefore I commande thee, saying, Thou shalt appoint out thre cities for thee.

8 And when the Lord thy God ^d enlargeth thy coastes (as he hathe sworne vnto thy fathers) and giueth thee all the land which he promised to giue vnto thy fathers,

9 (If thou kepe all these commandements to do them, which I commande thee this day: [to wit, that thou loue the Lord thy God, & walke in his waies for ever]) ^e the shalt thou adde thre cities mo for thee besides those thre,

10 That innocent blood be not shed within thy land, which the Lord thy God giueth thee to inherit, * lest blood be vpon thee.

11 * But if a man hate his neighbour, and lay waite for him, and rise against him, & smite any man that he dye, and flee vnto any of these cities,

12 Then the ^f Elders of his citie shal send and fet him thence, and deliuer him into the hands of the auenger of the blood, that he may dye.

13 Thine ^g eie shal not spare him, but thou shalt put away [the crye] of innocent blood from Israel, that it may go wel with thee.

14 * Thou shalt not remoue thy neighbours marke, which they of olde time haue set in thine inheritance, that thou shalt inherit in the land, which the Lord thy God giueth thee to possess it.

15 * One witnes shal not rise against a man for any trespas, or for any sinne, or for any faute that he offendeth in, ^h [but] at the mouth of two witnesses or at the mouth of thre witnesses shal the matter be stablished.

16 * If a false witnes rise vp against a man to accuse him of trespasse,

The exhortation of the Priest when the Israelites go to battel. 3 The exhortation of the officers shewing who shulde go to battel. 10 Peace must first be proclaimed. 19 The trees that beare frute, must not be destroyed.

Vhen * thou shalt go forthe to warre against thine enemies, & shalt se horses and charets, [&] people mo then thou, be not afraid of them: for the Lord thy God [is] with thee, which broght thee out of the land of Egypt.

2 And when ye are come nere vnto the battel, then the Priest shal come forthe to speake vnto the people,

And shal say vnto them, Heare, o Israel: ye are come this day vnto battel against your enemies: * let not your hearts faint, nether feare, nor be amased, nor adread of them.

3 For the Lord your God ^b goeth with you, to fight for you against your enemies, [and] to saue you.

4 And let the officers speake vnto the people, saying, What man [is there] that hath buylt a newe house, and hath not ^c dedicate it: let him go and returne to his house, lest he dye in the battel, and an other man dedicate it.

5 And what man [is there] that hath planted a vineyard, and hath not eaten of the frute: let him go and returne againe vnto his house, lest he dye in the battel, & another eat the frute.

6 And what man [is there] that hath betrothed a wife, & hath not taken her: let him go and returne againe vnto his house, lest he dye in battel, and another man take her.

7 And let the officers speake further vnto the people, & say, * Whosoever is afraid and faint hearted, let him go and returne vnto his house, lest his brethrens heart faint like his heart.

8 And after that the officers haue made an end of speaking vnto the people, thei shal make captaines of the armie to gouerne the people.

19 ¶ When thou comest nere vnto a cite to fight against it, * thou shalt offer it peace:

11 And if it answer thee againe * peaceably, and open vnto thee, then let all the people that is founde therein ^b be tributaries vnto thee, and serue thee.

12 But if it wil make no peace with thee, but make warre against thee, then thou shalt besiege it.

13 And the Lord thy God shal deliuer it into thine hands, and thou shalt smite all the males thereof with the edge of the sworde.

14 Onely the women, and the children, * and the cattel, and all that is in the cite, [euen] all the spoile thereof shalt thou take vnto thy self, and shalt eat the spoile of thine enemies, which the Lord thy God hath giuen thee.

15 Thus shalt thou do vnto all the cities, which are a great way off fro thee, which are not of the cities of these ^c nations here.

16 But of the cities of this people, which the Lord thy God shal giue thee to inherit, thou shalt saue no person aliue.

17 But shalt utterly destroy them, [to wit] the Hittites, and the Amorites, the Canaanites, and the Perizzites, the Hiuites, and the Iebusites, as the Lord thy God hath commanded thee, 18 That they teache you not to do after all their abominations, which they haue done vnto their gods, and [so] ye shulde sinne against the Lord your God.

19 ¶ When thou hast besieged a cite long time, and made warre against it, to take it, destroye not the trees thereof, by smiting an axe into them: for thou maiest eat of them: therefore thou shalt not cut them downe to further thee in the siege [for the tree of the field is mans [life]].

20 Onely those trees, which they knowest are not for meat, those shalt thou destroye & cut downe, and make fortres against the cite that maketh warre with thee, vntil thou subdue it.

So shalt thou take away [the crye] of indo that which is right in the sight of the Lord.

When thou shalt go to warre against thine enemies, and the Lord thy God shal deliuer them into thine hands, and thou shalt take them captiues,

And shalt se among the captiues a beautiful woman, and hast a desire vnto her, & woldest take her to wife,

Then thou shalt bring her home to thi-pare her nailes,

And she shal put of the garment that she was taken in, and she shal remaine in thine house, and bewaile her father and her mother a moneth long: and after that shalt thou go in vnto her, and marry her, and she shal be thy ^f wife.

And if thou haue no fauour vnto her, then thou maiest let her go whether she wil, but thou shal not sel her for money, nor make marchandise of her, because thou hast humbled her.

If a man haue two wiues, one loued and another ^g hated, and they haue borne him children, bothe the loued and also the hated: if the first borne be the sonne of the hated,

Then when the time commeth, that he appointeth his sonnes to be heyres of that which he hath, he may not make the sonne of the beloued first borne ^h before the sonne of the hated, which is the first borne,

But he shal acknowledge the sonne of the hated for the first borne, and giue him double portion of all that he hath: for he is the first of his strength, and to him belongeth the right of the first borne.

If any man haue a sonne that is stubbur-ne & disobedient, which wil not hearken vnto the voyce of his father, nor the voyce of his ⁱ mother, and they haue chastened him, and he wolde not obey them,

Then shal his father and his mother take him, & bring him out vnto the Elders of his cite, and vnto the gate of the place where he dwelleth,

And shal say vnto the Elders of his ci-tie, This our sonne is stubberne and disobedient, [and] he wil not obey our admo-nition: he is a ryotour, and a drunkard.

Then all the men of his cite shal ^j stone him with stones vnto death: so thou shalt take away euil from among you, that all Israel may heare it and feare.

If a man also haue committed a trespas worthy of death, and is put to death, & thou hangeest him on a tree,

His body shal not remaine ^k all night vpō the tree, but thou shalt bury him the same day: for the ^l curse of God [is] on 24 Then shall ye bring them bothe out vnto the gates of the same citie, & shall stone them with stones to death: the maide because she cryed not, [being] in the citie, & the man, because he hath humbled his neighbours wife: so thou shalt put away euil from among you.

25 ¶ But if a man finde a betrothed maide in the field, and force her, & lye with her, then the man that lay with her, shall dye alone:

26 And vnto the maide thou shalt do nothing, because there is in the maide no cause of death: for as when a man riseth against his neighbour and wondeth him to death, so is this matter.

27 For he found her in the fields: the betrothed maide cryed, and there was no man to succour her.

28 ¶ If a man finde a maide that is not betrothed, and take her, and lye with her, & they be founde, 29 Then the man that lay with her, shall giue vnto the maides father fifty [shekels] of siluer: and she shall be his wife, because he hath humbled her: he can not put her away all his life.

49 The Lord shal bring a nation vpon thee fro far, [euē] from the end of the worlde, flying [swift] as an egle: a nation whose tongue thou shalt not vnderstand:

50 A nation of a fierce countenance, which wil not regarde the persone of the olde, nor haue compassion of the yong.

53 *And thou shalt eat the frute of thy bodie: [euē] the flesh of thy sonnes and thy daughters, which the Lord thy God hath giuen thee, during the siege and straitnes wherein thine enemy shal inclose thee:

54 [So that] the mā (that is tender & exceeding deintie among you) *shal be grieved at his brother and at his wife [that lyeth] in his bosome, & at the remnant of his children, which he hath yet left.

55 For feare of giuing vnto anie of them of the flesh of his children, whome he shal eat, because he hath nothing left him in that siege, and straitnes, wherewith thine enemy shal besiege thee in all thy cities.

56 The tender and deintie woman among you, which neuer wolde venture to set the sole of her fote vpon the grounde (for her softnes & tendernes) shal be grieved at her housband, [that lyeth] in her bosome, and at her sonne, & at her daughter,

57 And at her * afterbirth (that shal come out from betwene her fete) and at her children, which she shal beare: for when all things lacke, she shal eat them secretly, during the siege and straitnes, wherewith thine enemy shal besiege thee in thy cities.

58 ¶ If thou wilt not kepe and do * all the wordes of this Lawe (that are written in this booke) & feare this glorious & feareful Name, THE LORD THY GOD,

CHAP. XXIX.

1 The people are exhorted to obserue the comandements. 10 The whole people from the hiest to the lowest are comprehended vnder Gods couenant. 19 The punishment of him that flattereth him selfe in his wickednes. 24 The cause of Gods wrath against his people.

These are the ^a wordes of the couenāt which the Lord commanded Moses to make with the children of Israēl in the land of Moab beside the couenant which he had made with thame in ^b Horēb.

2 ¶ And Moses called all Israēl, & said vnto them, Ye haue sene al that the Lord did before your eyes in the land of Egypt vnto Pharaoh and vnto all his seruants, and vnto all his land,

3 The ^c great tentations which thine eyes haue sene, those great miracles and wonders:

4 Yet the Lord hathe not ^d giuen you an heart to perceiue, and eyes to se, and eares to heare, vnto this day.

5 And I haue led you fourtie yere in the wildernes: your clothes are not waxed olde vpon you, nether is thy shoe waxed olde vpon thy fote.

6 Ye haue eaten no ^e bread, nether dronke wine, nor strong drinke, ^f ye might knowe, how that I am the Lord your God.

7 After, ye came vnto this place, and Sihon King of Hesbōn, & Og King of Bashan came out against vs into battell, and we slewe them,

8 And toke their land, and gaue it for an inheritance vnto the Reubenites, and to ^g

Gadites, & to the half tribe of Manassēh.

9 * Kepe therefore the wordes of this couenant & do them, that ye may prosper in all that ye shal do.

10 Ye stand this day euerie one of you before the Lord your ^f God: your heades of your tribes, your Elders and your officers, [euen] all the men of Israēl:

11 Your children, your wiues, & thy stranger that is in thy campe, fro the hewer of thy wood, vnto the drawer of thy water,

12 That thou shuldest ^g passe into the couenant of the Lord thy God, and into his othe which the Lord thy God maketh wth thee this day, 13 For to establish thee this day a people vnto him self, & that he may be vnto thee a God, as he hath said vnto thee, and as he hath sworne vnto thy fathers, Abraham, Izhāk, and Iaakōb.

14 Nether make I this couenant and this othe with you onely, 15 But [aswel] with him that standeth here with vs this day before ^h Lord our God, as with him ^b that is not here with vs this day.

16 For ye knowe, how we haue dwelt in ⁱ lād of Egypt, and how we passed through the middes of the nations, which ye passed by.

17 And ye haue sene their abominations & their idoles (wood, and stone, siluer and golde) which were among them,

18 That there shulde not be among you mā nor woman, nor familie, nor tribe, which shulde turne his heart away this day from the Lord our God, to go & serue the gods of these nations, [&] that there shulde not be among you ⁱ [anie] roote that bringeth fourth gall and wormewood,

19 So that when he heareth the wordes of this curse, he [†] blesse him self in his heart, saying, I shall haue peace, although I walke according to the stubburnes of mine owne heart, thus adding ^k dronkennes to thirst:

20 The Lord wil not be merciful vnto him, but then the wrath of the Lord & his ielousie shall smoke against that man, and euerie curse that is written in this boke, shal light vpon him, and the Lord shal put out his name from vnder heauen,

21 And the Lord shall separate him vnto euill out of all the tribes of Israēl, according vnto all the curses of the couenant, that is written in the boke of this Lawe.

22 So that the ^l generation to come, [euen] your children, that shall rise vp after you, and the stranger that shall come from a far land, shall say, when they shall se the pla-

24 Then shal all nations say, * Wherefore hath the Lord done thus vnto this land: how scarce [is] this great wrath?

25 And they shall answer, Because they haue forsaken the couenant of the Lord God of their fathers, which he had made with them, when he broght them out of the land of Egypt.

26 And went and serued other gods, and worshipped them: [euē] gods which they knewe not, and ^{the} which had giuen them nothing.

27 Therefore the wrath of the Lord waxed hot against this land, to bring vpon it euerie curse that is written in this booke.

28 And the Lord hath rooted them out of their land in angre, and in wrath, & in great indignation, and hath cast them into another land, as [appeareth] this day.

29 The ^{the} secret things [belong] to ^{the} Lord our God, but the things reueiled [belong] vnto vs, and to our children for euer, that we may do all the wordes of this Lawe.

CHAP. XXX.

1 Mercie shewed when they repent. 6 The Lord doeth circumsise the heart. 11 All excuse of ignorance is taken away. 19 Life and death is set before them. 20 The Lord is their life which obey him.

NOW when all these things shal come vpon thee, [ether] the blessing or the curse which I haue set before thee, & thou shalt ^{the} turne into thine heart, among all the nations whether the Lord thy God hath driuen thee,

2 And shalt returne vnto ^{the} Lord thy God, and obey his voyce in all that I commaunde thee this day, thou and thy children with all thine ^{the} heart and with all thy soule,

3 Then the Lord thy God will cause thy captiues to returne, and haue compassion vpon thee, and wil returne, to gather thee out of all the people, where the Lord thy God had scattered thee.

4 Thogh thou werest cast vnto the vtmost parte of ^{the} heauen, from thence will ^{the} Lord thy God gather thee, and from thence will he ^{the} take thee.

5 And the Lord thy God will bring thee into the land which thy fathers possessed, and thou shalt possesse it, & he will shewe thee fauour, and will multiply thee about thy fathers.

6 And the Lord thy God will ^{the} circumsise thine heart, and the heart of thy fede, that thou maist loue the Lord thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soule, that thou maist liue.

7 And the Lord thy God will lay all these curses vpon thine enemies, and on them that hate thee, and that persecute thee.

8 ^{the} Returne thou therefore, and obey the voyce of the Lord; and do all his commandements, which I commande thee this day.

9 And the Lord thy God will make thee plenteous in euerie worke of thine hād, in the frute of thy body, and in the frute of thy cattel, and in the frute of the land for thy wealth: for the Lord wil turne againe and ^{the} reioyce ouer thee to do thee good, as he reioyced ouer thy fathers,

10 Because thou shalt obey the voyce of the Lord thy God, in keeping his commandements, and his ordinances, which are written in the booke of this Lawe; when ^{the} shalt returne vnto the Lord thy God with all thine heart and with all thy soule.

11 ^{the} For this commandement which I commande thee this day, is ^{the} not hid fro thee, nether is it farre of.

12 It is not in heauen; that thou shuldest say, * Who shal go vp for vs to heauen, and bring it vs, and cause vs to heare it; that we may do it.

13 Nether is it beyonde the ^{the} sea, that thou shuldest say, Who shal go ouer the sea for vs, and bring it vs, and cause vs to heare it; that we may do it.

14 But the ^{the} word is verie nere vnto thee: [euē] in thy mouth, and in thine heart, for to do it.

15 Beholde, I haue set before thee this day life and good; death and euil.

16 In that I commande thee this day ^{the} to loue the Lord thy God, to walke in his wayes, & to kepe his commandements, & his ordinances, & his lawes; ^{the} thou maist liue and be multiplied, and that the Lord thy God may blesse thee in the land, whether thou goest to possesse it.

17 But if thine heart turne away, so that ^{the} wilt not obey, but shalt be seduced & worship other gods, and serue them,

18 I pronounce vnto you this day that ye shal surely perish, ye shal not prolong your dayes in the land whether thou passest ouer Iordan to possesse it.

19 * I call heauen and earth to recorde this day against you, [that] I haue set before you life and death, blessing and cursing, therefore ^{the} chose life, that [euē] thou &

22 ¶ Moses therefore wrote this song the same day & taught it the childre of Israel.
 23 And [God] gaue Ioshua & sonne of Nun a charge, and said, * Be strong, and of a good courage: for thou shalt bring the children of Israel into the land, which I sware vnto them, and I will be with thee.
 24 ¶ And when Moses had made an end of writing the wordes of this Lawe in a booke vntil he had finished them, 25 Then Moses commanded the Leuites, which bare the Arke of the couenant of γ Lord, saying,
 26 Take the booke of this Law, and put ye it in the side of the Arke of the couenant of the Lord your God, that it may be there for a^m witness against thee.
 27 For I knowe thy rebellion and thy stiffe necke: beholde, I being yet aliue with you this day, ye are rebellious against γ Lord: how muche more then after my death?
 28 Gather vnto me all the Elders of your tribes, and your^a officers, that I may speake these wordes in their audience, & call heauen and earth to recorde against them.
 29 For I am sure that after my death ye will vtterlie be corrupt, & rume from the way, which I haue commanded you: therefore euil wil come vpon you at the length, because ye wil commit euil in the sight of γ Lord, by prouoking him to angre through the^a worke of your handes.
 30 Thus Moses spake in the audience of all the Congregation of Israel the wordes of this song, vntil he had ended them.

 5 They haue corrupted the selues toward him by their vice, not being his children, [but] a frowarde and crooked generatō.
 6 Doe ye frowarde the Lord, o foolish people and vnwise: is not he thy father, that 9 For the Lords portion [is] his people: Iaakob [is] the lot of his inheritance.

15 ¶ But he that shuld haue bene^a vp right: when he waxed fat, spurned with his heele: thou art fat, thou art grosse, thou art laden with fatnes: therefore he forsoke God [that] made him, and regarded not the strong God of his saluation.

22 For fire is kindled in my wrath, & shall

I wolde make their remembrance to cease

proude, [and] lest thei shulde say, Our hye

28 For they are a nation voyde of couisel, nether is there any vnderstandig in the.
29 Oh that they were wise, then thei wol-de vnderstand this: they wolde consider their latter end.
30 How shulde one chase a thousand, and two put to thousand to flight, except their strong God had solde them, & the Lord had shut them vp?
31 For their god [is] not as our God, euē
our enemies being iudges.
32 For their vine [is] of the vine of Sodō,
& of the vines of Gomorah: their grapes
[ar] grapes of gal, their clusters be bitter.
33 Their wine [is] the poyson of dragons, and the cruel gall of alpes.
34 Is not this laid in store with me, [and] lealed vp among my treasures?
35 Vengeance and recompense are mine:
their foete shall slide in due time: for the daye of their destruction is at hand, and the things that shal come vpo them, make haste.
36 For the Lord shal iudge his people, & trepent toward his seruants, when he seeth that their power is gone, & none shut vp [in holde] nor left [abroad].
37 When men shal say, Where are their gods, their mightie God in whome they trusted?
38 Which did eat the fat of their sacrifices, [and] did drinke the wine of their drinke offring, let them rise vp, and helpe you:
let him be your refuge.
39 Beholde now, for I am he, & there is no gods with me: I kil, and giue life: I wolde, & I make whole: nether is there [any] that can deliuer out of mine hand.

40 For I lift vp mine hand to heauen, & say, I liue for euer.
41 If I whet my glittering sworde, and mine hand take holde on iudgement, I will execute vengeance on mine enemies, and will rewarde them that hate me.
42 I will make mine arrowes dronke with blood, (and my sworde shal eat flesh) for the blood of the slaine, & of the captiues, when I beginne to take vengeance of the enemie.
43 Ye nations, praise his people: for he wil avenge the blood of his seruants, and wil execute vengeance vpon his aduersaries, & wil be merciful vnto his land [and] to his people.
44 Then Moses came and spake all the wordes of this song in the audience of the people, he, and Hoshea the sonne of Nun.
45 When Moses had made an end of speaking all these wordes to all Israel, 46 Then he said vnto them, Set your hearts vnto all the wordes which I testifie against you this day, that ye may commande them vnto your children, that they may obserue and do all the wordes of this Lawe.
47 For it is no vaine worde concerning you, but it is your life, and by this worde ye shal prolog your dayes in the land whether ye go ouer Iordē to possesse it.
48 And the Lord spake vnto Moses the selfe same day, laying, 49 Go vp into this mountaine of Abarim, vnto mount Nebo, which is in the land of Moab, that is ouer against Iericho: and beholde the land of Canaan, which I giue vnto children of Israel for a possession:
50 And dye in the mount which thou goest vp vnto, and thou shalt be gathered vnto thy people, as Aaron thy brother dyed in mount Hor, and was gathered vnto his people.
51 Because ye trespassed against me among the children of Israel, at the waters of Meribah, at Kadesh in the wilderness of Zin: for ye sanctified me not among the children of Israel.
52 Thou shalt therefore see the land before thee, but shalt not go thither: I meane iunto the land which I giue the children of Israel.

THE BOKE OF IOSHVA.

THE ARGVMENT.

IN this boke the holy Ghost setteth moste liuely before our eyes the accomplishment of Gods promes, who as he promised by the mouthe of Mosés, that a Prophet shulde be raised vp vnto the people like vnto him, whome he willet to obey, Deut. 18, 15: so he sheweth him self here true in his promes, as at all other times: and after the death of Mosés his faithful seruant, he raiseth vp Ioshua to be ruler and gouernour ouer his people, that nether they shulde be discouraged for lacke of a captaine, nor haue occasion to distrust Gods promes hereafter. And because that Ioshua might be confirmed in his vocation, and the people also might haue none occasion to grudge, as though he were not approued of God: he is adorned with moste excellent giftes and graces of God, bothe to governe the people with counsel, and to defend them with strength, that he lacked nothing which ether belonged to a valiant captaine or a faithful minister. So he ouercometh all difficulties and bringeth the into the land of Canaan: the which according to Gods ordinance he deuident among the people, and appointeth their borders: he establissheth lawes & ordinances, & putteth the in remembrance of Gods manifold benefites, assuring the of his grace and fauour, if they obey God, and contrariwise of his plagues and vengeance, if they disobey him. This historie doeth represent Iesus Christ the true Ioshua, who leadeth vs into eternal felicitie, which is signified vnto vs by this land of Canaan. From the beginning of the Genesis to the end of this boke are contained 2597 yeres. For from Adam vnto the flood are 1656. From the flood vnto the departure of Abraham out of Caldea, 363. And from thence to the death of Ioseph 290. So that the Genesis conteinech 2390. Exodus 140. the other thre bokes of Mosés 40. Ioshua 27. So the whole maketh 2597 yeres.

CHAP. I.

1 The Lord encourageth Ioshua to inuade the land. 4 The borders and limites of the land of the Israelites. 5 The Lord promisseth to assise Ioshua, if he obey his worde. 11 Ioshua commandeth the people to prepare them selues to passe ouer Iorden. 12 And exhorteth the Reubenites to execute their charge.

† Or, growe stronger, and stronger.

7 Onely be thou strong, † and of a moste valiant courage, that thou maist obserue & do according to all the Lawe which Moses my seruant hath commanded thee: *thou shalt not turne away from it to the right hand, nor to the left, that thou maist prosper whetherfoeuer thou goest.

*Deut. 5, 32.

8 Let not this boke of the Lawe departe out of thy mouth, but meditate therein day and night, that thou maiest obserue and do according to all that is writtē therein: for then shalt thou make thy way prosperous, and then shalt thou † haue good successe.

2 Then reporte was made to the King of Ierichō, saying, Beholde, there came men hether to night, of the children of Israel, to spie out the country.

3 And the King of Ierichō sent vnto Rahab, saying, ^bBring forthe the men that are come to thee, [and] w^e are entred into thine house: for thei be come to searche out all the land.

b Though y^e wicked set the hand of God vpon the, yet they repent not, but seeke how they may, by their power resist his meannes.

4 (But the woman had taken the two men and hid them) . Therefore said she thus, There came men vnto me, but I wilt not whence thei were.

5 And when thei shut the gate in the darcke the men went out: whether the men went I wote not: followe ye after the quickly, for ye shal ouertake them.

6 (But she had broght the vp to the ^croofe of the house, & hid them with the stalkes of flaxe, which she had spread abroad vpon the roofe)

c Meaning, vpon the house: for then their houses were flat as a boue, so y^e they might do their buisines thereupon.

7 And certeine men pursued after them, the way to Iordē, vnto the fourdes, and as sone as thei which pursued after them, were gone out, thei shut the gate.

8 And before they were a slepe, she came vp vnto them vpon the roofe, 9 And said vnto the men, I knowe that the Lord hath giuen you the land, and that the ^dfear of you is fallen vpon vs, and that all the inhabitants of the land faint because of you.

d For so God promised, Deu. 18, 7. chap. 5, 1.

10 For we haue heard, how † Lord * dried vp the water of the read Sea before you, when you came out of Egypt, and what you did vnto the two Kings of the Amorites, that were on the other side Iordē, vnto ^eSihon and to Og, whome ye vtterly destroyed:

e Herein appeareth the great mercy of God, that in this commune destruction he wold drawe a moste miserable sinner, to repent and confess his Name.

12 Now therefore, I pray you, sweare vnto me by the Lord, that as I haue shewed you mercie, ye wil also shewe mercie vnto my fathers house, and giue me a true token:

13 And that ye wil saue alieue my father and my mother, and my brethren, and my sisters, and all that they haue: & that ye wil deliuer our [†] soules from death.

14 And the men answered her, ^f Our life for you to dye, if ye vter not this our busines: and when the Lord hath giuen vs the lād, we wil deafe mercifullie and truely with thee.

15 Then she let them downe by a corde through the windowe: for her house [was] vpon the towne wall, and she dwelt vpon the wall.

16 And she said vnto them, Go you into ^g mountaine, lest the pursuers mete with you, and hyde your selues there thre daies, vntil the pursuers be returned: then afterward may ye go your way.

17 And the men said vnto her, ^h We wil be blameles of this thine othe, which thou hast made vs sweare:

18 Beholde, when we come into the land, thou shalt binde this corde of red threde in the windowe, whereby thou lettest vs downe, and thou shalt bring thy father & thy mother, and thy brethren, and all thy fathers householde home to thee.

19 And whosoever then doeth go out at ⁱ dores of thine house into the street, ⁱ his blood shalbe vpon his head, and we wil be giltles: but whosoever shal be ^w thee in the house, his blood shalbe on our head, if any hand touche him:

20 And if thou vter this our ^k matter, we wil be quit of thine othe, which thou hast made vs sweare.

21 And she answered, According vnto your wordes so be it. Then she sent them away, and they departed, & she bounde the [†] red corde in the windowe.

22 ¶ And they departed, and came into the mountaine, & there abode thre daies, vntil the pursuers were returned, & the pursuers sought them throughout all the way, but founde them not.

23 So the two men returned, and descended from the mountaine, & passed ^l ouer, and came to Ioshua the sonne of Nun, & tolde him all things that came vnto them.

24 Also they said vnto Ioshua, Surely the Lord hath deliuered into our hands all the land: for euen all the inhabitants of [†] cuntrye faint, because of vs.

3 And comanded the people, saying, When ye see the Arke of the couenant of the Lord your God, and the Priests of the Leuites bearing it, ye shal departe from your place, and go after it.

4 Yet there shalbe a space betwene you and it, about [†] two thousand cubites by measure: ye shal not come nere vnto it, [†] ye may knowe the way, by the which ye shal go: for ye haue not gone this way in times past.

6 Also Ioshua spake vnto the Priests, saying, Take vp the Arke of the couenant, and go ouer before the people: so they toke vp the Arke of the couenant, & went before the people.

7 ¶ Then the Lord said vnto Ioshua, This day wil I begin to magnifie thee in the sight of all Israël, which shal knowe, that ^{*} as I was with Moses, so wil I be with thee.

8 Thou shalt therefore commande the Priests that beare the Arke of the couenant, saying, When ye are come to the brinke of the waters of Iordén, ye shal stand stil ^c in Iordén.

9 ¶ Then Ioshua said vnto the children of Israël, Come hether, & heare the wordes of the Lord your God.

10 And Ioshua said, ^d Hereby ye shal knowe that the liuing God is among you, & that he wil certainly cast out before you the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Hiuies, and the Perizzites, and the Gergashites, and the Amorites, and the Iebusites.

17 But the Priests that bare the Arke of the couenant of the Lord, stode drye within Iordén & ready prepared, and all the Israelites went ouer drye, vntil all the people were gone cleane ouer through Iordén.

¶ CHAP. III.

2 God commandeth Ioshua to set vp twelue stones in Iordén. 18 The waters returne to their olde course. 19 Other twelue stones are set vp in Gilgal. 21 This miracle must be declared to the posteritie.

AND when all the people were wholly gone * ouer Iordén, (after the Lord had spoken vnto Ioshúa, saying,

2 Take you twelue men out of the people, out of euerie tribe a man,

3 And commande you them, saying, Take you hence out of the middes of Iordén, out of the place where the Priests stode in a ^a readines, twelue stones, which ye shal take away with you, and leaue them in the ^b lodging, where you shal lodge this night)

4 Then Ioshúa called the twelue men, whom he had prepared of the children of Israel, out of euerie tribe a man,

5 And Ioshúa said vnto them, Go ouer before the Arke of the Lord your God, euen through the middes of Iordén, & take vp euerie man of you a stone vpon his shulder according vnto the number of the tribes of the children of Israel,

6 That this may be a signe among you, that when your ^c children shal aske their fathers in time to come, saying, What [meane] you by these stones?

7 Then ye may answer them, That the waters of Iordén were cut of before the Arke of the couenant of the Lord: [for] when it passed through Iordén, the waters of Iordén were cut of: therefore these stones are a memorial vnto the childre of Israel for euer.

8 Then the children of Israel did euen so as Ioshúa had commanded, and toke vp twelue stones out of the middes of Iordén, as the Lord had said vnto Ioshúa, according to the number of the tribes of the children of Israel, & caried them away with them vnto the lodging, and layed them downe there.

9 And Ioshúa set vp ^d twelue stones in the middes of Iordén, in the place where the fete of the Priests, which bare the Arke of the couenant, stode, and there haue they continued vnto this day.

10 ¶ So the Priests, which bare the Arke, stode in the middes of Iordén, vntil euerie thing was finished that the Lord had commanded Ioshúa to say vnto the people, according to all that Moses charged Ioshúa: then ^e people hasted and went ouer.

11 When all the people were cleane passed ouer, the Arke of the Lord went ouer also, and the Priests ^e before the people.

12 * And the sonnes of Reuben, & the sonnes of Gad, and halfe the tribe of Manasseh went ouer before the children of Israel armed, as Moses had charged them.

13 Euen fourty thousand prepared for warre, went before the ^f Lord vnto battel, into the plaine of Ierichó.

14 That day the Lord magnified Ioshúa in the sight of all Israel, & they ^g feared him, as thei feared Moses all ^h daies of his life.

15 And the Lord spake vnto Ioshúa, saying,

16 Commande the Priests that beare the ⁱ Arke of the Testimonie, to come vp out of Iordén.

17 Ioshúa therefore commanded the Priests, saying, Come ye vp out of Iordén.

18 And when the Priests that bare the Arke of the couenant of the Lord were come vp out of the middes of Iordén, & as sone as the soles of the Priests fete were set on the drye land, the waters of Iordén returned vnto their place, and flowed ouer all the bankes thereof, as they did before.

19 ¶ So the people came vp out of Iordén the tenth [day] of the ^h first moneth, and pitched in Gilgal, in the Eastside of Ierichó.

20 Also the twelue stones, which thei toke out of Iordén, did Ioshúa pitche in Gilgal.

21 And he spake vnto the children of Israel, saying, When your children shal aske their fathers in time to come, & say, What [meane] these stones?

22 Then ye shal shew your children, & say, Israel came ouer this Iordén on drye lāde

4 And this is the cause why Ioshua circumcised all the people, [euen] the males that came out of Egypt, because all the men of warre were dead in the wilderness by the way after they came out of Egypt.

9 ¶ And the men of armes wēt before the Priests, that blew the trumpets: then the gathering [hoste] came after the Arke, as they went and blew the trumpets.

10 (Now Ioshúa had commanded the people, saying, Ye shal not shoute, nether make any noyse with your voyce, nether shal a worde procede out of your mouth, vntil the day that I say vnto you, Shoute, then shal ye shoute)

11 So the Arke of the Lord compassed the citie, and went about it ^h once: then they returned into the hoste, and lodged in the campe.

12 And Ioshúa rose early in the morning, & the Priests bare the Arke of the Lord:

13 Also seuen Priests bare seuen trumpets of rams hornes, & went before the Arke of the Lord, and going blew with the trumpets: and the men of armes went before them, but the gathering [hoste] came after the Arke of the Lord, as they went and blew the trumpets.

14 And the second day thei compassed the citie once, and returned into the hoste: thus they did six dayes.

15 And when the seuenth day came, they rose early, euen with the dawing of the day, & compassed the citie after the same maner ^k seuen times: onely that day they compassed the citie seuen times.

16 And when the Priests had blowen the trumpets the seuenth time, Ioshúa said vnto the people, Shoute: for the Lord hath giuen you the citie.

17 And ^l the citie shal be ^l an execrable thing, [bothe] it, & all that are therein, vnto the Lord: onely Raháb the harlot shal liue, she, and all that are with her in the house: for she ^m hid the messengers that we sent.

18 Notwithstanding be ye ware of the execrable thing, lest ye make your selues execrable, and in taking of the execrable thing, make also the hoste of Israél ⁿ execrable, and truble it.

19 But all siluer, and golde, and vessels of brasse and yron shal be ^o consecrate vnto the Lord, [and] shal come into the Lords treasure.

20 So the people shouted, when they had blowen trumpets: for when ^p people had heard the sounde of the trumpet, they shouted with a great shoute: and the ^q wall fel downe flat: so the people went vp into the citie, euerie man streight before him:

and they toke the citie:

21 And they vtterly destroyed all that was in the citie, bothe man and woman, yong, and olde, and ox, and shepe, & asse, with the edge of the sworde.

22 But Ioshúa had said vnto the two men that had spied out the countrey, Go into the harlots house, and bring out thence the woman, and all that she hath, ^r as ye sware to her.

23 So the yong men that were spies, went in, and brought out Raháb, and her father and her mother, and her brethren, and all that she had: also they brought out all her familie, and put them ^s without the hoste of Israél.

24 After, they burnt the citie with fire, and all that was therein: onely the siluer and the golde, and the vessels of brasse and yron, they put into the treasure of the ^t house of the Lord.

25 So Ioshúa saued Raháb the harlot, and her fathers housholde, & all that she had, & she ^u dwelt in Israél euen vnto this day, because she had hid ^v messengers, which Ioshúa sent to spie out Ierichó.

26 ¶ And Ioshúa sware at ^w time, saying, Cursed be the man before the Lord, that riseth vp, and buyldeth this citie Ierichó: ^x he shal lay the fundation thereof in his eldest sonne, & in his yongest sonne shal he set vp the gates of it.

27 So the Lord was with Ioshúa, and he was famous through all the worlde.

6 ¶ Then Ioshua rent his clothes, and fell to the earth vpon his face before the Arke of the Lord, vntil the euentide, he, and the Elders of Israél, and put dust vpon their heades.

7 And Ioshua said, Alas, o Lord God, wherefore hast thou brought this people ouer Iordén, to deliuer vs into the hand of the Amorites, and to destroy vs? wolde God we had bene content to dwell on the other side Iordén.

8 Oh Lord, what shal I say, when Israél turne their backs before their enemies?

10 ¶ And the Lord said vnto Ioshua, Get thee vp: wherefore liest thou thus vpon thy face?

11 Israél hath sinned, and they haue transgressed my couenant, which I commanded them: for they haue euen taken of the excommunicate thing, and haue also stolen, and dissembled also, & haue put it euen with their owne stuffe.

12 Therefore the childre of Israél can not stand before their enemies, but haue turned their backs before their enemies, because they be execrable: nether wil I be with you anie more, except ye destroy the excommunicate from among you.

13 ¶ Therefore, sanctifie the people, & say Sanctifie your selues against to morowe: for thus saith the Lord God of Israél, [There is] an execrable thing among you, o Israél, [therefore] ye can not stand against your enemies, vntil ye haue put the execrable thing from among you.

14 In the morning therefore ye shal come according to your tribes, and the tribe which the Lord taketh, shal come according to the families: & the familie which the Lord shal take, shal come by the households: & the householde which the Lord shal take, shal come man by man.

15 And he that is taken with the excommunicate thing, shal be burnt with fire, he, & all that he hath, because he hath transgressed the couenant of the Lord, & because he hath wrought folly in Israél.

16 ¶ So Ioshua rose vp early in the morning & brought Israél by their tribes: & the tri-

17 And he brought the families of Iudáh, & toke the familie of the Zarhites, and he brought the familie of the Zarhites, man by man, and Zabdí was taken.

18 And he brought his householde, man by man, and Achán the sonne of Carní, the sonne of Zabdí, the sonne of Zeráh of the tribe of Iudáh was taken.

19 Then Ioshua said vnto Achán, My sonne, I beseeche thee giue glorie to the Lord God of Israél, and make confession vnto him, and shewe me now what thou hast done: hide it not from me.

20 And Achán answered Ioshua, and said, In dede, I haue sinned against the Lord God of Israél, and thus, and thus haue I done.

21 I sawe among the spoyle a goodly Babylonish garment, & two hundred shekels of siluer, and a wedge of golde of fiftie shekels weight, and I couered them, and toke them: and beholde they lye hid in the earth in the middes of my tent, & the siluer vnder it.

22 ¶ Then Ioshua sent messengers, which ran vnto the tent, and beholde, it was hid in his tent, & the siluer vnder it.

23 Therefore they toke them out of the tent, and brought them vnto Ioshua, and vnto all the children of Israél, and layed them before the Lord.

24 Then Ioshua toke Achán the sonne of Zeráh, and the siluer, & the garment, and the wedge of gold, and his sonnes, & his daughters, and his oxen, and his asses, and his shepe, and his tent, and all that he had: and all Israél with him brought them vnto the valley of Achór.

25 And Ioshua said, In as much as thou hast troubled vs, the Lord shal trouble thee this day: and all Israél threw stones at him, and burned them with fire, & stoned them with stones.

26 And they cast vpon him a great heape of stones vnto this day: and [to] the Lord turned from his fierce wrath: therefore he called the name of that place, The valley of Achór, vnto this day.

[anie] lay in waite against him on the backside of the citie.

15 Then Ioshua and all Israel ^g [as] beaten before them, fled by the way of the wilderness. ^g As they were payned to flee for feare.

16 And all the people of the citie were called together, to pursue after them: & they pursued after Ioshua, and were drawen away out of the citie.

17 So that there was not a man left in Ai, nor in Beth-el, that went not out after Israel: and they left the citie open, and pursued after Israel.

18 Then the Lord said vnto Ioshua, ^h Stretche out the speare that is in thine hand towards Ai: for I wil giue it into thine hand: and Ioshua stretched out the speare that he had in his hand, towards the citie. ^h Or, lift vp the bane, to signifie when they shall invade the citie

19 And thei that lay in waite, arose quickly out of their place, & ran as fast as he had stretched out his hand, & thei entred into the citie, and toke it, and hastened, and set the citie on fire.

20 And the men of Ai looked behinde the, & sawe it: for lo, the smoke of the citie ascended vp ⁱ to heauen, and they had no ^j power to flee this way or that way: for ^k people that fled to the wilderness, turned backe vpon the pursuers. ⁱ Or, towards ^j heauen. ^k Or, place,

22 Also the ⁱ other issued out of the citie against them: so were they in the middes of Israel, these [being] on the one side, and the rest on the other side: and they slewe them, so that they let none of them ^l remaine nor escape. ^l Which came out of the ambushes. ^m Deut. 7, 2.

23 And the King of Ai they toke aliue, and broght him to Ioshua.

24 And when Israel had made an end of slaying all the inhabitants of Ai in the field, [that is,] in the wilderness, where they chased them, and when they were all fallen on the edge of the sworde, vntil they were consumed, all the Israelites returned vnto Ai, and ^k smote it with the edge of the sworde.

25 And all that fel that day, bothe of men and women, were twelue thousand, euen all the men of Ai.

8 And Ioshúa burnt Ai, and made it an heape for euer, [&] a wildernes vnto this day.

29 And the King of Ai he hanged on a tree, vnto the euening. And as sone as the sunne was downe, Ioshúa commanded that they shulde take his carkeis downe from the tree, and cast it at the entring of the gate of the citie, and lay thereon a great heape of stones, [that remaineth] vnto this day.

30 ¶ Then Ioshúa buylt an altar vnto the Lord God of Israël, in mount Ebál:

31 As Moisés the seruant of the Lord had commanded the children of Israël, as it is written in the booke of the Lawe of Moisés, an altar of whole stone, ouer which no man had lift an yron: and they offred thereon burnt offrings vnto the Lord, & sacrificed peace offrings.

32 Also he wrote there vpon the stones a rehearsal of the Lawe of Moisés, which he wrote in the presence of the children of Israël.

33 And all Israël (and their Elders, & officers, & their iudges stode on this side of the Arke, & on that side, before the Priests of the Leuites, which bare the Arke of the couenant of the Lord) aswel the stranger, as he that is borne in the contrey: halfe of them [were] ouer against mount Gerizim, and halfe of them ouer against mount Ebál, as Moisés the seruant of the Lord had commanded before, that they shulde blesse the people of Israël.

34 Then afterward he red all the wordes of the Lawe, the blessings and cursings, according to all that is written in the booke of the Lawe.

35 There was not a worde of all that Moisés had commanded, which Ioshúa red not before all the Congregation of Israël, aswel [before] the women and the children, as the stranger that was conuerfant among them.

CHAP. IX.

Diuers Kings assemble them selues against Ioshua. 15 Ioshua maketh a league with them. 23 For their craft they are condemned to perpetual seruerie.

1 And when all the Kings that were beyond Iordén, in the mountaines & in the valleys, and by all the coastes of the great Sea ouer against Lebanón ([as] the Hittites, & the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Perizzites, the Hiuities, & the Iebusites) heard thereof,

2 They gathered them selues together, to fight against Ioshúa, & against Israël with one accord.

3 ¶ But the inhabitants of Gibeón heard what Ioshúa had done vnto Ierichó, and to Ai.

4 And therefore they wrought craftely: for they went, and fained them selues embassadors, and toke olde sackes vpon their asses, & olde bottels for wine, bothe rent & bounde vp,

5 And olde shoes and clouted vpon their fete: also the raiment vpon them [was] olde, & all their prouision of bread was dried, & moulded.

6 So they came vnto Ioshúa into the hoste to Gilgál, & said vnto him, and vnto the men of Israël, We be come from a farre countrey: now therefore make a league with vs.

7 Then the men of Israël said vnto the Hiuities, It may be that thou dwellest among vs, how then can I make a league with thee?

8 And they said vnto Ioshúa, We are thy seruants. Then Ioshúa said vnto them, Who are ye? & whence come ye?

9 And they answered him, From a very far contrey thy seruants are come for the Name of the Lord thy God: for we haue heard his fame, & all that he hath done in Egypt,

10 And all that he hath done to the two Kings of the Amorites that were beyond Iordén, to Sihón King of Heshbón, & to Og King of Bashán, which were at Ashtaróth.

11 Wherefore our Elders, and all the inhabitants of our countrey spake to vs, saying, Take vitailles with you for the iourney, & go to mete them, & say vnto them, We are your seruants: now therefore make ye a league with vs.

12 This our bread we toke it hot with vs for vitailles out of our houses, the day we departed to come vnto you: but now behold, it is dried, and it is moulded.

13 Also these bottels of wine which we filled, [were] new, & lo, they be rent: & these our garments and our shoes are olde, by reason of the exceeding great iourney.

14 ¶ And the men accepted [their tale] concerning their vitailles, & counseled not with the mouth of the Lord.

15 So Ioshúa made peace with them, and made a league with them, that he wolde suffer them to liue: also the Princes of the Congregation sware vnto them.

16 ¶ But at the end of thre dayes, after they had made a league with them, they heard that they were their neighbours, & that they dwelt among them.

17 And the children of Israël toke their iourjourney, and came vnto their cities the third day, & their cities [were] Gibeon, & Chephirah, & Beeroth & Kiriathcarim.

18 And the children of Israel slewe them not, because the Princes of the Congregation had sworne vnto them by ^y Lord God of Israel: wherefore all the Congregation murmured against the Princes.

19 Then all the Princes said vnto all the Congregation, We haue sworne vnto the by the Lord God of Israel: now therefore we may not touche them.

20 [But] this we wil do to them, & let them liue, lest the wrath be vpon vs, because of the ^k othe which we sware vnto them.

21 And the Princes said vnto them againe, Let them liue, but they shal hewe wood, & drawe water vnto all the Congregation, as the Princes appoint them.

22 Ioshua then called them, and talked wth them, and said, Wherefore haue ye beguiled vs, saying, We are verie farre from you, when ye dwel among vs?

23 Now therefore ye are cursed, and there shal none of you be freed fro being bondmen, and hewers of wood, and drawers of water for^l the house of my God.

24 And they answered Ioshua and said, Because it was tolde thy seruants, that the Lord thy God had * commanded his seruant Moses to giue you all the land, and to destroy all the inhabitants of the land out of your sight, therefore we were exceedingly afraid for our liues at ^y presence of you, & haue done this thing.

25 And beholde now we are in thine had: do as it semeth good & right in thine eyes to do vnto vs.

26 Euen so did he vnto them, and deliuered them out of the ^m hand of the children of Israel, that they slewe them not.

27 And Ioshua appointed them that same day [to be] hewers of wood, & drawers of water for the Congregation, and for the ^a altar of the Lord, vnto this day, in the place which he shulde chuse.

¶ CHAP. X.

1 Five Kings make warre against Gibeon whome Ioshua discomfith. 11 The Lord rained hailestones and slewe manie. 12 The sunne standeth at Ioshuas prayer. 26 The five Kings are hanged. 29 Many mo cities & Kings are destroyed.

NOW when Adoni-zedek King of Ierusalem had heard how Ioshua had taken Ai and had destroyed it, ([^{for}] as he had done to Iericho and to the King thereof, so he had done to * Ai and to the King thereof) and how the inhabitants of Gibeon had made peace with Israel, & were among them,

Then they feared exceedingly: for Gi-beon was a great citie, as one of the roial cities: for it was greater then Ai, and all the men thereof [were] mightie.

3 Wherefore * Adoni-zedek King of Ierusalem sent vnto Hoham King of Hebron, and vnto Piram King of Iarmuth, and vnto Iapia King of Lachish, and vnto Debir King of Eglon, saying,

4 Come vp vnto me, and helpe me, that we may smite Gibeon: for thei haue made peace with Ioshua and with the children of Israel.

5 Therefore the five Kings of the Amorites, the King of Ierusalem, the King of Hebron, the King of Iarmuth, the King of Lachish, [&] the King of Eglon gathered them selues together, & went vp, thei with all their hostes, & besieged Gibeon and made ^b warre against it.

6 And the meⁿ of Gibeon sent vnto Ioshua, [eu^e] to the hoste to Gilgal, saying, Withdrawe not thine hand from thy seruants: come vp to vs quickly, and saue vs, and helpe vs: for all the Kings of the Amorites which dwel in the mountaines, are gathered together against vs.

7 So Ioshua ascended from Gilgal, he and all the people of warre with him, and all the men of might.

8 ¶ And the Lord said vnto Ioshua, Feare them not: for I haue giuen them into thine hand: none of them shal stand against thee.

9 Ioshua therefore came vnto them sodenly: [^{for}] he went vp from Gilgal all the night.

10 And the Lord discomfited them before Israel, & slewe them with a great slaughter at Gibeon, and chased them along the way that goeth vp to Beth-horon, and smote them to Azekah & to Makkedah.

11 And as thei fled from before Israel, [&] were in the going downe to Beth-horon, ^y Lord cast downe great stones from heauen vpo them, vntil Azekah, & they dyed: [thei were] more that died with the ^a hayle stones, then they whome the children of Israel slewe with the sworde.

12 ¶ Then spake Ioshua to the Lord, in the day when the Lord gaue the Amorites before the children of Israel, and he said in the sight of Israel, * Sunne, staie thou in Gibeon, and thou moone, in the valley of Aialon.

13 And ^y sunne abode, & the moone stode stil, vntil the people auenged them selues vpo their enemies: (Is not this written in the boke of * Iasher?) so the sunne abode in the middes of the heauen, and hasted not to go downe for a whole day.

† Ioshua takes Makkedah.

14 And there was no daylike & before it, nor after it, that the Lord heard the voyce of a man: for the Lord fought for Israël.
15 ¶ After, Ioshua returned, and all Israël wth him vnto the campe to Gilgál:
16 But the fiue Kings fled and were hid in a caue at Makkedah.
17 And it was tolde Ioshua, saying, The fiue Kings are founde hid in a caue at Makkedah.
18 Then Ioshua said, Roule great stones vpon the mouthe of the caue, and set men by it for to kepe them.
19 But stand ye not stil: follow after your enemies, and † smite all the hindmost, suffer them not to entre into their cities: for the Lord your God hath giuen them into your hand.
20 And when Ioshua and the children of Israël had made an end of slaying them wth an exceeding great slaughter til they were consumed, and the rest that remained of them were entred into walled cities, 21 Then all the people returned to † campe, to Ioshua at Makkedah in peace: no man moued his tongue against the children of Israël.
22 After Ioshua said, Open the mouthe of † caue, and bring out these fiue Kings vnto me forth of the caue.
23 And thei did so, and brought out those fiue Kings vnto him forthe of the caue, [euery] the King of Ierusalém, the King of Hebrón, the King of Iarmúth, & King of Lachish, [and] the King of Eglón.
24 And when thei had brought out those Kings vnto Ioshua, Ioshua called for all the men of Israël, and said vnto the chief of the men of warre, which went with hī, Come nere, set your fete vpon † neckes of these Kings: and thei came nere & set their fete vpon their neckes.
25 And Ioshua said vnto them, Feare not, nor be faint hearted, [but] be strong & of a good courage: for thus will the Lord do to all your enemies, against whome ye fight.
26 So then Ioshua smote them, and slewe them, and hanged them on fiue trees, and thei hanged still vpon the trees vntil the euening.
27 And at the going downe of the sunne, Ioshua gaue commandement, that thei shulde take * them downe of the trees, & cast them into the caue [wherein thei had bene hid] and thei layed great stones vpon the caues mouth, [which remaine] vntil this day.
28 ¶ And that same day Ioshua toke † Mak-kedah and smote it with the edge of the sworde, and the King thereof destroyed he with them, and † all the soules & were therein he let none remayne: for he did to the King of Makkedah as he had done vnto the King of Ierichó.

29 ¶ Then Ioshua went from Makkedah, & all Israël with him vnto Libnah, & fought against Libnah.

30 And the Lord gaue † it also and the King thereof into the hand of Israël: & he smote it with the edge of the sworde & all the † soules & were therein: he let none remaine in it: for he did vnto the King thereof, as he had done vnto the King of Ierichó.

31 ¶ And Ioshua departed from Libnah, and all Israël with him vnto Lachish, and besieged it, and assalted it.

32 And the Lord gaue † Lachish into † hād of Israël, which toke it the seconde day, & smote it with the edge of the sworde, and all the soules that were therein, according to all as he had done to Libnah.

33 ¶ Then Horám King of † Gézer came vp to helpe Lachish: but Ioshua smote hī and his people, vntil none of his remained.

34 ¶ And from Lachish Ioshua departed vnto † Eglón, and all Israël with him, and thei besieged it, and assalted it.

35 And they toke it the same day, & smote it with the edge of the sworde, and all the soules that were therein he vtterly destroyed the same day, according to all that he had done to Lachish.

36 Then Ioshua went vp from Eglón, and all Israël with him vnto Hebrón, and they fought against it.

37 And when they had takē † it, they smote it with the edge of the sworde, and the King thereof, and all the cities thereof, & all the soules that were therein: he left none remaining, according to all as he had done to Eglón: for he destroyed it vtterly, and all the soules that were therein.

38 ¶ So Ioshua returned, and all Israël with him to Debir, and fought against it.

39 And when he had taken † it, & the King thereof, and all the cities thereof, they smote them with the edge of the sworde, and vtterly destroyed all the soules that were therein, he let none remaine: as he did to Hebrón, so he did to Debir, and to the King thereof, as he had also done to Libnah, and to the King thereof.

40 ¶ So Ioshua smote all the hyl countreis and the Southcountreis, and the valleys, and the hīl sides, and all their Kings, and let none remaine, but vtterly destroyed euery soule, as the Lord God of Israël

¶ CHAP. XI.

2 Diuers Kings, and cities, and countreies ouercome by Ioshua. 15 Ioshua did al that Moses had commanded him. 20 God hardeneth the enemies heartes that they might be destroyed.

1 ANd when Iabín King of Hazór had heard this, then he ^a sent to Iobáb King of Madón, & to the King of Shimrón, and to the King of Achshaph,

2 And vnto the Kings that were by the North in the mountaines & plaines toward the Southside of^b Cinneróth, and in the valleis, and in the borders of Dor Westwarde,

3 [And] vnto the Canaanites, [bothe] by East, & by West, and vnto the Amorites, & Hittites, & Perizzites, and Iebusites in the mountaines, and vnto the Hiuites vnder^c Hermón in the land of Mizpéh.

4 And they came out and all their hostes with them, many people as the sand that is on the seashore for multitude, with horses and charets exceeding many.

5 So all these Kings met together, & came and pitched together at the waters of Meróm, for to fight against Israël.

6 ¶ The Lord said vnto Ioshua, Be not afraid for them: for to morowe about this time wil I deliuer them all slaine before Israël: thou shalt ^d hough their horses, & burne their charets with fire.

7 Then came Ioshua and all the men of warre with him against them by the waters of Meróm sodenly, and fell vpon them.

8 And the Lord gaue them into the hand of Israël: and they smote them, and chased them vnto great Zidón, and vnto^e Misrephóthmaim, and vnto the valley of Mizpéh Eastwarde, & smote them vntil they had none remaining of them.

9 And Ioshua did vnto them as the Lord bade him: he houghed their horses, and burnt their charets with fire.

10 ¶ At that time also Ioshua turned backe, and toke Hazór, and smote the King thereof with the sworde: for Hazór beforetime was the head of all those Kingdomes.

11 Moreouer they smote all the ^f persones that were therein with the edge of the sworde, vtterly destroying [all], leauing none aliue, & he burnt Hazór with fire.

12 So all the cities of those Kings, and all the Kings of them did Ioshua take, and smote the with the edge of the sworde, [and] vtterly destroyed them, ^g as Moses the seruant of the Lord had commanded.

13 But Israël burnt none of the cities that stode stil in their ^h strength, saue Hazór onely, that Ioshua burnt.

14 And all the spoyle of these cities and the cattel the children of Israël toke for their praye, but they smote euerie ⁱ man with ^j edge of the sworde vntil they had destroyed them, not leauing one aliue.

15 ¶ As the Lord ^k had commanded Moses his seruant, so did Moses ^k commande Ioshua, & so did Ioshua: he left nothing vndone of all that the Lord had commanded Moses.

16 So Ioshua toke all this land of the mountaines, and all the South, and all the land of Goshén, and the low countrey, and the plaine, and the ^l mountaine of Israël, and the lowe countrey of the same,

17 From the mount ^k Halak, that goeth vp to Seir, euen vnto ^l Baal-gád in the valley of Lebanón, vnder mount Hermón: and all their Kings he toke, and smote them, and slewe them.

18 Ioshua made warre long time with all those Kings,

19 Nether was there any citie that made peace with the children of Israël, ^m saue those Hiuites that inhabited Gibeón: all [other] they toke by battel.

20 For it came of ⁿ the Lord, to ^o harden their heartes that they shulde come against Israël in battel, to the intent that they shulde destroy them vtterly, [and] shewe them no mercy, but that they shulde bring them to noght: as the Lord had commanded Moses.

21 ¶ And that same season came Ioshua, and destroyed the Anakims out of the mountaines: [as] out of Hebrón, out of Debír, out of Anáb, & out of all ^p mountaines of Iudáh, and out of the mountaines of Israël: Ioshua destroyed them vtterly with their cities.

22 There was no Anakim left in the land of the children of Israël: onely in Azzáh, ^q in Gath, and Ashdód were they left.

23 So Ioshua toke the whole land, according to all that the Lord had said vnto Moses: and Ioshua gaue it for an inheritance vnto Israël ^r according to their portions through their tribes: then the land was at rest without warre.

5 * As the Lord had commanded Moses, so the children of Israel did when they deuided the land.

6 ¶ Then the children of Judah came vnto Ioshua in Gilgal: and Caleb the sonne of Iephunnéh the Kenezite said vnto him, Thou knowest what the Lord said vnto Moses the man of God, concerning me and thee in Kadesh-barnéa.

7 Fourty yere olde was I, when Moses the seruant of the Lord sent me from Kadesh-barnéa to espy the land, and I broght him worde againe, as [I thought] in mine heart.

9 Wherefore Moses sware the same day, saying, Certainely the land whereon thy fete haue troden, shal be thine inheritance, and thy childrens for euer, because thou hast followed constantly the Lord my God.

10 Therefore beholde now, the Lord hath kept me aliue, as he promised: this is the fourty and fift yere since the Lord spake this thing vnto Moses, while the children of Israel wandred in the wilderness: and now lo, I am this day fourscore and fife yere olde:

4 From thence went it a long to Azmón, & reached vnto the riuer of Egypt, & the end of that coast was on the Westside: this shalbe your Southcoast.

 8 And this border goeth from Tappuah Westward vnto the riuer Kanah, and the ends thereof are at the Sea: this is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Ephraim by their families.
 9 And the separate cities for the children of Ephraim [were] among the inheritance of the children of Manasseh: all the cities with their villages.
 10 And they cast not out the Canaanite that dwelt in Gêzer; but the Canaanite dwelleth among the Ephraimites vnto this day, and serue vnder tribute.

CHAP. XVII.

1 The portion of the half tribe of Manasse. 2 The daughters of Zelophehad. 3 The Canaanites are become tributaries. 4 Manasseh and Ephraim require a greater portion of heritage.

1 This was also the lot of the tribe of Manasseh; for he was the first borne of Ioseph, [to wit] of Machir first borne of Manasseh, [and] the father of Gilead: now because he was a man of warre, he had Gilead and Bashan.
 2 And also of the rest of the sonnes of Manasseh by their families, [euery] of the sonnes of Abiezer, and of the sonnes of Helek, and of the sonnes of Azriel, and of the sonnes of Shechem, and of the sonnes of Hepher, and of the sonnes of Shemida: these [were] the males of Manasseh, the sonne of Ioseph, according to their families.
 3 But Zelophehad the sonne of Hepher, the sonne of Gilead, the sonne of Machir, the sonne of Manasseh, had no sonnes, but daughters: and these are the names of his daughters, Malhah, and Noah, Hoglah, Milchah and Tirzah.
 4 Which came before Eleazar the Priest, and before Ioshua the sonne of Nun, and before the princes, saying, The Lord commanded Moses to giue vs an inheritance among our brethren: therefore according to the commandement of the Lord he gaue them an inheritance among the brethren of their father.

 5 And there fell ten portions to Manasseh, beside the land of Gilead and Bashan, which is on the other side Iorden;
 6 Because the daughters of Manasseh did inherit among his sonnes; and Manassehs other sonnes had the land of Gilead.
 7 So the borders of Manasseh were from Asher to Michmethah which lieth before Shechem, & this border goeth on right hand, euery vnto the inhabitants of En-tappuah.
 8 The land of Tappuah belonged to Manasseh, but Tappuah beside the border of Manasseh [belongeth] to the sonnes of Ephraim.
 9 Also this border goeth downe vnto the riuer Kanah Southward to the riuer: these cities of Ephraim [are] among the cities of Manasseh; and the border of Manasseh [is] on the Northside of the riuer, and the ends of it are at the Sea.
 10 The South pertaineth to Ephraim, and the North to Manasseh, and the Sea is his border: and they met together in Asher Northward, and in Issachar Eastward.
 11 And Manasseh had in Issachar and in Asher, Beth-shean, and her townes, and Ibleam, and her townes, and the inhabitants of Dor with the townes thereof, & the inhabitants of En-dor with the townes thereof, and the inhabitants of Thaanach with her townes, and the inhabitants of Megiddo with the townes of the same, [euery] three countries.
 12 Yet the children of Manasseh could not destroy those cities, but the Canaanites dwelled still in that land.
 13 Neuertheles, when the children of Israel were strong, they put the Canaanites vnder tribute, but cast them not out wholly.
 14 Then the children of Ioseph spake vnto Ioshua, saying, Why hast thou giuen me but one lot, and one portion to inherit, seeing I am a great people, for as much as the Lord hath blessed me hitherto?
 15 Ioshua then answered them, if thou be much people, get thee vp to the wood, and cut trees: for thy self there in the land of the Perizzites, and of the gyants, if mount Ephraim be too narrow for thee.
 16 Then the children of Ioseph said, The mountaine will not be ynough for vs: & all the Canaanites that dwell in the lowe countrey haue charrets of yron, aswell they in Beth-shean, & in the townes of the same, as they in the valley of Izreel.
 17 And Ioshua spake vnto the house of Ioseph,

1 The Tabernacle set in Shiloh. 4 Certaine are sent to deuide the land to the other ſeuen tribes. 11 The lot of the children of Benjamin.

1 AND the whole Congregation of the children of Israel came together at Shiloh: for they set vp the ^a Tabernacle of the Congregation there, after the land was subiect vnto them.

2 Now there remained among the childre of Israel ſeuen tribes, to whome ^b they had not deuided their inheritance.

3 Therefore Ioshua ſaid vnto the children of Israel, How long are ye ſo ſlacke to entre and poſſeſſe the land which the Lord God of your fathers hath giuen you?

4 Giue from among you for [euery] tribe thre men, that I may ſend them, and that they may riſe, and walke through the lad, and diſtribute it according to ^c their inheritance, and returne to me.

5 And that they may deuide it vnto them into ſeuen partes. (Judah ſhall abide in his coaſt at the South, and the houſe of Ioseph ſhall ^d ſtand in their coaſtes at the North)

6 Ye ſhal deſcribe the land therefore into ſeuen partes, and ſhal bring them hether to me, and I wil caſt lottes for you here before the ^e Lord our God.

7 But the Leuites ſhal haue no part among you: for the ^f Priethode of the Lord is their inheritance: alſo Gad and Reuben and halfe the tribe of Manasse haue receiued their inheritance beyonde Iorden Eaſtward, which Moſes the ſeruant of the Lord gaue them.

8 ¶ Then the men aroſe, and went their way: and Ioshua charged them that went to deſcribe the land, ſaying, Departe, and go through the land, and ^g deſcribe it, and returne to me, that I may here caſt lottes for you before the Lord in Shiloh.

9 So the me departed, and paſſed through the land, and deſcribed it by cities into ſeuen partes in a booke, and returned to Ioshua into the campe at Shiloh.

10 ¶ Then Ioshua ^h caſt lottes for them in Shiloh before the Lord, and there Ioshua deuided the land vnto the children of Israel according to their portions:

11 ¶ And the lot of the tripe of the childre of Benjamin came forth according to their families, and the coaſt of their lot lay ⁱ betwene the children of Iudah, and the children of Ioseph.

12 And their coaſt on the Northſide was from Iorden, and the border went vp to the ſide of Iericho on the Northparte, & went vp through the mountaines Weſtward, and the ends thereof are in the wilderness of Beth-aue:

13 And this border goeth along from thece to Luz, [euen] to the Southſide of Luz (the ſame is ^k Bethel) and this border deſcendeth to Atroth-addar, nere the mou, that lieth on the Southſide of Beth-horon the nether.

14 So the border turneth, and compaſſeth the corner of the Sea Southward, from the mount ^l lieth before Beth-horon Southward: and the ends thereof are at Kiriath-baal (which is Kiriath-earim) a cite of the children of Iudah: this is the Weſt-quarter.

15 And the Southquarter [is] from the end of Kiriath-earim, and this border goeth out [†] Weſtward, and cometh to the founteine of waters of Nephtoi.

42 These cities lay euerie one [seuerally] wth their suburbs rounde about them: so were all these cities.

¶ CHAP. XXII.

1 Reuben, Gad, and the halfe tribe of Manassé are sent againe to their possessions. 10 They buyd^e an altar for a memorial. 15 The Israëlites reprove them. 21 Their answer for defense of the same.

1 ¶ Then Ioshua called the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and the halfe tribe of Manassé,

2 And said vnto thē, Ye haue kept all that Moses the seruant of the Lord^b commanded you, and haue obeyed my voyce in all that I commanded you:

3 Ye haue not forsaken your brethren this long season vnto this day, but haue diligently kept the commandment of ^h Lord your God.

4 And now the Lord hath giuen rest vnto your brethren as he promised them: therefore now returne ye and go to your tentes, to the land of your possession, which Moses the seruant of the Lord^c hath giuen you beyonde Iordén.

5 But take diligent head, to do the commandment and Lawe, which Moses the seruant of the Lord commanded you: [that is,] that ye loue the Lord your God, and walke in all his wayes, and kepe his comandements, and cleaue vnto him, and serue him with all your heart and with all your soule.

6 So Ioshua^d blessed them and sent them away, and they went vnto their tentes.

7 ¶ Now vnto [one] halfe of the tribe of Manassé Moses had giuen [a possession] in Bashán: & vnto the [other] halfe thereof gaue Ioshua among their brethren on this side Iordén Westwarde: therefore when Ioshua sent them away vnto their tentes, and blessed them,

8 Thus he spake vnto them, saying, Returne with much riches vnto your tentes, and with a great multitude of cattel, with silver and with golde, with brasse and with yron, and with great abundance of rayment: deuide the spoyle of your enemies with your^e brethren.

9 ¶ So the children of Reubén, & the children of Gad, and halfe the tribe of Manassé returned, and departed from the children of Israël from Shiloh (whiche is in the land of Canaan) to go vnto the countrey of Gileád to the land of their possession, which they had obtained according to the worde of the Lord by the hand of Moses.

10 ¶ And when they came vnto [†] the borders of Iordén (which are in the land of Canaan) then the children of Reubén, & the children of Gad, and the halfe tribe of Manassé, buyt^f there an altar by Iordén, a great altar to se to.

11 ¶ When the children of Israël heard say, Beholde, the children of Reubén, and the children of Gad, and the halfe tribe of Manassé haue buyt an altar in the forefront of the land of Canaan vpon the borders of Iordén at the passage of the children of Israël:

12 When the children of Israël heard it, then the whole Congregation of the children of Israël gathered them together at Shiloh to go ^g vp to warre against them.

13 Then the children of Israël sent vnto^h the children of Reubén, and to the children of Gad, and to the halfe tribe of Manassé in the land of Gileád, Phineás the sonne of Eleazar the Priest,

14 And with him tē princes, of euerie chief house a prince, according to all the tribes of Israël: for euerie one [was] chief of their fathers houtholde among the ⁱ thousandes of Israël.

15 ¶ So they went vnto the childre of Reuben, and to the children of Gad, and to the halfe tribe of Manassé, vnto the land of Gileád, and spake with them, saying, and they said, [We are] witnesses.

24 And the people said vnto Ioshua, The Lord our God wil we serue, and his voyce

25 So Ioshua made a couenant with the people the same day, and gaue them an or-26 And Ioshua wrote these wordes in the booke of the Lawe of God, & toke a great stone, and pitched it there vnder an ioke that was in the Sanctuarie of the Lord.

27 And Ioshua said vnto all the people, Be-

THE BOKE OF IVDGES

THE ARGUMENT.

Albeit there is nothing that more prouoketh Gods wrath, then mans ingratitude, yet is there nothing so displeasing and heinous that can turne backe Gods loue from his Church. For now when the Israelites were carried into the land of Canaan, and saue the trueth of Gods promise performed, instead of acknowledging his great benefites and geuing thanks for the same, they fell to moste horrible obliuion of Gods graces, contrary to their solempne promes made vnto Ioshua, and so prouoked his vengeance (as muche as in them stood) to their vtter destruction. What if as they had moste euident signes of the mutabilitie of their state, (for he suffered them to be moste cruelly vexed and tormented by tyrants; he pulled them from libertie, and cast them into slauerie, to the intent they might feele their owne misfories and so call vnto him and be deliuered) Yet to shewe that his mercies indure for euer, he raised vp from time to time such as shulde deliuer them and assure them of his fauour and grace, if they woulde turne to him by true repentance. And these deliuerers the Scripture calleth Iudges, because they were executers of Gods iudgements, not chosen of the people nor by succession, but raised vp, as it seemed best to God, for the gouernance of his people. They were twelue in number besides Ioshua, & gouerned fro Ioshua vnto Saul the first King of Israel. Ioshua and these vnto the time of Saul ruled 336 yeres. In this booke are manie notable points declared, but two especially: first, the battell that the Church of God hath for the maintenance of true religion against idolatrie and superstitiousness, which great danger that continueth wealth in in, when a God giueth not a magistrate to retaine his people in the purges of religion and his true seruice.

CHAP. I.

1 After Ioshua was dead, Iudah was constituted captain.
 6 Adoni-bezek is taken. 14 The request of Achish. 16
 The children of Keni. 19 The Canaanites are made prisoners, but not destroyed.

fter that Ioshua was dead, the childre of Israel asked the Lord, saying, Who shal go vp for vs against the Canaanites, to fight
 first against them?

2 And the Lord said,
 Iudah shal go vp: beholde, I haue giuen land into his hand.

3 And Iudah said vnto Simeon his brother, Come vp with me into my lot, that we may fight against the Canaanites: and I likewise wil go with thee into thy lot: so Simeon went with him.

4 Then Iudah went vp, and the Lord deli-uered the Canaanites and the Perizzites into their hands, and they slewe of them in Bezek ten thousand men.

5 And they founde Adoni-bezek in Bézek: and they fought against him, and slew the Canaanites and the Perizzites.

6 But Adoni-bezek fled, and they pursued after him, and caught him, and cut of the thumbes of his hands and of his fete.

7 And Adoni-bezek said, Seuentie Kings hauing the thumbes of their hands and of their fete cut of, gathered bread vnder my table: as I haue done, so God hath rewarded me. So they brought him to Ierusalem, and there he dyed.

8 (Now the children of Iudah had fought against Ierusalem, and had taken it, and smitten it with the edge of the sword, and had set the citie on fire)

9 Afterwarde also the children of Iudah went downe to fight against the Canaanites, that dwelt in the mountaine, and tow-arde the South, and in the lowe countrey.

10 And Iudah wēt against the Canaanites that dwelt in Hebrón, which Hebrón be-foretime was called Kirjath-arba: and they slewe Shephai, and Ahiman & Tal-

11 And from thence he went to the inhabitants of Debir, and the name of Debir in olde time [was] Kirjath-sopher.

21 But the children of Benjamin did not cast out the Iebusites, that *inhabited Jerusalem: therefore the Iebusites dwell with the children of Benjamin in Jerusalem vnto this day.

22 ¶ The also that were of the house of Ioseph, went vp to Beth-el, and the Lord [was] with them.

23 And the house of Ioseph caused to ye-we Beth-el (and the name of the cite beforetime [was] *Luz)

24 And the spies sawe a man come out of the cite, & they said vnto him, Shewe vs, we pray thee, the way into the cite, *and we wil shewe the mercie.

30 ¶ Neither did Zebulun expel the inhabitants of Kitron, nor the inhabitants of Nahalol, but the Canaanites dwelt among them, and became tributaries.

31 ¶ Neither did Asher cast out the inhabitants of Acco, nor the inhabitants of Zidon, nor of Ahlab, nor of Rehob, nor of Helbah, nor of Aphik, nor of Rehob, 32 But the Asherites dwell among the Canaanites the inhabitants of the land: for they did not driue them out.

33 ¶ Neither did Naphtali driue out the inhabitants of Beth-shean, nor the inhabitants of Beth-anath, but dwell among the Canaanites the inhabitants of the land: neuertheles the inhabitants of Beth-shean, and of Beth-anath became tributaries vnto them.

34 And the Amorites †droue the children of Dan into the mountaine: so that they suffred them not to come downe to the valley.

35 And the Amorites †dwelt still in mount Heres in Aialon, & in Shaalbim, & whē the *hand of Iosephs familie preuailed, they became tributaries.

36 And the coast of the Amorites was fro Maaleh-akrabbim, [euen] from Selah & vpwarde.

CHAP. II.

1 The Angel rebuketh the people, because they had made peace with the Canaanites. 11 The Israelites set to idolatry after Ioshuas death. 14 They are deliuered into the enemies hands. 16 God deliuereth them by Iudges: 17 VVhy God suffered idolaters to remaine among them.

3 Wherefore, I said also, I will not cast the out before you, but they shalbe * [as thornes] vnto your sides, and their gods shalbe your † destruction.

4 And when the Angel of the Lord spake these wordes vnto all the children of Israel, the people lift vp their voyce, and wept.

5 Therefore they called the name of that place, † Bochim, and offred sacrifices there vnto the Lord.

8 But Ioshua the sonne of Nun the seruant of the lord dyed, when he was an hūdreth and ten yeres olde.

11 ¶ The children of Israel did wickedly in the sight of the Lord, and serued Baalim:

12 And forsaake the Lord God of their fathers, which broght them out of the land of Egypt, & followed other gods, [euē] the gods of the people that were round about them, and bowed vnto them, and prouoked the Lord to angre.

13 So they forsoke the Lord, & serued Baal and Asherah.

14 And the wrath of the Lord was hote against Israel, and he deliuered them into the hands of spoilers, that spoiled them, & he sold them into the hands of their enemies round about them, so that they coulde no longer stand before their enemies.

15 Whether soeuer they went out, the hand of the Lord was sore against them, as the Lord had said, & as the Lord had sworn vnto them, so he punished them sore.

16 ¶ Notwithstanding, the Lord raised vp Iudges, which deliuered them out of the hands of their oppressors.

17 But yet they wolde not obey their Iudges: for they went a whoring after other gods, and worshipped them, & turned quickly out of the way, wherein their fathers walked, obeying the commandments of the Lord: they did not so.

18 And when the Lord had raised them vp Iudges, the Lord was with the Iudge, & deliuered them out of the hand of their enemies all the daies of the Iudge (for the Lord had compassion of their groanings, because of them that oppressed them & tormented them)

19 Yet when the Iudge was dead, they returned, and did worse then their fathers, in following other gods to serue them & worship them: they ceased not from their owne inuentions, nor from their rebellious way.

20 Wherefore the wrath of the Lord was kindled against Israel, & he said, Because this people hath transgressed my covenant, which I commanded their fathers, and hath not obeyed my voyce,

21 Therefore wil I no more cast out before them any of the nations, which Ioshua left when he dyed, 22 That through them I may proue Israel, whether they wil kepe the way of the Lord, to walke therein, as their fathers kept it, or not.

23 So the Lord left those nations, & droue them not out immediately, nether deliuered them into the hand of Ioshua.

CHAP. III.

1 The Canaanites were left to trye Israel. 9 Othniel deliuereth Israel. 21 Ehud killeth King Eglon. 31 Shamgar killeth the Philistines.

1 These now are the nations which the Lord left, that he might proue Israel by them (euē) as many [of Israel] as had not knowen all the warres of Canaan.

4 And these remained to proue Israel by them, to wit, whether they wolde obey the commandments of the Lord, which he commanded their fathers by the hand of Moses.

5 And the children of Israel dwelt among the Canaanites, the Hittites, & the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hittites, and the Iebusites:

6 And they toke their daughters to be their wiues, and gaue their daughters to their sonnes, and serued their gods.

7 ¶ So the children of Israel did wickedly in the sight of the Lord, and forgate the Lord their God, and serued Baalim, and Asherah.

8 Therefore the wrath of the Lord was kindled against Israel, and he sold them into the hand of Chushan rishathaim King of Aram naharaim, & the children of Israel serued Chushan rishathaim eight yeres.

9 ¶ And when the children of Israel cryed vnto the Lord, the Lord stirred vp a saviour to the children of Israel, and he saued them, [euē] Othniel the sonne of Kenaz, Calebs yonger brother.

10 And the Spirit of the Lord came vpon him, and he iudged Israel, & went out to warre: & the Lord deliuered Chushan rishathaim King of Aram into his hand, and his hand preuailed against Chushan rishathaim.

11 So the land had rest fourtie yeres, and Othniel the sonne of Kenaz dyed.

12 ¶ Then the children of Israel againe committed wickednes in the sight of the Lord: and the Lord strengthened Eglon King of Moab against Israel, because they had committed wickednes before the Lord.

13 And he gathered vnto him the children of Ammon, and Amalek, and went and smote Israel, and they possessed the cite 14 So the children of Israel served Eglón King of Moab eightene yeres.

15 But when the children of Israel cryed vnto the Lord, the Lord stirred them vp a sauour, Ehúd the sonne of Gerá the sonne of Iemini, a man lame of his right hand: and the children of Israel sent a present by him vnto Eglón King of Moab.

16 And Ehúd made him a dagger with two edges of a cubite length, and he did gird it vnder his rayment vpon his right thigh,

17 And he presented the gift vnto Eglón King of Moab (and Eglón [was] a very fat man)

18 And whē he had now presented the present, he sent away the people that bare the present,

19 But he turned againe from the quarries, that were by Gilgál, and said, I haue a secret earand vnto thee, ô King. Who said, Kepe silence: and all that stode about him, went out from him.

20 Then Ehúd came vnto him, (& he sate alone in a former parlar, which he had) & Ehúd said, I haue a message vnto thee frō God. Then he arose out of his throne,

21 And Ehúd put forth his left hand, and toke the dagger from his right thigh, and thrust it into his belly, 22 So that the harte went in after the blade: and the fat closed about the blade, so that he colde not drawe the dagger out of his belly, but the dirt came out.

23 Then Ehúd gate him out into the porch, and shut the dores of the parlar vpon him, and locked them.

24 And when he was gone out, his seruants came: who seing that the dores of the parlar were locked, thei said, Surely he doeth his easement in his former chambre.

25 And thei taryed til thei were ashamed: and seing he opened not the dores of the parlar, thei toke the keye, & opened them, and beholde, their lord was fallen dead on the earth.

26 So Ehúd escaped (while thei taryed) & was passed the quarries, and escaped vnto Scirath.

27 And when he came home, he blew a trumpet in mount Ephraim, and the children of Israel went downe with him from the mountaine, and he went before them.

28 Then said he vnto them, Followe me: for the Lord hath deliuered your enemies, [euē] Moab into your hand. So they went downe after him, and toke the passages of Iordan toward Moab, and suffred not a man to passe ouer.

29 And they slewe of the Moabites the same time about ten thousand men, all fed men, and all [were] warriors, and there escaped not a man.

30 So Moab was subdued that day, vnder the hand of Israel: and the land had rest foure score yeres.

31 ¶ And after him was Shamgár the sonne of Anáth, which slewe of the Philistims sixe hundred men with an oxegoad, & he also deliuered Israel.

1 Israel sinne & are given into the hands of Iabin. 4 Deborah iudgeth Israel and exhorteth Barak to deliuer the people. 15 Siserá fleeth, 17 And is killed by Iael.

1 And the children of Israel began againe to do wickedly in the sight of the Lord when Ehúd was dead.

2 And the Lord solde them into the hand of Iabin King of Canaan, that reigned in Hazór, whose chief captaine [was called] Siserá, which dwelt in Harosheth of the Gentiles.

3 Then the children of Israel cryed vnto the Lord: (for he had nine hundred charrets of yron, and twentie yeres he had vexed the children of Israel very fore)

4 ¶ And at that time Deborah a Prophetesse the wife of Lapidóth iudgeth Israel.

5 And this Deborah dwelt vnder a palmtree, betwene Ramáh & Beth-él in mount Ephraim, & the children of Israel came vp to her for iudgement.

6 Then she sent, and called Barák the sonne of Abinóam out of Kédesh of Naphtali, & said vnto him, Hathe not the Lord God of Israel commanded [saying], Go, and drawe toward mount Tabór, & take with thee ten thousand men of the children of Naphtali and of the children of Zebulún?

7 And I wil drawe vnto thee to the triuer Kishón, Siserá, the captaine of Iabins armie with his charrets, and his multitude, & wil deliuer him into thine hand.

8 And Barák said vnto her, If thou wilt go with me, I wil go: but if thou wilt not go with me, I wil not go.

9 Then she answered, I wil surely go with thee, but this iourney that thou takest, shall not be for thine honour: for the Lord shall sell Siserá into the hand of a woman. And Deborah arose and went with Barák to Kédesh.

13 And Siſerá called for all his charrets, [euen] nine hundred charrets of yron, & all [¶] people that were with him [¶] to Haroſhéth of the Gentiles, vnto the riuer Kiſhón.

14 Then Deborah ſaid vnto Barák, [¶] Vp: for this is the day that the Lord hath deliuered Siſerá into thine hand. Is not the Lord gone out before thee? ſo Barák wēt downe from mount Tabór, & ten thouſand men after him.

15 And the Lord deſtroyed Siſerá and all his charrets, & all his hoſte with the edge of the ſworde, before Barák, ſo that Siſerá lighted downe of his charret, & fled away on his fete.

16 But ^aBarák purſued after the charrets, and after the hoſte vnto Haroſhéth of the Gentiles: and all the hoſte of Siſerá fel vpon the edge of the ſworde: there was not a man left.

17 Howbeit, Siſerá fled away on his fete to the tent of Iaél the wife of ^bHebér the Kenite: (for peace [was] betwene Iabin the King of Hazór, and betwene the houſe of Hebér the Kenite)

18 And Iaél went out to mete Siſerá, and ſaid vnto him, Turne in my Lord, turne in to me: feare not. And when he had turned in vnto her into her tent, ſhe couered him with a [†]mantel.

19 And he ſaid vnto her, Giue me, I pray thee, a litle water to drinke: for I am thirſty. And ſhe opened ^aa bottle of milke & gaue him drinke, and couered him.

20 Again he ſaid vnto her, Stande in the dore of the tent, & when anie man doeth come and enquire of thee, ſaying, Is ^aany man here? thou ſhalt ſay, Nay.

21 Then Iaél Hebers wife toke a ^anaile of the tent, and toke an hammer in her hand, and went ſoftly vnto him, and ſmote the naile into his temples, and faſtened it into the grounde, (for he was ſaſt a ſleepe, & wearie) and [ſo] he dyed.

hath forsaken vs, and deliuered vs into hand of the Midianites.

14 And the Lord looked vpon him, & said,
Go in this thy might, and thou shalt saue Israel out of the handes of the Midianites:
haue not I sent thee?

15 And he answered him, Ah my Lord, whereby shal I saue Israel? beholde my father is poore in Manassah, and I am the least in my fathers house.

16 Then the Lord said vnto him, I wil therefore be with thee, and thou shalt smite the Midianites, as one man.

17 And he answered him, I pray thee, if I haue soude fauour in thy sight, the shewe me a signe, that thou talkest with me.

18 Departe not hence, I pray thee, vntil I come vnto thee, and bring mine offering, & lay it before thee: And he said, I wil tary vntil thou come againe.

19 Then Gideon went in, & made ready a kid, & vnleauened bread of an Ephah of flour, and put the flesh in a basket, & put the broth in a pot, and brought it out vnto him vnder the oke, and presented it.

20 And the Angel of God said vnto him,
Take the flesh and the vnleauened bread, and lay them vpon this stone, and powre out the broth: and he did so.

21 Then the Angel of the Lord put forth the end of the staffe that he held in his hand, and touched the flesh, and the vnleauened bread: & there arose vp fire out of the stone, and consumed the flesh & the vnleauened bread: so the Angel of the Lord departed out of his sight.

22 And when Gideon perceiued that it was an Angel of the Lord, Gideon then said, Alas, my Lord God: for because I haue sene an Angel of the Lord face to face, I shal dye.

23 And the Lord said vnto him, Peace be vnto thee: feare not, thou shalt not dye.

24 Then Gideon made an altar there vnto the Lord, and called it, Jehonahab: for vnto this day it is in Ophrah, of the father of the Ezrites.

25 And the same night the Lord said vnto him, Take thy fathers yong bullocke, & another bullocke of seuen yeres olde, & destroy the altar of Baal that thy father hath, and cut downe the groue that is by it.

26 And buyde an altar vnto the Lord thy God vpon the top of this rocke, in a plaine place: and take the seconde bullocke, and offer a burni offering with the wood of the groue, which thou shalt cut downe.

27 Then Gideon toke twen men of his ser-uants, and did as the Lord bad him: but because he feared to do it by day for his fathers householde and the men of the ci-tie, he did it by night.

28 ¶ And when the men of the cite arose early in the morning, beholde, the altar of Baal was broken, and growe out downe that was by it, and the seconde bullocke offred vpon the altar that was made.

29 Therefore they said one to another, Who hath done this thing? & when they inquired and asked, they said, Gideon the sonne of Ioash hath done this thing.

30 Then the men of the cite said vnto Ioash, Bring out thy sonne, that he may dye:
for he hath destroyed the altar of Baal, & hath also ear downe the groue that was
by it.

31 And Ioash said vnto all that stood by him, Wil ye pleade Baals cause, or wil ye saue him: he that wil contend for him, let him dye of the morning, if he be God:
let him pleade for him selfe against him, if hath cast downe his altar.

32 And in that day was Gideon called Te-rubbaal, that is, Let Baal pleade for him selfe because he hath broken downe his altar.

33 Then all the Midianites and the Amal-kites, and they of the East, were gathered together, & went and pitched in the valley of Iared.

34 But the Spirit of the Lord came vpon Gideon, & he blewe a trumpet, & Abie-zer was ioyned with him.

35 And he sent messengers through out all Manassah, which also was ioyned with him, and he sent messengers vnto Asher, and to Zebulun, & to Naphtali, & they came vp to mete them.

36 Then Gideon said vnto God, If thou wilt saue Israel by mine hand, as thou hast said,

37 Beholde, I wil put a fleece of wolle in the threshing place: if the dew come on the fleece onely, & it be drye vpon all the earth, then shal I be sure, that thou wilt saue Israel by mine hand, as thou hast said.

38 And so it was: for he rose vp early on the morowe, and thrust the fleece together, & wringed the dew out of the fleece, & filled a bowle of water.

39 Againe Gideon said vnto God, Be not angry with me, that I may speake once more: let me proue once againe, I pray thee, with a fleece, let it now be drye onely vpon the fleece, & let dew be vpon all the grounde.

40 And God did so that same night: for it was drye vpon the fleece onely, & there was dewe on all the grounde.

The Lord commandeth Gideon to send away a great parte of his companie. 21 The Midianites are discomfited by a wonderous sorte. 24 Oreb and Zeeb are slaine.

Then Jerubbaal (who is Gideon) rose vp early and all the people that were with him, and pitched beside the well of Harod, so that the hoste of the Midianites was on the Northside of them in the valley by the hill of Moreh.

And the Lord said vnto Gideon, The people that are with thee are too manie for me to giue the Midianites into their handes, lest Israel make their vantage against me, and say, Mine hand hath saved me. Now therefore proclaime in the audience of the people, & say, Whofo is timorous or fearful, let him returne, and departe early fro mount Gilead. And there returned of the people which were at mount Gilead, two & twentie thousand: so ten thousand remained.

And the Lord said vnto Gideon, The people are yet too manie: bring the downe vnto the water, and I wil trye them for thee there: and of whome I say vnto thee, This man shal go with thee, the same shal go with thee: and of whome I say vnto thee, This man shal not go with thee, the same shal not go.

So he brought downe the people vnto the water. And the Lord said vnto Gideon, As manie as lappe the water with their tongues as a dog lappeth, them put by them selues, & euerie one that shal bowe downe his knees to drinke, [put aparte.] And the number of them that lapped [by putting] their hands to their mouthes, [were] thre hundred men: but all the remnant of the people knelt downe vpon their knees to drinke water.

Then the Lord said vnto Gideon, By these thre hundred men that lapped, wil I saue you, and deliuer the Midianites into thine hand: & let all the other people go euerie man vnto his place.

So the people toke vitails with them, and their trumpets: and he sent all the rest of Israel, euerie man vnto his tent, & returned the thre hundred men: & the hoste of Midian was beneth him in a valley.

And the same night the Lord said vnto him, Arise, get thee downe vnto the hoste: for I haue deliuered it into thine hand. But if thou feare to go downe, then go thou & Phurah thy seruant downe to the hoste.

And thou shalt hearken what they say, and so shal thine hands be strong to go downe vnto the hoste. Then went he downe & Phurah his seruant vnto the outside of the souldiars that were in the hoste.

And the Midianites, and the Amalekites & all they of the East, lay in the valley like grasshoppers in multitude, & their camels [were] without number as the sand which is by the seaside for multitude.

And when Gideon was come, beholde, a man tolde a dreame vnto his neighbour, and said, Beholde, I dreamed a dreame, & lo, a cake of barley bread tumbled from aboute into the hoste of Midian, and came vnto a tent, and smote it that it fell, & ouerturned it, that the tent fel downe.

And his fellow answered, and said, This is nothing els saue the sword of Gideon the sonne of Iosha a man of Israel: for in to his hand hath the God deliuered Midian, and all the hoste.

When Gideon heard the dreame tolde, and the interpretation of the same, he worshipped: & returned vnto the hoste of Israel, & said, Vp for the Lord hath deliuered into your hand the hoste of Midian.

And he deuided the thre hundred men into thre bandes, and gaue euerie man a trumpet in his hand with empty pitchers, and flampes within the pitchers.

And he said vnto them, Loke on me, & do likewise, when I come to the side of the hoste: euen as I do, so do you.

When I blowe with a trumpet, and all that are with me, blowe ye with trumpets also on euerie side of the hoste, & say, For the Lord, and for Gideon.

So Gideon & the hundred men that were with him, came vnto the outside of the hoste in the beginning of the middle watche, & they raised vp the watchmen, & they blew with their trumpets, & brake the pitchers that were in their hands.

And the thre companies blew with trumpets and brake the pitchers, & held the lampes in their left hands, & the trumpets in their right hands to blowe withall: and they cried, The sword of the Lord, and of Gideon.

And they stode, euerie man in his place rounde about the hoste: and all the hoste ranne, and cryed, & fled.

And the thre hundred blew with trumpets, & the Lord set euerie mans sword vpon his neighbour, and vpon all the hoste: so the hoste fled to Beth-hastirah in Zererah, [&] to the border of Abel-meholah vnto Tabbath.

Then the men of Israel being gathered together out of Naphtali, & out of Asher, and out of all Manasse pursued after the Midianites,

24 And

24 And Gideon sent messengers vnto all mount Ephraim, saying, Come downe against the Midianites, & take before them the waters vnto Beth-barah, and Iordan. Then all the men of Ephraim gathered together and toke the waters vnto Beth-barah, and Iordan.

25 And they toke two princes of the Midianites, Oreb & Zeeb, & slewe Oreb vpon the rocke Oreb, & slewe Zeeb at the winepresse of Zeeb, and pursued the Midianites, and brought the heades of Oreb & Zeeb to Gideon beyonde Iorden.

CHAP. VIII.

1 Ephraim murmured against Gideon. 2 Who appeareth them. 3 He passeth the Iordan. 4 He reuengeth him selfe on them of Succoth and Penbel. 5 He maketh an Ephod which was the cause of idolatry. 6 Of Gideons sonnes and of his death.

Then the men of Ephraim said vnto him, Why hast thou serued vs thus that thou calledst vs not, when thou wentest to fight with the Midianites? & they chode with him sharply.

To whome he said, What haue I now done in comparison of you? is not the gleanings of grapes of Ephraim better, than the vintage of Abiezer?

God hath deliuered into your hands the princes of Midian, Oreb and Zeeb: and what was I able to do in comparison of you? and when he had thus spoken, then their spirits abated toward him.

And Gideon came to Iorden to passe ouer, he, and the thre hundred men that were with him, weary yet pursuing [the].

And he said vnto the men of Succoth, Giue, I pray you, morsels of bread vnto the people that followe me [for they be weary] that I may followe after Zebah, & Zalmunna Kings of Midian.

And the princes of Succoth said, Are the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna now in thine hands, that we shulde giue bread vnto thine armie?

Gideon then said, Therefore when the Lord hath deliuered Zebah & Zalmunna into mine hand, I wil tear your flesh with thornes of the wilderness and with breers.

And he went vp thence to Penuel, & spake vnto them likewise, and the men of Penuel answered him, as the men of Succoth answered.

And he said also vnto the men of Penuel, When I come againe in peace, I wil breake downe this towre.

Now Zebah and Zalmunna were in Karkor, and their hostes with them, about fiftene thousand, all that were left of all hostes of them of the East: for there was slayne an hundred and euenie thousand men, that drewe swordes.

And Gideon went through them that dwelt in tabernacles on the Eastside of Nobah & Iogbehah, & smote the hoste: for the hoste was careles.

And when Zebah & Zalmunna fled, he followed after them, and toke the two Kings of Midian, Zebah and Zalmunna, & discomfited all the hoste.

So Gideon & sonne of Iotha returned from battell, the sunne being yet high.

And toke a seruant of the men of Succoth, and inquired of him: and he tolde to him the princes of Succoth & the Elders thereof, euen threenty & seuen men.

And he came vnto the men of Succoth, and said, Beholde Zebah and Zalmunna, by whome ye vpbraided me, saying, Are the hands of Zebah & Zalmunna already in thine hands, that we shulde giue bread vnto thy weary men?

Then he toke the Elders of the citie, & thornes of the wilderness & breers, & did teare the men of Succoth with them.

Also he brake downe the towre of Penuel, and slewe the men of the citie.

Then said he vnto Zebah & Zalmunna, What manner of men were they, whome ye slewe at Tabor, and they answered, As thou art, so were they. (euen Ione was like the children of a King.)

And he said, They were my brethren, euen my mothers children: as the Lord liueth, if ye had saued their liues, I wolde not slay you.

Then he said vnto Iether his first borne sonne, Vp, and slay them: but the boy drewe not his sword: for he feared, because he was yet yong.

Then Zebah and Zalmunna said, Rise thou, and fall vpon vs: for as the man is, [so is] his strength. And Gideon arose & slewe Zebah and Zalmunna, & toke away the ornaments, that were on their camels neckes.

Then the men of Israel said vnto Gideon, Reigne thou ouer vs both thou, & thy sonne, & thy sonnes sonne: for thou hast deliuered vs out of the hand of Midian.

And Gideon said vnto them, I wil not reigne ouer you, neither shal my childre reigne ouer you: but the Lord shall reigne ouer you.

Againe Gideon laid vnto them, I wolde desire a request of you, that you wolde giue me euery man the earings of his praye (for they had golden earings because they were Ismaelites).

He went by the wilderness, where the Arabians dwell in tents.

27 And Gideon made on ^oEphod thereof, and put it in Ophrah his citie: & all Israel went a whoring there after it, which was the destruction of Gideon and his house.
 28 Then was Midian brought lowe before the children of Israel, so that they lift vp their heads nomore: & the country was in quietnes fourtie yeres in the dayes of Gideon.

29 ¶ Then Ierubbaal the sonne of Ioash went, and dwelt in his owne house.
 30 And Gideon had seuentie sonnes [†] be-gott of his body: for he had many wiues.
 31 And his concubine that was in Shechem, bare him a sonne also, whose name he called Abimelech.

32 So Gideon the sonne of Ioash dyed in a good age, and was buried in the sepulchre of Ioash his father in Ophrah, of the ^o father of the Ezrites.

33 But when Gideon was dead, the children of Israel turned away, and went a whoring after Baalim, and made [†] Baalberith their god.

34 And the children of Israel remembred not the Lord their God, which had deli-enemies on euery side.

35 Neither shewed they mercie on the house of Ierubbaal, for Gideon, according to all the goodnes which he had shewed vnto Israel.

 they, He is our brother.

4 And they gaue him seuentie pieces of sil-

5 And he went vnto his fathers house at Ophrah, and [†] slew his brethren, the son-sonne of Ierubbaal was left: for he hid him selfe.

6 ¶ And all the men of Shechem gathered together with all the house of ^o Milo, and came and made Abimelech King in the plaine, where the stone was erected in Shechem.

7 And when they tolde it to Iotham, he went and stode in the top of mount Gerizim, & lift vp his voyce, & cryed, & said vnto them, Harken vnto me, you men of Shechem, that God may hearken vnto
 you.

8 ¶ The trees went forth to anoint a King ouer them, and said vnto the oliue tree,
 Reigne thou ouer vs.

9 But the oliue tree said vnto them, Shulde
 I leaue my farnes, wherewith by me they honour God & man, & go to auance me

10 Then the trees said to the fig tree, Come thou, [and] be King ouer vs.

11 But the fig tree answered them, Shulde I forsake my sweetnes, and my good frute, and go to auance me about the trees?

12 Then said the trees vnto the vine, Co-

13 But the vine said vnto them, Shulde I leaue my wine, whereby I heare God & man, & go to auance me about the trees?

14 Then said all the trees vnto the [†] bramb-

20 But if not, leta fire come out from Abimelech, and consume the men of Shechem and the house of Milló: also leta fire come forth from the men of Shechem, & from the house of Milló, and consume Abimelech.

21 And Iothám ranne away, & fled, & wēt to Beer, and dwelt there for feare of Abimelech his brother.

22 So Abimelech reigned thre yere ouer Israél.

23 But God ^h sent an euil spirit betwene Abimelech, and the men of Shechem: & the men of Shechem brake their promes to Abimelech, 24 That the crueltie towarde the seuentie sonnes of Ierubbáal & their blood might come and be laide vpon Abimelech their brother, which had slayne them, & vpon the men of Shechem, which had aided him to kil his brethren.

25 So ^f men of Shechem set men in waite for him in the tops of the mountaines, who robbed all that passed that way by them: and it was tolde Abimelech.

26 Then Gáal the sonne of Ebéd came with his brethren, and thei went to Shechem: and the men of Shechem put their confidence in him.

27 Therefore they ⁱ went out into the field, & gathered in their grapes & troade them, and made mery, and went into the house of their gods, and did eat & drinke, and cursed Abimelech.

28 Thē Gáal the sonne of Ebéd said, Who is Abimelech? and who is Shechem, that we shulde serue him? Is he not the sonne of Ierubbáal? & Zebúl is his officer? Serue rather the men of Hamór the father of Shechem: for why shulde we serue him?

29 Now wolde God this people were vnder mine hand: then wolde I put away Abimelech. And he said to ^h Abimelech, Increase thine armie, and come out.

30 ¶ And when Zebúl the ruler of the citie heard the wordes of Gáal the sonne of Ebéd, his wrath was kindled.

31 Therefore he sent messengers vnto Abimelech ^priuely, saying, Beholde, Gáal the sonne of Ebéd & his brethren be come to Shechem, and beholde, thei fortifie the citie against thee.

32 Now therefore arise by night, thou and the people that is with thee, & lie in waite in the field.

33 And rise early in the morning as soone as the sunne is vp, and assalt the citie: and when he & the people that is with him, shal come out against thee, do to him ^f what thou canst.

34 ¶ So Abimelech rose vp, & al the people that were with him by night: & they laye in waite against Shechem in foure bādes.

35 Then Gáal the sonne of Ebéd went out and stode in the entring of the gate of the citie: and Abimelech rose vp, & the folke that were with him, from lying in waite.

36 And when Gáal sawe the people, he said to Zebúl, Beholde there come people downe from the tops of the mountaines: and Zebúl said vnto him, The ⁱ shadowe of the mountaines seme men vnto thee.

37 And Gáal spake againe, & said, Se there come folke downe ^f by the middle of the land, & an other band cometh by the way of the plaine of ^f Meonenim.

38 Then said Zebúl vnto him, Where is now thy mouth, that said, Who is Abimelech, that we shulde serue him? Is not this the people that thou hast despised? Go out now, I pray thee, and fight with them.

39 And Gáal ^m went out before the men of Shechem, and fought with Abimelech.

40 But Abimelech pursued him, & he fled before him, and many were ouerthrowen and wounded, euen vnto the entring of the gate.

41 And Abimelech dwelt at Arumáth: & Zebúl thrust out Gáal and his brethren that thei shulde not dwel in Shechem.

42 ¶ And on the morowe, the people went out into the field: which was tolde Abimelech.

43 And he toke the ⁿ people, and deuided them into thre bandes, and laid waite in the fields, and looked, & beholde, the people were come out of the citie, & he rose vp against them, and smote them.

44 And Abimelech, and the bandes that were with him, rushed for warde, & stode in the entring of the gate of the citie: and the two other bandes ranne vpon all the people that was in the field and slewe them.

45 And when Abimelech had fought against the citie all that day, he toke the citie, & slewe the people that was therein, & destroyed the citie, & sowed ^o salt in it.

men of the towre of Shechém were gathered together.

48 And Abimélech gate him vp to mount Zalmón, he and all the people that were with him: and Abimélech toke axes with him and cut downe boughes of trees and toke them, and bare them on his shulder, & said vnto the folke that were with him, What ye haue sene me do, make haste, [and] do like me.

49 Then all the people also cut downe euerie man his bough, and followed Abimélech, & put them to the holde, and set the holde on fire with them: so all the me of the towre of Shechém dyed also, about a thousand men and women.

50 ¶ Then went Abimélech to Tebéz, and besieged Tebéz, and toke it.

51 But there was a strong towre within the citie, and thether fled all the men and women, and all the chief of the citie, and shut it to them, and went vp to the top of the towre.

52 And Abimélech came vnto the towre & fought against it, and went hard vnto the dore of the towre to set it on fire.

53 But a certeine woman ^a cast a piece of a milstone vpon Abimelechs head, & brake his braine pan.

54 The Abimélech called hastily his page that bare his harnes, and said vnto him, Drawe thy sworde & slay me, that men say not of me, A woman slewe him. And his page thrust him through, & he dyed.

55 And when the men of Israël sawe that Abimélech was dead, thei departed euerie man vnto his owne place.

56 Thus God rendred the wickednes of Abimelech, which he did vnto his father, in slaying his seuentie brethren.

57 Also all the wickednes of the men of Shechém did God bring vpon their heades. So vpon them came the curse of Iothám the sonne of Ierubbáal.

1 After Abimélech there arose to defend Israël, Tolá, the sonne of Puáh, the sonne of † Dódó, a man of Issachar which dwelt in Shamir in mount Ephraim.

2 And he iudged Israël thre and twentie yere, and dyed, & was buried in Shamir.

3 ¶ And after him arose Iair a Giliadite, & iudged Israël two and twentie yere.

4 And he had thirtie sonnes that rode on thirtie assecoltes, & thei had thirtie cities, which are called † Hauóth-Iair vnto this

5 And Iair dyed, & was buried in Kamón. 6 ¶ And the children of Israël wrought wickednes againe in the sight of the Lord, & serued Baalim and ^a Ashtróth, and the gods of † Arám, and the gods of Zidon, and the gods of Moáb, & the gods of the children of Ammón, & the gods of the Philistims, & forsoke the Lord and serued not him.

9 Moreouer the children of Ammón went ouer Iordén to fight against Iudáh, and against Benjamin, and against the house of Ephraim: so that Israël was sore tormented.

10 Then the children of Israël cryed vnto the Lord, saying, We haue sinned against thee, euen because we haue forsaken our owne God, & haue serued Baalim.

11 And the Lord ^a said vnto the children of Israël, [did not I deliuer you] from the Egyptians & from the Amorites, from the children of Ammón & from the Philistims?

CHAP. XI

1 Iphtah being chased away by his brethren, was after made captaine over Israel. 30 He maketh a rashe voyde. 31 Hee vainquisheth the Ammonites. 39 And sacrificeth his daughter according to his vowe.

1 Then Gilead begate Iphtah, & Iphtah the Gileadite was † a valiant man, but the sonne of an † harlot.

2 And Gileads wife bare him sonnes, and when the weimans children were come to age, thei thrust out Iphtah, and said vnto him, Thou shalt not inherit in our fathers house: for thou art the sonne of a strange woman.

3 Then Iphtah fled from his brethren, and dwelt in the land of † Tob: and there gathered ydle fellowes to Iphtah, and went out with him.

4 ¶ And in processe of time the children of Ammon made warre with Israel.

5 And whē the children of Ammon fought with Israel, † the Elders of Gilead went to fet Iphtah out of the land of Tob.

6 And they said vnto Iphtah, Come and be our captaine, that we may fight with the children of Ammon.

7 Iphtah then answered the Elders of Gilead, Did not ye hate me, and expel me out of my fathers house: how then come you vnto me now in time of your tribulation?

8 Then the Elders of Gilead said vnto Iphtah, Therefore we turne againe to thee now, that thou maiest go with vs, & fight against the children of Ammon, & be our head ouer all the inhabitants of Gilead.

9 And Iphtah said vnto the Elders of Gilead, If ye bring me home againe to fight against † children of Ammon, if the Lord giue them before me, shal I be your head?

10 And the Elders of Gilead said to Iphtah, The Lord † be witnes betwene vs, if we do not according to thy wordes.

11 Then Iphtah went with the Elders of Gilead, and the people made him head and captaine ouer them: and Iphtah rehearsed all his wordes before the Lord in Mizpēh.

12 ¶ Then Iphtah sent messengers vnto the King of the children of Ammon, saying, What hast thou to do with me, that thou art come against me, to fight in my land?

13 And the King of the children of Ammon answered vnto the messengers of Iphtah, Because Israel toke my land, whē they came vp from Egypt, from Arnōn vnto Iabbōk, & vnto Iorden: now therefore restore those [lands] quietly.

14 Yet Iphtah sent messengers againe vnto the King of the children of Ammon,

15 And said vnto him, Thus saith Iphtah,

Israel toke not the land of Moab, nor the land of the children of Ammon.

16 But when Israel came vp from Egypt, and walked through the wildernes vnto the ed Sea, then they came to Kadesh.

17 And Israel sent messengers vnto the King of Edōm, laying, Let me, I pray thee, go through thy land: but the King of Edōm wolde not consent: and also they sent vnto the King of Moab, but he wolde not: therefore Israel abode in Kadesh.

18 Then they went through the wildernes, and compassed the land of Edōm, & the land of Moab, and came by the East side of the land of Moab, & pitched on the other side of Arnōn, and came not within the coast of Moab: for Arnōn [was] the border of Moab.

19 Also Israel sent messengers vnto Sihon, King of the Amorites, the King of Heshbōn, & Israel said vnto him, Let vs passe, we pray thee, by thy land vnto our place.

20 But Sihon consented not to Israel, that he shulde go through his coast: but Sihon gathered all his people together, and pitched in Iahaz, and fought with Israel.

21 And the Lord God of Israel gaue Sihon, and all his folke into the hands of Israel, & they smote them: so Israel possessed all the land of the Amorites, the inhabitants of that country.

22 And they possessed all the coast of the Amorites, from Arnōn vnto Iabbōk, and from the wildernes euen vnto Iorden.

23 Now therefore the Lord God of Israel hath cast out the Amorites before his people Israel, & shuldest thou possesse it?

24 Woldest not thou possesse that which Chemosh thy god giueth thee to possesse? So whome soeuer the Lord our God driueth out before vs, them will we possesse.

25 And art thou now farre better then Balak the sonne of Zippor King of Moab, did he not striue with Israel and fight against them?

26 When Israel dwelt in Heshbōn and in her townes, & in Aroer & in her townes, and in all the cities that are by the coasts of Arnōn, thre hundred yeres, why did ye not then recover them in that space?

27 Wherefore, I haue not offended thee: but thou doest me wrong to warre against me. The Lord the Iudge be iudge this day betwene the children of Israel, & the children of Ammon.

28 Howbeit the King of the children of Ammon hearkened not vnto the wordes of Iphtah, which he had sent him.

30 And Iphtah^m vowed a vowe vnto the Lord, and said, If thou shalt deliuer the children of Ammón into mine hands, 31 Then that thing that commeth out of the dores of mine house to mete me, whē I come home in peace from the children of Ammón, shal be the Lords, and I will offer it for a burnt offering.

32 And so Iphtah went vnto the children of Ammón to fight against them, and the Lord deliuered them into his hands.

33 And he smote them from Aroer euen til thou come to Minnith, twentie cities, and so forthe to Abel of the vineyardes, with an exceeding great slaughter. Thus the children of Ammón were humbled before the children of Israël.

34 ¶ Now when Iphtah came to Mizpéh vnto his house, beholde, his daughter came out to mete him with timbrels and dances, which was his onely childe: he had none other sonne nor daughter.

35 And when he sawe her, he rent his clothes, & said, Alas my daughter, thou hast broght me lowe, & art of them that trouble me: for I haue opened my mouthe vnto the Lord, and can not go backe.

36 And she said vnto him, My father, if thou haste opened thy mouthe vnto the Lord, do with me as thou hast promised, seing that the Lord hath auenged thee of thine enemies the children of Ammón.

37 Also she said vnto her father, Do thus muche for me: suffre me two monethes, that I may go to the mountaines, & bewaile my virginite, I and my fellowes.

38 And he said, Go: and he sent her away two monethes: so she went with her companions, and lamented her virginite vpon the mountaines.

39 And after the end of two monethes, she turned againe vnto her father, who did with her according to his vowe which he had vowed: & she had knowen no mā: & it was a custome in Israël.

40 The daughters of Israël went yere by yere to lament the daughter of Iphtah the Gileadite, foure dayes in a yere.

Iphtah killeth two and fortie thousand Ephraimites. After Iphtah succedeth Ibzán. 11 Elón. 13 And Abdón.

And the men of Ephraim gathered the selues together, & went Northward and said vnto Iphtah, Wherefore wentest thou to fight against the children of Ammón, and didest not call vs to go with thee: we wil therefore burne thine house vpon thee with fire.

2 And Iphtah said vnto them, I & my people were at great strife with the children of Ammón, and when I called you, ye deliuered me not out of their hands.

3 So when I sawe that ye deliuered me not, I put my life in mine hands, & went vpon the children of Ammón: so the Lord deliuered them into mine hands. Wherefore then are ye come vpon me now to fight against me.

4 Then Iphtah gathered all the men of Gilead, and fought with Ephraim, and the men of Gilead smote Ephraim, because they said, Ye Giliadites are runagates of Ephraim among the Ephraimites, [and] among the Manassites.

5 Also the Giliadites toke the passages of Iorden before the Ephraimites, and when the Ephraimites that were escaped, said, Let me passe: then the men of Gilead said vnto him, Art thou an Ephraimite? If he said, Nay,

6 Then said they vnto him, Say now Shibboleth: and he said, Sibboleth: for he coulde not so pronounce: then they toke him, and slewe him at the passages of Iorden: and there fel at that time of the Ephraimites two and forty thousand.

7 And Iphtah iudged Israël six yere: then dyed Iphtah the Giliadite, and was buryed in [one] of the cities of Gilead.

8 After him Ibzán of Beth-léhem iudged Israël,

9 Who had thirtie sonnes & thirtie daughters, [which] he sent out, and toke in thirtie daughters from abroad for his sonnes. and he iudged Israël seuen yere.

10 Then Ibzán dyed, and was buryed at Beth-léhem.

11 ¶ And after him iudged Israël Elón, a Zebulonite, and he iudged Israël ten yere.

12 Then Elón the Zebulonite dyed, & was buryed in Aialón in the countrey of Zebulun.

13 ¶ And after him Abdón the sonne of Hillél the Pirathonite iudged Israël.

14 And he had fortie sonnes & thirtie newes that rode on seuentie fasscoltes: & he iudged Israël eight yeres.

15 Then dyed Abdón the sonne of Hillél the Pirathonite, and was buryed in Pirathon, in the lād of Ephraim, in the mount of the Amalekites.

Israel for their wickednes is oppressed of the Philistims. The Angel appeareth to Manoahs wife. The Angel comynnderh him to sacrifice vnto the Lord. 24 The birth of Samson.

1 But

BUt the children of Israel continued to commit wickednes in the sight of \dagger Lord, and the Lord deliuered them into the hands of the Philistims fortie yeres.

\dagger Then there was a man in Zorah of the familie of the Danites, named Manoah, whose wife was \dagger baren, and bare not.

And the Angel of the Lord appeared vnto the woman, and said vnto her, Beholde now, thou art baren, and bearest not: but thou shalt conceiue, and beare a sonne.

And nowe therefore beware \dagger that thou drinke no wine, nor strong drinke, nether eat anie vncleane thing.

For lo, thou shalt conceiue and beare a sonne, & no razor shal \dagger come on his head: for \dagger childe shalbe a \dagger Nazarite vnto God from his birth: and he shal begin to saue Israel out of the hands of the Philistims.

\dagger Then the wife came, & tolde her housband, saying, A man of God came vnto me, and the faction of him was like the faction of the Angel of God exceding \dagger fearfull, but I asked him not whence he was, nether tolde he me his name,

But he said vnto me, Beholde, thou shalt conceiue, and beare a sonne, and now thou shalt drinke no wine; nor strong drinke, nether eat anie vncleane thing: for the childe shall be a Nazarite to God from his birth to the day of his death.

Then Manoah \dagger prayed to the Lord and said, I pray thee, my Lord, let the man of God, whome thou senrest, come againe now vnto vs, and teache vs what we shal do vnto the childe when he is borne.

And God heard the voyce of Manoah, & the Angel of God came againe vnto the wife, as she sat in the field: but Manoah her housband was not with her.

\dagger And the wife made haste & ranne, & shewed her housband and said vnto him, Beholde, the man hath appeared vnto me, that came vnto me \dagger to day.

And Manoah arose and went after his wife, and came to the man, and said vnto him, Art thou the man that spakest vnto the woman? and he said, Yea.

Then Manoah said, Now let thy saying come to passe: (but) how shal we orde \dagger childe, and do vnto him?

And the Angel of the Lord said vnto Manoah, The woman must beware of all that I said vnto her.

She may eat of nothing that cometh of the vine tree: she shal not drinke wine nor strong drinke, nor eat anie vncleane thing: let her obserue all that I haue commanded her.

Manoah then said vnto the Angell of the Lord, I pray thee, let vs retaine thee, vntil we haue made ready a kid for thee.

And the Angel of the Lord said vnto Manoah, Though thou make me abide, I wil not eat of thy bread, and if thou wilt make a burnt offering, offer it vnto \dagger Lord: for Manoah knewe not that it was an Angel of the Lord.

Againe Manoah said vnto the Angel of the Lord, What is thy name; that when thy saying is come to passe, we may honour thee?

And the Angel of the Lord said vnto him, Why askelt thou thus after my name, which is \dagger secret?

Then Manoah toke a kid with a meat offering, and offered it vpon a stone vnto the Lord: and [the Angel] did wonderously, whiles Manoah and his wife looked on.

For when the flame came vp toward heauen from the altar, the Angel of \dagger Lord ascended vp in the flame of the altar, and Manoah and his wife beheld it, and fel on their faces vnto the ground.

(So the Angel of the Lord did no more appeare vnto Manoah and his wife) The Manoah knewe that it was an Angel of the Lord.

And Manoah said vnto his wife, \dagger We shal surely dye, because we haue sene God:

But his wife said vnto him, If the Lord wolde kil vs, he wolde not haue receiued a \dagger burnt offering and a meat offering of our hands, nether wolde he haue shewed vs all these things, nor wolde now haue tolde vs anie suche.

\dagger And the wife bare a sonne, and called his name Samson: and the childe grewe, & the Lord blessed him.

And the Spirit of the Lord began to strengthen him in the hofte of Dan, betwene Zorah, and Eshtaol.

And he came vp and tolde his father and his mother, and said, I haue sene a woman in Timnath of the daughters of the Philistims: now therefore giue me her to wife.

Then his father and his mother said vnto him, Is there \dagger neuer a wife among \dagger daughters of thy brethren, and among all my people, that thou must go to take a wife of the vncircumcised Philistims? And Samson said vnto his father, Giue me her, for 6 And the Spirit of the Lord came vpon him, and he tare him, as one shulde haue rent a kid, and had nothing in his hand, neither tolde he his father nor his mother what he had done.

 7 And he went downe, and talked with the woman, which was beautifull in the eyes of Samson.
 8 ¶ And within a [fewe] dayes when he returned to receiue her, he went aside to see carkeis, of the lion: & beholde, there was a swarme of bees, and hony in the body of the lyon.
 9 And he toke thereof in his hands, & wet eating, and came to his father and to his mother, and gaue vnto them, and they did eat: but he tolde not them, that he had taken the hony out of the body of the lyon.
 10 So his father went downe vnto the woman, and Samson made there a feast: for so vsed the yong men to do.
 11 And when they sawe him, they broght thirtie companions to be with him.
 12 Then Samson said vnto them, I wil now put forthe a riddle vnto you: & if you can declare it me within seuen dayes of the feast, and finde it out, I wil giue you thirtie shetes, and thirtie change of garments.
 13 But if you can not declare it me, the shal ye giue me thirtie shetes and thirtie change of garments. And they answered him, Put forthe thy riddle, that we may heare it.
 14 And he said vnto them, Out of the cater came meat, and out of the strong came sweetnes: and they colde not in thre dayes expounde the riddle.
 15 And when the seuenth day was come, they said vnto Samsons wife, Entise thyne housband, that he may declare vs þis riddle, lest we burne thee and thy fathers house with fire. Haue ye called vs, to possesse vs? is it not [so]?
 16 And Samsons wife wept before him, & said, Surely thou hatest me and louest me not: for thou hast put forthe a riddle vnto the children of my people, and hast not tolde it me. And he said vnto her, Beholde, I haue not tolde it my father nor my mother, and shal I tel it thee?
 17 Then Samsons wife wept before him

seuen dayes, while their feast lasted: and when the seuenth day came, he tolde her, because she was importunate vpon him: so she tolde the riddle to the children of her people.
 18 And the men of the citie said vnto him the seuenth day before the sonne went downe, What is sweter, then honie? and what is stronger then a lyon? Then said he vnto them, If ye had not plowed with my heiffer, ye had not founde out my riddle.
 19 And the Spirit of the Lord came vpon him, and he went downe to Ashkelon, & slewe thirtie men of them, and spoiled the, and gaue change of garments vnto them, which expounded the riddle: & his wrath was kindled, and he went vp to his fathers house.

 3 The Samson said vnto them, Now am I more blameles then the Philistims: therefore wil I do them displeasure.
 4 ¶ And Samson went out, and toke thre hundred foxes, and toke firebrands, and turned them taile to taile, and put a firebrand in the middles betwene two tyles.
 5 And when he had set the brandes on fire, he sent them out into the standing come of the Philistims, and burnt vp bothe the fricks and the standing come with the vineyardes, and oliues.
 6 Then the Philistims said, Who hath done this? And they answered, Samson þis sonne in law of the Timnite, because he had taken his wife, and giuen her to his companion. Then the Philistims came vp and burnt her and her father with fier.
 7 And Samson said vnto them, Though ye haue done this, yet wil I be auenged of you, and then I wil cease.

11 Then thre thousand men of Iudah went to the toppe of the rocke Etam, and said to Samson, Knowest thou not that the Philistims are rulers ouer vs? Wherefore the hast thou done thus vnto vs? And he answered them, As they did vnto me, so haue I done vnto them.

12 Again they said vnto hi, We are come to binde thee, and to deliuer thee into the hand of the Philistims. And Samson said vnto them, Swear vnto me, that ye wil not fall vpon me your selues.

Samson carrieth away the gates of Azzah. 18 He was deceived by Delilah. 30 He pulleth downe the house vpon the Philistims, and dyeth with them.

1 THE went Samson to Azzah, & sawe theré an harlot, & went in vnto her. And it was tolde to the Azzathites, Samson is come hether. And they went about, & layed wait for him all night in the gate of the citie, and were quiet all the night, saying, [Abide] til the morning carely, & we shal kil him.

2 And Samson slept til midnight, and arose at midnight, and toke the dores of the gates of the citie, and the two postes, and lift them away with the barres, and put them vpon his sholders, and caried them vp to the top of the mountaine that is before Hebron.

3 And after this he loued a woman by trier of Sorék, whose name was Delilah: Vnto whome came the princes of the Philistims, and said vnto her, Entise him, and se wherein his great strength lieth, and by what meane we may ouercome him, & we may binde him, and punishe him, and euerie one of vs shal giue thee eleuen hundred shekels of siluer.

4 And Delilah said to Samson, Tel me, I pray thee, wherein thy great strength lieth, and wherewith thou mightest be bounde, to do the hurt.

5 Samson then answered vnto her, If they binde me with seuen grene cordes that were neuer dryed, then shal I be weake, & be as an other man.

6 And the princes of the Philistims broght her seuen grene cordes that were not drye, and she bound him therewith.

7 (And she had men lying in wayte with her in the chamber) Then she said vnto him, The Philistims be vpon thee, Samson. And he brake the cordes, as a threde of tow is broken, when it feleth fire: so his strength was not knowne.

8 After Delilah said vnto Samson, Se, I haue mocked me and tolde me lies. I pray thee now, tel me wherewith thou mightest be bound.

9 Then he answered her, If they binde me with newe ropes that neuer were occupied, then shal I be weake, and be as another man.

10 Delilah therefore toke newe ropes, and bound him therewith, and said vnto him, The Philistims be vpon thee, Samson: (& men lay in wait in the chaber) & he brake them from his armes, as a threde.

11 Afterward Delilah said to Samson, Hether to thou hast beguiled me, and tolde me lies: tel me how thou mightest be bound. And he said vnto her, If thou plattedst seuen lockes of mine head with the thredes of the woufe.

Then the Princes of the Philistims came vp vnto her, and broght the money in their hands. 19 And she made him slepe vpon her knees, and she called a man, and made him to shauē of the seuen lockes of his head, and she began to vexe him, and his strength was gone from him. 20 Then she said, The Philistims be vpon thee, Samson. And he awoke out of his slepe, & thought, I wil go out now as at other times, & shake my selfe: but he knewe not that the Lord was departed from him. 21 Therefore the Philistims toke him, and put out his eyes, & broght him downe to Azzah, and bound him with fetters: and he did grinde in the prison house. 22 And the heere of his head begā to grow againe after that it was shauen. 23 Then the Princes of the Philistims gathered them together for to offer a great sacrifice vnto Dagon their god, and to reioyce: for they said, Our god hath deliuered Samson our enemy into our hands. 24 Also whē the people saw him, they praised their god: for they said, Our god hath deliuered into our hands our enemy and destroyer of our countrey, whiche hath slain manie of vs. 25 And whē their heartes were merry, they said, Call Samson, that he may make vs pastime. So they called Samson out of the prison house, and he was a laughing stocke vnto them, and they set him betwene the pillars. 26 Then Samson said vnto the seruant that led him by the hand, Lead me, that I may touche the pillars that the house standeth vpon, and that I may leane to them.

So the dead which he slue at his death were more then they whiche he had slaine in his life. 31 Then his brethren, and all the house of his father came downe and toke him, and broght him vp, and buryed him betwene Zorah and Eshtaol in the sepulchre of Manoah his father: now he had iudged Israel twentie yeres.

3 Michahs mother according to her vow made her sonne two idoles. 4 He made his sonne a Priest for his idoles. 5 And after he hired a Leuite.

Now therefore I will giue it thee againe. 4 And when he had restored the money vnto his mother, his mother toke two hundred [shekels] of siluer, and gaue them to the founder, which made thereof a grauen and molten image, and it was in the house of Michah. 5 And this man Michah had an house of gods, and made an Ephod, and Tera- phim, and consecrated one of his sonnes, who was his Priest. 6 In those dayes there was no King in Is-

1 The children of Dan send me to searche the land. 11 They come the six hundredth and take the gods, and the Priest of Micháh away. 27 They destroy Laiſh. 28 They buyld it againe, 30 And set vp Idolatrie.

IN those dayes there was no King in Israel, and at the same time the tribe of Dan sought them an inheritance to dwell in: for vnto that time [all] their inheritance had not fallen vnto them among the tribes of Israel.

2 Therefore the children of Dan sent of their familie fise men out of their coastes, [euen] men expert in warre, out of Zoráh and Eshtaól, to vewe the land and searche it out, and said vnto them, Go, [and] searche out the land. Then they came to mount Ephráim to the house of Micháh, & lodged there.

3 When they were in the house of Micháh, they knewe the voyce of the yong man the Leuite: and being turned in thether, they said vnto him, Who brought thee hether? or what makest thou in this place? & what hast thou [to do] here?

4 And he answered them, Thus and thus dealeth Micháh with me, and hath hired me, and I am his Priest.

5 Againe they said vnto him, Aske counſel now of God, that we may knowe whether the way which we go, shal be prosperous.

6 And the Priest said vnto them, Go in peace: for the Lord guydeth your way wye go.

7 Then the fise men departed and came to Laiſh, and sawe the people that were therein, which dwelt careles, after the manner of the Zidonians, quiet and sure, because no man made any trouble in the lād, or vsurped anie dominion: also they were farre from the Zidonians, and had no busines with [other] men.

8 ¶ So they came againe vnto their brethren to Zoráh and Eshtaól: and their brethren said vnto them, What haue ye [done:]

9 And they answered, Arise, that we may go vp against them: for we haue sene the land, and surely it is verie good, and do ye sit still: be not slouthful to go and entre to possesse the land.

10 [If ye wil go, ye shal come vnto a careles people, and the countrey [is] large] for God hath given it into your hand. [It is] a place which doeth lacke nothing that is in the worlde.

11 ¶ Then there departed thence of the familie of the Danites, from Zoráh and frō Eshtaól, six hundredth men appointed with instruments of warre.

12 And they went vp, & pitched in Kiriath iearím in Iudáh: wherefore they called the place, Mahanéh-Dan vnto this day: and it is behinde Kiriath iearím.

13 And they went thence vnto mount Ephráim, and came to the house of Micháh.

14 Then answered the fise men, that wēt to spie out the countrey of Laiſh, and said vnto their brethren, Knowe ye not, that there is in these houses an Ephód, and Tetráphim, and a grauen and a molten image? Now therefore consider what ye haue to do.

15 And they turned thetherwarde & came to the house of the yong man the Leuite, [euen] vnto the house of Micháh, and saluted him peaceably.

16 And the six hundredth men appointed with their weapons of warre, which were of the children of Dan, stode by the entering of the gate.

17 Then the fise men that went to spie out the land, went in thether, [and] toke the grauen image and the Ephód, & the Tetráphim, and the molten image: and the Priest stode in the entering of the gate with the six hundredth men, that were appointed with weapons of warre.

18 And the other wēt into Micháhs house and fet the grauen image, the Ephód, and the Tetráphim, and the molten image.

 19 And they answered him, Holde thy peace: lay thine hand vpon thy mouth, and come with vs to be our father and Priest. Whether is it better that thou shuldest be a Priest vnto the house of one man, or that thou shuldest be a Priest vnto a tribe and to a familie in Israël?

20 And the Priests heart was glad, and he toke the Ephod and the Teraphim, and a grauen image, and went among the people.

21 And they turned and departed, and put the children, and the cattel, and the substance before them.

22 ¶ When they were farre off fro the house of Michah, the men that were in the house nere to Michahs house, gathered together, and pursued after the children of Dan, 23 And cryed vnto the children of Dan: who turned their faces and said vnto Michah, What ayleth thee, that thou makest an outcryer?

24 And he said, Ye haue taken away my gods, which I made, and the Priest, and go your wayes: & what haue I more? how then say ye vnto me, What ayleth thee?

25 And the children of Dan said vnto him, Let not thy voyce be heard among vs, lest angry fellowes runne vpon thee, & thou lose thy life with the liues of thine householde.

26 So the children of Dan went their wayes: and when Michah sawe that they were to strong for him, he turned, & went backe vnto his house.

27 And they toke the things whiche Michah had made, and the Priest which he had, and came vnto Laish, vnto a quiet people and without mistrust, & smote the with the edge of the sworde, and burnt the citie with fire:

28 And there was none to helpe, because Laish was farre from Zidon, and they had no busines with other men: also it was in the valley that lieth by Beth-rehob. After they buylt the citie, and dwelt therein, 29 And called the name of the citie Dan, after the name of Dan their father whiche was borne vnto Israël: howbeit the name of the citie was Laish at the beginning.

30 Then the children of Dan set them vp the grauen image, and Ionathans sone of Gerishon the sone of Manasse and his sonnes were the Priests in the tribe of the Danites vntill the day of the captiuitie of the land.

31 So they set them vp the grauen image, which Michah had made, all the while the 23 And this man the master of the house went out vnto them, and said vnto them, Nay, my brethren, do not so wickedly, I pray you: seing that this man is come into mine house, do not this vilanie.

24 Beholde, [here is] my daughter a vir-

25 But the men wolde not hearken to him: therefore the man toke his concubine, and brought her out vnto them: & they knewe her and abused her all the night vnto the morning: & when the day began to spring, they let her go.

26 So the womā came in the dawning of the day, & fel downe at the dore of the mas house where her lord was, til the light day.

at Baal tamar: and the men that lay in wait of the Ifraclites came forth of their place, [even] out of the medowes of Gibeah.

34 And they came ouer against Gibeah, ten thousand chosen men of all Israel, and the battell was sore: for they knewe not that the euil was nere them.

35 ¶ And the Lord smote Benjamin before Israel, and the children of Israel destroyed of the Beniamites the same day fise and twentie thousand and an hundred men: all they colde handle the sworde.

36 So the children of Benjamin sawe that they were stricken downe: for the men of Israel gaue place to the Beniamites, because they trusted to the men that lay in wait, which they had laid beside Gibeah.

37 And they that lay in waite halted, and brake forth towards Gibeah, and the embushment drew them felues along, and smote all the citie with the edge of the sworde.

38 Also the men of Israel had appointed a certeine time with the embushments, that they shulde make a great flame [&] smoke rise vp out of the citie.

39 And when the men of Israel retired in battell, Benjamin began to smite and kil of the men of Israel about thirtie perstones: for they said, Surely they are stricke downe before vs, as in the first battell.

40 But when the flame began to rise out of the citie, [as] a pillar of smoke, the Beniamites looked backe, and beholde, the flame of the citie began to ascend vp to heauen.

41 Then the men of Israel turned againe, and the men of Benjamin were astonished: for they sawe that euil was nere vnto them.

42 Therefore they fled before the men of Israel vnto the way of the wilderness, but the battell ouertoke them: also they which [came out] of the ciues, slewe them among them.

43 [Thus] they compalled the Beniamites about, [and] chased them far eas, and ouerran them, euen ouer against Gibeah on the Eastside.

44 And there were slaine of Benjamin eightene thousand men, which were all me of warre.

45 And they turned and fled to the wilderness vnto the rocke of Rimmon. And the Ifraclites xplained of them by the way fise thousand men, and pursued after the vnto Gidon, and slewe two thousand me of them.

46 So that all that were slaine that day of Benjamin, were fise and twentie thousand men that drewe sworde, which were all men of warre:

47 But six hundred men turned & fled to wilderness, vnto the rocke of Rimmon, and abode in the rocke of Rimmon foure moneths.

48 Then the men of Israel returned vnto the children of Benjamin, and smote the with the edge of the sworde from the me of the citie vnto the healts, & al that came to hand: also they set on fire all the ciues that they colde come by.

2 And the people came vnto the house of God, & abode there til euen before God, and lift vp there voices, and wept with great lamentation.

3 And said, O Lord God of Israel, why is this come to passe in Israel, that this day one tribe of Israel shulde want?

4 ¶ And on the morowe the people rose vp and made there an altar, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings.

5 Then the children of Israel said, Who is he among all the tribes of Israel, that came not vp with the Congregation vnto the Lord: for they had made a great othe concerning him that came not vp to the Lord to Mizpeh, saying, Let him dye the death.

6 And the children of Israel were sorie for Benjamin their brother, and said, There is one tribe cut of from Israel this day.

7 How shal we do for wiues to them that remaine, seing we haue sworn by the Lord that we will not giue them of our daughters to wiues?

8 Also they said, Is there anie of the tribes of Israel that came not vp to Mizpeh to the Lord, and beholde, their came none of Iabesh Gilead vnto the hoste, [and] to the Congregation.

9 For when the people were viewed, beholde, none of the inhabitants of Iabesh Gilead were there.

10 Therefore the Congregation sent thier twelve thousand men of the moste valiant, and commanded them saying, Go, and smite the inhabitants of Iabesh Gilead with the edge of the sworde, both women and children.

12 And they founde among the inhabitants of Iabesh Gilead foure hundred maidens, virgins that had knowen no man by lying with anie male: and they brought them vnto the hoste of Shiloh, which is in the land of Canaan.
13 Then the whole Congregation sent and spake with the children of Benjamin that were in the rocke of Rimmon, and called peaceably vnto them:
14 And Benjamin came againe at that time, & they gaue them wives which they had sau'd alive of the women of Iabesh Gilead: but they had not so ynough for them:
15 And the people were sory for Benjamin, because the Lord had made a breach in the tribes of Israel.
16 Therefore the Elders of the Congregation said, How shall we do for wives to the remnant? for the women of Benjamin are destroyed.
17 And they said, [There must be] an inheritance for them that be escaped of Benjamin, that a tribe be not destroyed out of Israel.
18 Howbeit we may not giue them wives of our daughters: for the children of Israel had sworne, saying, Cursed be he, that giueth a wife to Benjamin.
19 Therefore they said, Beholde, there is a feast of the Lord euerie yere in Shiloh [in a place] which is on the Northside of Beth-el, and on the Eastside of the way that goeth vp from Beth-el to Shechem, and on the South of Lebonah.

20 Therefore they commanded the children of Benjamin, saying, Go, and lye in waite in the vineyardes.
21 And when ye see that the daughters of Shiloh come out to dance in dances, then come ye out of the vineyardes, & catche you euerie man a wife of the daughters of Shiloh, and go into the land of Benjamin.
22 And when their fathers or their brethren come vnto vs to complaine, we will say vnto them, Haue pitie on them for our sakes, because we refused not to eche man his wife in the warre, and because ye haue not giuen vnto them hether to, ye haue sinned.
23 And the children of Benjamin did so, and toke wives of them that danced according to their number: which they toke, and went away, and returned to their inheritance, and repaired the cities & dwelt in them.
24 So the children of Israel departed thence at that time, euerie man to his tribe, and to his familie, and went out from thence euerie man to his inheritance.

THE BOKE OF RVTH.

THE ARGVMENT.

This boke is intituled after the name of Ruth, which is the principal persone spoken of in this treatise. Wherein also figuratiuely is set forth the state of the Church which is subiect to manifold afflictions, and yet is length God giueth good and ioyful issue: teaching vs to abide with patience til God deliuer vs out of troubles. Herein also is described how Iesus Christ, who according to the flesh ought to come of David, proceeded of Ruth, of whom the Lord Iesus did vouchsafe to come, notwithstanding she was a Moabite of base condition, and a stranger from the people of God: declaring vnto vs thereby that the Gentiles shoulde be sanctified by him, and ioyned with his people, and that there shoulde be but one shepfold, and one shepherde. And it seemeth that this historie appertaineth to the time of the Iudges.

CHAP. I.

1 Elimelech goeth with his wife and children into the land of Moab. 3 He and his sonnes dye. 19 Naomi and Ruth come to Beth-lehem.

IN the time that the Iudges ruled, there was a dearth in the land, and a man of Beth-lehem of Iudah went for to sojourne in the countrey of Moab, he, and his wife, and his two sonnes.

2 And the name of the man [was] Elimelech, and the name of his wife, Naomi: & the names of his two sonnes, Mahlon, & Chilion, Ephrathites of Beth-lehem Iudah: and when they came into the land of Moab, they continued there.
3 Then Elimelech the husband of Naomi dyed, and she remained with her two sonnes.

4 Which

4 Which toke them wiues of the Moabites: the ones name [was] Orpah, and the name of the other Ruth: and they dwelled there about ten yeres.

5 And Mahlon and Chilion dyed also bothe twaine: so the woman was left [desolate] of her two sonnes, and of her husband.

6 ¶ Then she arose with her daughters in lawe, and returned from the country of Moab: for she had heard say in the country of Moab, that the Lord had visited his people, and given them bread.

7 Wherefore she departed out of the place where she was, and her two daughters in lawe with her, and they went on their way to returne vnto the land of Iudah.

8 Then Naomi said vnto her two daughters in lawe, Go, returne eche of you vnto her owne mothers house: the Lord shewe fauour vnto you, as ye haue done with the dead, and with me.

9 The Lord grant you, that you may finde rest, ether of you in the house of her husband. And when she kissed them, they lift vp their voyce and wept.

10 And they said vnto her, Surely we will returne with thee vnto thy people.

11 But Naomi said, Turne againe, my daughters: for what cause will you go w me: are there anie mo sonnes in my wombe, that they may be your husbands?

12 Turne againe, my daughters: go your way: for I am to olde to haue an husband. if I shulde say, I haue hope, [and] if I had an husband this night: yea, if I had borne sonnes, 13 Wolde ye tary for them, til they were of age: wolde ye be differed for them from taking of husbands? nay my daughters: for it grieveth me t muche for your sakes that the hand of the Lord is gone out against me.

14 Then they lift vp their voyce, and wept againe, and Orpah kissed her mother in lawe, but Ruth abode still with her.

15 And Naomi said, Beholde thy sister in lawe is gone backe vnto her people & vnto her gods: returne thou after thy sister in lawe.

16 And Ruth answered, Intreat me not to leaue thee, nor to departe from thee: for whither thou goest, I wil go: and where thou dwellest, I will dwell: thy people shall be my people, and thy God my God.

17 Where thou dyest, will dye, and there wil I be buried. The Lord do so to me and more also, if [I forget] but death departe thee and me.

18 When she sawe that she was steadfastly minded to go with her, she left speaking vnto her.

19 So they went bothe vntil they came to Beth-lehem: and when they were come to Beth-lehem, it was noised of the through all the cite, and they said, Is not this Naomi?

20 And she answered them, Call me not Naomi, but call me Marah: for the Almighty hath giuen me muche bitterness.

21 I went but full, and the Lord hath caused me to returne empty: why call ye me Naomi, seeing the Lord hath humbled me, and the Almighty hath brought me vnto aduersitie.

22 So Naomi returned and Ruth the Moabitess her daughter in law with her, when she came out of the country of Moab: & they came to Beth-lehem in the beginning of barley harvest.

CHAP. II.

Ruth gathereth corne in the fieldes of Boaz. 1. The Gentiles of Boaz toward her.

1 Then Naomis husband had a kinsman, one of great power of the familie of Elimelech, & his name [was] Boaz.

2 And Ruth the Moabitess said vnto Naomi, I pray thee, let me go to the field, and gather eares of corne after him, in whose sight I finde fauour. And she said vnto her, Go my daughter.

3 ¶ And she went, and came and gleaned in the field after the reapers, and it came to passe, that she met with the portion of the field of Boaz, who was of the familie of Elimelech.

4 And beholde, Boaz came from Beth-lehem, and said vnto the reapers, The Lord [be] with you: and they answered him, The Lord blesse thee.

5 Then said Boaz vnto his seruant that was appointed ouer the reapers, Whose maide is this?

6 And the seruant that was appointed ouer the reapers, answered, and said, It is the Moabitish mayde, that came with Naomi out of the country of Moab.

7 And she said vnto vs, I pray you, let me glean and gather after the reapers t among the sheaves: so she came, and hath continued from that time in the morning vnto now, saue t she taryed a litle in the house.

8 ¶ Then said Boaz vnto Ruth, Hearrest thou, my daughter: go to none other field to gather, nether go from hence: but abide here by my handens.

9 Let thine eyes be on the field that they bid reape, and go thither after the handens. I haue t nouer sold the seruants, that they touch the corne: & Moyses when thou

 10 Then she fel on her face, and bowed her selfe to the ground, and said vnto him, How haue I found fauour in thine eyes, that thou shuldest knowe me, being I am a stranger?
 11 And Boaz answered, and said vnto her, All is tolde and shewed me that thou hast done vnto thy mother in law, since the death of thine housband, and how thou hast left thy father and thy mother, and the land where thou wast borne, and art come vnto a people which thou knewest not in time past.
 12 The Lord recompence thy worke, and a full reward be giuen thee of the Lord God of Israel, vnder whose wings thou art come to trust.
 13 Then she said, Let me finde fauour in thy sight, my Lord: for thou hast comforted me, and spoken comfortably vnto thy maid, though I be not like to one of thy maids.
 14 And Boaz said vnto her, At the meale time come thou hither, and eat of the breade, and dip thy morsel in the vinegre. And she sat beside the reapers, and he reached her parched corne: and she did eat, & was sufficed, and left thereof.
 15 ¶ And when she arose to glean, Boaz commanded his seruants, saying, Let her gather among the sheaues, and do not rebuke her.
 16 Also let fall (some) of the sheaues for her, and let it lie, that she may gather it vp, and rebuke her not.
 17 So she gleaned in the field vntil euening, and she threshed that she had gathered, & it was about an Ephah of barley.
 18 ¶ And she toke it vp, and went into the citie, and her mother in law sawe what she had gathered: also she toke for the, and gaue to her that which she had reserved, when she was sufficed.
 19 Then her mother in law said vnto her, Where hast thou gleaned to day? & where wroughtest thou? blessed be he, that knewe thee. And she shewed her mother in law, with whome she had wrought, & said, The mans name with whome I wrought to day, is Boaz.
 20 And Naomi said vnto her daughter in law, Blessed be he of the Lord, for he lea- seth not to do good to the liuing, and to the dead. Againe Naomi said vnto her, The man is here vnto vs, and of our affinitie.
 21 And Ruth the Moabitise said, He said also certainly vnto me, Thou shalt be with my seruants, vntil they haue ended all mine haruest.

 22 And Naomi answered vnto Ruth her daughter in law, It is best my daughter, & thou go out with his maids, that they mete thee not in an other field.
 23 Then she kept her by the maids of Boaz, to gather vnto the end of barley haruest, and of wheat haruest, and dwelt with her mother in law.

CHAP. III.

1 Naomi giueth Ruth counsel, 3 She slepeth at Boazs fete.
 2 He acknowledgeth him self to be her kinsman.
 1 Afterward Naomi her mother in law said vnto hir, My daughter, shall not I seke rest for thee, that thou maiest prosper?
 2 Now also is not Boaz our kinsman, with whose maids thou wast? beholde, he wi- noweth barley to night in the floore.
 3 Wash thy selfe therefore, & anoint thee, and put thy rayment vpon thee, and get thee downe to the floore: let not the ma- knowe of thee, vntil he haue left eating & drinking.
 4 And when he shal slepe, marke the place where he layeth him downe, and go, and vncouer the place of his fete, and lay thee downe, & he shal tel thee what thou shalt do.
 5 And she answered her, All that thou biddest me, I will do.
 6 ¶ So she went downe vnto the floore, & did according to all that her mother in law bade her.
 7 And when Boaz had eaten, and dronke, & cheared his heart, he wet to lie downe at the end of the heape of corne, and she came softly, and vncouered the place of his fete, and lay downe.
 8 And at midnight the man was afraied, & caught holde: & lo, a womā lay at his fete.
 9 Then he said, Who art thou? And she answered, I am Ruth thine handmaide: spread therefore the wing of thy garment ouer thine handmaide: for thou art the kinsman.
 10 Then said he, Blessed be thou of the Lord, my daughter: & hast thou shewed more goodnes in the latter end, then at the be- ginning, in as much as thou followedst not yong men, were they poore or riche.
 11 And now, my daughter, feare not: I will do to thee all that thou requirest: for all the citie of my people doeth knowe, that thou art a vertuous woman.
 12 And now it is true that I am thy kins- man, howbeit there is a kinsman nearer then I.

15 Also he said, bring the sheete that thou hast vpon thee, & holde it. And when she helde it, he measured six [measures] of barley, and laied them on her, & went into the citie.

16 And when she came to her mother in law, she said, Who art thou, my daughter? And she tolde her all that the man had done to her.

17 And said, These six [measures] of barley gaue he me: for he said to me, Thou shalt not come emptie vnto thy mother in law.

18 Then said she, My daughter, sit still, vntil thou knowe how the thing wil fall: for the man wil not be in rest, vntil he hath finished the matter this same day.

CHAP. III.

Boaz speaketh to Ruths next kinsman touching her marriage. 7 The ancient custome in Israel. 10 Boaz marryeth Ruth of whom he begetteth Obéd. 18 The generation of Pharez.

1 Then went Boaz vp to the gate, and sate there, & beholde, the kinsman, of whom Boaz had spoken, came by: & he said, Ho, suche one, come sit downe here. And he turned, and sate downe.

2 Then he toke ten men of the Elders of the citie, & said, Sit ye downe here. And they sate downe.

3 And he said vnto the kinsman, Naomi, that is come againe out of the countrey of Moab, wil sel a parcel of land, which was our brother Elimélechs.

4 And I thought to aduertise thee, saying, Bye it before the Iassists, and before the Elders of my people. If thou wilt redeme it, redeme it: but if thou wilt not redeme it, tel me: for I knowe that there is none besides thee to redeme it, & I am after thee. Then he answered, I wil redeme it.

5 Then said Boaz, What day thou byest the field of the hand of Naomi, thou must also bye it of Ruth the Moabitesse the wife of the dead, to stirre vp the name of the dead, vpon his inheritance.

6 And the kinsman answered, I can not redeme it, lest I destroy mine owne inheritance: redeme my right to thee, for I can not redeme it.

7 Now this was the maner beforetime in Israel, concerning redeming & changing, for to stablish all things: a man did plucke of his shoe, and gaue it his neighbour, & this was a sure witnes in Israel.

8 Therefore the kinsman said to Boaz, Bye it for thee: & he drue of his shoe.

9 And Boaz said vnto the Elders and vnto all the people, Ye are witnesses this day, that I haue bought all that was Elimélechs, and all that was Chilion & Mahlon, of the hand of Naomi.

10 And moreover, Ruth the Moabitesse the wife of Mahlon, haue I bought to be my wife, to stirre vp the name of the dead vpon his inheritance, & that the name of the dead be not put out from among his brethren, and from the gate of his place: ye are witnesses this day.

11 And all the people that were in the gate, & the Elders said, We are witnesses: the Lord make the wife that cometh into thine house, like Rahel and like Leah, which twaine did buyld the house of Israel: and that thou mayest co-worthely in Ephraim, and be famous in Beth-lehem.

12 And that thine house be like the house of Pharez (* whome Thamar bare vnto Iudah) of the seide which the Lord shal giue thee of this yong woman.

13 ¶ So Boaz toke Ruth, & she was his wife: & when he went in vnto her, the Lord gaue, that she conceiued, & bare a sonne.

14 And the woman said vnto Naomi, Elef-ed [be] the Lord, which hath not left thee this day without a kinsman, and his Name shalbe continued in Israel.

15 And this shal bring thy life againe, and cherish thine olde age: for thy daughter in lawe which loueth thee, hath borne vnto him, and she is better to thee then seuen sonnes.

16 And Naomi toke the childe, and layed it in her lap, and became a source vnto it.

THE FIRST BOKE OF SAMUEL.

THE ARGUMENT.

According as God had ordained Deut. 17. 14. that when the Israelites shoulde be in the land of Canaan, he wolde appoint them a King: so here in this first boke of Samuel is declared the state of this people vnder their first King Saul, who not content with that ordre, which God had for a time appointed for the gouernement of his Church, demanded a King, to the intent he might be as other nations, and in a greater assurance, as they thought: not because they might the better thereby serue God, as being vnder the safeguard of him, which did represent Iesus Christ the true deliuerer: the more he gaue them a tyrant and an hypocrite to rule ouer them, that they might learne, that the persone of a King is not sufficient to defend them, except God by his power presente, and kepe them. And therefore he punisheth the ingratitude of his people, and sendeth them continual warres both at home and abroad: And because Saul, who was of nothing God had preferred to the honour of a King, did not acknowledge Gods mercie towards him, but rather gloried in the worke of God, and was not zealous of his glorie, he was by the voyce of God put downe from his state, and Dauid the true figure of Messiah placed in his steade, whose patience, modestie, constantie, persecution by open enemies, faulced friends, and dessembling flatterers, are left to the Church, and to euery member of the same, as a paterne and example to beholde their state and vocation.

CHAP. I.

1 The genealogie of Elkanah father of Samuel. 2 His two wiues. 3 Hannah was barren and prayed to the Lord. 4 Her answer to Eli. 5 Samuel is borne. 6 She doeth dedicate him to the Lord.

a There were two Ranieths, for in this crie in mount Ephraim were Zophim, that is the learned men and Prophets.

Here was a man of one of the two Ranieths, Zophim, of mount Ephraim, whose name [was] Elkanah the sonne of Ieroham, the sonne of Elihu, the sonne of Tohu, the sonne of Zuph an Ephraimite.

2 And he had two wiues: the name of one [was] Hannah, and the name of the other Peninnah: & Peninnah had children, but Hannah had no children.

* Deut. 16. 16.

3 And this man went vp out of his citie euerie yere, to worship & to sacrifice vnto the Lord of hostes in Shiloh, where were two sonnes of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas Priests of the Lord.

b For the Ark was there at that time.

4 And on a day, when Elkanah sacrificed, he gaue to Peninnah his wife and to all her sonnes and daughters portions,

c Some read, a portion with a many cheate.

But vnto Hannah he gaue a worthy portion: for he loued Hannah, and the Lord had made her barren.

5 And her aduersarie vexed her sore, forasmuche as she vbraided her, because the Lord had made her barren.

d Let this suffice thee, that I lone thee no less then if thou hadst many children.

6 (And so did he yere by yere) & as oft as he went vp to the house of the Lord, thus she vexed her, that she wept & did not eat.

7 Then said Elkanah her husband to her, Hannah, why wepest thou, and why eatest thou not? & why is thine heart troubled? am not I better to thee then ten sonnes?

8 So Hannah rose vp after that they had eaten and dronke in Shiloh (and Eli the Priest sat vpon a stole by one of the postes of the Temple of the Lord)

10 And she was troubled in her minde, & praied vnto the Lord, and wept sore:

11 Also she vowed a vowe, & said, O Lord of hostes, if thou wilt loke on the trouble of thine handmayd, and remember me, & not forget thine handmayd, but giue vnto thine handmayd a manchild, then I will giue him vnto the Lord all the dayes of his life; and there shall no razor come vpon his head.

12 And as she continued praying before the Lord, Eli marked her mouth.

13 For Hannah spake in her heart: her lippes did moue onely, but her voyce was not heard: therefore Eli thought she had bene dronken.

14 And Eli said vnto her, How long wilt thou be dronken? Put away thy dronkenes from thee.

15 Then Hannah answered and said, Nay my lord, but I am a woman troubled in spirit: I haue dronke neither wine nor strong drinke, but haue poynted out my soule before the Lord.

16 Count not thine handmaid for a wicked woman: for of the abundance of my complaint and my grief haue I spoken hither to.

17 Then Eli answered, & said, Go in peace, and the God of Israel grant thy petition that thou hast asked of him.

18 She said againe, Let thine handmaid finde grace in thy sight: so the woman went her way, and did eat, and looked no more sad.

19 Then they rose vp early, & worshipped before the Lord, & returned, & came to their house to Ramah. Now Elkanah knewe Hannah his wife, and the Lord remembered her.

20 For in proceſſe of time Hannáh conceiued, and bare a ſonne, and ſhe called his name Samuél, Becauſe, [ſaid ſhe,] I haue aſked him of the Lord.

21 ¶ So the man ^h Elkanáh & all his houſe went vp to offer vnto the Lord the yerely ſacrifice, and his vowe.

22 But Hannáh went not vp: for ſhe ſaid vnto her houſband, [I wil tary] vntil the childe be weined, then I wil bring him that he may appeare before the Lord, and there abide for euer.

23 And Elkanáh her houſband ſaid vnto her, Do what ſemeth thee beſt: tary vntil thou haſt weined him: onely the Lord accompliſh his ⁱ worde. So the woman abode, and gaue her ſonne ſucke vntil ſhe weined him.

24 ¶ And when ſhe had weined him, ſhe toke him with her with thre bullockes & an ^e Epháh of floure & a bottle of wine, & broght him vnto the houſe of the Lord in Shilóh, and the childe was tyong.

25 And they ſlewe a bullocke, and broght the childe to Eli.

26 And ſhe ſaid, Oh my lord, as thy ^k ſoule liueth, my lord, I am the woman that ſtoode with thee here praying vnto the Lord.

27 I prayed for this childe, and the Lord haſte giuen me my deſire which I aſked of him.

28 Therefore alſo I haue giuen him vnto the Lord: as long as he liueth he ſhal be giuen vnto the Lord: and he ⁱ worſhipped the Lord there.

1 The ſong of Hannáh. 12 The ſonnes of Eli, wicked. 13 The newe cuſtome of the Priests. 18 Samuél miniſtred before the Lord. 20 Eli bleſſed Elkanáh and his wife. 23 Eli reſproueth his ſonnes. 27 God ſendeth a Prophet to Eli. 31 Eli is menaced for not chaſtiſing his children.

1 And Hannáh ^a praied, & ſaid, Mine heart reioyceth in the Lord: mine ^b horne is exalted in the Lord: my mouth is ^c enlarged ouer mine enemies, becauſe I reioyce in thy ſaluation.

2 There is none holy as the Lord: yea, there is none beſides thee, & there is no God like our God.

3 Speake ^d no more preſumptuouſly: let not arrogancie come out of your mouth: for the Lord [is] a God of knowledge, and by him enterpriſes are eſtabliſhed.

6 * The Lord killeth, & maketh aliue: bringeth downe to the graue, and raiſeth vp.

7 The Lord maketh poore, and maketh riche: bringeth lowe, and exalterh.

8 * He raiſeth vp the poore out of the duſt, and liſteth vp the begger from the donghil, to ſet [them] among ^f princes, and to make them inherite the ſeat of glorie: for the pillars of the earth are the ^g Lords, and he haſte ſet the worlde vpon them.

9 He wil kepe the ſete of his Sainctes, and the wicked ſhal kepe ſilence in darkeneſſe: for in [his owne] might ſhal no man be ſtrong.

10 The Lords aduerſaries ſhal be deſtroyed, and out of heauen ſhal he ^{*} thunder vpon them: the Lord ſhal iudge the ends of the worlde, and ſhal giue power vnto his ^h King, and exalte the horne of his Anointed.

11 And Elkanáh went to Ramáh to his houſe, and the childe did miniſter vnto the Lord ⁱ before Eli the Prieſt.

12 ¶ Now the ſonnes of Eli [were] wicked men, [&] ^k knewe not the Lord.

13 For the Priests cuſtome toward the people [was this,] when any man offred ſacrifice, the Priests ^l boy came, while the fleſh was ſeruing, & a fleſhoke with thre teeth in his hand,

14 And thruſt it into the kettle, or into the caldren, or into the pan, or into the pot: ^l all that the fleſhoke broght vp, the Prieſt toke for him ſelfe: thus they did vnto all the Iſraelites, that came thither to Shilóh.

15 Yea, before they burnt the ^m fat, the Priests boy came and ſaid to the man that offred, Giue me fleſh to roſt for the Prieſt: for he wil not haue ſodden fleſh of thee, but rawe.

16 And if any man ſaid vnto him, Let theſe burne the fat according to the ⁿ cuſtome, then take as muche as thine heart ^a deſireth: then he wolde anſwer, No, but thou ſhalt giue it now: and if thou wilt not, I wil take it by force.

17 Therefore the ſinne of the yong men was very great before the Lord: for men ^o abhorred the offering of the Lord.

21 And the Lord visited Hannáh, so that she conceived, and bare thre sonnes, and two daughters. And the childe Samuél grewe before the Lord.

22 ¶ So Eli was very olde, & heard all that his sonnes did vnto all Israël, & how they laye with the women that assembled at the dore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

23 And he said vnto them, Why do ye suche things: for of all this people I heare euil reportes of you.

24 [Do] no [more], my sonnes: for it is no good reporte that I heare, [which is,] that ye make the Lords people to trespasse.

25 If one man sinne against an other, the iudge shal iudge it: but if a man sinne against the Lord, who wil pleade for him? Notwithstanding they obeyed not the voyce of their father, because the Lord wolde slaye them.

26 ¶ (Now the childe Samuél profited & grewe, and was in fauour bothe with the Lord, and also with men)

27 And there came a man of God vnto Eli and said vnto him, Thus saith the Lord, Did not I plainly appeare vnto the house of thy father, when they were in Egypt in Pharaohs house?

28 And I chose him out of all the tribes of Israël to be my Priest, to offer vpon mine altar, and to burne incense, and to weare an Ephód before me, & I gaue vnto the house of thy father all the offerings made by fire of the children of Israël.

29 Wherefore haue you kikéd against my sacrifice and mine offering, which I commanded in my Tabernacle, and honorest thy children about me, to make your selues fat of the first frutes of all the offerings of Israël my people?

30 Wherefore the Lord God of Israël saith, I said, that thine house & the house of thy father shulde walke before me for euer: but now the Lord saith, It shal not be so: for them that honour me, I wil honour, and they that despise me, shal be despised.

31 Beholde, the dayes come, that I wil cut of thine arme, and the arme of thy fathers house, that there shal not be an olde man in thine house.

32 And thou shalt se [thine] enemy in the habitation [of the Lord] in all things wherewith [God] shal blesse Israël, & there shal not be an olde man in thine house for euer.

33 Neuertheles, I wil not destroy euerie one of thine from mine altar, to make thine eyes to faile, & to make thine heart sorrowful: & all the multitude of thine house shal dye [when they be] men.

34 And this shalbe a signe vnto thee, that shal come vpon thy two sonnes Hophni and Phinehas: in one day they shal dye bothe.

35 And I wil stirre me vp a faithful Priest, that shal do according to mine heart and according to my minde: & I wil buyld him a sure house, & he shal walke before mine Anointed for euer.

36 And all that are left in thine house, shal come and bowe downe to him for a peece of siluer and a morfel of bread, and shal say, Appoint me, I pray thee, to one of the Priests offices, that I may eat a morfel of bread.

CHAP. III.

1 There was no manifest vision in the time of Eli. 4 The Lord calleth Samuél thre times. 11 And sheweth what shal come vpon Eli and his house. 18 The same declareth Samuél to Eli.

Now the childe Samuél ministered vnto the Lord before Eli: and the worde of the Lord was precious in those dayes: for there was no manifest vision. And at that time, as Eli laye in his place, his eyes began to waxe dimme, that he colde not se.

3 And yer the light of God went out, Samuél slept in the temple of the Lord, where the Arke of God was.

4 Then the Lord called Samuél: and he said, Here I am.

5 And he ran vnto Eli, and said, Here am I, for thou calledst me. But he said, I called thee not: go againe [and] slepe. And he went and slept.

6 And the Lord called once againe, Samuél. And Samuél arose, and went to Eli, & said, I am here: for thou didest cal me, And he answered, I called thee not, my sonne: go againe [and] slepe.

7 Thus [did] Samuél, before he knewe the Lord, and before the worde of the Lord was reueiled vnto him.

8 And the Lord called Samuél againe the third time: and he arose, and went to Eli, and said, I am here: for thou hast called me. Then Eli perceiued that the Lord had called the childe.

9 Therefore Eli said vnto Samuél, Go [and] slepe: and if he call thee, then say, Speake Lord, for thy seruant heareth. So Samuél went, and slept in his place.

10 And the Lord came, & stode, and called as at other times, Samuél, Samuél. The Samuél answered, Speake, for thy seruant heareth.

11 ¶ Then the Lord said to Samuël, Beholde, I wil do a thing in Israël, whereof who soeuer shal heare, his two eares shal tingle.

12 In that day I wil raise vp against Eli all things which I haue spoken concerning his house: when I begin, I wil also make an end.

13 And I haue tolde him that I wil iudge his house for euer, for the iniquitie which he knoweth, because his sonnes ran into a slander, and he stayed them not.

14 Now therefore I haue sworne vnto the house of Eli, that the wickednes of Elis house shal not be purged with sacrifice nor offeringⁱ for euer.

15 Afterwarde Samuël slept vntil the morning, and opened the doores of the house of the Lord, and Samuël feared to shewe Eli the vision.

16 ¶ Then Eli called Samuël, and said, Samuël my sonne. And he answered, Here I am.

17 Thē he said, What is it, that [the Lord] said vnto thee? I pray thee, hide it not from me. God^k do so to thee, and more also, if thou hide anie thing from me of all that he said vnto thee.

18 So Samuël tolde him euerie whit, and hid nothing from him. Then he said, It is y^e Lord: let him do what semeth hi good.

19 ¶ And Samuël grewe, & the Lord was with him, and let none of his wordes^l fall to the grounde.

1 AND Samuël spake vnto all Israël: & Israël went out against the Philistims to battel, & pitched beside[†] Ebenēzer: & the Philistims pitched in Aphék.

2 And the Philistims put them selues in array against Israël: & when they ioyned the battel, Israël was smitten downe before the Philistims: who slewe of the armie in the field about foure thousand men.

3 So when the people were come into the campe, the Elders of Israël said, ^a Wherefore hath the Lord smitten vs this day before the Philistims? let vs bring the Arke of the couenant of the Lord out of Shiloh vnto vs, that when it commeth among vs, it may saue vs out of the hand of our enemies.

4 Then the people sent to Shiloh, & brought from thence the Arke of the couenant of the Lord of hostes, who^b dwelleth betwene the Cherubims: and there [were] the two sonnes of Eli, Hophni, & Phinehas, with the Arke of the couenant of God.

5 And when the Arke of the couenant of the Lord came into the hoste, all Israël showed a mighty showte, so that the earth rang againe.

6 And when the Philistims heard the noise of the showte, they said, What meaneth the sounde of this mightie showte in the hoste of the Ebrewes? & they vnderstode that the Arke of the Lord was come into the hoste.

7 And the Philistims were afraid, and said, God is come into the hoste: therefore said they, ^c Wo vnto vs: for it hathe not bene so heretofore.

8 Wo vnto vs, who shal deliuer vs out of the hand of these mightie Gods: these are the Gods that smote the Egyptians with all the plagues in the^d wilderness.

9 Be strong & play the men, o Philistims, that ye be not seruants vnto the Ebrewes, ^e as they haue serued you: be valiant therefore and fight.

10 And the Philistims fought, and Israël was smitten downe, and fled euerie man into his tent: and there was an exceeding great slaughter: for there fel of Israël ^f thirtie thousand foremen.

11 And the Arke of God was taken, & the two sonnes of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas dyed.

12 And there ran a man of Beniamin out of the armie, and came to Shiloh the same day with his clothes rent, and earth vpon his head, 13 And when he came, lo, Eli sat vpon a seate by the way side, waiting: for his heart^g feared for the Arke of God: and when the man came into the citie to tel it, all the citie cryed out.

14 And when Eli heard the noise of the crying, he said, What meaneth this noise of the tumult? & the man came in hastily, and tolde Eli.

15 (Now Eli [was] fourescore & eightene yere olde, and^h his eyes were dimme that he colde not se)

16 And the man said vnto Eli, I came from the armie, and I fled this day out of the hoste: and he said, What thing is done, my sonne?

CHAP. V.

a The Philistines bring the Arke into the house of Dagon, which idole set downe before in. b The men of Ashdod are plagued. c The Arke is carryed into Gath and after to Ekron.

¶ Then the Philistines toke the Arke of God and carryed it fro Eben-ezer vnto Ashdod.

2 ¶ Then the Philistines toke the Arke of God, and broght it into the house of Dagon; and set it by Dagon.

3 And when they of Ashdod rose the next day in the morning beholde, Dagon was fallen vpon his face on the grounde before the Arke of the Lord, and they toke vp Dagon, and set him in his place againe.

4 Also they rose vp early in the morning the next day, & beholde, Dagon was fallen vpon his face on the grounde before the Arke of the Lord, & the head of Dagon and the two palmes of his hands were cut of vpon the threshold: onely the stump of Dagon was left to him.

5 Therefore the Priests of Dagon, and all that come into Dagon's house treade not on the threshold of Dagon in Ashdod, vnto this day.

6 But the hand of the Lord was heauy vpo them of Ashdod, and destroyed them, and smote them with emerods, [bothe] Ashdod, and the coastes thereof.

7 And when the men of Ashdod sawe this, they said, Let not the Arke of the God of Israel abide with vs: for his hand is sore

vpon vs and vpon Dagon our god.

8 They sent therefore and gathered all the princes of the Philistines vnto them, and said, What shal we do with the Arke of the God of Israel? And they answered, Let the Arke of the God of Israel be carryed about vnto Gath: & they carryed the Arke of the God of Israel about.

9 And when they had carryed it about, the hand of the Lord was against the cite with a very great destruction, and he smote the men of the cite bothe small and great, & they had emerods in their secret partes.

10 ¶ Therefore they sent the Arke of God to Ekron: and as sone as the Arke of God came to Ekron, the Ekronites cryed out, saying, They haue broght the Arke of the God of Israel to vs to slay vs and our people.

11 Therefore they sent, and gathered roge-ther all the princes of the Philistines and said, Send away the Arke of the God of Israel, and let it returne to his owne place, that it slay vs not & our people: for there was a destruction [and] death throughout all the cite, [&] the hand of God was very sore there.

12 And the men that dyed not, were smitten with the emerods: and the crye of the cite went vp to heauen.

¶ SO the Arke of the Lord was in the 2 And the Philistines called the Priestes & the soothsayers, saying, What shal we do they answered, Fiue golden emerods and 6 Wherefore then shulde ye harden your hartes, as the Egyptians & Pharaoh hardened their hartes, when he wrought wonderfully among them? did they not let them go, and they departed?

7 Now therefore make a newe carte, and take two milke kine, on whome there hath come no yoke: & tye the kine to the carte, and bring the calves home from them.

8 Then take the Arke of the Lord, and set it vpon the carte, and put the iewels of golde, which ye gaue it for a sinne offering in a coffer by the side thereof, and send it away, that it may go.

9 And take heed, if it go vp by the way of his owne coast to Beth-shemesh, it is he that did vs this great euill: but if not, we shal knowe then, that it is not his hand that smote vs, (but it was a chance that happened vs).

10 And the men did so: for they took two kine that gaue milke, & tyled them to the carte, and shut the calves at home.

11 So they set the Arke of the Lord vpon the carte, and the coffer with the mice of golde, and with the similitudes of their emerods.

12 And the kine went the straight way to Beth-shemesh, & kept one path & lowed as they went, & turned neither to the right hand nor to the left: also the princes of the Philistims went after them, vnto the borders of Beth-shemesh.

13 Now they of Beth-shemesh were reaping their wheat harvest in the valley, & they lift vp their eyes, and spied the Arke, and reioyced when they sawe it.

14 And the carte came into the feld of Ioshua a Bethshemite, & stode still there: there was also a great stone, and thei claue the wood of the carte, and offered the kine for a burnt offering vnto the Lord.

15 And the Leuites rote downe the Arke of the Lord, and the coffer that was with it, wherein the iewels of golde were, and put them on the great stone, and the men of Beth-shemesh offered burnt offering, and sacrificed sacrifices that same day vnto the Lord.

16 And when the five princes of the Philistims had sent it, they returned to Ekron the same day.

17 So these are the golden emerods, which the Philistims gaue for a sinne offering to the Lord: for Ashdod one, for Gaza one, for Askelon one, for Gath one, [&] for Ekron one:

17 And golden mice, according to the number of all the cities of the Philistims, [belonging] to the five princes, bothe of walled townes and of townes vnwalled, vnto the great stone of Abel, whereon they set the Arke of the Lord: [which stone remaineth] vnto this day in the field of Ioshua the Bethshemite.

19 And he smote of the men of Beth-shemesh, because they had looked in the Arke of the Lord: he slewe euen among the people fiftie thousand men and thre score and ten men. and the people lamented, because the Lord had slayne the people with so great a slaughter.

20 Wherefore the men of Beth-shemesh said, Who is able to stand before this holy Lord God, and to whome shal he go from vs?

21 And they sent messengers to the inhabitants of Kirith-earim, saying, The Philistims haue brought againe the Arke of the Lord: come ye downe, & take it vp to you.

CHAP. VII.

The Arke is brought to Kirith-earim. Samuel exhorts the people to forsake their sinnes and turne to the Lord. The Philistims fight against Israel and are overcome. Samuel iudgeth Israel.

1 Then the men of Kirith-earim came, & toke vp the Arke of the Lord, and brought it into the house of Abinadab in the hill: and they sanctified Eleazar his sonne to kepe the Arke of the Lord.

2 (For while the Arke abode in Kirith-earim, the time was long, for it was twentie yeres) and all the house of Israel lamented after the Lord.

3 Then Samuel spake vnto all the house of Israel saying, If ye be come againe vnto the Lord with all your hearte, put away the strange gods from among you, & Ashtaroth, and direct your hearts vnto the Lord, and serue him onely, and he shal deliuer you out of the hand of the Philistims.

4 Then the children of Israel did put away Baalim and Ashtaroth, and serued the Lord onely.

5 And Samuel said, Gather all Israel to Mizpeh, and I wil pray for you vnto the Lord.

6 And they gathered together to Mizpeh, and drewe water and powred it out before the Lord, and fasted the same day, & said there, We haue sinned against the Lord. And Samuel iudgeth the children of Israel in Mizpeh.

dren of Israel were gathered together to Mizpéh, the princes of the Philistims wēt vp against Israel: and when the children of Israel heard that, they were afraied of the Philistims.

8 And the children of Israel said to Samuél, Cease not to crye vnto the Lord our God for vs, that he may saue vs out of the hand of the Philistims.

9 Then Samuél toke a sucking lambe, and offred it all together for a burnt offering vnto the Lord, and Samuél cryed vnto the Lord for Israel, and the Lord heard him.

10 And as Samuél offred the burnt offering, the Philistims came to fight against Israel: but the Lord ^f thundred with a great thundre that day vpon the Philistims, and scatred them: so they were slaine before Israel.

11 And the men of Israel went from Mizpéh and pursued the Philistims, and smote them vntil [they came] vnto Beth-car.

12 Then Samuél toke a stone and pitched it betwene Mizpéh and ⁸ Shen, and called the name thereof, Eben-ézer, and he said, Hitherto hath the Lord holpen vs.

13 ¶ So the Philistims were brought vnder, & they came no more againe into the coastes of Israel: and the hand of the Lord was against the Philistims all the dayes of Samuél.

14 Also the cities which the Philistims had taken from Israel, were restored to Israel, from Ekrón euen to Gath: & Israel deliuered the coastes of the same out of the háds of the Philistims: & there was peace betwene Israel & the ^h Amorites.

15 And Samuél iudgeth Israel all the dayes of his life.

16 And went about yere by yere to Beth-él, and Gilgál, and Mizpéh, and iudgeth Israel in all those places.

6 But the thing ^d displeased Samuél, when they said, Giue vs a King to iudge vs: and Samuél prayed vnto the Lord.

8 As they haue euer done since I broght them out of Egypt euen vnto this day, (& haue forsaken me, and serued other gods) euen so do they vnto thee.

9 Now therefore hearken vnto their voyce: howbeit yet ^e testifie vnto them and shewe them the maner of the King that shal reigne ouer them.

10 ¶ So Samuél tolde all the wordes of the Lord vnto the people that asked a King of him.

11 And he said, This shalbe the ^f maner of the King that shal reigne ouer you: he wil take your sonnes, & appoint them to his charets, and to be his horsmen, [& some] shal runne before his charet.

12 Also he wil make them his captaines ouer thousandes and captaines ouer fifties, and to eare his grounde, and to reape his haruest, & to make instruments of warre, and the things that serue for his charets.

13 He wil also take your daughters and make them apoticaries, and cookes, and bakers.

14 And he wil take your fieldes, and your vineyardes, and your best oliue trees, and giue them to his seruants.

15 And he wil take the tenth of your feld, and of your vineyardes, and giue it to his [†] Eunuches, and to his seruants.

16 And he wil take your men seruants and your maid seruants, and the chief of your yong men, and your asses, and put them to his worke.

17 He wil take the tenth of your shepe, and ye shalbe his seruants.

18 And ye shal crye out at that day, because of your King, whome ye haue chosen you, and the Lord wil not ⁸ heare you at that day.

1 Saul seeking his fathers asses, by the counsel of his seruant goeth to Samuel. 9 The Prophets called Seers. 15 The Lord reuileth to Samuel Sauls coming, commanding him to anoint him King. 22 Samuel bringeth Saul to the feast.

1 THere was now a man of Benjamin ^amightie in power named ^{*}Kish the sonne of Abiel, the sonne of Zeror, the sonne of Bechorath, the sonne of Aphiah, the sonne of a man of Iemini,

3 And the asses of Kish Saules father were lost: therefore Kish said to Saul his sonne, Take now one of the seruants with thee, and arise, go; and ^cseke the asses.

4 So he passed through mount Ephraim & went through the land of Shalishah, but they founde them not. Then they went through the land of Shalim: & [there they were] not: he went also through the land of Iemini, but they founde them not.

5 When they came to the land of ^dZuph, Saul said vnto his seruant that was with him, Come and let vs returne, lest my father leaue [the care] of asses, & take thought for vs.

6 And he said vnto him, Beholde now, in this citie is a man of God, and he is an honorable man: all that he saith commeth to passe: let vs now go thither, if so be that he can shewe vs what way we may go.

7 Then said Saul to his seruant, Wel then, let vs go: but what shal we bring vnto the man? For the bread is spent in our vessels, & there is no present to bring to the man of God: what haue we?

8 And the seruant answered Saul againe, & said, Beholde, I haue found about me the fourth partie of a ^{*}shekle of siluer: that wil I giue the man of God, to tel vs our way.

9 (Beforetime in Israel when a man went to seke an answer of God, thus he spake, Come and let vs go to the ^fSeer: for [he that is called] now a Prophet, was in the olde time called a Seer)

10 Then said Saul to his seruant, Wel said, come, let vs go: so they went into the citie where the man of God was.

11 [¶]And as they were going vp the hie way to the citie, they founde maydes that came out to drawe water, & said vnto them, Is there here a Seer?

12 And they answered them, & said, Yea: lo, [he is] before you. make haste now, for he came this day to the citie: for there is an ^goffring of the people this day in the hie place.

14 Then they went vp into the citie, and when they were come into the middes of the citie, Samuel came out against them, to go vp to the hie place.

15 [¶]But the Lord had reuiled to Samuel secretly (a day before Saul came) saying, 17 When Samuel therefore sawe Saul, the Lord answered him, Se, this is the man whome I spake to thee of, he shal rule my people.

18 Then went Saul to Samuel in the middes of the gate, and said, Tel me, I pray thee, where the Seers house is.

19 And Samuel answered Saul, and said, I am the Seer: go vp before me vnto the hie place: for ye shal eat with me to day, and tomorowe I wil let thee go, & wil tel thee all that is in thine ^kheart.

Then Nahash the Ammonite came vnto Iabesh Gilead, and besieged Iabesh Gilead: and all the men of Iabesh said vnto Nahash, Make a covenant with vs, and we wil be thy seruants.

9 Then they said vnto the messengers that came, So say vnto the men of Iabesh Gilead, Tomorrow by then the sunne be hot, ye shal haue helpe. And the messengers came and shewed it to the men of Iabesh, which were glad.

10 Therefore the men of Iabesh said, Tomorrow we wil come out vnto you, & ye shal do with vs all that pleaseth you.

11 And which the morowe was come, Saül put the people in thre bands, & they came in vpon the hoste in the morning watch, & slew the Ammonites vntil the heate of the day: and they that remained, were scattered, so that two of them were not left together.

12 Then the people said vnto Samuël, Who is he that said, Shal Saül reigne ouer vs? bring those men that we may slaye them.

13 But Saül said, There shal no man dye this day: for to day the Lord hath saved Israel.

14 Then said Samuël vnto the people, Come that we may go to Gilgal, & renue the kingdome there.

6 And when the men of Israël sawe that they were in a strait [for the people were in distresse] the people hid them selues in caues, and in holdes, and in rockes, & towres, and in pittes.

7 And [some] of the Ebrewes went ouer Iordén vnto the land of Gad and Gileád: and Saúl was yet in Gilgál, and all the people for feare followed him.

8 And he taried seuen dayes, according vnto the time that Samuél had appointed: but Samuél came not to Gilgál, therefore the people were scattered from him.

9 And Saúl said, Bring a burnt offering to me and peace offerings: and he offered a burnt offering.

10 And as soone as he had made an end of offering the burnt offering, beholde, Samuél came: and Saúl went forth to mete him, to salute him.

11 And Samuél said, What hast thou done? Then Saúl said, Because I sawe that the people was scattered from me, and that thou camest not within the dayes appointed, & that the Philistims gathered them selues together to Michmásh, 12 Therefore said I, The Philistims will come downe now vpon me to Gilgál, & I have not made supplicatiō vnto the Lord. I was bolde therefore and offered a burnt offering.

13 And Samuél said to Saúl, Thou hast done foolishly: thou hast not kept the commandment of the Lord thy God, whiche he commanded thee: for the Lord had now stablished thy kingdome vpon Israël for ever.

14 But now thy kingdome shal not continue: the Lord hath sought him a man after his owne heart, and the Lord hath commanded him to be gouernour ouer his people, because thou hast not kept that which the Lord had commanded thee.

15 ¶ And Samuél arose, and gate him vp from Gilgál in Gibeáh of Benjamin: and Saúl nombred the people that were found with him, about six hundred men.

16 And Saúl and Ionathán his sonne, and the people that were founde with them, had their abiding in Gibeáh of Benjamin: but the Philistims pitched in Michmásh.

17 And there came out of the hoste of the Philistims thre bandes to destroy, one bande turned vnto the way of Ophráh vnto the land of Shuál,

18 And another bande turned toward the way to Beth-horón, and the thirde bande turned toward the way of the coast that looketh toward the valley of Zeboim, toward the wildernes.

19 There was no smith founde throughout all the land of Israël: for the Philistims said, Lest the Ebrewes make them swordes or speares.

20 Wherefore all the Israelites went downe to the Philistims, to sharpen euerie man his share, his mattocke, and his axe, and his weding hooke.

21 Yet they had a file for the shares, and for the mattockes, and for the pickeforkes, and for the axes, & for to sharpen the goades.

22 So when the day of battell was come, there was neither sword nor speare found in the háds of anye of the people that were with Saúl and with Ionathán: but [onely] with Saúl & Ionathán his sonne was there founde.

23 And the garison of the Philistims came out to the passage of Michmásh.

14. Jonathan and his armour bearer put the Philistims to flight. 24. Saul bindeth the people by an othe, not to eat till evening. 32. The people eat with the blood. 38. Saul would put Jonathan to death. 45. The people deliuer him.

1 Then on a day Ionathán the sonne of Saúl said vnto the yong man that bare his armour, Come & let vs go ouer toward the Philistims garison, that is yonder on the other side, but he tolde not his father.

2 And Saúl taried in the border of Gibeáh vnder a pomegranate tre, which was in Migróh, and the people that were with him, [were] about six hundred men.

3 And Ahiáh the sonne of Ahitúb, Ichabods brother, the sonne of Phinchás, the sonne of Elí, was the Lords Priest in Shiloh, and ware an Ephód: and the people knewe not that Ionathán was gone.

4 ¶ Now in the way whereby Ionathán sought to go ouer to the Philistims garison, there was a sharpe rocke on the one side, and a sharpe rocke on the other side: the name of the one [was] called Bozéz, and the name of the other Seneh.

5 The one rocke stretched from the North toward Michmásh, and the other [was] from the South toward Gibeáh.

6 And Ionathán said to the yong man that bare his armour, Come, and let vs go ouer vnto the garison of these vncircumcised:

it may be that the Lord wil worke with vs: for it is not hard to the Lord * to saue w^m manie, or with fewe.

7 And he that bare his armour, said vnto him, do all that is in thine heart: go where it pleaseth thee: beholde, I am with thee as thine heart desireth.

8 Then said Ionathán, Beholde, we go ouer vnto those men, and wil shewe our selues vnto them.

9 If they say on this wise to vs, tary vntill we come to you, then we wil stand still in our place, and not go vp to them.

10 But if they say, Come vp vnto vs, then we wil go vp: for * the Lord hathe deliuered them into our hand: and this shalbe a signe vnto vs.

11 So they bothe shewed them selues vnto the garison of the Philistims: and the Philistims said, Se, the Ebrewes come out of holes wherein they had hid them selues.

12 And the men of the garison answered Ionathán, and his armour bearer, and said, Come vp to vs: for we wil shewe you a thing. Then Ionathán said vnto his armour bearer, Come vp after me: for the Lord hathe deliuered them into the hand of Israël.

13 So Ionathán went vp vpon his hands and vpon his fete, and his armour bearer after him: and [some] fell before Ionathán, and his armour bearer slewe [others] after him.

14 So the first slaughter which Ionathán and his armour bearer made, was about twentie men within that compasse, as it were within halfe an acre of land which two [oxen plowe.]

15 And there was a feare in the hoste, [&] in the field, and among all the people: the gariso also, and they that went out to spoile, were afrayed them selues: and the earth trembled: for it was [stricken] with feare by God.

16 ¶ The watchmen of Saúl in Gibeáh of Beniamín sawe: & beholde, multitude was discomfited, and smitten as they wet.

17 Therefore said Saúl vnto the people that were with him, Searche now and se, who is gone from vs. And when they had nobred, beholde, Ionathán and his armour bearer were not there.

18 And Saúl said vnto Abiáh, Bring hither the Arke of God (for the Arke of God was at that time with the children of Israël)

19 ¶ And while Saúl talked vnto the Priest, the noise, that was in the hoste of the Philistims, spread farther abroad, and encreased: therefore Saúl said vnto the Priest, Withdrawe thine hand.

20 And Saúl was assembled with all the people that were with him, and they came to the battel: and beholde, * euerie mans sworde was against his fellowe, [&] there was a very great discomfiture.

21 Moreouer the Ebrewes that were with the Philistims before time, and were come with them into all partes of the hoste, euen they also turned to be with the Israelites that were with Saúl and Ionathán.

22 Also all the men of Israël which had hid them selues in mount Ephraím, when they heard that the Philistims were fled, they followed after them in the battel.

23 And so the Lord saued Israël that day: and the battel continued vnto Beth-áuen.

24 ¶ And at that time the men of Israël were pressed [with hunger:] for Saúl charged the people with an othe, saying, Cursed be the man that eateth food till night: that I may be auenged of mine enemies: so none of the people tasted [anie] sustenance.

25 And all they of the lād came to a wood, where hony lay vpon the ground.

26 And the people came into the wood, & beholde, the hony dropped, and no man moued his hād to his mouth: for the people feared the othe.

27 But Ionathán heard not when his father charged the people with the othe: wherefore he put forth the end of the rod that was in his hand, and dipt it in an hony combe, and put his hand to his mouth, and his eyes receiued sight.

28 Then answered one of the people, and said, Thy father made the people to sweare, saying, Cursed be the man that eateth sustenance this day: and the people were faint.

29 Then said Ionathán, My father hath troubled the land: se now how mine eyes are made cleare, because I haue tasted a litle of this hony:

30 How much more, if the people had eaten to day of the spoile of their enemies which they found: for had there not bene now a greater slaughter among the Philistims?

31 ¶ And they smote the Philistims the day from Michmāsh to Aiialón: and the people were exceeding faint.

32 So the people turned to the spoyle, and toke shepe, and oxen, and calues, and slewe them on the ground, and the people did eat them * with the blood.

33 Then men tolde Saúl, saying, Beholde, the people sinne against the Lord, in that they eat with the blood. And he said, Ye haue trespassed: prouide a great stone vnto me this day.

34 Againe Saúl said, Go abroad among the people, & bid them bring me euerie man his ox, and euerie man his shepe, and slay them here, and eat and sinne not against the Lord in eating with the blood. And the people broght euerie man his ox in his hád that night, and slewe them there.

35 Then Saúl made an altar vnto the Lord, [and] that † was the first altar that he made vnto the Lord.

36 ¶ And Saúl said, Let vs go downe after the Philistims by night, and spoile them vntil the morning shine, and let vs not leaue a man of them. And they said, Do whatsoeuer thou thinkest best. Then said the Priest, Let vs drawe nere higher vnto God.

37 So Saúl asked of God, [saying,] Shall I go downe after the Philistims? wilt thou deliuer them into the hands of Israël? But he answered him not at that time.

38 ¶ And Saúl said, * All tye cheif of the people, come ye hither, and knowe, and se by whome this sinne is done this day.

39 For as the Lord liueth, which saueth Israël, though it be [done] by Ionathán my sonne, he shal dye the death. But none of all the people answered him.

40 Then he said vnto all Israël, Be ye on one side, & I and Ionathán my sonne will be on the other side. And the people said vnto Saúl, Do what thou thinkest best.

41 Then Saúl said vnto the Lord God of Israël, Giue a perfect [lot.] And Ionathán & Saúl were takē, but the people escaped.

42 And Saúl said, Cast [lot] betwene me & Ionathán my sonne. And Ionathán was taken.

43 Then Saúl said to Ionathán, Tell me what thou hast done. And Ionathán tolde him, and said, I tasted a litle hony with the end of the rod that was in mine hand, and lo, I must dye.

44 Againe Saúl answered, God do so and more also, vnles thou dye the death, Ionathán.

45 And the people said vnto Saúl, Shall Ionathán dye, who hathe so mightely deliuered Israël? God forbid. As the Lord liueth, there shal not one heere of his head fall to the ground: for he hathe wrought vnto God this day. So the people deliuered Ionathán that he dyed not.

46 ¶ Then Saúl came vp frō the Philistims: and the Philistims went to their owne place.

47 ¶ So Saúl helde the kingdome ouer Israël, and foght against all his enemies on euerie side, against Moáb, and against the children of Ammón, and against Edóm, and against the Kings of Zobáh, & against the Philistims: and whethersoeuer he wēt, he † handled them as wicked men.

48 He gathered also an hoste & smote * Amalék, & deliuered Israël out of the hands of them that spoiled them.

49 Now the sōnes of Saúl were Ionathán, and Ishuí, and Malchishúa: and the names of his two daughters, the elder was called Meráb, and the yonger was named * Michál.

50 And the name of Sauls wife was Ahinóam the daughter of Ahimáz: and the name of his chief captaine was * Abnér † sonne of Ner, Sauls vnclē.

51 And Kish [was] Sauls father: and Ner † father of Abnér [was] the sonne of Abiel.

9 But Saúl and the people spared Agag, & the better shepe and the oxen, and the fat beastes, and the lambes, and all that was good, and they wolde not destroye them: but euery thing that was vile and noght worthe, that they destroyed.

10 ¶ The came the worde of the Lord vnto Samuél, saying,

11 It repenteth me that I haue made Saúl King: for he is turned from me, and hath not performed my commandeméts. And Samuél was moued, and cryed vnto the Lord all night.

12 And when Samuél arose early to mete Saúl in the morning, one tolde Samuél, saying, Saúl is gone to Carmél: & beholde, he hath made him there a place, from whence he returned, and departed, and is gone downe to Gilgál.

13 ¶ Then Samuél came to Saúl, and Saúl said vnto him, Blessed be thou of ^f Lord, I haue fulfilled the ^f commandement of the Lord.

14 But Samuél said, What meaneth the bleating of the shepe in mine eares, & the lowing of the oxen which I heare?

15 And Saúl answered, They haue brought them from the Amalekites: for the people spared the best of the shepe, and of the oxen to sacrifice them vnto the Lord thy God, and the remnant haue we destroyed.

16 Againe Samuél said to Saúl, Let me tel thee what the Lord hath said to me this night. And he said vnto him, Say on.

17 Then Samuél said, When thou wast little in thine owne sight, wast ^f not made the head of the tribes of Israël: for ^f Lord anointed the King ouer Israël.

18 And the Lord sent thee on a iourney, & said, Go, and destroye those sinners the Amalekites, and fight against them, vntill thou destroye them.

19 Now wherefore hast thou not obeyed the voyce of the Lord, but hast turned to the praye, and hast done wickedly in the sight of the Lord?

20 And Saúl said vnto Samuél, Yea, I haue obeyed the voyce of the Lord, and haue gone the way which the Lord sent me, & haue brought Agag the King of Amalek, & haue destroyed the Amalekites.

21 But the people toke of the spoile, shepe, and oxen, & the chiefest of the things w^{ch} shulde haue bene destroyed, to offer vnto the Lord thy God in Gilgál.

22 And Samuél said, Hath the Lord as great pleasure in burnt offrings and sacrifices, as when the voyce of the Lord is obeyed? beholde, * to obey is better then sacrifice, and to hearken [is better] then ^f fat of rammes.

23 For rebellion [is as] the sinne of witchcraft, and transgression is wickednes and idolatrie. Because thou hast cast away the worde of the Lord, therefore he hath cast away thee from being King.

24 Then Saúl said vnto Samuél, I haue sinned: for I haue transgressed the commandement of the Lord, and thy wordes, because I feared the people, and obeyed their voyce.

25 Now therefore, I pray thee, take away my ^k sinne, and turne againe with me, that I may worship the Lord.

26 But Samuél said vnto Saúl, I wil not returne with thee: for thou hast cast away the worde of the Lord, and the Lord hath cast away thee, that thou shalt not be King ouer Israël.

27 And as Samuél turned him selfe to go away, he caught the lap of his coat, and it rent.

28 Then Samuél said vnto him, The Lord hath rent the Kingdome of Israël from thee this day, and hath giuen it to thy neighbour, that is better then thou.

29 For in dede the ^m strength of Israël will not lie nor repent: for he is not a mā, that he shulde repent.

30 The he said, I haue sinned: but honour me, I pray thee, before the Elders of my people, and before Israël, and turne againe with me, that I may worship the Lord thy God.

31 So Samuél turned againe, and followed Saúl: and Saúl worshipped the Lord.

32 The said Samuél, Bring ye hither to me Agag ^f King of the Amalekites: and Agag came vnto him pleasantly, and Agag said, Truly the ^b bitternes of death is passed.

33 And Samuél said, * As thy sword hath made womē childeles, so shal thy mother be childeles among other women. And Samuél hewed Agag in pieces before the Lord in Gilgál.

34 ¶ So Samuél departed to ^o Ramáh, and Saúl went vp to his house to Gibeah of Saúl.

2. And Samuel said, How can I go? for if Saul shal heare it, he wil kil me. Then the Lord answered, Take an heifer with thee, and say, I am come to do sacrifice to the Lord.

3. And call Ishai to the sacrifice, and I will shewe thee what thou shalt do, and thou shalt anoint vnto me him whome I name vnto thee.

4. So Samuel did that the Lord bade him, & came to Beth-lehem, and the Elders of the towne were astonished at his coming, and said, Commest thou peaceably?

5. And he answered, Yea: I am come to do sacrifice vnto the Lord: sanctifie your selues, & come with me to the sacrifice. And he sanctified Ishai and his sonnes, and called them to the sacrifice.

6. And when they were come, he looked on Eliab, and said, Surely the Lords Anointed is before him.

7. But the Lord said vnto Samuel, Look not on his countenance, nor on the height of his stature, because I haue refused him: for [God seeth] not as man seeth: for man looketh on the outward appearance, but the Lord beholdeth the heart.

8. Then Ishai called Abinadab, and made him come before Samuel. And he said, Nether hath the Lord chosen this.

9. Then Ishai made Shammah come. And he said, Nether yet hath the Lord chosen him.

10. Again Ishai made his seven sonnes to come before Samuel: & Samuel said vnto Ishai, The Lord hath chosen none of these.

11. Finally Samuel said vnto Ishai, Are there no more children [but these?]? And he said, There remaineth yet a little one behinde, & kepeth the shepe. Then Samuel said vnto Ishai, Send and fet him: for we wil not sit downe, til he be come hither.

12. And he sent and brought him in: and he was ruddie, and of a good countenance, & comelie visage. And the Lord said, Arise, [and] anoint him: for this is he.

13. Then Samuel toke the horne of oyle, & anointed him in the middes of his brethren. And the Spirit of the Lord came vpon Dauid, from that day forward: then Samuel rose vp, and went to Ramah.

14. ¶ But the Spirit of the Lord departed from Saul, and an euil spirit [sent] of the Lord vexed him.

16. Let our lord therefore commande thy seruants, [that are] before thee, to seke a man, & is a conning player vpon the harpe: that when the euil spirit of God commeth vpon thee, he may play with his hand, and thou maiest be eased.

17. Saul then said vnto his seruants, Provide me a man, I pray you, that can play wel, and bring him to me.

18. Then answered one of his seruants, and said, Beholde, I haue sene a sonne of Ishai, a Bethlehemite, that can playe, & is strong, valiant, and a man of warre, and wise in matters, and a comely person, and the Lord is with him.

19. ¶ Wherefore Saul sent messengers vnto Ishai, and said, Send me Dauid thy sonne, which is with the shepe.

20. And Ishai toke an asse [laden] wth bread & a fason of wine and a kid, and sent the by the hand of Dauid his sonne vnto Saul.

21. And Dauid came to Saul, & stood before him: and he loued him very wel, and he was his armour bearer.

22. And Saul sent to Ishai, saying, Let Dauid now remaine with me: for he hath founde fauour in my sight.

23. And so when the [euil] spirit of God came vpon Saul, Dauid toke an harpe and plaied with his hand, and Saul was refreshed, and was eased: for the euil spirit departed from him.

10 Also the Philistim said, I defie the hoste of Israël this day: giue me a man, that we may fight together.

11 When Saúl and all Israël heard those wordes of the Philistim, they were discouraged, and greatly afayed.

12 ¶ Now this Dauid [was] the ^{*} sonne of an Ephrathite of Beth-léhem Iudáh, named Ishai, which had eight sonnes: and [†] this man was taken for an olde man in the dayes of Saúl.

13 And the thre eldest sonnes of Ishai went and followed Saúl to the battel: and the names of his thre sonnes that went to bat-tel, [were] Eliáb the eldest, and the next Abinadáb, and the thrid Shammáh.

14 So Dauid was the least: and the thre eldest went after Saúl.

15 Dauid also ^e went, but he returned from Saúl to fede his fathers shepe in Beth-lé-hem.

16 And the Philistim drewe nere in the morning, and euening, and cōtinued four-tie dayes.

17 And Ishai said vnto Dauid his sonne, Take now for thy brethren an Epháh o this parched corne, and these ten cakes, and runne to the hoste to thy brethren.

18 Also cary these ten fresh cheffes vnto the captaine, and loke how thy brethren fare, and receiue their ^{*}pledge.

19 (Then Saúl, and they, and all the men of Israël [were] in the valley of Eláh, fighting with the Philistims)

20 ¶ So Dauid rose vpearly in the mornig, and left the shepe with a keeper, and toke & went as Ishai had commanded him, and came within the compasse of the hoste: & the hoste went out in array, and showed in the battel.

21 For Israël and the Philistims had put theselues in array, armie against armie.

22 And Dauid left the things, whiche he bare, vnder the hands of the keeper of the-carriage, and ran into the hoste, and came, and asked his brethren [†] how they did.

33 And as he talked with the, beholde, the man [that was] betwene the two [armies], came vp, (whose name [was] Goliath the Philistim of Gath) out of the armie of the Philistims, and spake suche [†] wordes, and Dauid heard them.

24 And all the men of Israël, when they sawe the man, ran away from him, & were sore afayed.

25 For euerie man of Israël said, Sawe ye not this man that cometh vp? euen to reuile Israël is he come vp: and to him that killeth him, wil the King giue great riches, and wil giue him his ^{} daughter, yea, and make his fathers house ^{} free in Israël.

26 ¶ Then Dauid spake to the men that stode with him, and said, What shalbe done to the man that killeth this Philistim, & taketh away the ^b shame from Israël: for who is this vncircumcised Philistim, that he shulde reuile the hoste of the liuing God?

27 And the people answered him after this maner, saying, Thus shal it be done to the man that killeth him.

28 And Eliáb his eldest brother heard whē he spake vnto the men, and Eliáb was very angry with Dauid, and said, Why camest thou downe hether? and with whome hast thou left those fewe shepe in the wildernes? I knowe thy pride and the malice of thine heart, that thou art come downe to se the battel.

29 Then Dauid said, What haue I now done? Is there not a ^a cause?

30 And he departed from him, into the presence of another, & spake on the same maner, and the people answered him according to the former wordes.

31 ¶ And thei that heard the wordes which Dauid spake, rehearsed them before Saúl, which caused him to be broght.

32 So Dauid said to Saúl, Let no mā hear faile him, because of him: thy seruant will go, and fight with this Philistim.

33 And Saúl said to Dauid, Thou art not able to go against this Philistim to fight with him: for thou art a boye, and he is a man of warre from his youth.

34 And Dauid answered vnto Saúl, Thy seruant kept his fathers shepe, and there came a lyon and likewise a beare, and toke a shepe out of the flocke,

35 And I went out after him & smote him, and toke it out of his mouth: and when he arose against me, I caught him by [†] bearde, and 36 So thy seruant slewe bothe the lyon, & the beare: therefore this vncircumcised Philistim shalbe as one of them, seing he hath railed on [†] hoste of the liuing God.

37 ¶ Moreouer Dauid said, The Lord that deliuered me out of the pawe of the lyon, and out of the pawe of the beare, he will deliuer me out of the hand of this Philistim. Then Saúl said vnto Dauid, ^m Go, and the Lord be with thee.

38 And Saúl put his rayment vpon Dauid, and put an helmet of brasse vpon his head, and put a brigandine vpon him.

39 Then girded Dauid his sworde vpon his rayment, and [†] began to go: for he neuer proued it: and Dauid said vnto Saúl, I can not go wth these, for I am not accustomed: wherefore Dauid put them of him.

40 Then toke he his ^a staffe in his hand, and chose him fise smothe stones out of a brooke, and put them in his sheperdes bag or krippe, & his sling [was] in his bād, and he drewe nere to the Philistim.

41 ¶ And the Philistim came & drewe nere vnto Dauid, and the man that bare the shield [went] before him.

42 Now when the Philistim loked about and sawe Dauid, he disdeined him: for he was but yong, ruddy, & of a comely face.

43 And the Philistim said vnto Dauid. Am I a dog, that thou comest to me with staues? And the Philistim ^o cursed Dauid by his gods.

44 And the Philistim said to Dauid, Come to me, and I wil giue thy flesh vnto the foules of the heauen, and to the beastes of the field.

45 ¶ Then said Dauid to [†] Philistim, Thou comest to me with a sworde, and with a speare, and with a shield, but I come to thee in the name of [†] Lord of hostes, the God of the hoste of Israël, whome thou hast railed vpon.

46 This ^p day shal the Lord close thee in mine hand, and I shal smite thee, and take thine head from thee, and I wil giue the carkeises of the hoste of the Philistims this day vnto the foules of the heauen, and to the beastes of the earth, that all the worlde may knowe that Israël hath ^a God, 47 And that all this assemblie may knowe, that the Lord saueth not with sworde nor with speare (for the battel is the Lords) & he wil giue you into our hands.

48 And when the Philistim arose to come and drawe nere vnto Dauid, Dauid ^a hasted & ran to fight against the Philistim.

49 And Dauid put his hand in his bag, and toke out a stone, & slang it, and smote the Philistim in his forehead, that the stone sticked in his forehead, and he fel groueling to the earth.

50 So Dauid ^{*} ouercame the Philistim with a sling and with a stone, & smote the Philistim, & slewe him, when Dauid had no sworde in his hand.

51 Then Dauid ran, and stode vpon the Philistim, and toke his sworde and drewe it out of his sheath, and slewe him, and cut of his head therewith. So whē the Philistims sawe that their champion was dead, they fled.

52 And the men of Israël and Iudāh arose, and showed, and followed after the Philistims, vntil thei came to the [†] valley, and vnto the gates of Ekrōn: and the Philistims fel downe wounded by the way of Shaaraim, euen to Gath and to Ekrōn.

53 And the children of Israël returned frō pursuing the Philistims, and spoiled their tents.

54 And Dauid toke the head of the Philistim, and broght it to Ierusalēm, and put his armour in his [†] tent.

55 ¶ When Saúl sawe Dauid go forthe against the Philistim, he said vnto Abnēr the captaine of his hoste, Abnēr, ^r whose sonne is this yong man? and Abnēr answered, As thy soule liueth, ^o King, I can not tel.

56 Thē the King said, Enquire thou whose sonne this yong man is.

57 And when Dauid was returned from [†] slaughter of the Philistim, thē Abnēr toke him, and broght him before Saúl with the head of the Philistim in his hand.

58 And Saúl said to him, Whose sonne art thou, thou yong man? And Dauid answered, I am the sonne of thy seruant Ishai the Bethlehemitic.

5 And Dauid wēt out whetherfoeuer Saül sent him, [and] behaued him selfe wisely: so that Saül set him ouer the mē of warre, and he was accepted in the sight of all the people, and also in the sight of Sauls seruants.

6 ¶ When they came againe, and Dauid returned from the slaughter of the Philistims, the women came out of all the cities of Israël, singing and danſing to mete King Saül, with timbrels, with [instruments of] ioye, and with rebeckes.

7 And the women † sang by cours in their playe, and said, * Saül hath slayne his thousand, and Dauid his ten thousand.

8 Therefore Saül was exceeding wrath, & the saying displeased him, & he said, They haue ascribed vnto Dauid ten thousand, and to me thei haue ascribed [but] a thousand, and [what can he haue] more saue ‡ kingdom?

9 Wherefore Saül^d had an eye on Dauid from that day forward.

10 ¶ And on the morowe, the euil spirit of God came vpo Saül, and he^e prophesied in the middes of the house: and Dauid plaied with his hand like as at other times, & there^{was} a speare in Sauls hand.

11 And Saül toke the speare, and said, I will smite Dauid [through] to the wall. But Dauid auoided twise out of his presence.

12 And Saül was afraied of Dauid, because the Lord was with him, and was departed from Saül.

13 Therefore Saül put him from him, and made him a captaine ouer a thousand, & he went^f out and in before the people.

14 And Dauid behaued him selfe wisely in all his wayes: for the Lord^{was} with him.

15 Wherefore when Saül sawe that he was very wise, he was afraied of him.

16 For all Israël and Iudáh loued Dauid, because he went out and in before them.

17 ¶ Thē Saül said to Dauid, Beholde mine eldest daughter Meráb, her I wil giue thee to wife: onely be a valiant sonne vnto me, and fight the Lords battels: for Saül thoght, Mine hand shal not be vpon him, but the hand of the Philistims shal be vpon him.

18 And Dauid answered Saül, What am I: and what is my life, [or] the familie of my father in Israël, that I shuld be sonne in lawe to the King?

19 Howbeit when Meráb Sauls daughter shulde haue bene giuen to Dauid, she was giuen vnto Adriél a Meholathite to wife.

20 ¶ Then Michál Saüls daughter loued

Dauid: and they shewed Saül, and the thing pleased him.

21 Therefore Saül said, I wil giue him her, that she may be aⁱ snare to him, and that the hand of the Philistims may be against him. Wherefore Saül said to Dauid, Thou shalt this day be my sonne in lawe in the [one] of the twaine.

22 And Saül comanded his seruants, Speake with Dauid secretly, and say, Beholde, the King hathe a fauour to thee, and all his seruants loue thee: be now therefore the Kings sonne in lawe.

23 And Sauls seruants spake these wordes in the eares of Dauid. And Dauid said, * Semeth it to you a light thing to be a Kings sonne in lawe, seing that I am a poore man and of small reputation?

24 And then Sauls seruants broght him worde againe, saying, Suche wordes spake Dauid.

25 And Saül said, This wise shall ye say to Dauid, The King desireth no dowrie, but an hundreth foreskinnes of the Philistims, to be auenged of the Kings enemies: for Saül thoght to make Dauid fall into the hands of the Philistims.

26 And whē his seruants tolde Dauid these wordes, it pleased Dauid wel, to be the Kings sonne in lawe: and the dayes were not expired.

27 Afterwarde Dauid arose with his men, and went and slewe of the Philistims two hundreth men: and Dauid broght their foreskinnes, and^m they gaue them wholly to the King that he might be the Kings sonne in lawe: therefore Saül gaue him Michál his daughter to wife.

28 Then Saül sawe, and vnderstode that the Lord^{was} with Dauid, and that Michál the daughter of Saül loued him.

29 Then Saül was more and moreⁿ afraied of Dauid, and Saül became alway Dauids enemy.

30 And when the princes of the Philistims went forthe, at their going forthe^o Dauid behaued him selfe more wiselye then all the seruants of Saül, so that his name was muche set by.

4 ¶ And Ionathán spake good of Dauid vnto Saúl his father, & said vnto him, Let not the King sinne against his seruant, against Dauid: for he hath not sinned against thee, but his workes haue bene to thee verie good.

5 For he did * put his life in danger, and slewe the Philistim, and the Lord wrought a great saluation for all Israël: thou sawest it, and thou reioysedst: wherefore then wilt thou sinne against innocent blood, & slaye Dauid without a cause?

6 Then Saúl hearkened vnto the voyce of Ionathán, and Saúl sware, as the Lord liueth, he shal not dye.

7 So Ionathán called Dauid, and Ionathán shewed him all those wordes, & Ionathán broght Dauid to Saúl, and he was in his presence as in times past.

8 ¶ Again the warre began, and Dauid went out and fought with the Philistims, & slewe them with a great slaughter, & they fled from him.

9 ¶ And the euil Spirit of the Lord was vpon Saúl, as he sate in his house hauing his speare in his hand, and Dauid played wth his hand.

10 And Saúl intended to smite Dauid to the wall with the speare: but he turned aside out of Sauls presence, and he smote ^h speare against the wall: but Dauid fled, & escaped the same night.

11 Saúl also sent messengers vnto Dauids house, to watch him, and to slaye him in ^h morning: and Michál Dauids wife tolde it him, saying, If thou saue not thy selfe this night, to morowe thou shalt be slaine.

12 So Michál let Dauid downe through a windowe: and he went, and fled, and escaped.

13 Then Michál toke an image and layed it in the bed, and put a pillowe stuffed with goates [heere] vnder the head of it, & couered it with a cloth.

14 And when Saúl sent messengers to take Dauid, she said, He is sicke.

15 And Saúl sent the messengers againe to se Dauid, saying, Bring him to me in the ^h bed, that I may slaye him.

16 And when the messengers were come in, beholde, an image [was] in the bed, wth a pillowe of goates [heere] vnder the head of it.

17 And Saúl said vnto Michál, Why hast thou mocked me so, and sent away mineemie, that he is escaped? And Michál answered Saúl, He said vnto me, Let me go, or els I wil kil thee.

18 ¶ So Dauid fled, and escaped, and came to Samuél to Ramáh, and tolde him all ^h Saúl had done to him: and he and Samuél went and dwelt in ^h Naióth.

19 But one tolde Saúl, saying, Beholde, Dauid [is] at Naióth in Ramáh.

20 And Saúl sent messengers to take Dauid: and when they sawe a companie of Prophets prophecyng, and Samuél standing ^h as appointed ouer them, the Spirit of God fel vpon the messengers of Saúl, and they also ^h prophecied.

21 And when it was tolde Saúl, he sent other messengers, and they prophecied likewise: againe Saúl sent the thrid messengers, and they prophecied also.

22 Then went he him selfe to Ramáh, and came to a great wel that is in Sechú, & he asked, and said, Where are Samuél & Dauid? and one said, Beholde, [they be] at Naióth in Ramáh.

23 And he ^h went thither, [euen] to Naióth in Ramáh, and the Spirit of God came vpon him also, and he went prophecyng vntil he came to Naióth in Ramáh.

5 And Dauid said vnto Ionathán, Beholde, tomorrow is the first day of the moneth, and I shulde sit with the King at meat: but let me go, that I may hide my selfe in the fields vnto the thrid [day] at euen.

6 If thy father make mention of me, then say, Dauid asked leaue of me, that he might go to Beth-léhem to his owne citie: for there is a d yereſly sacrifice for all that familie.

7 And if he say thus, It is wel, thy seruant shal haue peace: but if he be angry, be sure that wickednes is concluded of him.

8 So shalt thou shewe mercy vnto thy seruant: * for thou hast ioyned thy seruant in to a couenant of the Lord with thee, and if there be in me iniquitie, slaye thou me: for why shuldest thou bring me to thy father?

9 ¶ And Ionathán answered, God kepe that from thee: for if I knewe thy wickednes were concluded of my father to come vpon thee, wolde not I tel it thee?

10 The said Dauid to Ionathán, Who shal tel me? how [shal I knowe,] if thy father answer thee cruelly?

11 And Ionathán said to Dauid, Come and let vs go out into the field: and they twaine went out into the field.

12 Then Ionathán said to Dauid, O Lord God of Israël, when I haue groped my fathers minde tomorrow at this time, [or] within this thre dayes, & if it be wel with Dauid, and I then send not vnto thee, and shewe it thee,

13 The Lords do so & much more vnto Ionathán: but if my father haue minde to do thee euil, I wil shewe thee also, & send thee away, that thou mayest go in peace: and the Lord be with thee as he hath bene with my father.

14 Likewise [I require] not whiles I liue: [for I dout not] but thou wilt shewe me the mercy of the Lord, h [that I dye not.]

15 But [I require] that thou cut not of thy mercy from mine house for euer: no not when the Lord hath destroyed the enemies of Dauid, euerie one from the earth.

16 So Ionathán made a bonde with the house of Dauid, [saying,] Let the Lord require it at the hands of Dauids enemies.

17 And againe Ionathán sware vnto Dauid, because he loued him (for he loued him as his owne soule)

18 Then said Ionathán to him, Tomorrow is the first day of the moneth: & thou shalt be looked for, for thy place shalbe empty.

19 Therefore thou shalt hide thy selfe thre dayes, [then] thou shalt go downe quickly and come to the place where thou didest hide thy selfe, whe this matter was in had, and shalt remaine by the stone † Ezél.

20 And I wil shoote thre arrowes on the side thereof, as though I shot at a marke.

21 And after I wil send a boy, [saying,] Go, seke the arrowes. If I say vnto the boy, Se, the arrowes are on this side thee, bring them, and come thou: for it is † wel with thee and no hurt, [as] the Lord liueth.

24 ¶ So Dauid hid him selfe in the field: & when the first day of the moneth came, the King sate to eat meat.

25 And the King sate as at other times vpon his seat, euen vpon his seat by the wall: & Ionathán arose, and Abner sate by Sauls side, but Dauids place was empty.

26 And Saúl said nothing that day: for he thought, Some thing hath befallen him, though he were k cleane, [or els] because he was not purified.

27 But on the morowe which was the second day of the moneth, Dauids place was empty againe: and Saúl said vnto Ionathán his sonne, Wherefore commeth not the sone of Ishái to meat, nether yesterday nor to day?

28 And Ionathán answered vnto Saúl, Dauid required of me, [that he might go] to Beth-lehem.

29 For he said, Let me go, I pray thee: for our familie [offreth] m a sacrifice in the citie, and my brother hath sent for me: therefore now if I haue found fauour in thine eyes, let me go, I pray thee, & se my brethren: this is the cause that he cometh not vnto the Kings table.

30 Then was Saúl angry with Ionathán, & said vnto him, Thou sonne of the wicked rebellious woman, do not I knowe, that thou hast chosen the sonne of Ishái to thy confusion and to the confusion [&] shame of thy mother.

31 For as long as the sonne of Ishái liueth vpon the earth, thou shalt not be stablished, nor thy kingdome: wherefore now send & fet him vnto me, for he shal surely dye.

32 And Ionathán answered vnto Saúl his father, and said vnto him, Wherefore shalt he dye? what hath he done?

35 On the next morning therefore Ionathán went out into the field, & at the time appointed with Dauid, & a litle boy with him.

36 And he said vnto his boy, Runne now, seke the arrowes which I shoote, & as the boy ran, he shot an arrowe beyonde him.

37 And when the boy was come to the place where the arrowe was that Ionathán had shot, Ionathán cryed after the boy, & said, Is not the arrowe beyond thee?

38 And Ionathán cryed after the boy, Make speede, haste [and] stand not stil: and Ionathans boy gathered vp the arrowes, & came to his master.

39 But the boy knewe nothing: onely Ionathán and Dauid knewe the matter.

40 Then Ionathán gaue his bowe & arrowes vnto the boy that was with him, and said vnto him, Go, carie them into the citie.

41 ¶ As sone as the boy was gone, Dauid arose out of a place that was towarde the South, and fel on his face to the ground, and bowed him selfe three times: and they kyssed one another, and wept bothe twaine, til Dauid exceded.

42 Therefore Ionathán said to Dauid, Go in peace: that whiche we haue sworne bothe of vs in the Name of the Lord, saying, The Lord be betwene me & thee, & betwene my seede and betwene thy seede, [let it stand] for euer.

43 And he arose and departed, and Ionathán went into the citie.

1 Dauid fleeth to Nob to Ahimelech the Priest. 6 He getteth of him the shewbread to satisfie his hungre. 7 Doeg Sauls seruāt was present. 10 Dauid fleeth to King Achish. 13 And there faineth him selfe mad.

¶ Then came Dauid to ^a Nob, to Ahimelech the Priest, & Ahimelech was astonyed at the meting of Dauid, and said vnto him, Why art thou alone, and no mā with thee?

2 And Dauid said to Ahimelech the Priest, The ^b King hath commanded me a certeine thing, and hath said vnto me, Let no man knowe whereabout I send thee, & what I haue commanded thee, and I haue appointed my seruāts to suche [and] suche places.

3 Now therefore if thou hast oght vnder thine hand, giue me sue [cakes of] bread, or what commeth to hand.

4 And the Priest answered Dauid, & said, There is no commune bread vnder mine hand, but here is ^c halowed bread, if ^d yong men haue kept them selues, at least from ^e women.

5 Dauid then answered the Priest, and said vnto him, Certainly women haue bene separate from vs these two or thre dayes since I came out: and the ^d vessels of the yōg men were holy, though the way were prophane, & how muche more then shal [euerie one] ^e be sanctified this day in the vessel?

6 So the Priest gaue him halowed [bread:] for there was no bread there, saue ^f shewbread that was taken frō before the Lord, to put hote bread there, the day that it was taken away.

7 (And there was the same day one of the seruants of Saúl abiding before the Lord, named Doeg the Edomite, the chiefest of Sauls herdemen)

8 And Dauid said vnto Ahimelech, Is there not here vnder thine hand a speare or a sworde? for I haue nether brought my sworde nor mine harnes with me, because the Kings busines required haste.

9 And the Priest said, the sworde of Goliath the Philistim, whome thou slewest in the ^g valley of Elah, beholde, it is wrapt in a clothe behinde the ^h Ephōd: if thou wilt take that to thee, take it: for there is none other saue that here, & Dauid said, There is none to that, giue it me.

10 And Dauid arose and fled the same day from the ⁱ presence of Saúl, and wēt to Achish the King of Gath.

11 And the seruants of Achish said vnto him, Is not this Dauid the ^k King of the land? did they not sing vnto him in dances, saying, ^l Saúl hath slain his thousand, and Dauid his ten thousand?

12 And Dauid ^m considered these wordes, and was fore afraid of Achish the King of Gath.

13 And he changed his behaiour before them, and fained him selfe mad in their hands, and ⁿ scrabled on the dores of the gate, and let his spetle fall downe vpon his beard.

14 Then said Achish vnto his seruants, Lo, ye se the man is beside him selfe, wherefore haue ye brought him to me?

11 Then the King ſent to call Ahimélech the Prieſt the ſonne of Ahitúb, and all his fathers houſe, [to wit,] ^h the Prieſts ^f were in Nob: and they come all to the King.

12 And Saúl ſaid, Heare now thou ſonne of Ahitúb, And he answered, Here I am, my Lord.

13 Then Saúl ſaid vnto him, Why haue ye conſpired againſt me, thou and the ſonne of Iſhâi, in that thou haſt giuen him vitails, and a ſworde, and haſt asked counſell of

14 ¶ And Ahimélech answered the King, & ſaid, Who is ſo faithfull among all thy ſeruants as David, [being] alſo the Kings ſonne in lawe, and goeth at thy commandement, and is honorable in thine houſe?

15 I haue I this day firſt begon to aſke counſel of God for him? be it farre from me, let not the King impute any thing vnto his ſervant, nor to all the houſe of my father: for thy ſervant knewe nothing of all this, leſſe nor more.

16 Then the King ſaid, Thou ſhalt ſurely dye, Ahimélech, thou and all thy fathers houſe.

17 And the King ſaid vnto the ^f ſergents that ſtoode about him, Turne, and ſlaye the Prieſts of the Lord, becauſe their hand alſo is with David, and becauſe they knewe when he fled, and ſhewed it not to me. But the ſeruants of the King^k wolde not moue their hands to fall vpon the Prieſts of the Lord.

Go and smite the Philistims, and saue Keilah.

3 And Dauids men said vnto him, Se, we be afraied here in ^b Iudáh, how muche more if we come to Keilah against the hoste of the Philistims?

4 Then Dauid asked counsell of the Lord againe. And the Lord answered him, and said, Arise, go downe to Keilah: for I wil deliuer the Philistims into thine hand.

5 ¶ So Dauid and his men went to Keilah, and fought with the Philistims, and broght away their cattel, and smote them with a great slaughter: thus Dauid saued the inhabitants of Keilah.

6 (And whē Abiathár the sonne of Ahimélech * fled to Dauid to Keilah, he broght an Ephód† with him.)

7 ¶ And it was tolde Saúl that Dauid was come to Keilah, and Saúl said, God hath deliuered him into mine hand: for he is shut in, seing he is come into a citie that hath the gates and barres.

8 Then Saúl called all the people together to warre, for to go downe to Keilah, and to besiege Dauid and his men.

9 ¶ And Dauid hauing knowledge that Saúl imagined mischief against him, said to Abiathár the Priest, ^d Bring the Ephód.

10 Then said Dauid, O Lord God of Israël, thy seruant hath heard, that Saúl is about to come to Keilah to destroy the citie for my sake.

11 Wil the lords of Keilah deliuer me vp into his hand? and wil Saúl come downe, as thy seruant hath heard? O Lord God of Israël, I beseeche thee, tel thy seruant. And the Lord said, He wil come downe.

12 Then said Dauid, Wil the † lords of Keilah deliuer me vp & the men that are with me, into the hand of Saúl? And the Lord said, They wil deliuer thee vp.

13 ¶ Then Dauid and his men, which were about six hundreth, arose, & departed out of Keilah, and went † whither they colde. And it was tolde Saúl, that Dauid was fled from Keilah, and he left of his iourney.

14 And Dauid abode in the wilderness in tholdes, and remained in a mountaine in the wilderness of Ziph. And Saúl sought him euerie day, but God * deliuered him not into his hand.

15 And Dauid sawe that Saúl was come out for to seke his life: & Dauid [was] in the wilderness of Ziph in the wood.

16 ¶ And Ionathán Saúls sonne arose and went to Dauid into the wood, and comforted † him in God,

17 And said vnto him, Feare not: for the hádⁱ of Saúl my father shal not finde thee, and thou shalt be ^c King ouer Israël, and I shalbe next vnto thee: and also Saúl my father knoweth it.

18 So they twaine made a couenant before the Lord: & Dauid did remaine in the wood: but Ionathán went to his house.

19 ¶ Then came vp the Ziphims to Saúl to Gibeáh, saying, Doeth not Dauid hide him selfe by vs in holdes, in the wood in the hil of Hachilah, which is on the right side † of Ieshimon?

20 Now therefore o King, come downe according to al that thine heart can desire, & our parte [shalbe] to deliuer him into the Kings hands.

21 Then Saúl said, ^e Be ye blessed of the Lord: for ye haue had compassion on me.

22 Go, I pray you, and prepare yet better: knowe and se his place where he hathenteth, [and] who hath sent him there: for it is said to me, He is subtil, and crafty.

23 Seth therefore, and knowe all the secreet places where he hideth him selfe, & come ye againe to me with the certentie, and I wil go with you: & if he be in the ^h land, I wil searche him out throughout all the thousands of Iudáh.

24 Then they arose and went to Ziph before Saúl, but Dauid and his men [were] in the wilderness of Maón, in the plaine on the right hand of Ieshimon.

25 Saúl also and his men went to seke him, and they tolde Dauid: wherefore he came downe vnto a rocke, and abode in the wilderness of ⁱ Maón. And when Saúl heard that, he followed after Dauid in the wilderness of Maón.

26 And Saúl and his men went on the one side of the mountaine, and Dauid and his men on the other side of the mountaine: and Dauid made haste to get from the presence of Saúl: for Saúl and his men compassed Dauid & his mē round about, to take them.

27 But there came a ^k messenger to Saúl, saying, Haste thee, and come: for the Philistims haue inuaded the land.

Dauid [is] in the wildernes of En-gedi.

3 Then Saul roke thre thousand chosen men out of all Israel, and went to seke Dauid and his men vpon the rockes [among] the wilde goates.

4 And he came to the shepecoates by the way where there was a caue, & Saul went in to do his easement: and Dauid & his me fere in the finward partes of the caue.

5 And the men of Dauid said vnto him, Se, the day is come, whereof the Lord said vnto thee, Beholde, I wil deliuer thine enemy into thine hand, & thou shalt do to him as it shal seme good to thee. Then Dauid arose and cut of the lappe of Sauls garment priuily.

6 And afterward Dauid was touched in his heart, because he had cut of the lappe which was on Sauls [garment.]

7 And he said vnto his men, The Lord kepe me from doing that thing vnto my master the Lords Anointed, to lay mine had vpon him: for he is the Anointed of the Lord.

8 So Dauid ouercame his seruants with these wordes, & suffred them not to arise against Saul. So Saul rose vp out of the caue & went away.

9 Dauid also arose afterward, & went out of the caue, and cryed after Saul, saying, O my Lord the King. And when Saul looked behinde him, Dauid inclined his face to the earth, and bowed him selfe.

10 And Dauid said to Saul, Wherefore giuest thou an eare to mens wordes, that say, Beholde, Dauid seketh euil against thee?

11 Beholde, this day thine eyes haue sene, that the Lord had deliuered thee this day into mine hand in the caue, & some bade me kil thee, but I had compassion on thee, and said, I wil not lay mine hand on my master: for he is the Lords Anointed.

12 Moreouer my father, beholde, beholde, I say, the lappe of thy garment in mine hand: for when I cut of the lappe of thy garment, I killed thee not. Vnderstand & se, that there is nether euil nor wickednes in me, nether haue I sinned against thee, yet thou huntest after my soule to take it.

13 The Lord be iudge betwene thee & me, and the Lord auenge me of thee, and let not mine hand be vpon thee.

14 According as the olde prouerbe saith, Wickednes procedeth from the wicked, but mine hand be not vpon thee.

16 The Lord therefore be iudge, & iudge

17 When Dauid had made an end of speaking these wordes to Saul, Saul said, Is this thy voyce, my sonne Dauid? & Saul lift vp his voyce, and wept, 18 And said to Dauid, Thou art more righteous then I: for thou hast rendred me good, and I haue rendred thee euil.

19 And thou hast shewed this day, that thou hast dealt wel with me: forasmuche when the Lord had closed me in thine hands, thou killedst me not.

20 For who shal finde his enemy, and let him departe ffre? wherefore the Lord rendre thee good for that thou hast done vnto me this day.

21 For now beholde, I knowe that thou shalt be King, and that the kingdome of Israel shalbe stablished in thine hand.

22 Swaere now therefore vnto me by the Lord, that thou wilt not destroy my sede after me, & that thou wilt not abolish my name out of my fathers house.

23 So Dauid swaere vnto Saul, & Saul went home: but Dauid and his men went vpon to the holde.

6 And thus shal ye say for salutation, Bothe thou and thine house, and all that hast, be in peace, welth, & prosperitie.

9 ¶ And when Dauids yong men came, they tolde Nabál all those wordes in the name of Dauid, and helde their peace.

10 Then Nabál answered Dauids seruants, and said, Who is Dauid? and who is the sonne of Ishái? there is many seruants now a dayes, that breake awaye euery mā from his master.

11 Shal I then take my bread, & my water, & my flesh that I haue killed for my shepers, and giue it vnto men, whome I knowe not whence they be?

12 ¶ So Dauids seruants turned their way, and went againe, and came, and tolde him all those things.

13 And Dauid said vnto his men, Girde euery man his sworde [about him.] And they girded euery man his sworde. Dauid also girded his sworde. And about foure hundred men went vp after Dauid, & two hundred abode by the scariage.

14 Now one of the seruants tolde Abigáil Nabals wife, saying, Beholde, Dauid sent messengers out of the wilderness to salute our master, and he trayled on them.

15 Notwithstanding the men were very good vnto vs, & we had no displeasure, nether willed we any thing as long as we were conuersant with them, when we were in the fields.

20 And as she rode on her asse, she came downe by a secret place of the mountaine, and beholde, Dauid & his men came downe against her, and she met them.

21 And Dauid said, In dede I haue kept all in vaine that this fellowe had in the wilderness, so that nothing was missed of all that pertained vnto him: for he hathe requited me euil for good.

22 So and more also do God vnto the enemies of Dauid: [for] surely I wil not leaue of al that he hathe, by the dawning of the day, [any] that^b pisseth against the wall.

23 And when Abigáil sawe Dauid, she hastened and lighted of her asse, & fel before Dauid on her face, and bowed her selfe to the ground.

25 Let not my lord, I pray thee, regarde this wicked man Nabál: for as his name is, so is he: t̄ Nabál [is] his name, and folly [is] with him: but I thine handmayd sawe not the yong men of my lord whome thou sentest.

26 Now therefore, my lord, as the Lord liueth, and as thy soule liueth (the Lord, [I say,] that hathe withholden thee from coming to [shed] blood, and thatⁱ thine hād shulde [not] saue thee) so now thine enemies shalbe as Nabál, and thei that intēde to do my lord euil.

27 And now, this t̄ blessing which thine handmayd hathe brought vnto my lord, let it be giuen vnto the yongmen, that t̄ followe my lord.

28 I pray thee, forgiue the trespasse of thine handmayd: for the Lord wil make my lord a^k sure house, because my lord fighteth the battels of the Lord, & none euil hathe bene founde in thee t̄ in all thy life.

34 For in dede, as the Lord God of Israel liueth, & who hath kept me backe from hurting thee, except thou haddest hasted and met me, surely there had not bene left vnto Nabál by the dawning of the day, [any] that pisseth against the wall.

35 Then Dauid receiued of her hand that which she had broght him, & said to her, Go vp in peace to thine house: beholde, I haue heard thy voyce, and haue granted thy petition.

36 ¶ So Abigail came to Nabál, & beholde, he made a feast in his house, like the feast of a King, and Nabals heart was mery within him, for he was very drunken: wherefore she tolde him nothing, nether lesse nor more, vntil the morning arose.

37 Then in the morning when the wine was gone out of Nabál, his wife tolde him those wordes, and his heart dyed within him, and he was like a stone.

38 And about ten dayes after, the Lord smote Nabál, that he dyed.

39 ¶ Now when Dauid heard, that Nabál was dead, he said, Blessed be the Lord that hath iudged the cause of my rebuke of the hand of Nabál, & hath kept his seruant from euil: for the Lord hath recompensed the wickednes of Nabál vpon his owne head. Also Dauid sent to commune with Abigail to take her to his wife.

40 And when the seruants of Dauid were come to Abigail to Carmél, they spake vnto her, saying, Dauid sent vs to thee, to take thee to his wife.

41 And she arose, and bowed her self on her face to the earth, & said, Beholde, let thy handmayd be a seruant to wash the fete of the seruants of my lord.

42 And Abigail hasted, and arose, & rode vpon an asse, & her five maids followed her, and she went after the messengers of Dauid, and was his wife.

43 Dauid also toke Ahinoám of Izreél, & they were bothe his wiues.

44 Now Saül had giuen Michál his daughter Dauids wife to Phaltí the sonne of Láish, which was of Gallím.

CHAP. XXVI.

Dauid was discovered vnto Saül by the Ziphims. 1. Dauid taketh away Saüls speare, and a pot of water that stode at his head. 2. Saül confesseth his sinne.

Againe the Ziphims came vnto Saül to Gibeáh, saying, * Doeth not Dauid hide him selfe in the hil of Hachiláh before Ieshimón?

2 Then Saül arose, and went downe to the wilderness of Ziph, hauing thre thousand chosen men of Israel with him, for to seke Dauid in the wilderness of Ziph.

3 And Saül pitched in the hil of Hachiláh, which is before Ieshimón by the way side. Now Dauid abode in the wilderness, and he sawe that Saül came after him into the wilderness.

4 (For Dauid had sent out spies, & vnderstode, that Saül was come in very dede)

5 Then Dauid arose, and came to the place where Saül had pitched, & [when] Dauid beheld the place where Saül lay, & Abnér the sonne of Ner which was his chief captaine, (for Saül lay in the forte, and the people pitched round about him)

6 Then spake Dauid, & said to Ahimélech the Hittite, and to Abishái the sonne of Zeruiáh, brother to Ioáb, saying, Who wil go downe with me to Saül to the hoste? Then Abishái said, I wil go downe with thee.

7 So Dauid & Abishái came downe to the people by night: and beholde, Saül lay sleping within the forte, & his speare did sticke in the grounde at his head: and Abnér and the people lay round about him.

8 ¶ Thē said Abishái to Dauid, God hath closed thine enemy into thine hand this day: now therefore, I pray thee, let me smite him once with a speare to the earth, and I wil not smite him againe.

9 And Dauid said to Abishái, Destroye him not: for who can lay his hand on the Lords Anointed, and be guiltles?

10 Moreouer Dauid said, As the Lord liueth, ether the Lord shal smite him, or his day shal come to dye, or he shal descende into battel, and perish.

11 The Lord kepe me from laying mine hand vpon the Lords Anointed: but, I pray thee, take now the speare that is at his head, and the pot of water, and let vs go hence.

12 So Dauid toke the speare and the pot of water from Saüls head, & they gate them away, and no man sawe it, nor marked it, nether did any awake, but they were all asleepe: for the Lord had sent a dead sleepe vpon them.

13 Then Dauid went into the other side, & stode on the toppe of an hil a far of, a great space being betwene them.

14 And Dauid cryed to the people, and to Abnér the sonne of Ner, saying, Hearest thou not Abnér? Then Abnér answered, and said, Who art thou that cryest to the King?

15 ¶ And Dauid said to Abnér, Art not thou a man? and who is like thee in Israel? wherefore then hast thou not kept thy lord the King? for there came one of the folke in to destroye the King thy lord.

17 And Saul knewe Dauids voyce, & said, Is this thy voyce, my sonne Dauid? And Dauid said, It is my voyce, my lord o King.

18 And he said, Wherefore doeth my lord thus persecute his seruant? for what haue I done: or what euil is in mine hand?

19 Nowe therefore, I beseeche thee, let my lord the King heare the wordes of his seruant, if the Lord haue stirred thee vp against me, ^b let him smel the saueur of a sacrifice: but if the children of men haue done it, I cursed be thei before the Lord: for thei haue cast me out this day from abiding in the inheritance of the Lord, saying, Go, serue other gods.

20 Nowe therefore let not my blood fall to the earth before the face of the Lord: for the King of Israel is come out to seke a flye, as one wolde hunt a partridge in the mountaines.

21 Then said Saul, I haue sinned: come againe, my sonne Dauid: for I wil do thee nomore harme, because my soule was precious in thine eyes this day: beholde, I haue done foolishly, and haue erred exceedingly.

22 Then Dauid answered, & said, Beholde the Kings speare: let one of the yong men come ouer and fer it.

23 And let the Lord rewarde euerie man according to his righteousnes and faithfulness: for the Lord had deliuered thee in to [mine] hands this day, but I wolde not lay mine hand vpon the Lords Anointed.

24 And beholde, like as thy life was muche set by this day in mine eyes: so let my life be set by in the eyes of the Lord, that he may deliuer me out of all tribulation.

25 Then Saul said to Dauid, Blessed art thou, my sonne Dauid: for thou shalt do great things, and also preuaile. So Dauid went his way, and Saul returned to his place.

CHAP. XXVII.

1 Dauid beseecheth Achish King of Gath, who giueth him Ziklag. & Dauid destroyeth certeine of the Philistims, to Achish's deceyue by Dauid.

And Dauid said in his heart, I shall now perish one day by the hand of Saul: is it not better for me that I saue my selfe in the land of the Philistims, & that Saul may haue no hope of me to seke me anie more in all the coastes of Israel, and [so] escape out of his hand?

2 Dauid therefore arose, and he, and the six hundred men that were with him, went vnto Achish the sonne of Maach King of Gath.

3 And Dauid dwelt with Achish at Gath, he, and his men, euerie man with his householde, Dauid with his two wiues, Ahinoam the Izreelite; and Abigail Nabals wife the Carmelite.

4 And it was tolde Saul that Dauid was fled to Gath: so he sought nomore for him.

5 And Dauid said vnto Achish, If I haue now founde grace in thine eyes, let them giue me a place in some [other] citie of the countrey, that I may dwel there: for why shulde thy seruant dwel in the [head] citie of the Kingdome with thee?

6 Then Achish gaue him Ziklag that same day. therefore Ziklag pertaineth vnto the Kings of Iudah vnto this day.

7 ¶ And the time that Dauid dwelt in the countrey of the Philistims, was foure moneths and certeine dayes.

8 Then Dauid and his men went vp, and invaded the Geshurites, & the Girzites and the Amalekites: for they inhabited the land from the beginning, [from the way,] as thou goest to Shur, thence vnto the land of Egypt.

9 And Dauid smote the land, & left nether man nor woman aliue, and toke shepe, & oxen, and asses, and camels, and apparel, and returned and came to Achish.

10 And Achish said, Where haue ye bene a rousing this day? And Dauid answered, Against the Southe of Iudah, and against the Southe of the Ierameelites, & against the Southe of the Kenites.

11 And Dauid saued nether man nor woman aliue, to bring them to Gath, saying, Lest they shulde tel on vs; and say, So did Dauid, & so [wil be] his maner all the while that he dwelleth in the countrey of the Philistims.

3 * (Samuël was then dead, and all Israël had lamented him, and buryed him in Ramáh his owne citie: and Saúl had put away the forcerers, & the soothsayers out of the land)

4 Then the Philistims assembled themselves, and came, and pitched in Shuném: & Saúl assembled all Israël, and they pitched in Gilboa.

5 And when Saúl sawe the hoste of the Philistims, he was affrayed, and his heart was fore astonied.

6 Therefore Saúl asked counsell of the Lord, and the Lord answered him not, nether by dreames, nor by Vrim, nor yet by Prophetes.

7 ¶ Then said Saúl vnto his seruants, Seke me a woman that hath a familiar spirit, & I may go to her, and aske of her. And his seruants said to him, Beholde, there is a woman at Endor that hath a familiar spirit.

8 Then Saúl changed him selfe, and put on other raiment, and he went, and two men with him, and they came to the woman by night: and he said, I pray thee, coniecture vnto me by the familiar spirit, and bring me him vpon whom I shal name vnto thee.

9 And the woman said vnto him, Beholde thou knowest what Saúl hath done, how he hath destroyed the forcerers, and the soothsayers out of the land: wherefore thou sekest thou to take me in a snare to cause me to dye.

10 And Saúl sware to her by the Lord, saying, As the Lord liueth, no harme shal come to thee for this thing.

11 Then said the woman, Whome shal I bring vpon thee? And he answered, Bring me vpon Samuel.

12 And when the woman sawe Samuel she cryed with a loud voyce, and the woman spake to Saúl, saying, Why hast thou deceiued me: for thou art Saúl.

13 And the King said vnto her, Be not affrayed: for what sawest thou? And the woman said vnto Saúl, I sawe thy gods ascending vpon out of the earth.

14 Then he said vnto her, What facion is he of? And she answered, An olde man cometh vpon lapped in a matel: & Saúl knewe that it was Samuel, and he enclined his face to the ground, and bowed him selfe.

15 ¶ And Samuel said to Saúl, Why hast thou disquieted me, to bring me vpon? Then Saúl answered, I am in great distresse: for the Philistims make warre against me, & God is departed from me, and answereth me no more, nether by Prophetes, nether by dreames: therefore I haue called thee, that thou mayest tel me, what I shal do.

16 Then said Samuel, Wherefore then dost thou aske of me, seing the Lord is gone from thee, and is thine enemy?

17 Euen the Lord hath done to him as he spake by mine hand, for the Lord will rent the kingdome out of thine hand, and giue it thy neighbour Dauid.

18 Because thou obeyedst not the voyce of the Lord, nor executedst his feare wrath vpon the Amalekites, therefore hath the Lord done this vnto thee this day.

19 Moreover the Lord wil deliuer Israël with thee into the hands of the Philistims, and tomorrow shalt thou & thy sonnes be vnto me, and the Lord shal giue the hoste of Israël into the hands of the Philistims.

20 Then Saúl fel streight way all along on the earth, and was fore affrayed because of the wordes of Samuel, so that there was no strength in him: for he had eaten no bread all the day nor all the night.

21 Then the woman came vnto Saúl, and saue that he was fore troubled, and said vnto him, Se, thine handmayde hath obeyed thy voyce, & I haue put my soule in mine hand, and haue obeyed thy wordes which thou saidst vnto me.

22 Now therefore, I pray thee, hearken thou also vnto the voyce of thine handmaid, & let me set a moriel of bread before thee, & thou mayest eat and get the strength, and go on thy iourney.

23 But he refused, and said, I wil not eat: but his seruants and the woman together compelled him, & he obeyed their voyce: so he arose from the earth, & sate on the bed.

24 Now the woman had a fat calfe in the house, and she hasted, and killed it, and toke floure and kneaded it, & baked of it vnleauened [bread.]

25 Then she brought them before Saúl, and before his seruants: and when they had eaten, they stode vpon, and went away the same night.

1 SO the Philistims were gathered together with all their armies in Aphék: & the Israelites pitched by the founteine, which is in Izreel.

What [do] these Ebrewes [there:] And Achish said vnto the princes of the Philistims, Is not this Dauid the seruāt of Saūl the King of Israhēl, who hath bene with me these dayes, or these yerres, & I haue founde nothing in him, since he dwelt with me vnto this day?

4 But the princes of the Philistims were wrothe with him, and the princes of the Philistims said vnto him, * Send this fellowe backe, that he may go againe to his place which thou hast appointed him, & let him not go downe with vs to battell, lest that in the battell he be an aduersarie to vs: for wherewith shulde he obtaine the fauour of his master? shulde it not be with the heads of these men?

5 Is not this Dauid, of whome they sang in dances, saying, * Saūl slewe his thousand, and Dauid his ten thousand?

6 ¶ Then Achish called Dauid, & said vnto him, As the Lord liueth, thou hast bene vpright and good in my fight, when thou wentest out & in with me in the hoste, nether haue I founde euil with thee, since thou camest to me vnto this daye, but the princes do not fauour thee.

7 Wherefore now returne, and go in peace, that thou displease not the princes of the Philistims.

8 ¶ And Dauid said vnto Achish, But what haue I done? and what hast thou founde in thy seruāt as long as I haue bene with thee vnto this day, that I may not go & fight against the enemies of my lord the King?

9 Achish then answered, & said to Dauid, I knowe thou pleasest me, as an Angel of God: but the princes of the Philistims haue said, Let him not go vp with vs to battell.

10 Wherefore now rise vp early in the morning with thy ^f masters seruants that are come with thee: & when ye be vp early, as sone as ye haue light, departe.

11 So Dauid and his men rose vp early to departe in the morning, and to returne into the land of the Philistims: & the Philistims went vp to Izreel.

CHAP. XXX.

1 The Amalekites burne Ziklag. 2 Dauid and his men are taken prisoners. 3 The people wolde stone him. 4 He asketh counsell of the Lord, and pursuing his enemies recovereth the praye. 5 He deuiceth it equally, 6 And sendeth parte to his friends.

¶ But when Dauid and his men were come to Ziklag the third day, the Amalekites had invaded vpon the South, euen vnto Ziklag, and had smitten Ziklag, and burne it with fire,

And had taken the women that were therein, prisoners, bothe small & great, [and] slewe not a man, but caryed them away, and went their wayes.

3 ¶ So Dauid and his men came to the citie, and beholde, it was burnt with fire, & their ^c wives, and their sonnes, and their daughters were taken prisoners.

4 Then Dauid & the people that was with him, lift vp their voyces and wept, vntil they tolde wepe no more.

5 Dauids two wiues were taken prisoners also, Ahinoam the Izreelite, and Abigail the wife of Nabal the Carmelite.

6 And Dauid was in great sorowe: for the people ^d intended to stone him, because the heartes of all the people were vexed euery man for his sonnes & for his daughters: but Dauid comforted him selfe in the Lord his God.

7 ¶ And Dauid said to Abiathar the Priest Ahimelechs sonne, I pray thee, bring me the Ephod. And Abiathar broght the Ephod to Dauid.

8 Then Dauid asked counsell at the Lord, saying, Shal I followe after this companie? shal I ouertake them? And he answered him, Followe: for thou shalt surely ouertake them, and ^e recover all.

9 ¶ So Dauid and the six hundred men that were with him, went, & came to the riuer Besor, where a parte of them abode:

10 But Dauid and foure hundred men followed (for two hundred abode behinde, being to weaie to go ouer the riuer Besor)

11 And thei founde an Egyptiā in the field, and broght him to Dauid, and gaue him bread, and he did eat, and they gaue him water to drinke.

12 Also they gaue him a fewe figs, and two clusters of raisins: & when he had eaten, his spirit came againe to him: for he had eaten no bread, nor dronke any water in three dayes, and thre nights.

13 ¶ And Dauid said vnto him, To whome belongest thou? & whence art thou? And he said, I am a yong man of Egypt, & seruāt to an Amalekite: and my master left me thre daies ago, because I fell sicke.

14 We roued vpon the South of Chereth, & vpon the coast belonging to Iudah, & vpon the South of Calēb, and we burne Ziklag with fire.

15 And Dauid said vnto him, Canst thou bring me to this companie? And he said, I Swear vnto me by God, that thou wilt nether kil me, nor deliuer me into the hands of my master, and I wil bring thee to this companie.

16 ¶ And when he had broght him thither, a. iiij.

Thus we see, in troubles and aduersitie we do not consider Gods providence, but like raging beasts forget both our owne dutie and contentment ouer vs.

Though Gods seeme to leaue vs for a time, yet if we truste in him we shal surely finde comfort.

God by his providence best provided for the necessities of this poore stranger, & made him a guide to Dauid to accomplish his enterprise.

beholde, they lay scatered abroad vpon all the earth,^h eating and drinking, & dancing, because of all the great pray that they had take out of the land of the Philistims, and out of the land of Iudah.

17 And Dauid smote them from the twilight, euen vnto the eueningⁱ of the next morowe, so that there escaped not a man of them, saue foure hundred yong men, which rode vpon camels, and fled.

18 And Dauid recouered all that the Amalekites had taken: also Dauid rescued his two wiues.

19 And they lacked nothing, small or great, sonne or daughter, or of the spoyle of all that they had taken away: Dauid recouered them all.

20 Dauid also toke all the shepe, and the oxen, (&) they draue them before his cattel, and said, This is Dauids^k praye.

21 ¶ And Dauid came to the two hundred men that were to wearie for to followe Dauid: whome they had made also to abide at the riuer Befor: & they came to mete Dauid, and to mete the people that were with him: so when Dauid came nere to the people he saluted them.

22 Then answered all the euil and wicked of the men that went with Dauid, & said, Because they went not with vs, therefore wil we giue them none of the praye, that we haue recouered, saue to euery mā his wife and his children: therefore let them cary them away and departe.

23 Then said Dauid, Ye shal not do so, my brethren, with that which the Lord hath giuen vs, who hath preserved vs, & deliuered the companie that came against vs, into our handes.

24 For who wil obey you in this matter: but as his parte [is] that goeth downe to the battel, so [shal] his parte [be], that tarieth by the stufte: they shal parte alike.

25 ¶ So from that day forward he made it a statute & a lawe in Israel, vntil this day.

26 ¶ When Dauid therefore came to Ziklag, he sent of the pray vnto the Elders of Iudah & to his friends, saying, Se, [there is] a blessing for you of the spoyle of the enemies of the Lord.

27 He sent to them of Beth-el, and to them of South Ramoth, and to them of Iatir, 28 And to them of Aroer, and to them of Siphmoth, and to them of Eshtemoa, 29 And to them of Rachal, and to them of the cities of the Ierahmeelites, & to them of the cities of the Kenites,

30 And to them of Hormah, & to them of Chor-ashan, and to them of Athach,

4 Saul killeth him selfe. 6 His children are slaine in the battel. 13 The men of Iabesh toke downe his body, & was hanged on the wall.

1 NOW^o the Philistims fought against Israel, and the men of Israel fled away from the Philistims, and they fel downe & wounded in mount Gilboa.

2 And the Philistims pressed sore vpon Saul and his sonnes, and slewe Jonathan, and Abinadab, and Malchishua Sauls sonnes.

3 And when the battel went sore against Saul, the archers and bowemen^r hit him, and he was sore wounded of the archers.

4 Then said Saul vnto his armour bearer, Drawe out thy sworde, and thrust me through therewith, lest^s I vncircumcised come and thrust me through and mocke me: but his armour bearer wolde not, for he was sore afayed. Therefore Saul toke a sworde and fel vpon it.

5 And when his armour bearer sawe that Saul was dead, he fel likewise vpon his sworde, and dyed with him.

6 So Saul dyed, and his thre sonnes, & his armour bearer, and all his men that same day together.

7 ¶ And when the men of Israel that were on the other side of the^t valley, & they of the other side Iordan sawe that the men of Israel were put to flight, and that Saul & his sonnes were dead, then they left the cities, and ran away: and the Philistims came and dwelt in them.

8 ¶ And on the morowe when the Philistims were come to spoyle them that were slaine, they founde Saul and his thre sonnes lying in mount Gilboa, 9 And they cut of his head, and stripped him out of his armour, and sent into the land of the Philistims on euerie side, that they shulde^u publish it in the temple of their idoles, and among the people.

THE SECONDE BOKE OF SAMVEL.

THE ARGUMENT.

This boke and the former beare the title of Samuel, because they containe the conception, natiuitie and the whole course of his life, and also the liues and actes of two Kings, to wit, of Saul and Dauid, whome he anointed and consecrated Kings by the ordinance of God. And as the first boke containeth those things, which God brought to passe among this people vnder the gouernement of Samuel and Saul: so this seconde boke declarcth the noble actes of Dauid, after the death of Saul, when he began to reigne, vnto the end of his kingdome: and how the same by him was wonderfully augmented: also his great troubles and dangers, which he sustained both within his house and without: what horrible and dangerous insurrections, vproares, and treasons were wrought against him, partly by false counselors, fained friends and flatterers, and partly by some of his owne children & people: and how by Gods assistance he ouercame all difficulties, and enioyed his kingdome in rest and peace. In the persone of Dauid the Scripture setteth forth the Christ Iesus the chief King, who came of Dauid according to the flesh, and was persecuted on euerie side with outward and inward enemies, as wel in his owne persone, as in his members, but at length he ouercometh all his enemies and giveth his Church victorie against all power both spiritual and temporal, and so reigneth with them King for euermore.

CHAP. I.

4 It was tolde Dauid of Sauls death. 15 He causeth him to be slaine that brought the tidings. 19 He lamenteth the death of Saul and Ionathan.

After the death of Saul, when Dauid was returned from the slaughter of the Amalekites and had bene two dayes in Ziklag, Beholde, a man came the third day out of the hoste from Saul with his clothes rent, and earth vpon his head: & when he came to Dauid, he fel to the earth, and did obeisance.

3 Then Dauid said vnto him, Whence comest thou? And he said vnto him, Out of the hoste of Israel I am escaped.

4 And Dauid said vnto him, What is done? I pray thee, tel me. Then he said, that the people is fled from the battel, & many of the people are ouerthrowen, and dead, and also Saul and Ionathan his sonne are dead.

5 And Dauid said vnto the yong man, that tolde it him, How knowest thou that Saul and Ionathan his sonne be dead?

6 Then the yong man that tolde him, answered, As I came to mount Gilboa, beholde, Saul leaned vpon his speare, & lo, the charrets and horsemen followed hard after him.

7 And when he looked backe, he sawe me, & called me. And I answered, Here I am.

8 And he said vnto me, Who art thou? And I answered him, I am an Amalekite.

9 Then said he vnto me, I pray thee, come vpon me, & slaye me: for anguish is come vpon me, because my life is yet whole in me.

10 So I came vpon him, & slewe him, & because I was sure that he colde not liue, after that he had fallen, I toke the crowne that was vpon his head, and the bracelet that was on his arme, and brought them hither vnto my lord.

11 Then Dauid toke holde on his clothes, & rent them, and likewise all the men that were with him.

12 And they mourned and wept, & fasted vntil euen, for Saul and for Ionathan his sonne, and for the people of the Lord, and for the house of Israel, because they were slaine with the sworde.

13 ¶ Afterward Dauid said vnto the yong man that tolde it him, Whence art thou? And he answered, I am the sonne of a stranger an Amalekite.

14 And Dauid said vnto him, How wast thou not afraied, to put forth the thine hand to destroy the Anointed of the Lord?

15 Then Dauid called one of his yong men, & said, Go nere, and fall vpon him. And he smote him that he dyed.

16 Then said Dauid vnto him, Thy blood be vpon thine owne head: for thine owne mouth hath testified against thee, saying, I haue slaine the Lords Anointed.

17 ¶ Then Dauid mourned with this lamentation ouer Saul, and ouer Ionathan his sonne,

18 (Also he bade them teache the children of Iudah to shoothe, as it is written in the boke of Iasher)

19 O noble Israel, he is slaine vpon thy hie places: how are the mighty ouerthrowen?

4 Dauid is anointed King in Hebron. 9 Abner maketh Ish-bosheth King ouer Israël. 15 The battel of the ser- uants of Dauid & Ish-bosheth. 32 The buryal of Asahel.

1 After this Dauid^a asked counsel of the Lord, saying, Shal I go vp into any of the cities of Iudáh? And the Lord said vnto him, Go vp. And Dauid said, Whither shal I go? He then answered, Vn- to^b Hebrón.

2 So Dauid went vp thither & his two wi- ues also, Ahinoám the Izreelite, and Abi- gail Nabals wife the Carmelite.

3 And Dauid broght vp the men that were with^c him, euerie man with his houshol- de, and they dwelt in the cities of He- brón.

4 ¶ The men of Iudáh came, and there they anointed Dauid King ouer the hou- se of Iudáh. And they tolde Dauid, say- ing, * that the men of Iabesh Gilcad bu- ried Saúl.

5 And Dauid sent messengers vnto the mē of Iabesh Gilcad, & said vnto them, Blef- sed are ye of the Lord, that ye haue she- wed such kindnesses vnto your lord Saúl, that you haue buried him.

6 Therefore now the Lord shewe mercie and^d trueth vnto you: and I wil recom- pence you this benefite, because ye haue done this thing.

7 Therefore now let your hands be strong, and be you valiant: albeit your master Saúl be dead, yet neuertheless the house of Iudáh hath anointed me * King ouer them.

8 ¶ But Abnér the sonne of Ner that was captaine of Sauls hoste, toke Ish-bósheth the sonne of Saúl, and broght him to Ma- hanáim, 9 And made him King ouer Gileád, and ou- er the Ashurites, and ouer Izreél, & ouer Ephráim, and ouer Beniamín, and ouer^f all Israël.

10 Ish-bósheth Sauls sonne was fourty ye- re olde when he began to reigne ouer Is- raél, and reigned two yere: but the house of Iudáh followed Dauid.

11 (And the time which Dauid reigned in Hebrón ouer the house of Iudáh, [was] se- uen yere and six^g monethes)

12 ¶ And Abnér the sonne of Ner, and the seruants of Ish-bósheth the sonne of Saúl went out of Mahanáim to Gibeón.

13 And Ioáb the sonne of Zeruiáh, and the seruants of Dauid went out and met one an other by the poole of Gibeón: & they fate downe, the one on the one side of the poole, and the other on the other side of the poole.

14 Then Abnér said to Ioáb, Let the yong men now arise, and^h playe before vs. And Ioáb said, Let them arise.

15 Then there arose and went ouer twelue of Beniamín by number, which pertained to Ish-bósheth the sonne of Saúl, & twel- ue of the seruants of Dauid.

16 And euerie one caughtⁱ his fellowe by the head, & [thrust] his sworde in his fel- lowes side, so they fel downe together: wherefore the place was called^j Helkath- hazzurím, which is in Gibeón.

17 And the battel was exceeding sore that same day: for Abnér and the men of Israël^k fel before the seruants of Dauid.

18 And there were thre sonnes of Zeruiáh there, Ioáb, and Abishái, and Afahél. And Afahél was as light on foote as a wilde roe.

19 And Afahél followed after Abnér, & in going he turned nether to the right hand nor to the left from Abnér.

20 Then Abnér loked behinde him, & said, Art thou Afahél? And he answered, Yea.

21 Then Abnér said, Turne the ether to the right hand or to the left, and take one of the yong men, & take thee his^l weapons: but Afahél wolde not departe from him.

22 And Abnér said to Afahél, Departe frō me,^l wherefore shulde I smite thee to the ground? how then shulde I be able to holde vp my face to Ioáb thy brother?

24 Ioab also & Abishai pursued after Abner: & the sunne went downe, when they were come to the hill Ammah, that lieth before Giah, by the way of the wildernes of Gibeon.

25 And the children of Benjamin gathered them selues together after Abner, and were on an heape, and stode on the top of an hil.

26 Then Abner called to Ioab, and said, Shal the^m sworde deuoure for euer knowest thou not, that it wil be bitternes in the latter end: how long then shal it be, or thou bid the people returne from following their brethren?

27 And Ioab said, As God liueth, if thou haddest not^o spoken, surely euen in the morning the people had departed euerie one backe from his brother.

28 ¶ So Ioab blewe a trumpet, and all the people stode stil, and pursued after Israel nomore, nether fought they anie more.

29 And Abner and his men walked all that night through the^t plaine, and went ouer Iordan, & past through all Bithron til they came^t to Mahanaim.

30 Ioab also returned backe from Abner: & when he had gathered all the people together, there lacked of Dauids seruants ninetene men and Asahel.

31 But the seruants of David had slittin of Benjamin, and of Abners men, [so that] thre^t hundred and threscore men dyed.

32 And they toke vp Asahel, & buryed him in the sepulchre of his father, which was in Beth-lehem: and Ioab & his men went all night, & [when they came] to Hebron, the day arosc.

CHAP. III.

1 Long warre betwene the houses of Saul & David. 2 The children of David in Hebron. 3 Abner turneth so David. 37 Ioab killeth him.

1 Here was then^a long warre betwene the house of Saul and the house of David: but David waxed stronger, & the house of Saul waxed weaker.

2 ¶ And vnto David were children borne in Hebron: and his eldest sonne was Amnon of Ahinoam the Izreelite,

3 And his seconde [was]^b Chileab of Abigail the wife of Nabal the Carmelite, and the third, Abialom the sonne of Maacah the daughter of Talmai the King of Geshur,

4 And the fourthe, Adoniah the sonne of Aggith, and the fifth, Shephaciah the sonne of Abital,

5 And the sixt, Ithream by Eglah Dauids wife: theie were borne to David in Hebron.

6 ¶ Now while there was warre betwene^t house of Saul and the house of David, Abner made all his power for the house of Saul.

7 And Saul had a concubine nam'd Rizpah, the daughter of Aiah. And Ish-bôsheth said to Abner, Wherefore hast thou gone in to my fathers concubines?

8 Then was Abner very wrothe for^t wordes of Ish-bôsheth, and said, Am I a dogs head, which against Iudah do shewe mercy this day vnto the house of Saul thy father, to his brethren, & to his neighbours, and haue not deliuered thee into the hand of David, that thou chargest me this day with a faute concerning this woman?

9 ¶ So do God to Abner, and more also, except, as the Lord hath tworne to David, euen so I do to him,

10 To remoue the kingdome fro the house of Saul, that the throne of David may be stablished ouer Israel, and ouer Iudah, euen from Dan to Beer-sheba.

11 And he durst nomore answer to Abner for he feared him.

12 ¶ The Abner sent messengers to David^t on his behalfe, saying, Whose is^t plande? Who shulde also say, Make couenant w me, and beholde, mine hand shal be^t with thee, to bring all Israel vnto thee.

13 Who said, Wel, I wil make a couenant with thee: but one thing I require of thee, that is, that thou se not my face except^t bring Michal Sauls daughter when thou comest to se me.

14 ¶ Then David sent messengers to Ish-bôsheth Sauls sonne, saying, Deliuer me my wife Michal, which I married for^a an hundredth foreskinnes of the Philistims.

15 And Ish-bôsheth sent, and toke her fro her hous^b bad^a Phaltiel the sonne of Laish.

16 And her hous^b band went with her, and came weping behinde her, vnto Bahurim: Then said Abner vnto him, Go, [and] returne. So he returned.

17 ¶ And Abner had^c communication with the elders of Israel, sayi^g, Ye fought for David in times past, that he might be your King:

18 Now then do it: for the Lord hath spoken of David, saying, By the hand of my seruant David I wil saue my people Israel out of the hands of the Philistims, and out of the hands of all their enemies.

20 So Abner came to Dauid, to Hebrón,

What hast thou done? beholde, Abner came vnto thee, why hast thou sent him away, and he is departed?

25 Thou knowest Abner the sonne of Ner:
for he came to disceiue thee, & to knowe thy outgoing and ingoing, and to knowe all that thou doest.

26 ¶ And when Ioab was gone out from Dauid, he sent messengers after Abner, which brought him againe from the well of Siriah vnknowing to Dauid.

27 And when Abner was come againe to Hebrón, Ioab toke him aside in the gate to speake with him peaceably, and smote him vnder the fifth [rib], that he dyed, for the blood of Asahel his brother.

28 And when afterwarde it came to Da-uids eare, he said, I and my kingdome are giltles before the Lord for euer, concerning the blood of Abner the sonne of Ner.

29 Let the blood fall on the head of Ioab, and on all his fathers house, that the house of Ioab be neuer without some that haue running yssues, or lepre, or that leaneth or that lacketh bread.

30 (So Ioab and Abishai his brother slewe
Abner, because he had slayne their brother Asahel at Gibeon in battel)

31 And Dauid said to Ioab, and to all the people that were with him, Rent your clothes, and put on sackcloth, and mourne before Abner: and King Dauid him self followed the beare.

32 And when thei had buryed Abner in Hebrón, the King lift vp his voyce, and wept beside the sepulche of Abner, and all the people wept.

33 And the King lamented ouer Abner, & said, Dyed Abner as a foole dyeth:

34 Thine hands were not bounde, nor thy feete tyed in fetters of brasle: [but] as a man falleth before wicked me, [so] didest thou fall. And all the people wept againe for him.

35 Afterwarde al the people came to cause Dauid eat meat while it was yet day, but Dauid sware, saying, So do God to me & more also, if I taste bread, or oght els til the sunne be downe.

36 And all the people knewe it, & it pleased them: as whatsoeuer the King did, pleased all the people.

37 For all the people and all Israël vnder-stode that day, how that it was not the Kings dede that Abner the sonne of Ner was slayne.

38 And the King said vnto his seruants, Knowe ye not, that there is a prince and a great man fallen this day in Israël?

CHAP. V.

3 Dauid is made King ouer all Israel. 7 He taketh the forte of Zion. 19 He asketh counsel of the Lord, 20 And ouercometh the Philistims twise.

1 Then * came all the tribes of Israël to Dauid vnto Hebrón, and said thus, Beholde we are thy * bones and thy flesh.

2 And in time past when Saúl was our King, thou leddest Israël in and out: and the Lord hathe said to thee, * Thou shalt feede my people Israël, and thou shalt be a captaine ouer Israël.

3 So all the Elders of Israël came to the King to Hebrón: and King Dauid made a couenant with them in Hebrón b before the Lord: and they anointed Dauid King ouer Israël.

4 ¶ Dauid [was] thirty yere olde when he began to reigne: [and] he reigned forty yere.

5 In Hebrón he reigned ouer Iudáh * seuen yere, and six moneths: and in Ierusalém he reigned thirty and thre yeres ouer all Israël and Iudáh.

6 ¶ The King also and his men went to Ierusalém vnto the Iebusites, the inhabitāts of the land: who spake vnto Dauid, saying, Except thou take away the * blinde and the lame, thou shalt not come in hither: thinking that Dauid coulde not come thither.

7 But Dauid toke the forte of Ziōn: this is the citie of Dauid.

8 Now Dauid had said y^e same day, Who soeuer smiteth the Iebusites, & getteth vp to the gutters and [smiteth] the lame and blinde, which Dauids soule hateth [I will prefferre him:] * therefore they said, The blinde and the lame shal not d come into that house.

9 So Dauid dwelt in that forte, and called it the citie of Dauid: and Dauid buylt round about it, from * Milló, and inwarde.

10 And Dauid prospered and grewe: for the Lord God of hostes [was] with him.

11 Hiram also King of † Tyrus sent messēgers to Dauid, and cedartrees, and carpēters, and masons for walles: and thei buylt Dauid an house.

12 Then Dauid knewe, that the Lord had stablished him King ouer Israël, and that he had exalted his kingdome for his people Israels sake.

13 And Dauid toke him mo * concubines & wiues out of Ierusalém, after he was come from Hebrón, and mo sonnes and daughters were borne to Dauid.

14 * And these be the names of the sonnes that were borne vnto him in Ierusalém: Shammúa, and Shobáb, and Nathán, and Salomón,

15 And Ibhár, and Elishúa, and Néphég, and Iaphia,

17 ¶ But when the Philistims heard that they had anointed Dauid King ouer Israël, al the Philistims came vp to seke Dauid: and when Dauid heard, he went downe to a forte.

18 But the Philistims came, and spred them selues in the valley of Repháim.

19 Then Dauid f^asked couēsel of the Lord, saying, Shal I go vp to the Philistims: wilt thou deliuer them into mine hands? And the Lord answered Dauid, Go vp: for I will doubtles deliuer the Philistims into thine hands.

manded him, and smote the Philistims fro Geba, vntil thou come to h Gazer.

CHAP. VI.

3 The Arke is broght forth of the house of Abinadab.
7 Vzzah is striken, & dyeth. 14 Dauid danceth before it, 26 And is therefore despited of his wife Michal.

1 A Gaine Dauid gathered together all the † chosen men of Israel, [euē] thirtie thousand,

2 * And Dauid arose & went w all the people that were with him a from Baalé of Iudah to bring vp from thence the Arke of God, whose name is called by the Name of the Lord of hostes, that dwelleth vpon
it betwene the Cherubims.

3 And they put the Arke of God vpon a newe carte, and broght it out of the house of Abinadab that was in b Gibeah. And Vzzah and Ahio the sonnes of Abinadab did driue the newe carte.

4 And when they broght the Arke of God out of the house of * Abinadab, that was at Gibeah, Ahio went before the Arke,

5 And Dauid and all the house of Israel played before the Lord on al [instrumēts] made of firre, and on harpes, and on psalteries, and on timbrels, and on cornets, and on cymbals.

6 ¶ And whe they came to Nachons threshing floor, Vzzah put his hand to the Arke of God, and helde it: for the oxen did shake it.

7 And the Lord was very wrothe with Vzzah, and God smote him in the same place for his faute, and there he dyed by the Arke of God.

8 And Dauid was displeased, because the Lord had † smite n Vzzah: and he called the name of the place † Pérez Vzzah vntil this day.

9 Therefore Dauid that day feared † Lord and said, How shal the Arke of the Lord come to me?

10 So Dauid wolde not bring the Arke of the Lord vnto him into the citie of Dauid, but Dauid caryed it into the house of Obed-edom * a Gittite.

11 And the Arke of the Lord continued in the house of Obed-edom the Gittite, thre moneths, & † Lord blessed Obed-edom, and all his housholde.

12 ¶ And one tolde King Dauid, saying,
* The Lord hathe blessed the house of Obed-edom, and all that he hathe, becaufe of the Arke of God: therefore Dauid wet and broght the Arke of God from the house of Obed-edom, into the citie of Da-uid with gladnes.

13 And when they that bare the Arke of the Lord had gone six paces, he offred an oxe, and a fat beast.

14 And Dauid danceth before the Lord w all his might, and was girded with a linen ephod.

15 So Dauid and all the house of Israel broght the Arke of the Lord with show-ting, and sounde of trumpet.

16 And as the Arke of the Lord came into the citie of Dauid, Michal Sauls daughter looked through a window, and sawe King Dauid leape, and dance before the Lord, and she h despised him in her heart.

17 And when they had broght in the Arke of the Lord, they set it in his place, in the middles of the Tabernacle that Dauid had pitched for it: then Dauid offred burnt offerings, and peace offerings before the Lord.

18 And assone as Dauid had made an end of offering burnt offerings and peace of-frings, he * blessed the people in the name of the Lord of hostes,

19 And gaue among all the people, [euē] among the whole multitude of Israel, as wel to the women as men, to euerie one a cake of bread, and a piece of flesh, and a botel [of wine:] so all the people departed euerie one to his house.

20 ¶ Then Dauid returned to † blesse his house, and Michal the daughter of Saul came out to mete Dauid, and said, O how glorious was the King of Israel this day, which was vncovered to day in the eyes of the maidens of his seruants, as a foole vncovereth him selfe.

21 Then Dauid said vnto Michal, [It was] then thy father, and all his house, and commanded me to be ruler ouer all the people of the Lord, [euē] ouer Israel: and therefore wil I play before the Lord,

CHAP. VII.

1 Dauid wolde buylde God an house, but is forbidden by the Prophet Nathan. 2 God putteth Dauid in minde of his benefices. 3 He promisseth continuance of his kingdome and posteritie.

1 Afterward * when the King sate in his house, & the Lord had giue him rest round about from all his enemies,

2 The King said vnto Nathan [†] Prophet, Beholde, now I dwel in an house of cedar trees, & the Arke of God remaineth with in the [‡] curtaines.

3 Then Nathan said vnto the King, Go, and do all that is in thine heart: for [§] Lord [is] with thee.

4 ¶ And the same night the worde of the Lord came vnto Nathan, saying,

5 Go, and tel my seruant Dauid, Thus saith the Lord, [¶] Shalt thou buylde me an house for my dwelling?

6 For I haue dwelt in no house since the time that I broght the children of Israel out of Egypt vnto this day, but haue walked in a tent and tabernacle.

7 In all the [places] wherein I haue walked with all the children of Israel, spake I one worde with anie of the tribes of [‡] Israel when I commanded [the Iudges] to fede my people Israel: or said I, Why buyld ye not me an house of cedar trees?

8 Now therefore so say vnto my seruant Dauid, Thus saith the Lord of hostes, [¶] I toke thee from the shepecore following [§] shepe, that thou mightest be ruler ouer my people, ouer Israel.

9 And I was with thee wherefoeuer thou hast walked, and haue destroyed all thine enemies out of thy sight, and haue made thee a [¶] great name, like vnto the name of the great men that are in the earth.

10 (Also I wil appoint a place for my people Israel, and wil plant it, that they may dwel in a place of their owne, and moue [¶] nomore, nether shal wicked people trouble them anie more as before time, 11 And since the time that I set Iudges ouer my people of Israel) and I wil giue thee rest from all thine enemies: also the Lord telleth thee, [¶] he wil make thee an house.

12 * And when thy dayes be fulfilled, thou shalt slepe with thy fathers, and I wil set vp thy seede after thee, which shal procede out of thy body, and wil stablish his kingdome.

13 * He shal buyld an house for my Name, and I wil stablish the throne of his kingdome for euer.

14 * I wil be his father, and he shalbe my sonne: and * if he sinne, I wil chasten him with the [¶] rod of men, & with the plagues of the children of men.

15 But my mercy shal not departe away from him, as I toke it from Saul whome I haue put away before thee.

16 And thine house shalbe stablished and thy kingdome for euer before thee, [euē] thy throne shalbe [¶] stablished for euer.

17 According to all these wordes, and according to all this vision, Nathan spake thus vnto Dauid.

18 Then King Dauid went in, and sate before the Lord, and said, Who am I, [¶] o Lord God, and what is mine house, that thou hast broght me hitherto?

19 And this was yet a smal thing in thy sight, [¶] o Lord God, therefore thou hast spoken also of thy seruants house for a great while: but [¶] I doeth this apperteyne to [¶] man, [¶] o Lord God.

20 And what can Dauid say more vnto thee: for thou, Lord God, knowest thy seruant.

21 For thy wordes sake, and according to thine owne heart: hast thou done all these great things, to make them knowen vnto thy seruant.

22 Wherefore thou art great, [¶] o Lord God: for there is none like thee, nether is there anie god besides thee, according to all that we haue heard with our eares.

23 * And what one people in [¶] earth is like thy people, like Israel: whose God went and redeemed them to him selfe, that they might be his people, and that he might make him a name, and do for [¶] you great things, and terrible for thy [¶] land, [¶] o Lord, [euē] for thy people, whome thou redeemedst to thee out of Egypt, [from] the [¶] nations, and their gods?

24 For thou hast [¶] ordeined thy people Israel to be thy people for euer: and thou Lord art become their God.

25 Now therefore, [¶] o Lord God, confirme for euer the worde that thou hast spoken concerning thy seruant and his house, & do as thou hast said.

26 And let thy Name be magnified for euer by them that shal say, The Lord of hostes [is] the God ouer Israel: and let the [¶] house of thy seruant Dauid be stablished before thee.

27 For thou, [¶] o Lord of hostes, God of Israel, hast reueiled vnto thy seruant, saying, I wil buyld thee an house: therefore hath thy seruant [¶] bene bolde to pray this prayer vnto thee.

28 Therefore now, [¶] o Lord God, (for thou art God, and thy wordes be true, and thou

CHAP. VIII.

1 David ouercometh the Philistims, and other strange nations, and maketh them tributaries to Israel.

1 After *this now, David smote the Philistims, and subdued them, and David toke † the bridle of bondage out of the hand of the Philistims.

2 And he smote Moab, and measured them with a corde, and cast them downe to the ground: he measured them with ^b two cordes to put them to death, and with one ful corde to kepe them aliue: so became the Moabites Davids seruants, & broght gifts.

3 ¶ David smote also Hadadézer the sonne of Rehób King of Zobáh, as he went to † recouer his border at † riuier † Euphrátes.

4 And David toke a thousand and seuen hundred horsemen, and twétie thousand fotemen, & † destroyed all the charers, but he reserued an hundred charers of them.

5 ¶ Then came † the Aramites of † Dammesék to succour Hadadézer King of Zobáh, but David slewe of the Aramites two and twentie thousand men.

6 And he put a garrison in * Arám of Dammesék: and the Aramites became seruants to David, & broght giftes. And the Lord saued David wheresoeuer he went.

7 And David toke the shields of golde that belonged to the seruants of Hadadézer, and broght them to * Ierusalém.

8 And out of Béráth, and Berothái (cities of Hadadézer) David broght exceeding muché brasse.

9 ¶ Thē Tôl King of † Hamáth heard how David had smitten all the hoste of Hadadézer, 10 Therefore Tôl sent Iorám his sonne vnto King David, to salute him, and to † reioyce with him because he had fought against Hadadézer, and beaten him (for Hadadézer had warre with Tôl) who broght with him vessels of siluer, and vessels of golde, and vessels of brasse.

11 And King David did dedicate them vnto the Lord, with the siluer and golde that he had dedicate of all the nations, which he had subdued:

12 Of † Arám, & of Moab, and of the children of Ammón, & of the Philistims, and of Amalék, and of the spoyle of Hadadézer the sonne of Rehób King of the Zobáh.

13 So David gate a name after that he returned, and had slaine of the Aramites in the † valley of salt eightene thousand men.

14 And he put a garrison in Edóm, throughout all Edóm put he soldiers, and all they of Edóm became Davids seruants: and the Lord kept David † wheresoeuer he went.

15 Thus David reigned ouer all Israël, and executed iudgement and iustice vnto all his people.

16 And Ioáb the sonne of Zeruiah [was] ouer the hoste, and Ioshaphát the sonne of Ahilud was † recorder.

17 And Zadók the sonne of Ahitúb, and Ahimélech the sonne of Abiathár, [were] the Priests, and Seraiah the scribe.

18 And Benaiah the sonne of Ichoiadá & the ^b Cherethites & the Pelethites, & Davids sonnes were chief rulers.

CHAP. IX.

9 David restoreth all the landes of Saul to Mephibosheth the sonne of Jonathan. 10 He appointeth Ziba to see to the profit of his landes.

1 And David said, Is there yet any male left of the house of Saúl, that I may shewe him mercy for * Ionatháns sake?

2 And there was of the householde of Saúl a seruant whose name was Zibá, and when they had called him vnto David, the King said vnto him, Art thou Zibá? And he said, I thy seruant [am he.]

3 Then the King said, Remaineth there yet none of the house of Saúl, on whome I may shewe the ^b mercy of God? Zibá then answered the King, Ionathán hath yet a sonne * lame of his feete.

4 Then the King said vnto him, Where is he? And Zibá said vnto the King, Beholde he is in the house of Machir the sonne of Ammiél of Lo-debar.

5 ¶ Then King David sent, and toke him out of the house of Machir the sonne of Ammiél of Lo-debar.

6 Now when Mephibosheth the sonne of Ionathán, the sonne of Saúl was come vnto David, he fell on his face, and did reuerence. And David said, Mephibosheth? And he answered, Beholde thy seruant.

7 Then David said vnto him, Feare not, for I will surely shewe thee kindenes for Ionathán thy fathers sake, and wil restore thee all the † fields of Saúl thy father, and thou shalt eat bread at my table continually.

¶ CHAP. X.

The messengers of David are villainously entreated of the King of Ammon. 7 Ioab is sent against the Ammonites.

After this, the * King of the children of Ammón dyed, & Hanún his sonne reigned in his stede.

2 Then said David, I wil shewe kindenes vnto Hanún the sonne of Naliásh, as his father * shewed kindenes vnto me. And David sent his seruants to comforte him for his father. So Dauids seruants came into the land of the children of Ammón.

3 And the princes of the children of Ammón said vnto Hanún their lord, † Thinkest thou that David doeth honour thy father, ‡ he hath sent comforters to thee: hath not David [rather] sent his seruants vnto thee, § to searche the citie, and to spie it out, and to ouerthrowe it?

4 Wherefore Hanún toke Dauids seruants, and shaued of the halfe of their beard, and cut of their garments in the middle, euen to their buttockes, and sent them away.

5 ¶ When it was tolde vnto Dauid, he sent to meete them (for the me were exceedingly ashamed) and the King said, Tary at Ierichó, vntil your beardes be growen, then returne.

6 ¶ And when the children of Ammón sawe that they * stanke in the sight of Dauid, the children of Ammón sent and hired the Aramites of the house of Rehób, and the Aramites of Zobá, twentie thousand footemen, and of King Maacáh a thousand men, & of Ish-tób twelue thousand men.

7 And when Dauid heard of it, he sent Ioáb, and all the hoste of the strong men.

8 And the children of Ammón came out, and put their armie in array at the entring in of the gate: and the Aramites of Zobá, and of Rehób, and of Ish-tób, and of Maacáh [were] by them selues in the field.

9 When Ioáb sawe that the fronte of the battell was against him before and behinde, he chose of all the choise of Israël, and put them in array against the Aramites.

10 And the rest of the people he deliuered into the hand of Abishái his brother, that he might put them in array against the children of Ammón.

11 And he said, If the Aramites be stronger then I, thou shalt helpe me, and if the children of Ammón be strong for thee, I wil come and succour thee.

12 Be strong and let vs be valiant for * our people, and for the cities of our God, and let the Lord do that which is good in his eyes.

13 Then Ioáb, & the people that was with him, ioyned in battel with the Aramites, who fled before him.

14 And when the children of Ammón sawe that the Aramites fled, they fled also before Abishái, and entred into the citie. So Ioáb returned from the children of Ammón, & came to Ierusalém.

15 ¶ And whē the Aramites sawe that they were smitten before Israël, they gathered them together.

16 And † Haderézzer sent and brought out the Aramites that were beyonde the ‡ Riuer: and they came to Helám, and Shobách † captaine of the hoste of Haderézzer [went] before them.

17 When it was shewed Dauid, then he gathered † all Israël together, and passed ouer Iordén and came to Helám: and the Aramites set them selues in array against Dauid, and fought with him.

18 And the Aramites fled before Israël: & Dauid destroyed § seuen hundred charets of the Aramites, and fourtie thousand horsemen, and smote Shobách the captaine of his hoste, who dyed there.

19 And when all the Kings, [that were] seruants to Haderézzer, sawe that they fell before Israël, they made peace with Israël, and serued them. And the Aramites feared to helpe the children of Ammón any more.

ANd when the yere was ^a expired, in the time when Kings go forthe (to battell,) David sent ^b Ioab, and his seruants with him, and all Israél, who destroyed the children of Ammon, and besieged Rabbah: but Dauid remained in Ierusalem.

2. ¶ And when it was euenig tide, Dauid arose out of his ^b bed, and walked vpon therooft of the Kings palace: and from the rooffe he sawe a woman washing her selfe: and the woman was very beautifull
to loke vpon.

3 And David sent and inquired what woman it was: and (one) said, Is not this Bathsheba the daughter of Eliam, wife to Uriah the Hittite?

4. Then Dauid sent messengers, and toke her away: and she came vnto him, and he lay with her: (now she was* purified from her vncleannes) and she returned vnto her house.

5. And the woman conceiued: therefore she sent and tolde Dauid, and said, I am with childe.

6 ¶ Then Dauid sent to Ioab, [faying,] Sed me Vriah the Hittite. And Ioab sent Vriah to Dauid.

7 And when Vriah came vnto him, Dauid demanded him how Ioab did, & how the people fared, and how the warre prospered.

8 Afterwarde Dauid said to Vriah, * Go downe to thine house, and wash thy feete.
So Vriah departed out of ^{the} Kings palace, and the King sent a present after him.

9 But Uriah slept at the dore of the Kings palace with all the seruants of his lord, and went not downe to his house.

10. Then they tolde Dauid, saying, Vriah went not downe to his house: and Dauid said vnto Vriah, Comest thou not from thy iourney? why didest thou not go downe to thine house?

11. The Vriah answered David, ¶ The Arke of Israel; and Iudah dwell in tents: and my lord Ioab and the seruants of my lord abide in the open fields: shal I then go in to mine house to eat and drinke, and lie with my wife? [by] thy life, & [by] the life of thy soule, I wil not do this thing.

12 Then Dauid said to Vriah, Tarie yet this daye, and to morowe I will send thee a waie. So Vriah abode in Ierusalem that day, and the morowe.

3 Then David called him, & he did eat and drinke before him, & he made him drōke:
& at euen he went out to lie on his couche with the seruants of his lord, but went not downe to his house.

4 And on the morowe David wrote a letter to Ioáb, and sent it by the hand of Vriáh.

15 And he wrote thus in the letter, ^bPut ye Vriah in the forefront of the strength of the battell, and recule ye backe from him, that he may be smitin, and dye.

16 ¶ So when Ioab besieged the citie, he assigned Vriah vnto a place, where he knewe that strong men [were.]

17 And the men of the citie came out, and fought with Ioab: & there fell of the people of the seruants of Dauid, & Vriah the 18 Then Ioáb sent and tolde Dauid all the things concerning the warre.

19 ¶ And he charged the messenger, saying,

22 ¶ So the messenger went, and came and shewed Dauid all that Ioab had sent him for.

23 And the messenger said vnto Dauid, we pursued them vnto the entring of the

Now there came a † stranger vnto the riche mā, who refused to take of his owne shepe, and of his owne oxen to dresse for the stranger that was come vnto him, but toke the poore mans shepe, and dressed it for the man that was come to him.

Thē † Dauid was exceding wrothe with the mā, and said to Nathán, As the Lord liueth, the mā that hath done this thing, shal surely dye,

And he shal restore the lābe * foure folde, because he did this thing, and had no pitie thereof.

Then Nathán said to Dauid, Thou art the man. Thus sayth the Lord God of Israël, * I anointed thee King ouer Israël, and deliuered thee out of the hand of Saúl,

And gaue thee thy lords^b house, and thy lords^c wiues into thy bosome, and gaue thee the house of Israël, and of Iudah, & wolde moreouer (if [that had bene] to litle) haue giuen thee^d such and such things.

Wherefore hast thou despised the commandement of the Lord, to do euil in his sight: thou hast killed Vriah the Hittite with the sworde, and hast taken his wife [to be] thy wife, and hast slaine him with the sworde of the^e children of Ammón.

Now therefore the sworde shal neuer departe from thine house, because thou hast despised me, and taken the wife of Vriah the Hittite to be thy wife.

Thus saith the Lord, Beholde, I wil raise vp euil against thee out of thine owne house, and wil * take thy wiues before thine eyes, and giue them vnto thy neighbour, & he shal lye with thy wiues in the sight of this^f sunne.

For thou didest it secretly: but I wil do this thing before all Israël, and before the sunne.

Then Dauid said vnto Nathán, * I haue sinned against the Lord. And Nathán said vnto Dauid, The Lord also hath put away thy sinne, thou shalt not dye.

Howbeit because by this dede thou hast caused the enemies of the Lord to^h blaspheme, the childe that is borne vnto thee shal surely dye.

So Nathán departed vnto his house: and the Lord stroke the childe that Vriahs wife bare vnto Dauid, and it was sicke.

Dauid therefore besoght God for the childe, and fasted andⁱ went in, and laye all night vpon the earth.

Then the Elders of his house arose [to come] vnto him, and to cause him to rise from the ground: but he wolde not, neither did he eat^k meat with them.

So on the seuenth day the childe dyed: and the seruāts of Dauid feared to tel him that the childe was dead: for they said, Beholde, while the childe was aliue, we spake vnto him, and he wolde not hearken vnto our voyce: how then shal we say vnto him, The childe is dead, † to vex^e [him] more?

But when Dauid sawe that his seruāts whispered, Dauid perceiued that † childe was dead: therefore Dauid said vnto his seruāts, Is the childe dead? And they said, He is dead.

Then Dauid arose from the earth, and washed and anointed him selfe, and changed his apparel, and came into the house of the Lord, and worshiped, & afterward came to his owne house, & bade that they shulde set bread before him, and he did eat.

Then said^m his seruāts vnto him, What thing is this, that thou hast done? thou didest fast and wepe for the childe, while it was aliue, but when the childe was dead, thou didest rise vp, and eat meat.

And he said, While the childe was yet aliue, I fasted, and wept: for I said, Who can tel [whether] God wil haue mercie on me, that the childe may liue?

But now being dead, wherefore shulde I now fast? * Can I bring him againe anie more? I shal go to him, but he shal not returne to me.

And Dauid comforted Bath-sheba his wife, and went in vnto her, and lay with her, * and she bare a sonne, * and he called his name Salomón: also the Lord loued him.

For [the Lord] had sent by Nathán the † Prophet: therefore * he called his name Iedidiah, because the Lord [loued] him.

Then Ioab foght against Rabbah of the children of Ammón, and toke the^j citie of the Kingdome.

Therefore Ioab sent messengers to Dauid.

CHAP. XIII.

34 Ammon Dauids sonne defileth his sister Tamar. 20 Tamar is comforted by her brother Absalom. 29 Absalom therefore killeth Ammon.

NOW after this so it was, that Absalom the sonne of Dauid hauing a faire sister, whose name [was] * Tamar, Ammon the sonne of Dauid loued her.

2 And Ammon was so fore vexed, that he fel sicke for his sister Tamar: for she was a b virgin, and it semed harde to Ammon to do any thing to her.

3 But Ammon had a friend called Ionadab, the sonne of Shimeah Dauids brother: & Ionadab was a very subtil man:

4 Who said vnto him, Why [art] thou the Kings sonne so leane from day to day? wilt thou not tel me? Then Ammon answered him, I loue Tamar my brother Absaloms sister.

5 And Ionadab said vnto him, * Lye downe on thy bed, and make thy selfe sicke: and when thy father shal come to se thee, say vnto him, I pray thee, let my sister Tamar come, and giue me meat, and lether dresse meat in my sight, that I may se it, and eat it of her hand.

6 ¶ So Ammon laye downe, and made him selfe sicke: and when the King came to se him, Ammon said vnto the King, I pray thee, let Tamar my sister come, and make me a couple of cakes in my sight, that I may receiue meat at her hand.

7 Then Dauid sent home to Tamar, saying, Go now to thy brother Ammons house, and dresse him meat.

8 ¶ So Tamar went to her brother Ammons house, and he laye downe: and she toke flour, and knead it, & made cakes in his sight, and did bake the cakes.

9 And she toke a panne, & * powred them out before him, but he wolde not eat. Then Ammon said, Cause ye euerie mā to go out from me: so euery man went out from him.

10 Then Ammon said vnto Tamar, Bring the meat into the chamber, that I may eat of thine hand. And Tamar toke the cakes which she had made, and broght them into the chamber to Ammon her brother.

11 And when she had set them before him to eat, he toke her, and said vnto her, Come, lye with me, my sister.

12 But she answered him, Nay, my brother, do not force me: for no such thing * ought to be done in Israél: commit not this folie.

13 And I, † whether shal I cause my shame to go? and thou shalt be as one of the fooles of Israél: now therefore, I pray thee speake to the King, for he wil not deny me vnto thee.

14 Howbeit he wolde not hearkē vnto her voyce, but being stronger then she, forced her, and lay with her.

15 Then Ammon hated her exceedingly, so that the hatred wherewith he hated her, was greater then the loue wherewith he had loued her: and Ammon said vnto her, Vp, get thee hence.

16 And she answered him, † There [is] no cause: this euil (to put me away) is greater then the other that thou didest vnto me: but he wolde not heare her,

17 But called his † seruant that serued him, and said, Put this woman now out from me, and locke the dore after her.

18 (And she had a garment of diuers coulers vpon her: for with suche garments were the Kings daughters that were virgins, appereled) Then his seruant broght her out, and locked the dore after her.

19 And Tamar put ashes on her head, and rent the garment of diuers coulers which was on her, & layed her hand on her head, and went her way crying.

20 And Absalom her brother said vnto her, Hathe Ammon thy brother bene wth thee? Now yet be stil, my sister: he is thy brother: let not this thing grieue thine heart. So Tamar remained desolate in her brother Absaloms house.

21 ¶ But when King Dauid heard all these things, he was very wrothe.

23 ¶ And after the time of two yeres, Absalom had shepherders in Baal-hazor, which is beside Ephraim, and Absalom called all the Kings sonnes.

24 And Absalom came to the King & said, Beholde now, thy seruant hath shepherders: I pray thee, that the King with his seruants wolde go with thy seruant.

25 But the King answered Absalom, Naye my sonne, I pray thee, let vs not go all, lest we be chargeable vnto thee, Yet Absalom laye fore vpon him: howbeit he wolde not go, but thanked him.

26 Then said Absalom, But, I pray thee, shal not my brother Amnón go with vs? And the King answered him, Why shulde he go with thee?

27 But Absalom was instant vpon him, and he sent Amnón with him, & all the Kings children.

28 ¶ Now had Absalom commanded his seruants, saying, Marke now whē Amnóns heart is mery with wine, and when I say vnto you, Smite Amnón, kil him, feare not, for haue not I commanded you: be bolde therefore, and play the men.

29 And the seruants of Absalom did vnto Amnón, as Absalom had commanded: & all the Kings sonnes arose, and euerie man gate him vp vpon his mule, and fled.

30 ¶ And while they were in the way, tydings came to Dauid, saying, Absalom hath slayne all the Kings sonnes, & there is not one of them left.

31 Then the King arose, and tare his garments, and lay on the ground, and all his seruants stode by with their clothes rent.

32 And Ionadab the sonne of Shimeah Dauids brother answered, and said, Let not my lord suppose that they haue slaine all the yong men the Kings sonnes: for Amnón onely is dead, because Absalom had reported [so], since he forced his sister Tamar.

33 Now therefore let not my lord the King take thing so gricuously, to thinke that all the Kings sonnes are dead: for Amnón onely is dead.

34 ¶ Then Absalom fled: & the yong man that kept the watche, lift vp his eyes, and looked, & beholde, there came muche people by the way of the hill side behinde him.

35 And Ionadab said vnto the King, Beholde the Kings sonnes come: as thy seruant said, so it is.

36 And as sone as he had left speaking, beholde the Kings sonnes came, and lift vp their voyces, and wept: and the King also and all his seruants wept exceedingly sore.

37 But Absalom fled away, and went to Palmái the sonne of Ammihur King of Geshur: and [Dauid] mourned for his sone euery day.

38 So Absalom fled, and went to Geshur, & was there thre yeres.

39 And King Dauid desired to go forth vnto Absalom, because he was pacified concerning Amnón, seing he was dead.

1 Absalom is reconciled to his father by the subtiltie of Ioab. 24 Absalom may not see the Kings face. 25 The beautie of Absalom. 30 He causeth ioabs corne to be burnt, and is brought to his fathers presence.

¶ Then Ioab the sonne of Zeruiah perceived that the Kings heart was toward Absalom,

2 And Ioab sent to Tekoah, and broght thence a subtil woman, & said vnto her, I pray thee, saine thy self to mourne, and now put on mourning apparel, and anoint not thy selfe with oyle: but be as a woman that had now long time mourned for the dead.

3 And come to the King, & speake on this maner vnto him (for ioab taught her what she shulde say)

5 Then the King said vnto her, What ayleth thee? And she answered, I am in dede a widow, and mine housband is dead:

6 And thine handmayd had two sonnes, and they stroue together in the field: (& there was none to parte them) so the one smote the other, and slewe him.

done this thing: but my lord is wiſe according to the wiſdome of an Angel of God to vnderſtand all things that are in 21 ¶ And the King ſaid vnto Ioab, Beholde now, I haue done this thing: go then,

& bring the yong man Abſalom againe.

22 And Ioab ſet to the grounde on his face, and bowed him ſelfe, and thanked the King. Then Ioab ſaid, This day thy ſeruant knoweth, that I haue founde grace in thy ſight, my lord the King, in that the King hath fulfilled the request of his ſeruant.

23 ¶ And Ioab aroſe, and went to Geſhur, and brought Abſalom to Ieruſalem.

24 And the King ſaid, Let him turne to his owne houſe, and not ſee my face. So Abſalom turned to his owne houſe, and ſawe not the Kings face.

25 Now in all Iſrael there was none to be ſo muche praiſed for beautie as Abſalom:
from the ſole of his foote euē to the top of his head there was no blemiſh in him.

26 And when he polled his head, (for at euerie yeres end he polled it: becauſe it was to heauy for him, therefore he polled it) he weighed the heere of his head at two hundred ſhekelſ by the Kings weight.

27 And Abſalom had thre ſonnes, and one daughter named Tamar, which was a faire woman to loke vpon.

28 ¶ So Abſalom dwelt the ſpace of two yeres in Ieruſalem, and ſawe not the Kings face.

29 Therefore Abſalom ſent for Ioab to ſet him to the King, but he wolde not come to him: and when he ſent againe, he wold not come.

30 Therefore he ſaid vnto his ſeruants, Be-holde, Ioab hath a field by my place, and hath barley therein: go, and ſet it on fire:
& Abſaloms ſeruants ſet the field on fire.

31 Then Ioab aroſe and came to Abſalom vnto his houſe, and ſaid vnto him, Wherefore haue thy ſeruants burnt my field

32 And Abſalom answered Ioab, Beholde,

1 After this, Absalom prepared him charrets and horses, and fiftie men to runne before him.

2 And Absalom rose vp early and stode hard by the entring in of the gate: and euerie man that had anie matter, and came to the King for iudgement, him did Absalom call vnto him, and said, Of what citie art thou? And he answered, Thy seruant [is] of one of the tribes of Israel.

3 The Absalom said vnto him, Se, thy matters are good and righteous; but there is no mā deputed of the King to heare thee.

4 Absalom said moreouer, Oh that I were made iudge in the land, that euerie man w^h hath anie matter or controuersie, might come to me, that I might do him iustice.

5 And when anie man came nere to him; and did him obeisance, he put forth his hand, and toke him, and kissed him.

6 And on this maner did Absalom to all Israel, that came to the King for iudgement: so Absalom stole the heartes of the men of Israel.

7 And after fortie yeres, Absalom said vnto the King, I pray thee, let me go to Hebrón, and rendre my vowe which I haue vowed vnto the Lord.

8 For thy seruant vowed a vowe when I remained in Geshúr, in Arám, saying, If the Lord shal bring me againe in dede to Ierusalém, I wil serue the Lord.

9 And the King said vnto him, Go in peace. So he arose, and went to Hebrón.

10 Then Absalom sent spies throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, When ye heare the soude of the trumpet, ye shal say, Absalom reigneth in Hebrón.

11 And with Absalom went two hundred me out of Ierusalém, that were called: and they went in their simplicitie, knowing nothing.

12 Also Absalom sent for Ahithophel the Gilonite Dauids counseler, from his citie Gilóh, while he offered sacrifices: and the treason was great: for the people tencrafed stil with Absalom.

13 Then came a messenger to Dauid, saying, The heartes of the men of Israel are turned after Absalom.

14 Then Dauid said vnto all his seruants that were with him at Ierusalém, Vp, and let vs flee: for we shal not escape fro^h Absalom: make spede to departe, lest he come sodenly and take vs, & bring euil vpon vs, and smite the citie with the edge of the sworde.

15 And the Kings seruant said vnto him, Beholde, thy seruants [are ready to do] according to all that my Lord the King shal appoint.

16 So the King departed and all his household after him, and the King left ten concubines to kepe the house.

17 And the King went forth and all the people after him, and taried in a place farre of.

18 And all his seruants went about him, and all the Cherethites and all the Pelethites and al the Gittites, [even] six hundred men which were come after him fro^h Gath went before the King.

19 Then said the King to Ittai the Gittite, Wherefore comest thou also with vs? Returne and abide with the King, for thou art a stranger: departe thou therefore to thy place.

20 Thou camest yesterday, and shulde I cause thee to wander to day and go with vs? I wil go whither I can: therefore returne thou, and cary againe thy brethren: mercie andⁿ trueth [be] with thee.

21 And Ittai answered the King, and said, As Lord liueth, & as my lord the King liueth, in what place my Lord the King shalbe, whether in death or life, euē there surely wil thy seruant be.

22 Then Dauid said to Ittai, Come, and go forward. And Ittai the Gittite went, and all his men, and all the children that were with him.

23 And all the countrey wept with a loud voyce, and all the people went forward, but the King passed ouer the brooke Kidrón: and all the people went ouer towards the way of the wildernes.

24 And lo, Zadók also [was there,] & all the Leuites with him, bearing the Arke of the couenāt of God; & they set downe the Arke of God, and Abiathar went vp vntil the people were all come out of the citie.

25 Then the King said vnto Zadók, Carie the Arke of God againe into the citie: if I shal finde fauour in the eyes of the Lord, he wil bring me againe, and shewe me [bothe] it, and the Tabernacle thereof.

26 But if he thus say, I haue no delite in thee, beholde, here am I, let him do to me as semeth good in his eyes.

27 The King said againe vnto Zadók the Priest, Art not thou a Seer? returne into the citie in peace, & your two sonnes with you: [to wit,] Ahimaz thy sonne, & Jonathan the sonne of Abiathar.

28 Beholde, I wil tarie in the fieldes of the wildernes, vntil there come some worde from you to be tolde me.

29 Zadók therefore and Abiathar caried the Arke of God againe to Ierusalém, and

30 And Dauid wēt vp the moūt of oliues and wept as he went vp, and had his head couered, and wēt barefooted: and all the people that was with him, had euerie man his head couered, and as they went vp, they wept.

31 Then one tolde Dauid, saying, Ahithophel is one of them that haue conspired wth Absalóm: and Dauid said, O Lord, I pray thee, turne the^t counsel of Ahithophel in to foolishnes.

32 ¶ Then Dauid came to the toppe of the mount, where he worshipped God: and beholde, Hushái the Archite came against him with his coate torne, & hauing earth vpon his head.

33 Vnto whome Dauid said, If thou go wth me, thou shalt be a burthen vnto me.

34 But if thou returne to the citie, and say vnto Absalóm, I wil be thy seruāt, O King, (as I haue bene in time past thy fathers seruāt, so wil I now be thy seruāt) then I maie^t bring me the counsel of Ahithophel to noght.

35 And hast thou not there with thee Zadók and Abiathár the Priests? therefore whatsoeuer thou shalt heare out of the Kings house, thou shalt shewe to Zadók and Abiathár the Priests.

36 Beholde, there are with them their two sonnes, Ahimáaz Zadoks [sonne] and Ionathán Abiathars [sonne:] by the also shal ye send me euerie thing that ye can heare.

37 So Hushái Dauids friend went into the citie: and Absalóm came into Ierusalém.

2 And the King said vnto Zibá, What meanest thou by these? And Zibá said, They be^b asses for the Kings housholde to ride on, and bread and dried figges for yong men to eat, and wine, that the faint may drinke in the wildernes.

3 And the King said, But where is thy masters sonne? The Zibá answered the King, Beholde, he remaineth in Ierusalém: for he said, This day shal the house of Israël restore me the kingdome of my father.

4 Then said the King to Zibá, Beholde, thine are all that [pertained] vnto Mephibósseth, And Zibá said, † I beseeche thee, let me finde grace in thy sight, my lord, O King.

5 ¶ And when King Dauid came to Bahurím, beholde, thence came out a man of the familie of the house of Saúl, named Shimeí the sonne of Gerá: and he came out, and cursed.

6 And he cast stones at Dauid, and at all the seruants of King Dauid: and all the people, and all the men of warre [were] on his^d right hand, and on his left.

7 And thus said Shimeí when he cursed, Come forthe, come forthe thou murtherer, and † wicked man.

8 The Lord hathe broght vpon thee all the^e blood of the house of Saúl, in whose stead thou hast reigned: and the Lord hathe deliuered the kingdome into the hand of Absalóm thy sonne: and beholde, thou art [taken] in thy wickednes, because thou art a murtherer.

9 Then said Abishái the sonne of Zeruiáh vnto the King, Why doeth this^{*} dead dogge curse my lord the King? let me go, I pray thee, and take away his head.

10 ¶ But the King said, What haue I to do with you, ye sonnes of Zeruiáh: for he curseth, euen because the Lord hathe^f bidden him curse Dauid: who darre then say Wherefore hast thou done so?

11 And Dauid said to Abishái, and to all his seruants, Beholde, my sonne which came out of mine owne bowels, seeketh my life: then how muche more now may this sone of Ieminí? Suffer him to curse: for † Lord hathe bidden him.

12 It may be that the Lord will loke on † mine affliction, and † do me good for his cursing this day.

13 And as Dauid and his men went by the way, Shimeí went by the side of the moūtaine ouer against him, and cursed as he went, and threwe stones against him, and cast dust.

14 Then came the King and all the people that were with him weary, and refreshed them selues^h there.

15 ¶ And Absalóm, and all the people the men of Israël came to Ierusalém, and Ahithophel with him.

16 And when Hushái the Archite Dauids friend was come vnto Absalóm, Hushái said vnto Absalóm, † God saue the King, God saue the King.

17 Then Absalóm said to Hushái, Is this thy kindenes to thyⁱ friend? Why wentest thou not with thy friend?

20 ¶ Then spake Absalom to Ahithophel, Giue counsel what we shal do.

21 And Ahithophel said vnto Absalom, Go in to thy fathers concubines, which he hath left to kepe the house: and when all Israel shal heare, that thou art abhorred of thy father, the hands of all that are with thee, shal be strong.

22 So they spred Absalom a tent vpon the top of the house, and Absalom went in to his fathers concubines in the sight of all Israel.

23 And the counsel of Ahithophel which he counseled in those dayes, was like as one had asked counsel at the oracle of God: so [was] all the counsel of Ahithophel bothe with Dauid and with Absalom.

¶ CHAP. XVII.

7 Ahithophels counsel is ouerthrowen by Hushai. 14 The Lord had so ordeined. 19 The Priests sonnes are hid in the well. 23 Dauid goeth ouer Iorden. 23 Ahithophel hangeth him selfe. 27 They bring vitails to Dauid.

Moreouer Ahithophel said to Absalom, Let me chuse out now twelue thousand men, and I wil vp and follow after Dauid this night.

2 And I wil come vpo him: for he is weary and weake handed: so I wil feare him, and all thee people that are with him, shall flee, and I wil smite the King onely.

3 And I wil bring againe all the people vnto thee, [&] when all shal returne, (the man whome thou seekest [being slaine]) all the people shal be in peace.

4 And the saying pleased Absalom wel, and all the Elders of Israel.

5 Then said Absalom, Call now Hushai the Archite also, & let vs heare likewise what he sayeth.

6 So when Hushai came to Absalom, Absalom spake vnto him, saying, Ahithophel hath spoken thus: shal we do after his saying, or no? tel thou.

7 Hushai then answered vnto Absalom, The counsel that Ahithophel hath giuen, is not good at this time.

8 For, said Hushai, thou knowest thy father, & his men, that they be strong men, & are chafed in minde as a beare robbed of her whelpes in the field: also thy father is a valiant warriour, and wil not lodge with the people.

9 Beholde, he is hid now in some caue, or in some place: and though some of them be ouerthrowen at the first, yet the people shal heare, and say, The people that followe Absalom, be ouerthrowen.

10 Then he also that is valiant whose heart is as the heart of a lion, shal shrinke and faint: for all Israel knoweth, that thy father is valiant, & they which be with him, stowte men.

11 Therefore my counsel is, that all Israel be gathered vnto thee, from Dan euen to Beer-sheba as the sand of the sea in number, and that thou go to battel in thine owne persone.

12 So shal we come vpon him in some place, where we shal finde him, and we wil vpon him as the dewe falleth on the ground: and of all the men that are with him, we wil not leaue him one.

13 Moreover if he be gotten into a citie, then shal all the men of Israel bring ropes to that citie, and we wil drawe it into the riuer, vntil there be not one smale stone found there.

14 ¶ Then Absalom and all the men of Israel said, The counsel of Hushai the Archite is better, then the counsel of Ahithophel: for the Lord had determined to destroy the good counsel of Ahithophel, that the Lord might bring euil vpon Absalom.

15 Then said Hushai vnto Zadok and to Abiathar the Priests, Of this and that manner did Ahithophel & the Elders of Israel counsel Absalom: & thus & thus haue I counseled.

16 Now therefore send quickly, and shewe Dauid, saying, Tary not this night in the fieldes of the wildernes, but rather get thee ouer, least the King be deuoured, & all the people that are with him.

17 ¶ Now Ionathan and Ahimaz abode by En-rogel: (for they might not be sent to come into the citie) and a maid went, and tolde them, and they went & shewed King Dauid.

18 Neuertheles a yong man saw them, & tolde it to Absalom: therefore they bothe departed quickly, & came to a mans house in Bahurim, who had a well in his court, into the which they went downe.

19 And the wife toke and spred a covering ouer the welles mouth, and spred ground corne thereon, that the thing shulden not be knowne.

21 And as sone as they were departed, the other came out of the well, and went and tolde King Dauid, and said vnto him, Vp, and get you quickly ouer the water: for such counsel hathe Abithophel giuen against you.

22 Then Dauid arose, and all the people that were with him, and they went ouer Iordén vntil the dawning of the day, so that there lacked not one of them, that was not come ouer Iordén.

23 ¶ Now when Abithophel sawe that his counsel was not followed, he saddled his asse, and arose, & he went home vnto his citie, and put his householde in ordre, and hanged him selfe, and dyed, & was buried in his fathers graue.

24 ¶ Then Dauid came to Mahanaim, And Absalom passed ouer Iordén; he, and all the men of Israel with him.

25 And Absalom made Amasa capitaine of the hoste in the stead of Ioab: which Amasa was a mans sonne named Ichraan Israelite, that wet in to Abigal the daughter of a Nahash, sister to Zeruiah Iobas mother.

26 So Israel and Absalom pitched in the land of Gilead.

28 ¶ Brought beds, and basens, & earthen vessels, and wheat, and barley, and floure, and parched corne, & beanes, and lentils, and parched corne.

29 And they brought hony, and butter, and shepe, and chese of kine for Dauid and for the people that were with him, to eat: for they said, The people is hungry, & weary, and thirsty in the wilderness.

CHAP. XVIII.

1 Dauid deuised his armie into three partes. 9 Absalom is hanged, slaine, and cast in a pit. 33 Dauid lamenteth the death of Absalom.

¶ Then Dauid nombred the people that were with him, & set ouer them captaines of thousands and captaines of hundredes.

2 And Dauid sent forth the third parte of the people vnder the hand of Ioab, and the third parte vnder the hand of Abishai Iobas brother the sonne of Zeruiah: and the [other] third parte vnder the hand of Ittai the Gittite. & the King said vnto the people, I wil go with you my selfe also.

But the people answered, Thou shalt not go forth: for if we flee away, thei wil not regarde vs, nether wil they passe for vs, thogh halfe of vs were slaine: but thou art now worthe ten thousand of vs: therefore now it is better that thou succour vs out of the citie.

4 Then the King said vnto them, What semeth you best, that I wil do. So ¶ King stode by the gate side, and all the people come out by hundredes & by thousands.

5 And the King commanded Ioab & Abishai, & Ittai, saying, [Entreate] the yong man Absalom gently, for my sake, and all the people heard when the King gaue all the captaines charge concerning Absalom.

6 So the people went out into the field to meete Israel, and the battel was in the wood of Ephraim.

7 Where the people of Israel were slaine before the seruants of Dauid: so there was a great slaughter that day, [euen] of twentie thousand.

8 ¶ For the battel was skattered ouer all the countrey, & the wood deuoured muche more people that day, then did the sworde.

9 ¶ Now Absalom met the seruants of Dauid, and Absalom rode vpon a mule, and the mule came vnder a great thicke oke: and his head caught holde of the oke, and he was taken vp ¶ betwene the heauen & ¶ earthe: & the mule that was vnder him went away.

10 And one that sawe it, tolde Ioab, saying, Beholde, I sawe Absalom hanged in an oke.

11 Then Ioab said vnto the man that tolde him, And hast thou in dede sene: why the didest not thou there finite him to the grounde, & I wolde haue giuen thee ten [shekels] of siluer, and a girdle?

12 Then the man said vnto Ioab, Thogh I shulde receiue a thousand [shekels] of siluer in mine hand, yet wolde I not lay mine hand vpon the Kings sonne: for in our hearing the King charged thee, and Abishai, and Ittai, saying, Beware, lest anie [touche] the yong man Absalom.

14 Then said Ioab, I wil not thus tary with thee. And he toke thre dartes in his hand, & thrust them ¶ through Absalom, while he was yet aliue in the middes of the oke.

17 And they toke Abſalom, and caſt him into a great pit in the wood, and layed a mighty great heape of ſtones vpon him: and all Iſraël fled euerie one to his tent.

18 Now Abſalom in his life time had taken and reared him vp a pillar, which is in the Kings dale: for he ſaid, I haue no ſonne to kepe my name in remembrance. & he called the pillar after his owne name, & it is called vnto this day, Abſaloms place.

19 ¶ Then ſaid Ahimáz the ſonne of Zadók, I pray thee, let me runne, and beare the King tidings that the Lord hath delivered him out of the hand of his enemies.

20 And Ioáb ſaid vnto him, Thou ſhalt not be my meſſenger to day, but thou ſhalt beare tidings another time, but to day thou ſhalt beare none: for the Kings ſonne is dead.

21 Then ſaid Ioáb to Cuſhí, Go, tel the King what thou haſt ſene. And Cuſhí bowed him ſelfe vnto Ioáb, and ran.

22 Then ſaid Ahimáz the ſonne of Zadók againe to Ioáb, What, I pray thee, if I alſo runne after Cuſhí? And Ioáb ſaid, Wherefore now wilt thou runne, my ſonne, ſeing that thou haſt no tidings to bring?

23 Yet what if I runne? Then he ſaid vnto him, Runne. So Ahimáz ranne by the way of the plaine, and ouerwent Cuſhí.

24 Now Dauid ſate betwene the two gates. And the watchman went to the toppe of the gate vpon the wall, & liſt vp his eyes, and ſawe, and beholde, a man came running alone.

25 And the watchman cryed, & tolde the King. And the King ſaid, If he be alone, the bringeth tidings. And he came apace, and drew nere.

26 And the watchman ſawe another man running, and the watchman called vnto the porter, & ſaid, Beholde, [another] man runneth alone. And the King ſaid, He alſo bringeth tidings.

27 And the watchman ſaid, I Me thinketh the running of the formeſt [is] like the running of Ahimáz the ſonne of Zadók. Then the King ſaid, He is a good man, & commeth with good tidings.

28 And Ahimáz called, and ſaid vnto the King, Peace [be wth thee:] & he fel downe to the earth vpon his face before the King, and ſaid, Bleſſed be the Lord thy God, who hath ſhut vp the men that liſt vp their hands againſt my lord the King.

29 And the King ſaid, Is the yong man Abſalom ſafe? And Ahimáz answered, When Ioáb ſent the Kings ſeruant, and [me] thy ſeruant, I ſawe a great tumulte, but I knewe not what.

30 And the King ſaid vnto him, Turne aſide, [&] ſtand here. ſo he turned aſide & ſtoode ſtil.

31 And beholde, Cuſhí came, & Cuſhí ſaid, Tidings, my lord the King: for the Lord hath delivered thee this day out of the hand of all that roſe againſt thee.

32 Then the King ſaid vnto Cuſhí, Is the yong man Abſalom ſafe? And Cuſhí answered, The enemies of my lord & King, & all that riſe againſt thee to do thee hurt, be as that yong man is.

33 And the King was moued, & went vp to the chamber ouer the gate, and wept: and as he went, thus he ſaid, O my ſonne Abſalom, my ſonne, my ſonne Abſalom: wolde God I had dyed for thee, o Abſalom, my ſonne, my ſonne.

3 And the people wēt that day into the citie ſecretly, as people confounded hide them ſelues when they flee in battel.

4 So the King hid his face, and the King cryed with a lowde voyce, My ſonne Abſalom, Abſalom my ſonne, my ſonne.

41 And beholde, all the men of Israel came to the King, & said vnto the King, Why haue our brethren the men of Iudah stolen thee away, and haue brought the King and his household, and all Dauids men with him ouer Iorden?

42 And all the men of Iudah answered the men of Israel, Because the King is nere of kin to vs: and wherefore now be ye angry for this matter? haue we eat of the Kings [cost], or haue we taken anie bribes?

43 And the men of Israel answered the men of Iudah, and said, We haue ten partes in the King, & haue also more [right] to Dauid then ye, Why then did ye despise vs, that our aduise shulde not be first had in restoring our King? And the wordes of the men of Iudah were scarcer then the wordes of the men of Israel.

Sheba raiseth Israel against Dauid. 10 Ioab killeth A- non traiterously. 22 The heau of Sheba is deliuered to Ioab. 23 Dauid's chief officers.

¶ Then there was come a thither a wick- ed man (named Sheba the sonne of Bichri, a man of Iemini) and he blew the trumpet, and said, We haue no parte in Dauid, nether haue we inheritance in the sonne of Ishai: euery man to his tentes, O Israel.

2 So euery man of Israel went from Dauid and followed Sheba the sonne of Bichri: but the men of Iudah claue fast vnto their King, from Iorden euen to Ierusalém.

3 When Dauid then came to his house to Ierusalém, the King took the ten wo- men [his] concubines, that he had left be- hinde him to kepe the house, & put them in ward, and fed them, but lay no more with them: but they were enclosed vnto the day of their death, liuing in widow- hode.

4 ¶ Then said the King to Amasa, Assem- ble me the me of Iudah within thre daies, and be thou here present.

5 So Amasa went to assemble Iudah, but he taried longer then the time which he had appointed him.

6 ¶ Then Dauid said to Abishai, Now shal Sheba the sonne of Bichri dovs more har- me then [did] Absalom: take thou [there- fore] thy lords seruants and followe after him, lest he get him walled cities, & esca- pe vs.

7 And there went out after him Ioabs me, and the Cherethites and the Pelethites, and all the mightie men: & thei departed out of Ierusalém, to followe after Sheba the sonne of Bichri.

8 When thei were at the great stone, which is in Gibeon, Amasa went before them, & Ioabs garment, that he had put on, was girded vnto him, & vpon it was a sworde girded, which hanged on his loines in the sheath, & as he went, it vsed to falle out.

9 And Ioab said to Amasa, Art thou in health, my brother? & Ioab toke Amasa by the beard with the right hand to kisse him.

10 But Amasa toke no hede to the sworde that was in Ioabs hand: for therewith he smote him in the fist [rib], & shed out his bowels to the ground, & smote him not the seconde time: so he dyed. then Ioab & Abishai his brother followed after Sheba the sonne of Bichri.

11 And one of Ioabs men stode by him, & said, He that fauoreth Ioab, & he that is of Dauids parte, [let him go] after Ioab.

12 And Amasa wallowed in blood in the middes of the way: & when the man sawe that all the people stode stil, he remoued Amasa out of the way into the field, and cast a cloth vpo him, because he sawe that euerie one that came by him, stode stil.

13 ¶ When he was remoued out of the way, euery man went after Ioab, to fol- lowe after Sheba the sonne of Bichri.

2 Then the King called the Gibeonites, & said vnto them (Now the Gibeonites were not of the children of Israél, but ^a a remnant of the Amorites, vnto whom the children of Israél had sworne: but Saúl sought to slaye them for his zeale toward the children of Israél and Iudáh)

3 And Dauid said vnto the Gibeonites, What shal I do for you, and wherewith shal I make the atonement, that ye may blesse the inheritance of the Lord?

b VVherewith may your wrath be appeased? you may pray to God to remoue this plague from his people.

4 The Gibeonites then answered him, We wil haue no siluer nor gold of Saúl, nor of his house; neither for vs shalt thou kil any man in Israél. And he said, What ye shal say, that wil I do for you.

7 But the King had compassion on Mephibosheth the sonne of Ionathán the sonne of Saúl, because of the ^e Lords othe, that was betwene them, [euen] betwene Dauid and Ionathán the sonne of Saúl.

e To pacifie the Lord.

8 But the King toke the two sonnes of Rizpáh the daughter of Aiáh, whom she bare vnto Saúl, [euen] Armoni & Mephibosheth, and the five sonnes of Michál, the daughter of Saúl, whom she bare to Abiél the sonne of Barzillái the Meholahite.

f Here Michal is named for Metab, Adams wife as appeareth, 1. Sam. 18, 19. for Michal was the wife of Paltiel, 1. Sam. 25, 24. & she had childre, 1. Sam. 6, 23.

9 And he deliuered them vnto the hands of the Gibeonites, which hanged them in the mountaine before the Lord: so they dyed [all] seue together, & thei were slaine in the time of haruest, in the ^g first dayes, & in the beginning of barly haruest.

g VVhich was in the month Abib or Nisan, which containeth parte of Marche and part of April.

10 Then Rizpáh the daughter of Aiáh toke ^h sackcloth & hanged it vp for her vpon the rocke from the beginning of haruest vntil water dropped vpon them from the heauen, and suffered nether the birdes of the aire to light on them by day, nor beastes of the field by night.

11 ¶ And it was tolde Dauid, what Rizpáh the daughter of Aiáh the concubine of Saúl had done.

i Because drought was the cause of this famine, God by sending of raine shewed that he was pacified.

12 And Dauid went and toke the bones of Saúl and the bones of Ionathán his sonne from the citizens of Iabésh Giléad, which had stollen them from the strete of Bethshán, where the Philistims had ⁱ hanged them, when the Philistims had slaine Saúl in Gil 13 So he broght thence the bones of Saül and the bones of Ionathán his sonne, and thei gathered the bones of them that were hanged.

14 And the bones of Saül & of Ionathán his sonne buried they in the country of Benjamin in Zeláh, in the graue of Kish his father: and when they had performed all that the King had commanded, God was then^k appeased with the land.

15 ¶ Again the Philistims had warre with Israel: and Dauid went downe, and his seruants with him, and they fought against the Philistims, and Dauid fainted.

16 Then Ishi-benób which was of the sonnes of Harapháh, (the head) of whose speare weyed thre hundredth^m shekels of brasse) euen he being girded with a newe [sworde,] thought to haue slaine Dauid;

17 But Abishai the sonne of Zeruiáh succoured him, and smote the Philistim, and killed him. Then Dauids men sware vnto him, saying, Thou shalt go no more out with vs to battel, lest thou quenche the light of Israel.

18 ¶ And after this also there was a battel with the Philistims at^o Gob, then Sibbechái the Hushathite slewe Saph, which was one of the sonnes of Harapháh.

19 And there was yet [another] battel in Gob with the Philistims, where Elhanáh the sone of Iare-oregim a Bethlehemite slewe^p Goliath the Gittite: the staffe of whose speare [was] like a weathers beame.

20 Afterwarde there was also a battel in Gath, where was a man [of a great] stature and had on euerie hand six fingers, & on euerie foote six toes, foure and twentie in number: who was also the sonne of Harapháh.

21 And when he reuiled Israel, Ionathán the sonne of^{*} Shimá the brother of Dauid slewe him.

22 These foure were borne to Harapháh in Gath, and dyed by the hand of Dauid & by the hands of his seruants.

1 Dauid after his victories praiseth God. 1 The angre of God toward the wicked. 24 He prophesieth of the re-jection of the Lewes, and vocation of the Gentiles.

1 AND Dauid spake the wordes of this song vnto the Lord, what time the Lord had deliuered him out of the hands of all his enemies, and out of the hand of Saül.

2 And he said, * The Lord is my^b rocke and my fortresse, and he that deliuereth me.

3 God [is] my strength, in him wil I trust: my shield, and the horne of my saluation, my hie towre [and] my refuge: my fauour, thou hast saued me from violence.

4 I wil call on the Lord, who is worthy to be praised: so shal I be safe from mine enemies.

5 For the pangs of death haue compassed me: the floods of vngodlines haue made me afraide.

6 The sorowes of the graue compassed me about: the snares of death ouertoke me.

7 But in my tribulation did I call vpo the Lord, and crye to my God, & he did heare my voyce out of his temple, and my crye [did enter] into his eares.

8 Then the earth trembled and quaked: foundations of the heauens moued, and shoke, because he was angry.

9 Smoke went out at his nostrils, & consuming^e fire out of his mouthe: coles were kindled thereat.

10 He bowed the heauens also and came downe, & darkenes [was] vnder his feete.

11 And he rode vpon⁸ Cherúb and did flye, and he was sene vpon the wings of the winde.

12 And he made darkenes a tabernacle rounde about him, [euen] the gatherings of waters, [and] the cloudes of the aire.

17 He sent from aboue, [and] toke me: he drewe me out of manie waters.

18 He deliuered me from my strong enemy, [&] from thē that hated me: for they were to strong for me.

19 They^k preuented me in the day of my calamitie, but the Lord was my stay;

20 And broght me forth into a large place: he deliuered me, because he fauored me.

21 The Lord rewarded me according to my^l righteousness: according to the purities of mine hands he recompensed me.

22 For I kept the waies of the Lord, & did not^m wickedly against my God.

THE FIRST BOKE OF THE KINGS.

THE ARGUMENT.

BEcause the children of God shulde loke for no continual rest and quietnes in this worlde, the holy Goste setteth before our eyes in this boke the varietie and change of things, which came to the people of Israel from the death of Dauid, Salomon and the rest of the Kings, vnto the death of Ahab, declaring how that flourishing kingdomes, except they be preserved by Gods protection, (who then fauoreth them when his word is truly set forth, vertue esteemed, vice punished and con corde mainteined) fall to decay & come to naught: as appeareth by the deuiding of the kingdome vnder Roboham, and Ieroboham, which before were but all one people, and now by the iust punishment of God were made two, whereof Iudah and Benjamin claue to Roboham: and this was called the Kingdome of Iudah, and the other ten tribes helde with Ieroboham, and this was called the kingdome of Israel. The King of Iudah had his throne in Ierusalem, and the King of Israel in Samaria, after it was buylte by Amri Ahabs father. And because our Saviour Christ according to the flesh shulde come of the stocke of Dauid, the genealogie of the Kings of Iudah is here described, from Salomon to Ioram the sonne of Iosaphat, who reigned ouer Iudah in Ierusalem, as Ahab did ouer Israel in Samaria.

CHAP. I.

3 Abishag kept Dauid in his extreme age. 5 Adonijah usurpeth the kingdome. 30 Salomon is anointed King. 50 Adonijah fleeth to the altar.

NOW when King Dauid was^a olde, and stricken in yeres, they couered him with clothes, but no^b heate came vnto him.

Wherefore his seruants said vnto him,

Let there be sought for my lord the King a yong virgin, and let her stand before the King, and cherish him: and let her lye in thy bosome, that my lord the King may get heate.

3 So they sought for a faire yong maid throughout all the coastes of Israel; and founde one Abishag^c a Shunammite; & brought her to the King.

4 And the maid was exceeding faire, and cherished the King, and ministred to him, but the King knewe her not.

5 ¶ Then Adonijah the sonne of Haggith exalted him selfe, saying, I wil be King: And he gate him charrets and horsemen, &^d fifty men to runne before him.

6 And his father wolde not displease him from his^e childehode, to say, Why hast thou done so? And he was a very goodly man, & [his mother] bare him next after Absalom.

7 And he toke counsell of Ioab the sonne of Zeruiah, and of Abiathar the Priest: & they^f helped forward Adonijah.

8 But Zadok the Priest, and Benaiah the sonne of Iehoiada, and Nathan the Prophet, & Shimci, and Rei, and the men of might which were with Dauid, were not with Adonijah.

9 Then Adonijah sacrificed shepe & oxen, and fat cattel by the stone of Zohéleth, which is by^g En-rogel; and called all his brethren the Kings sonnes; & all the men of Iudah the Kings seruants;

10 But Nathan the Prophet, and Benaiah, and the^h mighty men, and Salomon his brother he called not.

11 Wherefore Nathan spake vnto Bathshebaⁱ mother of Salomon, saying, Hast thou not heard, that Adonijah the sonne of Haggith doeth reigne, and Dauid our lord knoweth it not?

12 Now therefore come, [&] I wil now giue thee counsell, how to saue thine owne^j life, and the life of thy sonne Salomon.

13 Go, and get thee in vnto King Dauid, & say vnto him, Didest not thou, my lord, & King, sweare vnto thine handmaid, saying, Assuredly Salomon thy sonne shal reigne after me, & he shal sit vpon my throne: why is then Adonijah King?

14 Beholde, while thou yet talkest there with the King, I also wil come in after thee, &^k confirme thy wordes.

15 ¶ So Bathsheba went in vnto the King into the chamber, and the King was very olde, and Abishag the Shunammite ministred vnto the King;

16 And Bathsheba bowed & made obeisance vnto the King. And the King said, What is thy matter?

17 And she answered him, My lord, thou swarest by the Lord thy God vnto thine handmaid, [saying,] Assuredly Salomon thy sonne shal reigne after me, and he shal sit vpon my throne.

18 And beholde, now [is] Adonijah King, & now, my lord, & King, thou knowest it not.

19 And he hath offered many oxen, & fat cattel, and shepe, and hath called all the sonnes of the King, & Abiathar the Priest, 20 And thou, my lord, o King, [knowest] that the eyes of all Israël are on thee, that thou shuldest tel them, who shulde sit on the throne of my lord the King after him.

21 For els, when my lord the King shal slepe with his fathers, I and my sonne Salomón shal be^k reputed † vile.

22 And lo, while she yet talked with the King, Nathán also the Prophet came in.

23 And thei tolde the King, saying, Beholde Nathán the Prophet. And when he was come in to the King, he made obeisance before the King vpon his face^l to the grounde.

24 And Nathán said, My lord, o King, hast thou said, Adonijáh shal reigne after me, and he shal sit vpon my throne?

25 For he is gone downe this day, & hathe slaine many oxen, and fat cattel, & shepe, and hathe called all the Kings sonnes, & the captaines of the hoste, & Abiathár the Priest: and beholde, they eat & drinke before him, and say, † God saue King Adonijáh.

26 But me thy seruant, & Zadók the Priest and Benaiáh the sonne of Iehoiadá, and thy seruant Salomón hath he not called.

27 Is this thing done by my lord the King, & thou hast not shewed it vnto thy^m seruant, who shulde sit on the throne of my lord the King after him?

28 ¶ Then King Dauid answered, & said, Call me Bath-sheba. And she came into the Kings presence, and stode before the King.

29 And the King sware, saying, As the Lord liueth, who hath redeemed my soule out of all aduersitie, 30 That as Iⁿ sware vnto thee by the Lord God of Israël, saying, Assuredly Salomón thy sonne shal reigne after me, and he shal sit vpon my throne in my place, so wil I certainly do this day.

31 Then Bath-sheba bowed her face to the earth, & did reuerence vnto the King, and said, God saue my lord King Dauid for euer.

32 ¶ And King Dauid said, Call me Zadók the Priest, and Nathán the Prophet, and Benaiáh the sonne of Iehoiadá. And they came before the King.

33 Then the King said vnto them, Take with you the^o seruants of your lord, and cause Salomón my sonne to ride vpon mine owne mule, and cary him downe to Gihón.

34 And let Zadók the Priest and Nathán the Prophet anoint him there King ouer

35 Then come vp after him, that he may come and sit vpon my throne: and he shal be King in my steade: for I haue † appointed him to be prince ouer Israël and ouer Iudáh.

36 Then Benaiáh the sonne of Iehoiadá answered the King, & said, So be it, [&] the Lord God of my lord the King † ratifie it.

37 As the Lord hathe bene with my lord the King, so be he with Salomón, & exalt his throne aboute the throne of my lord King Dauid.

38 So Zadók the Priest, and Nathán the Prophet, and Benaiáh the sonne of Iehoiadá, and the Cherethites & the Pelethites went downe, and caused Salomón to ride vpon King Dauids mule, and broght him to Gihón.

39 And Zadók the Priest toke an home of Poyl out of the Tabernacle, and anointed Salomón: & thei blew the trumpet, and all the people said, God saue King Salomón.

40 And all the people came vp after him, and the people piped with pipes & reioyced with great ioye, so that the earth † rang with the sounde of them.

41 ¶ And Adonijáh and all the gastes that were with him, heard it: (and they had made an end of eating) and when Ioab heard the sounde of the trumpet, he said, What meaneth this noise and vproare in the citie?

42 And as he yet spake, beholde, Ionathán the sonne of Abiathár the Priest came: & Adonijáh said, Come in: for thou art † a worthy man, and bringest a good tidings.

43 And Ionathán answered, and said to Adonijáh, Verely our lord King Dauid hath made Salomón King.

44 And the King hathe sent with him Zadók the Priest, and Nathán the Prophet, and Benaiáh the sonne of Iehoiadá, and the Cherethites, and the Pelethites, and they haue caused him to ride vpon the Kings mule.

45 And Zadók the Priest, and Nathán the Prophet haue anointed him King in Gihón: & thei are gone vp from thence with ioye, and the citie is moued: this is the noise that ye haue heard.

46 And Salomón also sitteth on the throne of the kingdome.

David exhorteth Salomon, and giueth charge as concerning Ioab, Barzilai, and Shimei. 10 The death of David. 17 Adonijah asketh Abishag to wife. 25 He is slayne. 33 Zadok was placed in Abiathars rounse.

¶ Then the daies of David drewe nere that he shulde dye, and he charged Salomón his sonne, saying,

1 I go the ^a way of all the earth: be strong therefore, and shewe thy selfe a man,

3 And take hede to the ^b charge of ^f Lord thy God, to walke in his waies, & kepe his statutes, & his commandements, and his iudgements, and his testimonies, as it is written in the Lawe of Moyses, that thou maiest ^t prosper in all that thou doest, & in euerie thing whereunto thou turnest thee,

4 That the Lord may confirme his worde which he spake vnto me, saying, If thy sonnes take hede to their way, that they walke before me in ^t truth, with all their hearts, and with all their soules, ^t thou shalt not (said he) want one of thy [posteritie] vpon the throne of Israel:

5 Thou knowest also what Ioab the sonne of Zeruiah did to me, and what he did to the two captaines of the hostes of Israel, vnto ^a Abner the sonne of Ner, and vnto ^a Amasa the sonne of Iether: whome he slewe, and ^d shed blood of batrel in peace, and ^e put the blood of warre vpon his girdle that was about his loynes, & in his shoes that were on his feete.

6 Do therefore according to thy wisdom, and let thou not his hoare head go downe to the graue in peace.

7 But shewe kindnes vnto the sonnes of ^a Barzillai the Giliadite, and let them be among them that eat at thy table: ^f for so they came to me when I fled from Absalom thy brother.

8 ¶ And beholde, with thee ^a [is] Shimei the sonne of Gerai, the sonne of Iemini, of Bahurim, which cursed me with an horrible curse in ^f day when I went to Mahanaim: but he came downe to meete me at Iordan, and I sware to him by the Lord, saying, ^a I wil not slaye thee with the sworde.

9 But thou shalt not count him innocent: for thou art a wife man, & knowest what thou oghtest to do vnto him: therefore thou shalt cause his hoare head to go downe to the graue with ^s blood.

10 So ^a David slept with his fathers, & was buried in the cite of David.

11 And the daies which David ^a reigned vpon Israel, [were] fourtie yeres: seuen yeres reigned he in Hebron, and thirty and threyeres reigned he in Ierusalem.

12 ¶ Then sate Salomón vpon the throne of David his father, & his kingdome was stablished mightely.

13 And Adonijah the sonne of Haggith came to Bath-sheba the mother of Salomón: and she said, ^b Comcest thou peaceably? And he said, Yea.

14 He said moreouer, I haue a sute vnto thee. And she said, Say on.

15 Then he said, Thou knowest that the kingdome was mine, and that all Israel set their faces on me, that I shulde reigne: howbeit the kingdome is turned away, & is my brothers: for it came to him by the Lord.

16 Now therefore I aske thee one request, ^t refuse me not. And she said vnto him, Say on.

17 And he said, Speake, I pray thee, vnto Salomón the King, (for he wil not say thee naye) that he giue me Abishag the Shunammite to wife.

18 And Bath-sheba said, Wel, I wil speake for thee vnto the King.

19 ¶ Bath-sheba therefore went vnto King Salomón, to speake vnto him for Adonijah: and the King rose to meete her, and ^a bowed him selfe vnto her, & sate downe on his throne: and he caused a seat to be set for the Kings mother, and she sate at his right hand.

20 Then she said, I desire a smale request of thee, say me not naye. Then the King said vnto her, Aske on, my mother: for I wil not say thee naye.

21 She said then, Let Abishag the Shunammite be giuen to Adonijah thy brother to wife.

22 But King Salomon answered and said vnto his mother, And why doest thou aske Abishag the Shunammite for Adonijah? aske for him the kingdom also: for he is mine elder brother, & hathe for him bothe Abiathar the Priest, and Ioab the sonne of Zeruiah.

23 Then King Salomon sware by the Lord, saying, God do so to me and more also, if Adonijah hathe not spoken this worde against his owne life.

24 Now therefore as the Lord liueth, who hathe established me, and set me on the throne of Dauid me father, who also hathe made me an house, as he * promised, Adonijah shal surely dye this day.

25 And King Salomon sent by the hand of Benaiah the sonne of Ichoiada, and he smote him that he dyed.

26 ¶ Then the King said vnto Abiathar the Priest, Go to Anathoth vnto thine owne fields: for thou art worthy of death: but I wil not this day kil thee, because thou barest the Arke of the Lord God before Dauid my father, & because thou hast suffered in all, where in my father hathe bene afflicted.

27 So Salomon cast out Abiathar from being Priest vnto the Lord, that he might * fulfil the wordes of the Lord, which he spake against the house of Eli in Shiloh.

28 ¶ Then tidings came to Ioab (for Ioab had * turned after Adonijah, but he turned not after Absalom) and Ioab fled vnto the Tabernacle of the Lord, & caught holde on the hornes of the altar.

29 And it was tolde King Salomon, that Ioab was fled vnto the Tabernacle of the Lord, and beholde, [he is] by the altar. Then Salomon sent Benaiah the sonne of Ichoiada, saying, Go fall vpon him.

30 And Benaiah came to the Tabernacle of the Lord, & said vnto him, Thus saith the King, Come out. And he said, Naye, but I wil dye here. Then Benaiah brought the King worde againe, saying, Thus said Ioab, and thus he answered me.

31 And the King said vnto him, Do as he hathe said, and p^r smite him, & burye him, that thou mayest take away the blood which Ioab shed caueles, from me and from the house of my father.

32 And the Lord shal bring his blood vpon his owne head: for he smote two me more righteous & better then he, & slewe them with the sworde, and my father Dauid knewe not: [to wit,] * Abner the sonne of Ner, captaine of the hoste of Israel, and * Amasa the sonne of Iether captaine of the hoste of Iudah.

33 Their blood shal therefore returne vpon the head of Ioab, and on the head of his seide for euer: but vpon Dauid, and vpon his seide, and vpon his house, and vpon his throne shal there be peace for euer from the Lord.

34 So Benaiah the sonne of Ichoiada went vp, and smote him, and slewe him, and he was buried in his owne house in the wilderness.

35 And the King put Benaiah the sonne of Ichoiada in his rouse ouer the hoste: and the King set Zadok the Priest in the rouse of Abiathar.

36 ¶ Afterwarde the King sent, and called Shimei, and said vnto him, Builde thee an house in Ierusalem, and dwel there, & departe not thence anie whether.

37 For that day that thou goest out, & passest ouer the riuier of Kidron, knowe assuredly, that thou shalt dye the death: thy blood shal be vpon thine owne head.

38 And Shimei said vnto the King, The thing is good: as my lord the King hathe said, so wil thy seruāt do. So Shimei dwelt in Ierusalem many dayes.

39 And after thre yeres two of the seruants of Shimei fled away vnto Achish sonne of Maachah King of Gath: and they tolde Shimei, saying, Beholde, thy seruants be in Gath.

40 And Shimei arose, and saddled his asse, and went to Gath to Achish, to seke his seruants: and Shimei went, and brought his seruants from Gath.

41 And it was tolde Salomon, that Shimei had gone from Ierusalem to Gath, & was come againe.

42 And the King sent and called Shimei, & said vnto him, Did I not make thee to sweare by the Lord, and protested vnto thee, saying, That day that thou goest out, and walkest any whether, knowe assuredly that thou shalt dye the death: And thou saidst vnto me, The thing is good, [that] I haue heard.

43 Why then hast thou not kept the othe of the Lord, & the commandment wherewith I charged thee?

44 The King said also to Shimei, * Thou knowest all the wickednes wherewith thine heart is priue, that thou didst to Dauid my father: the Lord therefore shal bring thy wickednes vpon thine owne head.

45 And let King Salomon be blessed, and the throne of Dauid established before the Lord.

1 Salomōn taketh Pharaohs daughter to wife. 2 The Lord appeareth to him, and giueth him wisdomē. 3 The pleading of the two harlots, & Salomons sentēce therein

Salomōn ^{then} made affinitie with Pharaoh King of Egypt, and toke Pharaohs daughter, and broght her into the ^{city} of Dauid, vntill he had made an end of buylding his owne house, and the house of the Lord, and the wall of Ierusalem round about.

2 Onely the people sacrificed in ^{the} hie places, because there was no house buylt vnto the Name of the Lord, vntil those dayes.

3 And Salomōn loued the Lord, walking in the ordinances of Dauid his ^{father}: onely he sacrificed and offred incense in the hie places.

4 And the King went to Gibeōn to sacrifice there, for that was the chief hie place: a thousand burnt offrings did Salomōn offer vpon that altar.

5 In Gibeōn the Lord appeared to Salomōn in a dreame by night: & God said, Aske what I shal giue thee.

6 And Salomōn said, Thou hast shewed vnto thy seruant Dauid my father great mercy, ^{for} when he walked before thee in trueth, & in righteousnes, and in vprightnes of heart with thee: & thou hast kept for him this great mercy, and hast giuen him a sonne, to sit on his throne, as ^{appeareth} this day.

7 And now, o Lord, my God, thou hast made thy seruant King in stead of Dauid my father: and I am but a yong childe, & knowe nor how to go out and in.

8 And thy seruant ^{is} in ^{the} mddes of thy people, which thou hast chosen, euen a great people which can not be tolde nor nombred for multitude.

9 Give therefore vnto thy seruant an vnderstanding heart, to iudge thy people; that I may discerne betwene good and bad: for who is able to iudge this thy ^{mighty} people?

10 And this pleased the Lord wel, that Salomōn had desired this thing.

11 And God said vnto him, Because thou hast asked this thing, & hast not asked for thy selfe long life, nether hast asked riches for thy selfe, nor hast asked ^{the} life of thine enemies, but hast asked for thy selfe vnderstanding to heare iudgement,

12 Beholde, I haue done according to thy wordes: lo, I haue giuen thee a wife & an vnderstanding heart, so that there hath bene none like thee before thee, nether after thee shal arise the like vnto thee.

13 And I haue also ^{giuen} thee that, which thou hast not asked, bothe riches and honour, so that among the Kings there ^{shall} be none like vnto thee all thy dayes.

14 And if thou wilt walke in my wayes, to kepe mine ordinances and my commandments, ^{as} thy father Dauid did walke, I wil prolong thy dayes.

15 And when Salomōn awoke, beholde, it was ^a dreame, and he came to Ierusalem, and stode before the Arke of the covenant of the Lord, and offred burnt offrings and made peace offrings, & made a feast to all his seruants.

16 Then came two harlottes vnto the King, and stode before him.

17 And the one woman said, Oh my Lord, I and this woman dwel in one house, and I was deliuered of a childe with her in the house.

18 And the third day after that I was deliuered, this woman was deliuered also: & we were in ^{the} house together: no stranger ^{was} with vs in ^{the} house, save we twaine.

19 And this womans sonne dyed in the night: for she ouerlay him.

20 And she rose at midnight, and toke my sonne fro my side, while thine hand maid slept, & layed him in her bosome, & layed her dead sonne in my bosome.

21 And when I rose in the morning to giue my sone sucke, beholde, he was dead: & when I had wel considered him in the morning, beholde, it was not my sonne, whome I had borne.

22 Then the other woman said, Nay, but my sonne liueth, and thy sonne is dead: againe she said, No, but thy sonne is dead, and mine aliue: thus they spake before the King.

23 Then said the King, She saith, this that liueth is my sonne, and the dead is thy sonne: and the other saith, Naye, but the dead is thy sonne, and the liuing is my sonne.

24 Then the King said, Bring me a sworde: and they broght out a sworde before the King.

25 And the King said, Deuide ye ^{the} liuing childe in twaine, and giue the one halfe to the one, and the other halfe to the other.

CHAP. V.

1 Hiram sendeth to Salomon, and Salomon to him, purposing to buyde the house of God. 6 He prepareth stuff for the buyding. 11 The number of the workemen.

1 ANd Hiram King of Tyrus sent his seruants vnto Salomon, (for he had heard, that they had anointed him King in the roume of his father) because Hiram had euery loued Dauid.

2 * Also Salomon sent to Hiram, saying;

3 Thou knowest that Dauid my father colde not buyde an house vnto the Name of the Lord his God, for the warres which were about him on euery side, vntil the Lord had put them vnder the soles of his feete.

4 But now the Lord my God hath giuen me rest on euery side, [so that] there is neither aduersarie, nor euil to resiste.

5 And beholde, I purpose to buyde an house vnto the name of the Lord my God, as the Lord spake vnto Dauid my father, saying, Thy sonne, whome I wil set vpon thy throne for thee, he shal buyde an house vnto my Name.

6 Now therefore commande, that they hewe me cedar trees out of Lebanon, and my seruants shalbe with thy seruants, & vnto thee wil I giue the hire for thy ser-uants, according to all that thou shalt appoint: for thou knowest that there are none among vs, that can hewe timbre like vnto the Sidonians.

7 And when Hiram heard the wordes of Salomon, he reioyced greatly, & said, Blessed be the Lord this day, which hath giuen vnto Dauid a wise sonne ouer this mightie people.

8 And Hiram sent to Salomon, saying, I haue considered the things, for the which thou sentest vnto me, and wil accomplish all thy desire, concerning the cedar trees and fire trees.

9 My seruants shal bring them downe fro Lebanon to the sea: & I wil conueie them by sea in rafts vnto the place that thou shalt shewe me, and wil cause them to be discharged there, and thou shalt receyue them: now thou shalt do me a pleasure to minister foode for my familie.

10 So Hiram gaue Salomon cedar trees & fire trees, [euery] his full desire.

11 And Salomon gaue Hiram twentie thousand measures of wheat for foode to his household; and twentie measures of beaten oyle. Thus much gaue Salomon to Hiram yere by yere.

12 And the Lord gaue Salomon wisdome as he promised him. And there was peace betwene Hiram and Salomon, and they two made a covenant.

13 And King Salomon raised a summe out of all Israel, and the summe was thirty thousand men:

14 Whome he sent to Lebanon, ten thousand a moneth by course: they were a mo-neth in Lebanon, and two moneths at home. And Adoniram [was] ouer the summe.

15 And Salomon had seuentie thousand that bare burdens, & fourescore thousand masons in the mountaine,

16 Besides the princes, whome Salomon appointed ouer the worke, [euery] thre thousand and thre hundred, which ruled the people that wrought in the worke.

17 And the King commanded them, and they broght great stones & costly stones to make the fundation of the house, [euery] hewed stones:

18 And Salomons workemen, & the workemen of Hiram, and the masons hewed and prepared timbre and stones for the buyding of the house.

rael were come out of the land of Egypt) and in the fourth yere of the reigne of Salomon ouer Israel, in the moneth Zif, (which is the seconde moneth) he buylt
the house of the Lord.

2 And the house whiche King Salomon buylt for the Lord, was threescore cubites long, & twentie broad, & thirty cubites hie,

3 And the porche before the Temple of the house [was] twentie cubites long according to the breadth of the house, and ten cubites broad before the house.

4 And in the house he made windowes, broader without, and narrower within.

5 And by the wall of the house he made galleries rounde about, euery by the wal-les of the house rounde about the Temple & the oracle, & made chambers rounde about.

6 The nethermost gallerie [was] fixe cubi-tes broad, & the middlemost six cubites broad, & the thirde seue cubites broad:
for he made festes rounde about without the house, that the beames shoulde not be fastened in the walles of the house.

13 And I wil dwell among the children of Israël, and wil not forsake my people Israël.

14 So Salomón buylt the house and finished it,

15 And buylt the walles of the house within, with boardes of cedre tree from the pavement of the house vnto the walles of the cieeling, and within he couered the with wood and couered the floore of the house with planks of firre.

16 And he buylt twenrie cubites in the sides of the house with boardes of cedre, from the floore to the walles, and he prepared a [place] within it for the oracle, [e-

19 Also he prepared the place of the oracle in the middes of the house within, to set the Arke of the couenant of the Lord there.

20 And the place of the oracle within was twentie cubits long, and twentie cubites broad, and twentie cubites hie, and he couered it with pure golde, & he couered the altar with cedre.

21 So Salomón couered the house within, with pure golde: and he shut the place of the oracle with chaines of golde, and couered it with golde.

The Arke is borne into the Temple. 10 A cloude filleth the Temple. 15 The King blesseth the people.

Then *King Salomón assembled the Elders of Israël, euen all the heads of the tribes, the chief fathers of the childre of Israël vnto † him in Ierusalém, for to *bring vp the Arke of the couenant of the Lord from the citie of Dauid, which is Zión.

2 And all the men of Israël assembled vnto King Salomón at the feast in the moneth of Ethanim, which is † seventh moneth.

3 And all the Elders of Israël came, & the Priests toke the Arke.

4 They bare the Arke of the Lord, & they bare the Tabernacle of the Congregation, & all the holy vessels that were in the Tabernacle: those did the Priests and Leuites bring vp.

5 And King Salomón and all the Congregation of Israël, that were assembled vnto him, [were] with him before the Arke, offering shepe & beeuies, which colde not be tolde, nor nombred for multitude.

6 So the *Priests broght the Arke of the couenant of the Lord vnto his place, into the oracle of the house, into the moste holy place, euen vnder the wings of the Cherubims.

7 For the Cherubims stretched out their wings ouer the place of the Arke, and the Cherubims couered the Arke, & the barres thereof aboue.

8 And they drew out the barres, that the ends of the barres might appeare out of the Sanctuarie before the oracle, but they were not sene without: and there they are vnto this day.

9 Nothing [was] in the Arke *saue the two tables of stone which Moses had put there at Horéb, where the Lord made a couenant with the children of Israël, when he broght them out of the land of Egypt.

10 And when the Priests were come out of the Sanctuarie, the *cloude filled the house of the Lord.

11 So that the Priests colde not stand minister, because of the cloude: for the glorie of the Lord had filled the house of the Lord.

12 Then spake Salomón, The Lord *said, that he wolde dwell in the darcke cloude.

13 I haue buylt thee an house to dwell in, an habitation for thee to abide in for euer.

14 ¶ And the King turned his face, & blessed all the Congregation of Israël: for all the Congregation of Israël stode [there.]

15 And he said, Blessed be the Lord God of Israël, who spake with his mouth vnto Dauid my father, and hath with his hand fulfilled it, saying,

16 Since the day that I broght my people Israël out of Egypt, I chose no citie of all the tribes of Israël to buylde an house that my Name might be there: but I haue chosen *Dauid to be ouer my people Israël.

17 And it was in the heart of Dauid my father to buylde an house to the Name of the Lord God of Israël.

18 And the Lord said vnto Dauid my father, Where as it was in thine heart to buylde an house vnto my Name, thou didest wel, that thou wast so minded.

19 Neuertheles thou shalt not buylde the house, but thy sonne, that shal come out of thy loynes, he shal buylde the house vnto my Name.

20 And the Lord hath made † good his worde that he spake: and I am risen vp in the roume of Dauid my father, and sit on the throne of Israël, as the Lord promised, & haue buylt the house for the Name of the Lord God of Israël.

21 And I haue prepared therein a place for the Arke, wherein is the *couenant of the Lord which he made with our fathers, when he broght them out of the lād of Egypt.

48 If they turne againe vnto thee with all their heart, and with all their soule in the land of their enemies, which led them away captiues, & pray vnto thee [towards] the way of their land, which thou gauest vnto their fathers, [& towards] the citie which thou hast chosen, and the house, which I haue buylt for thy Name,

49 Then heare thou their prayer and their supplication in heauen thy dwelling place, and iudge their cause,

50 And be merciful vnto thy people that haue sinned against thee, & vnto all their iniquities (wherein they haue transgressed against thee) and cause that they, which led them away captiues, may haue pitie and compassion on them:

51 For they be thy people, and thine inheritance, which thou broghest out of Egypt from the middes of the yron furnace.

52 Let thine eyes be open vnto the prayer of thy seruant, and vnto the prayer of thy people Israel, to hearken vnto them, in all that they call for vnto thee.

53 For thou didest separate them to thee from among all the people of the earth for an inheritance, as thou saidest by the hand of Moses thy seruant, when thou broghest our fathers out of Egypt, O Lord God.

54 And when Salomon had made an end of praying all this prayer and supplication vnto the Lord, he arose from before the altar of the Lord, from kneeling on his knees, and stretching of his hands to heauen,

55 And stode and blessed all the Congregation of Israel with a loude voyce, saying,

56 Blessed be the Lord that hath giuen rest vnto his people Israel, according to all that he promised: there hath not failed one worde of all his good promises which he promised by the hand of Moses his seruant.

57 The Lord our God be with vs, as he was with our fathers, that he forsake vs not, nether leaue vs,

58 That he may bowe our hearts vnto him, that we may walke in all his wayes, & kepe his commandements, and his statutes; and his lawes, which he commanded our fathers.

59 And these my wordes, which I haue praied before the Lord, be nere vnto the Lord our God day and night, that he defende the cause of his seruant, & the cause of his people Israel, alway as the matter requireth;

60 That all the people of the earth may knowe, that the Lord is God, [and] none other.

61 Let your heart therefore be perfitt with the Lord our God to walke in his statutes, and to kepe his commandements, as this day.

62 ¶ Then the King & all Israel with him offred sacrifice before the Lord.

63 * And Salomon offred a sacrifice of peace offerings which he offred vnto the Lord, [to wit,] two & twentie thousand beeues, and an hundreth & twentie thousand shepe: so the King and all the children of Israel dedicated the house of the Lord.

64 The same day did the King halowe the midle of the courte, that was before the house of the Lord: for there he offred burnt offerings, and the meat offerings, and the fat of the peace offerings, because the * brazen altar that was before the Lord, was to litle to receiue the burnt offerings, and the meat offerings, and the fat of the peace offerings.

65 And Salomon made at that time a feast and all Israel with him, a very great Congregation, euen from the entring in of * Hamath vnto the riuer of Egypt, before the Lord our God, * seuen dayes & seuen dayes, [euen] fourtene dayes.

66 And the eight day he sent the people away: and they thanked the King and went vnto their tentes ioyous and with glad heart, because of all the goodnes that the Lord had done for David his seruant, and for Israel his people.

13 Therefore he said, What cities are these which thou hast giuen me, my brother? And he called them the lad of Cabul vn to this day.

15 ¶ And this is the cause of the tribute why King Salomon raised tribute, [to wit,] to buyld the house of the Lord, and his owne house, and Milló, and the wall of Ierusalem, & Hazór, and Megiddó, & Gezer.

16 Pharaoh King of Egypt had come vp, and taken Gezer, and burnt it with fire, & slewe the Canaanites that dwelt in the citie, & gaue it for a present vnto his daughter Salomons wife.

17 (Therefore Salomon buyld Gezer and Beth-horon the nether,

18 And Baalath, and Tamor in the wilderness of the land,

19 And all the cities of store, that Salomon had, euen cities for charrets, and cities for horsemen, and [all] that Salomon desired & wolde buyld in Ierusalem, and in Lebanon, and in all the land of his dominion)

20 All the people that were left of the Amorites, Hittites, Perizzites, Hivites, & Jebusites, which were not of the children of Israel:

21 [To wit,] their children that were left after them in the land, whome the children of Israel were not able to destroye, those did Salomon make tributaries vnto this day.

22 But of the children of Israel did Salomon make no bondmen: but they were men of warre and his seruants, & his princes, and his captaines, and rulers of his charrets and his horsemen.

23 These were the princes of the officers, that were ouer Salomons worke: [euen] five hundred and fiftie, & thei ruled the people that wrought in the worke.

24 ¶ And Pharaohs daughter came vp from the citie of Dauid vnto the house which [Salomon] had buyld for her: then did he buyld Milló.

25 And thrise a yere did Salomon offer burnt offrings and peace offrings vpon the altar which he buyld vnto the Lord: & he burnt incense vpon the altar, that was before the Lord when he had finished the house.

26 ¶ Also King Salomon made a nauie of shippes in Ezion-géber, which is beside Elóth, and the brincke of the red Sea, in the land of Edóm.

27 And Hiram sent with the nauie his seruants, that were mariners, & had knowledge of the sea, with the seruants of Salomon, 28 And they came to Ophir and fet from thence foure hundred & twenty talents of golde, & brought it to King Salomon.

11 Wherefore the Lord said vnto Salomón, Forasmuche as this is done of thee, and thou hast not kept my covenant, and my statutes (which I commanded thee)

g Because the tribes of Iuda and Benjamin had their possessions mingled, they are taken as one tribe. n Or the King of Edom stocke.

14 ¶ Then the Lord stirred vp an aduersarie vnto Salomón, [cuen] Hadád the Edomite, of the Kings^b seede, which was in Edóm.

16 (For six moneths did Ioáb remaine there, & all Israël, til he had destroyed all the males in Edóm)

17 Then this Hadád * fled and certeine other Edomites of his fathers seruants with him, to go into Egypt, Hadád being yet a litle childe.

k Thus God reserved this idolater to be scourged to punish his people sinnes.

18 And they arose out of Midián, & came to Parán and toke men with them out of Parán, and came to Egypt vnto Pharaoh King of Egypt, which gaue him an house, and appointed him vitales, and gaue him land.

19 So Hadádⁱ founde great fauour in the sight of Pharaoh, and he gaue him to wife the sister of his owne wife, [cuen] þe sister of Tahpenés the quene.

l God brought him to honoure that his power might be made able to cope with his enterpriser against Salomons house.

20 And the sister of Tahpenés bare him Genubáth his sonne, whome Tahpenés wayned in Pharaohs house: & Genubáth was in Pharaohs house among the sonnes of Pharaoh.

21 And when Hadád heard in Egypt, that Dauid slept with his fathers, & that Ioáb the captaine of þe hoste was dead, Hadád said to Pharaoh, Let me departe, that I may go to mine owne countrey.

22 But Pharaoh said vnto him, What hast thou lacked with me, that thou woldest thus go to thine owne countrey? And he answered, Nothing, but in any wise let me go.

23 * And

23 ¶ And God stirred him vp [another] aduersarie, Rezón the sonne of Eliadá, w^m fled from his lord Hadadézer King of Zobáh.

24 And he gathered men vnto him, & had bene captaine ouer the company, when Dauid slewe them. And thei went to Damascus, and dwelt there, ⁿ and thei made him King in Damascus.

25 Therefore was he an aduersarie to Israël all the daies of Salomón: besides the euil that Hadád [did], he also abhorred Israël, and reigned ouer Arám.

26 ¶ And Ieroboám the sonne of Nebát an Ephrathite of Zeráda Salomons seruāt (whose mother was called Zeruáh a widowe) lift vp his hand against the King.

27 And this was the cause that he lift vp [his] hand against the King, [When] Salomón buylt Milló, he repared the broken places of the citie of Dauid his father.

28 And this man Ieroboám was a man of strength and courage, and Salomón seing that the yong man was mete for the worke, he made him ^o ouerfeer of all the labour of the house of Ioséph.

29 And at that time, when Ieroboám went out of Ierusalém, the Prophet Ahiiáh the Shilonite founde him in the way, hauing a newe garment on him, & thei two were alone in the field.

30 Then Ahiiáh caught the newe garment that was on him, and ^p rent it in twelue pieces, 31 And said to Ieroboám, Take vnto thee ten pieces: for thus saith the Lord God of Israël, Beholde, I wil rent the kingdome out of the hands of Salomón, and wil giue ten tribes to thee.

32 But he shal haue one tribe for my seruāt Dauids sake, and for Ierusalém the citie, which I haue chosen out of all the tribes of Israël.

33 Because thei haue forsaken me, & haue worshipped Ashtaróth the god of the Zidonians, & Chemósh the god of the Moabites, and Milcóth the god of the Ammonites, & haue not walked in my wayes (to [†] do fight in mine eyes, and my statutes, & my lawes) as [did] Dauid his father.

34 But I wil not take the whole kingdome out of his hand: for I wil make him prince all his life long for Dauid my seruāt's sake, whome I haue chosen, & who kept my commandements and my statutes.

35 ¶ But I wil take the kingdome out of his sonnes hand, and wil giue it vnto thee, [euen] the ten tribes.

36 And vnto his sonne wil I giue one tribe that Dauid my seruāt maye haue a light alwaie before me in Ierusalém the citie, which I haue chosen me, to put my Name there.

37 And I wil take thee, & thou shalt reigne, [euen] as thine heart desireth, and shalt be King ouer Israël.

38 And if thou hearken vnto all that I com mande thee, and wilt walke in my wayes, and do right in my sight, to kepe my statutes and my commandements, as Dauid my seruāt did, then wil I be with thee, & buylde thee a sure house, as I buylt vnto Dauid, and wil giue Israël vnto thee.

39 And I wil for ^r this afflict the seede of Dauid, ^r but not for euer.

40 ¶ Salomón soght therefore to kil Ieroboám, and Ieroboám arose, and fled into Egypt vnto Shishák King of Egypt, and was in Egypt vntil the death of Salomón.

41 And the rest of the wordes of Salomón, & all that he did, & his wisdom, are they not written in the ^t booke of the actes of Salomón?

42 The time that Salomón reigned in Ierusalém ouer all Israël, was fourtie yere.

43 And Salomón slept with his fathers, & was buried in the citie of Dauid his father: and Rehoboám his sonne reigned in his steade.

And said, O Lord, strengthen him selfe.

But he forsoke the counsel that the olde men had giuen him, and asked counsel of the yong men, that had bene brought vp with him, and waited on him.

And he said vnto them, What counsel giue ye, that we may answer this people, which haue spoken to me, saying, Make the yoke, which thy father did put vpon vs, lighter?

Then the yong men that were brought vp with him, spake vnto him, saying, Thus shalt thou say vnto this people, that haue spoken vnto thee, and said, Thy father hath made our yoke heauie, but make thou it lighter vnto vs: [euen] thus shalt thou say vnto them, My least parte shalbe bigger then my fathers loynes.

Now where as my father did burden you with a grieuous yoke, I wil yet make your yoke heauier: my father hath chastised you with rods, but I wil correct you with scourges.

Then Ieroboam & all the people came to Rehoboam the third day, as the King had appointed, saying, Come to me againe the third day.

And the King answered the people sharply, and left the olde mens counsel that they gaue him,

And spake to them after the counsel of the yong men, saying, My father made your yoke grieuous, and I wil make your yoke more grieuous: my father hath chastised you with rods, but I wil correct you with scourges.

And the King hearkened not vnto the people: for it was the ordinance of the Lord, that he might performe his saying, which the Lord had spoken by Ahijah the Shilonite vnto Ieroboam the sonne of Nebat.

So when all Israel sawe that the King regarded them not, the people answered the King thus, saying, What portion haue we in David? we haue none inheritance in the sonne of Ishai. To your tents, O Israel: now se to thine owne house, David. So Israel departed vnto their tents.

Howbeit ouer the children of Israel, which dwelt in the cities of Iudah, did Rehoboam reigne stil.

Now the King Rehoboam sent Adoram the receiuer of the tribute, and all Israel stoned him to death: then King Rehoboam made speede to get him vp to his charer, to flee to Ierusalem.

And Israel rebelled against the house of David vnto this day.

And when all Israel had heard that Ieroboam was come againe, they sent and called him vnto the assemblie, and made him King ouer all Israel: none followed the house of David, but the tribe of Iudah onely.

And when Rehoboam was come to Ierusalem, he gathered all the house of Iudah with the tribe of Benjamin, an hundred and four score thousand of chosen men (which were good warriours) to fight against the house of Israel, & to bring the kingdome againe to Rehoboam the sonne of Salomon.

But the worde of God came vnto Shemaiah the man of God, saying,

Speake vnto Rehoboam the sonne of Salomon King of Iudah, and vnto all the house of Iudah and Benjamin, and the remnant of the people, saying,

Thus saith the Lord, Ye shal not go vp, nor fight against your brethren the children of Israel: returne euerie man to his house: for this thing is done by me. They obeyed therefore the worde of the Lord, and returned, and departed, according to the worde of the Lord.

Then Ieroboam buylt Shechem in mount Ephraim, and dwelt therein, and went from thence, and buylt Penuel.

And Ieroboam thought in his heart, Now shal the kingdome returne to the house of David.

If this people go vp and do sacrifice in the house of the Lord at Ierusalem, then shal the heart of this people turne againe vnto their lord, [euen] to Rehoboam King of Iudah: so shal they kil me, & go againe to Rehoboam King of Iudah.

Whereupon the King toke counsel, and made two calves of golde, and said vnto them, It is to muche for you to go vp to Ierusalem: beholde, O Israel, thy gods, which brought thee vp out of the land of Egypt.

And he set the one in Beth-el, and the other set he in Dan.

And this thing turned to sinne: for the people went (because of the one) euen to Dan.

Also he made an house of hye places, and made Priests of the lowest of the people, which were not of the sonnes of Levi.

And Ieroboam made a feast the fifteth day of the eight moneth, lyke vnto the feast that is in Iudah, and offered on the altar. So did he in Beth-el and offered vnto the calves that he had made: & he placed in Beth-

CHAP. XIII.

1 Ieroboam is reprehended of the Prophet. 4 His hand dryeth vp. 15 The Prophet is seduced. 24 And is killed of a lyon. 33 The obstinacie of Ieroboam.

1 And beholde, there came a man of God out of Iudáh (by the commandement of the Lord) vnto Beth-él, and Ieroboam stode by the altar to offer incense.

2 And he cryed against the altar by the commandement of the Lord, and said, O altar, altar, thus saith the Lord, Beholde, a child shal be borne vnto the house of Dauid, Iosiah by name, and vpon thee shal he sacrifice the Priests of the hie places that burne incense vpon thee, and they shal burne mens bones vpon thee.

3 And he gaue a signe the same time, saying, This is the signe that the Lord hath spoken, Beholde, the altar shal rent, & the altars that are vpon it, shal fall out.

4 And when the King had heard the saying of the mā of God, which he had cryed against the altar in Beth-él, Ieroboam stretched out his hand from the altar, saying, Lay holde on him: but his hand which he put forthe against him, dried vp, & he colde not pull it in againe to him.

5 The altar also claue asundre, & the altars fel out from the altar, according to the signe, which the man of God had giuen by the commandement of the Lord.

6 Then the King answered, and said vnto the man of God, I beseeche thee, pray vnto the Lord thy God, and make intercession for me, that mine hand may be restored vnto me. And the man of God besought the Lord, and the Kings hand was restored, and became as it was afore.

7 Then the King said vnto the mā of God, Come home with me, that thou maiest dine, and I wil giue thee a rewarde.

8 But the man of God said vnto the King, If thou woldest giue me halfe thine house I wolde not go in with thee, nether wolde I eat bread nor drinke water in this place.

9 For so I was charged me by the worde of the Lord, saying, Eat no bread, nor drinke water, nor turne againe by the same way that thou camest.

10 So he went another way, and returned nor by the way that he came to Beth-él.

11 ¶ And an olde Prophet dwelt in Beth-él, & his sonnes came, and tolde him all the workes, the man of God had done that day in Beth-él, and the wordes which he had spoken vnto the King, tolde thei their father.

12 And their father said vnto them, What way went he? and his sonnes shewed him what way the man of God went, which came from Iudáh.

13 And he said vnto his sonnes, Saddle me the asse. Who saddled him the asse, and he rode thercon, 14 And went after the man of God, and founde him sitting vnder an oke: and he said vnto him, Art thou the man of God that camest fro Iudáh? And he said, Yea.

15 Then he said vnto him, & Come home with me, and eat bread.

16 But he answered, I may not returne with thee, nor go in with thee, nether wil I eat bread nor drinke water with thee in this place.

17 For it was charged me by the worde of the Lord, [sayig,] Thou shalt eat no bread, nor drinke water there, nor turne againe to go by the way that thou wentest.

18 And he said vnto him, I am a Prophet also as thou art, and an Angel spake vnto me by the worde of the Lord, saying, Bring him againe with thee into thine house, that he may eat bread and drinke water: [but] he lied vnto him.

19 So he went againe with him, & did eat bread in his house, and dranke water.

20 And as they sate at the table, the worde of the Lord came vnto the Prophet, that broght him againe.

21 And he cryed vnto the man of God that came from Iudáh, saying, Thus saith the Lord, Because thou hast disobeyed the mouth of the Lord, and hast not kept the commandemēt which the Lord thy God commanded thee, 22 But camest backe againe, and hast eaten bread & dronke water in the place (whereof he did say vnto thee, Thou shalt eat no bread nor drinke anie water) thy carkeis shal not come vnto the sepulchre of thy fathers.

23 ¶ And when he had eaten bread and dronke, he saddled him the asse, to wit, to the Prophet whome he had broght againe.

24 And when he was gone, a lyon met him by the way, and slewe him: and his bodie was cast in the way, and the asse stode thereby: the lyon stode by the corps also.

† Ebr. looked.

† Ebr. Yea.

This he did of a simple mind, thinking in his duetie to declare friendship to a Prophet.

His fault is here double: first in that that he suffreth not the Prophete to obey Gods expresse commandement: and next, that he faileth to haue a reuelation to the contrary.

God wolde not proue his folly by him, who was the occasion to bring him to error.

By this fearful example, God setteth forthe, how dangerous a thing it is for men to behave them selues coldly, or deceitfully in their charge whereunto God hath called them.

25 And beholde, men that passed by, sawe the carkeis cast in the way, and the lyon standing by the corps: and they came and tolde it in the towne where the olde Prophet dwelt.

26 And when the Prophet, that broght him backe againe from the way, heard thereof, he said, It is the man of God, who hath bene disobedient vnto the commādemēt of the Lord: therefore the Lord hath deliuered him vnto the lyon, which hath rent him and slaine him, according to the worde of the Lord, which he spake vnto him.

27 ¶ And he spake to his sonnes, saying, Saddle me the asse. And they saddled him.

28 And he went and founde his body cast in the way, & the asse & the lyon stode by the corps: and the lyon had¹ not eaten the body, nor torne the asse.

29 And the Prophet toke vp the body of the man of God, & layed it vpon the asse, and broght it againe, & the olde Prophet came to the citie, to lament & bury him.

30 And he layed his body in his^m owne graue, & they lamented ouer him, [saying] Alas, my brother.

31 And when he had buried him, he spake to his sonnes, saying, When I am dead, bury ye me also in the sepulchre, wherein the man of God is buried: lay my bones beside his bones.

32 For that thing which he cryed by the worde of the Lord against the altar that is in Beth-el, and against all the houses of the hie places, which are in the cities of Samaria, shal surely come to passe.

33 [Howbeit] after this, Ieroboámⁿ conuerterd not from his wicked way, but turned againe, and made of the lowest of the people Priests of the hie places. Who wolde, might[†] consecrate him selfe, and be of the Priests of the hie places.

34 And this thing turned to sinne vnto the house of Ieroboám, euen to roote it out, and destroy it from the face of the earth.

9 ¶ And in † twentie yere of Ieroboám King of Israël reigned Asá ouer Iudáh.

10 He reigned in Ierusalém one & fourtie yere, and his mothers name [was] Maacháh, the daughter of Abishalóm.

11 And Asá did right in the eyes of the Lord, as [did] Dauid his father.

12 And he toke away the Sodomites out of the land, & put away all the idoles that his fathers had made.

13 And he put downe Maacháh his mother also from her estate, because she had made an idole in a groue: & Asá destroyed her idoles, & burnt them by the brooke Kidson.

8 ¶ In the six and twentie yere of Asá King of Iudah began Elah the sonne of Baashá to reigne ouer Israel in Tirzáh, [and reigned] two yere.

9 And his seruant Zimri, capitaine of halfe his charets conspired against him, as he was in Tirzah drinking, til he was drunken in the house of Arzá stuarde of his house in Tirzah.

10 And Zimri came & smote him & killed him in the seuen and twentie yere of Asá King of Iudah, & reigned in his steade.

11 ¶ And when he was King, and sate on his throne, he slewe all the house of Baashá, not leauing therof one to pisse against a wall, nether of his kinsfolke, nor of his friends.

12 So did Zimri destroy all the house of Baashá, according to the worde of Lord which he spake against Baashá by the hand of Iehú the Prophet.

15 ¶ In the seuen and twentie yere of Asá King of Iudah did Zimri reigne seuen dayes in Tirzáh, and the people was then in the hostes besieging Gibbethón, which [belonged] to the Philistines.

16 And the people of the hoste heard say, Zimri hath conspired, & hath also slaine the King. Wherefore all Israel made Omri the capitaine of the hoste King ouer Israel that same day, [euen] in the hoste.

17 Then Omri went vp from Gibbethón, and all Israel with him, and they besieged Tirzáh.

18 And when Zimri sawe that the citie was taken, he went into the palace of the Kings house, and burnt him selfe and the Kings house with fire, & so dyed.

19 For his sinnes which he sinned, in doing that which is euil in the sight of the Lord, in walking in the way of Ieroboám, and in his sinnes which he did, causing Israel to sinne.

20 And the rest of the actes of Zimri, and his treason that he wrought, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel.

21 Then were the people of Israel deuided into two partes: [for] halfe the people followed Tibni the sonne of Ginath to make him King, & the other halfe followed Omri.

22 But the people that followed Omri, preuailed against the people that followed Tibni the sonne of Ginath: so Tibni dyed, and Omri reigned.

23 In the one and thirtie yere of Asá King of Iudah began Omri to reigne ouer Israel, [& reigned] twelue yere, Six yere reigned he in Tirzáh.

24 And he bought the mountaine of Samaria of one Shémer for two talents of siluer, and buylt in the mountaine, and called the name of the citie, which he buylt, after the name of Shémer, lord of the mountaine Samaria.

25 But Omri did euil in the eyes of the Lord, and did worse then all that were before him.

26 For he walked in all the way of Ieroboám the sonne of Nebát, and in his sinnes wherewith he made Israel to sinne in prouoking the Lord God of Israel with their vanities.

27 And the rest of the actes of Omri, that he did, & his strength that he shewed, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel.

30 And Aháb the sonne of Omri did worse in the sight of the Lord then all that were before him.

31 For was it a light thing for him to walke in the sinnes of Ieroboám the sonne of Nebát, except he toke Iezabel also the daughter of Eth-baal King of the Zidonians to his wife, and went & serued Baal, and worshiped him?

32 Also he reared vp an altar to Baal in the house of Baal, which he had buylt in Samaria.

6 And the rauens broght him bread & flesh in the morning, and bread and flesh in the euening, and he dranke of the riuer.

9 * Vp, [and] get thee to Zarephath, which is in Zidon, & remaine there: beholde, I haue commanded a widowe there to sustaine thee.

10 So he arose, and went to Zarephath: & when he came to the gate of the citie, beholde, the widowe was there gathering stickes. & he called her, & said, Bring me, I pray thee, a litle water in a vessel, that I may drinke.

11 And as she was going to fet it, he called to her, and said, Bring me, I pray thee, a morsel of bread in thine hand.

12 And she said, As the Lord thy God liueth, I haue not a cake, but euen an handeful of meale in a baryl, & a litle oyle in a cruse: and beholde, I am gathering a fewe stickes for to go in, and dresse it for me & my sonne, that we may eat it, and dye.

13 And Eliiah said vnto her, Feare not, come, do as thou hast said, but make me thereof a litle cake first of all, & bring it vnto me, and afterwarde make for thee, & thy sonne.

14 For thus saith the Lord God of Israel, The meale in the baryl shal not be wasted, neither shal the oyle in the cruse be diminished, vnto the time that the Lord

15 So she went, and did as Eliiah said, and she did eat: so did he and her house for a certeine time.

16 The baryl of the meale wasted not, nor the oyle was spent out of the cruse, according to the worde of the Lord, which he spake by the hand of Eliiah.

17 ¶ And after these things, the sonne of the wife of the house fel sicke, & his sickness was so sore, that there was no breath left in him.

18 And she said vnto Eliiah, What haue I to do with thee, o thou man of God? art thou come vnto me to call my sinne to remembrance, and to slaye my sonne?

19 And he said vnto her, Giue me thy sonne, and he toke him out of her bosome, & caried him vp into a chamber where he abode, and laied him vpon his owne bed.

20 Then he called vnto the Lord, & said, O Lord my God, hast thou punished also this widowe, with whome I sojourne by killing her sonne?

21 And he stretched him selfe vpon the childe three times, & called vnto the Lord, and said, O Lord my God, I pray thee let this chilles soule come into him againe.

22 Then the Lord heard the voyce of Eliiah, and the soule of the childe came into him againe, and he reuiued.

23 And Eliiah toke the childe, and broght him downe out of the chamber into the house, & deliuered him vnto his mother, & Eliiah said, Beholde, thy sonne liueth.

15 And Eliáh said, As the Lord of hostes liueth, before whome I stand, I wil surely shewe^e my selfe vnto him this day.

16 So Obadiáh went to mete Aháb, and tolde him: and Aháb wẽt to mete Eliáh.

17 And when Aháb sawe Eliáh, Aháb said vnto him, Art thou he that troubleth Israël?

18 And he answered, I haue not troubled Israël, but thou and thy fathers house, in that ye haue forsaken the commandemẽts of the Lord, and thou hast followed Baalim.

19 Now therefore send, and gather to me all Israël vnto mount Carmel, & the prophetes of Báal foure hundreth and fiftie, & the prophetes of the groues foure hundreth, which eat at Iezebels table.

20 ¶ So Aháb sent vnto all the children of Israël, & gathered the prophetes together vnto mount Carmel.

21 And Eliáh came vnto all the people, & said, How long halt ye betwene two opinions? If the Lord be God, follow him: but if Báal be he, then go after him. And the people answered him not a worde.

22 Then said Eliáh vnto the people, I onely remaine a Prophet of the Lord: but Baa's prophetes are foure hundreth and fiftie men.

23 Let the therefore giue vs two bullocks, and let them chuse the one, and cut him in pieces, and laye him on the wood; but put no fyre [vnder,] and I wil prepare the other bullocke, & laye him on the wood, and wil put no fyre [vnder.]

24 Then call ye on the name of your god, and I wil call on the name of the Lord: & then the God that answereth^b by fyre, let him be God. And all the people answered, and said, It is wel spoken.

25 And Eliáh said vnto the prophetes of Báal, Chuse you a bullocke, and prepare him first, (for ye are many) and call on the name of your gods, but put no fyre [vnder.]

26 So they toke the one bullocke, that was giuen them, and they prepared it, and called on the name of Báal, from morning to noone, saying, O Báal, heare vs: but there was no voyce, nor any to answer: & they leapt vpon the altar that was made.

27 And at noone Eliáh mocked them, & said, Crye loud: for he is a^k god: ether he talketh, or pursueth [his enemies,] or is in his iourney, or it may be that he slepeth, & must be^l awaked.

28 And they cryed loude, and cut them selues, as their maner was, with kniues and lancets, til the blood gushed out vpon them.

29 And when mydday was passed, & they had prophecied vntil the offering of the [euening] sacrifice, there was nether voyce, nor one to answer, nor any that regarded.

30 And Eliáh said vnto all the people, Come to me. And all þ people came to him. And he repaired the altar of the Lord that was broken downe.

31 And Eliáh toke twelue stones, accordig to the number of the tribes of the sonnes of Iakób, (vnto whome the worde of the Lord came, saying, * Israël shal be thy name)

35 And the water ran rounde about the altar: and he filled the ditche with water also.

36 And when they shulde offer the [euening] sacrifice, Eliáh the Prophet came, & said, Lord God of Abraham, Izhák, and of Israel, let it be knowne this day, that thou art the God of Israel, and that I am thy seruant, and that I haue done all these things at thy commandement.

CHAP. XX.

¶ Samaria is besieged. The Lord promisseth the victorie to Ahab by a Prophet. The King of Israel made peace with Ben-hadad, and is reprobud therefore by the Prophet.

1 THE Ben-hadad the King of Aram assembled all his armie, and two and thirtie Kings with him, with horses and charrets, and went vp, and besieged Samaria, and foght against it.

2 And he sent messengers to Ahab King of Israël, into the citie,

3 And said vnto him, Thus sayeth Ben-hadad, Thy siluer and thy golde is mine: also thy women, and thy faire children are mine.

4 And the King of Israël answered, & said, My lord King, according to thy saying, I am thine, and all that I haue.

5 And when the messengers came againe, they said, Thus comandeth Ben-hadad, &

sayth, When I shal send vnto thee, and commande, thou shalt deliuer me thy siluer and thy golde, and thy women, & thy children, 6 Or els I wil send my seruants vnto thee by to morow this time, and they shal searche thine house, and the houses of thy seruants: and whatsoeuer is pleasant in thine eyes, they shal take it in their hands, and bring it away.

7 Then the King of Israël sent for all the Elders of the land, and said, Take hede, I pray you, and se how he seketh mischeif: for he sent vnto me for my wiues, and for my children, and for my siluer, and for my golde, and I denyed him not.

8 And all the Elders, & all the people said to him, Hearken not vnto him, nor consent.

9 Wherefore he said vnto the messengers of Ben-hadad, Tel my Lord the King, All that thou didest send for to thy seruant at the first time, that I will do, but this thing I may not do. And the messengers departed, and broght him an answer.

10 And Ben-hadad sent vnto him, and said, The gods do so to me and more also, if the dust of Samaria be ynough to all the people that followe me, for euerie man an handful.

11 And the King of Israël answered, and said, Tel [him,] Let not him girdeth [his harness,] boast hi selfe, as he putteth it of.

12 And when he heard that tidings, as he was with the Kings drinking in the pauilions, he said vnto his seruants, Bring forth the engines, and thei set them against the citie.

13 ¶ And beholde, there came a Prophet vnto Ahab King of Israël, saying, Thus saith the Lord, Hast thou sene all this great multitude? beholde, I wil deliuer it into thine hand this day, & thou maiest knowe, that I am the Lord.

14 And Ahab said, By whome? And he said, Thus saith the Lord, By the seruants of the princes of the prouinces. He said againe, Who shal ordre the battell? And he answered, Thou.

15 ¶ Then he nombred the seruants of the princes of the prouinces, and they were two hundreth, two and thirtie: and after them he nombred the whole people of all the children of Israël, [euē] seuen thousande.

16 And they went out at noone: but Ben-hadad did drinke til he was dronken in the tents, [bothe] he and the Kings: for two & thirtie Kings helped him.

prouinces went out first: & Ben-hadad set out, and they shewed him, saying, There are men come out of Samaria.

18 And he said, Whether they be come out for peace, take them alieu: or whether they be come out to fight, take them yet alieu.

19 So they came out of the citie, [to wit,] the seruants of the princes of the prouinces, and the hoste which followed them.

20 And they slewe euerie one his enemies: and the Aramites fled, and Israel pursued them: but Be-hadad the King of Aram escaped on an horse with [his] horsemen.

21 And the King of Israel went out, and smote the horses and charrets, and with a great slaughter slewe he the Aramites.

22 (For there had come a Prophet to the King of Israel, and had said vnto him, Go, be of good courage, and consider, and take hede what thou doest: for when the yere is gone about, the King of Aram will come vp against thee)

23 ¶ The seruants of the King of Aram said vnto him, Their gods are gods of the mountaines, and therefore they ouercome vs: but let vs fight against them in the plaine, and doubtles we shal overcome them.

24 And this do, Take the Kings away, euerie one out of his place, and place captaines for them.

25 And nomber thy selfe an armie, like the armie that thou hast lost, with suche horses, and suche charrets, and we wil fight against them in the plaine, and doubtles we shal overcome the: and he hearkened vnto their voyce, and did so.

26 And after the yere was gone about, Be-hadad nombred the Aramites, and went vp to Aphék to fight against Israel.

27 And the children of Israel were nombred, and were all assembled, and went against them, and the children of Israel pitched before them, like two little flockes of kiddes: but the Aramites filled the countie.

28 And there came a mā of God and spake vnto the King of Israel, saying, Thus sayth the Lord, Because the Aramites haue said, The Lord is the God of the mountaines, and not God of the valleis, therefore wil I deliuer all this great multitude into thine hand, and ye shal knowe that I am the Lord.

29 And they pitched one ouer against the other seuen dayes, and in the seuenth day the battell was ioyned: and the children of Israel slewe of the Aramites an hūdreth thousand fotemen in one day.

30 But the rest fled to Aphék into the ciue:

and there fel a wall vpon seuen & twentie thousand men that were left: and Ben-hadad fled into the citie, and came into a secret chamber.

31 ¶ And his seruants said vnto him, Beholde now, we haue heard say that the Kings of the house of Israel are mercifull Kings: we pray thee, let vs put sackcloth about our loynes, and ropes about our heades, and go out to the King of Israel: it may be that he wil saue thy lite.

32 The they girded sackcloth about their loynes, and [put] ropes about their heades, and came to the King of Israel, and said, Thy seruant Ben-hadad saith, I pray thee, let me liue: and he said, Is he yet alieu? he is my brother.

33 Now the men toke diligent hede, if they colde catche [any thing] of him, and made haste, & said, Thy brother Be-hadad. And he said, Go, bring him. So Ben-hadad came out vnto him, and he caused him to come vp vnto the charer.

34 And [Ben-hadad] said vnto him, The cities, which my father toke fro thy father, I wil restore, and thou shalt make stretes for thee in Damascus, as my father did in Samaria. Then [said Ahab], I wil let thee go with this couenant. So he made a couenant with him, and let him go.

35 ¶ Then a certeine man of the children of the Prophetes said vnto his neighbour by the comādemēt of the Lord, Smite me, I pray thee. But the man refused to smite him.

36 Then said he vnto him, Because thou hast not obeyed the voyce of the Lord, beholde, as sone as thou art departed from me, a lyon shal slay thee. So when he was departed from him, a lyon founde him and slewe him.

37 Then he found another man, and said, Smite me, I pray thee. And the man smote him, and in smiting wounded him.

38 So the Prophet departed, & waited for the King by the way, and disguised him selfe with ashes vpon his face.

39 And when the King came by, he cryed vnto the King, and said, Thy seruant wet into the middes of the battell: & beholde, there went away a man, whome [another] man broght vnto me, and said, Kepe this man: if he be lost, and want, thy life shal go for his, or els thou shalt paye a talent of filuer.

1 Iezebel commandeth to kill Naboth, for the vineyard that he refused to sel to Ahab. 19 Eliiah reproveth Ahab, and he repenteth.

1 A † Fter these things Nabóth the Izreelite had a vineyarde in Izreél, hard by the palace of Aháb King of Samaria.

2 And Aháb spake vnto Nabóth, saying, Giue me thy vineyarde, that I may make me a gardine of herbes thereof, because it is nere by mine house: and I wil giue thee for it a better vineyarde then it is: [or] if it please thee, I wil giue thee the worthe of it in money.

3 And Nabóth said to Aháb, The Lord kepe me from giuing the inheritáce of my fathers vnto thee.

4 Then Aháb came into his house heauy and in displeasure, because of the worde which Nabóth the Izreelite had spokē vn to him. for he had said, I wil not giue thee the inheritance of my fathers. and he laye bvpō his bed, and turned his face, & wolde eat no bread.

5 Then Iezébel his wife came to him and said vnto him, Why is thy spirit so sad that thou eatest no bread?

6 And he said vnto her, Because I spake vnto Nabóth the Izreelite, and said vnto him, Giue me thy vineyarde for money, or giue it please thee, I wil giue thee [another] vineyarde for it: but he answered, I wil not giue thee my vineyarde.

9 And she wrote in the letters, saying, Proclaime a † fast, and set Nabóth among the chief of the people,

17 ¶ And the worde of the Lord came vnto Eliáh the Tishbite, saying,

4 And he said vnto Iehoshaphat, Wilt thou go with me to battel against Ramóth Gileád? And Iehoshaphat said vnto the King of Israël, I am as thou art, my people as thy people, and mine horses as thine horses.

5 Then Iehoshaphat said vnto the King of Israël, * Aske counsel, I pray thee, of the Lord to day.

6 Then the King of Israël gathered the Prophetes vpon a foure hundred men, and said vnto them, Shal I go against Ramóth Gileád to battel, or shal I let it alone? And they said, Go vp: for the Lord shal deliuer it into the hands of the King.

7 And Iehoshaphat said, Is there here neuer a Prophet of the Lord more, that we might inquire of him?

8 And the King of Israël said vnto Iehoshaphat, There is yet one man (Micháiah the sonne of Imláh) by whome we may aske counsel of the Lord, but I hate him: for he doeth not prophetic good vnto me, but euil. And Iehoshaphat said, Let not the King say so.

9 Then the King of Israël called an Eunuche, and said, Call quickly Micháiah the sonne of Imláh.

10 And the King of Israël and Iehoshaphat the King of Iudáh sate ether [of them] on his throne in their apparel in the voyde place at the entring in of the gate of Samaria, and all the Prophetes propheticied before them.

11 And Zidkiah the sonne of Chenaanáh made him hornes of yron, and said, Thus sayth the Lord, With these shalt thou push the Aramites, vntil thou hast consumed them.

12 And all the Prophetes propheticied so, saying, Go vp to Ramóth Gileád, & prosper: for the Lord shal deliuer it into the Kings hand.

13 ¶ And the messenger that was gone to call Micháiah spake vnto him, saying, Beholde now, the wordes of the Prophetes [declare] good vnto the King with one acorde: let thy worde therefore, I pray thee, be like the worde of one of them, & speake thou good.

14 And Micháiah said, As the Lord liueth, whatsoeuer the Lord sayth vnto me, that wil I speake.

15 So he came to the King, and the King said vnto him, Micháiah, shal we go against Ramóth Gileád to battel, or shal we leaue of? And he answered him, Go vp, & prosper: & the Lord shal deliuer it into the hand of the King.

16 And the King said vnto him, How oft shal I charge thee, that thou tel me nothig but that which is true in the Name of the Lord.

17 Then he said, I sawe all Israël scatered vpon the mountaines, as shepe that had no shepheard. And the Lord said, These haue no master, let euery man returne vnto his house in peace.

18 (And the King of Israël said vnto Iehoshaphat, Did not I tel thee, that he wolde propheticie no good vnto me, but euil?)

19 Againe he said, Heare thou therefore worde of the Lord. I sawe the Lord sit on his throne, and all the hoste of heauen stode about him on his right hand and on his left hand.

20 And the Lord said, Who shal entise Ahab that he may go and fall at Ramóth Gileád? And one said on this maner, and another said on that maner.

21 Then there came forth a spirit, & stood before the Lord, and said, I wil entise him. And the Lord said vnto him, Where with?

31 And the King of Aram commanded his two and thirtie captaines ouer his charrets, saying, Fight nether with smal, nor great, saue onely against the King of Israel.

32 And when the captaines of the charrets sawe Iehoshaphat, they said, Surely it is the King of Israel, and they turned to fight against him: and Iehoshaphat cryed.

33 And when the captaines of the charrets sawe that he was not the King of Israel, they turned backe from him.

34 Then a [certeine] man drue a bowe mightely, & smote the King of Israel betwene the ioyntes of his brigandine. Wherefore he said vnto his charret man, Turne thine hand and cary me out of the hoste: for I am hurt.

35 And the battel encreased that day, and the King stode stil in his charret against the Aramites, and dyed at euen: and the blood ran out of the wounde into the middes of the charret.

36 And there went a proclamatiõ through out the hoste about the going downe of the sunne, saying, Eucry man to his citie, and euery man to his owne countrie.

37 So the King dyed, and was brought to Samaria, and they buryed the King in Samaria.

38 And one washed the charet in the poole of Samaria and the doggs licked vp his blood (and they washed his armour) according vnto the worde of the Lord which he spake.

42 Iehoshaphat was fise and thirtie yere olde, when he began to reigne, and reigned fise and twentie yere in Ierusalem. And his mothers name was Azubah the daughter of Shilhi.

43 And he walked in all the wayes of Asa his father, and declined not therefrom, but did that which was right in the eyes of the Lord. Neuertheles the hie places were not taken away: [for] the people offered stil and burnt incense in the hie places.

49 Then said Ahaziah the sonne of Ahab vnto Iehoshaphat, Let my seruants go with thy seruants in the shippes. But Iehoshaphat wolde not.

50 And Iehoshaphat did slepe with his fathers, [and] was buryed with his fathers in the citie of Dauid his father and Iehoram his sonne reigned in his steade.

51 ¶ Ahaziah the sonne of Ahab began to reigne ouer Israel in Samaria, the seuententh yere of Iehoshaphat King of Iudah, and reigned two yeres ouer Israel.

THE SECONDE BOKE OF THE KINGS.

THE ARGUMENT.

THis seconde boke conteineth the actes of the Kings of Iudah and Israel: to wit, of Israel, from the death of Ahab vnto the last King Hoshea, who was imprisoned by the King of Assyria, and his citie Samaria taken, and the ten tribes by the iust plague of God for their idolatrie and disobedience to God led into captiuitie. And also of Iudah, from the reigne of Iehoram sonne of Iehoshaphat vnto Zedechia who for contemning the Lords commandment by his Prophetes, & neglecting his sundrie admonitions, by famine and other meanes, was taken by his enemies, sawe his sonnes most cruelly slaine before his face, and his owne eyes put out, as the Lord had declared to him before by his Prophet Ieremie: and also by the iuste vengeance of God for contempt of his worde, Ierusalem was destroyed, the Temple burnt, and he and all his people were led away captiues into Babylon. In this boke are notable examples of Gods fauour towards those rulers and people which obey his Prophetes and imbrace his worde: and contrariwise of his plagues towards those commune weales which neglect his ministers and do not obey his commandments.

CHAP. I.

1 Ahaziah by a fall falleth sicke and consulteth with Baal-zebub. 3 He is reprobued by Eliiah. 10 The captaines ouer fiftie were sent to Eliiah, whereof two were burnt with fire from heauen by his prayer. 17 Ahaziah dyeth, and Iehoram his brother succedeth him.

IHen Moab rebelled against Israel after † death of Ahab:

And Ahaziah fell through the lattesse windowe in his vpper chamber which was in Samaria: so he was sicke: then he sent messengers, to whome he said, Go, [and] enquire of ^b Baal-zebub the god of Ekron, if I shal recouer of this my disease.

3 Then the Angel of the Lord said to Eliiah the Tishbite, Arise, [and] go vp to mete the messengers of the King of Samaria, and saye vnto them, Is it not because there is no God in Israel, that ye go to inquire of Baal-zebub the god of Ekron?

4 Wherefore thus sayth the Lord, Thou shalt not come downe from the bed on which thou art gone vp, but shalt dye the death. So Eliiah departed.

5 And the messengers returned vnto him, to whome he said, Why are ye now returned?

6 And they answered him, There came a man and met vs, and said vnto vs, Go, [and] returne vnto the King which sent you, & say vnto him, Thus sayth the Lord, Is it not because there is no God in Israel, that thou sendest to enquire of Baal-zebub the god of Ekron? Therefore thou shalt not come downe from the bed, on which thou art gone vp, but shalt dye the death.

7 And he said vnto them, What maner of man was he which came and met you, & tolde you these wordes?

8 And they said vnto him, He was an heerie man, and girded with a girdle of lether about his loynes. Then said he, It is Eliiah the Tishbite.

9 Therefore [the King] sent vnto him a captaine ouer fiftie with his fiftie [men,] who went vp vnto him: [for] beholde, he sate on the toppes of a mountaine, and he said vnto him, O man of God, the King hath commanded [that] thou come downe.

10 But Eliiah answered, & said to † captaine ouer the fiftie, If that I be a ma of God, let fyre come downe from the heauen, and deuoure thee and thy fiftie. & So fyre came downe from the heauen and deuoured him and his fiftie.

11 Againe also he sent vnto him another captaine ouer fiftie, with his fiftie. Who spake, and said vnto him, O man of God, thus the King commandeth, Come downe quickly.

12 But Eliiah answered & said vnto them, If I be a man of God, let fyre come downe from the heauen, and deuoure thee & thy fiftie. So fyre came downe from the heauen, and deuoured him and his fiftie.

13 ¶ Yet againe he sent the third captaine ouer fiftie with his fiftie. And the third captaine ouer fiftie went vp & came, & fel on his knees before Eliiah, and besoght him and said vnto him, O man of God, I pray thee, let my life and the life of these thy fiftie

CHAP. II.

9 Eliáh deuoured the waters with his cloke. 10 He is taken vp into heauen. 11 Elisha taketh his cloke and deu-oureth Iordan. 12 The bitter and venomous waters are healed. 13 The children that mocke Elisha, are rent in pieces with beares.

1 And when the Lord wolde take vp Eliáh into heauen by a whirle wind, Eliáh went with Elisha from Gilgal.

2 Then Eliáh said vnto Elisha, Tary here, I pray thee: for the Lord hath sent me to Beth-el. But Elisha said, As the Lord li-ueth, & as thy soule liueth, I wil not leaue thee. So they came downe to Beth-el.

3 And the children of the Prophetes that were at Beth-el, came out to Elisha, & said vnto him, Knowest thou that the Lord wil take thy master from thine head this day?
And he said, Yea, I knowe it: holde ye your peace.

4 Again Eliáh said vnto him, Elisha, tary here, I pray thee: for the Lord hath sent me to Iericho. But he said, As the Lord li-ueth, & as thy soule liueth, I wil not leaue thee. So they came to Iericho.

5 And the children of the Prophetes that were at Iericho, came to Elisha, and said vnto him, Knowest thou, that the Lord wil take thy master from thine head this day? And he said, Yea, I knowe it: holde ye your peace.

6 Moreover Eliáh said vnto him, Tary, I pray thee, here: for the Lord hath sent me to Iordan. But he said, As the Lord liueth, & as thy soule liueth, I wil not leaue thee.

So they went bothe [together.]

7 And fiftie men of the sonnes of the Prophetes went and stode on the other side afarre of, and they two stode by Iordan.

8 ¶ Then Eliáh toke his cloke, and wrapt it together, and smote the waters, & they were deuided hether and thether, & they twaine went ouer on the drye land.

9 Now when they were passed ouer, Eliáh said vnto Elisha, Aske what I shal do for thee, before I be taken from thee. And Elisha said, I pray thee, Let thy Spirit be double vpon me.

10 And he said, Thou hast asked an hard thing: [yet] if thou se me when I am taken from thee, thou shalt haue it so: and if not,
it shal not be.

11 And as they went walking and talking, beholde, there appeared a chariot of fire, and horses of fire, and did separate them twaine. So Eliáh went vp by a whirle-winde into heauen.

12 And Elisha sawe it, and he cryed, My father, my father, the chariot of Israel, and the horsemen thereof: & he sawe him no more: and he toke his [owne] clothes, and rent them in two pieces.

13 ¶ He toke vp also the cloke of Eliáh that fel from him, and returned, and stode by the banke of Iordan.

14 After, he toke the cloke of Eliáh, that fel from him, and smote the waters, and said, Where is the Lord God of Eliáh, and he him selfe? Again also he smote the waters, and they were separated this waye and that waye: and Elisha went ouer.

15 And when the children of the Prophetes, which were at Iericho, sawe him on the other side, they said, The Spirit of Eliáh doeth rest on Elisha: and they came to mete him, & fel to the ground before him.

16 And said vnto him, Beholde now, there be with thy seruants fiftie strong men: let them go, we pray thee, and seke thy master, if so be the Spirit of the Lord hath taken him vp: and cast him vpon some mountaine, or into some valley. But he said, Ye shal not send.

17 Yet they were instant vpon him, till he was ashamed: wherefore he said, Send. So they sent fiftie men, which sought thre day-es, but founde him nor.

18 Therefore they returned to him, (for he carried at Iericho) and he said vnto them, Did not I say vnto you, Go nor?

21 And he went vnto the spring of the waters, and cast there the salt, and said, Thus saith the Lord, I haue healed this water: death shal no more come thereof, neither barrennes [to the grounde].

22 So the waters were healed vntil this day, according to the worde of Elisha which he had spoken.

23 ¶ And he wet vp from thence vnto Beth-el. And as he was going vp the waye, litle children came out of the citie, and mocked him, & said vnto him, Come vp, thou belde head, come vp, thou belde head.

24 And he turned backe, and looked on them, & ^a cursed them in the Name of the Lord. And two beares came out of the forest, & tare in picces two and fourtie children of them.

CHAP. III.

1 The reigne of Iehoram. 6 He and Iehoshaphat go to warre against Moab, which rebelled. 13 Elisha repro- ueth him. 17 And giueth their hoste water. 24 The Moabites are ouercome. 27 Their King sacrificeth his sonne.

NOW Iehoram the sonne of Ahab began to reigne ouer Israel in Samaria, the ^a eighteenth yere of Iehoshaphat King of Iudah, and reigned twelue yeres.

2 And he wrought euil in the sight of the Lord, but not like his father nor like his mother: for he toke away the image of Baal that his father had made.

3 Neuertheles, he cleaued vnto ^b the sinnes of Ieroboam, the sonne of Nebat, who made Israel to sinne, [&c.] departed not therefro.

4 ¶ Then ^c Mesha King of Moab had store of shepe, and redred vnto the King of Israel an hundredth thousand lambes, and an hundredth thousand rams with the woll.

5 But when Ahab was deade, the King of Moab rebelled against the King of Israel.

6 Therefore King Iehoram went out of Samaria the same season, and nombred all Israel.

7 And went, and sent to Iehoshaphat King of Iudah, saying, The King of Moab hath rebelled against me: wilt thou go with me to battel against Moab? And he answered, I wil go vp: [for] I am, as thou art, my people, as thy people, [&c.] mine horses as thine horses.

8 Then said he, What way shal we go vp? And he answered, The way of the wilderness of Edom.

9 ¶ So went the King of Israel, & the King of Iudah, and the ^e King of Edom, and when they had compassed the way seuen daies, they had no water for the hoste, nor for the cattel that [†] followed them.

10 Therefore the King of Israel said, Alas, that [†] Lord hath called these thre Kings, to giue them into the hand of Moab.

11 But Iehoshaphat said, Is there not here a Prophet of the Lord, that we may inquire of the Lord by him? And one of the King of Israels seruants answered, & said, Here is Elisha [†] sonne of Shaphat, which [†] powered water on the hands of Elisha.

12 Then Iehoshaphat said, ^g The worde of the Lord is with him. Therefore the King of Israel, and Iehoshaphat, and the King of Edom went downe to him.

13 And Elisha said vnto the King of Israel, ^h What haue I to do with thee? Get thee to the Prophetes of thy father and to the Prophetes of thy mother. And the King of Israel said vnto him, ⁱ Naye: for the Lord hath called these thre Kings, to giue them into the hand of Moab.

14 Then Elisha said, As the Lord of hostes liueth, in whose sight I stand, if it were not that I regarde the presence of Iehoshaphat the King of Iudah, I wolde not haue looked towards thee, nor sene thee.

15 But now bring me a minstrel. And when the minstrel played, the hand of the Lord came vpon him.

16 And he said, Thus saith the Lord, Make this valley full of dyches.

17 For thus saith the Lord, Ye shal neither se winde nor se raine, yet the valley shal be filled with water, that ye may drinke, [both] ye & your cattel, & your beastes.

18 But this is a ^m final thing in the sight of the Lord: for he wil giue Moab into your hand.

19 And ye shal smite euerie strong towne and euerie chief citie, and shal sell euerie sayre tre, and shal stop all the fountaines of water, and ^a marre euerie good field with stones.

20 And in the morning when the meat offering was offered, behold, there came water by the way of Edom: and the countrey was filled with water.

21 And when all the Moabites heard that the Kings were come vp to fight against them, they gathered all that was able to put on harness, and vpwarde, and stode in [their] border.

23 And they said, ° This is blood: the Kings are surely slayne, and one hath the smitten another: now therefore, Moab, to the spoile.

24 And when they came to the hoste of Israel, the Israelites arose vp, and smote the Moabites, so that they fled before them, but they pursued them, and smote Moab.

25 And they destroyed the cities: and on all the good field euery man cast his stone, and filled them, and they stoppe all the fountaines of water, and felled all good trees: onely in Kir-haraseh left they the stones thereof: howbeit they went about it with slings and smote it.

26 And when the King of Moab sawe that the battell was to sore for him, he toke with him seuen hundred men that drew the sword to breake through vnto the King of Edom: but they coulde not.

2 Then Elisha said vnto her, What shal I do for thee: tel me, what hast thou at home? And she said, Thine handmayd hathe nothing at home, saue a pytcher of oyle.

3 And he said, Go, and borrowe the vessels abroad of all thy neighbours, empty vessels, [and] spare not.

4 And when thou art come in, thou shalt shut the dore vpon thee & vpon thy sonnes, and poure out into all those vessels and set aside those that are full.

5 So she departed from him, and shut the dore vpon her, and vpon her sonnes. And they brought to her, and she poured out.

6 And when the vessels were full, she said vnto her sonne, Bring me yet a vessel. And he said vnto her, There is no more vessels.

And the oyle ceased.

7 Then she came & tolde the man of God. And he said, Go, [and] sel the oyle, and pay them that thou art in det vnto, and liue thou and thy children of the rest.

8 ¶ And on a time Elisha came to Shunem, & there a woman of great estimation constrained him to eat bread: and as he passed by, he turned in thether to eat bread.

9 And she said vnto her housband, Beholde, I knowe now, that this is an holy man of God that passeth by vs continually.

10 Let vs make him a litle chamber, I pray thee, with walles, and let vs set him there a bed, and a table, and a stole, and a candlesticke, that he may turne in thether when he commeth to vs.

13 Then he said vnto him, Say vnto her now, Beholde, thou hast had all this great care for vs, what shal we do for thee? Is there any thing to be spokē for thee to the King or to the captaine of the hoste? And she answered, I dwell among mine owne people.

14 Againe he said, What is then to be done for her? Then Gehazi answered, In dede she hathe no sonne, and her housband is olde.

15 The said he, Call her. And he called her, and she stode in the dore.

16 And he said, At this time appointed, according to time of life, thou shalt embrace a sonne. And she said, Oh my lord, thou man of God, do not lye vnto thine handmaid.

17 So the woman conceiued, & bare a sonne at that same season, according to the time of life, that Elisha had said vnto her.

21 Then she went vp, and layed him on the bed of the man of God, and shut the dore vpon him, and went out.

With him ten talents of siluer, & six thousand [pieces] of golde, and ten change of raiments,

6 And brought the letter to the King of Israel to this effect, Now when this letter is come vnto thee, vnderstand, that I haue sent thee Naamán my seruant, that thou mayest heale him of his leprosie.

7 And when the King of Israel had red the letter, he rent his clothes, and said, Am I God, to kill and to giue life, that he doeth send to me, that I shoulde heale a man from his leprosie? wherefore confidre, I pray you, and se how he seeketh a quarel against me.

8 But when Elishá the man of God had heard that the King of Israel had rent his clothes, he sent vnto the King, saying, Wherefore hast thou rent thy clothes? Let him come now to me, & he shal know, that there is a Prophet in Israel.

9 ¶ Then Naamán came with his horses, & with his charrets, and stode at the dore of the house of Elishá.

10 And Elishá sent a messenger vnto him, saying, Go and wash thee in Iordén seven times, and thy flesh shal come againe to thee, and thou shalt be cleansed.

11 But Naamán was wroth & went away, and said, Beholde, I thought with my selfe, He wil surely come out, and stand, & call on the Name of the Lord his God, & put his hand on the place, and heale the leprosie.

12 Are not Abaná & Pharpar riuers of Damascus better then all the waters of Israel? may I not wash me in them, and be cleansed? So he turned, and departed in displeasure.

13 But his seruants came, and spake vnto him, & said, Father, [if] the Prophet had commanded thee a great thing, woldest thou not haue done it: how muche rather then, when he saith to thee, Wash, and be cleane?

14 Then went he downe, and washed him selfe seven times in Iordén, according to the saying of the man of God: & his flesh came againe, like vnto the flesh of a litle childe, and he was cleane.

15 ¶ And he turned againe to the man of God, he, and all his companie, and came & stode before him, & said, Beholde, now I know that [there is] no God in all the worlde, but in Israel: now therefore, I pray thee, take a reward of thy seruant.

16 But he said, As the Lord liueth (before whome I stand) I wil not receiue it. And he wolde haue constrained him to receiue it, but he refused.

17 Moreover Naamán said, Shal there not be giuen to thy seruant two mules loades of this earth? for thy seruant wil henceforth offer neither burnt sacrifice, nor offering vnto any other god, saue vnto the Lord.

18 Herein the Lord be merciful vnto thy seruant, that when my master goeth into the house of Rimmon, to worship there, and leaneth on mine hand, & I bowe my selfe in the house of Rimmon: when I do bowe downe, [I say] in the house of Rimmon, the Lord be merciful vnto thy seruant in this point.

19 Vnto whome he said, * Go in peace. So he departed from him about halfe a dayes iourney of grounde.

20 And Gehazí the seruant of Elishá the man of God said, Beholde, my master hath spared this Aramite Naamán, receiuing not those things at his hand that he brought: as the Lord liueth, I wil run after him, and take somewhat of him.

21 So Gehazí followed speedely after Naamán. And when Naamán sawe him running after him, he light downe from the charet to mete him, and said, Is all wel?

22 And he answered, All is wel: my master hath sent me, saying, Beholde, there he come to me, euen now from mount Ephraim two yong men of the children of the Prophetes: giue them, I pray thee, a talent of siluer, & two change of garments.

23 And Naamán said, Yea, take two talents: and he compelled him, & bounde two talents of siluer in two bags, with two change of garments, and gaue them vnto two of his seruants, that they might beare them before him.

24 And when he came to the towre, he toke them out of their hands, and layed them in the house, & sent away the men: and they departed.

25 ¶ Then he went in, & stode before his master. And Elishá said vnto him. Whence comest thou, Gehazí? And he said, Thy seruant went no whether.

26 But he said vnto him, Went not mine heart [with thee] when the man turned againe from his charet to meete thee? Is this a time to take money, and to receiue garments, and oliues, & vineyardes, and shepe, and oxen, and men seruants, and maid seruants?

27 The leprosie therefore of Naamán shal cleaue vnto thee, & p to thy seed for euer. And he went out from his presence a lepre [white] as snowe.

AND the children of the Prophetes said vnto Elishá, Beholde, we pray thee, the place where we dwel with thee, is to litle for vs.

Let vs now go to Iordén, that we may take thence euerie man a beame, & make vs a place to dwel in. And he answered, Go.

And one said, Vouchsafe, I pray thee, to go with thy seruants. And he answered, I wil go.

So he went with them, and when they came to Iordén, they cut downe wood.

And as one was hewing downe a tree, the tyron fel into the water: then he cryed, & said, Alas, master, it was but borrowed.

And the man of God said, Where fel it? And he shewed him the place. Then he cut downe [a piece] of wood, & cast in the ther, and he caused the yron to swimme.

Then he said, Take it vp to thee. And he stretched out his hand, and toke it.

Then the King of Arám warred against Israel and toke counsel with his seruants, and said, In suche and suche a place [shal be] my campe.

Therefore the man of God sent vnto the King of Israel, saying, Beware thou go not ouer to suche a place: for there the Aramites are come downe.

So the King of Israel sent to the place which the man of God tolde him, & warned him of, and saved him selfe from thence, not once, nor twise.

And the heart of the King of Arám was troubled for this thing: therefore he called his seruants and said vnto them, Wil ye not shewe me, which of vs [bewraicheth our counsell] to the King of Israel?

Then one of his seruants said, None, my lord, o King, but Elishá the Prophet that is in Israel, telleth the King of Israel, [eu] the wordes that thou speakest in thy priuie chamber.

And he said, Go, and espie where he is, that I may send and fetch him. And one tolde him, saying, Beholde, [he is] in Dothan.

So he sent thether horses, and charets, and a mightie hoste: and they came by night, and compassed the citie.

And when the seruant of the man of God arose early to go out, beholde, an hoste compassed the citie with horses and charets. Then his seruant said vnto him, Alas, master, how shal we do?

And he answered, Feare not: for they that be with vs, are mo then they that be with them.

Then Elishá prayed, & said, Lord, I beseeche thee, open his eyes, that he may see. And the Lord opened the eyes of the seruant, & he looked, & beholde, the mountaine was ful of horses and charets of fyre rount about Elishá.

So they came downe to him, but Elishá prayed vnto the Lord, & said, Smite this people, I pray thee, with blindness. And he smote them with blindness, according to the worde of Elishá.

And Elishá said vnto them, This is not the way, nether is this the citie: followe me, and I will lead you to the man whome ye seke. But he led them to Samaria.

And when they were come to Samaria, Elishá said, Lord, open their eyes that they may see. And the Lord opened their eyes, and they sawe, and beholde, [they were] in the middes of Samaria.

And the King of Israel said vnto Elishá when he sawe them, My father, shal I smite them, shal I smite them?

And he answered, Thou shalt not smite them: doest thou not smite them that thou hast taken with thy sworde, and with thy bowe? [but] set bread & water before them, that they may eat & drinke and go to their master.

And he made great preparation for them: and when they had eaten and dronken, he sent them away: and they went to their master. So the bands of Arám came no more into the land of Israel.

But afterwarde Ben-hadád King of Arám gathered all his hoste, and went vp & besieged Samaria.

So there was a great famine in Samaria: for lo, they besieged it vntil an asse head was at foure score [pieces] of siluer, and the fourth parte of a kob of doves a doung a fue [pieces] of siluer.

And as the King of Israel was going vpon the wall, there cryed a woman vnto him, saying, Helpe, my lord, o King.

And he said, [Seing] the Lord doeth not succour thee, how shulde I helpe thee with the barne, or with the wine presse?

Also the King said vnto her, What aileth thee? And she answered, This woman said vnto me, Giue thy sonne, that we may eat him to day, & we wil eat my sonne to morowe.

So we sod my sonne, and did eat him: and I said to her the day after, Giue thy sonne, that we may eat him, but she hath bid her sonne.

CHAP. VII.

Elisha prophesied plentie of vitalls and other things to Samaria. 6 The Syrians runne away, and haue no man following them. 17 The prince that wolde not beleue the worde of Elisha is troden to death.

Then Elisha said, Heare ye the worde of the Lord: Thus saith the Lord, Tomorrow this time a measure of fine flour [shalbe] solde for a shekel, and two measures of barley for a shekel in the gate of Samaria.

Then a prince, on whose hand the King leaned, answered the man of God, and said, Though the Lord wolde make windows in the heauen, colde this thing come to passe? And he said, Beholde, thou shalt se it with thine eyes, but thou shalt not eat thereof.

Now there were foure leprouse men at the entering in of the gate: and they said one to another, Why sit we here vntill we dye?

4 If we say we wil entre into the citie, the famine is in the citie, & we shal dye there: and if we sit here, we dye also. Now therefore come, and let vs fall into the campe of the Aramites: if they saue our liues, we shal liue: & if they kil vs, we are but dead.

5 So they arose vp in the twilight, to go to the campe of the Aramites: & when they were come to the ymooste parte of the campe of the Aramites, lo, there was no man there.

6 For the Lord had caused the campe of the Aramites to heare a noise of charres & a noise of horses, and a noise of a great armie, so that they said one to another, Beholde, the King of Israel hath hired against vs the Kings of the Hittites, & the Kings of the Egyptians to come vpon vs.

7 Wherefore they arose, and fled in the twilight, & left their tentes & their horses, & their asses, [euen] the campe as it was, and fled for their liues.

8 And when these lepers came to the ymoost part of the campe, they entred into one tent, and did eat and drinke, & caried thence siluer and golde, and raiment, and went and hid it: after they returned, and entred into another tent, & caried thence [also], and went, & hid it.

9 Then said one to another, We do not wel: this day is a day of good tidings, and we holde our peace. if we tary til day light, some T richief wil come vpon vs. Now therefore come, let vs go, & tel the Kings householde.

10 So they came, & called vnto the porters of the citie, and tolde them, saying, We came to the campe of the Aramites, and lo, there was no man there, nether voyce of man, but horses tyed and asses tyed: and the tentes [are] as they were.

11 And the porters cryed and declared to the Kings house within.

12 Then the King arose in the night, and said vnto his seruants, I wil shewe you now, what the Aramites haue done vnto vs. They knowe that we are assaillied, therefore they are gone out of the campe to hide them selues in the field, saying, When thei come out of the citie, we shal catche them aliuie, and get into the citie.

13 And one of his seruants answered, and said, Let men take now fue of the horses remaine, and are left in the [citie] (beholde, they are euē as all the multitude of Israel that are left therein: beholde, [I say], they are as the multitude of the Israelites that are consumed) & we wil send to se.

14 So they toke two charers of horses, & the King sent after the hoste of the Aramites, saying, Go and se.

15 And they went after them vnto Iordan, and lo, all the way was full of clothes and vessels which the Aramites had cast from them in their haste: & the messengers returned, and tolde the King.

16 Then the people went out and spoiled the campe of the Aramites: so a measure of fine flour was at a shekel, & two measures of barley at a shekel according to the worde of the Lord.

17 And the King gaue the prince (on whose hand he leaned) the charge of the gate, & the people trode vpon him in the gate, and he dyed, as the man of God had said, which spake it, when the King came downe to him.

18 And it came to passe, as the man of God

20 And so it came vnto him: for the people trode vpon him in the gate, and he dyed.

* Chap. 4. 35.

¶ Where thou canst finde a commodious place to dwell, where as is plenty.

¶ That is to say, complaining on the which had taken her possessions while she was absent.

¶ Gods wonderfull providence appeareth in this that he caused the King to be desirous to hear of him, whome before he contemned, & also hereby prepared the entrance to this poore widowes suite.

¶ The King caused that to be iustly restored which was wrongfully holden from her.

1 Then spake Elisha vnto the woman, whose sonne he had restored to life, saying, Vp and go, thou and thine house, and sojourn where thou canst sojourn: for the Lord hath called for a famine, & it cometh also vpon the land seuen yeres.

2 And the woman arose, and did after the saying of the man of God, & went both she & her household & sojourned in the land of the Philistims seuen yeres.

3 And at the seuen yeres end, the woman returned out of the land of the Philistims and went out to call vpon the King for her house and for her land.

4 And the King talked with Gehazi the seruant of the man of God, saying, Tel me, I pray thee, all the great acts, that Elisha hath done.

5 And as he tolde the King, how he had restored one dead to life, beholde, the woman, whose sonne he had raised to life, called vpon the King for her house & for her land. Then Gehazi said, My lord, O King, this is the woman, and this is her sonne, whome Elisha restored to life.

6 And when the King asked the woman, she tolde him: so the King appointed her an Eunuche, saying, Restore thou all that are hers, and all the fruits of her landes since the day she left the land, euen vntil this time.

7 Then Elisha came to Damascus, & Benhadad the King of Aram was sicke: & one tolde him, saying, The man of God is come hether.

8 And the King said vnto Hazael, Take a present in thine hand, and go mete the man of God, that thou maist inquite of the Lord by him, saying, Shall I recover of this disease?

9 So Hazael went to mete him, and toke

the present in his hand, & of euen good thing of Damascus, [euen] the burden of fourty camels, and came and stode before him, and said, Thy sonne Benhadad King of Aram hath sent me to thee, saying, Shall I recover of this disease?

10 And Elisha said to him, Go, & say vnto him, Thou shalt recover: howbeit the Lord hath shewed me, that he shall surely dye.

11 And he looked vpon him stedfastly til [Hazael] was ashamed, & the man of God wept.

12 And Hazael said, Why wepeth my lord? And he answered, Because I knowe the euil that thou shalt do vnto the children of Israel: [for] their strong cities shalt thou set on fyre, & their yong men shalt thou slay with the sword, and shalt dash their infants [against the stones], & rent in pieces their women with child.

13 Then Hazael said, What is thy seruant a dog, that I shulde do this great thing? And Elisha answered, The Lord hath shewed me, that thou shalt be King of Aram.

14 So he departed from Elisha, & came to his master, who said to him, What said Elisha to thee? And he answered, He tolde me that thou shouldest recover.

15 And on the morow he toke a thicke cloth and dipt it in water, and spread it on his face, and he dyed: & Hazael reigned in his steade.

16 Now in the fift yere of Ioram the sonne of Ahab King of Israel, and of Jehoahaphat King of Iudah, Jehoahaz the sonne of Jehoahaphat King of Iudah began to reigne.

17 He was two and thirtie yere olde, when he began to reigne: and he reigned eight yere in Ierusalem.

18 And he walked in the waies of the Kings of Israel, as did the house of Ahab: for the daughter of Ahab was his wife, and he did euil in the sight of the Lord.

19 Yet the Lord wolde not destroy Iudah, for Dauid his seruants sake, as he had promised him to giue him a light [&] to his children for euer.

20 In those dayes Edom rebelled from vnder the hand of Iudah, & made a King ouer them selues.

21 Therefore Ioram went to Zair, and all his charrets with him & he arose by night, & smote the Edomites which were about him with the captaines of the charrets, and the people fled into their tentes.

22 So Edom rebelled from vnder the hand of Iudah vnto this day. then Libnah rebelled at that same time.

23 Concerning the rest of the actes of Ioram and all that he did, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Iudah?

24 And Ioram slept with his fathers, & was buried with his fathers in the citie of Dauid. And * Ahaziah his sonne reigned in his steade.

25 ¶ In the twelfth yere of Ioram the sonne of Ahab King of Israel did Ahaziah the sonne of Iehoram King of Iudah begin to reigne.

26 ¶ Two and twentie yere olde was Ahaziah when he began to reigne, & he reigned one yere in Ierusalem, & his mothers name [was] Athaliah the daughter of Omri King of Israel.

27 And he walked in the way of the house of Ahab, and did euil in the sight of the Lord, like the house of Ahab: for he was the sonne in lawe of the house of Ahab.

28 And he went with Ioram the sonne of Ahab to warre against Hazael King of Aram in Ramoth Gilead, and the Aramites smote Ioram.

29 And King Ioram returned to be healed in Izreel of the wounds which the Aramites had giuen him at Ramah, when he fought against Hazael King of Aram. And Ahaziah the sonne of Iehoram King of Iudah went downe to se Ioram the sonne of Ahab in Izreel, because he was sieke.

Iehu is made King of Israel. 34. And killeth Iehoram & King thereof. 37. And Ahaziah, otherwise called Ochaziah, & King of Iudah. 33. And causeth Iezabel to be cast downe out of a window, and the dogs did eat her.

THEN Elishah the Prophet called one of the children of the Prophetes, and said vnto him, * Girde thy loynes, and take this boxe of oyle in thine hand, and get thee to Ramoth Gilead.

2 And when thou comest thither, looke where [is] Iehu the sonne of Iehoshaphat, the sonne of Nimshi, and go, & make him arise vp from among his brethren, & lead him to a secret chamber.

3 Then take the boxe of oyle, and powre it on his head, & say, Thus sayeth the Lord, I haue anointed thee for King ouer Israel, then open the dore, and flee without amie tarying.

4 So the seruant of the Prophet gate him to Ramoth Gilead.

5 And when he came in, beholde, the capitaines of the armie were sitting. And he said, I haue a message to thee, o capitaine. And Iehu said, Vnto which of all vs? And he answered, To thee, o capitaine.

6 And he arose, and went into the house, and he powred the oyle on his head, and said vnto him, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, I haue anointed thee for King ouer the people of the Lord, [euē] ouer Israel.

7 And thou shalt smite the house of Ahab thy master, that I may auenge the blood of my seruants the Prophetes, & the blood of all the seruants of the Lord of the hand of Iezabel.

8 For the whole house of Ahab shall be destroyed: and * I wil cut off from Ahab, him that maketh water against the wall, aswel him that is shut vp, as him that is left in Israel.

9 And I wil make the house of Ahab like the house of Ieroboam the sonne of Nebat, & like the house of Baasha the sonne of Ahinab.

10 And the dogs shal eat Iezabel in the field of Izreel, and there shal be none to burye her. And he opened the dore, and fled.

11 ¶ Then Iehu came out to the seruants of his lord. And [one] said vnto him, Is all wel? wherefore came this mad fellowe to thee? And he said vnto them, Ye know the man, and what his talke was.

12 And they said, It is false, tel vs it now. Then he said, Thus and thus spake he to me, saying, Thus saith the Lord, I haue anointed thee for King ouer Israel.

13 Then they made haste, and toke euerie man his garment, and put it vnder him on the top of the staires, and blew the trumpet, saying, Iehu is King.

14 So Iehu the sonne of Iehoshaphat the sonne of Nimshi conspired against Ioram (Now Ioram kept Ramoth Gilead, he & all Israel, because of Hazael King of Aram).

15 And * King Ioram returned to be healed in Izreel of the woundes, which the Aramites had giuen him, when he fought with Hazael King of Aram. And Iehu said, If it be your mindes, let no man departe and escape out of the citie, to go & tel in Izreel.

16 So Iehu gate vp into a charet, and went to Izreel: for Ioram laye there, and Ahaziah King of Iudah was come downe to se Ioram.

17 And the watchman that stode in the towre in Izreel, spied the companie of Iehu as he came, and said, I se a companie. And Iehoram said, Take a horseman and send to meet them, that he may say, Is it peace?

18 So there went one on horsebacke to me-

† 1. Kin. 21, 29. By this place it is evident, that Iezébel caused both Nabóth & his sonnes to be put to death: that Aháb might enjoye his vineyard more quietly: for els his children might have claimed possession.

26 * Surely I have sene yesterday the blood of Nabóth, and the blood of his sonnes said the Lord, and I wil render it thee in this field, saith the Lord: now therefore take [and] cast him in the field, according to the worde of the Lord.

27 But when Ahaziáh the King of Iudáh sawe this, he fled by the way of the garden house: and Iehú pursued after him, & said, Smite him also in the charet: [and] thei smote him in the going vp to Gur, which is by Ibleám. And he fled to Megiddó, and there dyed.

† After that he was wounded in Samaria he fled to Megiddó, which was a citie in Iudáh. That is, eleven whole yeres: for Chap. 16, 29. before, when he said that he began to reigne the twelfth yere of Iehorám, he taketh parte of the yere for the whole.

28 And his seruants caryed him in a charet to Ierusalém, & buryed him in his sepulchre with his fathers in the citie of David.

29 And in the eleuenth yere of Ioram the sonne of Aháb, began Ahaziáh to reigne over Iudáh.

30 And when Iehú was come to Izreél, Ie-zébel heard of it, and painted her face, and tired her head, & looked out at a wyndow.

31 And as Iehú entred at the gate, she said, Had^m Zimrí peace, which slewe his master.

32 And he lift vp his eyes to the window, and said, Who is on my side, who? Then two [or] thre of her Eunuches looked vnto him.

33 And he said, Cast her downe: and they cast her downe, and he sprinkled of her blood vpon the wall, and vpon the horses: and he trode her vnder fote.

34 And when he was come in, he did eat & drinke, and said, Visite now yonder cursed woman, and bury her: for she is a Kings daughter.

35 And they went to bury her, but they founde no more of her then the skul & the fete, and the palmes of her hands.

36 Wherefore they came againe & tolde him. And he said, This is the worde of the Lord, which he spake by his seruāt Eliáh the Tishbite, saying, * In the field of Izreél shal the dogs eat the flesh of Iezébel.

37 And the carkeis of Iezébel shalbe as doung vpon the grounde in the field of Izreél, so that none shal say, This is Iezébel.

* A Háb had now seuentie sonnes in Samaria. And Iehú wrote letters, & sent to Samaria vnto the rulers of Izreél, [and] to the Elders, and to the bringers vp of Ahabs children, to this effect,

5 And he that was gouernour of [Ahábs] house, and he that ruled the citie, and the Elders, and the bringers vp of the childre sent to Iehú, saying, We are thy seruants, and wil do all that thou shalt byd vs: we wil make no King: do what semeth good to thee.

masters sonnes, and come to me to Izreél by tomorowe this time. (Now the Kings sonnes, [euen] seuentie persones [were] with the great men of the citie, which brought them vp)

7 And when the letter came to them, they toke the Kings sonnes, and slewe the seuentie persones, and laied their heades in baskets, and sent them vnto him to Izreél.

8 ¶ Then there came a messenger & tolde him, saying, Thei haue brought the heades of the Kings sonnes. And he said, Let the lay them on two heapes at the entring in of the gate vntil the morning.

9 And when it was day, he went out, and stode & said to all the people, Ye be^d righteous: beholde, I conspired against my master, & slewe him: but who slewe all these?

10 Knowe now that there shal fall vnto the earth nothing of the worde of the Lord, which the Lord spake concerning the house of Aháb: for the Lord hath brought to passe the things that he spake by his seruant Eliáh.

11 So Ichú slewe all that remayned of the house of Aháb in Izreél, and all that were great with him, and his familiars and his priests, so that he let none of his remayne.

12 ¶ And he arose, and departed & came to Samaria. [And] as Ichú was in the way by an house where the shepherdes did there, 13 He met with the brethren of Ahaziáh King of Iudáh and said, Who are ye? And thei answered, We are the brethren of Ahaziáh, & go downe to salute the children of the King & the children of the quene.

14 And he said, Take them aliue. And thei toke them aliue, & slewe them at the well beside the house where the shepe are shorne, [euen] two and fourtie men, & he left not one of them.

15 ¶ And when he was departed thence, he met with Ichonadáb the sonne of Recháb comming to mete him, and he s^t blessed him, and said to him, Is thine heart vp-right, as mine heart is toward thine? And Ichonadáb answered, Yea, douteles. [The] giue methine hand. And when he had giuen him his hand, he toke him vnto him into the charet.

16 And he said, Come with me, and se the zeale that I haue for the Lord: so they made him ride in his charet.

17 And when he came to Samaria, he slewe all that remained vnto Aháb in Samaria, till he had destroyed him, according to the worde of the Lord, which he spake to E-liáh.

18 Then Ichú assembled all the people, & said vnto them, Aháb serued Baal a litle, [but] Ichú shal serue him muche more.

19 Now therefore call vnto me all the prophetes of Baál, all his seruants, and all his priests, and let not a man be lacking: for I haue a great sacrifice for Baál: whosoever is lacking, he shal not liue. But Ichú did it by a subtiltie to destroye the seruants of Baál.

20 And Ichú said, ¶ Proclaime a solemne assemblie for Baál. And they proclaimed it.

21 So Ichú sent vnto all Israël, & all the seruants of Baál came, & there was not a man left that came not. And thei came into the house of Baál, & the house of Baál was full from end to end.

22 Then he said vnto him that had the charge of the vestrie, Bring forth the vestments for all the seruants of Baál. And he brought them out vestments.

23 And when Ichú went, & Ichonadáb the sonne of Recháb into the house of Baál, he said vnto the seruants of Baál, Search diligently, & looke, lest there be here with you [any] of the seruants of the Lord, but the seruants of Baál onely.

24 And when thei wēt in to make sacrifice & burnt offering, Ichú appointed fourescore men without, & said, If anie of the men whome I haue brought into your hands, escape, this soule [shal be] for his soule.

25 And when he had made an end of the burnt offering, Ichú said to the garde, and to the captaines, Go in, slaye them. let not a man come out. And they smote them with the edge of the sworde. And the garde, and the captaines cast them out, and went vnto the citie, [where was] the temple of Baál.

26 And they brought out the images of the temple of Baál, and burnt them.

27 And they destroyed the image of Baál, and threwe downe the house of Baál, and made a iakes of it vnto this day.

28 So Ichú destroyed Baal out of Israël.

29 But from the finnes of Ieroboám the sonne of Nebát which made Israël to sinne, Ichú departed not from them, [nether from] the golden calves that were in Beth-él and that were in Dan.

30 ¶ And the Lord said vnto Ichú, Because thou hast diligently executed that which was right in mine eyes, [&] hast done vnto the house of Aháb according to all things that were in mine heart, [therefore] shal thy sonnes vnto the fourth [generation] sit on the throne of Israël.

Athaliah puttech to death all the Kings sonnes, except Iosiah the sonne of Ochoziah. 4 Iosiah is appointed King. 16 Jehoiada causeth Athaliah to be slaine. 17 He maketh a couenant betwene God and the people. 18 Baal and his priests are destroyed.

Then Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah when she sawe that her sonne was dead, she arose, & destroyed all the Kings fede.

But Jehoshéba the daughter of King Ioram, [sister to Ahaziah] toke Iosiah the sonne of Ahaziah, & stalle him from among the Kings sonnes that shulde be slaine, [bothe] him & his nource, [keeping them] in the bed chamber, and they hid him from Athaliah, so that he was not slaine.

And he was with her hid in the house of the Lord six yere: & Athaliah did reigne ouer the land.

And the seuenth yere Jehoiadá sent and toke the captaines ouer hundreths, with [other] captaines, and them of the garde, and caused them to come vnto him into the house of the Lord, & made a couenant with them, & toke an othe of them in the house of the Lord, & shewed them the Kings sonne.

And he commanded them, saying, This is it that ye must do, The third parte of you, that cometh on the Sabbath, shal warder towarde the Kings house.

And [another] third parte in the gate of Sur: and [another] third parte in the gate behinde them of the garde: & ye shal kepe watche in the house of Massah.

And two partes of you, [that is,] all that go out on the Sabbath day, shal kepe the watche of the house of the Lord about the King.

8 And ye shal compass the King round about, euerie man with his weapon in his hand, & whosoever commeth within the ranges, let him be slaine: be you with the King, as he goeth out and in.

9 And the captaines of the hundreths did according to all that Jehoiadá the Priest commanded, & they toke euerie man his men that entred in [to their charge] on the Sabbath with them that went out of it on the Sabbath, & came to Jehoiadá the Priest.

10 And the Priest gaue to the captaines of hundreths the speares and the shields that were King Dauids, and were in the house of the Lord.

11 And the garde stode euerie man with his weapon in his hand, from the right side of the house to the left side, about the altar & about the house, round about the King.

12 Then he broght out the Kings sonne, and put the crowne vpon him and [gaue him] the Testimonie, & they made him King: also they anointed him, and clapt their hands, and said, God saue the King.

13 And when Athaliah heard the noyse of the running of the people, she came in to the people in the house of the Lord.

14 And whē she looked, beholde, the King stode by a pillar, as the maner was, and the princes & the trumpeters by the King, and all the people of the land reioyced, & blew with trumpets. Then Athaliah rent her clothes, and cryed, Treason, treason.

15 But Jehoiadá the Priest commanded the captaines of the hundreths that had the rule of the hoste, & said vnto them, Haue her forthe tof the ranges, & he that followeth her, let him dye by the sworde: for the Priest had said, Let her not be slaine in the house of the Lord.

16 Then they layed hands on her, and she went by the way, by the which the horses go to the house of the King, and there was she slaine.

17 And Jehoiadá made a couenant betwene the Lord & the King, and the people, that thei shulde be the Lords people: likewise betwene the King and the people.

18 Then all the people of the land went in to the house of Baal, & destroyed it with his altars, & his images brake they downe courageously, and slewe Mattán the priest of Baal before the altars: and the Priest set a garde ouer the house of the Lord.

19 Then he toke the captaines of hundreths and the [other] captaines, and the garde, & all the people of the land: & they broght the King from the house of the Lord, and

CHAP. XII.

Ichoah maketh provision for the repairing of the Temple. 16 He slayeth the King of Syria by a sword which commeth against him. 20 He is killed by two of his servants.

IN the seventh yere of Ichoah he began to reigne, and reigned fourty yeres in Ierusalem, and his mothers name was Zibiah of Beer-sheba.

And Ichoah did that which was good in the sight of the Lord all his time.

Ichoah the Priest taught him.

But the high places were not taken away: for the people offered yet and burnt incense in the high places.

And Ichoah said to the Priests, All the silver of dedicate things that be brought to the house of the Lord, that is, the money of them that are under the course, the money that euery man is set at, and all the money that one offereth willingly, and bringeth into the house of the Lord,

Let the Priests take it to them, euery man of his acquaintance, and they shal repaire the broken places of the house, where so euery anie decaye is founde.

Yee in the thre and twentieth yere of King Ichoah the Priests had not mended that which was decayed in the Temple.

Then King Ichoah called for Ichoiad the Priest, and the other Priests, and said vnto them, Why repaire ye not the ruines of the Temple, now therefore I receiue nomore money of your acquaintance, excepte ye deliuer it to repaire the ruines of the Temple.

So the Priests consented to receiue nomore money of the people, nether to repaire the decayed places of the Temple.

Then Ichoiad the Priest took a chest & bored an hole in the lid of it, and set it beside the altar, on the right side, as euery man cometh into the Temple of the Lord. And the Priests that kept the dore, put therein all the money that was brought into the house of the Lord.

And when they sawe there was much money in the chest, the Kings secretary came vp, & the high Priest, and put it vp after that they had tolde the money that was founde in the house of the Lord:

And they gaue the money made ready into the hands of them that undertooke the worke, and that had the oversight of the house of the Lord: and they payed it out to the carpenters and builders that wrought vpon the house of the Lord.

And to the measons & hewers of stone, and to hew timber and hewed stone, to repaire that was decayed in the house of the Lord, and for all that which was layed out for the reparation of the Temple.

Howbeit there was not made for the house of the Lord bowles of silver, instruments of musike, basons, trumpets, nor any vessels of golde, or vessels of silver, of the money that was brought into the house of the Lord.

But they gaue it to the workemen, which repared therewith the house of the Lord.

Moreover, they rekened not with the men, into whose hands they deliuered that money to be bestowed on workemen: for they dealt faithfully.

The money of the trespass offering and the money of the sinne offerings was not brought into the house of the Lord: for it was the Priests.

Then came vp Hazael King of Aram, and fought against Gath and roke it, and Hazael set his face to go vp to Ierusalem.

And Ichoah King of Iudah took all the hallowed things that Ichoiaphaz, & Iehoram, and Ahaziah, his fathers Kings of Iudah had dedicate, and that he him self had dedicated, and all the golde that was founde in the treasures of the house of the Lord and in the Kings house, and sent it to Hazael King of Aram, and he departed from Ierusalem.

7 He slewe also Iof^e Edóm in the valley of salt ten thousand, & toke the [citie] of Sela by warre, & called the name thereof Ioktheel vnto this day.

8 Then Amaziāh sent messengers to Iehoāsh the sonne of Iehoahāz, sonne of Iehú King of Israel, saying, Come, let vs se one another in the face.

d He was the fourte in descent from Iehu, who reigned according to Gods promise, but in him God began to execute his wrath against the house of Iehu. e Zachariah was the last in Israel, that had the kingdome by succession, save onely Pekahiah the sonne of Menahem who reigned but two yeres. * Chap. 10. 30.

1 IN the seven and twentieth yere of Ieroboam King of Israel, began Azariah sonne of Amaziah King of Iudah to reigne.

2 Sixtene yere old was he, when he was made King, and he reigned two and fiftie yere in Ierusalem: and his mothers name was Iecholiah of Ierusalem.

3 And he did uprightly in the sight of the Lord, according to all that his father Amaziah did.

4 But the hie places were not put away: [for] the people yet offered, and burned incense in the hie places.

5 And the Lord smote the King: and he was a leper vnto the day of his death, and dwelt in an house aparte, and Iotham the Kings sonne governed the house, & iudged the people of the land.

6 Concerning the rest of the actes of Azariah, and all that he did, are they not written in the boke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Iudah?

7 So Azariah slept with his fathers, & they buried him with his fathers in the cite of David, and Iotham his sonne reigned in his steade.

8 ¶ In the eight and thirtieth yere of Azariah King of Iudah did Zachariah the sonne of Ieroboam reigne ouer Israel in Samaria six monethes.

9 And he did euil in the sight of the Lord, as did his fathers: [for] he departed not from the finnes of Ieroboam the sonne of Nebat, which made Israel to sinne.

10 And Shallum the sonne of Iabesh conspired against him, and smote him in the sight of the people, & killed him, & reigned in his steade.

11 Concerning the rest of the actes of Zachariah, beholde, they are written in the boke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel.

12 This was the worde of the Lord, which he spake vnto Iehu, saying, Thy sonnes shal sit on the throne of Israel vnto the fourte [generation] after thee. And it came so to passe.

13 ¶ Shallum the sonne of Iabesh began to reigne in the nine and thirtieth yere of Vzziah King of Iudah: and he reigned the space of a moneth in Samaria.

14 For Menahem the sonne of Gadi went vp from Tirzah, and came to Samaria, & smote Shallum the sonne of Iabesh in Samaria, & slew him, & reigned in his steade.

15 Concerning the rest of the actes of Shallum, and the treason which he wrought, beholde, they are written in the boke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel.

16 ¶ Then Menahem destroyed Tiphshah, and all that were therein, and the coastes thereof from Tirzah, because they opened not to him, and he smote it, and rapt vp all their women with childe.

17 The nine and thirtieth yere of Azariah King of Iudah, began Menahem the sonne of Gadi to reigne ouer Israel, & reigned ten yeres in Samaria.

18 And he did euil in the sight of the Lord, and departed not all his dayes from the sinne of Ieroboam the sonne of Nebat, which made Israel to sinne.

19 ¶ Then Phul the King of Asshur came against the land: & Menahem gaue Phul a thousand talents of siluer, that his hand might be with him, & establish the kingdome in his hand.

20 And Menahem exacted the money in Israel, that all men of substance shulde giue the King of Asshur fifty shekels of siluer a peece: so the King of Asshur returned & taried not there in the land.

21 Concerning the rest of the actes of Menahem, and all that he did, are they not written in the boke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

22 And Menahem slept with his fathers, & Pekahiah his sonne did reigne in his steade.

23 ¶ In the fiftieth yere of Azariah King of Iudah, began Pekahiah the sonne of Menahem to reigne ouer Israel in Samaria, [and reigned] two yere.

24 And he did euil in the sight of the Lord: [for] he departed not from the finnes of Ieroboam the sonne of Nebat, which made Israel to sinne.

25 And Pekah the sonne of Remaliah, his captaine conspired against him, and smote him in Samaria in the place of the Kings palace with Argob and Arieh, and with him fiftie men of the Giliadites: so he killed him, and reigned in his steade.

26 Concerning the rest of the actes of Pekahiah, and all that he did, beholde, they are written in the boke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel.

27 In the two and fiftieth yere of Azariah King of Iudah began Pekah the sonne of Remaliah to reigne ouer Israel in Samaria, [and reigned] twentie yere.

28 And he did euil in the sight of the Lord: [for] he departed not from the finnes of Ieroboam the sonne of Nebat, that made Israel to sinne.

29 In the dayes of Pékah King of Israél, came Tiglath Pileser King of Asshúr, and toke Ión, and Abél, Beth-maacháh, and Iánoah, and Kedésh, and Hazór, and Giléad, and Galiláh, [and] all the land of Naphtalí, and caried the away to Asshúr.

30 And Hoshéa the sonne of Eláh wrought treason against Pékah the sonne of Remaliáh, and smote him, and slewe him, and reigned in his steade in the twentie yere of Iothám the sonne of Vzziáh.

31 Concerning the rest of the actes of Pékah, and all that he did, beholde, they are written in the boke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israél.

32 ¶ In the seconde yere of Pékah the sonne of Remaliáh King of Israél, began Iothám sonne of Vzziáh King of Iudáh to reigne.

33 Fiue and twentie yere olde was he, whé he began to reigne, & he reigned sixtene yere in Ierusalém: and his mothers name was Ierushá the daughter of Zadók.

34 And he did vprightly in the fight of the Lord: he did according¹ to all that his father Vzziáh had done.

35 But the hie places were not put away: [for] the people yet offred and burnt incense in the sight of ² hie places: he buylt the hiest gate of the house of the Lord.

36 Concerning the rest of the actes of Iothám, and all that he did, are thei not written in the boke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Iudáh?

37 In ³ those dayes the Lord began to send against Iudáh Rezín the King of Arám, and Pékah the sonne of Remaliáh.

38 And Iothám slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the citie of Dauid his father, and Aház his sonne reigned in his steade.

1 THe seuententh yere of Pékah the sonne of Remaliáh, Aház the sonne of Iothám King of Iudáh began to reigne.

2 Twentie yere olde was Aház, when he began to reigne, and he reigned sixtene yere in Ierusalém, and did not vprightly in the fight of the Lord his God, like Dauid his father:

3 But walked in the way of the Kings of Israél, yea, & made his sonne to go thorow the fire, after the abominations of the heathen, whome the Lord had cast out before the children of Israél.

4 Also he offred and burnt incense in the hie places and on the hilles, and vnder euerie grene tre.

5 * Then Rezín King of Arám and Pékah sonne of Remaliáh King of Israél came vp to Ierusalém to fight: and they besieged Aház, but colde not ouercome⁴ him.

6 At the same time Rezín King of Arám restored⁵ Eláth to Arám, and droue the Iewes from Eláth: so the Aramites came to Eláth, and dwelt there vnto this day.

7 Then Aház sent⁶ messengers to Tiglath Pileser King of Asshúr, saying, I am thy seruant and thy sonne: come vp, and deliuer me out of the hand of the King of Arám, and out of the hand of the King of Israél which rise vp against me.

8 And Aház toke the siluer and the golde that was founde in the house of the Lord, and in the treasures of the Kings house, & sent a present vnto the King of Asshúr.

9 And the King of Asshúr consented vnto him: and the King of Asshúr went vp against Damascus, and when he had taken it, he caried the people away to Kir, and slewe Rezín.

10 And the King Aház went vnto Damascus to mete Tiglath Pileser King of Asshúr: and when King Aház sawe the altar that was at Damascus, he sent to Vriáh the Priest the patern of the altar, and the facion of it, and all the workmanship thereof.

11 And Vriáh the Priest made an altar sin all pointes like to that which King Aház had sent from Damascus, so did Vriáh the Priest against King Aház came from Damascus.

12 So when the King was come from Damascus, the King sawe the altar: & the King drewe nere to the altar and offred⁷ thereon.

13 And he burnt his burnt offering, and his meat offering, & powred his drinkoffring, and sprinkled the blood of his peace offerings besides the altar,

14 And [set it] by the brasen altar which was before the Lord, and broght it in farther before the house betwene the altar & the house of the Lord, and set it on the⁸ Northside of the altar.

15 And King Aház commadéd Vriáh the Priest and said, Vpon the great altar set on fyre in the morning the burnt offering, and in the euen the meat offering, and the Kings burnt offering and his meat offering, with the burnt offering of all the people of the land, and their meat offering, and their drinkofferings: and powre thereby all the blood of the burnt offering, & all the blood of the sacrifice, and the⁹ brasen altar shall

1 Hoshea King of Israel is taken. 4 And he and all his realm brought to the Assyrians, 18 For their idolatry. 24 Lions destroy the Assyrians that dwelt in Samaria. 29 Every one worshipeth the god of his nation, 35 Contrary to the commandement of God.

IN the twelfth yere of Aház King of Iudáh began Hoshéa the sonne of Elah to reigne in Samaria ouer Israël, [and reigned] nine yeres,

2 And he did euil in the sight of the Lord, but not as the Kings of Israël, that were before him.

3 And Shalmanésér King of Asshur came vp against him, and Hoshéa became his seruant, and gaue him presents.

4 And the King of Asshur founde treason in Hoshéa: for he had sent messengers to So King of Egypt, and brought no present vnto the King of Asshur, as [he had done] yere: therefore the King of Asshur shut him vp, and put him in prison.

5 The King of Asshur came vp through out all the land, and went against Samaria, and besieged it thre yere.

6 In the ninth yere of Hoshéa, the King of Asshur toke Samaria, and caryed Israël away vnto Asshur, and put them in Haláh, and in Habór by the riuer of Gozán, and in the cities of the Medes.

7 For when the children of Israël sinned against the Lord their God, which had brought them out of the land of Egypt, fro vnder the had of Pharaoh King of Egypt, and feared other gods,

8 And walked according to the facions of the heathē, whome the Lord had cast out before the childre of Israël, and [after the maners] of the Kings of Israël, which they vsed,

9 And the children of Israël had done secretly things that were not vpright before the Lord their God, and throughout all their cities had buyt hie places, [bothe] from the towre of the watche, to the defended citie,

10 And had made them images and groues vpō euerie hie hil, and vnder euerie grene tre,

11 And there burnt incense in all the hie places, as did the heathen, whome the Lord had taken away before them, and wrought wicked things to angre the Lord,

12 And serued idoles: whereof the Lord had said vnto them, * Ye shal do no such thing,

13 Notwithstanding the Lord testified to Israël, and to Iudáh by all the Prophetes, and by all the Seers, saying, * Turne from your euil wayes, and kepe my commandements [and] my statutes, according to all the Lawe, which I commanded your fathers, and which I sent to you by my seruants the Prophetes.

14 Neuertheles they wolde not obey, but hardened their neckes, like to the neckes of their fathers, that did not beleue in the Lord their God.

15 And they refused his statutes and his couenant, that he made with their fathers, & his testimonies (wherewith he witnessed vnto them) and they followed vanitie, & became vaine, and followed the heathen that were rounde about them: concerning whome, the Lord had charged them, that they shulde not do like them.

16 Finally they left the commandements of the Lord their God, and made the molten images, [euen] two calves, and made a groue, and worshiped all the hoste of heauen, and serued Baal.

17 And they made their sonnes and their daughters passe through the fyre, and vsed witchcraft and enchantments, yea, holde them selues to do euill in the sight of the Lord, to angre him.

18 Therefore the Lord was exceeding wroth with Israël, and put them out of his sight, [and] none was left but the tribe of Iudáh onely.

19 Yet Iudáh kept not the commandemēts of the Lord their God, but walked according to the facion of Israël, which they vsed.

20 Therefore the Lord cast of all the fede of Israël, and afflicted them, & deliuered them into the hands of spoylers, vntill he had cast them out of his sight.

22 For the children of Iſraél walked in all the ſinnes of Ieroboam, which he did, & departed not therefrom.

23 Vntil the Lord put Iſrael away out of his ſight, as he had ſaid by all his ſeruants the Prophetes, and caryed Iſrael away out of their land to Aſſhūr vnto this day.

24 And the King of Aſſhūr broght folke from Babel, and from Cuthah, and from Auai, and from Hamath, and from Sepharuaim, and placed them in the cities of Samaria in ſteade of the children of Iſraél ſo they poſſeſſed Samaria, and dwelt in the cities thereof.

25 And at the beginning of their dwelling there, they feared not the Lord: therefore the Lord ſent lyons among them, which ſlew them.

26 Wherefore they ſpake to the King of Aſſhūr, ſaying, The nations which thou haſt remoued, and placed in the cities of Samaria, know not the maner of the God of the land: therefore he hath ſent lyons among them, and beholde, they ſlay them, becauſe they know not the maner of the God of the land.

27 Then the King of Aſſhūr commanded, ſaying, Cary thither one of the prieſts, whome ye broght thence, and let him go and dwell there, and teache them the maner of the God of the country.

28 So one of the prieſts, which they had caryed from Samaria, came and dwelt in Beth-él, and taught them how they ſhulde feare the Lord.

29 Howbeit every nation made their gods, and put them in the houſes of the hie places, which the Samaritans had made, euerie nation in their cities, wherein they dwelt.

30 For the men of Babel made Succoth-Benoth: and the men of Cuth made Nergal, and the men of Hamath made Aſhim.

31 And the Auims made Nibhaz, and Tartak: and the Sepharuims burnt their children in the fyre to Adrammelech and Anammelech the gods of Sepharuaim.

32 Thus they feared the Lord, and appointed out prieſts out of them ſelues for the hie places, who prepared for them [ſacrifices] in the houſes of the hie places.

33 They feared the Lord, but ſerued their gods after the maner of the nations whome they caryed thence.

34 Vnto this day they do after the olde maner: they nether feare God, nether do after their ordinances nor after their cuſtomes, nor after the Lawe, nor after the cōmandement, which the Lord commanded the children of Iaakób, * whome he named Iſraél, 35 And with whome the Lord had made couenant, & charged them, ſaying, * Feare none other gods, nor bowe your ſelues to them, nor ſerue them, nor ſacrifice to them:

36 But feare the Lord which broght you out of the lād of Egypt with great power, and ſtretched out arme: him feare ye, & worſhip him, and ſacrifice to him.

37 Also kepe ye diligently the ſtatutes and the ordinances, and the Lawe, and the cōmandement, which he wrote for you, that ye do them continually, & feare not other gods.

38 And forget not the couenant that I haue made wth you, nether feare ye other gods, 39 But feare the Lord your God, and he wil deliuer you out of the hands of all your enemies.

40 Howbeit they obeyed not, but did after their olde cuſtome.

41 So theſe nations feared the Lord, and ſerued their images [alſo] ſo did their children, and their childrens children, as did their fathers, ſo do they vnto this day.

9 ¶ And in the fourte yere of King Hezekiah, (which was the seuenth yere of Hoshea sonne of Elah King of Israel) Shalmaneser King of Asshur came vp against Samaria, and besieged it.

10 And after thre yerres they toke it, [euen] in the sixt yere of Hezekiah: that is, * the ninth yere of Hoshea King of Israel was Samaria taken.

11 The King of Asshur did cary away Israel vnto Asshur, and put them in Halah and in Habor, [by] the riuer of Gozan, & in the cities of the Medes, 12 Because they wolde not obey the voyce of the Lord their God, but transgressed his couenant: [that is] all that Moyses the seruant of the Lord had commanded, & wolde nether obey nor do them.

13 ¶ Moreover, in the fourteenth yere of King Hezekiah Sancherib King of Asshur came vp against all the strong cities of Iudah, and toke them.

14 Then Hezekiah King of Iudah sent vnto the King of Asshur to Lachish, saying, I haue offended: departe from me, [and] what thou layest vpon me, I wil beare it. And the King of Asshur appointed vnto Hezekiah King of Iudah thre hundredth talents of siluer, and thirtie talents of golde.

15 Therefore Hezekiah gaue all the siluer that was founde in the house of the Lord, and in the treasures of the Kings house.

16 At the same season did Hezekiah pul of [the plates] of the dores of the Temple of the Lord, and the pillars (which the said Hezekiah King of Iudah had couered ouer) and gaue them to the King of Asshur.

17 ¶ And the King of Asshur sent Tartan, and Rab-saris, and Rabshakeh from Lachish to King Hezekiah with a great hoste against Ierusalem: And they went vp, and came to Ierusalem, & when they were come vp, they stode by the condite of the vpper poole, which is by the path of the fullers field, 18 And called to the King. The came out to them Eliakim the sonne of Hilkiah, & was stewarde of the house, and Shebnah the chancellor, and Ioah the sonne of Asaph the recorder.

19 And Rabshakeh said vnto them, Telye Hezekiah, I pray you, Thus sayth the great King, [euen] the great King of Asshur, What confidence is this wherein thou trustest

20 Thou thinkest, Surely I haue eloquence, [but] counsel and strength [are] for the warre. On whome then doest thou trust, that thou rebellest against me?

21 Lo, thou trustest now in this broke staffe of reede, [to wit,] on Egypt, on which if a man leane, it wil go into his hand, and perace it: so [is] Pharaoh King of Egypt vnto all that trust on him.

22 But if ye say vnto me, We trust in the Lord our God: is not that he whose hie places, and whose altars Hezekiah hath taken away, and hath said to Iudah and Ierusalem, Ye shal worship before this altar in Ierusalem?

23 Now therefore giue hostages to my lord the King of Asshur, and I wil giue thee two thousand horses, if thou be able to set riders vpon them.

24 For how canst thou despise any captaine of the least of my masters seruants, & put thy trust on Egypt for charrets and horsemen?

25 Am I now come vp without the lord to this place, to destroye it: the lord said to me, Go vp against this land, and destroy it.

26 Then Eliakim the sonne of Hilkiah and Shebnah, and Ioah said vnto Rabshakeh, speake, I pray thee, to thy seruants in the Aramites language, for we vnderstand it, and talke not with vs in the Iewes tongue, in the audience of the people that are on the wall.

27 But Rabshakeh said vnto the, Hath my master sent me to thy master and to thee to speake these wordes, and not to the men whiche sit on the wall, that they may eat their owne dounge, and drinke their owne pisse with you?

28 So Rabshakeh stode and cryed with a loud voyce in the Iewes language, and spake, saying, Heare the wordes of the great King, of the King of Asshur.

29 Thus sayth the King, Let not Hezekiah disceiue you: for he shal not be able to deliuer you out of mine hand.

30 Nether let Hezekiah make you to trust in the Lord, saying, The Lord wil surely deliuer vs, and this citie shal not be giuen ouer into the hand of the King of Asshur.

31 Harken not vnto Hezekiah: for thus saith the King of Asshur, Make t appointement with me, and come out to me, that euerie man may eat of his owne vine, and euerie man of his owne figtre, and drinke euerie man of the water of his owne well, 13 Hathe anie of the gods of the natiōs deliuered his land out of the hand of the King of Asshur?

34 Where is the god of Hamah, and of Arpad? where is the god of Sepharuaim, Hena and Iuah? how haue they deliuered Samaria out of mine hand?

35 Who are they among al the gods of the natiōs, that haue deliuered their land out of mine hand, that the^m Lord shulde deliuer Ierusalem out of mine hands?

36 But the people held their peace, & answered not him a worde: for y^e Kings cōmādemēt was, sayig, Answer ye him not.

37 Then Eliakim, the sonne of Hilkiah w^{as} steward of the house, & Shebnah the chāceller, & Ioah the sonne of Asaph y^e recorder came to Hezekiah wth their clothes rent, & tolde hi the wordes of Rabshakēh.

CHAP. XIX.

God promisseth by Isaiāh victorie to Hezekiah. 35 The Angel of the Lord killeth an hundred and foure score and siue thousand men of the Assyrians. 37 Saneherib is killed of his owne sonnes.

ANd w^{hē} Kig Hezekiah heard it, he rent his clothes & put on sackcloth, & came into the house of the Lord, And sent Eliakim which was y^e steward of the house, and Shebnah the chancellor, and the Elders of the Priests clothed in sackcloth: to Isaiāh the Prophet the sōne of Amōz.

38 And they said vnto him, Thus sayth Hezekiah, This day is a day of tribulation & of rebuke, and blasphemie: for y^e children are come to^b the birth, and there is no strength to bring forth.

39 If so be the Lord thy God hathe heard all the wordes of Rabshakēh, whome the King of Asshur his master hathe set to raile on the liuing God, and to reproche him with wordes which the Lord thy God hathe heard, then lift thou vp [thy] prayer for the remnant that are left.

40 So the seruants of King Hezekiah came to Isaiāh.

41 And Isaiāh said vnto them, So shal ye say to your master, Thus sayth the Lord, Be not afrayed of the wordes which thou hast heard wherewith the seruants of the King of Asshur haue blasphemed me.

42 Beholde, I wil send a blast vpon him, & he shal heare a noyse, & returne to his owne land: & I wil cause him to fall vpon the sworde in his owne land.

43 So Rabshakēh returned, & founde y^e Kig of Asshur fighting against Libnah: for he had heard y^e he was departed fro Lachish.

44 He heard also men say of Tirhakah King of Ethiopia, Beholde, he is come out to fight against thee: he therefore departed, and sent [other] messengers vnto Hezekiah, sayig,

10 Thus shal ye speake to Hezekiah King of Iudāh, and say, Let not this^s God disceiue thee in whome thou trustest, saying, Ierusalem shal not be deliuered into the hand of the King of Asshur.

11 Beholde, y^e hast heard what the Kings of Asshur haue done to al lāds, how thei haue destroyed the^m: & shalt thou be deliuered?

12 Haue the gods of the heathen deliuered them which my fathers haue destroyed? [as] Gozan, and Haran, and Rezeph, and the children of Eden, w^h were in Thelasar?

13 Where is the King of Hamah, and the King of Arpad, and the King of the cite of Sepharuaim, Hena and Iuah?

14 So Hezekiah receiued the letter of the hand of the messengers, and red it: and Hezekiah wet vp into the house of the Lord, and Hezekiah spred it before the^h Lord.

15 And Hezekiah prayed before y^e Lord and said, O Lord God of Israel, w^h dwellest betwene the Cherubims, thou art very God alone ouer all the kingdomes of the earth: y^e hast made the heauē & the earth.

16 Lord bowe downe thine eare, & heare: Lord open thine eyes and beholde, & heare the wordes of Saneherib, who hathe sent to blaspheme the^h liuing God.

17 Truth it is, Lord, y^e the Kings of Asshur haue destroyed the nations & their lands.

18 And haue set fyre on their gods: for they were no gods, but the worke of mans hāds [euē] wood and stone: therefore they destroyed them.

19 Now therefore, O Lord our God, I beseeche thee, saue thou vs out of his hand, that all the^m Kingdomes of the earth may knowe, that thou, O Lord, art onely God.

20 Then Isaiāh the sōne of Amōz set to Hezekiah, sayig, Thus sayth y^e Lord God of Israel, I haue heard that w^h thou hast prayed me, cōcernig Saneherib Kig of Asshur.

21 This is the worde that the Lord hathe spoken against him, O^e virgine, daughter of Zion, he hathe despised thee, [and] laughed thee to scorne: O daughter of Ierusalem, he hathe shaken his head at thee.

22 Whome hast thou railed on? & whome hast thou blasphemed? & against whome hast thou exalted thy voyce, and lifted vp thine eyes on hie: [euē] against the Holy one of Israel.

23 By thy messengers thou hast railed on the Lord, and said, By the multitude of my charrets I am come vp to the top of y^e mountaynes, by the sides of Lebanon, and wil cut downe the hie ceders thereof, and the Shew by effect that thou wilt not suffer thy name to be blasphemed. By this title he discerneth God from all idols and false gods.

He sheweth for what end y^e faithful desire of god to be deliuered: to wit, y^e he may be glorified by their deliuerance.

Because as yet Ierusalem had not bene taken by the enemy, therefore he calleth her virgine.

God cōfesseth that iniurie done to him, and will reuenge, which is done to anie of his Sanctes.

24 I haue digged, and dronke the waters

haue I dried all the floods closed in.

25 Hast thou not heard, how I haue of olde time made it, and haue formed it long ago: & shulde I now bring it, that it shulde be destroyed, [and layed] on ruinous heapes, [as] cities defensed.

again the same way thou camest.

29 And this shal be a signe vnto thee, [o Hezekiah,] Thou shalt eat this yere suche things as growe of them selues, & the next yere suche as growe without sowing, and the third yere sowe ye and reape, & plant vineyardes, and eat the frutes thereof.

30 And the remnant that is escaped of the house of Iudah, shal againe take roote downe wards, and beare frute vpwarde.

31 For out of Ierusalem shal go a remnant, & some that shal escape out of mount Zion:
the zeale of y Lord of hostes shal do this.

32 Wherefore thus saith the Lord, concerning the King of Asshur, He shal not entre into this citie, nor shote an arrow there, nor come before it with shield, nor cast a mount against it.

33 But he shal returne the way he came, & shal not come into this citie, saith y Lord.

34 For I wil defend this citie to saue it for mine owne sake, & for Dauid my seruants sake.

35 ¶ And the same night the Angel of the Lord went out and smote in the campe of Asshur an hundredth foure score and syue thousand: so whē they rose early in the morning, beholde, they were all dead corpses.

36 So Saneherib King of Asshur departed, and went his way, and returned, and dwelt in Niniueh.

37 And as he was in the temple worshiping Nisroch his god, Adramelech and Sinarzen his sonnes, slewe him with the sworde: and they escaped into the land of Araar, & Esarhaddon his sonne reigned in his steade.

1. Hezekiah is sicke, and receiveth the signe of his health.
2. He receiveth rewardes of Berodach. 3. Sheweth his treasures, and is reprehended of Isaiah. 4. He dyeth, and Manasseh his sonne reigneth in his steade.

¶ About that time was Hezekiah sicke vnto death: and the Prophet Isaiah the sonne of Amoz came to him, & said vnto him, Thus saith y Lord, Put thine house in an ordre, for thou shalt dye, & not liue.

2 Then he turned his face to the wall, and prayed to the Lord, saying,

3 I beseeche thee, o Lord, remeber now, how I haue walked before thee in truth, & w a perfect heart, & haue done that which is good in thy sight: & Hezekiah wept sore.

¶ And afore Isaiah was gone out into y middle of the court, the word of the Lord came to him, saying,

5 Turne againe, and tel Hezekiah the captaine of my people, Thus saith the Lord God of Dauid thy father, I haue heard thy prayer, [and] sene thy teares: beholde,

I haue healed thee, [and] the third day thou shalt go vp to the house of the Lord.

6 And I wil adde vnto thy dayes fiftene yere, and wil deliuer thee and this citie out of the hand of the King of Asshur, and wil defend this citie for mine owne sake, and for Dauid my seruants sake.

7 Then Isaiah said, Take a lompe of drye
